Item 5. Other Events.

Unless the context requires otherwise, references to we and our are intended to mean consolidated AGL Resources Inc. and its subsidiaries (AGL Resources). On March 19, 2003, we filed our 2002 Form 10-K with the SEC. On March 28, 2003, the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) Regulation G (Item 10(e) of Regulation S-K) became effective, governing the use of financial measures that are not prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Item 6, Selected Financial Data and Item 8, Financial Statements and Supplementary Data (Financial Statements) sections of our 2002 Form 10-K included the non-GAAP financial measures of core earnings, core earnings per share and Earnings Before Interest and Taxes (EBIT).

Core earnings and core earnings per share are non-GAAP financial measures of net income, excluding significant gains and losses on the sale or disposal of assets and one time adjustments which include charges associated with our corporate reorganization, marketer billing issues and write-down of impaired assets. We believe these financial measures help investors in evaluating our recurring operational performance.

Our investors should not consider these non-GAAP financial measures an alternative to, or a more meaningful indicator of our operating performance than, operating income or net income as determined in accordance with GAAP. In addition, these non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of another company.

In accordance with Regulation G, attached as Exhibit 99.1 and 99.2 and incorporated into this Item 5 by reference are our audited financial statements with the non-GAAP financial measure EBIT removed from our statements of consolidated income; and reconciliations of the non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures included in our Selected Financial Data section in our 2002 Form 10-K.
