The obligations under the Amended and Restated Credit Facility are guaranteed by named SuperMedia subsidiaries and are secured by a lien on substantially all of SuperMedia and SuperMedia's guarantors' tangible and intangible assets, including a pledge of the stock of their respective subsidiaries, as well as a mortgage on specified real property, subject in each case, to specified exceptions.

Shared Services Agreement

Concurrently with the consummation of the Prepackaged Plans and the Merger, on the Effective Date, Dex Media and specified subsidiaries, including SuperMedia and its subsidiaries, entered into an Amended and Restated Shared Services Agreement (the Shared Services Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Shared Services Agreement, Dex One Service LLC, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Dex Media, and SuperMedia LLC, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of SuperMedia, will provide specified services to Dex Media and all of its direct and indirect subsidiaries or pay for services provided by other entities. Such services will include, among other things, human resources, legal, billing and information technology services. Dex One Service LLC will allocate costs between the Dex One entities and the SuperMedia entities based on the relative proportions of prior year net revenues.

Entities receiving such services will be charged as follows: (1) to the extent the cost of providing such service can be directly attributed to a particular entity, such entity will be charged that amount, and (2) to the extent the service provider provides a service that benefits multiple entities and the cost of such service cannot be directly attributable to a particular entity (e.g., overhead), each entity benefiting from such service will be charged a share of such cost approximately equal to the quotient of such entity's net revenue for the preceding calendar year divided by the total net revenue of all the entities benefiting from such service. To the extent SuperMedia LLC both provides and receives services to the other parties to the Shared Services Agreement, it will be credited the amounts it has paid to provide such services, which will be netted against its charges for services received. Costs associated with the Shared Services Agreement will be captured and billed for each month. It is expected that once the integration of SuperMedia and the other Dex Media subsidiaries is complete, SuperMedia LLC will no longer be a provider of services to Dex Media and its subsidiaries.

The above summary of the Shared Services Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Shared Services Agreement, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. Such exhibit is incorporated herein by reference.

Tax Sharing Agreement

The Tax Sharing Agreement provides, among other things, that SuperMedia and its subsidiaries are required to make payments to Dex One Service LLC (as agent of Dex Media) in an amount calculated to approximate the amount of tax liability such entity would have owed if it filed a separate corporate tax return. In general, if any taxable income (including any income as a result of cancellation of indebtedness income, whether taxable or not) of SuperMedia and/or its subsidiaries for
