Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On October 25, 2005, we decided to engage new auditors as our independent accountants to audit our financial statements. Our Board of Directors approved the change of accountants to Epstein Weber & Conover, PLC, Certified Public Accountants. Accordingly, Williams & Webster, P.S., Certified Public Accountants, resigned on October 27, 2005.

During our two most recent fiscal years, and any subsequent interim periods preceding the change in accountants, there were no disagreements with Williams & Webster, P.S., on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope procedure. The report on the financial statements prepared by Williams & Webster, P.S., for either of the last two years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principals, except that Williams & Webster, P.S. expressed in their report substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. The decision to change accountants was based on the determination by the Board of Directors.

We provided Williams & Webster, P.S. with a copy of this Current Report on Form 8-K prior to its filing with the SEC, and requested that they furnish us with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether they agree with the statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, and if not, stating the aspects with which they do not agree. The letter from Williams & Webster, P.S. is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

We have engaged the firm of Epstein Weber & Conover, PLC, Certified Public Accountants, as of October 25, 2005. Epstein Weber & Conover, PLC was not consulted on any matter relating to accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

16.1 Letter dated November 1, 2005 from Williams & Webster, P.S. regarding change in independent accountant.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
