Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on May 14, 1999, Senesco Inc., a New Jersey Corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Senesco Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (together, the “Company”), entered into an agreement (the “Collaboration”) with Rahan Meristem (1998) LTD, an Israeli partnership that is engaged in the worldwide marketing of tissue culture plants (“Rahan”). The purpose of the Collaboration was to develop enhanced banana plants which would result in banana fruit with improved consumer- and grower-driven traits. The program has been performed as a joint collaboration whereby the Company pays for 50% of the research costs of the program.

On December 30, 2011, the Company entered into an amended and restated agreement (the “Agreement”) with Rahan to convert the Collaboration from a joint venture structure to a license agreement. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company granted Rahan a worldwide, exclusive license to certain of the Company’s intellectual property rights to research, develop, make or commercialize all transgenic banana plants with delayed senescence and any other improvements thereto produced by modulating the expression of the lipase gene or through the utilization of any other technology of the Company (the “Products”). Under the terms of the Agreement, Rahan will assume responsibility for the development and commercialization of the Products in accordance with the milestones set forth in the Agreement. The Company paid to Rahan a lump sum payment to reimburse Rahan for the Company’s portion of the development and commercialization costs previously incurred but unpaid under the original Collaboration. In addition, Rahan will pay to the Company a mid to upper single-digit royalty on Incremental Net Sales (as defined in the Agreement) of Product. Royalties will be payable from first commercial sale of a Product for the longer of ten (10) years or the expiration of the last valid patent on a country-by-country basis.

The foregoing summary of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which the Company intends to file as an exhibit to the Company’s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending December 31, 2011 or as an exhibit to an amendment to this current report on Form 8-K, with portions omitted and filed separately with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to a request for confidential treatment.
