Part III-Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant will be unable to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2003 in order to allow sufficient time to restate the registrant's March 31, 2002 financial statements from a liquidation basis of accounting, which had been used by the registrant since the approval of a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the "Plan of Liquidation") by shareholders in 1998. On August 28, 2002, CFC Partners, Ltd., a New York investor group acquired a 51.2% interest in the common stock of the registrant through the issuance of new shares. In connection with the issuance of these shares, the registrant's Board of Directors terminated the Plan of Liquidation. As a result of the termination of the Plan of Liquidation, effective August 29, 2002, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities. Furthermore, in order to provide comparative financial information, the registrant has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform such statements to the current presentation.
