Item 8.01 Other Events

Veeco Instruments Inc. (the Company) recently discovered an attack on its computer systems by what appears to be a highly-sophisticated actor. The Company has notified law enforcement of the attack and has retained forensic experts to assist with the investigation. At this time, the Company does not know if or when it will be able to determine the extent of the breach or the potential impact to the Company, whether it will be able to identify who is responsible for this attack or whether it will be able to pursue legal action or other remedies to protect any compromised information or recover damages related to the attack. This attack, including the expenses incurred to address it, may have an adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and/or financial condition. In addition, this attack could result in the loss or misuse of confidential information of the Company or that of its customers or others, result in litigation and potential liability, damage the Company's reputation and/or otherwise harm its business.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of Veeco's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause Veeco's actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements include, among others, those found in Veeco's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and in our subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. Veeco does not undertake any obligation to update the forward-looking statements to reflect the impact of circumstances or events that may arise after the date of the forward-looking statements.
