We have not, and the Selling Shareholders have not, authorized anyone to provide you with information different from that contained in this prospectus. The Selling Shareholders are offering to sell securities and seeking offers to buy securities only in jurisdictions where offers and sales are permitted. PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information that you should consider before investing in our common stock. You should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the information under Risk Factors and our financial statements and related notes before making an investment decision. Unless otherwise indicated, all references in this prospectus to Broadcaster, we, us and our refer to Broadcaster, Inc., a California corporation, and our subsidiaries. All references to the Merger refer to our June 1, 2006 acquisition of AccessMedia Networks, Inc.

Our Business

We historically operated as a software company. Prior to the acquisition of AccessMedia Networks, Inc. on June 1, 2006, we operated in two business segments: (i) computer aided design and precision engineering or our Precision Design business and (ii) house plans and architectural drawings or our Houseplans business. As discussed below, we subsequently disposed of our Precision Design business and, as a result, we now operate in the two business segments of AccessMedia and Houseplans.

In 2004, we began exploring various ways to enhance shareholder value, including the further migration of Broadcaster from a traditional or packaged software company to offering downloadable media and content over the Internet. We believe that the growth and reach of the Internet coupled with the predictability of recurring revenues should lead to enhanced Broadcaster shareholder value. As such, during 2005, we began discussions with AccessMedia, a developer of a platform for delivering real-time and interactive media over the Internet through its unique virtual set-top box technology. Concurrent with the completion of the acquisition of AccessMedia, we changed our name to Broadcaster, Inc.

We are now a global Internet entertainment network, providing consumers with access to online entertainment that is fast, easy, safe, fun, and of great value. We offer a wide variety of on-demand programming, including movies, music, television shows, viral videos, mobile media, games, news, sports, and other entertainment focused content, in one place that can be viewed or downloaded at anytime and on any device. Our proprietary virtual set-top box technology available at www.AccessMedia.tv puts Internet users in control of their entertainment experience allowing them to choose when and on which device they want to view media and content.

We provide users with delivery of both short and long form digital entertainment content – giving them the power to download content to their desktop computer, laptop, PSP, iPod or preferred mobile entertainment device. We enable consumers to easily find, organize, download, and enjoy the growing volumes of high quality content available online. Our capabilities span our proprietary media library, media under license, and media readily available on the Internet. We are also in discussions with major studios, cable and television networks, music labels, and game producers to become a gateway for the direct delivery of first run movies, popular television shows, music and online games.

Our multi-channel Internet entertainment network redefines the user experience on the Internet, putting more control into the hands of the user with the most advanced technologies including a Download Manager, Entertainment Meta Search, Content Manager, Mobile Transfer Capabilities, Peer-to-Peer Technology, Social Networking Tools, and Parental Lock functionality, among others. In addition, our entertainment meta search is one of the most advanced available on the Internet and is optimized for rich media content, allowing for advanced identification and indexing of media and content.

In addition to our Internet entertainment network, we are also a leading online distributor of stock architectural house plans. We have an extensive library of over 25,000 unique stock architectural house plans with more than 150,000 registered members. Our stock architectural house plans are sold to developers, builders, architects and individuals allowing our customers to substantially reduce upfront planning and building costs.

The Merger with AccessMedia

We completed the Merger with AccessMedia on June 1, 2006 pursuant to which we issued 29,000,000 shares of our common stock and agreed to issue up to an additional 35,000,000 shares of our common stock upon achievement of certain revenue milestones to the former shareholders of AccessMedia. In addition, we issued 1,450,000 shares of our common stock to Baytree Capital Associates, LLC as an advisory fee related to the Merger, and an additional 1,000,000 shares to Baytree Capital for consulting services and agreed to reimburse Baytree for its reasonable expenses. In connection with the Merger, we changed our name from International Microcomputer Software, Inc. to Broadcaster, Inc. All of the shares issued as Merger consideration and to Baytree Capital are offered for sale by this prospectus.

AccessMedia is led by seasoned Internet entrepreneurs. This team has been one of the foremost innovators of technologies, marketing, and advertising strategies for Internet-based consumer media offerings, and until now this team has operated in a private company environment. Additionally, this team has been a leader in providing website development, traffic, database management and hosting for many of the largest worldwide media companies.

We believe that the Merger offers us an opportunity to enter into the highly scalable Internet media industry. The underlying growth in the Internet media industry, coupled with the potential for high margin product offerings, innovative marketing strategies, and exceptional management team, should combine to provide us with substantial growth and profit opportunities, creating significant shareholder value.

Acquisition of Weinmaster Homes, Ltd.

On July 1, 2005, Houseplans, Inc, our wholly-owned subsidiary, completed the acquisition of all the stock of Weinmaster Homes, Ltd. The purchase price of approximately $4,000,000 consisted of $2,000,000 in cash, $1,000,000 in a promissory note, which was fully paid in the third quarter of 2006, and $1,000,000 of our unregistered common stock, or 826,583 shares, which stock is being offered for sale by this prospectus.

Sale of Precision Design

In June 2006, we sold our legacy Precision Design software business as part of our overall strategy to position the company solely as an online business. We received a combination of $6,500,000 in cash and an interest free note of $1,500,000 which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. $500,000 of the cash received is being held in escrow to secure our potential indemnification of the buyer for certain representations and warranties made pursuant to the sale agreement. Included in the assets sold were the TurboCad and DesignCAD product lines as well as other design and personal productivity titles.

A more detailed discussion regarding our business can be found under the heading Business.

However, the Selling Shareholders may choose not to sell any of their registered shares, and may have no intention of selling any securities offered pursuant to this prospectus in the near future. Additionally, we have no reason to believe that any Selling Shareholder has entered into an agreement, or made a commitment, to sell any securities offered in this prospectus.

SUMMARY FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following summary consolidated financial information should be read together with Broadcaster's historical consolidated financial statements and related notes, the audited financial statements of AccessMedia and the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements and the discussion under the heading "Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation" included elsewhere within this prospectus.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements presented herein has been prepared based on the historical consolidated financial statements of Broadcaster, after giving effect to the acquisition of AccessMedia. RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock is highly speculative and involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below, together with the other information contained in this prospectus, before making an investment decision. If any of the circumstances described in these risk factors actually occur, our business, financial condition, or results of operations could be materially adversely affected. In that event, the trading price of our shares could decline, and you may lose part or all of your investment.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Because our operating results may fluctuate due to factors beyond our control, prior operating results may not be indicative of future ones.

Our operating results have been in the past, and will continue to be, subject to quarterly and annual fluctuations as a result of numerous factors, including:

- fluctuations in demand for our products and services;
- price and product competition;
- overall movement toward industry consolidation;
- variations in sales channels, product costs, or mix of products sold;
- fluctuations in our gross margins;
- our ability to achieve cost reductions;
- actual events, circumstances, outcomes, and amounts differing from judgments, assumptions, and estimates used in determining the values of certain assets (including the amounts of related valuation allowances), liabilities, and other items reflected in our condensed consolidated financial statements;
- how well we execute on our strategy and operating plans;

changes in accounting rules, such as recording expenses for employee stock option grants and changes in tax accounting principles;

compliance expense including the costs of procedures required for Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404 reporting and the costs of procedure remediation, if any; and merger and acquisition activity.

As a consequence, operating results for a particular future period are difficult to predict. Any of the foregoing factors, or any other factors discussed elsewhere herein, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Because our revenues for a particular period are difficult to predict, a shortfall in revenues or our inability to properly estimate operating expenses for a period may adversely impact our operating results.

We plan our operating expense levels based primarily on forecasted revenues levels. These expenses and the impact of long-term commitments are relatively fixed in the short term. As a result of a variety of factors, our revenues for a particular quarter are difficult to predict. Our net sales may grow at a slower rate than in past periods, or may decline. Our ability to meet financial expectations could also be adversely affected by the timing and mix of individual sales. A shortfall in revenues could lead to operating results being below expectations because we may not be able to quickly reduce these fixed expenses in response to short-term business changes.

Because our gross margins may fluctuate due to factors beyond our control, past gross margins may not be indicative of future ones.

Our product gross margins may not be sustainable and may be adversely affected by numerous factors, including:

- changes in customer or product mix;
- introduction of new products;
- increased price competition;
- changes in distribution channels;
- how well we execute on our strategy and operating plans;
- inability to achieve targeted cost reductions;
- ability to generate license revenue from users who have installed specialized media software on their personal computers; and
- costs associated with litigation (please see the heading entitled Legal Proceedings for more details).

We have made and expect to continue to make acquisitions that could disrupt our operations and harm our operating results.

Our growth depends upon market growth, our ability to enhance our existing products, and our ability to introduce new products on a timely basis. We intend to continue to address the need to develop new products and enhance existing products through acquisitions of other companies, product lines, technologies, and personnel. Acquisitions involve numerous risks, including the following:

- difficulties in integrating the operations, technologies, products, and personnel of the acquired companies; diversion of management's attention from normal daily operations of the business;

potential difficulties in completing projects associated with in-process research and development;

difficulties in entering markets in which we have no or limited direct prior experience and where competitors in such markets have stronger market positions;

insufficient revenues to offset increased expenses associated with acquisitions; and the potential loss of key employees of the acquired companies.

Acquisitions may also cause us to:

issue common stock that would dilute our current shareholders' percentage ownership;

assume liabilities;

record goodwill and non-amortizable intangible assets that will be subject to impairment testing on a regular basis and potential periodic impairment charges;

incur amortization expenses related to certain intangible assets;

incur large and immediate write-offs and restructuring and other related expenses; and become subject to intellectual property or other litigation.

Mergers and acquisitions of high-technology companies are inherently risky, and no assurance can be given that our previous or future acquisitions will be successful and will not materially adversely affect our business, operating results, or financial condition. Failure to manage and successfully integrate acquisitions could materially harm our business, operating results, or financial condition.

If pending litigation is adversely resolved against us, we may incur unexpected costs which may adversely affect our operating results and financial condition.

Our wholly-owned subsidiary, AccessMedia, is presently a party to two recent lawsuits brought by regulators with regard to the operation of its business, one brought by the Federal Trade Commission, or FTC, and the other by the Washington State Attorney General (for details on the allegations of these suits, please see Legal Proceedings). If either of these lawsuits is adversely determined against AccessMedia, it may, depending upon any court ruling, cause AccessMedia to incur unexpected costs or the loss of revenues which could adversely affect AccessMedia future operation results and financial condition and AccessMedia may be required to make changes to its business model. Because of the uncertainty of litigation and the early stage of these disputes, no reasonable estimate of whether they may have a material effect on our future revenues and operating income is available.

If we incur unexpected network interruptions caused by system failures, natural disasters or unauthorized tampering with our computer systems, our operations could be disrupted and we could incur a loss of revenues.

We rely on the Internet for our business. The continuous and uninterrupted performance of our systems is, therefore, critical to our success. We must protect these systems against damage from fire, power loss, water damage, earthquakes, telecommunications failures, viruses, vandalism and other malicious acts, and similar unexpected adverse events. Our operations depend upon our ability to maintain and protect our computer systems, data centers and server locations. Our corporate headquarters, data center and primary operations are located in California, an area susceptible to seismic activity and possible power outages. We cannot eliminate the risk of downtime caused by factors such as natural disasters and other events. Further, individuals may attempt to breach our network security, such as hackers, which could damage our network. The occurrence of any of these events could harm our business, operating results and financial condition.

If we are not able to retain our executive officers and key personnel, we may not be able to maintain and expand our business if we are not able to retain, hire and integrate key management and operating personnel.

The success of the AccessMedia acquisition depends on our ability to retain our management team and to attract, assimilate, and retain other highly qualified employees, including engineering, technology, marketing, sales and support personnel. There is substantial competition for highly skilled employees in our industry and due to California law AccessMedia's key employees are not bound by agreements preventing them from terminating their employment with us at any time. If we fail to attract and retain key AccessMedia employees, our business could be harmed.

If we cannot manage our growth effectively, we may not be able to sustain or increase our profitability.

As a result of our acquisition of AccessMedia, we anticipate that we may incur material growth. Businesses which grow rapidly often have difficulty managing their growth. If AccessMedia's business grows as we anticipate, we will need to expand our management by recruiting and employing experienced executives and key employees capable of providing the necessary support. To manage the expected growth of our operations and personnel, we will need to continue to improve our operational, financial, and management controls and our reporting systems and procedures. We cannot assure you that our management will be able to manage our growth effectively or successfully. Our failure to meet these challenges could cause us to lose money, and your investment could be lost.

Because we have incurred significant costs associated with the acquisition of AccessMedia, if we are unable to successfully integrate the AccessMedia entities, our profitability may be adversely affected.

We estimate that we have incurred indirect transaction costs of approximately $ 3,690,000 associated with the AccessMedia acquisition, including direct costs of the acquisition as well as liabilities to be accrued in connection with the acquisition. There is no assurance that we will not incur additional material charges in subsequent quarters to reflect additional costs associated with the acquisition. If the benefits of the acquisition do not exceed the costs of acquiring AccessMedia, our financial results may be adversely affected.

Because AccessMedia's business model is unproven, it may not result in the generation of material revenues or profitability.

Our business is substantially dependent upon AccessMedia's ability to generate license revenue from users who have installed specialized media software on their personal computers. This is a relatively new industry and product and there can be no assurances it will be accepted by potential customers. The revenue and income potential of this business is unproven.

Because we license the software used in our AccessMedia business from third parties on a non-exclusive basis, the software could be licensed to an unlimited number of potential competitors thereby adversely affecting our business.

The principal intellectual property that underlies AccessMedia's virtual set-top box technology used in distributing online media content is not owned by us but is licensed from third parties, generally on a non-exclusive basis. The third party licensors are free to exploit the intellectual property themselves or license it to an unlimited number of other competitors. This competition could result in price reductions, fewer customers and orders, reduced gross margins and loss of market share, any of which would materially adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition. In addition, we are not in control of the protection or prevention of infringement of such intellectual property.

Because we generally do not have the right to modify the licensed technology used in our AccessMedia business or receive updates or upgrades, our products may become obsolete.

We generally do not have the right to modify the licensed technology used in our AccessMedia business, nor do we have the right to receive updates or upgrades or to obtain a copy of the source code for such technology. In the limited circumstances where we have the right to modify the licensed technology, the licensor owns such modifications. In acquiring AccessMedia, we acquired limited rights to technology that we may not have the rights to improve in the future to maintain a competitive offering or support existing products or service offerings.

Because AccessMedia has incurred losses in the past, it may not be able to achieve profitability in the future.

AccessMedia experienced startup losses in each quarterly and annual period from its inception through the first calendar quarter of 2006. AccessMedia may not be able to achieve or maintain profitability in the future. We expect that AccessMedia's operating expenses will continue to increase. We cannot assure you that AccessMedia will be able to generate sufficient revenues to achieve profitability, which failure would have a material adverse effect on our business.

Because the online entertainment business is highly competitive, we may not be able to offer our services at prices which are profitable.

The markets in which AccessMedia competes are intensely competitive, highly fragmented and characterized by rapidly changing technology and evolving standards. We expect that we will continue to experience vigorous competition from current competitors and new competitors, including Disney/ABC, NBC, CBS, Apple and others that may have significantly greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources than we do and may have large current customer bases and content agreements in place. Many other companies will compete in specific areas of our business. We expect additional competition as other established and emerging companies enter into our product market. This competition could result in price reductions, fewer customers and sales, reduced gross margins and loss of market share, any of which would materially adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition.

If we are subject to intellectual property infringement claims, it could cause us to incur significant expenses, pay substantial damages and prevent service delivery.

The license agreements that permit AccessMedia to use the licensed technology contain only limited representations and warranties of the licensor and limited rights to indemnification for claims of infringement. Third parties may claim that our products or services infringe or violate their intellectual property rights. Any such claims could cause us to incur significant expenses and, if successfully asserted against us, could require that we pay substantial damages and prevent us from using licensed technology that may be fundamental to our business service delivery. Even if AccessMedia were to prevail, any litigation regarding its intellectual property could be costly and time consuming and divert the attention of our management and key personnel from our business operations. AccessMedia may also be obligated to indemnify its business partners in any such litigation, which could further exhaust our resources. Furthermore, as a result of an intellectual property challenge, AccessMedia may be prevented from providing some or all of its services unless it enters into royalty, license or other agreements. AccessMedia may not be able to obtain such agreements at all or on terms acceptable to us, and as a result, AccessMedia may be precluded from offering most or all of its products and services.

Because we are dependent upon a limited number of third parties for the support, distribution and development of our services, particularly Alchemy Communications, Inc., if they were unavailable, our future business may be materially and adversely harmed.

We depend on agreements with a limited number of third parties, particularly Alchemy Communications, Inc. which is controlled by our principal shareholder. Alchemy provides office and operating space, staffing, technical services and consulting, bandwidth and hosting, network infrastructure, and other related services. Given the scope of the services provided by Alchemy, it is our most significant vendor relationship. If Alchemy were unable to provide appropriate levels of service as our business grows or our relationship proved to be unworkable and we are forced to seek new providers, our business could be materially and adversely harmed.

Because we depend on Internet advertising to promote our services, if we are unable to purchase these advertisements on a cost-effective basis, our profitability could be adversely affected.

We depend in part on the use of online advertisements purchased from third parties to attract new users by promoting our services. We believe that our business will continue to rely on this method for attracting our audience in the future. If online advertising becomes less effective or more expensive and our ability to attract new users is thereby impaired, our business could be harmed.

If we fail to sustain and expand the number of users who install our software or fail to attract advertisers, we will not be able to sustain or increase revenue.

Advertising is currently a significant part of our proposed revenues. The success of our business depends in part on our ability to offer our advertising customers access to a large audience, comprised of users who have downloaded our software products. As a result, it is critical to our success that we continually add substantial numbers of new users. In addition, we must attract users who respond to our ads by clicking through to advertisers' web pages or purchasing the advertisers' products, because these click through and conversion rates are critical to our ability to maintain and grow our advertising rates. If fewer users download our software, we would not be able to maintain or expand the number of active users.

If our services do not perform as expected, our business may be harmed.

If our services fail to perform properly, our customers and advertisers may discontinue their use of our products and services. Despite testing, our existing services may not perform as expected due to unforeseen problems. Any defects may cause us to incur significant expenses and divert the attention of our management and key personnel from other aspects of our business.

If there are negative perceptions and adverse publicity concerning our business practices, it could damage our reputation and harm our business.

The digital media distribution industry is vulnerable to negative public perception. Negative perception of our business practices or negative press reports linking our services to questionable business practices of other companies in our industry could damage our reputation, cause new users not to install or existing users to uninstall our software, or cause consumers to use technologies that impede our ability to deliver ads. This negative perception could also lead to increased regulation of our industry or other regulations that adversely affect our business practices. Any of these events could reduce the demand for our services among advertisers and significantly harm our business.

Because our business depends upon the continued growth of the Internet and Internet-based systems, any slowdown in such growth could impair our ability to be profitable.

Our business and revenues depend on growth of the Internet and on its use as a sales and distribution mechanism. To the extent that the Internet does not support this activity whether through changes in its use, lowered reliability or other factors, we could experience material harm to our business, operating results, and financial condition.

Changes in industry structure and market conditions could lead to charges related to discontinuances of certain of our services or businesses and asset impairments.

In response to changes in industry and market conditions, we may be required to strategically realign our resources and consider restructuring, disposing of, or otherwise exiting businesses. Any decision to limit investment in or dispose of or otherwise exit businesses may result in the recording of special charges, such as technology-related write-offs, workforce reduction costs, charges relating to consolidation of excess facilities, or claims from third parties who were resellers or users of our products. Our estimates with respect to the useful life or ultimate recoverability of our carrying basis of assets, including purchased intangible assets, could change as a result of such assessments and decisions. Additionally, we are required to perform goodwill impairment tests on an annual basis and between annual tests in certain circumstances, which may result in a charge to earnings.

Because some of our competitors have substantially greater resources, in order to compete effectively we may have to offer our services at prices which would not be profitable.

Our AccessMedia business revenues, customer base and operations are much smaller than certain other providers of entertainment and media products and services. Very large media companies continue to view online media as a channel for distribution of their existing products or as an area in which to expand their business. These competitors have substantially more resources and could adversely impact AccessMedia's business.

If there are changes in laws and regulations relating to the Internet, it could affect our ability to offer our services or materially increase our operating costs and adversely affect our future results of operations and our financial condition.

There are currently few laws or regulations that specifically regulate communications or commerce on the Internet. Laws and regulations may be adopted in the future, however, that address issues including content, copyrights, distribution, antitrust matters, user privacy, pricing, and the characteristics and quality of products and services. An increase in regulation or the application of existing laws to the Internet could significantly increase our costs of operations and harm our business, particularly our AccessMedia business. For example, the Communications Decency Act of 1996 sought to prohibit the transmission of certain types of information and content over the Internet. Additionally, several telecommunications companies have petitioned the Federal Communications Commission to regulate Internet service providers and online service providers in a manner similar to long distance telephone carriers and to impose access fees on these companies. Imposition of access fees could increase the cost of transmitting data over the Internet. Moreover, it may take years to determine the extent to which existing laws relating to issues such as property ownership, obscenity, libel and personal privacy are applicable to the Internet or the application of laws and regulations from jurisdictions whose laws do not currently apply to our business.

If the federal or state governments impose sales and use taxes on all Internet sales, this could curtail the use of the Internet as a commerce channel. Due to the global nature of the Internet, it is possible that multiple federal, state or foreign jurisdictions might inconsistently regulate Internet activities. Any of these developments could harm our business.

The regulatory environment with respect to online media and data privacy practices is also evolving. Electronic privacy is a public and governmental concern in the United States. The Federal Trade Commission has increasingly focused on issues affecting online media, particularly online privacy and security issues. Please see the heading entitled Legal Proceedings for more detail with respect to our current litigation with the FTC and the Washington State Attorney General.

Foreign legislation has been enacted, and there is federal and state legislation pending that is aimed at regulating the collection and use of personal data from Internet users. For example, the European Union has adopted directives to address privacy and electronic data collection concerns, which limit the manner in which the personal data of Internet users may be collected and processed. Our relationship with our customers will often involve the collection of personal data.

The enactment of new legislation, changes in the regulatory climate, or the expansion, enforcement or interpretation of existing laws could preclude us from offering some or all of our services or expose us to additional costs and expenses, require substantial changes to our business or otherwise substantially harm our business. Further, additional legislation or regulation could be proposed or enacted at any time in the future, which could materially and adversely affect our business.

Because our market may undergo rapid technological change, our future success may depend on our ability to develop and launch products and services of interest to consumers.

If new industry standards and practices emerge in the Internet and online media industry, our existing services, technology and systems may become obsolete. If we cannot address technological change in our industry in a timely fashion and develop new products and services, our future results of operations may be adversely affected.

Because we have only recently introduced our products and services, there can be no assurances they will be accepted by potential customers.

Our services are relatively new in their current form and we cannot rely upon historical customer acceptance. Our technology which involves peer-to-peer networking may not be acceptable to consumers or, if accepted, may fall from favor and require us to develop new products and services, both of which could adversely affect our ability to generate revenues.

Because some of our products are related to the construction industry, our operating results may be adversely affected by unfavorable economic and market conditions in that industry.

Because certain of our Houseplans products are associated with the construction industry, we are subject to negative trends affecting that industry. After years of robust growth in residential construction, the home construction market has trended down beginning in 2006. This trend can be expected to reduce future revenues from this business segment and adversely affect our future earnings.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR COMMON STOCK

Because we have changed the focus of our business from software to being an Internet media company, the stock markets may not be receptive to this change.

Achieving the benefits of the acquisition of AccessMedia will depend in part on:

- the extent to which the public markets are receptive to our transformation from a software company to primarily to an Internet media company,
- the acceptance of AccessMedia's management team, technology and media library, and the success of AccessMedia's software.

If the stock market is not receptive to these changes, our business operations could be adversely affected.

The sale of the common stock under this prospectus may cause our stock price to decline.

We are seeking to register for sale up to an aggregate of 36,439,060 shares of our common stock and up to an aggregate of 166,250 shares of additional common stock that may be issued upon exercise of outstanding warrants. The Selling Shareholders have not engaged an underwriter in connection with this registration, and have indicated that they do not intend to do so. The three-month average daily volume of our stock between July and September 2006 was approximately 27,833 shares. The number of our shares available for resale in the public market as a result of this registration may therefore exceed the number of shares that purchasers wish to buy. This potential increase in the number of shares that may be available for public trading may dramatically and detrimentally reduce the price of our common stock on the basis of supply and demand alone.

The large number of additional shares of common stock that may be issued in connection with the acquisition of AccessMedia or future acquisitions may substantially dilute the holdings of current shareholders.

In connection with the acquisition of AccessMedia on June 1, 2006, we agreed to issue up to an additional 35,000,000 shares of our common stock to the former shareholders of AccessMedia upon the achievement of certain revenue milestones. The issuance of any such additional shares may result in a reduction of the book value or market price of the outstanding shares of our common stock, a reduction in the proportionate ownership and voting power of all other shareholders.

We intend to continue to address the need to develop new products and enhance existing products through acquisitions of other companies, product lines, technologies, and personnel. These arrangements may involve the issuance of new shares of our common stock, which would in turn result in a dilution of the ownership interests of existing common shareholders and potentially reduce the book value or market price of our common stock.

Our stock price may be volatile because of factors beyond our control and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Any of the following factors could affect the market price of our common stock:

- our failure to generate increases in revenues,
- our failure to maintain profitability,
- actual or anticipated variations in our quarterly results of operations,
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant contracts, new products, acquisitions, commercial relationships, joint ventures or capital commitments,
- the loss of significant business relationships, or
- changes in market valuations of similar companies.

In the past, following periods of volatility in the market price of a company's securities, securities class action litigation has often been instituted. A securities class action suit against us could result in substantial costs and divert our management's time and attention, which would otherwise be used to benefit our business.

Since our common stock will be subject to the SEC's penny stock rules, you may experience substantial difficulty in selling our common stock ..

Our common stock is a penny stock because it is not traded on a national securities exchange and sells at less than $5.00 per share. The SEC has established penny stock rules, which limit the ability of a broker to solicit purchasers, which reduces liquidity. They also generally require a broker to deliver a standardized risk disclosure document prior to a transaction in a penny stock. The broker must also provide the customer with bid and offer quotations for the penny stock, the compensation of the broker and its salesperson in the transaction, and monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account. These additional requirements may hinder your ability to sell your common stock.

Because our common stock is not listed on a stock exchange, investors may be unable to resell their shares at publicly quoted prices.

Our common stock is quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, which is less liquid than the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or The Nasdaq Stock Market. This may hinder your ability to sell your common stock and result in you receiving a lower price than the quoted price when you sell your shares. Accordingly, investors may lose money due to this lack of liquidity.

USE OF PROCEEDS

BUSINESS

History

We historically operated as a software company. Prior to the acquisition of AccessMedia on June 1, 2006, we operated in two business segments: (i) our Precision Design business and (ii) our Houseplans business.

We were incorporated in November 1982, and grew to become a developer and publisher of productivity software in the precision design, graphic design, and other related business applications fields over the following 16 years. We acquired TurboCAD in 1985, and developed and acquired numerous products and product categories through the years. By the end of 1998, we developed, marketed and distributed our products worldwide, primarily through the retail channel. Beginning in 1998, we made various acquisitions and dispositions of software and content products with the principal strategy of migrating from retail distribution to Internet-based distribution of such products.

In 2004, we began exploring various ways to enhance shareholder value, including our further migration from a traditional or packaged software company to offering downloadable media and content over the Internet. We believed that the growth and reach of the Internet coupled with the predictability of recurring revenues should lead to enhanced Broadcaster shareholder value. As such, during 2005 we began discussions with AccessMedia, a developer of a platform for delivering real-time and interactive media over the Internet through its unique virtual set-top box technology. We completed the Merger in June 2006, and changed our name to Broadcaster, Inc. We subsequently disposed of Precision Design and, as a result, we now operate in the two business segments of AccessMedia and Houseplans. The AccessMedia business is owned and operated by our wholly-owned subsidiary, AccessMedia, Inc. The Houseplans business is owned and operated through our wholly-owned subsidiary Houseplans, Inc.

Our Internet Businesses

Our current primary focus is on our AccessMedia entertainment portal. We are a global Internet entertainment network, providing consumers with access to online entertainment that is fast, easy, safe, fun, and of great value. We provide users with delivery of both short and long form digital entertainment content – giving them the power to download content to their desktop computer, laptop, PSP, iPod or preferred mobile entertainment device. We enable consumers to easily find, organize, download, and enjoy the growing volumes of high quality content available online. Our capabilities span our proprietary media library, media under license, and media readily available on the Internet. We are also in discussions with major studios, cable and television networks, music labels, and game producers to become a gateway for the direct delivery of first run movies, popular television shows, music and online games.

Our wide variety of on-demand programming includes:

Movies We have a large library of movies to which we are constantly adding. Members can watch anything from a horror movie to a western and everything in between, many in high definition.

Music Whether a member is a fan of music from the 1980 s or something more contemporary, our large music collection is likely to satisfy the need. Our website offers downloads across a wide swath of the music spectrum.

Television Our library of television shows includes episodes from such classics such as The Lucy Show and The Beverly Hillbillies to more contemporary shows dealing with music, cooking, sports and more.

News Members can both read articles and download videos concerning the issues of the day in entertainment, sports, business and more.

Games Members have access to a variety of computer games including sports, role playing games and such classics as Tetris and pin ball.

Viral videos The term viral video refers to video clip content usually produced by amateurs which gains widespread popularity through the process of Internet sharing. We feature on our site many of the most popular viral videos currently making the rounds on the Internet.

Our proprietary virtual set-top box technology available at www.accessmedia.tv puts Internet users in control of their entertainment experience allowing them to choose when and on which device they want to view media and content. Other than a computer meeting certain required specifications and Internet connectivity, no additional hardware purchase is necessary.

Our AccessMedia business generates its revenue from the sale of software online. The software are tools that enable the consumer to download and manage content. The customer pays for the tools through a license, which is sold on a monthly or annual basis. Because of the nature of the sale, no single customer accounted for greater than 10% of our revenues in fiscal year 2006. AccessMedia also earns income from selling advertising based on unique visits and page views to its various sites.

Internet users can register online to become a member of AccessMedia.tv and obtain full access to our site offerings. Membership in AccessMedia.tv is free with the purchase of our Download Manager software. Once a member has downloaded the software, they can start adding titles to their library. The member can watch it immediately after download or at a later time at their convenience. Downloaded files can be viewed for as long as that person is a member of AccessMedia.tv.

In addition to the Download Manager software, we also provide Entertainment Meta Search, Content Manager, Mobile Transfer Capabilities, Peer-to-Peer Technology, Social Networking Tools, and Parental Lock functionality, among others. These tools allow users to improve their entertainment access and controls. Our Entertainment Meta Search is one of the most advanced search tools available on the Internet and is optimized for rich media content, allowing for advanced identification and indexing of media and content.

We are also a leading online distributor of stock architectural house plans. We have an extensive library of over 25,000 unique stock architectural house plans with more than 150,000 registered members. Our stock architectural house plans are sold to developers, builders, architects and individuals, allowing our customers to substantially reduce upfront planning and architectural costs. No single customer accounted for greater than 10% of our Houseplan revenues in fiscal year 2006 or 2005.

Competitive Business Conditions

The Internet entertainment industry is experiencing tremendous growth and 2006 is the year that the public has recognized the value of using the Internet as a video entertainment medium. Because of this there are numerous start-ups that have been formed to seek viewers. Notably, the largest competitor is YouTube which was only started in 2005. In 2006 Google announced an agreement to acquire YouTube for $1,650,000,000 and future consideration. Because of this acquisition and YouTube's popularity, we anticipate that the online entertainment space will continue to be crowded with competitors.

The Internet industry is highly competitive and characterized by several key factors:

Rapid changes in technology and customer requirement: New opportunities for existing and new competitors can quickly render existing technologies less valuable.

Relatively low barriers to entry: Start-up capital requirements for software companies can be very small, and distribution over the Internet is inexpensive and easily outsourced.

Significant price competition: Direct distribution of competing products over the Internet may cause prices and margins to decrease in traditional sales channels.

These factors could have a material adverse effect on our future operating results, including reduced profit margins and potential loss of market share.

Our main products and their primary competition are listed in the following table:

Broadcaster Product Group	Competitor
Houseplans	Hanley-Wood
	Move Inc.
AccessMedia	RealOne
	Vongo
	Blinx.tv

Sales and Marketing

We rely on Internet advertising we place on third-party websites to attract customers to our AccessMedia.tv website. Our Houseplans business attracts its customers from Internet advertising, primarily using search engines Google and Yahoo.

International Operations

International operations comprise our Canadian subsidiary, Weinmaster Homes, Ltd., which is part of the Houseplans segment. We acquired Weinmaster in July 2005.

The Merger

We completed the Merger with AccessMedia on June 1, 2006 pursuant to which we issued 29,000,000 shares of our common stock and agreed to issue up to an additional 35,000,000 shares of our common stock upon achievement of certain revenue milestones to the shareholders of AccessMedia. In addition, we issued 1,450,000 shares of our common stock to Baytree Capital Associates, LLC as an advisory fee related to the Merger, and an additional 1,000,000 shares to Baytree Capital for consulting services and agreed to reimburse Baytree for its reasonable expenses. In connection with the Merger, we changed our name from International Microcomputer Software, Inc. to Broadcaster, Inc.

AccessMedia is led by seasoned Internet entrepreneurs. This team has been one of the foremost innovators of technologies, marketing, and advertising strategies for Internet-based consumer media offerings, and until now, this team has operated in a private company environment. Additionally, this team has been a leader in providing website development, traffic, database management, and hosting for many of the largest worldwide media companies.

We believe that the Merger offers a unique opportunity to enter into the highly scalable Internet media industry. The underlying growth in the Internet media industry, coupled with high margin product offerings, innovative marketing strategies and exceptional management team, should combine to provide us with substantial growth and profit opportunities, creating significant shareholder value. We expect this substantial revenue growth and positive cash flow to begin almost immediately.

Sale of Precision Design

In June, 2006, we sold our legacy Precision Design software business as part of our overall strategy to position the company solely as an online business. We received a combination of $6,500,000 in cash of which $500,000 was deposited in an escrow to secure our representations and warranties in the sale Agreement, and an interest free note of $1,500,000 which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. Included in the assets sold were the TurboCad and DesignCAD product lines as well as other design and personal productivity titles.

Product Development

The majority of development costs relating to the Internet content segment relate to development of websites and databases to host the content. All of our Internet development is internally developed by our team of six software designers.

Our research and development expenses consist primarily of salaries and benefits for research and development employees and payments to independent contractors. We spent approximately $218,000 and $68,000 on research and development in the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. We will continue to invest in existing and new products which reflects our commitment to developing our core products as well as maintaining strong relationships with our internal and contract development teams.

Proprietary Rights and Licenses

We use the following trademarks and service marks in our business: Houseplans, Homeplan and AccessMedia. Our subsidiary, AccessMedia, holds non-exclusive licenses to certain software technologies that are key to its current business operations. All such licenses are in perpetuity and royalty free. Mr. Nolan Quan, our principal shareholder, is one of several inventors of these technologies and owns a controlling interest in Broadcaster, LLC, which provides a majority of the non-exclusive licenses to us.

We are in the process of acquiring the technologies which are subject to these licenses and new technologies which we plan to introduce on AccessMedia.tv. In the event we complete our acquisition of these technologies, we intend to further develop and exploit these technologies. We may in turn further license these technologies to third parties. The development costs associated with some of the technologies could be significant; however, we do not anticipate acquiring these rights and incurring further development costs unless the overall benefits to us outweigh such costs.

Our ability to compete effectively depends in part on our ability to develop and maintain the proprietary aspects of our technology. We take certain steps to protect our technology including:

We rely on a combination of copyrights, patents, trademarks, trade secret laws, restrictions on disclosure, and transferring title and other methods.

We enter into confidentiality or license agreements with our employees and consultants, and control access to and distribution of our documentation and other proprietary information.

We provide our products to end users under non-exclusive licenses, which generally are non-transferable and have a perpetual term.

Software companies face a number of risks relating to proprietary rights and licenses. The greatest technology risk arises from the fact that we make source code available for some products. The provision of source code may increase the likelihood of misappropriation or other misuse of our intellectual property.

There can be no assurance that the steps taken by us will prevent misappropriation or infringement of our technology. In addition, litigation may be necessary to protect our trade secrets or to determine the validity and scope of the proprietary rights of others. Litigation presents several additional risk factors to us:

Litigation could result in substantial costs and diversion of resources that could have a material adverse effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

As the number of software products in the industry increases and the functionality of these products further overlaps, software developers and publishers may increasingly become subject to infringement claims.

If any valid claims or actions were asserted against us, we might seek to obtain a license under a third party's intellectual property rights. There can be no assurance, however, that under such circumstances a license would be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

From time to time we have received, and may receive in the future, notice of claims of infringement of other parties' proprietary rights. Although we investigate claims and respond as we deem appropriate and believe we do not infringe upon the intellectual property rights of others, there can be no assurance that infringement claims (or claims for indemnification resulting from infringement claims) will not be asserted or prosecuted against us.

Employees

As of October 31, 2006, we had 45 employees, of which 42 are full-time employees and three part-time employees, including 16 in sales and marketing, 17 in product development and 12 in administration and finance. All employees are located in North America. None of our employees are represented by a labor union and we have experienced no work stoppages. Our success depends to a significant extent upon the performance of our executive officers, key technical personnel, and other employees.

Properties

Our principal offices are located in Chatsworth, California, occupying approximately 14,650 square feet of office space. The lease term expires in September 2007. We also occupy approximately 10,000 square feet of leased office space in Novato, California, approximately 5,000 square feet which is sub-leased to an unrelated third party on similar terms to those of the master lease. The lease expires in March 2007. We plan to vacate the Novato offices in late November 2006 and move our Novato employees to our Chatsworth offices.

We believe the space is adequate for our immediate needs. Additional space may be required as we expand our activities. However, we do not foresee any significant difficulties in obtaining any required additional facilities.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

From time to time, we may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of our operations in the normal course of business.

Our subsidiary, AccessMedia , was named as one of a number of co-defendants in a suit filed by the FTC on August 8, 2006 in the United States District Court for the Central District of California alleging a violation of Section 5 of the FTC Act arising from products known as Movieland.com, Moviepass.tv, and Popcorn.net. The complaint challenges the validity of the use of pop-up payment reminders for software licenses in conjunction with a free trial offer for the Movieland.com, Moviepass.tv and Popcorn.net products. A copy of the complaint may be viewed online at <http://www.ftc.gov/os/caselist/0623008/060808movielandcmplt.pdf>. A United States District Court judge denied the FTC's request to issue a temporary restraining order. The parties have entered into an interim consent order that allows the pop-up payment reminders to continue to issue at least until time of trial and on a reduced frequency per day. Trial on the merits of the case will be scheduled for a later time. Our management believes the claims are without merit and intends to defend the actions vigorously. While our management believes there is no legal basis for liability, due to the uncertainty surrounding the litigation process, no reasonable estimate of loss is available. In addition, AccessMedia was also named as one of a number of co-defendants in a suit filed by the Washington State Attorney General on or about August 8, 2006 in King County Superior Court, alleging violations of the Washington Spyware Act and Consumer Protection Act and arising from products known as Movieland.com, Moviepass.tv, and Popcorn.net. A copy of the Washington complaint can viewed online at <http://www.atg.wa.gov/releases/2006/Documents/MovielandComplaint8-14-06.pdf>. AccessMedia intends to vigorously defend the allegations. While management believes there is no legal basis for liability, due to the uncertainty surrounding the litigation process, no reasonable estimate of loss is available.

We are also subject to legal proceedings, claims, and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcome of these matters is currently not determinable, we do not expect that the ultimate costs to resolve these matters will have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

There are no proceedings in which any of our directors, officers or affiliates, or any registered or beneficial shareholder, is an adverse party or has a material interest adverse to our interest.

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States or GAAP. These accounting principles require us to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions. We believe that the estimates, judgments and assumptions upon which we rely are reasonable based upon information available to us at the time that these estimates, judgments and assumptions are made. These estimates, judgments and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented. Our financial statements would be affected to the extent there are material differences between these estimates and actual results. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by GAAP and does not require management's judgment in its application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result.

Critical Accounting Policies

Those material accounting policies that we believe are the most critical to an investor's understanding of our financial results and condition are discussed below.

Our significant accounting policies are more fully described in the notes to our consolidated financial statements. Two of these policies, discussed immediately below, are particularly important to the portrayal of our financial position and results of operations and require the application of significant judgment by our management to determine the appropriate assumptions to be used in the determination of certain estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position or SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, and SOP 98-9, Modification of SOP 97-2, With Respect to Certain Transactions. Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists (generally a purchase order), product or service has been delivered, the fee is fixed and determinable, and collection of the resulting account is probable.

Revenue from packaged product sales to resellers and end users is recorded at the time of the sale net of estimated returns.

Revenue from sales to distributors is recognized when the product sells through to retailers and end users. Sales to distributors permit limited rights of return according to the terms of the contract.

For software and content delivered via the Internet, revenue is recorded when the customer downloads the software, activates the subscription account or is shipped the content. For online media, revenue is recorded when payment is collected.

Revenue from post-contract customer support is recognized ratably over the contract period.

Subscription revenue is recognized ratably over the contract period.

We use the residual method to recognize revenue when a license agreement includes one or more elements to be delivered at a future date. If there is an undelivered element under the license arrangement, we defer revenue based on vendor-specific objective evidence of the fair value of the undelivered element, as determined by the price charged when the element is sold separately. If vendor-specific objective evidence of fair value does not exist for all undelivered elements, we defer all revenue until sufficient evidence exists or all elements have been delivered.

Non-refundable advanced payments received under license agreements with no defined terms are recognized as revenue when the customer accepts the delivered software.

Revenue from software licensed to developers, including amounts in excess of non-refundable advanced payments, is recorded as the developers ship products containing the licensed software.

Revenue from minimum guaranteed royalties in republishing agreements is recognized ratably over the term of the agreement. Royalties in excess of the guaranteed minimums are recognized when collected.

Revenue from original equipment manufacturer contracts is recognized upon completion of our contractual obligations.

Revenue related to the display of advertisements on its Internet properties is recognized as impressions (the number of times that an advertisement appears in pages viewed by users) are delivered, as long as no significant obligations remain at the end of the period. To the extent that significant obligations remain at the end of the period, Broadcaster defers recognition of the corresponding revenue until the remaining guaranteed amounts are achieved.

Revenue from the display of text-based links to the websites of its advertisers is recognized as the click-throughs (the number of times a user clicks on an advertiser's listing) occur.

Impairment

Property, equipment, intangible and certain other long-lived assets are amortized over their useful lives. Useful lives are based on management's estimates of the period that the assets will generate revenues. We account for the impairment and disposition of long-lived assets in accordance with SFAS 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. In accordance with SFAS 144, long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets.

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, goodwill is being assessed for impairment annually or more frequently if circumstances indicate impairment.

Overview

In 2004, we began exploring various ways to enhance shareholder value, including our further migration from a traditional or packaged software company to offering downloadable media and content over the Internet. We believe that the growth and reach of the Internet coupled with the predictability of recurring revenues should lead to enhanced Broadcaster shareholder value. As such, during 2005 we began discussions with AccessMedia, a developer of a platform for delivering real-time and interactive media over the Internet through its unique virtual set-top box technology. Concurrent with the completion of the acquisition of AccessMedia, we changed our name to Broadcaster, Inc.

We are now a global Internet entertainment network providing consumers with access to online entertainment that is fast, easy, safe, fun, and of great value. We offer a wide variety of on-demand programming including movies, music, television shows, viral videos, mobile media, games, news, sports, and other entertainment focused content, in one place that can be viewed or downloaded at anytime and on any device. Our proprietary virtual set-top box technology available at www.broadcaster.com puts Internet users in control of their entertainment experience allowing users to choose what, when and on which device they want to view media and content.

We provide users with delivery of both short and long form digital entertainment content – giving them the power to download content to their desktop computer, laptop, PSP, iPod or preferred mobile entertainment device. We enable consumers to easily find, organize, download and enjoy the growing volumes of high quality content available online. Our capabilities span our proprietary media library, media under license, and media readily available on the Internet. We are also in discussions with major studios, cable and television networks, music labels, and game producers to become a gateway for the direct delivery of first run movies, popular television shows, music and online games.

Our multi-channel Internet entertainment network redefines the user experience on the Internet, putting more control into the hands of the user with the most advanced technologies including a Download Manager, Entertainment Meta Search, Content Manager, Mobile Transfer Capabilities, Peer-to-Peer Technology, Social Networking Tools and Parental Lock functionality, among others. In addition, our Entertainment Meta Search is one of the most advanced search tools on the Internet and is optimized for rich media content allowing for advanced identification and indexing of media and content.

In addition to our Internet entertainment network, we are also a leading online distributor of stock architectural house plans. We have an extensive library of over 25,000 unique stock architectural house plans with more than 150,000 registered members. Our stock architectural house plans are sold to developers, builders, architects and individuals allowing our customers to substantially reduce upfront planning and building costs.

Strategy and Growth

We believe that consistent growth of both revenues and operating earnings can be achieved through internally developed products and services, and through acquisitions. Management believes that good value target companies are present in the marketplace and that business combinations with these entities would help us achieve our growth potential in addition to providing synergies that would improve profitability.

We had approximately $14,100,000 cash or cash equivalents as of June 30, 2006. Our current cash and cash equivalents balance represents our largest balance on hand within the past two fiscal years.

Acquisitions and Dispositions

Acquisition of Weinmaster Homes, Ltd.

On July 1, 2005, Houseplans, our wholly owned subsidiary, consummated the acquisition of all the stock of Weinmaster Homes, Ltd., pursuant to a stock purchase agreement between Weinmaster Homes, Ltd., Bruce Weinmaster and Janice Weinmaster, and Houseplans, Inc. The purchase price of approximately $4,000,000 consisted of $2,000,000 in cash, $1,000,000 in a promissory note, which was fully paid in the third quarter of 2006, and $1,000,000 (based on the five-day trading average immediately preceding and including June 28, 2005) in Broadcaster's unregistered common stock, which we committed to register for resale and which shares are offered for sale by this prospectus.

Sale of Allume

On July 1, 2005, we sold all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Allume to Smith Micro for an aggregate sales price of $12,800,000 made up as follows (in millions):

Description	Amount
Cash	$ 11.0
Fair value of 397,547 unregistered shares of our Smith Micro common stock	1.8
Total	$ 12.8

The fair value of the common stock was based on the five-trading-day average price of Smith Micro's common stock surrounding the date the business combination was announced.

At closing an indemnity escrow was established to secure certain representations and warranties included in our stock purchase agreement with Smith Micro. The following sale proceeds were deposited into the escrow (in millions):

Description	Amount
Cash	$ 1.25
170,398 unregistered shares of our Smith Micro common stock	0.784
Total	$ 2.034

The value of the common stock was based on the date of closing.

On November 2, 2005, we replaced the shares of Smith Micro common stock in escrow with cash, as permitted by the escrow agreement.

On November 10, 2005, we sold 100% of our holdings of Smith Micro shares at a gain of $923,000 which was included in Other Income as Realized Gain on Securities in the December quarter.

Pursuant to the stock purchase agreement, Smith Micro released $500,000 plus interest of $7,000 and $750,000 plus interest of $26,000 of the escrowed cash to us in December 2005 and March 2006, respectively. These amounts, when released, added to our calculation of gain or loss on the sale.

As a result of this sale, we have categorized the assets, liabilities, and operations of Allume as discontinued operations for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005 and in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. We recorded a gain on the sale of discontinued operations of $776,000, representing the amount released from escrow on March 31, 2006 plus accrued interest. The gain on the sale of Allume totaled $302,000 as of March 31, 2006. This gain calculation does not consider the remaining cash held in escrow of approximately $300,000 and is subject to change in future reporting periods depending upon the future release of cash from escrow. The escrow is expected to close on December 31, 2006.

Acquisition of AccessMedia

We completed the Merger with AccessMedia on June 1, 2006 pursuant to which we issued 29,000,000 shares of our common stock and agreed to issue up to an additional 35,000,000 shares of our common stock upon achievement of certain revenue milestones to the former shareholders of AccessMedia. In connection with the Merger, we changed our name to Broadcaster, Inc.

We believe that the Merger offers us an opportunity to enter into the highly scalable Internet media industry. The underlying growth in the Internet media industry, coupled with the potential for high margin product offerings, innovative marketing strategies, and exceptional management team, should combine to provide us with substantial growth and profit opportunities, creating significant shareholder value.

Sale of Precision Design Business

On June 9, 2006, we sold our legacy Precision Design software business as part of our overall strategy to position us solely as an online business. We received a combination of $6,500,000 in cash of which $500,000 was deposited in an escrow to back our representations and warranties in the sale Agreement, and an interest free note of $1,500,000 which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. Included in the assets sold were the TurboCad and DesignCAD product lines as well as other design and personal productivity titles.

Revenues by Business Segment

We have two business segments: AccessMedia and Houseplans.

Although it was only recently commercially launched, AccessMedia generated revenues of $945,000 for the one month ended June 30, 2006. Revenue includes software sales, internet media advertising sales, and the sale of text-based internet links. Sales of downloaded products are recognized ratably over the term of the license sold. Sales of advertisements are recognized upon the delivery of the impressions guaranteed. Sales of click throughs are recognized upon delivery of the click throughs guaranteed. We anticipate that in fiscal year 2007, AccessMedia will represent a much larger percentage of our total revenues.

We acquired Houseplans (formerly, Planworks LLC) in November 2003, Abbisoft House Plans, Inc. in September 2004, and Weinmaster Homes, Ltd. in July 2005. We have grown this business to be the leading online seller of stock architectural house plans, targeting general contractors, consumers, and designers. Our websites include houseplans.com, homeplanfinder.com, houseplanguys.com, globalhouseplans.com, and weinmaster.com. Revenues generated by Houseplans grew substantially during the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to the same period in the previous fiscal year from $4,347,000 to $7,258,000, a 67% increase. Excluding the acquisition of Weinmaster, revenues grew from $4,347,000 to $5,021,000, a 15.6% increase.

Gross Profit

Our consolidated gross profit increased by approximately 100% from $2,523,000 to $5,029,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006, respectively. Gross margin increased from 58.02% to 61.3%, primarily as a result of improvements in Houseplans gross profits discussed below. On a pro forma basis, gross profit in fiscal year 2006 was $7,963,000, reflecting a pro forma gross margin of 58%. The difference is due to AccessMedia's gross profit consolidated with Broadcaster's gross profit. AccessMedia's gross margins were impacted by its rollout expenses and ramp-up. As revenues increase, gross margin is expected to increase. Our plan is to emphasize growth opportunities in the AccessMedia business. The cost of revenues increased as a function of increasing activity over the periods and as result of amortization of assets acquired during 2005.

AccessMedia's cost of revenues consists of costs related to the products and services AccessMedia provides to customers. These costs include materials, salaries and related expenses for product support personnel, depreciation and maintenance of equipment used in providing services to customers and facilities expenses.

AccessMedia expects to become cash flow positive after a full product launch, when the overhead costs described above can be amortized over a larger revenue base. AccessMedia also expects its product offerings to expand and the mixture of sales to change. Because of its limited operating history, changes in revenue mix, recent exit from the development stage and evolving business model, AccessMedia believes that analysis of historical cost of revenues as a percentage of revenue is not meaningful.

Houseplans's gross profits increased by 79.0% from $2,523,000 to $4,510,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006 respectively. Gross margin increased from 58.0% to 62.1%, primarily as a result of more competitive royalty rates with our vendors, an increased collection of proprietary royalty-free content and the successful integration of acquisitions.

Sales and Marketing

Sales and marketing expenses increased by 54.6% from $1,903,000 to $2,944,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006, respectively. This increase was principally due to the merger with AccessMedia and the acquisition of Weinmaster. On a pro forma basis, sales and marketing expenses were $5,620,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006.

Sales and marketing expense for AccessMedia consists primarily of salaries and related expenses for sales, support and marketing personnel, commissions, costs and expenses for customer acquisition programs and referrals, a portion of facilities expenses and depreciation and amortization of equipment. AccessMedia's expense levels have increased because of staffing and costs involved in testing and prototyping programs for selling its software, advertising and text-based links. AccessMedia anticipates that sales and marketing expense will continue to increase in absolute dollars as AccessMedia adds sales and marketing personnel and increases its customer acquisition activities.

Sales and marketing expenses for Houseplans increased during the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to the same period from the previous fiscal year. This increase was mainly the result of the additional sales and marketing expenses related (i) to Weinmaster, our newly acquired business, (ii) to the increased direct marketing expenses, especially relating to advertising necessary to increase the traffic to our websites and (iii) to the increased payroll and related expenses from additional headcount. Despite the increase in sales and marketing expenses for this segment during the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 as compared to the same period from the previous fiscal year, we continue to integrate the acquisitions and we continue to implement savings and identify synergies among our business units.

General and Administrative

General and administrative expense consists primarily of salaries and related expenses for administrative, finance, legal, human resources, and executive personnel, fees for professional services and costs of accounting and internal control systems to support its operations. Expenses have increased primarily due to the addition of headcount in management and administration to support the increasing activity levels and as a result of amortization of assets acquired during 2006. Because of the changes in the direction of Broadcaster, the general administrative costs have increased from 21% of sales to 46% of sales. This is mainly a result of the severance and bonus costs and the costs related to the disposition of Precision Design and the acquisition of AccessMedia.

We anticipate that general and administrative expense for AccessMedia will continue to increase in absolute dollars as AccessMedia builds its management team and hires additional administrative personnel and incurs increased costs such as professional fees. AccessMedia expects to secure a number of services from a related party at a market rate.

We expect that general and administrative expense of Houseplans will remain at a consistent fixed percent of overhead. Due to the market conditions, Broadcaster does not foresee any unexpected costs that would increase the overall general and administrative cost of Houseplans.

Research and Development

Our research and development expenses consist primarily of salaries and benefits for research and development employees and payments to independent contractors, mainly our third party contract development teams. Our research and development expense was 3% and 2% of sales for the fiscal years 2006 and 2005, respectively. We do not expect that the overall cost of research and development will exceed 5% of sales for fiscal year 2007.

Interest and Other, Net

Interest and other, net, changed from a net expense of $91,000 to a net gain of $125,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2005, respectively. The change was principally due to an increase in cash balances and a reduction in debt obligations resulting from the deployment of proceeds from the sale of Allume.

Gain/(Loss) on Marketable Securities

Gain/(Loss) on Marketable Securities increased from ($42,000) to $765,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006, respectively. The change was primarily due to the gain recorded on the sale of Smith Micro shares acquired as part of the consideration for the sale of Allume.

Provision for State and Federal Income Taxes

We recorded income tax expense of $11,000 and $25,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The tax expense for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 primarily represented accrued federal and state income taxes resulting from the limitation of net operating loss carryforwards and accrued Canadian income taxes. The current tax provision was offset by a deferred tax benefit resulting from the amortization of certain purchased intangibles assets. The tax expense for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 includes state income taxes accrued where we have operations.

We have not recorded a tax benefit for domestic tax losses because of the uncertainty of realization. We adhere to SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, which requires an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Consistent with our past practice, we have recorded a full valuation allowance at June 30, 2006 as the realizeability of our net operating loss carry-forwards is not determinable.

Discontinued Operations

Twelve months ended June 30, 2006: Sale of Allume

On July 1, 2005, we sold all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Allume to Smith Micro for an aggregate sales price of $12,800,000 million consisting of $11,000,000 cash and 397,547 unregistered shares of Smith Micro's common stock, with a fair value of approximately $1,800,000.

The fair value of the common stock was based on the five-day trading average price of Smith Micro's common stock surrounding the date the business combination was announced.

At closing an indemnity escrow was established to secure certain representations and warranties included in our stock purchase agreement with Smith Micro. The following sale proceeds were deposited into the escrow (in millions):

Description	Amount
Cash	$ 1.25
170,398 unregistered shares of our Smith Micro common stock	0.784
Total	$ 2.034

The value of the common stock was based on the date of closing.

On November 2, 2005, we replaced the shares of Smith Micro common stock in escrow with cash, as permitted by the escrow agreement.

On November 10, 2005, we sold 100% of our holdings of Smith Micro shares at a gain of $923,000 which was shown in Other Income as Realized Gain on Securities in the December 2005 quarter.

Pursuant to the stock purchase agreement, Smith Micro released $500,000 plus interest of $7,000 and $750,000 plus interest of $26,000 of the escrowed cash to us in December 2005 and March 2006, respectively. These amounts, when released, added to our calculation of gain or loss on the sale.

As a result of this sale, we have categorized the assets, liabilities and operations of Allume as discontinued operations for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005 and in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 we recorded a gain on the sale of discontinued operations of $776,000 representing the amount released from escrow on March 31, 2006 plus accrued interest. The gain on the sale of Allume totaled $302,000 as of March 31, 2006. This gain calculation does not consider the remaining cash held in escrow of approximately $300,000 and is subject to change in future reporting periods depending upon the future release of cash from escrow.

Twelve months ended June 30, 2006: Sale of Precision Design

On June 9, 2006, Broadcaster sold substantially all of the assets used in the operation of the segment of our business referred to as the Precision Design business. The assets were sold to IMSI Design LLC, a California limited liability company, which was newly formed for the purpose of the acquisition.

In consideration for the transfer of the assets, IMSI Design LLC paid $6,500,000 in cash, of which $500,000 was deposited in an escrow to secure our representations and warranties in the sale agreement. We expect the escrow to close on December 20, 2006. IMSI Design LLC also delivered a promissory note in the principal amount of $1,500,000, which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. In addition, IMSI Design LLC assumed certain liabilities, and agreed to perform a number of contracts that were associated with the Precision Design business.

As a result of this sale, we have categorized the assets, liabilities, and operations of the Precision Design software segment as discontinued operations for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005 and in the twelve months ended June 30, 2006, we recorded a gain on the sale of discontinued operations of $4,532,000. The gain on the sale of Allume for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 totaled $302,000.

Loss from discontinued operations totaling $2,791,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2006 represents the pre-tax loss of the Precision Design segment.

All options granted in the year ended June 30, 2006 were granted pursuant to our 2004 Stock Incentive Option Plan. These options, which typically have a four-year vesting period, become exercisable over time based on continuous employment with Broadcaster, and, in certain cases, are subject to various performance criteria or vest in full immediately. Does not include 3,750,000 options to purchase our common stock granted to Mr. Martin Wade, III effective September 12, 2006 at an exercise price of $0.95. Of the options, 200,000 are fully vested and the remaining options will vest if revenue milestones are achieved by AccessMedia. Mr. Wade's Employment Agreement provided he would get the options at the closing of the Merger, but because the board of directors did not authorize the grant by the time of the closing, it was not effective until September 12, 2006, the following fiscal year.

All options in this table have exercise prices equal to the fair market value on the date of grant.

(3)

Potential gains are net of exercise price, but before taxes associated with exercise. These amounts represent certain assumed rates of appreciation only, based on the SEC rules. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on the future performance of the common stock, overall market conditions and the option holder's continued employment through the vesting period. The amounts reflected in this table may not necessarily be achieved. If there is no appreciation, there is no potential realizable value.

(4)

Mr. Landies ceased to serve as our President effective as of February 28, 2006, but remained on our payroll until June 30, 2006.

(5)

Mr. Mayer ceased to serve as an employee as of July 1, 2006.

Based upon a Schedule 13D filed by Mr. Gardner and Mr. Quan with the SEC on September 14, 2006. As a result of two voting agreements entered into prior to the Merger, a Parent Voting Agreement among AccessMedia, Mr. Wade, Baytree Capital, a company controlled by Mr. Michael Gardner, and Digital Creative, and a Company Voting Agreement among the former shareholders of AccessMedia consisting of Mr. Gardner and four limited liability companies controlled by Mr. Nolan Quan, each of Mr. Quan and the four limited liability companies, Mr. Gardner, Baytree Capital, Mr. Wade and Digital Creative are deemed to be the beneficial owners of each others shares of common stock. The actual numbers used in computing this sum are:

- Mr. Quan 20,880,000 shares;

- Mr. Wade 246,667 shares issuable upon exercise of vested options; and

Mr. Gardner cannot determine the actual number without unreasonable expense. Notwithstanding the fact that each of the above persons is deemed to be the beneficial owner of each others shares of common stock, each disclaims beneficial ownership of all shares owned by the other parties, except that Mr. Gardner is the beneficial owner of shares of common stock owned by Baytree Capital and Mr. Quan is the beneficial owner of common stock owned by the four limited liability companies.

During the one month ended June 30, 2006, we incurred approximately $180,749 in costs associated with employee benefits, administrative space and operating costs. Mr. Nolan Quan owns, either directly or indirectly, approximately 27% of Alchemy.

Technology and Content Licensing Agreements

MyVod Inc., our wholly-owned indirect subsidiary, has entered into various licensing agreements with Broadcaster LLC, in consideration of a one-time license fee of one dollar for each license. The licenses provide certain key technologies, including digital rights management and content distribution systems, in connection with our AccessMedia business. The licenses are nonexclusive and are granted in perpetuity. However, we generally do not have the right to modify the licensed technologies used in our AccessMedia business, nor do we have the right to receive updates or upgrades or to obtain a copy of the source code for such technologies. Mr. Nolan Quan, who is our principal shareholder and one of several inventors of some of the licensed technologies, holds a majority interest in Broadcaster LLC. We are in the process of acquiring the technologies which are subject to these licenses and new technologies which we plan to introduce on AccessMedia.tv. Note Receivable from Related Party Digital Creative Development Corporation 15% Note

In September 2003, we lent Digital Creative, a corporation of which our Chairman of the Board, Mr. Bruce Galloway, was President, $350,000 and received a one-year note together with 15% interest. The note was secured by 400,000 shares of our common stock owned by Digital Creative. In September 2004, the note was extended to May 31, 2005 in exchange for full payment of accrued interest and a $25,000 reduction in the principal of the note. On January 31, 2005, we sold the Digital Creative note to a third party for $343,000, representing the principal balance then due together with accrued interest. We received payment on February 10, 2005.

Note Payable to Related Party

AccessMedia owes $1,725,000 to Mr. Nolan Quan, who is our principal shareholder. The notes pay annual interests of 4% and are collateralized by the assets of AccessMedia. The notes are payable on demand.

Consulting Agreements

Mr. Nolan Quan recently agreed to enter into a Consulting Agreement with AccessMedia in exchange for $1,000 per month, reimbursement of expenses and certain indemnification. Mr. Quan will provide strategic advisory services on a part-time basis to our Chief Executive Officer and AccessMedia shareholders.

On May 1, 2003, we entered into a Consulting Agreement with Mr. Bruce Galloway, Chairman of our Board of Directors, to provide services to Broadcaster related to potential acquisitions and divestitures. In return for his services, Mr. Galloway could be entitled to a fee from zero to $200,000 for each such transaction dependent on his involvement and the consideration received or paid by us as a result of the transactions. Mr. Galloway was not compensated under this agreement in fiscal year 2004 or 2005 or through December 31, 2005 and the agreement was terminated on December 12, 2005. At that time, we entered into a new Consulting Agreement with Mr. Galloway to provide services to Broadcaster related to investor introductions and relationships. In return for his services through June 30, 2006, Mr. Galloway was paid $10,000 per month. The Agreement expired on June 30, 2006.

On June 20, 2005, we entered into a Consulting Agreement with Baytree Capital, a company controlled by Mr. Michael Gardner, one of our principal shareholders. Baytree Capital agreed to act as our exclusive financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We agreed to pay Baytree Capital a fee equal to 5% of the consideration payable to the AccessMedia shareholders who included Mr. Gardner. Accordingly, at the closing, we issued Baytree Capital 1,450,000 shares of common stock. Additionally, we issued Baytree Capital 1,000,000 shares of our common stock for consulting services and agreed to reimburse Baytree for its reasonable expenses. For accounting purposes, all 2,450,000 shares were treated as merger-related costs. Over the past two years, we have not paid Baytree Capital any other fees. Under the terms of our agreement with Baytree Capital, to the extent we issue former AccessMedia shareholders additional shares of our common stock as Merger Consideration based upon meeting future revenue milestones, we are obligated to pay Baytree Capital a fee equal to 5% of the shares issued.

Parent Voting Agreement

On December 16, 2005, Mr. Wade, Digital Creative and Baytree Capital entered into a certain Parent Voting Agreement with AccessMedia. Under this agreement, Mr. Wade, Digital Creative and Baytree Capital agreed to vote the shares of our common stock beneficially owned by them, following the Merger, in favor of electing Mr. Wade and each individual nominated by the representative of the AccessMedia shareholders to become a member of the Board of Directors and in favor of electing a sufficient number of individuals to our Board of Directors nominated by the representative of the AccessMedia shareholders such that such individuals would represent a majority of our Board of Directors after the date upon which AccessMedia achieves revenue of $20,000,000.

The Parent Voting Agreement was subsequently amended as of September 18, 2006, pursuant to which the obligations under this agreement terminate on the earlier to occur of (i) December 31, 2010 and (ii) the date on which the aggregate number of shares issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement to the former shareholders of AccessMedia, exclusive of any shares issued in connection with any banking, consulting, broker or other fees or arrangements related to the Merger, represent a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Broadcaster.

Company Voting Agreement

On December 16, 2005, each of Mr. Michael Gardner and Mr. Nolan Quan entered into a Company Voting Agreement with Broadcaster, whereby each agreed to vote their shares of our common stock for the election of directors to our Board of Directors, following the Merger, in favor of Mr. Wade and each other individual nominated by Broadcaster (subject to Mr. Quan's right to have certain individuals designated by their representative pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement).

The Company Voting Agreement was subsequently amended as of September 18, 2006 pursuant to which the obligations under this agreement terminate on the earlier to occur of (i) December 31, 2010 and (ii) the date on which the aggregate number of shares issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement to the former shareholders of AccessMedia, exclusive of any shares issued in connection with any banking, consulting, broker or other fees or arrangements related to the Merger, represent a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Broadcaster.

Severance Arrangements

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus for the Selling Shareholders. The Selling Shareholders and any of their respective pledgees, donees, assignees and other successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board or any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions, subject to certain lock-up agreements. These sales may be at fixed prices which may be changed, at market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to market prices or at negotiated prices. The Selling Shareholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- short sales;
- broker-dealers may agree with the Selling Shareholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- writing of options on the shares;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Shareholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

The Selling Shareholders may pledge their shares to their brokers under the margin provisions of customer agreements. If a Selling Shareholder defaults on a margin loan, the broker may, from time to time, offer and sell the pledged shares.

The Selling Shareholders may also engage in short sales against the box, puts and calls and other transactions in our securities or derivatives of our securities and may sell or deliver shares in connection with these trades. They may not deliver any of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus in order to cover a short position.

The Selling Shareholders or their respective pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest may also sell the shares directly to market makers acting as principals and/or broker-dealers acting as agents for themselves or their customers. Such broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Shareholders and/or the purchasers of shares for whom such broker-dealers may act as agents or to whom they sell as principal or both, which compensation as to a particular broker-dealer might be in excess of customary commissions. Market makers and block purchasers purchasing the shares will do so for their own account and at their own risk. It is possible that a Selling Shareholder will attempt to sell shares of common stock in block transactions to market makers or other purchasers at a price per share which may be below the then market price. The Selling Shareholders and any brokers, dealers or agents, upon effecting the sale of any of the shares offered in this prospectus, may be deemed to be underwriters as that term is defined under the Securities Act of 1933 or the rules thereunder. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The Selling Shareholders, alternatively, may sell all or any part of the shares offered in this prospectus through an underwriter. No Selling Shareholder has entered into any agreement with a prospective underwriter and the Selling Shareholders have advised us that they have no plans to enter into any such agreement.

The Selling Shareholders and any other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the shares will be subject to applicable provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules thereunder, without limitation, Regulation M. These provisions may restrict certain activities of, and limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares by, the Selling Shareholders or any other such person. Furthermore, under Regulation M, persons engaged in a distribution of securities are prohibited from simultaneously engaging in market making and certain other activities with respect to such securities for a specified period of time prior to the commencement of such distributions, subject to specified exceptions or exemptions. All of these limitations may affect the marketability of the shares.

We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Shareholders, or their transferees or assignees, against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act or to contribute to payments the Selling Shareholders or their respective pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest, may be required to make in respect of such liabilities.

If the Selling Shareholders notify us that they have a material arrangement with a broker-dealer for the resale of the common stock, then we would be required to amend the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, and file a prospectus supplement to describe the agreements between the Selling Shareholders and the broker-dealer.

The following Selling Shareholders, Software People LLC, Trans Global Media LLC, Broadcaster LLC, AccessMedia Technologies LLC, Digital Creative Development Corp., and Martin Wade have executed a lock-up agreement pursuant to which each such Selling Shareholder for a period of 12 months following the closing of the Merger agrees to not sell more than two percent (2%) of our common stock held by them in any two-month period, unless a greater amount is permitted by Baytree Capital, based on Baytree Capital's determination of the lack of an adverse effect of any such increase on the trading of our common stock in the public market.

We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares, excluding fees and disbursements of counsel to the Selling Shareholders, brokerage commissions and underwriter discounts.

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Common Stock

Pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation, as amended, we are authorized to issue 300,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value per share. The following is a description of our common stock, shares of which are being offered in this prospectus:

Holders of the common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held by them of record on the books of Broadcaster in all matters to be voted on by the shareholders. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available, and in the event of liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of Broadcaster, to share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities. Declaration of dividends on common stock is subject to the discretion of the Board of Directors and will depend upon a number of factors, including the future earnings, capital requirements, and financial condition of Broadcaster. We have not declared dividends on our common stock in the past and our management currently anticipates that retained earnings, if any, in the future will be applied to our expansion and development rather than the payment of dividends.

The holders of common stock have no preemptive or conversions rights, and are not subject to further calls or assessments by Broadcaster. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock. The Articles of Incorporation require the approval of the holders of a majority of our common stock for certain fundamental corporate actions, such as mergers and sales of substantial assets, or for an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, other than an amendment to designate one or more series of preferred stock, as described below. There exists no provision in the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws that would delay, defer, or prevent a change in control of Broadcaster.

Preferred Stock

Our Articles of Incorporation further authorize our Board of Directors, subject to any limitations prescribed by law and without further shareholder approval, to issue from time to time up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series. Our Articles also authorize our Board of Directors, subject to the limitations prescribed by California law, to establish the number of shares to be included in each series and to fix the voting powers, preferences, qualifications, and special or relative rights or privileges of each series; and to issue preferred stock with voting, conversion, and other rights and preferences that could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of common stock.

The purpose of authorizing our Board of Directors to issue preferred stock and determine its rights and preferences is to eliminate delays associated with a shareholder vote on specific issuances. The issuance of preferred stock or of rights to purchase preferred stock, however, could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or of discouraging a third party from attempting to acquire, a majority of our outstanding common stock.

As of the date hereof, there were no series of preferred stock designated, and we have no current plans to issue any preferred stock.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar of our common stock is American Stock Transfer and Trust, 59 Maiden Lane, New York, NY 10038.

Market Information

Our common stock is quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol BCSR.OB.

Grant Thornton LLP Resignation

Grant Thornton LLP audited our financial statements for the fiscal year ended on June 30, 2004 and for the preceding five fiscal years. DISCLOSURE OF COMMISSION POSITION OF INDEMNIFICATION FOR SECURITIES ACT LIABILITIES

Indemnification. Our Bylaws and Section 317 of the California Corporations Code allow, and in some cases require, the indemnification of directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law for all expenses relating to civil, criminal, administrative or investigative procedures to which they are a party (i) by reason of the fact that they are or were directors or officers of Broadcaster or (ii) by reason of the fact that, while they are or were directors or officers of Broadcaster, they are or were serving at the request of Broadcaster as a director, officer or employee of another enterprise.

SEC Position on Securities Act Liabilities. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling us pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission or SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders

Broadcaster, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Broadcaster, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of June 30, 2006 and 2005 and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss), shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Broadcaster, Inc. and subsidiaries as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

BROADCASTER, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization, Operations and Liquidity

The Company was incorporated in California in November 1982. Broadcaster operates a subscription based internet entertainment network and promotes and sells house plans and other services to consumers and builders over the Internet. Prior to the disposal of the Precision Design business, the Company also developed and published CAD software and similar products targeted to small to medium-size businesses, professionals, and consumers. The Company's strategy to reposition itself as an online business has been achieved via the acquisitions of AccessMedia Networks Inc (2006), Weinmaster Homes Ltd. (2005) and Houseplans Inc (2004), and by the divestiture of the Precision Design business (2006). As consideration for the sale of Precision Design, we received a combination of $6.5 million in cash and an interest free note of $1.5 million which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. Included in the assets sold were the TurboCad and DesignCAD product lines as well as other design and personal productivity titles.

Historically, we have financed our working capital and capital expenditure requirements primarily from short-term and long-term notes and bank borrowings, capitalized leases and sales of common stock. We may also seek additional equity and/or debt financing to sustain our growth strategy. However, we believe that we have sufficient funds to support our operations at least for the next twelve months, based on our current cash position, equity sources and borrowing capacity. We believe that we will be able to obtain any additional financing required on competitive terms. In addition, we will continue to seek opportunities and discussions with third parties concerning the sale or license of certain product lines and/or the sale or license of a portion of our assets.

To achieve our growth objectives, we are considering different strategies, including growth through mergers and/or acquisitions. As a result, we are evaluating and we will continue to evaluate other companies and businesses for potential synergies that would add value to our existing operations.

The forecast period of time through which our financial resources will be adequate to support working capital and capital expenditure requirements is a forward-looking statement that involves risks and uncertainties, and actual results could vary. Furthermore, any additional equity financing may be dilutive to shareholders, and debt financing may involve restrictive covenants.

We are subject to the risks associated with similar companies in a comparable stage of growth and expansion. These risks include, but are not limited to, fluctuations in operating results, seasonality, competition, dependence on key individuals, dependence on international operations, foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, product concentration, and the ability to adequately finance its ongoing operations.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Broadcaster and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Our principal operating subsidiaries were Houseplans as of June 30, 2005 and AccessMedia Networks Inc, Houseplans Inc and Weinmaster Homes Ltd as of June 30, 2006.

Use of Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP). These accounting principles require us to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions. We believe that the estimates, judgments and assumptions upon which we rely are reasonable based upon information available to us at the time that these estimates, judgments and assumptions are made. These estimates, judgments and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of our consolidated financial statements as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented. Our consolidated financial statements would be affected to the extent there are material differences between these estimates and actual results. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by GAAP and does not require management's judgment in its application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, and SOP 98-9, Modification of SOP 97-2, With Respect to Certain Transactions. Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists (generally a purchase order), product has been delivered, the fee is fixed and determinable, and collection of the resulting account is probable.

Revenue from packaged product sales to resellers and end users is recorded at the time of the sale net of estimated returns.

Revenue from sales to distributors is recognized when the product sells through to retailers and end users. Sales to distributors permit limited rights of return according to the terms of the contract.

For software and content delivered via the Internet, revenue is recorded when the customer downloads the software, activates the subscription account or is shipped the content. For online media revenue when payment is collected

Revenue from post contract customer support (PCS) is recognized ratably over the contract period.

Subscription revenue is recognized ratably over the contract period.

We use the residual method to recognize revenue when a license agreement includes one or more elements to be delivered at a future date. If there is an undelivered element under the license arrangement, we defer revenue based on vendor-specific objective evidence (VSOE) of the fair value of the undelivered element, as determined by the price charged when the element is sold separately. If VSOE of fair value does not exist for all undelivered elements, we defer all revenue until sufficient evidence exists or all elements have been delivered.

Non-refundable advanced payments received under license agreements with no defined terms are recognized as revenue when the customer accepts the delivered software.

Revenue from software licensed to developers, including amounts in excess of non-refundable advanced payments, is recorded as the developers ship products containing the licensed software.

Revenue from minimum guaranteed royalties in republishing agreements is recognized ratably over the term of the agreement. Royalties in excess of the guaranteed minimums are recognized when collected.

Revenue from original equipment manufacturer (OEM) contracts is recognized upon completion of our contractual obligations.

Revenue related to the display of advertisements on its Internet properties as impressions (the number of times that an advertisement appears in pages viewed by users) are delivered, as long as no significant obligations remain at the end of the period. To the extent that significant obligations remain at the end of the period, the Company defers recognition of the corresponding revenue until the remaining guaranteed amounts are achieved.

Revenue from the display of text-based links to the websites of its advertisers is recognized as the click-throughs (the number of times a user clicks on an advertiser's listing) occur.

Concentrations

Financial instruments that potentially subject us to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash and cash equivalents and receivables. At times, cash balances held at financial institutions are in excess of federally insured limits.

No single customer accounted for greater than 10% of our gross revenues in any period presented.

BROADCASTER, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Royalty Agreements

We have entered into agreements whereby we are obligated to pay royalties on content published. We generally pay royalties based on a percentage of sales on respective products or on a fee per unit sold basis. We expense royalties as product costs during the period in which the related revenues are recorded.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

We consider all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of June 30, 2006, approximately $548,203 of our cash was held in foreign financial institutions for the benefit of our foreign subsidiaries.

Marketable Securities

Some of the excess funds not needed for current operations are used to invest in marketable securities. All investments in securities are bought and sold through a registered broker; and, held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term. Every month, we buy and sell security investments, thus continually changing our stock positions. Therefore, the investments in securities are classified as trading securities as defined in paragraph 12.a. of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115 (FAS 115). The unrealized holding gains and losses of these securities have been included in earnings in accordance with paragraph 13 of FAS 115.

Marketable securities are stated at fair value. Marketable securities maturing within one year that are classified as current assets. We carry all of our marketable securities at fair value. During the year ended June 30, 2006, all our holdings of marketable securities were liquidated.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, trade payables and debt approximates carrying value due to the short maturity of such instruments.

As of June 30, 2006 we had no holdings of marketable securities.

Inventories

Inventories, consisting primarily of CD-ROMs, manuals, packaging, freight in, production costs and packing supplies, are valued at the lower of cost or market and are accounted for on the first-in, first-out basis. Management performs periodic assessments to determine the existence of obsolete, slow moving and non-salable inventories, and records necessary provisions to reduce such inventories to net realizable value. We recognize all inventory reserves as a component of product costs. Following the discontinuance of the Precision Design business, the Company determined that any remaining inventory was obsolete.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Depreciation of furniture and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets of 3 to 5 years. Depreciation of software and computer equipment is computed using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 3 years.

Software Development Costs and License Fees

Costs incurred in the initial design phase of software development are expensed as incurred in research and development. Once the point of technological feasibility is reached, direct production costs are capitalized in compliance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards SFAS No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed. We cease capitalizing computer software costs when the product is available for general release to customers. Costs associated with acquired completed software are capitalized.

We amortize capitalized software development costs and visual content license fees on a product-by-product basis. The amortization for each product is the greater of the amount computed using (a) the ratio of current gross revenues to the total of current and anticipated future gross revenues for the product or (b) 18, 36, or 60 months, depending on the product. Broadcaster evaluates the net realizable value of each software product at each balance sheet date and records write-downs to net realizable value for any products for which the carrying value is in excess of the estimated net realizable value.

Other Intangible Assets

Other intangible assets other than goodwill represent Internet domain names, acquired customer lists and contracts, distribution rights and relationships, trade names and trademarks and media content. These assets are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, generally five to thirty years.

Goodwill

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, goodwill is being assessed for impairment annually (in our first fiscal quarter) or more frequently if circumstances indicate impairment. We have not recognized any impairment related to goodwill in either fiscal 2006 or fiscal 2005.

Impairment of Long Lived Assets

We review long-lived assets and identifiable intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of these assets may not be recoverable. We assess these assets for impairment based on estimated undiscounted future cash flows from these assets. If the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated future undiscounted cash flows, a loss is recorded for the excess of the asset's carrying value over the fair value. We did not recognize any impairment loss for long-lived assets in either fiscal 2006 or fiscal 2005.

Advertising Costs

We expense advertising costs as they are incurred. Advertising and related promotion expenses for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2005 were $1,234,000 and $950,000, respectively.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for using an asset and liability approach for financial reporting. We recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amount and the tax basis of assets and liabilities and net operating loss and tax credit carry forwards. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized.

Foreign Currency Translation

The asset and liability accounts of foreign subsidiaries are translated from their respective functional currencies at the rates in effect at the balance sheet date, and revenue and expense accounts are translated at weighted average rates during the periods. Foreign currency translation adjustments are included in other comprehensive income. Foreign currency transaction gains and losses are included in the statement of operations.

Stock Based Awards

We account for stock-based compensation plans in accordance with Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, under which no compensation cost is recognized in the financial statements for employee stock arrangements when grants are made at fair market value. We have adopted the disclosure-only provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure.

In February 2000, we canceled approximately 870,000 common stock options held by existing employees and replaced those options with new options with a revised expiration date. The canceled options had a weighted average exercise price of $3.51 per share, and the reissued options are exercisable at $0.75 per share. This cancellation and re-grant meets the definition of a re-pricing under FIN 44, and the reissued options are being accounted for as variable plan accounting. Under variable plan accounting, we recognize an expense or benefit equal to the per share change in the share value until the underlying option expires or is exercised. During fiscal year 2006 and 2005, we recognized a $5,000 benefit and a $0 expense respectively related to stock options.

Had compensation cost for the stock-based compensation plans been determined based upon the fair value at grant dates for awards under those plans consistent with the method prescribed by SFAS 123, net income would have been charged the pro forma amounts indicated below. The pro forma consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the related historical information and is not necessarily indicative of actual results.

We have granted options and warrants to certain key consultants which resulted in non-cash expenses recognized as of June 30, 2006. Non-cash expenses for grants to non-employees were recorded at the time of options and warrant grants, and calculated using the Black-Scholes method of valuation. NOTE 1.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Postretirement Benefits - In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards NO. 158, Employers Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R) (SFAS 158). This Statement requires an employer to recognize the overfunded or underfunded status of a defined benefit postretirement plan (other than a multiemployer plan) as an asset or liability in its statement of financial position and to recognize changes in that funded status in the year in which the changes occur through comprehensive income of a business entity or changes in unrestricted net assets of a not-for-profit organization. This Statement also requires an employer to measure the funded status of a plan as of the date of its year-end statement of financial position, with limited exceptions. SFAS 158 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2006. We are currently assessing the potential impact that adoption of SFAS 158 will have on our financial statements.

Fair Value Measurements - In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). This Statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements, but does not require any new fair value measurements. SFAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. We are currently assessing the potential impact that adoption of SFAS 157 will have on our financial statements.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - In June 2006, the FASB issued FIN No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. The interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN No. 48 requires recognition of tax benefits that satisfy a greater than 50% probability threshold. FIN No. 48 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. FIN No. 48 is effective for us beginning July 1, 2007. We are assessing the potential impact that the adoption of FIN No. 48 will have on our financial statements.

Accounting Changes and Error Corrections - In June 2005, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections (SFAS 154) . SFAS 154 replaces APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes and FAS No. 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statement . SFAS 154 requires that a voluntary change in accounting principle be applied retrospectively with all prior period financial statements presented on the new accounting principle. SFAS 154 also requires that a change in method of depreciating or amortizing a long-lived non-financial asset be accounted for prospectively as a change in estimate, and correction of errors in previously issued financial statements should be termed a restatement . SFAS 154 is effective for accounting changes and correction of errors made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2005. The implementation of SFAS 154 is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Share-Based Payment - revision of SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - In December 2004, FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards SFAS No. 123 (Revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123(R)). The new pronouncement replaces the existing requirements under SFAS 123 and APB 25. According to SFAS 123(R), all forms of share-based payments to employees, including employee stock options and employee stock purchase plans, would be treated the same as any other form of compensation by recognizing the related cost in the Statement of Operations. This pronouncement eliminates the ability to account for stock-based compensation transactions using APB No. 25 and generally would require instead that such transactions be accounted for using a fair-value based method. FASB concluded that, for small business issuers, SFAS 123(R) is effective for awards and stock options granted, modified or settled in cash in annual periods beginning after December 15, 2005. SFAS 123(R) provides transition alternatives for public companies to restate prior interim periods or prior years. We are in the process of evaluating the impact of this standard on our Statement of Operations.

Reclassifications

The amounts reported for fiscal 2006 and 2005 present the results of operations for the Software segment as discontinued operations due to the sale of Precision Design on June 9, 2006.

NOTE 2.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

Sale of Precision Design

In June, 2006, we sold Precision Design, our legacy software business as part of our overall strategy to position the company solely as an on-line business. We received a combination of $6.5 million in cash of which $0.5 million was deposited in an escrow to back our representations and warranties in the sale Agreement, and an interest free note of $1.5 million which was paid in full on July 3, 2006. Included in the assets sold were the TurboCad and DesignCAD product lines as well as other design and personal productivity titles.

The sale of Precision Design is expected reduce our operating expenses for fiscal year 2007 by approximately $5 million. Additionally, our increased cash positions us to grow our Internet entertainment business and to take advantage of future opportunities.

Sale of Allume

On July 1, 2005, we sold 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Allume to Smith Micro Software, Inc. for $11 million cash and 397,547 unregistered shares of its common stock, having a market value (based on a ten day trading average covering $4.40) of $1.75 million. A portion of the purchase price, including $1.25 million cash and shares of common stock having a closing date market value of $750,000 was deposited in an indemnity escrow to secure certain representations and warranties included in the stock purchase agreement. At June 30th, 2006, an amount of $312,000 was still held in the indemnity escrow account. The gain on sale of Allume is approximately $302,000 but this is subject to change based upon the release of the remaining escrowed consideration.

Sale of ArtToday

As previously disclosed in our annual report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, we sold ArtToday, Inc, our wholly-owned subsidiary based in Arizona, to Jupitermedia Corporation in June 2003.

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2005 we recorded a gain of $2.0 million from the sale of discontinued operations representing the successful achievement of the third earn-out from the sale of ArtToday. The full amount of the $2.0 million was paid by Jupitermedia per the stock purchase agreement on August 15, 2005.

Edgar Filing: BROADCASTER INC - Form SB-2

In addition, during the second and fourth quarters of fiscal 2004, we recorded gains of $1.0 million and $1.0 million, respectively from the sale of discontinued operations representing the successful achievement of the first and second earn-outs from the sale of ArtToday to Jupitermedia Corporation in June 2003.

$2,499,000 has been allocated to goodwill. Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets acquired, and is not deductible for tax purposes. Goodwill will not be amortized and will be tested for impairment at least annually.

The following attributes of the combination of the WHL and Houseplans businesses were considered significant factors to the establishment of the purchase price, resulting in the recognition of goodwill:

WHL is the operator of the #2 Google ranked globalHouseplans.com website as well as the Canadian focused Weinmaster.com. WHL, one of the leading marketers of stock house plans in Canada, has operated its plans business in the United States and Canada for more than twenty-five years, and is one of the leading innovators in the market. In addition to more than 14,800 plans available to customers, which includes over 500 proprietary Weinmaster plans, WHL has an impressive array of content and tools to help homeowners and their builders economically build their dream homes. Potential operating synergies are anticipated to arise and are more likely to include sales growth from joint marketing programs, utilization of best practices developed in each organization, shared content and reduced common product development costs and limited reductions in administrative costs.

AccessMedia acquisition

On December 16, 2005, Broadcaster and AccessMedia entered into a definitive agreement whereby Broadcaster agreed to acquire 100% of the outstanding capital stock of AccessMedia. The acquisition was completed on June 1, 2006. Broadcaster accounted for the business combination as a purchase.

The purchase price of approximately $32.1 million was comprised as follows:

Description	Amount
(In thousands)
Fair value of common stock	$ 28,420
Direct transaction costs	3,690
Total	$ 32,110

The calculation is based on the issuance of 29,000,000 shares of Broadcaster common stock to the shareholders of AccessMedia measured as of the date of the definitive merger agreement using a five-trading-day average price of Broadcaster's common stock. 2,450,000 shares of Broadcaster common stock valued at $2,401,000 were included as merger-related costs. The definitive merger agreement was announced on December 16, 2005.

The value of AccessMedia's net tangible and intangible assets are based upon their estimated fair value as of the date of the completion of the business combination. The estimated fair value is independent of the preliminary values historically recorded on the books and records of AccessMedia. The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values was as follows:

$15,680,000 has been allocated to amortizable intangible assets with useful lives ranging from ten to thirty years as follows: software - ten years, domain names and content - thirty years.

The residual purchase price of $25,901,000 has been recorded as goodwill. Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets acquired. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill will not be amortized and will be tested for impairment at least annually. The agreement provides that 35 million additional shares may be earned and awarded to the current stockholders of AccessMedia. Any additional shares earned would be a future addition to goodwill.

AccessMedia's acquired technology includes certain additional products with market opportunities. These opportunities were significant contributing factors to the establishment of the purchase price, resulting in the recognition of a significant amount of goodwill. In addition, the acquisition provides an experienced workforce, development of certain technology assets permitting the company to deliver content to consumers over the Internet, existing business knowledge and practice supporting the proposed products and services, marketing programs and a base level of customers.

Spyware Act and Consumer Protection Act arising from products known as Movieland.com, Moviepass.TV, and Popcorn.net. The Company intends to vigorously defend the allegations. While management believes there is no legal basis for liability, due to the uncertainty surrounding the litigation process, no reasonable estimate of loss is available.

In addition, we are subject to legal proceedings, claims, and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcome of these matters is currently not determinable, we do not expect that the ultimate costs to resolve these matters will have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

There are no proceedings in which any of our directors, officers or affiliates, or any registered or beneficial shareholder, is an adverse party or has a material interest adverse to our interest.

NOTE 13.

EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

We have a defined contribution plan, which qualifies under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code for employees meeting certain service requirements. The plan allows eligible employees to contribute up to the annual maximum as defined by the Internal Revenue Service to include catch-up contribution for individuals age 50 or older. At the discretion of the board of directors, Broadcaster may also make contributions each year for the benefit of all eligible employees under the plan. Discretionary contributions for the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 were $0 and $71,000, respectively.

NOTE 14.

EMPLOYEE STOCK INCENTIVE PLANS AND EQUITY RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Stock Options

During fiscal 2004, we adopted a new stock option plan The 2004 Incentive Stock Option Plan (the 2004 Plan). Our Board of Directors and shareholders adopted the predecessor to the 2004 Plan, the 1993 Incentive Option Plan on June 30, 1993 (the 1993 Plan). The purpose of the 2004 and the 1993 Plans was to further the growth and general prosperity of Broadcaster by enabling our employees to acquire our common stock, increasing their personal involvement in the Company and thereby enabling Broadcaster to attract and retain our employees.

Under existing federal tax laws, certain benefits are not applicable to stock options granted under plans adopted more than ten years prior. In particular, options granted more than ten years after adoption of the 1993 Plan are not eligible for incentive stock option treatment within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Broadcaster believes that the ability to grant incentive stock options to its employees is critically important. We hope to offer incentive compensation to such employees on par with those provided by our competition and others in the high-tech industry. In addition, tax laws and incentive compensation policies have changed since adoption of the 1993 Plan. As a result, our Board of Directors has adopted and our shareholders approved the 2004 Plan to permit Broadcaster to offer a wide range of incentives, including incentive and non-statutory stock options and stock purchase rights.

The 2004 Plan provides for the granting of options to purchase up to an aggregate of 10,500,000 common shares to employees, directors and other service providers of Broadcaster. Any options that expire prior to exercise will become available for new grants from the pool of ungranted options. Options that are granted under the 2004 Plan may be either options that qualify as incentive stock options under the Internal Revenue Code (Incentive Options), or those that do not qualify as such incentive stock options (Non-Qualified Incentive Options).

The 2004 Incentive Options may not be granted at a purchase price less than the fair market value of the Common Shares on the date of the grant (or, for an option granted to a person holding more than 10% of the Company's voting stock, at less than 110% of fair market value) and Non-Qualified Incentive Options may not be granted at a purchase price less than 85% of fair market value on the date of grant.

The term of each option, under the 2004 plan, which is fixed at the date of grant, may not exceed ten years from the date the option is granted (by law, an Incentive Option granted to a person holding more than 10% of the Company's voting stock may be exercisable only for five years). At June 30, 2006, 6,500,000 options were available for future grants under the 2004 plan. The 6,500,000 shares were approved by Broadcaster shareholders at the Annual Meeting held in May 2006.

The 1993 Employee Incentive Plan, as amended, permitted us to grant options to purchase up to 2,925,000 shares of common stock to employees, directors and consultants at prices not less than the fair market value at date of grant for incentive stock options and not less than 85% of fair market value for non-statutory stock options. These options generally expire 10 years from the date of grant and become exercisable ratably over a 3 to 5-year period. The plan expired on June 30, 2003. At June 30, 2006, no shares were available for future grants under the 1993 plan.

At June 30, 2006, Broadcaster had an operating loss carry forward of approximately $35,720,000 for federal tax purposes and approximately $12,707,000 for state tax purposes, which expire in various amounts through 2026.

Approximately $3,600,000 of the valuation allowance is related to deferred tax assets of acquired entities, and accordingly, any subsequently recognized tax benefits related to these assets will be allocated to reduce goodwill.

The federal net and state net operating losses begin to expire in 2119, and 2009 respectively. Use of the net operating losses may be limited in the event of an ownership change as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. Management believes that there may be some limitation due to an ownership change during the year, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. We are currently in the process of quantifying such limitation.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2005 AND 2004

NOTE A.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of Business

AccessMedia Networks, Inc. (the Company) is involved in an Internet-based multi-channel strategy that allows the delivery of content and entertainment on demand and enables end-users to readily organize and access significant volumes of quality content, utilizing its broad-based search capabilities. These capabilities span AccessMedia's proprietary media library, media under license, and media readily available on the Internet. The Company's revenues are primarily derived from the sale of its downloadable software to individuals, the sale of advertising space on its website, and the additional up-sells of merchandise, subscriptions, and media downloads to purchase. The Company was incorporated on January 9, 2002, under the laws of the State of Delaware.

In January, 2005, the sole stockholder of the Company sold 100% of his shares in the Company to Broadcaster, LLC.

In May, 2005, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of Media Zone, Ltd. (MZ) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Value Investments, Inc. (VI) in a tax-free exchange for 450 shares of the Company's common stock. MZ and VI develop software programs for delivering real-time interactive media over the Internet. The Company acquired MZ to expand its Internet media technology.

In July, 2005, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of two additional corporations, PeopleCaster, Inc. (PC) and MyVod, Inc. (MV), in tax-free exchanges for 200 shares each of the Company's common stock. PC and MV own technology licenses for Internet programs relating to advertising and media content manipulation. The Company acquired PC and MV to enhance its Internet media delivery systems.

In August, 2005, the Company announced plans to merge with International Microcomputer Software, Inc. (IMSI), a public company traded on the Over the Counter Exchange.

Use of Estimates

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP). These accounting principles require us to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions. We believe that the estimates, judgments and assumptions upon which we rely are reasonable based upon information available to us at the time that these estimates, judgments and assumptions are made. These estimates, judgments and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of our consolidated financial statements as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the periods presented. Our consolidated financial statements would be affected to the extent there are material differences between these estimates and actual results. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by GAAP and does not require management's judgment in its application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result.

Cash

The Company considers all checking, savings accounts and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased to be cash equivalents.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and a demand note payable. The carrying amounts of cash, accounts receivables and accounts payables approximate fair value because of the short-term nature of these items. The carrying amount of the demand notes payable approximates fair value as the borrowing bears interest reflecting below current market rates.

NOTE A.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist primarily of cash. The Company maintains its cash accounts with a high quality financial institution. As of December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company had cash balances of approximately $174,000 and $218,000, respectively, in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Limit of $100,000 per institutions. However, the Company does not anticipate non-performance by the counter-parties.

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising costs and includes them in selling expense as incurred. Advertising and traffic buys for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 were $942,832 and $3,840, respectively.

Accounts Receivable

Allowance for returns is computed under the allowance method, based on the Company's historical experience and management's analysis of possible returns. The allowance for returns was $170,025 and $1,156 at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciable property is depreciated using the straight-line method for accounting purposes over their estimated useful lives. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2005 was $338.

Intangible Assets

Software Development Costs and License Fees

Costs incurred in the initial design phase of software development are expensed as incurred in research and development. Once the point of technological feasibility is reached, direct production costs are capitalized in compliance with Statements of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 86, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software to be Sold, Leased or Otherwise Marketed. We cease capitalizing computer software costs when the product is available for general release to customers. Costs associated with acquired completed software are capitalized.

The Company amortizes capitalized software development costs and visual content license fees on a product-by-product basis. The amortization for each product is the greater of the amount computed using (a) the ratio of current gross revenues to the total of current and anticipated future gross revenues for the product or (b) 18, 36 or 60 months, depending on the product. The Company evaluates the net realizable value of each software product at each balance sheet date and records write-downs to net realizable value for any products for which the carrying value is in excess of the estimated net realizable value.

The Company started amortizing capitalized software development costs when the product became available for general release to customers, which occurred on November 1, 2004. The amortization period was over 36 months. For the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, the total amortization expense was $116,050 and $4,153, respectively. The Company also started amortizing the intangible assets acquired through the merger with PC and MV over a period of 60 months. For the year ended December 31, 2005, total amortization expense was $930,000.

Other Intangible Assets

The Company also capitalized the cost of media content acquired during the year ended December 31, 2005 in the amount of $5,800,000. The Company started amortizing content acquired from MV in August of 2005. For the year ended December 31, 2005 the total amortization expense was $241,667.

Impairment of Long Lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets and identifiable intangible assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of these assets may not be recoverable. We assess these assets for impairment based on estimated undiscounted future cash flows from these assets. If the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated future undiscounted cash flows, a loss is recorded for the excess of the asset's carrying value over the fair value. The Company did not recognize any impairment loss for long-lived assets for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004.

Revenue Recognition

The Company records revenue related to the sale of software when the customer downloads the software via the Internet and a payment is collected. Sales of subscription products are recognized ratably over the period the services are rendered.

The Company recognizes revenue related to the display of advertisements on its Internet properties as impressions (the number of times that an advertisement appears in pages viewed by users) are delivered, as long as no significant obligations remain at the end of the period. To the extent that significant obligations remain at the end of the period, the Company defers recognition of the corresponding revenue until the remaining guaranteed amounts are achieved.

The Company generates revenue from the display of text-based links to the websites of its advertisers. These links are placed on the Company's Internet properties as well as on the websites of third party entities who have integrated the Company's sponsored search offerings into their websites. The Company recognizes revenue from these arrangements as click-throughs (the number of times a user clicks on an advertiser's listing) occur.

Consolidation Policy

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, all of which are wholly owned. All material inter-company accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

Financial Statement Reclassification

Certain accounts have been reclassified for ease of comparison on the financial statements. This resulted in no change to the consolidated balance sheet, net loss, or accumulate deficit of the Company.

NOTE B.

INCOME TAXES

At December 31, the composition of the Company's net deferred income tax assets was as follows:

	2005	2004
Deferred income tax assets	$ 1,411,795	$ 112,342
Valuation allowances	(1,411,795)	(112,342)
Net deferred income tax assets	$	$

Deferred income tax assets principally resulted from certain costs and expenses incurred for financial reporting purposes not currently deductible for income tax purposes and from net operating loss carryforwards. At December 31, 2005, the Company had federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $3,296,000 which will expire in the years 2023 through 2025.

In assessing the realization of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, the projected future taxable income and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on the level of historical taxable income and projections for future taxable income over the periods in which the deferred tax assets are deductible, management believes that it is more likely than not that most of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The valuation allowance has increased by $1,299,453 in 2005.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151 Inventory Costs - An Amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4 (SFAS 151). SFAS 151 amends the guidance in ARB No. 43, Chapter 4, Inventory Pricing, to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material. Among other provisions, the new rule requires that items such as idle facility expense, excessive spoilage, double freight, and rehandling costs be recognized as current-period charges regardless of whether they meet the criterion of so abnormal as stated in ARB No. 43. Additionally, SFAS 151 requires that the allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. SFAS 151 is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of SFAS 151 will have on its results of operations and financial condition but does not expect it to have a material impact.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets-An Amendment of APB Opinion No. 29, Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions (SFAS 153). SFAS 153 eliminates the exception from fair value measurement for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets in paragraph 21(b) of APB Opinion No. 29, Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions, and replaces it with an exception for exchanges that do not have commercial substance. SFAS 153 specifies that a nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. SFAS 153 is effective for the fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of SFAS 153 will have on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition, but does not expect it to have a material impact.

In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections, a replacement of APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes (SFAS 154), and FASB Statement No. 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements (FASB 3). The new statement changes the requirements for the accounting for and reporting of a change in accounting principle. This Statement applies to all voluntary changes in accounting principle. It also applies to changes required by an accounting pronouncement in the unusual instance that the pronouncement does not include specific transition provisions. When a pronouncement includes specific transition provisions, those provisions should be followed. This statement is effective for accounting changes and corrections of errors made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2005.
