Forward-Looking Statements

Any statements that are not historical fact (including, but not limited to statements that contain words such as “may,” “will,” “believes,” “plans,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “estimates”) should also be considered to be forward-looking statements. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements are contained in BioTime’s periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) under the heading “Risk Factors” and other filings that BioTime may make with the SEC. Undue reliance should not be placed on these forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date they are made, and the facts and assumptions underlying these statements may change. Except as required by law, BioTime disclaims any intent or obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 - Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Executive Compensation

On September 8, 2016, we awarded 50,000 stock options to Russell Skibsted, our Chief Financial Officer, under our Equity Incentive Plan as an incentive for future service. The stock options will vest and thereby become exercisable as follows: 25% of the options will vest upon Mr. Skibsted’s completion of 12 months of continuous service as an employee of BioTime or subsidiary measured from the date of grant, and the balance will vest in 36 equal monthly installments commencing on the first anniversary of the date of grant based upon each month of continuous service as an employee of BioTime or a subsidiary.

The options are exercisable at a price of $3.49 per share and will expire 10 years from the date of grant to the extent not exercised by that date, subject to earlier expiration in the event that Mr. Skibsted ceases to be employed by BioTime or a subsidiary.
