(1) An explanation of the significance of ratings may be obtained from the rating agencies. Generally, rating agencies base their ratings on such material and information, and such of their own investigations, studies and assumptions, as they deem appropriate. The rating of the capital securities should be evaluated independently from similar ratings of other securities. A credit rating of a security is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to review, revision, suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

We have applied to list the capital securities on the New York Stock Exchange. Trading of the capital securities on the New York Stock Exchange is expected to commence within 30 days of the date of the initial delivery of the capital securities.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Under the subordinated indenture, we will be required to use commercially reasonable efforts to seek shareholder consent to increase the number of our authorized shares of common stock if, at any date, our shares available for issuance fall below the greater of: (i) 30 million shares (as adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction), and (ii) 3 times the number of shares that we would need to issue to raise sufficient proceeds to pay (assuming a price per share equal to the average trading price of our shares over the ten-trading day period preceding such date) then outstanding deferred interest on the capital securities (including compounded interest thereon), plus twelve additional months of deferred interest (including compounded interest) on the capital securities.
