P & F INDUSTRIES, INC.

300 Smith Street
Farmingdale, New York 11735

PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of P & F Industries, Inc. (the "Company") to be used at the meeting of stockholders of the Company (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Wednesday, May 26, 2004 at 10:00 A.M., at the Huntington Hilton Hotel, 598 Broad Hollow Road, Melville, New York, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. If the enclosed form of proxy is executed and returned, it may nevertheless be revoked at any time before it is exercised, either in person at the Annual Meeting or by written notice or by a duly executed proxy, bearing a later date, sent to the Secretary of the Company. The Company anticipates mailing this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy to stockholders on or about April 26, 2004.

As of April 16, 2004, there were 3,516,631 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, $1.00 par value (the "Class A Common Stock"), outstanding. Each share of Class A Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Only holders of record of Class A Common Stock at the close of business on April 16, 2004 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. The Company will bear the cost of the Annual Meeting and the cost of soliciting proxies, including the cost of mailing the proxy material. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and regular employees of the Company (who will not be specifically compensated for such service) may solicit proxies by telephone or otherwise.

All proxies received pursuant to this solicitation will be voted, except as to matters where authority to vote is specifically withheld and, where a choice is specified as to the proposal, such proxies will be voted in accordance with such specification. If no instructions are given, the persons named in the proxies solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company intend to vote for the nominees for election as directors of the Company set forth herein and for the confirmation of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as independent certified public accountants of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004. If any other matter should be presented at the Annual Meeting upon which a vote may properly be taken, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted with respect thereto in the discretion of the person or persons holding such proxy.

For purposes of determining whether a proposal has received the required number of votes for approval, abstentions will be included in the vote totals with the result that an abstention will have the same effect as a negative vote. In instances where nominee recordholders, such as brokers, are prohibited from exercising discretionary authority for beneficial owners of shares of Class A Common Stock who have not returned a proxy ("broker non-votes"), those shares of Class A Common Stock will not be included in the vote totals and, therefore, will have no effect on the vote. If a quorum should not be present, the Annual Meeting may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

As permitted by Delaware law, the Board of Directors is divided into three classes, the classes being divided as equally as possible and each class having a term of three years. Each year the term of office of one class expires. A director elected to fill a vacancy, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors, serves for the remaining term of the class in which the vacancy exists. The Board of Directors presently consists of ten members, with two classes consisting of three directors and one class consisting of four directors.

During 2004, the term of a class consisting of three directors expires. Management proposes that Messrs. Richard A. Horowitz, Alan I. Goldberg and Robert M. Steinberg, whose terms of office expire in 2004, be re-elected as directors to serve for terms to expire at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Unless otherwise indicated, the enclosed proxy will be voted for the election of such nominees. Should any of these nominees become unable to serve for any reason or, for good cause, will not serve, which is not anticipated, the Board of Directors may, unless the Board of Directors by resolution provides for a lesser number of directors, designate substitute nominees, in which event the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote for the election of such substitute nominee or nominees.

Directors will be elected by the plurality vote of the holders of the Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and present in person or by proxy.

The Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that Stockholders Vote FOR the Foregoing Nominees.

During 2003, the Board of Directors held four meetings. No director attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and all committees on which he served. During 2003, the Board of Directors had an Audit Committee and a Stock Option Committee. On March 9, 2004, the Board of Directors created a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Solomon (Chairman) and Goldberg and the current members of the Nominating Committee are Messrs. Goldberg (Chairman) and Dubofsky.

During 2003, the members of the Audit Committee were Messrs. Dubofsky, Goldberg and Kalick and the members of the Stock Option Committee were Messrs. Goldberg and Kalick. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Franklin (Chairman), Goldberg and Solomon and the current members of the Stock Option Committee are Messrs. Franklin and Goldberg. Each member of the Audit Committee has been determined by the Board of Directors to meet the standards for independence required of audit committee members by the NASDAQ listing standards and applicable Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules. For more information on the NASDAQ standards for independence, see "Corporate Governance Director Independence" in this Proxy Statement. The Board of Directors has further determined that (i) all members of the Audit Committee are able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement, and (ii) Jeffrey D. Franklin is an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of applicable SEC rules. The Audit Committee appoints the Company's independent auditors, reviews the overall scope and the results of the Company's annual audit and reviews the Company's overall internal controls. During 2003, the Audit Committee held five meetings, four of which were attended by the Company's independent auditors, to discuss the scope and results of the annual audit, quarterly reviews and issues of accounting policy and internal controls. The Stock Option Committee administers the Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Option Committee did not meet during 2003.

Upon election to the Board of Directors, each director who is not an employee of the Company receives an option to purchase 2,000 shares of Class A Common Stock. Directors who are also officers of the Company are not compensated for their duties as directors.

Board of Directors' Affiliations

Mr. Novikoff is a Partner in the law firm of Willkie Farr & Gallagher, which provided legal services to the Company during 2003.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company operates within a comprehensive plan of corporate governance for the purpose of defining independence, assigning responsibilities, setting high standards of professional and personal conduct and assuring compliance with such responsibilities and standards. The Company regularly monitors developments in the area of corporate governance. In July, 2002, Congress passed the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, which, among other things, established, or provided the basis for, a number of new corporate governance standards and disclosure requirements. In addition, the NASDAQ has recently adopted changes to its corporate governance and listing requirements.

Director Independence

The standards relied upon by the Board of Directors in affirmatively determining whether a director is "independent," in compliance with NASDAQ rules, are comprised, in part, of those objective standards set forth in the NASDAQ rules, which generally provide that the following persons shall not be considered independent: (a) a director who is, or at any time during the past three years was, employed by the company or a parent or subsidiary of the company; (b) a director who accepted or who has a family member (defined as a person's spouse, parents, children and siblings, whether by blood, marriage or adoption, or anyone residing in such person's home) who accepted any payments from the company or any parent or subsidiary of the company in excess of $60,000 during the current or any of the past three years (other than certain permitted payments); (c) a director who is a family member of an individual who is, or at any time during the past three years was, employed by the company or by any parent or subsidiary of the company as an executive officer; (d) a director who is, or has a family member who is, a partner in, or a controlling shareholder or an executive officer of, any organization to which the company made, or from which the company received, payments for property or services in the current or any of the past three fiscal years that exceed 5% of the recipient's consolidated gross revenues for that year, or $200,000, whichever is more (other than certain permitted payments); (e) a director of the listed company who is, or has a family member who is, employed as an executive officer of another entity where at any time during the past three years any of the executive officers of the listed company serve on the compensation committee of such other entity; or (f) a director who is, or has a family member who is, a current partner of the company's outside auditor, or was a partner or employee of the company's outside auditor who worked on the company's audit at any time during any of the past three years. In addition to these objective standards and in compliance with NASDAQ rules, no director will be considered independent who has a relationship which, in the opinion of the company's board of directors, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. The Board of Directors exercises appropriate discretion in identifying and evaluating any such relationship.

The Board of Directors, in applying the above-referenced standards and after considering all of the relevant facts and circumstances, has affirmatively determined that the Company's current "independent" directors are: Robert L. Dubofsky, Jeffrey D. Franklin, Alan I Goldberg, Mitchell A. Solomon, Robert M. Steinberg, Neil Novikoff and Marc A. Uday.

Independent Directors

A majority of the members of the Company's Board of Directors have been determined to meet the NASDAQ's standards for independence. See "Director Independence" above.

The Company's independent directors shall hold annually at least two formal meetings independent from management. The independent directors will choose a director to preside at non-management sessions of the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee

All members of the Audit Committee have been determined to meet the standards of independence required of audit committee members by the NASDAQ and applicable SEC rules. See "Director Independence" above.

In accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC, the above paragraph regarding the independence of the members of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the SEC or subject to Regulations 14A or 14C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act and shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, notwithstanding any general incorporation by reference of this Proxy Statement into any other filed document.

The Board of Directors has determined that Jeffrey D. Franklin is an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of applicable SEC rules.

BDO Seidman, LLP, the Company's independent auditors, reports directly to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee, consistent with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules adopted thereunder, meets with management and the Company's independent auditors prior to the filing of officers' certifications with the SEC to receive information concerning, among other things, significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting.

The Audit Committee has adopted procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints by Company employees regarding the Company's accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters.

The Audit Committee operates under a formal charter adopted by the Board of Directors that governs its duties and standards of performance. The charter is reproduced as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Copies of the charter can be obtained free of charge from the Company's Web site at www.pfina.com.

Compensation Committee

All members of the Compensation Committee have been determined to meet the NASDAQ standards for independence. See "Director Independence" above. Further, each member of the Compensation Committee is a "Non-Employee Director" as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act.

The Compensation Committee operates under a formal charter adopted by the Board of Directors that governs its duties and standards of performance. The charter is reproduced as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement. Copies of the charter can be obtained free of charge from the Company's Web site at www.pfina.com.

Nominating Committee

All members of the Nominating Committee have been determined to meet the NASDAQ standards for independence. See "Director Independence" above.

The Nominating Committee recommends to the Board of Directors as director nominees individuals of established personal and professional integrity, ability and judgment, who are chosen with the primary goal of ensuring that the entire Board of Directors collectively serves the interests of the Company's stockholders. Due consideration is given to assessing the qualifications of potential nominees and any potential conflicts with the Company's interests. The Nominating Committee also assesses the contributions of the Company's incumbent directors in connection with their potential re-nomination. In identifying and recommending director nominees, the Committee members take into account such factors as they determine appropriate, including recommendations made by the Board of Directors.

Once the Nominating Committee has identified prospective nominees, background information is elicited about the candidates, following which they are interviewed and evaluated by the Committee, which then reports to the Board of Directors.

The Nominating Committee operates under a formal charter adopted by the Board of Directors that governs its duties and standards of performance. The charter is reproduced as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement. Copies of the charter can be obtained free of charge from the Company's Web site at www.pfina.com.

The Nominating Committee does not consider individuals nominated by stockholders for election to the Board. However, the Company's By-Laws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of stock having a preference over the Class A Common Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, nominations for the election of directors may be made by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors at a meeting may nominate persons for election as directors only if written notice of such stockholder's intent to make such nomination is given, either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal place of business (300 Smith Street, Farmingdale, New York 11735) not later than (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, not more than 180 or less than 120 days in advance of the date of the Company's proxy statement released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting; and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors, the close of business on the seventh day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to stockholders. Each such notice shall set forth: (a) the name and address as they appear in the Company's books of the stockholder who intends to make the nomination;

Edgar Filing: P&F INDUSTRIES INC - Form DEF 14A

(b) the name and address of the person or persons to be nominated; (c) a representation of the stockholder listing the class and number of shares of stock of the Company beneficially held by him or her and that he or she intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (d) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; (e) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such stockholder as would have been required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to Schedule 14A of the Exchange Act had each nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the Board of Directors; and (f) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected. The chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure. See "Stockholder Nominations for Board Membership and Other Proposals for 2005 Annual Meeting."

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is designed to help officers, directors and employees resolve ethical issues in an increasingly complex business environment. The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is applicable to all of the Company's officers, directors and employees, including the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller and other persons performing similar functions. The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics covers topics, including but not limited to, conflicts of interest, confidentiality of information and compliance with laws and regulations.

Waivers from the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are discouraged. Any waivers from the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that relate to the Company's directors and executive officers must be approved by the Board of Directors, and will be posted on the Company's Web site at www.pfina.com.

The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is reproduced as Appendix D to this Proxy Statement. Copies of the Code can be obtained free of charge from the Company's Web site at www.pfina.com.

Directors' Attendance at Annual Meetings of Stockholders

It is the policy of Company's Board of Directors to expect that all directors attend annual meetings of stockholders except where the failure to attend is due to unavoidable circumstances or conflicts discussed in advance by the director with the Chairman of the Board. All members of the Board of Directors who were then directors attended the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Communication With the Board of Directors

Any stockholder or interested party who wishes to communicate with the Board of Directors, or specific individual directors, including the Chairman of the non-management directors or the non-management directors as a group, may do so by directing a written request addressed to such directors or director in care of the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, P&F Industries, Inc., 300 Smith Street, Farmingdale, New York 11735. Communication(s) directed to members of the Board of Directors who are not non-management directors will be relayed to the intended Board member(s) except to the extent that it is deemed unnecessary or inappropriate to do so pursuant to the procedures established by a majority of the independent directors. Communications directed to non-management directors will be relayed to the intended Board member(s) except to the extent that doing so would be contrary to the instructions of the non-management directors. Any communication so withheld will nevertheless be made available to any non-management director who wishes to review it.

Employment Agreement with Executive Officer

Effective as of May 30, 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement (the "Horowitz Employment Agreement") with Richard A. Horowitz. The Horowitz Employment Agreement provides for Richard Horowitz to serve as President of the Company for a term expiring on May 30, 2008, unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Horowitz Employment Agreement. Pursuant to the Horowitz Employment Agreement, Richard Horowitz will receive a minimum annual salary of $675,000. Mr. Horowitz is also eligible to receive such increases in base compensation as the Board of Directors may from time to time grant to him and to receive such bonuses as the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may allocate to him. Mr. Horowitz will receive an annual salary of $820,000 for the year ending December 31, 2004. In the event of a "discharge" following a "change in control" of the Company (as each term is defined in the Horowitz Employment Agreement) Richard Horowitz will receive his annual salary and all benefits to which he is entitled under the Horowitz Employment Agreement for the remainder of the term thereof or a lump sum severance allowance in an amount equal to 2.99 times his "annualized includable compensation for the base period" (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended).

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Prior to the creation of the Compensation Committee on March 12, 2004, the Company did not have a compensation committee and the Board of Directors reviewed the annual compensation of the Company's executive officers. Each executive officer's compensation includes base salary and a performance bonus. The Company also seeks to incentivise and reward its executive officers and to align their financial interests with those of the Company's stockholders through equity awards under the Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

In determining the executive officers' base salary for the ensuing fiscal year, the Board of Directors considers each individual officer's prior job performance and level of responsibility, prior years' compensation, number of years of employment with the Company and the rate of inflation. Mr. Horowitz's and Mr. Molino's base salary increased by 7% for 2003. These increases were based on a subjective evaluation of the performance of Mr. Horowitz and Mr. Molino during the prior year.

In 2001, the Company established the P&F Industries, Inc. Executive Incentive Bonus Plan (the "Incentive Bonus Plan"). Pursuant to the Incentive Bonus Plan, each participant is entitled to a cash bonus based upon a percentage of the pre-tax profits of the Company for an award period as set forth in the Incentive Bonus Plan. For the year ended December 31, 2003, Messrs. Horowitz and Molino were awarded bonuses of $580,276 and $122,178, respectively, under the Incentive Bonus Plan.

The Stock Option Committee periodically grants stock options to executive officers and other key employees as part of the Company's overall executive compensation program. When granting options to executive officers, the Stock Option Committee considers the total number of shares available under the Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan, the number of options previously granted to such officers and Company and individual performance. However, no specific corporate or individual performance factors are used. During 2003, no options were granted by the Stock Option Committee.

The Board of Directors believes that in order to compete effectively with other similarly situated companies in the acquisition and retention of top executive talent, the Company must have the flexibility to pay compensation that may not be fully deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. During 2003, Mr. Horowitz's cash compensation exceeded the deductible amount.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS(1)

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of P&F Industries, Inc. is composed of three independent directors appointed by the Board of Directors (each of whom is independent under the NASDAQ and applicable SEC rules) and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on March 9, 2004. During 2003, the members of the Audit Committee were Messrs. Dubofsky, Goldberg and Kalick. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Franklin (Chairman), Goldberg and Solomon.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal accounting and financial controls, the financial reporting process and the internal audit function. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and for issuing a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes and report its findings to the full Board of Directors.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions separately, and jointly, with each of management and the Company's independent auditors. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services provided by the independent auditors with the auditors' independence.

Based on the Audit Committee's discussion with management and the independent auditors and the Audit Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent auditors to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 filed with the SEC.

The following performance graph compares the five-year cumulative return of the Class A Common Stock to the total returns of the Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S.A.) Index and a composite group comprised of companies with approximately the same market capitalization as the Company at December 31, 1998. Such composite group was used because the Company, through its four subsidiaries, engages in several different lines of businesses and an applicable peer group does not exist. In addition to the Company, the following companies are included in the index: 4 Kids Entertainment, Inc., Driver Harris Co. Inc., Energy West, Inc., Halsey Drug Corp., Harris & Harris Group, Inc., Presidential Realty Corp., TSR, Inc. and Wendi-Bristol Health Corp. Each case assumes a $100 investment on December 31, 1998 and reinvestment of any dividends. Cumulative returns are at December 31 of each year.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Class A Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required by the SEC to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company or written representations that no other reports were required, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with during, or in respect of, the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS

The Company and Sidney Horowitz are parties to a Consulting Agreement, which will terminate on October 31, 2006, pursuant to which Mr. Horowitz receives $75,000 in annual consulting fees.

SELECTION OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee has selected BDO Seidman, LLP as independent certified public accountants for the Company, to audit and report upon the Company's consolidated financial statements for the 2004 fiscal year, and the Board of Directors is submitting this matter to the stockholders for their ratification. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Class A Common Stock present or represented and entitled to vote on the proposal at the Annual Meeting is required for the ratification of the selection of BDO Seidman, LLP. Representatives of BDO Seidman, LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, to make a statement if they desire to do so and to be available to respond to appropriate questions that may be asked by stockholders.

The following table sets forth the fees paid to BDO Seidman, LLP for professional services for each of the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002:

	2003	2002
Audit Fees	$ 247,500	$ 195,500
Audit-Related Fees	12,525	6,500
Tax Fees	74,720	34,685
All Other Fees		26,700
	$ 334,745	$ 263,385

Audit fees include fees billed for (a) the audit of P&F Industries, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries, (b) the review of quarterly financial information, (c) the issuance of consents in various filings with the SEC and (d) attendance at Audit Committee meetings.

Audit-Related Fees include fees billed for (a) consultation on accounting matters, (b) employee benefit plans and (c) assistance in preparing for Section 404 reporting pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Tax Fees include fees billed for consulting on tax planning matters.

The Audit Committee negotiates the annual audit fee directly with the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee has also established pre-approved services for which the Company's management can engage the Company's independent auditors. Any work in addition to these pre-approved services in a quarter requires the advance approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee considers whether the provision of permitted non-audit services is compatible with maintaining BDO Seidman, LLP's independence. On a regular basis, all services under arrangements not in existence on May 6, 2003 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

STOCKHOLDER NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD MEMBERSHIP AND OTHER PROPOSALS FOR 2005 ANNUAL MEETING

It is anticipated that the next Annual Meeting after the one scheduled for May 26, 2004 will be held on or about May 25, 2005. The Company's By-Laws require that, for nominations of directors or other business to be properly brought before an Annual Meeting, written notice of such nomination or proposal for other business must be furnished to the Company. Such notice must contain certain information concerning the nominating or proposing stockholder and information concerning the nominee and must be furnished by the stockholder (who must be entitled to vote at the meeting) to the Secretary of the Company, in the case of the Annual Meeting to be held in 2005, no earlier than October 30, 2004 and no later than December 29, 2004. A copy of the applicable provisions of the By-Laws may be obtained by any stockholder, without charge, upon written request to the Secretary of the Company at the address set forth below.

Since the Company did not receive timely notice of any stockholder proposal for the 2004 Annual Meeting, it will have discretionary authority to vote on any stockholder proposals presented at such Meeting.

In addition to the foregoing, and in accordance with the rules of the SEC, in order for a stockholder proposal, relating to a proper subject, to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the Annual Meeting to be held in 2005, such proposal must be received by the Secretary of the Company by December 29, 2004 in the form required under and subject to the other requirements of the applicable rules of the SEC. If the date of the Annual Meeting to be held in 2005 is changed to a date more than 30 days earlier or later than May 26, 2005, the Company will inform the stockholders in a timely fashion of such change and the date by which proposals of stockholders must be received for inclusion in the proxy materials. Any such proposal should be submitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, or other means, including electronic means, that allow the stockholder to prove the date of delivery.

AND ITS AFFILIATES

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 9, 2004

INTRODUCTION

P&F Industries, Inc. and all of its subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Company") expect that directors, officers and employees will conduct themselves ethically and properly as a matter of course and comply with the guidelines set forth below.

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (this "Code") exists to provide the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders, suppliers and members of the general public with an official statement as to how the Company conducts itself internally and in the marketplace and certain standards that the Company shall require of its directors, officers and employees.

The Company's Compliance Officer on the Effective Date of this Code is currently Joseph A. Molino, Jr. and the term "Compliance Officer", as used in this Code, refers to the Company's current Compliance Officer and any subsequent person appointed to that office.

PURPOSE

This Code is intended to provide a codification of standards that is reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote the following:

Honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;

Full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and in other public communications made by the Company;

Compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations;

The prompt internal reporting to an appropriate person or persons identified in this Code for violations of this Code; and Accountability for adherence to this Code.

SCOPE

This Code applies to the Company's Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller and persons performing similar functions as well as to all directors, officers and employees of the Company. As used herein, the term "employees" shall be deemed to include each of the foregoing persons unless specifically stated otherwise or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

POLICY PROVISIONS

Under this Code, all directors, officers (including the Company's Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller and persons performing similar functions) and employees are expected to conduct business for the Company in the full spirit of honest and lawful behavior and shall not cause another director, officer, employee or non-employee to act otherwise, either through inducement or coercion.

I. Conflicts of Interest and Other Matters

Conflicts of interest may arise when an employee's position or responsibilities with the Company present an opportunity for personal gain apart from the normal compensation provided through employment. The following guidelines are provided:

A.

Protection and Proper Use of Company Funds and Assets

The assets of the Company are much more than its properties, facilities, equipment, corporate funds and computer systems; they include technologies and concepts, business strategies and plans, as well as information about its business. These assets may not be improperly used and/or used to provide personal benefits for employees. In addition, employees may not provide outside persons with assets of the Company for the employee's personal gain or in such a manner as to be detrimental to the Company. Employees should protect the Company's assets and ensure their efficient and proper use. Theft, carelessness and waste have a direct impact on the Company's profitability. All Company assets should be used for legitimate business purposes.

B.

Confidential Information

As part of an employee's job, he/she may have access to confidential information about the Company, its employees, agents, contractors, customers, suppliers and competitors. Unless released to the public by management, this information should not be disclosed to fellow employees who did not have a business need to know or to non-employees for any reason, except in accordance with established corporate procedures. Confidential information of this sort includes, but is not limited to, information or data on operations, business strategies and growth, business relationships, processes, systems, procedures and financial information.

C.

Outside Financial Interests Influencing an Employee's Decisions or Actions

Employees should avoid any outside financial interest that might influence their decisions or actions on matters involving the Company or its businesses or property. Such interests include, among other things: (i) a significant personal or immediate family interest in an enterprise that has significant business relations with the Company; or (ii) an enterprise or contract with a supplier, service-provider or any other company or entity where the employee or a member of the immediate family of the employee is a principal or financial beneficiary other than as an employee. All such interests should be disclosed by the employee to the Company's Compliance Officer.

D.

Outside Activities Having Negative Impact On Job Performance

Employees should avoid outside employment or activities that would have a negative impact on their job performance with the Company, or which are likely to conflict with their job or their obligations to the Company.

Business Opportunities; Competitive Interests; Corporate Opportunities

No employee may enter into any contract or arrangement, own any interest or be a director, officer or consultant in or for an entity which enters into any contract or arrangement (except for the ownership of non-controlling interests in publicly-traded entities) with the Company for the providing of services to the Company unless and until the material facts as to the relationship or interest and the contract or transaction are fully disclosed to the Company's Compliance Officer and, if approved by the Company, the Company's Compliance Officer shall provide written confirmation of the approval of said contract or transaction.

Employees owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity arises to do so. Employees should refrain from and shall be prohibited from (i) taking for themselves or for their personal benefit opportunities that could advance the interests of the Company or benefit the Company when such opportunities are discovered through the use of Company property, information or position; (ii) using Company property, information or position for personal gain; or (iii) competing with the Company.

II. Dealing With Suppliers, Customers And Other Employees

The Company obtains and keeps its business because of the quality of its operations. Conducting business, however, with other employees, suppliers and customers can pose ethical or even legal problems. The following guidelines are intended to help all employees make the appropriate decision in potentially difficult situations.

A.

Bribes and Kickbacks

No employee of the Company may ever accept or pay bribes, kickbacks or other types of unusual payments from or to any organization or individual seeking to do business with, doing business with or competing with the Company.

B.

Gifts

Employees may accept gifts or entertainment of nominal value as part of the normal business process if public knowledge of the employee's acceptance could cause the Company no conceivable embarrassment. Even a nominal gift and/or entertainment should not be accepted if it might appear to an observer that the gift and/or entertainment would influence the employee's business decisions. The term "nominal value" applies to the amount of the gift and/or its frequency; i.e., frequent gifts, even if of nominal value, are unacceptable. The term "entertainment" includes, but is not limited to, meals, charitable and sporting events, parties, plays and concerts. If you have any questions about the acceptance of entertainment or gifts, ask the Company's Compliance Officer for advice.

C.

Travel and Entertainment Expenses

Employees must comply with the Company's policy on travel and entertainment expenses is set forth in the Company's Employee Handbook, as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

D.

Relations with Government Personnel

The Company will not offer, give or reimburse expenses for entertainment or gratuities (including transportation, meals at business meetings or tickets to sporting or other events) to government officials or employees who are prohibited from receiving such by applicable government regulations.

E.

Payments to Agents, Consultants, Distributors, Contractors

Agreements with agents, sales representatives, distributors, contractors and consultants should be in writing and should clearly and accurately set forth the services to be performed, the basis for earning the commission or fee involved and the applicable rate or fee. Payments should be reasonable in amount and not excessive in light of the practice in the trade and commensurate with the value of services rendered.

F.

Fair Dealing

Each employee should endeavor to deal fairly with the Company's customers, suppliers, competitors and other employees.

III. Books and Records

False or misleading entries shall not be made in any reports, ledgers, books or records of the Company nor shall any misrepresentation be made regarding the content thereof. No employee may engage in an arrangement that in any way may be interpreted or construed as misstating or otherwise concealing the nature or purpose of any entries in the books and records of the Company. No payment or receipt on behalf of the Company may be approved or made with the intention or understanding that any part of the payment or receipt is to be used for a purpose other than that described in the documents supporting the transaction.

IV. Competitive Practices

In business, it is inevitable that the Company and its competitors will meet and talk from time to time; this is neither against the law nor to be avoided. What will not be tolerated is collaboration with competitors in violation of the law on such things as pricing, production, marketing, inventories, product development, sales territories and goals, market studies and proprietary or confidential information.

As a vigorous competitor in the marketplace, the Company seeks economic knowledge about its competitors; however, it will not engage in illegal acts to acquire a competitor's trade secrets, financial data, information about company facilities, technical developments or operations.

V. Political Activities & Contributions

The Company encourages each of its employees to be good citizens and to participate in the political process. Employees should, however, be aware that: (1) federal law and the statutes of some states in the U.S. prohibit the Company from contributing, directly or indirectly, to political candidates, political parties or party officials; and (2) employees who participate in partisan political activities should ensure that they do not leave the impression that they speak or act for the Company.

VI. Equal Employment Opportunity

The Company is an Equal Opportunity Employer as a matter of law, conduct and good business practice. No employee may discriminate against another employee or prospective employee or make disparaging comments or criticisms on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, age, disability or veteran's status. Such practices must be avoided in daily work as well as in personnel actions hiring, transfer, discipline, promotion, pay action and terminations. In addition to the above-stated prohibitions, sexual harassment will not be tolerated.

VII. Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

The Company proactively promotes compliance by all employees with applicable laws, rules and regulations of any governmental unit, agency or divisions thereof and the rules and regulations of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. or any exchange upon which the Company's stock may be traded. The Company has adopted and will enforce its policies regarding an employee's trading in the stock of the Company based on inside information and will require employees to abide by such policy as well as the provisions of applicable law on trading on inside information and all employees of the Company are directed to refrain from trading in the Company's stock based on inside information. The Company requires its employees to abide by applicable law and the Company's procedures with respect to "blackouts" (periods of time within which all or some cross-section of the Company's employees will be prevented from trading in the Company' stock). The Company requires its employees to abide by applicable law and the Company's policies with respect to disclosures of material non-public information (Regulation FD).

No supervisor, officer, director, department head or any other employee with authority to make or materially influence significant personnel decisions shall take or recommend an Adverse Personnel Action against an employee in Knowing Retaliation for disclosing Alleged Wrongful Conduct to a Designated Company Officer or Director or to the Company's Audit Committee.

D.

Making A Disclosure

An employee who becomes aware of Alleged Wrongful Conduct is encouraged to make a Disclosure to a Designated Company Officer or Director or to the Company's Audit Committee as soon as possible.

F.

Legitimate Employment Action

This Whistleblowing Policy may not be used as a defense by an employee against whom an Adverse Personnel Action has been taken for legitimate reasons or cause. It shall not be a violation of this Whistleblowing Policy to take Adverse Personnel Action against an employee whose conduct or performance warrants that action separate and apart from the employee making a disclosure.

G.

Whistleblowing Statutes

An employee's protection under this Whistleblowing Policy is in addition to any protections such employee may have pursuant to any applicable state or federal law and this Whistleblowing Policy shall not be construed as limiting any of such protections.
