Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed by Stamps.com Inc., on August 30, 2007, Sterling Realty Organization Co. filed suit against us in the Superior Court for the State of Washington for King County, alleging they are entitled under the doctrine of equitable subrogation to recover a $575,929 sales tax related payment for improvements under a lease related to our discontinued iShip business, which we sold in 2001. The lawsuit also seeks pre-judgment interest and costs. On March 7, 2008, the Court granted our motion for summary judgment under the doctrine of equitable subrogation, but also granted the plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint to allege indemnification and breach of the lease.

On June 27, 2008, the Court granted the plaintiff's motion for summary judgment under indemnification and breach of the lease and found that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment in the principal amount of $575,413.66, together with prejudgment interest of $94,210.

As also previously disclosed by Stamps.com Inc., on October 22, 2004, Kara Technology Incorporated filed suit against us in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, alleging, among other claims, that we infringed certain Kara Technology patents and that we misappropriated trade secrets owned by Kara Technology, most particularly with respect to our NetStamps feature. Kara Technology seeks an injunction, unspecified damages, and attorneys' fees. On February 9, 2005, the court granted our motion to transfer this suit to the United States District Court for the Central District of California. On August 23, 2006, the court granted our summary judgment motions on the trade secret and other non-patent claims. The court issued a "Markman" ruling, construing the terms of the Kara Technology patents on September 10, 2007. On April 3, 2008, the court granted our summary judgment motion that PhotoStamps does not infringe and denied our summary judgment motions that NetStamps does not infringe and the patents are invalid.

On June 27, 2008, at the conclusion of trial, the jury issued its verdict on this matter in our favor, finding that NetStamps does not infringe. On July 1, 2008, we issued a press release announcing the favorable jury verdict. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and hereby incorporated by reference.
