CHINA XD PLASTICS COMPANY LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
 NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Basis of presentation, significant concentrations and risks

(a) Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP have been condensed or omitted as permitted by rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2015 was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of China XD Plastics Company Limited (“China XD”) and subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”). The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2015, and the related consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 15, 2016.

In the opinion of the management, all adjustments (which include normal recurring adjustments) necessary to present a fair statement of the financial position as of March 31, 2016, the results of operations and cash flows for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, have been made.

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the recoverability of the carrying amounts of property, plant and equipment, the realizability of inventories, the useful lives of property, plant and equipment, the collectability of accounts receivable, the fair values of stock-based compensation awards, and the accruals for tax uncertainties and other contingencies. The current economic environment has increased the degree of uncertainty inherent in those estimates and assumptions.

(b) Significant concentrations and risks

Sales concentration

The Company sells its products primarily through approved distributors in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”). To a lesser extent, the Company also sells its products to two overseas customers in the Republic of Korea (the “ROK”). The Company’s sales are highly concentrated. Sales to distributors and an end customer, which individually exceeded 10% of the Company’s revenues for the three month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, are as follows:

	For the Three-Month Period Ended March
	31, 2016		2015
	US$	%	US$	%
Distributor A, located in PRC	35,809,554	16.7%	32,811,834	14.8%
Distributor B, located in PRC	35,105,615	16.3%	35,012,896	15.8%
Distributor C, located in PRC	28,460,900	13.2%	26,205,294	11.8%
Distributor D, located in PRC	25,485,848	11.9%	22,287,867	10.0%

Edgar Filing: China XD Plastics Co Ltd - Form 10-Q

Distributor E, located in PRC	22,202,126	10.3%	22,658,046	10.2%
Distributor F, located in PRC	21,908,999	10.2%	16,199,648	7.3%
Direct customer, located in the ROK	-	0.0%	34,946,900	15.7%
Total	168,973,042	78.6%	190,122,485	85.6%

The Company expects revenues from these distributors and the end customer to continue to represent a substantial portion of its revenue in the future. Any factor adversely affecting the automobile industry in the PRC, electronic application industry in the ROK or the business operations of these customers will have a material effect on the Company's business, financial position and results of operations.

Purchase concentration of raw materials and equipment

The principal raw materials used for the Company's production of modified plastics products are plastic resins, such as polypropylene, ABS and nylon. During the three-month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, the Company purchased its raw materials through a limited number of distributors, which individually exceeded 10% of the Company's total raw material purchases, accounted for approximately 76.9% (five distributors) and 73.8% (six distributors), respectively. Management believes that other suppliers could provide similar raw materials on comparable terms. A change in suppliers, however, could cause a delay in manufacturing and a possible loss of sales, which would adversely affect the Company's business, financial position and results of operations.

The Company purchased equipment from two equipment distributors, which accounted for 99.9% and 99.8% of the Company's total equipment purchases for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Management believes that other suppliers could provide similar equipment on comparable terms. A change of the supplier could cause a delay in manufacturing and a possible loss of sales, which could adversely affect the Company's business, financial position and results of operations. The majority owner of one of the major equipment distributors, is also the majority owner of Distributor D presented above.

Note 11– Income tax

Pursuant to an approval from the local tax authority in July 2013, Sichuan Xinda Enterprise Group Co., Ltd. ("Sichuan Xinda Group"), a subsidiary of China XD, became a qualified enterprise located in the western region of the PRC, which entitled it to a preferential income tax rate of 15% from January 1, 2013 to December 31, 2020. Under the current laws of Dubai, AL Composites Materials FZE ("Al Composites"), a subsidiary of China XD, is exempted from income taxes.

The effective income tax rates for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 were 28.5% and 14.3%, respectively. The effective income tax rate increased from 14.3% as of March 31, 2015 to 28.5% as of March 31, 2016, primarily due to less profit generated by Dubai Composites for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016, which was exempted from income taxes. The effective income tax rate for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016 differs from the PRC statutory income tax rate of 25% primarily due to the effect of tax rate differential on entities not subject to PRC income tax and the effect of non-deductible expenses.

As of March 31, 2016, the Company has received RMB280 million (equivalent to US$43.4 million) in total from Shunqing Government in the form of government repayment of bank loans on behalf of the Company. The Company also received RMB70 million (equivalent to US$10.8 million) pursuant to the Agreement for which the amount was restricted to use subject to the progress of the construction, which has been recorded as restricted cash as of March 31, 2016.

Since the funding is related to construction of long-term assets, the amounts were recognized as government grant, which is included in deferred income on the condensed consolidated balance sheets, and to be recognized as other income in the condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive income over the periods and in the proportions in which depreciation expense on the long-term assets is recognized.

Revenues

Revenues were US$215.0 million in the first quarter ended March 31, 2016, a decrease of US$6.9 million, or 3.1%, compared to US$221.9 million in the same period of last year, due to 8.5% decrease in the average RMB selling price of our products and 4.5% negative impact from exchange rate due to weakening RMB against US dollars, offsetting by approximately 10.7% increase in sales volume.

Vehicle sales in China grew by 4.7% in 2015, the slowest rate in approximately 25 years, missing the State-backed auto association's revised forecast amid the economy slowdown in the world's largest car market. The Chinese government's anti-monopoly probe against luxury automobile manufacturers and dealers by the state backlashed against automakers and contributed to the lower-than-expected growth rate. Further, both automakers and parts manufacturers in China experienced pricing pressure from 2014 to the present. The unusual volatility of the Chinese stock market since June 2015 also seemed to have certain negative impact on consumer sentiments. As a result, plastic fabricators have been seeking newer products utilizing lower cost raw materials and more cost-efficient formulations. The pricing of our products is determined with reference to the relatively lower average selling price in response to customer demand in China.

In order to stimulate the growth of the auto industry, on September 29, 2015, the Chinese government implemented a tax incentive policy of 50% reduction of the sales tax for eligible purchase of vehicles with engines of 1.6 liters and less. This helped the recovery of vehicle sales in China since the fourth quarter of 2015. Passenger vehicles production increased by 7.3% in the first quarter of 2016 compared to the same period of the prior year.

Driven by accelerating growth of 128.9% in Central China and 80.3% in Southwest China, domestic sales during the first quarter of 2015 increased by 15.0% as compared to the same period of the prior year.

Overseas sales was US$23,600 in the first quarter of 2016 compared to US$35.0 million in the same period of the prior year due to the ongoing suspension of supply to a ROK customer in the first quarter of 2016. We expect the supply to the ROK customer to resume after its payment obligations arising from the raw material purchase transaction is completely fulfilled in the second quarter of 2016. The customer has made payment of US$1.3 million in the first quarter of 2016 with unpaid balance of US$8.2.

The Company continued to shift production mix from traditional Modified Polypropylene (PP) to higher-end products such as PA66, PA6, POM and PPO, primarily due to (i) the greater growth potential of advanced modified plastics in luxury automobile models in China, (ii) the stronger demand as a result of promotion by the Chinese government for clean energy vehicles and (iii) better quality from end consumer recognition of higher-end cars made by automotive manufacturers from Chinese and Germany joint ventures, and U.S. and Japanese joint ventures, which manufacturers tend to use more and higher-end modified plastics in quantity per vehicle in China

Our gross margin decreased to 16.2% during the quarter ended March 31, 2016 from 21.9% during the same quarter of 2015 primarily due to lower gross margin of higher-end products in oversea market for the first quarter ended March 31, 2016 as compared to that of the prior year.

This increase is primarily due to the increase of US$0.5 million professional fee and offset by the decrease of US$0.4 million taxation.

Research and Development Expenses

R&D expenses were US$4.9 million during the quarter ended March 31, 2016 compared with US$5.8 million during the same period in 2015, a decrease of US$0.9 million, or 15.5%, reflecting the Company's efforts to adjust research and development activities on new products primarily for industrialized applications from automotive to other advanced fields such as ships, airplanes, high-speed rail, 3D printing materials, biodegradable plastics, and medical devices, etc.

As of March 31, 2016, the number of ongoing research and development projects was 169. We expect to complete and commence to realize economic benefits on approximately 25% of the projects in the near term. The remaining projects are expected to be carried out for a longer period.

Operating Income

Total operating income was US$24.5 million in the first quarter ended March 31, 2016 compared to $37.6 million in the same period of 2015, representing a decrease of 34.8% or US$13.1 million. This decrease is primarily due to lower gross profit, partially offset by lower research and development expenses.

Interest Income	$1.6	$2.4	$(0.8)	(33.3)%

Net interest expenses were US$9.3 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016, compared to net interest expenses of US$8.2 million in the same period of 2015, primarily due to (i) US$0.3 million interest expenses increase resulting from the average loan balance of US$415.9 million bearing a weighted interest rate of 5.77% for the three month ended March 31, 2016 as compared to US$383.7 million bearing a weighted interest rate of 5.64% for the three months ended March 31, 2015, leading to more interest expenses; and (ii) an decrease of US$0.8 million interest income due to the decrease of average deposit balance in the amount of US$360.8 million bearing a weighted average interest rate of 1.72% for the three months ended March 31, 2016 compared to US$316.6 million bearing a weighted average interest rate of 2.99% in 2015, leading to the decrease of interest income.

The effective income tax rates for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 were 28.5% and 14.3%, respectively. The effective income tax rate for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016 differs from the PRC statutory income tax rate of 25% primarily due to (i) operating losses of entities not subject to income tax decreased the consolidated income before income taxes for the three-month ended March 31, 2016; (ii) non-deductible expenses incurred in the PRC operating entities; partially offset by (iii) R&D bonus deduction of the major PRC operating entities; and (iv) Sichuan Xinda Group's preferential income tax rate.

Our PRC and Dubai subsidiaries have US$395.1 million of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and time deposits as of March 31, 2016, which are planned to be indefinitely reinvested in the PRC and Dubai. The distributions from our PRC and Dubai subsidiaries are subject to the U.S. federal income tax at 34%, less any applicable foreign tax credits. Due to our policy of indefinitely reinvesting our earnings in our PRC business, we have not provided for deferred income tax liabilities related to PRC withholding income tax on undistributed earnings of our PRC subsidiaries. In addition, due to our policy of indefinitely reinvesting our earnings in Dubai, UAE, we have not provided for deferred income tax liabilities related to Dubai Composites in Dubai, UAE, on undistributed earnings.

Our financial condition continued to improve as measured by an increase of 2.9% in stockholders' equity as of March 31, 2016 as compared to that of December 31, 2015. Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and time deposits decreased by 3.1% or US$12.7 million due to the operating cash outflows. Inventories increased by 32.8% as a result of more purchases made by the Company to take advantage of the lower purchase price of the raw materials and the Company's strategy to stock up the inventory and prepare for the opening of Sichuan plant. Prepayment to equipment suppliers decreased by 82.8% mainly because the equipment was delivered to Dubai, UAE. The aggregate short-term and long-term bank loans increased by 9.4% due to the utilization of existing lines of credit. We believe our current debt level is manageable. We define the manageable debt level as the sum of aggregate short-term and long-term loans, and notes payable over total assets. As of March 31, 2016, notes payable was US$145.9 million under the 11.75% guaranteed senior notes due in 2019, net of discount.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Historically, our primary uses of cash have been to finance working capital needs and capital expenditures for new production lines. We have financed these requirements primarily from cash generated from operations, bank borrowings and the issuance of our convertible preferred stocks and debt financings. As of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, we had US$43.1 million and US$119.9 million, respectively, in cash and cash equivalents, which were primarily deposited with banks in China (including Hong Kong and Macau). As of March 31, 2016, we had US$324.0 million outstanding short-term bank loans (including the current portion of long-term bank loans), including US$118.0 million unsecured loan and US$9.3 million loans secured by accounts receivable, US$39.1 million loans secured by restricted cash, and US$157.6 long-term bank loans that due in one year. We also had US$104.8 million long-term bank loans (excluding the current portion), including US$46 million loans secured by long-term deposits and US$58.8 million unsecured loan. Short-term and long-term bank loans in total bear a weighted average interest rate of 4.33% per annum and do not contain any renewal terms. We have historically been able to make repayments when due. In addition, the Company has US$145.9 million of 11.75% guaranteed senior notes due in 2019.

We have historically been able to make repayments when due. As of March 31, 2016, we have contractual obligations to pay (i) lease commitments in the amount of US$4.3 million, including US$1.2 million due in one year; (ii) equipment acquisition and facility construction in the amount of US$26.5 million; (iii) long-term bank loan in the amount of US$278.9 million (including principals and interests); and (iv) notes payable in the amount of US$202.9 million (including principals and interests).

We expect that we will be able to meet our needs to fund operations, capital expenditures and other commitments in the next 12 months primarily with our cash and cash equivalents, operating cash flows and bank borrowings.

We may, however, require additional cash resources due to changes in business conditions or other future developments. If these sources are insufficient to satisfy our cash requirements, we may seek to sell additional equity or debt securities or obtain a credit facility. The sale of additional equity or equity-linked securities could result in additional dilution to stockholders. The incurrence of indebtedness would result in increased debt service obligations and could result in operating and financial covenants that would restrict operations. Financing may not be available in amounts or on terms acceptable to us, or at all.

The following table sets forth a summary of our cash flows for the periods indicated.

(in millions US$)	Three-Month Period Ended

Operating Activities

Net cash used in operating activities decreased to US$25.4 million cash outflow for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016 from net cash provided by operating activities of US$37.5 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015, primarily due to (i) the increase of approximately US$56.6 million in cash operating payments, including raw material purchases, rental and personnel costs, (ii) the decrease of approximately US$41.5 million released from restricted cash, (iii) the increase of US$4.7 million in income tax payments, (iv) the decrease of US$0.5 million in Interest income received, and (v) the increase of US$0.1 million interest payments and partially offset by (vi) the increase of approximately US$38.3 million in cash collected from our customers for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016, and (vii) the increase of US$2.2 million received from government grant for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in the investing activities was US$86.3 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016 as compared to US$122.1 million for the same period of last year, mainly due to (i) the decrease of US$58.6 million purchase of property, plant and equipment, (ii) the increase of US$14.3 million proceeds from maturity of time deposits, (iii) the decrease of US$5.5 million acquisition of land use right, and (iv) the increase of US$2.1 million government grant related to the construction of Sichuan plant, partially offset by (v) the increase of US$44.7 million purchase of time deposits.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by the financing activities was US$34.7 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016, as compared to US$69.9 million for the same period of last year, primarily as a result of (i) the decrease of US$36.7 million borrowings of bank loans, and (ii) the increase of US$20.2 million repayments of bank borrowings for the three-month period ended March 31, 2016, partially offset by (iii) the decrease of US$0.3 million of placement of restricted cash as collateral for bank borrowings and (iv) the increase of US$21.3 million release from restricted cash as collateral for bank borrowings.

As of March 31, 2016, our cash and cash equivalents balance was US$43.1 million, compared to US$119.9 million at December 31, 2015.

Days Sales Outstanding ("DSO") has increased from 78 days for the year ended December 31, 2015 to 86 days for the quarter ended March 31, 2016 as a result of overall slowdown in the Chinese economy, automobile industry, and its impact to our industry.

It takes longer to collect from our customers. We believe that our DSO is still well below industry average Industry Standard Customer and Supplier Payment Terms (days) as below:

	Three-month period ended March 31, 2016	Year ended December 31, 2015
Customer Payment Term	Payment in advance/up to 90 days	Payment in advance/up to 90 days
Supplier Payment Term	Payment in advance/up to 60 days	Payment in advance/up to 60 days

Inventory turnover days has increased from 120 days for the year ended December 31, 2015 to 171 days for the quarter ended March 31, 2016. The Company has the credit terms with major suppliers for 90 days in 2016, in order to better manage its operating cash flows. Turnover days of payables have increased from 90 days for the year ended December 31, 2015 to 129 days for the quarter ended March 31, 2016.

Based on past performance and current expectations, we believe our cash and cash equivalents provided by operating activities and financing activities will satisfy our working capital needs, capital expenditures and other liquidity requirements associated with our operations for at least the next 12 months.

The majority of the Company's revenues and expenses were denominated primarily in Renminbi ("RMB"), the currency of the People's Republic of China. There is no assurance that exchange rates between the RMB and the U.S. Dollar will remain stable. Inflation has not had a material impact on the Company's business.

Han, et al., No. 14-cv-5308 (GBD) and Tompkins v. China XD Plastics Company Ltd., et al., No. 14-cv-5359 (GBD), respectively. On November 21, 2014, the Court consolidated the actions and appointed lead plaintiffs. On February 17, 2015, the lead plaintiffs filed a Consolidated Class Action Complaint on behalf of a class of all persons other than the defendants who purchased the common stock of China XD Plastics Company Limited between March 25, 2014 and July 10, 2014, both dates inclusive. Specifically, the lead plaintiffs allege that the Company and two of its officers made false or misleading statements and/or omitted material facts in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 and the Company's Form 10-Q for the first quarter ended March 31, 2014. They also assert that the individual defendants are liable because they allegedly controlled the Company during the time the allegedly false and misleading statements and omissions were made. The lead plaintiffs seek damages in unspecified amounts. On April 3, 2015, the Company moved to dismiss the Consolidated Class Action Complaint. On March 23, 2016, the Court entered an Opinion and Order dismissing the Consolidated Class Action Complaint without prejudice. On May 6, 2016, plaintiffs moved the Court for leave to amend the Complaint. Management believes the proposed amendment is without merit and intends to vigorously defend against it.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have not engaged in any off-balance sheet transactions.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risks

Interest Rate Risk

We are exposed to interest rate risk primarily with respect to our short-term loans, long-term bank loans, notes payable, cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and time deposits. Although the interest rates, which are based on the banks' prime rates are fixed for the terms of the loans and deposits, increase in interest rates will increase our interest expense.

A hypothetical 1.0% increase in the annual interest rate for all of our credit facilities under which we had outstanding borrowings as of March 31, 2016 would decrease income before income taxes by approximately US$1.4 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2016. Management monitors the banks' prime rates in conjunction with our cash requirements to determine the appropriate level of debt balances relative to other sources of funds. We have not entered into any hedging transactions in an effort to reduce our exposure to interest rate risk.

Foreign Currency Exchange Rates

The majority of our revenues are collected in and our expenses are paid in RMB. We face foreign currency rate translation risks when our results are translated to U.S. dollars.

The RMB was relatively stable against the U.S. dollar at approximately 8.28 RMB to the US$1.00 until July 21, 2005 when the Chinese currency regime was altered resulting in a 2.1% revaluation versus the U.S. dollar. From July 21, 2005 to June 30, 2010, the RMB exchange rate was no longer linked to the U.S. dollar but rather to a basket of currencies with a 0.3% margin of fluctuation resulting in further appreciation of the RMB against the U.S. dollar.

Since June 30, 2009, the exchange rate had remained stable at 6.8307 RMB to 1.00 U.S. dollar until June 30, 2010 when the People's Bank of China allowed a further appreciation of the RMB by 0.43% to 6.798 RMB to 1.00 U.S. dollar. The People's Bank of China allowed the RMB and U.S. dollar exchange rate to fluctuate within 1% on April 16, 2012 and 2% on March 17, 2014, respectively. On March 31, 2016, the RMB traded at 6.4612 RMB to 1.00 U.S. dollar.

There remains international pressure on the Chinese government to adopt an even more flexible currency policy and the exchange rate of RMB is subject to changes in China's government policies which are, to a large extent, dependent on the economic and political development both internationally and locally and the demand and supply of RMB in the domestic market. There can be no assurance that such exchange rate will continue to remain stable in the future amongst the volatility of currencies, globalization and the unstable economies in recent years. Since (i) our revenues and net income of our PRC operating entities are denominated in RMB, and (ii) the payment of dividends, if any, will be in U.S. dollars, any decrease in the value of RMB against U.S. dollars would adversely affect the value of the shares and dividends payable to shareholders, in U.S. dollars.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company's management has evaluated, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the effectiveness of the design and operations of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Securities Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e)), as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective because of material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting as disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015.

Notwithstanding management's assessment that our internal control over financial reporting was ineffective as of December 31, 2015 due to one material weakness as identified in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, we believe that our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report present fairly our financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2016 in all material respects.

(b) Changes in internal controls.

During the three-month ended March 31, 2016, our efforts to improve our internal controls over financial reporting include (1) recruiting qualified accounting staff in Xinda Beijing Investment with requisite expertise and knowledge to help improve our internal control procedures, (2) adopting procedures to evaluate and assess performance of directors, officers and employees of the Company, (3) internal meetings, discussions, trainings and seminars periodically to review and improve our internal control procedures. We plan to improve on the above-referenced weakness by the end of the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016.
