Item 4. Change in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On February 17, 2004, our independent auditors, Chisholm & Associates, Certified Public Accountants, informed us that on February 10, 2004, that firm had merged its operations into Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC. Chisholm & Associates had audited our financials statements for the two fiscal years ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and its reports for each of the two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion, disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. There were no disagreements with Chisholm & Associates on any matter regarding accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure during the past two fiscal years or any subsequent interim period preceding the date of resignation. Our board of directors approved the change in auditors.

During the two most recent quarter ended December 31, 2003 and the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, and through February 12, 2004, we did not consult with Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements, and neither a written report was provided to
