Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 1, 2007, Registrant entered into a binding letter of intent to acquire GEI Development, LLC and Solid Waste Properties, LLC, based in St. Louis, Missouri, as portfolio investments of Registrant, a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The binding letter of intent is subject to due diligence by Registrant, for a period of 45 days, and to the satisfaction of other conditions to closing, including the preparation and execution of a definitive acquisition agreement. Under the terms of the letter of intent, Registrant will provide or arrange for additional working capital funding for the two portfolio companies at closing, which is scheduled for March 31, 2007, and additional funding as needed thereafter. A copy of the binding letter of intent is attached to this report as Exhibit 8.01.

GEI Development, LLC is a Missouri limited liability company formed by an experienced management team from the solid waste, liquid waste treatment, energy production, chemical processing and alternative fuels industries. Solid Waste Properties, LLC is a company whose business model is focused on the acquisition of closed landfill sites in the US and then utilizing the value of the landfill gas and lease payments, as well as carbon reduction credits available from reducing the carbon emissions from the sites.
