COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING PROCESS

Q: Who is soliciting my proxy?

A: The Board of Directors of Black Hills Corporation.

Q: Where and when is the annual meeting?

A: 9:30 a.m., local time, May 24, 2006 at The Journey Museum, 222 New York Street, Rapid City, South Dakota.

Q: What am I voting on?

- A:
- Election of three directors in Class III: David C. Ebertz, John R. Howard and Stephen D. Newlin.
 - Ratification of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006.

Q: Who can vote?

A: Holders of our common stock as of the close of business on the record date, April 5, 2006, can vote at our annual meeting. Each share of our common stock gets one vote. Cumulative voting is permitted in the election of directors. Each share is entitled to three votes, one each for the election of three directors, and the three votes may be cast for a single person or may be distributed among two or three persons.

Q: How do I vote?

A: There are three ways to vote by proxy:

- by calling the toll free telephone number on the enclosed proxy;
- by using the Internet; or
- by returning the enclosed proxy in the envelope provided.

You may be able to vote by telephone or the Internet if your shares are held in the name of a bank or broker. If this is the case, you will need to follow their instructions.

If we receive your signed proxy before the annual meeting, we will vote your shares as you direct. You can specify on your proxy whether your shares should be voted for all, some or none of the nominees for directors. You can also specify whether you approve, disapprove or abstain from the other proposals.

If you do not mark any sections, your proxy card will be voted:

- in favor of the election of the directors named in Item 1; and
- in favor of Item 2.

You have the right to revoke your proxy any time before the meeting by:

- entering a new vote by telephone or Internet;

- notifying our secretary in writing;
- sending a later dated proxy changing your vote; or
- attending the meeting in person and revoking your proxy at any time before the proxy is exercised.

Q: Who will count the vote?

A: Representatives of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. will count the votes and serve as judges of the election.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: As of the record date, April 5, 2006, 33,244,313 shares of our common stock were issued and outstanding. In order to conduct the annual meeting, more than one-half of the outstanding shares must be present or be represented by proxy. This is referred to as a quorum. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, you will be considered as part of the quorum. Proxies marked as abstaining and broker non-votes on any proposal to be acted on by shareholders will be treated as present at the annual meeting for purposes of determining a quorum.

Q: What vote is needed for these proposals to be adopted?

A: The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required for the election of directors. A properly executed proxy marked Withhold authority with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

For each other item, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the item will be required for approval. A properly executed proxy marked Abstain with respect to any such matter will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes will, however, be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

Q: Is cumulative voting permitted for the election of directors?

A: In the election of directors, you may elect to cumulate your vote. Cumulative voting will allow you to allocate among the director nominees, as you see fit, the total number of votes equal to the number of director positions to be filled multiplied by the number of shares you hold. For example, if you own 100 shares of stock, and there are three directors to be elected at the annual meeting, you could allocate 300 For votes (three times 100) among as few or as many of the three nominees to be voted on at the annual meeting as you choose.

If you chose to cumulate your votes, you will need to submit a proxy card or a ballot and make an explicit statement of your intent to cumulate your votes, either by indicating in writing on the proxy card or by indicating in writing on your ballot when voting at the annual meeting. If you hold shares beneficially in street name and wish to cumulate votes, you should contact your broker, trustee or nominee.

Q: What should I do now?

A: You should vote your shares by telephone, by the Internet or by returning your signed and dated proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the annual meeting.

Q: Who conducts the proxy solicitation and how much will it cost?

A: We are asking for your proxy for the annual meeting and will pay all the cost of asking for shareholder proxies. We have hired Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc. to help us send out the proxy materials and ask for proxies. Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc.'s fee for these services is anticipated to be $6,000, plus out-of-pocket expenses. We can ask for proxies through the mail or by telephone, fax, or in person. We can use our directors, officers and regular employees to ask for proxies. These people do not receive additional compensation for these services. We will reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of our common stock.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote in one of four ways at any time before your proxy is used. First, you can enter a new vote by telephone or Internet. Second, you can revoke your proxy by written notice. Third, you can send a later dated proxy changing your vote. Fourth, you can attend the meeting and vote in person.

Q: How will my shares be voted if they are held in a broker's name?

A: Your broker may vote shares nominally held in its name, or in what is commonly called street name, under some circumstances, only if you provide the broker with written instructions on how to vote.

Q: What happens if I do not give my broker instructions?

A: Absent your instructions, under some circumstances, these shares will not be voted. Therefore, we urge you to instruct your broker in writing to vote shares held in street name.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

A: If you have questions about the annual meeting, you should call Roxann R. Basham, Vice President Governance and Corporate Secretary, at (605) 721-1700.

Q: When are the shareholder proposals for the annual meeting held in 2007 due?

A: In order to be considered, you must submit proposals for next year's annual meeting in writing to our Corporate Secretary at our executive offices at 625 Ninth Street, P.O. Box 1400, Rapid City, South Dakota 57709, prior to December 13, 2006.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with our Bylaws and Article Sixth of our Articles of Incorporation, members of our Board of Directors are elected to three classes of staggered terms consisting of three years each. At this annual meeting of our shareholders, three directors will be elected to Class III of the Board of Directors to hold office for a term of three years until our annual meeting of shareholders in 2009, and until their respective successors shall be duly elected and qualified.

All three nominees for directors are presently members of our Board of Directors. Mr. Newlin was elected by the Board of Directors in January 2004 and is nominee for election for the first time. Mr. Newlin was recommended for nomination by an individual contacted through an executive led search process. The proxy attorneys will vote your stock for the election of the three nominees for directors, unless otherwise instructed. If, at the time of the meeting, any of such nominees shall be unable to serve in the capacity for which they are nominated or for good cause will not serve, an event which the Board of Directors does not anticipate, it is the intention of the persons designated as proxy attorneys to vote, at their discretion, for such nominees as the Governance Committee may recommend and the Board of Directors may propose to replace those who are unable to serve. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required for the election of the nominees to the Board of Directors.

The following information, including principal occupation or employment for the past five or more years, is furnished with respect to each of the following persons who are nominated as Class III Directors, each to serve for a term of three years to expire in 2009.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely upon a review of our records and copies of reports on Form 3, 4 and 5 furnished to us, we believe that during and with respect to 2005 all persons subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, filed the required reports on a timely basis.

The Board, Committees and Corporate Governance Matters

Board of Directors. Our directors review and approve our strategic plan and oversee management of the Company. Our Board of Directors held eleven meetings during 2005. Directors' attendance at all Board and Committee meetings averaged 97 percent. During 2005, every director attended at least 75 percent of the combined total of Board meetings and Committee meetings on which the director served. Each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board includes an executive session of only independent directors. The Company encourages directors to attend the annual shareholders meeting. All ten directors holding office during 2005 were in attendance at the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders.

Board Independence. The Board of Directors has adopted a Policy for Director Independence that includes categorical standards for independence. This Policy is attached as Appendix A. The Board has determined that all members of the Board except Mr. Emery are independent in accordance with the Company's Policy for Director Independence and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) listing standards. Mr. Emery is not independent because he is a senior executive of the Company.

Presiding Director and Executive Sessions. In late 2001, the Board of Directors established the position of Lead Director which they renamed to Presiding Director in 2005. John R. Howard was elected to hold this position, and continues to do so. The responsibilities of Presiding Director, as provided in the Board's Governance Guidelines, are to chair executive sessions of the independent directors and communicate the Board's annual evaluation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer to the Chief Executive Officer. The Presiding Director, together with the independent directors, establishes the agenda for executive sessions, which are held at the end of each regular Board meeting. The Presiding Director serves as a liaison between the independent members of the Board and the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and discusses, to the extent appropriate, matters discussed by the independent directors in executive session. The Presiding Director also presides over regular meetings of the Board in the absence of the Chairman.

Corporate Governance Documents. The charters of the Audit, Compensation, Executive and Governance committees, as well as the Board's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the Code of Ethics that applies to our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Corporate Controller, and certain other persons performing similar functions can be found in the Governance section of the Company's website (www.blackhillscorp.com/corpgov.htm). Copies may also be obtained upon request from the Company's Corporate Secretary. Please note that none of the information contained on our website is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

Audit Committee. Our Audit Committee is comprised of Jack W. Eugster, John R. Howard, William G. Van Dyke, John B. Vering and Thomas J. Zeller, with Mr. Zeller serving as Chairperson. The Committee appoints an independent registered public accounting firm for ratification by our shareholders, pre-approves all audit and non-audit services provided by the external auditors, reviews the scope and results of the annual audit including reports and recommendations of the independent registered public accountants, reviews our internal audit function, and periodically confers with the internal audit group, our management, and our independent registered public accounting firm. All of the members of the Committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the NYSE and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Audit Committee held six meetings in 2005.

In accordance with our written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of our accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices. In accordance with the rules of the NYSE, all of the members of the Audit Committee are financially literate. The Board determined that Messrs. Eugster, Howard, Van Dyke, Vering and Zeller each have the requisite attributes of an audit committee financial expert as provided in regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and that such attributes were acquired through relevant education and/or experience.

Mr. Eugster serves on the audit committees of four public companies. In accordance with the NYSE Corporate Governance Rules, the Board discussed the time requirements and demand of serving on four public audit committees. The Board concluded that Mr. Eugster's service on multiple public audit committees is supported by his retirement status and significant experience and would not impair his ability to effectively serve on our Audit Committee.

Compensation Committee. Our Compensation Committee is comprised of David C. Ebertz, Kay S. Jorgensen, Richard Korpan and Stephen D. Newlin, with Mr. Korpan serving as Chairperson. The Committee performs functions required by the Board of Directors in the administration of all federal and state statutes relating to employment and compensation and considers and approves the Company's compensation program including benefits, stock option plans and stock ownership plans. The Committee annually (i) reviews the performance of the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, in conjunction with the independent directors, and recommends to the independent directors the compensation level for the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, (ii) reviews the Chief Executive Officer's evaluation of the Chief Operating Officer Wholesale, Chief Operating Officer Retail and Chief Financial Officer and recommends to the Board the compensation levels for these three officer positions, and (iii) reviews the Chief Executive Officer's evaluation and compensation recommendations for the other senior executive officers and the subsidiary business unit leaders, and reports its actions to the full Board. All of the members of the Committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the NYSE and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Compensation Committee held six meetings in 2005.

Executive Committee. Our Executive Committee is comprised of David C. Ebertz, David R. Emery, John R. Howard, Kay S. Jorgensen and Thomas J. Zeller, with Mr. Emery serving as Chairperson. The Committee acts upon authority delegated by the Board of Directors in the interval between meetings of the Board. The Executive Committee held one meeting in 2005.

Governance Committee. Our Governance Committee is comprised of Jack W. Eugster, John R. Howard, Stephen D. Newlin and John B. Vering, with Mr. Howard serving as Presiding Director and Chairperson. The Governance Committee operates under a written charter. The Committee identifies, investigates and recommends prospective directors to the Board with the goal of creating a balance of knowledge, experience and diversity. The Bylaws and the Charter of the Governance Committee provide that the Presiding Director shall serve as Chairperson. All of the members of the Committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the NYSE and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Governance Committee held three meetings in 2005.

Members of the Committees referred to above are designated by our directors upon recommendation of the Governance Committee each year at a meeting held following our annual meeting of shareholders.

Consideration of Director Nominees. The Governance Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Committee regularly assesses the appropriate size of the Board, and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Committee considers various potential candidates for director. Board candidates are considered based upon various criteria, including diverse business, administrative and professional skills or experiences; an understanding of relevant industries, technologies and markets; financial literacy; independence status; the ability and willingness to contribute time and special competence to Board activities; personal integrity and independent judgment; and a commitment to enhancing shareholder value. The Committee considers these and other factors as it deems appropriate, given the current needs of the Board and the Company. The Committee considers candidates for Board membership suggested by a variety of sources, including current or past Board members, members of management and shareholders. There are no differences in the manner by which the Committee evaluates director candidates recommended by shareholders from those recommended by other sources. The Committee has also retained a third-party executive search firm to identify candidates upon request of the Committee from time to time.

Directors Fees

Also, the Presiding Director receives an annual retainer fee of $8,000 and the Committee Chairpersons receive an annual retainer fee of $4,000.

In addition, each non-employee director receives common stock equivalents equal to $28,000 per year divided by the market price of our common stock. The common stock equivalents are payable in stock or cash at retirement or can be deferred at the election of the director.

Members of our Board of Directors are required to beneficially own 100 shares of common stock when they are initially elected a director and to apply at least 50 percent of his or her retainer toward the purchase of additional shares until the director has accumulated at least 2,000 shares of common stock.

The following table sets forth the compensation earned for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, to each of our directors who was serving as a director at the end of 2005.

Executive Compensation*Compensation Committee Report*

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of independent directors. The Committee is responsible for developing and overseeing the implementation of the Company's executive compensation philosophy, policies and programs. The components of our executive compensation program consist of a base salary, an annual incentive plan and a long-term incentive award program. The Committee oversees and administers the incentive compensation programs including the determination of the annual and long-term incentive awards.

Compensation Philosophy. The Committee seeks to promote an executive compensation program that supports the overall objective of enhancing shareholder value. The executive compensation strategy is based on principles designed to:

- Promote the relationship between pay and performance;
- Attract, retain and encourage the development of highly qualified and motivated executives;

- Recognize and reward outstanding performance;
- Provide compensation that is competitive; and
- Promote overall corporate performance linked to the interest of our shareholders.

The Committee retains the services of an independent international consulting firm, Hewitt Associates, to provide information regarding practices and trends in compensation programs, and to review and evaluate our compensation program as compared to compensation practices of other companies with similar characteristics, including size and type of business. The Company operates in a diverse collection of businesses; therefore the comparator groups are comprised of both utility and general industry companies. The Committee seeks to establish a market-based competitive compensation program that is at or near the median of the comparative groups surveyed. Recommendations made by the Committee are based upon the market analysis, company performance, achievement of individual performance objectives and the level and nature of responsibilities. The Committee believes that appropriate compensation levels succeed in both attracting and motivating high quality employees.

Base Salary. Base salaries for all executive officers are reviewed annually. The base salary component is targeted at 5 percent below the median, with the dollar value of the 5 percent differential added to the long-term compensation component to further align compensation to shareholder interests. The actual base salary of each executive officer is determined by the executive's performance, the executive's current position in salary range and internal pay relationships. Each senior executive officer's performance is evaluated annually by the Chief Executive Officer and reviewed by the Committee. The Chief Executive Officer's performance is evaluated by the Committee with input from the independent directors. Evaluations and approval of base salary adjustments normally occur in December with the adjustments to be effective in January of the following year.

Annual Incentive. The Short-Term Annual Incentive Compensation Program is designed to recognize and reward the contributions of individual executives as well as the contributions that group performance makes to overall corporate success. Our corporate officer group, as well as the business unit leaders and other key employees, are eligible to participate in this plan. The program's goal for the corporate officers is based upon the earnings per share of the Company. The program goals for the business unit leaders and other key employees are based upon earnings per share of the Company and specific business unit financial, operational and strategic goals. Specific performance goals include items such as divisional earnings and strategic objectives, acquisition and divestiture activities, and employee and organizational development. Target award levels are a percent of each participant's base salary. A target award is comparable to the average payout award of the comparator group at the 50th percentile level.

The Committee approves the target level for each corporate officer in December, which is applicable to performance in the following plan year. In February, the Committee meets to approve the actual payment of awards related to the prior plan year, and to establish the goals for the current plan year. Target levels for the corporate officers vary based upon competitive benchmarks and position, and range from 30 percent to 50 percent of base salary for the 2005 plan year, and 30 percent to 70 percent of base salary for the 2006 plan year. The award opportunity for corporate officers may range from zero percent to two times the target percent. The Committee has the discretion to adjust any award, and will review and take into account individual performance, level of contribution and the accomplishment of specific project goals that were initiated throughout the plan year.

The Committee recommended, and the independent directors approved, a discretionary award under the 2005 Short-Term Incentive Plan. The Company's 2005 earnings of $1.00 per share were negatively impacted by certain one-time events, including the loss from the sale of the communications business and the non-cash asset impairment of the Las Vegas I gas-fired power plant. The sale of the communications business was a strategic decision to allow the Company to focus on the core energy business and was achieved in a timely manner. The impairment of the Las Vegas I plant was a direct result of a significant and sustained increase in natural gas prices, beyond historical levels. Absent these one-time charges, the earnings growth in the core business was strong and the payout under the 2005 Short-Term Incentive Plan would have exceeded 175 percent of target. While the significant and sustained increase in natural gas prices resulted in an impairment of the Las Vegas I plant, it also significantly increased the value of the oil and gas reserves which is not reflected on the balance sheet. Many goals were attained at the business unit level that not only led to a successful year but also positioned the Company to take advantage of future opportunities. The Company had record oil and gas production and earnings, began construction on a new coal-fired power plant, expanded the core asset base through acquisitions, and experienced record new customer growth and a 5 percent increase in retail megawatt-hour sales at the electric utility. The Company's total shareholder return for 2005, which includes stock price appreciation and dividends was 17 percent which placed us among the top performers in our peer group. In reviewing these factors and in recognizing employee contributions and the total shareholder return for the year, the Committee determined that an award was appropriate and applied its discretion in determining and recommending awards for the 2005 plan year at the target level.

Long-Term Incentive. Long-term incentive compensation is comprised of grants made by the Committee under our 2001 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan for incentives granted prior to May 25, 2005, and our 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan for incentives granted subsequent to May 25, 2005 (Omnibus Incentive Plans). Both plans were previously approved by our shareholders. Long-term incentive compensation is intended to promote corporate goals and link the personal interests of participants to those of our shareholders; to provide participants with an incentive for excellence in individual performance; to promote teamwork among participants; and to provide flexibility in our effort to motivate, attract, and retain the services of participants who make significant contributions to our success and allow participants to share in such success. The Committee oversees the administration of the Omnibus Incentive Plans with full power and authority to determine when and to whom awards will be granted, along with the type, amount and other terms and conditions of each award. The Committee believes that executive compensation tied to stock price appreciation and total shareholder return is an effective way to align the interests of management with those of our shareholders. Prior to 2004, the long-term incentive compensation was composed of restricted stock and non-qualified stock options. Since 2004, the long-term incentive compensation has been composed of restricted stock or restricted stock units and performance shares.

Long-term incentive awards reflect competitive market based data presented by Hewitt Associates. The Committee approves the target long-term incentive compensation level for each corporate officer in December, which is effective in January of the following year. Long-term incentive compensation approved in December 2004 and 2005, to be effective for the 2005 and 2006 plan years, respectively, ranged from approximately 30 percent to 115 percent of base salary for the corporate officers. Restricted stock or restricted stock units are targeted to deliver 50 percent of the long-term incentive opportunity, with the remaining 50 percent delivered through the performance share component.

Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. Restricted stock and restricted stock units vest one-third a year over a three-year period and automatically vest upon death, disability, retirement or a change in control. Dividends are paid on the restricted shares and dividends accrue on restricted stock units. Unvested restricted stock or units are forfeited if an officer's employment is terminated for any reason other than death, disability, retirement or vesting in connection with a change of control. Corporate officers may elect to receive the award in the form of restricted stock or to defer the payment under the Non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan in the form of restricted stock units. Awards of restricted stock and restricted stock units granted to plan participants effective January 6, 2005 ranged from 858 shares to 7,508 shares. Awards of restricted stock and restricted stock units granted to plan participants effective January 6, 2006 ranged from 724 shares to 7,396 shares.

Performance Shares. Participants are awarded a target number of performance shares based upon the value of the performance share component approved by the Committee, divided by the Beginning Stock Price. The Beginning Stock Price, as defined under the Performance Plan, is the average of the closing price of our stock for the 20 trading days immediately preceding the beginning of the plan period. Entitlement to performance shares is based on our total shareholder return over designated performance periods as measured against our peer group. In addition, our stock price must also increase during the performance periods. The final value of the performance shares will be based upon the number of shares of common stock that are ultimately granted based upon the performance criteria. At the end of each respective performance period, actual awards may range from 0 percent to 175 percent of the target amounts plus accrued dividends. A 100 percent payout of the target shares occurs if our total shareholder return exceeds the 50th percentile of the peer group. A zero percent payout occurs if we are below the 30th percentile and the maximum 175 percent payout occurs if we are at the 80th percentile or above. The performance awards and dividend equivalents, if earned, are paid in 50 percent cash and 50 percent common stock.

Our peer group is comprised of the following 14 companies: Alliant Energy Corporation, DPL Inc., Duquesne Light Holding Inc., Great Plains Energy Inc., Hawaiian Electric Inds., Idacorp Inc., Northeast Utilities, NStar, OGE Energy Corporation, Pepco Holdings Inc., PNM Resources Inc., Puget Energy Inc., Wisconsin Energy Corp. and WPS Resources Corp. This peer group was originally identified as the companies in the S&P MidCap Electric Utilities Index; however because of re-categorizing of companies in the index by S&P from time to time, the companies in the peer group must be individually tracked.

For the completed performance period, March 1, 2004 to December 31, 2005, our total shareholder return was 27 percent, which ranked at the 89th percentile of our peer group, resulting in a payout of 175 percent of target levels. Total equivalent shares paid out ranged from 390 shares to 4,098 shares, which were paid in the form of 50 percent cash and 50 percent common stock.

Current performance periods outstanding and the range of targeted shares authorized to plan participants are as follows:

Performance Period	Range of Target Shares
March 1, 2004 to December 31, 2006	425 - 4,479
January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2007	858 - 7,508
January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2008	717 - 7,326

Actual payouts, if any, will be determined based upon the total shareholder return for the plan period.

Policy on Qualifying Compensation. Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the tax deductibility by a corporation of compensation in excess of $1 million paid to its Chief Executive Officer and any of its four most highly compensated executive officers. Compensation, which qualifies as performance-based is excluded from the $1 million limit, if, among other requirements, the compensation is payable only upon attainment of pre-established, objective performance goals under a plan approved by the corporation's shareholders.

It is our policy to qualify, to the extent reasonable, our executive officers' compensation for deductibility under applicable tax law. However, we retain the flexibility necessary to provide total cash compensation in line with competitive practice, our compensation philosophy, and our best interests and may from time to time pay compensation to our executive officers that may not be deductible for tax purposes.

Other Benefits. We currently maintain a variety of employee benefit plans and programs in which our executive officers participate, including a 401K Retirement Savings Plan, the Pension Plan, the Pension Equalization Plan and the Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan. The level of retirement benefits provided by the Pension Plan and Pension Equalization Plan in the aggregate is reflected in the Estimated Annual Retirement Benefits Table disclosure for the Named Executive Officers. The 401K Retirement Savings Plan and Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan are voluntary plans which allow our executive officers to elect to defer a portion of their compensation. The Named Executive Officers may also receive severance benefits in the event of a Change of Control, which is described in more detail under the heading Change of Control Agreements. Other perquisites and benefits provided to the executive officers in 2005 that were not provided to other employees, include financial planning services, personal use of a Company vehicle and country club dues. The value of these perquisites and benefits in 2005 was less than $12,000 for each of the Named Executive Officers.

Review of All Components of Compensation. The Committee reviewed tally sheets on all components of each executive officer's compensation in 2005, including salary, bonus, equity and long-term incentive compensation values granted, the actual value realized from stock option exercises and restricted stock and restricted stock units vested, the value of all perquisites and other personal benefits, and the projected annual benefit under the Pension and Pension Equalization Plans.

Stock Ownership Guidelines. Stock ownership guidelines are applicable to all officers participating in the Long-Term Incentive Plan. We believe it is important for officers to hold Company stock to further align performance with the interest of our shareholders. A retention ratio approach to stock ownership is incorporated into the guidelines. This approach requires officers to retain 100 percent of all shares owned, including shares awarded through Company incentive plans (net of share withholding for taxes) until specific ownership goals are achieved. Ownership guidelines are denominated in shares which are equal to approximate multiples of base pay.

The ownership guidelines are as follows:

Officer Level	Number of Shares
Chief Executive Officer	90,000
Chief Operating Officer Wholesale	40,000
Chief Operating Officer Retail	40,000
Chief Financial Officer	40,000
Other Senior Executive Officers	25,000
Other Corporate Officers and Business Unit Leaders	5,000

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. David R. Emery has served as Chief Executive Officer since January 2004, and as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer since April 26, 2005. Mr. Emery's compensation was determined by the Committee in accordance with the evaluation process and methodology described above. The Committee considered Mr. Emery's performance against pre-established objectives with input from the independent directors. In determining the base salary, the annual incentive targets and the long-term incentive targets, the Committee considered the recommendations from the Hewitt Associates study for market-based compensation for the Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Emery's performance, the relationship of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation in proportion to other executive officer positions, and Mr. Emery's experience level.

Based upon this analysis, the Committee recommended to the independent directors, and the independent directors approved a base salary, a short-term annual incentive target and long-term incentive target for Mr. Emery, effective January 1, 2005, equal to approximately 80 percent of the median of the comparative groups surveyed. With superior performance, it is the Committee's goal to increase incumbents compensation to 95 percent of the median of the comparative group within three years of taking the position. As a result of Mr. Emery assuming the additional role of Chairman of the Board in April 2005, the Committee recommended, and the independent directors approved an increase in his total compensation package to approximately 87 percent of the median of the comparative groups surveyed. In the Committee's annual performance and compensation review conducted in December 2005, Mr. Emery's total compensation package was increased to approximately 91 percent of the comparative group. The specific compensation components are described below.

Base Salary. Mr. Emery's annual base salary was $450,000 effective January 1, 2005. The Board increased the base salary to $500,000 effective June 2005, reflecting additional duties as Chairman of the Board. During 2005, 40 percent of Mr. Emery's targeted compensation value was base pay. The remainder was performance and equity based, reflecting the Committee's belief in the importance of having substantial at-risk compensation to provide a direct and strong link between performance and executive compensation.

As part of the Committee's normal review process in December 2005, Mr. Emery's base salary was increased to $525,000 effective January 2006, which comprised approximately 37 percent of his total targeted compensation value.

Annual Incentive. Mr. Emery's target percentage for the annual incentive plan was 50 percent of base salary for 2005. For the 2005 plan year, Mr. Emery received an award of $250,000, as a result of the committee exercising its discretion in determining and approving awards as discussed above under Annual Incentive.

Mr. Emery's target percentage for the 2006 plan year was set at 70 percent of base salary. His award opportunity can range from zero percent to two times the target percent.

Long-Term Incentive Restricted Stock. Mr. Emery was granted 7,508 shares of Restricted Stock on January 6, 2005 as a component of his 2005 compensation package. On January 6, 2006 he was granted 7,396 shares as a component of his 2006 compensation plan.

Long-Term Incentive Performance Shares. Mr. Emery received a payout of 4,098 equivalent shares for the March 1, 2004 to December 31, 2005 performance period which were paid out in the form of 50 percent cash and 50 percent common stock.

Current performance periods outstanding and the target shares granted to Mr. Emery under the plan are as follows:

Performance Period	Target Shares
March 1, 2004 to December 31, 2006	4,479
January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2007	7,508
January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2008	7,326

Actual payouts, if any, will be determined based upon the total shareholder return for the plan period.

Conclusion. The Committee believes that the executive compensation program effectively serves the interests of the Company and its shareholders. The appropriate mix of base pay and annual and long-term incentives provides increased motivation for the executive officers to contribute to and participate in the Company's long-term success for the benefit of its shareholders.

Defined Benefit Retirement Plan

We have a defined benefit retirement plan, a qualified pension plan, in which our Named Executive Officers are included. The plan provides benefits at retirement based on length of employment service and average monthly pay in the five consecutive calendar years of highest earnings out of the last ten years. Our employees do not contribute to the plan. The amount of annual contribution by us to the plan is based on an actuarial determination. Accrued benefits become 100 percent vested after an employee completes five years of service.

The following table illustrates estimated annual benefits payable under the defined benefit retirement plan to participating employees who retire at the normal retirement date and elect a life only benefit.

Annual Remuneration	Years of Service
	15 Years	20 Years	25 Years	30 Years	35 Years
$100,000	$ 18,825	$ 25,800	$ 32,775	$ 39,750	$ 46,725
150,000	29,775	40,750	51,725	62,700	73,675
200,000	40,725	55,700	70,675	85,650	100,625
220,000	45,105	61,680	78,255	94,830	111,405

The benefits in the foregoing table were calculated as a straight life annuity. Amounts shown are exclusive of Social Security benefits. The Internal Revenue Code places maximum limitations on benefit amounts under qualified pension plans and on the amount of compensation that may be recognized when determining benefits. In 2006, the maximum annual benefits payable under qualified pension plans is $175,000 and the maximum amount of compensation that can be recognized when determining compensation is $220,000.

Nonqualified Supplemental Retirement Plan

We also have a Pension Equalization Plan, a nonqualified supplemental plan, in which benefits are not tax deductible until paid. The plan is designed to provide the higher paid executive employee a retirement benefit which, when added to social security benefits and the pension to be received under the defined benefit retirement plan, will approximate retirement benefits being paid by other employers to its employees in similar executive positions. The employee's pension from the qualified pension plan is limited under current law to $175,000 annually and the compensation taken into account in determining contributions and benefits cannot exceed $220,000 and cannot include nonqualified deferred compensation. The amount of deferred compensation paid under nonqualified plans such as the Pension Equalization Plan is not subject to these limits. A participant under the Pension Equalization Plan does not qualify for benefits until the benefits become vested under a vesting schedule 20 percent after three years of employment under the plan increasing up to 100 percent vesting after eight years of employment under the plan. No credit for past service is granted under the Pension Equalization Plan. The annual benefit is 25 percent of the employee's average earnings, if salary was less than two times the Social Security Wage Base, or 30 percent, if salary was more than two times the Social Security Wage Base, multiplied by the vesting percentage. Average earnings are normally an employee's average earnings for the five highest consecutive full years of employment during the ten full years of employment immediately preceding the year of calculation. The annual Pension Equalization Plan benefit is paid on a monthly basis for 15 years to each participating employee and, if deceased, to the employee's designated beneficiary or estate, commencing at the earliest of death or when the employee is both retired and 62 years of age or more. A participant with vested benefits who is 55 years of age or more and no longer an employee of the Company may elect to be paid benefits beginning at age 55 or older, subject to a discount of such benefits.

In the event that at the time of a participant's retirement, the participant's salary level exceeds the qualified pension plan annual compensation limitation of $220,000 or includes nonqualified deferred compensation, then the participant shall receive an additional benefit which is measured by the difference between (i) the monthly benefit which would have been provided to the participant under the defined benefit retirement plan as if there were no annual compensation limitation and no exclusion on nonqualified deferred compensation, and (ii) the monthly benefit to be provided to the participant under the defined benefit retirement plan.

Participants in the Pension Equalization Plan are designated by our Board of Directors upon recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer. No participants have been added to the plan since 2002. Each of the Named Executive Officers is a participant in the Pension Equalization Plan except for Mr. Evans. The Board of Directors plan a full review of this plan in 2006.

Estimated Annual Retirement Benefits

The following table provides information on estimated annual benefits payable under the defined benefit retirement plan and the Pension Equalization Plan for the Named Executive Officers using actual years of service at December 31, 2005, commencement of payment of the retirement benefits at age 65 and election of a life only benefit.

Name	Defined Benefit Retirement Plan	Nonqualified Supplemental Retirement Plan		Total

(1) Defined benefits plans vest after five years of service.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan

We have a Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Plan for a select group of management or highly compensated employees. Eligibility is determined by the Compensation Committee. Eligible employees may elect to defer up to 50 percent of their base salary, up to 100 percent of their Short-Term Annual Incentive Plan Award, including Company stock, and elect to defer restricted stock grants in the form of restricted stock units. The deferrals are deposited into a trust account where the participants may direct the investment of the deferrals (except for Company stock and restricted stock unit deferrals) as allowed by the plan. Participants have the choice of choosing a fixed rate option which was 5.76 percent in 2005. Investment earnings are credited to the participants' accounts. Upon retirement, the Company will distribute the account balance to the participant according to the distribution election filed with the Compensation Committee. The participants may elect either a lump sum payment to be paid within 30 days of retirement, or annual or monthly installments over a period of years designated by the participant, but not to exceed 15 years.

Change of Control Agreements

The Board of Directors reviewed and we entered into new change of control agreements with the senior executive officers and other executives in 2005. The change of control severance agreements provide for certain payments and other benefits to be payable upon a change in control and a subsequent termination of employment, either involuntary or for a good reason. Key differences between the prior and new agreements are the new agreements:

- Operate for a specific term ending June 1, 2008. Prior agreements stated no expiration date.
- Clarify that a business combination will not constitute a change in control event unless or until the transaction closes and is consummated.
- Reduced percentages for the threshold events that constitute a change in control.

- A change in control will occur if there is more than a 50 percent change in the beneficial owners of our common stock as a result of a business combination.
- A change in control will occur if there is more than a 50 percent change in the Incumbent Board as a result of a business combination.
- Added provisions to clarify benefits and types of compensation included in change in control payments.
- Reduced the severance payment for the Non-CEO senior executive officers from 2.99 times to two (2) times the employee's average severance compensation for the most recent five taxable years ending prior to the change in control.
- Changed the definition of Employment Term to reflect that change in control benefits cannot extend beyond the mandatory retirement age (65) for our executive officers.
- Added language providing for an additional benefit to cover any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

A change of control is defined in the agreements as:

- an acquisition of 30 percent or more of our common stock, except for certain defined acquisitions, such as acquisition by employee benefit plans, us, any of our subsidiaries, or acquisition by an underwriter holding the securities in connection with a public offering thereof; or
- members of our incumbent Board of Directors at the time the agreements were executed cease to constitute at least two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors, with the incumbent Board of Directors being defined as those individuals consisting of the Board of Directors on the date the agreement was executed and any other directors elected subsequently whose election was approved by the incumbent Board of Directors; or
- approval by our shareholders of:
 - a merger, consolidation, or reorganization;
 - liquidation or dissolution; or
 - an agreement for sale or other disposition of 50 percent or more of our assets, with exceptions for transactions which do not involve an effective change in control of voting securities or Board of Directors membership, and transfers to subsidiaries or sale of subsidiaries; and
- all regulatory approvals required to effect a change in control have been obtained and the transaction constituting the change in control has been consummated.

In the change of control severance agreements, a good reason for termination which would trigger payment of benefits is defined to include:

- a material reduction of the executive's authority, duties or responsibilities;
- a reduction in the executive's annual compensation or any failure to pay the executive any compensation or benefits to which he or she is entitled within seven days of the date due;

- any material breach by us of any provisions of the change of control agreement;
- requiring the executive to be based outside a 50-mile radius from his or her usual and normal place of work; or
- our failure to obtain an agreement, satisfactory to the executive, from any successor company to assume and agree to perform the change of control agreement.

Upon a change of control, the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer will have an employment contract for a three-year period and the non-CEO executive will have an employment contract for a two-year period, but not beyond age 65 (employment term). During this employment term, the executive shall receive annual compensation at least equal to the highest rate in effect at any time during the one-year period preceding the change in control and shall also receive employment welfare benefits, pension benefits, and supplemental retirement benefits on a basis no less favorable than those received prior to the change in control. Annual compensation is defined to include amounts which are includable in the gross income of the executive for federal income tax purposes, including base salary, targeted annual incentive bonus, targeted long-term incentive grants and awards; and matching contributions or other benefits payable under the 401K Retirement Savings Plan; but exclude restricted stock awards, performance units or stock options that become vested or exercisable pursuant to a change in control.

If the Chief Executive Officer s employment is terminated during the employment term involuntarily, or for a good reason, then the Chief Executive Officer is entitled to the following benefits:

- severance pay equal to 2.99 times the Chief Executive Officer s five-year average taxable compensation, provided that the foregoing payment is subject to proportionate reduction based upon when termination takes place during the three-year employment term and based upon a ratio of the executive s employment term to 1,095 days; and
- continuation of employee welfare benefits for the remainder of the employment term, with an offset for similar benefits received, along with additional credited service under the Pension Equalization Plan and defined benefit retirement plan equal to the remainder of the employment term.

If the non-CEO executive s employment is terminated during the employment term involuntarily, or for a good reason, then the executive is entitled to the following benefits:

- severance pay equal to two (2) times executive s five-year average taxable compensation, provided that the foregoing payment is subject to proportionate reduction based upon when termination takes place during the two-year employment term and based upon a ratio of the executive s employment term to 730 days; and
- continuation of employee welfare benefits for the remainder of the employment term, with an offset for similar benefits received, along with additional credited service under the Pension Equalization Plan and defined benefit retirement plan equal to the remainder of the employment term.

The change of control severance agreements contain an additional benefit to cover any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee oversees our financial process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. In addition, the Committee reviewed key initiatives and programs aimed at strengthening the effectiveness of the Company's internal and disclosure control structure. As part of this process, the Committee continued to monitor the scope and adequacy of the Company's internal auditing program, and reviewed staffing levels and steps taken to implement recommended improvements in internal procedures and controls.

The Audit Committee obtained from Deloitte & Touche LLP a formal written statement describing all relationships between them and us that might bear on their independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to their independence. The Committee also discussed the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls with management, the internal auditors and Deloitte & Touche LLP. In addition, the Committee reviewed with both the internal auditors and Deloitte & Touche LLP audit plans, audit scope and identification of risks.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees, and, with and without management present discussed and reviewed the results of the internal audit examinations and Deloitte & Touche LLP's examination of the financial statements.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that our audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also appointed, subject to ratification by our shareholders, Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for 2006.

BLACK HILLS CORPORATION POLICY FOR DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE

Introduction

A member of the Board of Directors (Board) of Black Hills Corporation (Company) shall be deemed independent pursuant to this Policy of the Board, only if the Board affirmatively determines that (1) such director meets the Standards for Director Independence set forth below, and (2) the director has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). In making this determination, the Board shall broadly consider all relevant facts and circumstances. Material relationships can include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable and familial relationships, among others. The Company shall disclose the basis for this determination in its annual proxy statement.

Categorical Standards for Independence

1. A director who is an employee, or whose immediate family member⁽¹⁾ is an executive officer, of the Company is not independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship. Employment as an interim Chairman, CEO or other executive officer shall not disqualify a director from being considered independent following that employment.
2. A director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such payments are not contingent on continued service), is not independent until three years after he or she ceases to receive more than $100,000 per year in such compensation. Compensation received by a director for former service as an interim Chairman, CEO or other executive officer need not be considered in determining independence under this test. Compensation received by an immediate family member for service as a non-executive employee of the Company need not be considered in determining independence under this test.
3. A director who has an affiliation with the Company's internal or external audit firm (the Audit Firm) is not independent if
 - The director or an immediate family member is a current partner of the Audit Firm;
 - The director is a current employee of the Audit Firm;
 - The director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of the Audit Firm and participates in the Audit Firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (but not tax planning) practice; or
 - The director or an immediate family member was within the last three years a partner or employee of the Audit Firm and personally worked on the Company's audit within that time.
4. A director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's present executives serve on that company's compensation committee is not independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.

(1) An immediate family member includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, parent-in-law, children-in-law, siblings-in-law and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares such person's home.

5. A director who is an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of a company that makes payments to, or receives payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million, or 2% of the consolidated gross revenues of such other company employing such executive officer or employee, is not independent until three years after falling below such threshold. (Note that while charitable organizations are not deemed companies under this standard, the Company would have to disclose in its proxy statement contributions in excess of these thresholds to any charity for which a director serves as an executive.)

Audit Committee Independence

In addition to meeting the Board independence standard above, the Audit Committee members must meet the following criteria:

1. An Audit Committee member may not accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the Company. (Fees for service as a director or committee member, or fixed amounts of compensation received as compensation under a retirement plan (including deferred compensation) for prior service with the Company, so long as such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service is excluded.)

2. An Audit Committee member may not be an affiliated person⁽²⁾ of the Company.

Disclosure

A director of the Company who meets the Categorical Standards set forth above shall be presumed to be independent. Notwithstanding this presumption, the Board will look at the totality of other material relationships when determining independence.

If the relationship of a director falls within the Categorical Standards, then the Company shall state in its proxy statement that the director meets the Categorical Standards, without describing the particular aspects of the relationship between the director and the Company.

If the relationship of a director does not fall within the Categorical Standards, then a determination of whether the relationship is material or not, and therefore whether the director would be independent or not, shall be made by the Board. In the event that a director who has a business or other relationship that does not fit within the Categorical Standards is determined to be independent, the Company shall disclose the basis for such determination in the Company's proxy statement.

(2) An affiliate is defined as a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the specified person. A person is not deemed to be in control of a specified person if the person does not beneficially own more than 10% of any class of voting securities of the specified person and is not an executive officer of the specified person. In addition, executive officers of an affiliate, directors that are also employees of an affiliate, general partners of an affiliate and managing members of an affiliate are deemed to be affiliates.
