Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 10, 2004, Digimarc Corporation (the Company) received a Nasdaq Staff Determination indicating that, due to the Company's delay in filing its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 beyond the Securities and Exchange Commission's filing deadline of November 9, 2004, the Company failed to comply with filing requirements for continued listing set forth in Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14) and that its securities are, therefore, subject to delisting from The Nasdaq Stock Market. In the Nasdaq Staff Determination, Nasdaq stated that, unless the Company requests a hearing with respect to the Nasdaq Staff Determination, the Company's securities will be delisted from The Nasdaq Stock Market at the opening of business on November 19, 2004. The Company is requesting a hearing with a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel on this matter. A timely request by the Company for a hearing will stay the delisting pending the hearing and a determination by the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel.

Separately, the Company and its independent auditors are continuing to work to finalize a review of accounting for software development and project costs at the Company's Digimarc ID Systems business unit. As soon as practicable following the completion of its accounting review, the Company intends to announce its final conclusions regarding its accounting issues and, as applicable, file amendments to certain of its previous filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The filing of the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 will be made following the filing of such restatements of historical financial statements.

On November 12, 2004, the Company announced via press release that it had received the delisting notification from Nasdaq and that the Company was requesting a hearing before a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel to discuss its plans to achieve compliance with corporate filing and listing requirements. The full text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
