6.2.3 certified true copies of the minutes of Party B's board of directors and shareholders approving this Agreement and all matters herein contemplated and the transfer and assignment of its Customer Sales Contracts to the JV;

6.2.4 written confirmation that none of Party B are aware of any matter or thing which is in breach of or inconsistent with any of the representations, warranties and undertakings herein contained;

6.2.5 such other papers and documents as Party A reasonably require;

6.2.6 approve and authorize the execution of such documents and/or deeds as Party A may reasonably request in order to facilitate the transactions contemplated herein or necessary to complete the transactions herein;

CHAPTER 7: TRANSFER, INCREASE OR DECREASE OF THE REGISTERED CAPITAL

Right of first refusal:

7.1 No shareholder in the JV shall transfer all or part of its shares to a third party without the other shareholder's consent. Any such transfer shall be subject to the following procedures:

CUSIP No. 69511V207

(A) In the event that one shareholder intends to sell or transfer its contribution to the registered capital of the Joint Venture to a third party, it shall first notify the other shareholders and offer to sell on the same terms and conditions as are offered to the third party, which terms and conditions shall be set forth in writing, and the other shareholders shall have the right to acquire and purchase such contribution to the registered capital on such terms and conditions in proportion to their share ownership percentage.

(B) In the event that the other shareholders shall have failed to accept such offer within fifteen (15) days after its receipt of the written offer, the offering shareholder shall be free to transfer the contribution to the said third party on the terms and conditions originally offered.

(C) If no such transfer is made within ninety (90) days after expiry of the foregoing fifteen (15) day period, then the procedures set forth in this Clause must be complied with again before any transfer to a third party (including the above-said third party to which the offer was previously made) may be made.

Any transfer or assignment made by one shareholder in violation of the above procedures shall be deemed null and void.

Any transfer by a shareholder of all or part of its contribution to the registered capital of the Joint Venture to a third party consistent with the foregoing procedures shall further require the unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and the approval of the examination and approval authorities of the Joint Venture. Such transfer shall only become effective on the date when the examination and approval authorities grant the approval thereof.

Notwithstanding the procedures set forth above, if one shareholder wishes to transfer its shares of the Joint Venture to its affiliate, the other shareholders shall promptly give consent to such proposed transfer and waive the right of first refusal. "Affiliate" shall mean any company which, through ownership of voting stock or otherwise, is controlled by, under common control with, or in control of, a Party; "control" shall mean ownership, directly or indirectly, of more than fifty percent (50%) of the securities having the right to vote for the election of directors in the case of a corporation, and more than fifty percent (50%) of the beneficial interests in the capital in the case of a business entity other than a corporation.

For any transfer that is consistent with the foregoing provisions, all shareholders shall immediately and jointly cause the Board of Directors and the directors appointed by them respectively to approve such transfer and sign any and all documents and take any and all actions that are necessary to effect such transfer.

7.2 Any increase or decrease of the registered capital, or change of the share ownership percentage, shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER 8: RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

8.1 Both Parties shall use their best endeavors to support and assist the Joint Venture in achieving its business objectives.

- (7) the annual profit distribution plans;
- (8) development plans of the Joint Venture and investment plans involving more than USD$300,000;
- (9) other matters for which the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors shall be required.

Board resolutions concerning any issues other than those major issues enumerated in this Clause 9.6 shall require a simple majority vote of all the directors or their proxies present at the Board meeting.

9.7 The Joint Venture shall establish an operation and management structure to be responsible for the daily operation and management of the Joint Venture. Such structure shall include one (1) General Manager, recommended by Party A, and one (1) Vice General Manager, recommended by Party B. Both the General Manager and the Vice General Manager shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, and shall serve a term of one (1) year. The General Manager and Vice General Manager may be removed and replaced by the Board of Directors at any time with a resolution. Other managerial personnel shall be appointed by the General Manager.

9.8 The task of the General Manager shall be to carry out the various resolutions of the Board of Directors and organize and direct the daily operation and management of the Joint Venture. The Vice General Manager shall assist the General Manager in his work, and shall serve as the acting General Manager should the General Manager be unable to exercise his responsibilities. The General Manager shall consult with, and obtain the consent of, the Vice General Manager before making decisions on all major business matters of the Joint Venture. The operation and management structure may consist of certain departments, the managers for which shall be responsible for the work of the relevant departments, handle matters delegated by the General Manager and the Vice General Manager, and report to the General Manager and the Vice General Manager.

9.9 In the event of graft or serious dereliction of duty, the General Manager and the Vice General Manager may be removed and replaced by the Board of Directors with a resolution at any time.

CHAPTER 10: LABOR MANAGEMENT

10.1 The General Manager shall prepare plans for the employment, dismissal, wages, labor protection, welfare, rewards and punishments and other matters of the employees of the Joint Venture in accordance with the Labor Law of the Macao SAR and other relevant regulations, and shall implement such plans as approved by the Board of Directors.

10.2 Labor contracts entered into between the Joint Venture and its employees shall be filed with the local labor management authorities for record.

10.3 The employment, wages and compensation, social insurance, welfare, travel and lodging expenses and other matters of senior managerial personnel recommended by Party A and Party B shall be discussed and determined by the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER 11: TAXES, FINANCIAL MATTERS AND AUDITING

11.1 The Joint Venture shall pay taxes and be entitled to various tax reductions and exemptions in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the Macao SAR.

11.2 The fiscal year of the Joint Venture shall commence on January 1, and end on December 31, of each year.

11.3 Within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter of a year, the Joint Venture shall provide the balance sheet for such quarter to each of Parties and each director. Each of the Parties and each director shall also have the right to make inquiries to the Joint Venture from time to time as to the operational and financial status, and shall be entitled to receive written replies thereto from the Joint Venture.

11.4 A Macao registered accountant shall be engaged to audit the financial matters of the Joint Venture and shall provide a report of such audit to the Board of Directors and the General Manager. If either party deems it necessary to engage an accounting institution or CPA licensed in the USA to audit the financial matters of the Joint Venture, the Joint Venture shall consent to such audit.

11.5 All foreign exchange matters shall be dealt with in accordance with the Regulations of the Macao SAR and relevant regulations.

CHAPTER 12: SHARING OF PROFITS AND LOSSES

12.1 The profits of the Joint Venture remaining thereafter shall be distributed to the Parties in proportion to the ratio of their contributions to the registered capital of the Joint Venture.

12.2 Party A and Party B agree that, in order to support the development of the Joint Venture, no profits of the Joint Ventures shall be distributed within two (2) years after the establishment of the Joint Venture.

CHAPTER 13: AMENDMENT TO AND TERMINATION OF THIS CONTRACT

13.1 No amendment to this Contract, including its Appendices, shall be effective unless a written agreement or an appendix hereto has been approved by the board of directors of the JV.

13.2 The Joint Venture may be terminated under any of the following circumstances, subject to the approval of the examination and approval authorities:

- (A) The Board may decide to terminate the Joint Venture at any time if:
 - (i) the Joint Venture is unable to continue operations due to the failure of one of the Parties to perform its obligations under this Contract;
 - (ii) the Joint Venture is unable to continue operations due to potential or actual heavy losses caused by Force Majeure;
 - (iii) the Joint Venture is unable to achieve its intended objectives and there is no reasonable prospect for favorable development in this regard; or

(iv) any other circumstances as deemed appropriate by the Board.

(B) The Board may pass a resolution to terminate the Joint Venture upon the agreement of both Parties.

13.3 Either Party shall have the right to terminate this Contract upon giving written notice to the other Party in the event that any of the followings shall have occurred:

- (i) the other Party shall have been in material breach of its obligations under this Contract and shall have failed to cure such breach within sixty (60) days after its receipt of written notice of such breach from the terminating Party;
- (ii) performance by the other Party of its obligations under this Contract shall have been prevented for a period in excess of six (6) months by reason of an event or circumstance of Force Majeure;
- (iii) the Joint Venture shall have become insolvent, or a petition or proceedings of any kind as to its bankruptcy shall have been filed or commenced, or any proceedings shall have been commenced for its dissolution or winding up;
- (iv) any applicable law or government authority requires any term or condition of this Contract to be revised in such a manner so as to cause significant adverse consequences to the operation of the Joint Venture; or
- (v) any approval, license or permit applied for by the Joint Venture, and which is of fundamental importance to the operation of the Joint Venture, is not granted by the relevant government authority, or having been granted, is subsequently revoked or canceled.

13.4 The early termination of this Contract by either Party in accordance with this foregoing provisions shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of either Party on the date of such termination, and any other rights or remedies under this Contract or under law, except any such rights which shall have been waived in writing by the respective Parties.

13.5 Upon dissolution of the Joint Venture, the Board of Directors shall work out procedures and principles for the liquidation, nominate candidates for the liquidation committee, and supervise the liquidation.

CUSIP No. 69511V207

13.6 Upon completion of liquidation pursuant to relevant Macao SAR regulations, the liquidation committee shall submit a liquidation report to the Board of Directors for approval, submit the same to the original examination and approval authorities for approval, go through the formalities for canceling its registration with the original registration authorities, and return its business license for cancellation.

13.7 The properties of the Joint Venture remaining after its liquidation shall be distributed in proportion to the ratio the Parties' respective contributions to the registered capital of the Joint Venture.

13.8 After the dissolution of the Joint Venture, its account books and various documents shall be retained by Party A.

CHAPTER 14: FORCE MAJEURE

14.1 "Force Majeure" shall mean any event, not existing as of the date of this Contract and not reasonably foreseeable or within the control of the Parties as of such date, which prevents, in whole or part, the performance by one of the Parties of its obligations hereunder or makes the performance of such obligations commercially unreasonable, including, without limitation, acts of state or governmental action, crisis, war, and natural catastrophe.

14.2 If due to any event or circumstance of Force Majeure, either Party is unable to fulfill any or all of its obligations under this Contract, such Party shall not be considered to be in default under this Contract, but shall continue to fulfill its other obligations hereunder that are not affected by the event or circumstance of Force Majeure. The period allowed for the performance of the obligations affected by the event or circumstance of Force Majeure shall automatically be extended for a period equal to the period during which the Force Majeure continues.

14.3 Either Party shall promptly inform the other Party of the event or circumstance constituting Force Majeure and, within thirty (30) days thereof, shall provide all relevant details and appropriate proof of the occurrence and duration of such event.

14.4 The Party claiming Force Majeure shall use all reasonable efforts to overcome the delay caused by the event or circumstance of Force Majeure. Subject to the provisions of Clause 13.2 (A), the Board shall meet and decide, based on the extent and nature of the effect such event or circumstance may be expected to have on the performance of the Contract, whether or not the Contract should be terminated and, if not, whether other performance under the Contract which is not directly affected by the event or circumstance of Force Majeure should be postponed.

CHAPTER 15: SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

15.1 The formation of this Contract and its Appendices and related agreements, and the validity, interpretation, performance and settlement of disputes thereof shall be governed by the laws of the Macao SAR and the laws of Delaware USA.

15.2 Any disputes arising out of or in connection with this Contract shall be resolved through friendly consultations by the Parties; if no agreement can be reached through consultations within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of such dispute, either Party shall have the right to submit such dispute to the International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission Hong Kong Branch for arbitration in Hong Kong in accordance with its procedures of arbitration. The arbitral award shall be final and binding upon both Parties.

CHAPTER 16: CONFIDENTIALITY

16.1 Each Party may have received from the other Party prior to the conclusion of this Contract, and may from time to time during the term of this Contract receive from the other Party or the Joint Venture, information which is confidential or proprietary ("Confidential Information") to the disclosing Party or to the Joint Venture.

CHAPTER 17: EFFECTIVENESS AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

17.1 Any appendix hereto that is signed based on the various principles set forth in this Contract, including the Joint Venture Articles of Association and related agreements, shall constitute an integral part of this Contract. If there is any conflict between any appendix hereto and the provisions of this Contract, this Contract shall prevail.

17.2 Any notice from one Party to the other shall be sent in writing or by
