Dear Unitholders of LRR Energy, L.P.:

On April 20, 2015, LRR Energy, L.P. (LRE) and Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC (Vanguard) entered into a merger agreement (the merger agreement), pursuant to which a subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity (the merger), and, at the same time, Vanguard will purchase all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, LLC, the general partner of LRE (LRE GP), resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. The LRE GP conflicts committee has determined that the merger agreement is advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders who are not affiliates of LRE GP and has approved the merger agreement and recommended that the board of directors of LRE GP approve the merger agreement. Based upon, among other things, the recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee, the board of directors of LRE GP has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders, and has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the board of directors of LRE GP has recommended that unitholders vote to approve the merger agreement.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, holders of LRE common units will receive 0.550 common units of Vanguard for each LRE common unit held (the merger consideration). The exchange ratio for the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of LRE common units or Vanguard common units prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The merger consideration is valued at $8.93 per LRE common unit eligible to receive the merger consideration based on the closing price of Vanguard s common units as of April 20, 2015, representing a 12.6% premium to the closing price of LRE s common units of $7.93 on April 20, 2015. In addition, under the terms of the merger agreement, Vanguard will issue and deliver 12,320 Vanguard common units to the members of LRE GP in exchange for all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP. The number of Vanguard common units to be issued to the members of LRE GP was determined based upon the 0.550 exchange ratio for the merger consideration.

Vanguard has also entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as it may be amended from time to time, the Eagle Rock merger agreement) with Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P. (Eagle Rock) and Eagle Rock Energy GP, L.P., the general partner of Eagle Rock (Eagle Rock GP), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, an indirect subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Vanguard (the Eagle Rock merger). Prior to entering into the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard obtained the consent of the board of directors of LRE GP, as required by Section 4.2 of the merger agreement, pursuant to a letter agreement by and among Vanguard, LRE GP and LRE. Neither the Vanguard unitholders nor the LRE unitholders are entitled to vote with respect to the approval of the Eagle Rock merger agreement or the Eagle Rock merger, although Vanguard unitholders are entitled to vote with respect to the issuance of Vanguard common units to Eagle Rock s unitholders pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement.

If the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement are consummated, immediately following the later to occur of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement, it is expected that LRE unitholders will own approximately 11.8% of the outstanding common units of Vanguard. If, however, the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement are not consummated, immediately following the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, it is expected that LRE unitholders will own approximately 15.1% of the outstanding common units of Vanguard. The common units of LRE are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol LRE, and the common units of Vanguard are traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol VNR.

LRE is holding a special meeting of its unitholders at Two Allen Center, 1200 Smith Street, the Forum Assembly Room on the 12th Floor, Houston, TX 77002 on October 5, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time, to obtain the vote of its unitholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of units you own. The merger cannot be completed unless the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the LRE special meeting. Certain affiliates of LRE, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units, have entered into an amended and restated voting and support agreement with Vanguard, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their LRE common units in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and to take other actions in furtherance of the merger. Collectively, these LRE unitholders hold LRE common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE's outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015.

Based upon, among other things, the recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee, the board of directors of LRE GP recommends that LRE unitholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the merger-related compensation proposal and FOR the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the LRE special meeting.

On behalf of the board of directors of LRE GP, I invite you to attend the LRE special meeting. Regardless of whether you expect to attend the LRE special meeting in person, we urge you to submit your proxy as promptly as possible through one of the delivery methods described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, we urge you to read carefully the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus (and the documents contained in or incorporated by reference into the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus), which includes important information about the merger agreement, the proposed merger, LRE, Vanguard and the LRE special meeting. Please pay particular attention to the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page 45 of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

On behalf of the board of directors of LRE GP, we thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Eric D. Mullins
Co-Chief Executive Officer of LRE GP, LLC, the general partner of LRR Energy, L.P.

TO BE HELD ON OCTOBER 5, 2015

To the Unitholders of LRR Energy, L.P.:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of unitholders of LRR Energy, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (LRE), will be held at Two Allen Center, 1200 Smith Street, the Forum Assembly Room on the 12th Floor, Houston, TX, 77002 on October 5, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time, solely for the following purposes:

Proposal 1: to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Purchase Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 20, 2015 (as such agreement may be amended from time to time, the merger agreement), by and among LRE, LRE GP, LLC, the general partner of LRE (LRE GP), Lime Rock Management LP (LRM), Lime Rock Resources A, L.P. (LRR A), Lime Rock Resources B, L.P. (LRR B), Lime Rock Resources C, L.P. (LRR C), Lime Rock Resources II-A, L.P. (LRR II-A), Lime Rock Resources II-C, L.P. (LRR II-C), Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC (Vanguard) and Lighthouse Merger Sub, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Vanguard (Merger Sub), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity (the merger), and, at the same time, Vanguard will purchase all of the outstanding limited liability company interests in LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard;

Proposal 2: to consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE s named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

Proposal 3: to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

These items of business, including the approval of the merger agreement and the proposed merger, are described in detail in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. Among other things, the LRE GP conflicts committee has determined that the merger agreement is advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders who are not affiliates of LRE GP and has approved the merger agreement and recommended that the board of directors of LRE GP approve the merger agreement. Based upon, among other things, such recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee, the board of directors of LRE GP has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders and recommends that LRE unitholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, FOR the advisory merger-related compensation proposal and FOR the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies in favor of such approval.

Only unitholders of record as of the close of business on August 28, 2015 are entitled to notice of the LRE special meeting and to vote at the LRE special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof. A list of unitholders entitled to vote at the LRE special meeting will be available in LRE's offices located at Heritage Plaza, 1111 Bagby Street, Suite 4600, Houston, Texas 77002, during regular business hours for a period of ten days before the LRE special meeting, and at the place of the LRE special meeting during the meeting.

Approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by the LRE unitholders is a condition to the consummation of the merger and requires the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units. Therefore, your vote is very important. Certain affiliates of LRE, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units, have entered into an amended and restated voting and support agreement with Vanguard, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their LRE common units in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and to take other actions in furtherance of the merger.

Collectively, these LRE unitholders hold common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE's outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015.

Your failure to vote your LRE common units will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

By order of the board of directors,

Eric D. Mullins

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Set forth below are questions that you, as a unitholder of LRE, may have regarding the merger, the vote on the merger, the advisory, non-binding vote on the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger, the adjournment proposal and the LRE special meeting, and brief answers to those questions. You are urged to read carefully this proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus in their entirety, including the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus, and the documents contained in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, because this section may not provide all of the information that is important to you with respect to the merger and the LRE special meeting. You may obtain a list of the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus in the section titled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

Vanguard and LRE have agreed to a merger, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity, and, at the same time, Vanguard will purchase all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. Following the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, LRE will cease to be a publicly traded limited partnership. In order to complete the merger, LRE unitholders must vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. LRE is holding a special meeting of unitholders to obtain such unitholder approval. LRE unitholders will also be asked to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the payments that will or may be paid by LRE to certain of its named executive officers in connection with the merger.

In the merger, Vanguard will issue Vanguard common units as the consideration to be paid to holders of LRE common units. This document is being delivered to you as both a proxy statement of LRE and a prospectus of Vanguard in connection with the merger. It is the proxy statement by which the board of directors of LRE GP is soliciting proxies from you to vote on the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the LRE special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the LRE special meeting. It is also the prospectus by which Vanguard will issue Vanguard common units to you in the merger.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to vote as soon as possible.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

In the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into LRE. LRE will be the surviving limited partnership in the merger. LRE will cease to be a publicly traded limited partnership following completion of the merger. At the same time, Vanguard will purchase all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard.

Q: What will I receive in the merger for my LRE common units?

If the merger is completed, your LRE common units will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive a number of Vanguard common units equal to 0.550 (the exchange ratio) multiplied by the number of LRE common units you hold. No fractional Vanguard common units will be issued. Holders of LRE common units to whom fractional units would have otherwise been issued will be entitled to receive, subject to applicable withholding, a cash payment in lieu of such fractional interest based on the average of the closing sale prices of the Vanguard common units over the ten consecutive full trading days ending at the close of trading on the full trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. The exchange ratio for the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of LRE common units or Vanguard common units prior to the closing of the merger. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 45 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: Can I elect to receive cash for my LRE common units?

A: No. Pursuant to the merger agreement, the consideration to be received by the holders of LRE common units consists of the merger consideration and is fixed at the exchange ratio, in each case as described above.

Q: What will happen to LRE's restricted units in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each restricted common unit issued under LRE GP's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP) that is subject to time-based vesting (an LRE restricted unit) and that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder of such LRE restricted unit, become fully vested and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse and such LRE restricted unit will be deemed to be an LRE common unit for purposes of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of LRE Restricted Units beginning on page 139 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger agreement is not approved by LRE unitholders or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, you will not receive any form of consideration for your LRE units in connection with the merger. Instead, LRE will remain an independent publicly held limited partnership and its common units will continue to be listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE). Under specified circumstances, LRE may be required to pay Vanguard a termination fee of $7,288,000. In addition, following a termination of the merger agreement in specified circumstances, either LRE or Vanguard will be required to pay up to $1,215,000 in expenses to the other party as described in The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 148 and The Merger Agreement Expenses beginning on page 149 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Will I continue to receive future distributions?

A: Before completion of the merger, LRE expects to continue to pay its regular quarterly cash distribution on its common units, which is currently $0.1875 per unit. LRE and Vanguard intend to coordinate the timing of distribution declarations leading up to the merger so that, in any month, a holder of LRE common units will either receive a regular quarterly distribution in respect of its LRE common units or a monthly distribution in respect of Vanguard common units that such holder will receive in the merger (but will not receive distributions in respect of both in any month). However, if the merger is completed at a time in which there is one or more months prior to completion of the merger for which a holder of LRE common units would not receive either a regular quarterly cash distribution covering such month or months or a monthly distribution in respect of the Vanguard common units such holder will receive in the merger, LRE may pay a portion of its regular quarterly cash distribution early to cover such month or months. Receipt of any LRE distributions prior to the completion of the merger will not reduce the merger consideration you receive. After completion of the merger, you will be entitled only to distributions on any Vanguard common units you receive in the merger and hold through the applicable distribution record date.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: LRE's unitholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

Proposal 1: to approve the merger agreement, as such agreement may be amended from time to time, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus, and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The approval of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by LRE unitholders is a condition to the obligations of LRE and Vanguard to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Neither the approval (on an advisory, non-binding basis) of the merger-related compensation proposal nor the approval of the proposal to adjourn is a condition to the obligations of LRE or Vanguard to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Q: Does the board of directors of LRE's general partner recommend that unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby?

A: Yes. The board of directors of LRE GP has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and determined that these transactions are in the best interests of the LRE unitholders. Therefore, the board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the LRE special meeting. See Proposal 1: The Merger Recommendation of LRE GP's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 77 of this proxy statement/prospectus. In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, you should be aware that, in certain cases, directors and executive officers of LRE GP have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a unitholder of LRE. You should consider these interests in voting on this proposal. These different interests are described under Proposal 1: The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger beginning on page 132 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What are the merger-related compensation payments to certain of LRE's named executive officers and why am I being asked to vote on them?

A: The SEC has adopted rules that require LRE to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation payments related to the merger. The related compensation payments are certain compensation payments that are tied to or based on the merger and that will or may be paid by LRE to certain of its named executive officers in connection with the merger. This proposal is referred to as the merger-related compensation proposal.

Q: Does the board of directors of LRE GP recommend that unitholders approve the merger-related compensation proposal?

A: Yes. The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger-related compensation proposal. See Proposal 2: Approval of Merger-Related Compensation beginning on page 248 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What happens if the merger-related compensation proposal is not approved?

A: Approval of the merger-related compensation proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote is an advisory vote and is not binding. If the merger is completed, LRE will pay the related compensation to certain of its named executive officers in connection with the merger even if LRE unitholders fail to approve the merger-related compensation proposal.

Q: Does the board of directors of LRE GP recommend that unitholders approve the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary?

A: Yes. The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the LRE special meeting. See Proposal 3: Adjournment of the LRE Special Meeting beginning on page 249 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: What unitholder vote is required for the approval of each proposal?

A: The following are the vote requirements for the proposals:

Proposal 1: Approval of the Merger Agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units. Accordingly, abstentions, broker non-votes (if any) and unvoted units will have the same effect as votes AGAINST approval.

Proposal 2: Approval of Merger-Related Compensation. The affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units. Accordingly, abstentions, broker non-votes (if any) and unvoted units will have the same effect as votes AGAINST approval.

Proposal 3: Adjournment of the LRE Special Meeting (if necessary). If a quorum is present at, and if a limited partner vote is solicited on adjournment of, the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units will be required to approve the proposal. If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units present and entitled to be voted at such meeting represented either in person or by proxy, will be required to approve the proposal. Accordingly, if a quorum is present, abstentions, broker non-votes and unvoted units will have the same effect as votes AGAINST the proposal. If a quorum is not present, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes AGAINST the proposal, and unvoted units will have no effect on the approval of the proposal.

Simultaneously with the execution of the merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Voting and Support Agreement (the original support agreement) with each of LRR A, LRR B and LRR C, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units (collectively, the Holders), LRE, LRE GP, and, solely for certain restrictions on the sale of Vanguard common units, LRM, LRR II-A and LRR II-C. On May 21, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the parties to the original support agreement entered into an Amended and Restated Voting and Support Agreement (the amended and restated support agreement). Pursuant to the amended and restated support agreement, the Holders have agreed to vote all of their LRE common units in favor of the merger agreement and to take certain other specified actions in furtherance of the merger. Collectively, the Holders hold common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE s outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the LRE special meeting?

A: The holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must be represented in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to constitute a quorum.

Q: When is this proxy statement/prospectus being mailed?

A: This proxy statement/prospectus and the proxy card are first being sent to LRE unitholders on or about September 4, 2015.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the LRE special meeting?

A: Holders of LRE s common units outstanding as of the close of business on August 28, 2015, the record date for the determination of unitholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the LRE special meeting, are entitled to one vote per unit at the LRE special meeting.

At the close of business on August 28, 2015, there were 28,074,433 common units outstanding, all of which are entitled to be voted at the LRE special meeting.

Q: When and where is the LRE special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held at Two Allen Center, 1200 Smith Street, the Forum Assembly Room on the 12th Floor, Houston, TX 77002, on October 5, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: How do I vote my LRE common units, or cause my LRE common units to be voted, at the LRE special meeting?

A: There are four ways you may cause your LRE common units to be voted at the LRE special meeting:

In Person. If you are a unitholder of record, you may vote in person at the LRE special meeting. Units held by a broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record may be voted in person by you only if you obtain a legal proxy from the record holder (which is your broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record) giving you the right to vote the units;

Via the Internet. You may submit a proxy electronically via the Internet by accessing the Internet address provided on each proxy card (if you are a unitholder of record) or vote instruction card (if your LRE common units are held by a broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record);

By Telephone. You may submit a proxy by using the toll-free telephone number listed on the enclosed proxy card (if you are a unitholder of record) or vote instruction card (if your LRE common units are held by a broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record); or

By Mail. You may submit a proxy by filling out, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card (if you are a unitholder of record) or vote instruction card (if your LRE common units are held by a broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record) and returning it by mail in the prepaid envelope provided.

Even if you plan to attend the LRE special meeting in person, your plans may change, thus you are encouraged to submit your proxy as described above so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the LRE special meeting.

If your LRE common units are held by a broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record, also known as holding units in street name, you should receive instructions from the broker, bank, nominee or other holder of record that you must follow in order to have your LRE common units voted. Please review such instructions to determine whether you will be able to submit your proxy via Internet or by telephone. The deadline for submitting your proxy by telephone or electronically through the Internet is 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time October 4, 2015 (the Telephone/Internet deadline).

Q: If my LRE common units are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my LRE common units for me?

A: No. If your LRE common units are held in an account at a broker or through another nominee, you must instruct the broker or other nominee on how to vote your LRE common units by following the instructions that the broker or other nominee provides to you with these materials. Most brokers offer the ability for unitholders to submit voting instructions by mail by completing a voting instruction card, by telephone and via the Internet.

If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker, your LRE common units will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote. This is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus and in general as a broker non-vote. Because the only proposals for consideration at the LRE special meeting are non-discretionary proposals, it is not expected that there will be any broker non-votes at the LRE special meeting. If there are any broker non-votes, they will be counted as units that are present and entitled to be voted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but the broker or other nominee will not be able to vote on those matters for which specific authorization is required. Under the current rules of the NYSE, brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. A broker non-vote (if any) will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST (i) approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) approval of the merger-related compensation proposal and (iii) approval of the adjournment proposal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: How will my LRE common units be represented at the LRE special meeting?

If you submit your proxy by telephone, the Internet website or by signing and returning your proxy card, the officers named in your proxy card will vote your LRE common units in the manner you requested if you correctly submitted your proxy. If you sign your proxy card and return it without indicating how you would like to vote your LRE common units, your LRE common units will be voted as the board of directors of LRE GP recommends, which is:

Proposal 1: FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: FOR the approval, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

Proposal 3: FOR the approval of the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approval the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

If you hold your LRE common units through a broker or other nominee, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker or other nominee in order to revoke your proxy or change your voting instructions.

Q: Who may attend the LRE special meeting?

LRE unitholders (or their authorized representatives) and LRE's invited guests may attend the LRE special meeting. All attendees should be prepared to present government-issued photo identification (such as a driver's license or passport) for admittance.

Q: Is my vote important?

Yes, your vote is very important. If you do not submit a proxy or vote in person at the LRE special meeting, it will be more difficult for LRE to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the LRE special meeting. In addition, an abstention or your failure to submit a proxy or to vote in person will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. If you hold your LRE common units through a broker or other nominee, your broker or other nominee will not be able to cast a vote on such approval without instructions from you. The board of directors of LRE GP recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy?

Yes. If you are a unitholder of record, you may revoke or change your proxy at any time before the Telephone/Internet deadline or before the polls close at the LRE special meeting by: sending a written notice, no later than the Telephone/Internet deadline, to LRE at Heritage Plaza, 1111 Bagby Street, Suite 4600, Houston, Texas 77002, Attn: Secretary, that bears a date later than the date of the proxy and is received prior to the LRE special meeting and states that you revoke your proxy; submitting a valid, later-dated proxy by mail, telephone or Internet that is received prior to the LRE special meeting; or attending the LRE special meeting and voting by ballot in person (your attendance at the LRE special meeting will not, by itself, revoke any proxy that you have previously given).

Q: What happens if I sell my LRE common units after the record date but before the LRE special meeting?

The record date for the LRE special meeting is earlier than the date of the LRE special meeting and the date that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are expected to be completed. If you sell or otherwise transfer your LRE common units after the record date but before the date of the LRE special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the LRE special meeting. However, you will not have the right to receive the merger consideration to be received by LRE's unitholders in the merger. In order to receive the merger consideration, you must hold your LRE common units through completion of the merger.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card or vote instruction card?

Your receipt of more than one proxy card or vote instruction card means that you have multiple accounts with LRE's transfer agent or with a brokerage firm, bank, nominee or other holder of record. If submitting your proxy by mail, please sign and return all proxy cards or vote instruction cards to ensure that all of your LRE common units are voted. Each proxy card or vote instruction card represents a distinct number of units, and it is the only means by which those particular units may be voted by proxy.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights if I vote against the approval of the merger agreement?

A: No. Appraisal rights are not available in connection with the merger under the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act (the Delaware LP Act) or under the LRE partnership agreement.

Q: Is completion of the merger subject to any conditions?

A: Yes. In addition to the approval of the merger agreement by LRE unitholders, completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement requires the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waiver of the other conditions specified in the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement beginning on page 140 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: LRE and Vanguard are working towards completing the merger promptly. LRE and Vanguard currently expect to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, in October 2015, subject to receipt of LRE's unitholder approval and other usual and customary closing conditions. However, no assurance can be given as to when, or if, the merger will occur.

Q: How does the proposed merger relate to Vanguard's proposed merger with Eagle Rock?

A: On May 21, 2015, Vanguard and Talon Merger Sub, LLC (Talon Merger Sub), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Vanguard, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Eagle Rock and Eagle Rock GP (as it may be amended from time to time, the Eagle Rock merger agreement), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, Talon Merger Sub will be merged with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Vanguard (the Eagle Rock merger). Under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, holders of Eagle Rock common units will receive 0.185 Vanguard common units for each Eagle Rock common unit held. The exchange ratio for the Eagle Rock merger is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of Eagle Rock common units or Vanguard common units prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement. Prior to entering into the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard obtained the consent of the board of directors of LRE GP as required under Section 4.2 of the merger agreement pursuant to a letter agreement by and among Vanguard, LRE GP and LRE.

A joint proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to unitholders of Vanguard and Eagle Rock in connection with the Eagle Rock merger. The Eagle Rock merger is a transaction separate and apart from the merger, and the completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger, and the completion of the merger is not a condition to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger.

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences to an LRE common unitholder as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement?

A: It is anticipated that no gain or loss will be recognized by a holder of LRE common units solely as a result of the merger, other than (i) such unitholder's distributive share of any gain recognized by LRE as a result of the receipt of the aggregate amount of any cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units to be received by the LRE unitholders and (ii) any net decrease in such LRE unitholder's share of partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) to the extent such decrease exceeds such LRE unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its LRE units at the closing of the merger.

Please read Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Merger and Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE Common Unitholders.

Q: Under what circumstances could the merger result in a holder of LRE common units recognizing taxable income or gain?

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, LRE will be deemed to contribute all of its assets to Vanguard in exchange for Vanguard common units, the assumption of LRE's liabilities and cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units, followed by a liquidation of LRE in which Vanguard common units and cash are distributed to LRE unitholders. The actual receipt of cash and the deemed receipt of cash by LRE in the merger could trigger gain to LRE either because it would be treated as part of a sale or because it exceeds LRE's adjusted tax basis in its assets at the closing of the merger, and any such gain would be allocated to the LRE unitholders pursuant to the LRE partnership agreement. LRE expects that the actual receipt of cash and the deemed receipt of cash by LRE will qualify for one or more exceptions to sale treatment, and LRE does not currently expect that it will recognize gain as a result of the deemed receipt of cash in the merger exceeding its adjusted tax basis in its assets. In addition, as a result of the merger, the holders of LRE common units who receive Vanguard common units will become limited partners of Vanguard for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will be allocated a share of Vanguard's nonrecourse

A: liabilities. Each holder of LRE common units will be treated as receiving a deemed cash distribution equal to the excess, if any, of such LRE unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities of LRE immediately before the merger over such common unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities of Vanguard immediately following the merger. If the amount of cash actually received plus any deemed cash distribution received by a holder of LRE common units exceeds such common unitholder's basis in his LRE units, such common unitholder will recognize gain in an amount equal to such excess. While there can be no assurance, Vanguard and LRE expect that most holders of LRE common units will not recognize gain in this manner. The amount and effect of any gain that may be recognized by holders of LRE common units will depend on such unitholder's particular situation, including the ability of such unitholder to utilize any suspended passive losses. For additional information, please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE, Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE Common Unitholders and Risk Factors Relating to the Merger.

Q: What are the expected U.S. federal income tax consequences for a holder of LRE common units of the ownership of Vanguard common units after the merger is completed?

A: Each holder of LRE common units who becomes a Vanguard unitholder as a result of the merger will, as is the case for existing Vanguard common unitholders, be allocated such unitholder's distributive share of Vanguard's income, gains, losses, deductions and credits. In addition to U.S. federal income taxes arising as a result of such allocations, such a holder will be subject to other taxes, including state and local income taxes, unincorporated business taxes, and estate, inheritance or intangibles taxes that may be imposed by the various jurisdictions in which Vanguard conducts business or owns property or in which the unitholder is resident. Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of Vanguard Common Unit Ownership.

Q: Assuming the merger closes before December 31, 2015, how many Schedule K-1s will I receive if I am an LRE unitholder?

A: If you are a holder of LRE common units, you will receive two Schedule K-1s, one from LRE, which will report your share of LRE's income, gain, loss and deduction for the portion of the tax year that you held LRE units prior to the effective time of the merger, and one from Vanguard, which will report your share of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deduction for the portion of the tax year you held Vanguard common units following the effective time of the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, LRE will be treated as a terminated partnership under Section 708 of the Code. Therefore, as a result of the merger, LRE's taxable year will end as of the date of the merger, and LRE will be required to file a final U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year ending on the date the merger is effective. LRE expects to furnish a Schedule K-1 to each LRE unitholder, and Vanguard expects to furnish a Schedule K-1 to each Vanguard unitholder, within 90 days of the closing of Vanguard's taxable year on December 31, 2015.

Q: What do I need to do now?

Carefully read and consider the information contained in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including its annexes. Then, please vote your LRE common units or submit your proxy in accordance with the instructions described above.

If you hold units through a broker or other nominee, please instruct your broker or nominee to vote your LRE common units by following the instructions that the broker or nominee provides to you with these materials.

Q: Should I send in my unit certificates now?

No. LRE unitholders should not send in their unit certificates at this time. After completion of the merger, Vanguard's exchange agent will send you a letter of transmittal and instructions for exchanging your LRE common units for the merger consideration. All Vanguard common units issued pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be issued in book-entry form, without physical certificates.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

LRE unitholders should call Morrow & Co., LLC (Morrow), LRE's proxy solicitor, toll-free at (855) 264-1296 (banks and brokers can call collect at (203) 658-9400) with any questions about the merger or the LRE special meeting, or to obtain additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus, proxy cards or voting instruction forms.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. You are urged to read carefully the entire proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger agreement, the merger and the other matters being considered at the LRE special meeting. See Where You Can Find More Information. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which that subject is discussed in more detail.

The Parties (See page 61)

Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC (Vanguard) is a Delaware limited liability company with common units traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (NASDAQ) under the symbol VNR. Vanguard is an independent energy company focused on the acquisition, exploitation and development of mature, long-lived oil and natural gas properties in the United States. Vanguard's properties and oil and natural gas reserves are located primarily in nine operating basins in Wyoming, Colorado, Texas, New Mexico, Mississippi, Montana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and North Dakota. Vanguard's principal executive offices are located at 5847 San Felipe, Suite 3000, Houston, Texas 77057, and its telephone number is (832) 327-2255.

LRR Energy, L.P. (LRE) is a Delaware limited partnership formed in April 2011 by Lime Rock Management LP (LRM), an affiliate of Lime Rock Resources A, L.P. (LRR A), Lime Rock Resources B, L.P. (LRR B) and Lime Rock Resources C, L.P. (LRR C) and, together with LRR A and LRR B, Fund I), to operate, acquire, exploit and develop producing oil and natural gas properties in North America with long-lived, predictable production profiles. LRE's properties consist of mature, low-risk onshore oil and natural gas reservoirs with long-lived, predictable production profiles located across three diverse producing regions: (i) the Permian Basin region in West Texas and Southeast New Mexico, (ii) the Mid-Continent region in Oklahoma and East Texas and (iii) the Gulf Coast region in Texas. LRE's common units are traded on the NYSE under the symbol LRE . LRE GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (LRE GP), is LRE's general partner. LRE's principal executive offices are located at Heritage Plaza, 1111 Bagby Street, Suite 4600, Houston, Texas 77002, and its telephone number is (713) 292-9510.

Lighthouse Merger Sub, LLC (Merger Sub) is a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Vanguard. Merger Sub was created for purposes of the merger and has not carried on any activities to date, other than activities incidental to its formation or undertaken in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of LRM, LRR A, LRR B, LRR C, Lime Rock Resources II-A, L.P. (LRR II-A) and Lime Rock Resources II-C, L.P. (LRR II-C) are Delaware limited partnerships and affiliates of LRE that own limited liability company interests in LRE GP.

The Merger (See page 68)

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity, and, at the same time, the purchase by Vanguard of all of the outstanding limited liability company interests in LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard.

Merger Consideration (See page 139)

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger (the effective time), each LRE common unit issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 0.550 Vanguard common units. Any LRE common units that are owned by LRE or Vanguard or any of their respective subsidiaries at the effective time will be cancelled and cease to exist, without any conversion or payment of consideration in respect thereof.

Treatment of LRE Restricted Units (See page 139)

Under the merger agreement, each LRE restricted unit that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, at the effective time, become fully vested and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse and such LRE restricted unit be deemed to be an LRE common unit for purposes of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE Special Unitholder Meeting; Unitholders Entitled to Vote; Vote Required (See page 63)

Meeting. The special meeting will be held at Two Allen Center, 1200 Smith Street, the Forum Assembly Room on the 12th Floor, Houston, TX 77002 on October 5, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time. At the LRE special meeting, LRE unitholders will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

Proposal 1: to approve the merger agreement, as such agreement may be amended from time to time, and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

Proposal 3: to approve the adjournment of the special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Record Date. Only LRE unitholders of record at the close of business on August 28, 2015, the record date for the determination of holders entitled to notice of and to vote at the LRE special meeting, will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the LRE special meeting. As of the close of business on August 28, 2015, there were 28,074,433 LRE common units outstanding and entitled to be voted at the meeting. Each holder of LRE common units is entitled to one vote for each unit owned as of the record date.

Required Vote. To approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must vote in favor of such proposal. LRE cannot complete the merger unless its unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Simultaneous with the execution of the merger agreement, certain affiliates of LRE, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units, have entered into an amended and restated voting and support agreement with Vanguard, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their LRE common units in favor of the approval of the merger agreement and to take other actions in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Collectively, these LRE unitholders hold common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE's outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015. Because approval of this proposal is based on the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, an LRE unitholder's failure to vote, an abstention from voting or the failure of an LRE unitholder who holds his or her units in street name through a broker or other nominee to give voting instructions to such broker or other nominee will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

To approve (on an advisory, non-binding basis) the proposal regarding the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger, the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must vote in favor of such proposal. Because approval of this proposal is based on the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, an LRE unitholder's failure to vote, an abstention from voting or the failure of an LRE unitholder who holds his or her units in street name through a broker or other nominee to give voting instructions to such broker or other nominee will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of the merger related compensation payments.

To approve the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting if a quorum is present at, and if a limited partner vote is solicited on adjournment of, the meeting, the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must vote in favor of the proposal. If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units present and entitled to be voted at such meeting represented either in person or by proxy is required to adjourn. Because approval of this proposal is based on the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units if a quorum is present, if a limited partner vote is solicited, an LRE unitholder's failure to vote, an abstention from voting or the failure of an LRE unitholder who holds his or her units in street name through a broker or other nominee to give voting instructions to such broker or other nominee will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of this proposal.

Unit Ownership of and Voting by LRE GP's Directors and Executive Officers. At the close of business on the record date for the LRE special meeting, LRE GP's directors and executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned and had the right to vote 8,962,552 LRE common units at the LRE special meeting, which represents approximately 32% of the LRE common units entitled to be voted at the LRE special meeting. It is expected that LRE GP's directors and executive officers will vote their units FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, although none of them has entered into any agreement requiring them to do so.

LRE Unitholder Proposals. Ownership of LRE common units does not entitle LRE common unitholders to make proposals at the LRE special meeting. The LRE partnership agreement gives LRE GP the right to make rules regarding the conduct of such meetings and only permits the limited partners of LRE to have the right to vote on matters they are entitled to vote on under the LRE partnership agreement or with respect to matters that LRE GP determines to submit to a vote of the limited partners of LRE. As a result, LRE GP may adopt a rule for such meetings that only LRE GP may make proposals at such meetings, and it is expected that LRE GP will adopt such a rule for the LRE special meeting.

LRE's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of LRE GP's Board of Directors and LRE GP's Conflicts Committee (See pages 77 and 83)

The conflicts committee of the board of directors of LRE GP (the LRE GP conflicts committee) has determined that the merger agreement is advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders who are not affiliates of LRE GP and has approved the merger agreement and recommended that the board of directors of LRE GP approve the merger agreement. Based upon, among other things, the recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee, the board of directors of LRE GP has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders and recommends that LRE unitholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the board of directors of LRE GP considered a number of factors in its deliberations in addition to the recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee. For a more complete discussion of these factors, see Proposal 1: The Merger Recommendation of LRE GP's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger and Proposal 1: The Merger Recommendation of the LRE GP Conflicts Committee and Its Reasons for the Merger.

Voting and Support Agreement (See page 124)

Simultaneous with the execution of the merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Voting and Support Agreement (the original support agreement) with each of LRR A, LRR B and LRR C, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units (collectively, the Holders), LRE, LRE GP, and, solely for certain restrictions on the sale of Vanguard common units, LRM, LRR II-A and LRR II-C (the Non-Fund I GP Sellers). On May 21, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the parties to the original support agreement entered into an Amended and Restated Voting and Support Agreement (the amended and restated support agreement). Collectively, the Holders hold LRE common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE's outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015.

In accordance with the amended and restated support agreement, the Holders have agreed, among other things, subject to a change in recommendation by the board of directors of LRE GP, to vote or cause to be voted all of their units, including LRE common units owned by such Holders, in favor of the merger and the approval of the merger agreement and against alternative proposals or other proposals made in opposition to approval of the merger agreement and other actions or transactions which might materially impede or interfere with the merger or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The Holders also agreed to provide Vanguard with an irrevocable proxy over all of their LRE common units, which will empower Vanguard, subject to the terms of the amended and restated support agreement, to vote those units in favor of the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby on behalf of the Holders. The foregoing obligations will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the consummation of the merger and (b) the valid termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

The Holders have also agreed to certain restrictions under the amended and restated support agreement, including but not limited to: (i) a restriction on transferring more than 15% of their LRE common units prior to the earlier of the completion of the merger and the valid termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) a restriction on soliciting or encouraging alternative proposals. Furthermore, the Holders agreed to promptly notify Vanguard of any alternative proposal that they receive and to keep Vanguard reasonably informed on the material developments of any such alternative proposals. For a period beginning at the effective time of the merger and continuing for a period of 90 days thereafter, the Holders and the Non-Fund I GP Sellers have also agreed not to sell, contract to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Vanguard common units (or any security exercisable or exchangeable for Vanguard common units) received in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, provided that, on each trading day during such period, the Holders and the Non-Fund I GP Sellers may sell, contract to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of an aggregate number of Vanguard common units (or any security exercisable or exchangeable for Vanguard common units), on a daily basis, not to exceed 10% of the average daily trading volume of Vanguard common units during the four weeks immediately prior to the first day of the calendar month in which such transaction occurs. Vanguard and the Holders have also agreed to a mutual two-year non-solicitation of employees commencing at the effective time of the merger.

For a more complete discussion of the amended and restated support agreement, see Proposal 1: The Merger Voting and Support Agreement.

Termination and Continuing Obligations Agreement (See page 127)

As a condition to closing of transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, the parties have agreed to execute and deliver a Termination and Continuing Obligations Agreement (the termination agreement) substantially in the form attached as an exhibit to the merger agreement. Pursuant to the termination agreement, (i) the omnibus agreement among LRE, LRE GP, LRE Operating, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of LRE (OLLC), the Holders, LRR GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the ultimate general partner of each of the Holders, and LRM, will be terminated and (ii) the Holders, severally and in proportion to each entity's property contributor percentage, will agree to indemnify LRE, LRE GP, OLLC and all of their respective subsidiaries from and against any losses arising out of any income tax liabilities attributable to the ownership or operation of the oil and natural gas properties owned or leased by any of LRE, LRE GP, OLLC or their respective subsidiaries prior to the closing of the LRE's initial public offering. The indemnification obligations of the Holders under the termination agreement will survive until the first anniversary of the closing date of the merger. See Proposal 1: The Merger Termination and Continuing Obligations Agreement.

Registration Rights Agreement (See page 127)

Simultaneous with the execution of the merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the original registration rights agreement) with the Holders and Non-Fund I GP Sellers. On May 21, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the parties to the original registration rights agreement entered into an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement (the amended and restated registration rights agreement). Pursuant to the amended and restated registration rights agreement, among other things, (i) no later than the 14th day following the closing date of the merger, Vanguard will file with the SEC either (a) a shelf registration statement with respect to the public resale of the Vanguard common units received by the Holders and Non-Fund I GP Sellers as consideration in the merger and the acquisition of LRE GP or (b) a post-effective amendment to Vanguard's existing automatic shelf registration statement on Form S-3, (ii) the Holders and the Non-Fund I GP Sellers will have the right to participate in future underwritten public offerings of Vanguard common units and (iii) subject to certain conditions, Vanguard will be obligated to initiate an underwritten offering of the Vanguard common units received by the Holders and the Non-Fund I GP Sellers as consideration in the merger and the acquisition of LRE GP. For a more complete discussion of the registration rights agreement, see Proposal 1: The Merger Registration Rights Agreement.

Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors (See page 90)

The board of directors of LRE GP retained Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. Advisors, LLC (TPH) as its exclusive financial advisor to provide financial advice and assistance to the board and to provide an opinion to the board in connection with the merger. TPH evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units. At a meeting of the board of directors of LRE GP held on April 20, 2015, at the request of the board, TPH orally rendered its opinion to the board that, as of April 20, 2015, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, limitations and other matters considered by TPH in connection with the preparation of its opinion, the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such unitholders.

TPH subsequently confirmed its opinion in writing to the board of directors of LRE GP (the LRE Opinion).

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Vanguard s entering into and performing the Eagle Rock merger agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement (the Eagle Rock Transactions), including the Eagle Rock merger, required the prior consent of the board of directors of LRE GP. Accordingly, in connection with its negotiation of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard sought such consent of the board of directors of LRE GP (the Consent). The board of directors of LRE GP retained TPH as its exclusive financial advisor to provide financial advice and assistance to the board and to provide an opinion to the board in connection with the board s consideration of the Consent. TPH evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Vanguard, giving pro forma effect to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (the LRE Transactions) (New Vanguard), of the consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement (the Eagle Rock merger consideration). At a meeting of the board of directors of LRE GP held on May 21, 2015, at the request of the board, TPH orally rendered its opinion to the board that, as of May 21, 2015, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, limitations and other matters considered by TPH in connection with the preparation of its opinion, the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to New Vanguard. TPH subsequently confirmed its opinion in writing to the board of directors of LRE GP (the Eagle Rock Opinion).

The full text of the LRE Opinion, dated April 20, 2015, and the Eagle Rock Opinion, dated May 21, 2015, each of which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken by TPH in rendering its opinions, are attached as Annex C and Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus and are incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the TPH opinions set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinions. LRE unitholders are urged to read each TPH opinion carefully and in its entirety. TPH provided its opinions for the information and assistance of the board of directors of LRE GP in connection with (i) its consideration of the merger and (ii) its consideration of the Consent. Neither TPH opinion nor the summaries thereof, nor the related analyses disclosed in this proxy statement/prospectus, constitutes a recommendation as to how the board of directors of LRE GP, any holder of securities in LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock or any other person should act or vote with respect to the LRE Transactions, the Eagle Rock Transactions, the Consent or any other matter. TPH did not express any view on, and neither opinion addressed, any other term or aspect of the merger agreement, the LRE Transactions, the Eagle Rock merger agreement or the Eagle Rock Transactions. TPH did not express any opinion as to the price at which Vanguard common units, LRE common units or Eagle Rock common units will trade at any time or as to the impact of the LRE Transactions or the Eagle Rock Transactions on the solvency or viability of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock or the ability of each of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock to pay its obligations when they become due.

See The Merger Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors beginning on page 90. See also Annex C and Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Conflicts Committee (See page 103)

In connection with the merger, Simmons & Company International (Simmons) delivered its opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee to the effect that, as of April 20, 2015, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, the terms of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement were fair from a financial point of view to the holders of common units of LRE other than LRM or affiliate entities (the unaffiliated LRE unitholders).

In connection with the LRE GP conflicts committee's consideration of whether to consent to the Eagle Rock merger, Simmons delivered its opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee to the effect that, as of May 20, 2015, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, the terms of the Eagle Rock merger contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement were fair from a financial point of view to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

The full text of Simmons' written opinion, dated April 20, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex E.

The full text of Simmons' written opinion, dated May 20, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex F.

Simmons' opinion, dated April 20, 2015, was provided to the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with the LRE GP conflicts committee's consideration of the merger agreement, does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger agreement or the Eagle Rock merger and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of interests in LRE or any other party to the merger or the Eagle Rock merger should vote or act with respect to the merger agreement, the Eagle Rock merger or any other matter. Simmons' opinion, dated May 20, 2015, was provided to the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with the LRE GP conflicts committee's consideration of whether to consent to the Eagle Rock merger, does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger agreement, or the Eagle Rock merger, and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of interests in LRE or any other party to the merger agreement or the Eagle Rock merger should vote or act with respect to the merger, the Eagle Rock merger or any other matter. See The Merger Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Conflicts Committee beginning on page 103. See also Annex E and Annex F to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vanguard Unitholder Approval is Not Required (See page 135)

Vanguard unitholders are not required to approve the merger agreement or approve the merger or the issuance of Vanguard common units in connection with the merger.

Ownership of Vanguard After the Merger (See page 135)

Vanguard will issue approximately 15.44 million Vanguard common units to former LRE unitholders (which does not include the 12,320 Vanguard common units to be issued to the former members of LRE GP) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Additionally, if the Eagle Rock merger is consummated, Vanguard will issue approximately 28.75 million Vanguard common units to former Eagle Rock unitholders pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement. Further, the number of Vanguard common units outstanding will increase after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus if Vanguard sells additional common units to the public.

If the Eagle Rock merger is consummated pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, based on the number of Vanguard common units outstanding as of August 27, 2015, immediately following the later to occur of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard expects to have approximately 130.80 million Vanguard common units outstanding (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to the members of LRE GP). Under this scenario, LRE unitholders would be expected to hold approximately 11.8% of the aggregate number of Vanguard common units outstanding immediately after the completion of the merger and the Eagle Rock merger.

If, however, the Eagle Rock merger is not consummated pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, based on the number of Vanguard common units outstanding as of August 27, 2015, immediately following the completion of the merger, Vanguard expects to have approximately 102.05 million common units outstanding (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to the members of LRE GP). Under this scenario, LRE unitholders would be expected to hold approximately 15.1% of the aggregate number of Vanguard common units outstanding immediately after the completion of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger (See page 132)

LRE GP's directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of the LRE unitholders generally. Except as noted below, the members of the board of directors of LRE GP were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending to LRE's unitholders that the merger agreement be approved.

These interests include:

The Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and the independent directors of LRE GP hold restricted units issued under the LTIP that are subject to time-based vesting. Each LRE restricted unit that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder of such LRE restricted unit, become fully vested and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse and such LRE restricted unit will be deemed to be LRE common units for purposes of the merger. The aggregate value of the Vanguard common units to be received by the Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and the independent directors of LRE GP in connection with the vesting of the LRE restricted units in connection with the merger is currently estimated to be $1.2 million (based on a per unit price of $16.28, the average closing price of Vanguard common units over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the transaction).

The employment of one executive officer of LRE GP is expected to be terminated in connection with the merger, and he is expected to receive a cash severance payment of $750,000 immediately prior to the closing of the merger, as well as other cash bonuses in an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $250,000 plus a pro-rated portion of a $250,000 annual cash bonus.

Eric Mullins and Charles W. Adcock, LRE GP's Co-Chief Executive Officers, each own a small number (5,840 and 2,250, respectively) of Vanguard common units. The board of directors of LRE GP did not consider these interests in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and in recommending to LRE's unitholders that the merger agreement be approved.

LRE GP's directors and executive officers are entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage under the merger agreement.

Risks Relating to the Merger and Ownership of Vanguard Common Units (See page 45)

LRE unitholders should consider carefully all the risk factors together with all of the other information contained in or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus before deciding how to vote. Risks relating to the merger and ownership of Vanguard common units are described in the section titled Risk Factors. Some of these risks include, but are not limited to, those described below:

Because the exchange ratio is fixed and because the market price of Vanguard common units will fluctuate prior to the consummation of the merger, LRE unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of the Vanguard common units they will receive as merger consideration relative to the value of LRE common units they exchange.

The merger agreement contains provisions that limit LRE's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger, could discourage a potential competing acquirer of LRE from making a favorable alternative transaction proposal and, in specified circumstances, could require LRE to reimburse up to $1,215,000 of Vanguard's out-of-pocket expenses or pay a termination fee to Vanguard of $7,288,000. Following payment of the termination fee, LRE will not be obligated to pay any additional expenses incurred by Vanguard or its affiliates.

Certain directors and executive officers of LRE GP have certain interests that are different from those of LRE unitholders generally.

LRE unitholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in the combined organization after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard common units to be received by LRE unitholders as a result of the merger have different rights from LRE common units.

No ruling has been requested with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. The intended U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are dependent upon Vanguard and LRE being treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

LRE common unitholders could recognize taxable income or gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger.

Vanguard's limited liability company agreement restricts the voting rights of unitholders owning 20% or more of its units.

Vanguard's tax treatment depends on its status as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, as well as it not being subject to a material amount of entity-level taxation by individual states or local entities. If the IRS treats Vanguard as a corporation or Vanguard becomes subject to a material amount of entity-level taxation for state or local tax purposes, it would substantially reduce the amount of cash available for payment for distributions on Vanguard's common units.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (See page 197)

Tax matters associated with the merger are complicated. The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to an LRE unitholder will depend, in part, on such unitholder's own personal tax situation. The tax discussions contained herein focus on the U.S. federal income tax consequences generally applicable to individuals who are residents or citizens of the United States that hold their LRE units as capital assets and acquired their LRE units in exchange for cash, and these discussions have only limited application to other unitholders, including those subject to special tax treatment. LRE unitholders are urged to consult their tax advisors for a full understanding of the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger that will be applicable to them.

In connection with the merger, LRE expects to receive an opinion from Andrews Kurth LLP to the effect that (i) except to the extent that any cash received in lieu of fractional common units of Vanguard is treated as part of a sale, LRE will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; (ii) except to the extent that any cash received in lieu of fractional common units of Vanguard is treated as part of a sale, a holder of LRE common units who acquired his units in exchange for cash will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any actual or constructive distribution of cash, including as a result of any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; and (iii) at least 90% of the gross income of LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the Closing Date for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code.

In connection with the merger, Vanguard expects to receive an opinion from Paul Hastings LLP to the effect that (i) Vanguard will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; (ii) a holder of Vanguard common units will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; and (iii) at least 90% of the combined gross income of each of Vanguard and LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the Closing Date for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code.

Opinions of counsel, however, are subject to certain limitations and are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and no assurance can be given that the IRS could not successfully assert a contrary position to the position of the opinions of counsel regarding the merger. In addition, such opinions will be based upon certain factual assumptions, representations, warranties and covenants made by the officers of

Vanguard, LRE, LRE GP and their respective affiliates. Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (See page 135)

In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) and in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification Topic 805 Business Combinations, Vanguard will account for the merger as an acquisition of a business.

Listing of Vanguard Common Units; Delisting and Deregistration of LRE Common Units (See page 135)

Vanguard common units are currently listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol VNR. It is a condition to closing that the Vanguard common units to be issued in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to LRE unitholders and LRE GP members be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

LRE common units are currently listed on the NYSE under the ticker symbol LRE. If the merger is completed, LRE common units will cease to be listed on the NYSE and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

No Appraisal Rights (See page 135)

Appraisal rights are not available in connection with the merger under the Delaware LP Act or under the LRE partnership agreement.

Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement (See page 140)

Vanguard and LRE currently expect to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in October 2015, subject to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement and to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement described below.

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus, each party's obligation to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement depends on a number of customary closing conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived, including the following:

the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby must have been approved by the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units; all waiting periods applicable to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement under the S. Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), must have been terminated or expired; no law, order, judgment or injunction issued, enacted, promulgated, entered or enforced by any court or governmental authority will be in effect restraining or prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or making the consummation of such transactions illegal;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must have become effective and must not be subject to any stop order suspending the effectiveness or proceedings initiated or threatened by the SEC; and the Vanguard common units to be issued pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement must have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligation of Vanguard to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

TABLE OF CONTENTS

the representations and warranties of LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP in the merger agreement being true and correct both when made and at and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain standards, including materiality and material adverse effect qualifications, as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement ;

LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP having performed and complied with, in all material respects, all agreements and covenants required to be performed by them under the merger agreement;

the receipt of an officer's certificate executed by a Co-Chief Executive Officer of LRE GP certifying that the two preceding conditions have been satisfied; the receipt from Paul Hastings LLP, tax counsel to Vanguard, of a written opinion regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters, as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement ;

the receipt of the written resignation of each member of the board of directors of LRE GP and each officer of LRE GP, dated to be effective as of the effective time;

the receipt of an assignment of membership interests in LRE GP; and the receipt of a counterpart of a termination and continuing obligations agreement from LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP.

The obligation of the sellers of LRE GP and LRE to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Vanguard in the merger agreement being true and correct both when made and at and as of the closing date of the merger, subject to certain standards, including materiality and material adverse effect qualifications, as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement ;

Vanguard and Merger Sub having performed and complied with, in all material respects, all agreements and covenants required to be performed by them under the merger agreement;

the receipt of an officer's certificate executed by the Chief Executive Officer of Vanguard certifying that the two preceding conditions have been satisfied; and the receipt from Andrews Kurth LLP, tax counsel to LRE, of a written opinion regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters, as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Approvals and Clearances Required for the Merger (See page 135)

Vanguard and LRE are not required to file notifications with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or observe a mandatory pre-merger waiting period before completing the merger under the HSR Act. Vanguard and LRE cannot assure you, however, that other government agencies or private parties will not initiate actions to challenge the merger before or after it is completed.

No Solicitation by LRE of Alternative Proposals (See page 144)

Under the merger agreement, LRE has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and use reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' directors, officers, employees, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, agents and other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to the submission of any alternative proposal (as defined under The Merger Agreement LRE Unitholder Approval); or

enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, any alternative proposal.

In addition, the merger agreement requires LRE and its subsidiaries to cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations with any persons conducted prior to the execution of the merger agreement regarding an alternative proposal.

Notwithstanding these restrictions, the merger agreement provides that, under specified circumstances at any time prior to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement, LRE may furnish information, including confidential information, with respect to it and its subsidiaries to, and participate in discussions or negotiations with, any third party that makes a written alternative proposal (which was not solicited after the execution of the merger agreement and that did not result from a violation of the no solicitation restrictions described above) that the board of directors of LRE GP believes is bona fide, and (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that the board of directors of LRE GP determines in good faith constitutes or would reasonably be likely to lead to or result in a superior proposal.

LRE has also agreed in the merger agreement that it will promptly, and in any event within 24 hours after receipt, (i) advise Vanguard in writing of any alternative proposal (and any changes thereto) and the material terms and conditions of any such alternative proposal, including the identity of the person making such alternative proposal and (ii) provide Vanguard with copies of all written proposals or draft agreements received by LRE or any representative of LRE setting forth the terms and conditions of, or otherwise relating to, such alternative proposal. In addition, LRE will keep Vanguard reasonably informed of all material developments with respect to any such alternative proposals, offers, inquiries or requests (and promptly (and in no event later than 24 hours after receipt) provide Vanguard with copies of any additional written proposals received by LRE or that LRE has delivered to any third party making an alternative proposal that relate to such alternative proposal) and of the status of any such discussions or negotiations.

Change in LRE GP Board Recommendation (See page 145)

The merger agreement provides that the board of directors of LRE GP will not (i) withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Vanguard, the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE's unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, (ii) fail to include such recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus or (iii) publicly approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any alternative proposal. LRE taking or failing to take, as applicable, any of the actions described above is referred to as a partnership change in recommendation. The merger agreement also provides that the board of directors of LRE GP will not: (i) approve, adopt or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, adopt or recommend, or allow LRE or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other similar contract or any tender or exchange offer providing for, with respect to, or in connection with any alternative proposal; (ii) fail to announce publicly within ten business days after a tender offer or exchange offer relating to the LRE common units has been commenced that the board of directors of LRE GP recommends rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer and reaffirming the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE's unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger; or (iii) resolve, agree or publicly propose to, or permit LRE or any of its representatives to agree or publicly propose to, take any of the actions referred to in this paragraph.

Subject to the satisfaction of specified conditions in the merger agreement described under The Merger Agreement Change in LRE GP Board Recommendation, the board of directors of LRE GP may, at any time prior to the approval of the merger agreement by the unitholders of LRE, effect a partnership change in recommendation in response to any bona fide alternative proposal if the board of directors of LRE GP determines, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such alternative proposal constitutes a superior proposal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Termination of the Merger Agreement (See page 147)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing, whether before or after LRE unitholders have approved the merger agreement, as follows:

by mutual written consent of Vanguard and LRE;

by either Vanguard or LRE:

if the closing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has not occurred on or before December 31, 2015 (unless such failure of the closing to occur is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements to be performed or complied with by such party prior to the closing);

if there is in effect a final and nonappealable order of a governmental authority restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (unless such right to terminate is primarily due to the failure of the terminating party to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement); or if after the final adjournment of the LRE special meeting at which a vote of the LRE unitholders has been taken in accordance with the merger agreement, approval of a majority of LRE unitholders has not been obtained;

by Vanguard:

if, prior to final adjournment of the LRE special meeting, a partnership change in recommendation has occurred; or if there is a breach by LRE, LRE GP or any LRE GP seller of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement such that certain closing conditions would not be satisfied, or if capable of being cured, such breach has not been cured by the earlier of December 31, 2015 and within 30 days following delivery of written notice of such breach by Vanguard, subject to certain exceptions discussed in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement; and

if there is a breach by Vanguard of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement such that certain closing conditions would not be satisfied, or if capable of being cured, such breach has not been cured by the earlier of December 31, 2015 and within 30 days following delivery of written notice of such breach by LRE, subject to certain exceptions discussed in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement; or in order to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a superior proposal, provided that LRE must concurrently with such termination pay to Vanguard the termination fee.

Expenses (See page 149)

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be the obligation of the respective party incurring such fees and expenses, except that Vanguard and LRE will each pay one-half of the expenses incurred in connection with any HSR Act filing and the filing, printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, following a termination of the merger agreement in specified circumstances, the non-terminating party would be required to pay all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the terminating party in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, up to a maximum amount of $1,215,000.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Termination Fee (See page 148)

Following termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances, including (i) termination by Vanguard due to a partnership change in recommendation having occurred, (ii) termination by LRE in order to enter into a superior proposal or (iii) termination by either party after an alternative proposal was received by LRE, and LRE enters into an definitive agreement with respect to such alternative proposal within 12 months after the date of the merger agreement, LRE will be required to pay Vanguard a termination fee of $7,288,000. Following payment of the termination fee, LRE will not be obligated to pay any additional expenses incurred by Vanguard or its affiliates.

Comparison of Rights of Vanguard Common Unitholders and LRE Unitholders (See page 224)

LRE unitholders will own Vanguard common units following the completion of the merger, and their rights associated with those Vanguard common units will be governed by the Vanguard limited liability company agreement, which differs in a number of respects from the LRE partnership agreement, and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (the Delaware LLC Act).

Litigation Relating to the Merger (See page 136)

A putative class action was filed on June 3, 2015 in connection with the merger by a purported LRE unitholder (the Delaware State Plaintiff) against LRE, LRE GP, the members of the LRE GP board of directors, Vanguard, Merger Sub and the other parties to the merger agreement (the Original Defendants). The lawsuit was styled Barry Miller v. LRR Energy, L.P. et al., Case No. 11087-VCG, in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the Delaware State Lawsuit). On July 23, 2015, the Delaware State Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the Delaware State Lawsuit without prejudice.

On July 10, 2015 and July 13, 2015, two additional purported LRE unitholders (the Texas State Plaintiffs) filed putative class action lawsuits against the Original Defendants. These lawsuits were styled (a) Christopher Tiberio v. Eric Mullins et al., Cause No. 2015-39864, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 334th Judicial District; and (b) Eddie Hammond v. Eric Mullins et al., Cause No. 2015-40154, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 295th Judicial District (the Texas State Lawsuits). On July 28, 2015, the Texas State Lawsuits were nonsuited without prejudice.

On July 14, 2015, another purported LRE unitholder (the Texas Federal Plaintiff) filed a putative class action lawsuit against the Original Defendants. This lawsuit was styled Ronald Krieger v. LRR Energy, L.P. et al., Civil Action No. 4:15-cv-2017, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division (the Texas Federal Lawsuit). On July 17, 2015, the Texas Federal Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the Texas Federal Lawsuit without prejudice.

On August 18, 2015, another purported LRE unitholder (the Plaintiff) filed a putative class action lawsuit against the members of the LRE GP board of directors, Vanguard, and Merger Sub (the Defendants). This lawsuit is styled Robert Hurwitz v. Eric Mullins et al., Civil Action No. 1:15-cv-00711-UNA, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (the Lawsuit).

The Lawsuit alleges that the Defendants violated Sections 14(a) and/or 20(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. In general, the Plaintiff alleges that the proxy statement/prospectus fails, among other things, to disclose allegedly material details concerning (i) the background of the merger, (ii) Simmons and TPH's analysis of the merger, (iii) LRE's and Vanguard's financial and operational projections, and (iv) certain alleged conflicts of interest.

The Plaintiff seeks, among other relief, to enjoin the merger, or rescind the merger in the event it is consummated, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

The Plaintiff has not yet served the Defendants, and the Defendants' date to answer, move to dismiss, or otherwise respond to the Lawsuit has not yet been set.

Vanguard and LRE cannot predict the outcome of the Lawsuit or any others that might be filed subsequent to the date of the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus; nor can Vanguard and LRE predict the amount of time and expense that will be required to resolve the Lawsuit. The Defendants believe the Lawsuit is without merit and intend to vigorously defend against it.

Litigation Relating to the Eagle Rock Merger

On May 28, 2015 and June 10, 2015, alleged Eagle Rock unitholders (the Eagle Rock State Plaintiffs) filed two derivative and class action lawsuits against Eagle Rock, Eagle Rock GP, Eagle Rock Energy G&P, LLC, the general partner of Eagle Rock GP, Vanguard, Talon Merger Sub, and the members of the board of directors of Eagle Rock Energy G&P, LLC (collectively, the Eagle Rock Defendants). These lawsuits have been consolidated as Irving and Judith Braun v. Eagle Rock Energy GP, L.P. et al., Case No. 2015-30441, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 125th Judicial District (the Eagle Rock State Lawsuits). On June 1, 2015, another alleged Eagle Rock unitholder (the Eagle Rock Federal Plaintiff) and, together with the Eagle Rock State Plaintiffs, the Eagle Rock Plaintiffs) filed a class action lawsuit against the Eagle Rock Defendants. This lawsuit is styled Pieter Heydenrych v. Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P. et al., Case No. 4:15-cv-01470, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division (the Eagle Rock Federal Lawsuit) and, together with the Eagle Rock State Lawsuits, the Eagle Rock Lawsuits).

The Eagle Rock Plaintiffs allege a variety of causes of action challenging the Eagle Rock merger, including that (i) the members of the board of directors of Eagle Rock G&P, LLC have allegedly breached duties and the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing in connection with the Eagle Rock merger, and (ii) Eagle Rock GP, Eagle Rock Energy G&P, LLC, Vanguard, and Talon Merger Sub have allegedly aided and abetted in these alleged breaches. The Eagle Rock Federal Plaintiff also alleges that the Eagle Rock Defendants have violated Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. In general, the Eagle Rock Plaintiffs allege that the Eagle Rock merger (a) provides inadequate consideration to Eagle Rock unitholders, (b) is not subject to minority unitholder approval due to the support agreement and the absence of a majority-of-the-minority vote requirement, (c) contains contractual terms (the no-solicitation, matching rights, and termination fee provisions) that will dissuade other potential merger partners from making alternative proposals, and (d) does not include a collar to protect Eagle Rock unitholders against declines in Vanguard's unit price. The Eagle Rock Plaintiffs also allege, in general, that the registration statement filed in connection with the Eagle Rock merger fails, among other things, to disclose allegedly material details concerning (i) Eagle Rock's and Vanguard's financial and operational projections, (ii) the analysis underlying the opinion of the financial advisor to Eagle Rock, (iii) the analysis underlying the opinion of the financial advisor to Vanguard and (iv) the background of the Eagle Rock merger.

Based on these allegations, the Eagle Rock Plaintiffs seek to enjoin Eagle Rock from proceeding with or consummating the Eagle Rock merger. To the extent that the Eagle Rock merger is consummated before injunctive relief is granted, the Eagle Rock Plaintiffs seek to have the Eagle Rock merger rescinded. The Eagle Rock Federal Plaintiff also seeks damages. The Eagle Rock Plaintiffs also seek attorneys' fees.

The Eagle Rock Defendants' date to answer, move to dismiss, or otherwise respond to the Eagle Rock Federal Lawsuit has not yet been set. The Eagle Rock Defendants have answered the Eagle Rock State Lawsuits, denying the allegations therein. Eagle Rock and Vanguard cannot predict the outcome of the Eagle Rock Lawsuits or any others that might be filed subsequent to the date of the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus; nor can Eagle Rock and Vanguard predict the amount of time and expense that will be required to resolve the Eagle Rock Lawsuits. The Eagle Rock Defendants believe the Eagle Rock Lawsuits are without merit and intend to vigorously defend against them.

The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger, and the completion of the merger is not a condition to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Agreement and Plan of Merger with Eagle Rock

On May 21, 2015, Vanguard and Talon Merger Sub (collectively, the Vanguard Entities), entered into the Eagle Rock merger agreement with Eagle Rock and Eagle Rock GP, pursuant to which Vanguard will acquire Eagle Rock in exchange for Vanguard common units, implying an aggregate transaction value of approximately $614 million, including the assumption of Eagle Rock's existing net debt. The Eagle Rock merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Talon Merger Sub will be merged with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Vanguard.

Under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, each outstanding Eagle Rock common unit will be converted into the right to receive 0.185 newly issued Vanguard common units or, in the case of fractional Vanguard common units, cash (without interest and rounded up to the nearest whole cent) (the Eagle Rock merger consideration). Further, in connection with the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard will adopt Eagle Rock's long-term incentive plan and each outstanding award of Eagle Rock common units (including performance units based on Eagle Rock common units, restricted Eagle Rock units) issued under such plan will be converted into new awards of Vanguard restricted units. However, any outstanding Eagle Rock restricted units held by employees and officers of Eagle Rock and members of the board of directors of Eagle Rock Energy G&P, LLC, the general partner of Eagle Rock GP, who do not receive offers from Vanguard or who receive Unqualified Offers (as such term is defined in the Eagle Rock merger agreement) and do not accept such offers will accelerate upon the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger (as if terminated without cause following a change of control) and be converted into the right to receive the Eagle Rock merger consideration, with the vesting level of performance-based restricted units determined based upon actual performance through the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger (subject to Vanguard's good faith review). The Eagle Rock Entities and the Vanguard Entities have each made certain representations and warranties and agreed to certain covenants in the Eagle Rock merger agreement. Each of the Eagle Rock Entities and Vanguard has agreed, among other things, subject to certain exceptions, to conduct its respective business in the ordinary course during the period between the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger (unless the Eagle Rock merger agreement is earlier terminated in accordance with its terms). In addition, Eagle Rock has agreed not to solicit alternative business combination transactions during such period, and, subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in discussions or negotiations regarding any alternative business combination transactions during such period.

The closing of the Eagle Rock merger agreement is subject to satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including, among others, (1) the approval of the Eagle Rock merger agreement by the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Eagle Rock common units, voting as a class, (2) the approval of the issuance of the new Vanguard common units to the Eagle Rock unitholders in connection with the Eagle Rock by the majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively by holders of the outstanding Vanguard common units and Vanguard class B units present in person or by proxy at a duly called unitholder meeting, (3) the registration statement on Form S-4 used to register the Vanguard common units to be issued in the Eagle Rock being declared effective by the SEC, (4) the approval for listing of the Vanguard common units issuable as part of the Eagle Rock merger consideration on NASDAQ, (5) subject to specified materiality standards, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of, and the performance of all covenants by, the parties and (6) the delivery of certain tax opinions.

The Eagle Rock merger agreement contains certain termination rights for both Vanguard and Eagle Rock and further provides that, upon termination of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, under certain circumstances, either party may be required to reimburse the other party's expenses up to $2,317,700 and pay the other party a termination fee equal to $20,000,000.

Prior to entering into the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard obtained the consent of LRE and the board of directors of LRE GP.

Voting and Support Agreement with Holders of Common Units of Eagle Rock

Simultaneously with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Voting and Support Agreement (the Eagle Rock support agreement) with each of Montierra Minerals & Production, L.P., Montierra Management LLC, Natural Gas Partners VII, L.P., Natural Gas Partners VIII, L.P., NGP Income Management L.L.C., Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 7, LLC, Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 8, LLC, ERH NGP 7 SPV, LLC, ERH NGP 8 SPV, LLC, NGP Income Co-Investment Opportunities Fund II, L.P. and NGP Energy Capital Management, L.L.C. (collectively, the Eagle Rock Holders and each, an Eagle Rock Holder), and, solely for the waiver of an existing voting agreement and termination and other miscellaneous provisions, Eagle Rock and Eagle Rock GP.

In accordance with the Eagle Rock support agreement, the Eagle Rock Holders have agreed, among other things, to vote all Eagle Rock common units owned by such Eagle Rock Holders in favor of the Eagle Rock merger and the approval of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and against alternative proposals or other proposals made in opposition to approval of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and other actions or transactions which might materially impede or interfere with the Eagle Rock merger or the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement. The Eagle Rock Holders also agreed to provide Vanguard with an irrevocable proxy over all of their Eagle Rock common units, which will empower Vanguard, subject to the terms of the Eagle Rock support agreement, to vote those units in favor of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby on behalf of the Eagle Rock Holders. The foregoing obligations will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the consummation of the Eagle Rock merger or the termination of the Eagle Rock merger agreement in accordance with its terms (the Eagle Rock expiration date), (b) the effective date of any waiver, amendment or other modification to the Eagle Rock merger agreement that is materially adverse to the Eagle Rock Holders and (c) a change in recommendation of Eagle Rock regarding the Eagle Rock merger.

The Eagle Rock Holders have also agreed to certain restrictions under the Eagle Rock support agreement, including but not limited to: (i) a restriction on transferring more than 15% of their Eagle Rock common units prior to the Eagle Rock expiration date and (ii) a restriction on soliciting or encouraging alternative proposals. Furthermore, the Eagle Rock Holders agreed to promptly notify Vanguard of any alternative proposal that they receive and to keep Vanguard reasonably informed on the material developments of any such alternative proposals. For a period beginning at the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger and continuing for a period of 90 days thereafter, the Eagle Rock Holders have also agreed not to sell, contract to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Vanguard common units (or any security exercisable or exchangeable for Vanguard common units) received in the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement, provided that on each trading day during such period, the Eagle Rock Holders may sell, contract to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of an aggregate number of Vanguard common units (or any security exercisable or exchangeable for Vanguard common units), on a daily basis, not to exceed 10% of the average daily trading volume of Vanguard common units during the four weeks immediately prior to the first day of the calendar month in which such transaction occurs.

Registration Rights Agreement with Holders of Common Units of Eagle Rock

On May 21, 2015, Vanguard entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Eagle Rock registration rights agreement) with the Eagle Rock Holders. Pursuant to the Eagle Rock registration rights agreement, among other things, (i) no later than the 14th day following the closing date of the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard will file with the SEC either (a) a registration statement with respect to the public resale of the Vanguard common units received by the Eagle Rock Holders as consideration in the Eagle Rock merger or (b) a post-effective amendment to Vanguard's existing automatic shelf registration on Form S-3, (ii) the Eagle Rock Holders will have the right to participate in future underwritten public offerings of Vanguard common units and (iii) subject to certain conditions, Vanguard will be obligated to initiate an underwritten offering of the Vanguard common units received by the Eagle Rock Holders as consideration in the Eagle Rock merger.

Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement

On June 3, 2015, Vanguard entered into the Eighth Amendment to its Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Amended Agreement) which decreased the borrowing base from $2.0 billion to $1.6 billion. The Amended Agreement however provides for an automatic increase in the borrowing base by $200.0 million upon closing of the merger. In addition, the Amended Agreement includes, among other provisions, the amendment of the debt to Last Twelve Months Adjusted EBITDA covenant to be greater than 5.5 to 1.0 in 2015, 5.25 to 1.0 in 2016 and 4.5 to 1.0 starting in 2017 and beyond.

TABLE OF CONTENTSSELECTED HISTORICAL CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA OF VANGUARD

The following summary historical consolidated data as of and for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010 are derived from Vanguard's audited historical consolidated financial statements. The following selected historical consolidated financial data as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 are derived from Vanguard's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of Vanguard's management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair statement of Vanguard's financial position at June 30, 2015, and its operating results and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 have been included.

You should read the following historical consolidated financial data in conjunction with Vanguard's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, as well as Vanguard's historical financial statements and notes thereto, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Oil and natural gas derivative contracts were used to reduce Vanguard's exposure to changes in oil and natural gas prices. In 2008, all commodity derivative contracts were either de-designated as cash flow hedges or they failed to meet the hedge documentation requirements for cash flow hedges. As a result, (a) for the cash flow hedges that were settled in 2008 through 2011, the change in fair value through December 31, 2007 was reclassified to earnings from accumulated other comprehensive loss and is classified as gain (loss) on commodity cash flow hedges and (b) the changes in the fair value of commodity derivative contracts are recorded in earnings and classified as gain (loss) on commodity derivative contracts.

Includes $7.8 million, $5.0 million, $11.7 million, $5.9 million, $5.4 million, $3.0 million and $1.0 million of (2) non-cash unit-based compensation expense in the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 and in the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Due to the change in the payment of Vanguard's distributions from quarterly to monthly starting with Vanguard's July 2012 distribution, the distributions declared during 2012 include 14 months of distributions compared to 12 months of distributions for each of the other years presented.

(4) From 2010 through 2014, Vanguard acquired certain oil and natural gas properties and related assets, as well as additional interests in these assets. The operating results of these properties were included with Vanguard's from the closing date of the acquisitions forward.

(5) From 2010 through 2014, Vanguard acquired certain oil and natural gas properties and related assets, as well as additional interests in these assets. The operating results of these properties were included with Vanguard's from the closing date of the acquisitions forward.

(6) On December 31, 2010, Vanguard acquired all of the member interests in Encore Energy Partners GP, LLC, the general partner of Encore Energy Partners LP ("ENP") and certain limited partnership interests in ENP (the "ENP Purchase") together representing a 46.7% aggregate equity interest in ENP at the date of the ENP Purchase. On December 1, 2011, Vanguard acquired the remaining 53.4% of the limited partnership interests in ENP not held by Vanguard through a merger (the "ENP Merger") with one of Vanguard's wholly-owned subsidiaries. The operating results of the subsidiaries Vanguard acquired in the ENP Purchase through the date of the completion of the ENP Merger on December 1, 2011 were subject to a 53.4% non-controlling interest.

Non-GAAP Financial Measure

Adjusted EBITDA

Vanguard presents Adjusted EBITDA in addition to its reported net income (loss) attributable to Vanguard unitholders in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that is defined as net income (loss) attributable to Vanguard unitholders plus, for 2011, net income (loss) attributable to the non-controlling interest. The result is net income (loss) which includes the non-controlling interest for 2011. From this Vanguard adds or subtracts the following:

Net interest expense, including write-off of deferred financing fees;
Depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion;
Impairment of oil and natural gas properties;
Net gains or losses on commodity derivative contracts;
Cash settlements on matured commodity derivative contracts;
Net gains or losses on interest rate derivative contracts;
Net gains and losses on acquisitions of oil and natural gas properties;
Texas margin taxes;
Compensation related items, which include unit-based compensation expense, unrealized fair value of phantom units granted to officers and cash settlement of phantom units granted to officers;
Transaction costs incurred on acquisitions and mergers;
Interest income;

For 2011, non-controlling interest amounts attributable to each of the items above from the beginning of year through the completion of the ENP Merger on December 1, 2011, which revert the calculation back to an amount attributable to the Vanguard unitholders; and

For 2011, administrative services fees charged to ENP, excluding the non-controlling interest, which are eliminated in consolidation.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Adjusted EBITDA is a significant performance metric used by Vanguard management as a tool to measure (prior to the establishment of any cash reserves by the board of directors of Vanguard, debt service and capital expenditures) the cash distributions Vanguard could pay its unitholders. Specifically, this financial measure indicates to investors whether or not Vanguard is generating cash flow at a level that can sustain or support an increase in its monthly distribution rates. Adjusted EBITDA is also used as a quantitative standard by Vanguard's management and by external users of its financial statements such as investors, research analysts and others to assess the financial performance of Vanguard's assets without regard to financing methods, capital structure or historical cost basis; the ability of Vanguard's assets to generate cash sufficient to pay interest costs and support its indebtedness; and Vanguard's operating performance and return on capital as compared to those of other companies in its industry.

Vanguard's Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to net income, operating income, cash flow from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance or liquidity presented in accordance with GAAP. Vanguard's Adjusted EBITDA excludes some, but not all, items that affect net income and operating income and these measures may vary among other companies. Therefore, Vanguard's Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. For example, Vanguard funds premiums paid for derivative contracts, acquisitions of oil and natural gas properties, including the assumption of derivative contracts related to these acquisitions and other capital expenditures primarily with proceeds from debt or equity offerings or with borrowings under Vanguard's reserve-based credit facility. For the purposes of calculating Adjusted EBITDA, Vanguard considers the cost of premiums paid for derivatives and the fair value of derivative contracts acquired as part of a business combination as investments related to its underlying oil and natural gas properties; therefore, they are not deducted in arriving at Vanguard's Adjusted EBITDA. Vanguard's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows, prepared in accordance with GAAP, present cash settlements on matured derivatives and the initial cash outflows of premiums paid to enter into derivative contracts as operating activities. When Vanguard assumes derivative contracts as part of a business combination, Vanguard allocates a part of the purchase price and assigns them a fair value at the closing date of the acquisition. The fair value of the derivative contracts acquired is recorded as a derivative asset or liability and presented as cash used in investing activities in Vanguard's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. As the volumes associated with these derivative contracts, whether Vanguard entered into them or assumed them, are settled, the fair value is recognized in operating cash flows. Whether these cash settlements on derivatives are received or paid, they are reported as operating cash flows which may increase or decrease the amount Vanguard has available to fund distributions.

As noted above, for purposes of calculating Adjusted EBITDA, Vanguard considers both premiums paid for derivatives and the fair value of derivative contracts acquired as part of a business combination as investing activities. This is similar to the way the initial acquisition or development costs of Vanguard's oil and natural gas properties are presented in its Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows; the initial cash outflows are presented as cash used in investing activities, while the cash flows generated from these assets are included in operating cash flows. The consideration of premiums paid for derivatives and the fair value of derivative contracts acquired as part of a business combination as investing activities for purposes of determining Vanguard's Adjusted EBITDA differs from the presentation in its consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP which (i) presents premiums paid for derivatives entered into as operating activities and (ii) the fair value of derivative contracts acquired as part of a business combination as investing activities.

TABLE OF CONTENTSSELECTED HISTORICAL CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA OF LRE

The following summary historical consolidated data as of and for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013 and 2012 and for the period from November 16, 2011 to December 31, 2011 are derived from LRE's audited historical consolidated financial statements. The selected financial data for the period from January 1, 2011 to November 15, 2011 and as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010 are derived from the audited financial statements of LRE's predecessor. References to LRE's predecessor refer collectively to LRR A, LRR B and LRR C, which sold and contributed oil and natural gas properties and related net profits interests and operations to LRE in connection with LRE's initial public offering. The following selected historical consolidated financial data as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 are derived from LRE's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of LRE's management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair statement of LRE's financial position at June 30, 2015, and its operating results and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 have been included.

You should read the following historical consolidated financial data in conjunction with LRE's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, as well as LRE's historical financial statements and notes thereto, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. TABLE OF CONTENTS

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

LRE discloses the non-GAAP financial measures Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow for the periods presented and provides reconciliations of these items to net income (loss), LRE's most directly comparable financial performance measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP. LRE defines Adjusted EBITDA as net income (loss) plus or minus:

Income tax expense (benefit);
Interest expense-net, including loss (gain) on interest rate derivative instruments, net;
Depletion and depreciation;
Accretion of asset retirement obligations;
Amortization of equity awards;
Loss (gain) on settlement of asset retirement obligations;
Loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, net;
Commodity derivative instrument net cash settlements;
Impairment of oil and natural gas properties; and
Other non-recurring items that LRE deems appropriate.

Adjusted EBITDA is used as a supplemental financial measure by LRE's management and by external users of LRE's financial statements, such as investors, commercial banks, research analysts and others, to assess LRE's financial performance as compared to that of other companies and partnerships in its industry, without regard to financing methods, capital structure or historical cost basis.

LRE defines Distributable Cash Flow as Adjusted EBITDA less cash income tax expense, cash interest expense and estimated maintenance capital.

Distributable Cash Flow is a supplemental financial measure used by LRE's management and by external users of LRE's financial statements, such as investors, commercial banks, research analysts and others to compare basic cash flows generated by LRE (prior to the establishment of any retained cash reserve by LRE GP) to the cash distributions LRE expects to pay its unitholders. Distributable Cash Flow is also an important financial measure for LRE's unitholders as it serves as an indicator of its success in providing a cash return on investment. Specifically, distributable cash flow indicates to investors whether or not LRE is generating cash flow at a level that can sustain or support an increase in its quarterly distribution rates. Distributable Cash Flow is a quantitative standard used throughout the investment community with respect to publicly-traded partnerships and limited liability companies because the yield is based on the amount of cash distributions the entity pays to a unitholder compared to the unit price.

LRE's management believes that both Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow are useful to investors because these measures are used by many partnerships in the industry as measures of operating and financial performance and are commonly employed by financial analysts and others to evaluate the operating and financial performance from period to period and to compare it with the performance of other publicly traded partnerships within the industry. Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow should not be considered alternatives to net income (loss), operating income (loss), or any other measures of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP. LRE's Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of another company because all companies may not calculate Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow in the same manner.

LRE's Adjusted EBITDA for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, 2012, and for the period from November 16 to December 31, 2011 was $40.2 million, $40.7 million, $83.4 million, $79.6 million, $81.2 million, and $13.6 million, respectively. LRE's predecessor's Adjusted EBITDA for the period from January 1 to November 15, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010 was $79.8 million and $119.1 million, respectively.

LRE's Distributable Cash Flow for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, and 2012 and for the period from November 16 to December 31, 2011 was $23.9 million, $25.2 million, $52.0 million, $49.6 million, $53.8 million and $11.0 million, respectively.

SELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following selected unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as of June 30, 2015 reflects the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement as if they occurred on June 30, 2015. The unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2014 and the six months ended June 30, 2015 reflect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement and certain acquisitions made by Vanguard in 2014 as if they occurred on January 1, 2014.

The following selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what the combined organization's financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement been completed as of the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined organization. Future results may vary significantly from the results reflected because of various factors. The following selected unaudited pro forma combined financial information should be read in conjunction with the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Information" and related notes included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger and there can be no assurance that the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement will be completed.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER UNIT INFORMATION

The tables below set forth historical and unaudited pro forma combined per unit information of Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock.

Historical Per Unit Information of Vanguard and LRE

The historical per unit information of Vanguard and LRE set forth in the tables below is derived from the audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014 and the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2015 for each of Vanguard and LRE.

Pro Forma Combined Per Unit Information of Vanguard

The unaudited pro forma combined per unit information of Vanguard set forth in the tables below gives effect, as applicable, to the transactions contemplated by (i) the merger agreement under the purchase method of accounting, as if the merger had been effective on January 1, 2014, in the case of income from continuing operations per unit and cash distributions data, and June 30, 2015, in the case of book value per unit data, and, in each case, assuming that 0.550 Vanguard common units have been issued in exchange for each outstanding LRE common unit and after giving effect to the settlement of outstanding restricted units awarded under the LTIP in accordance with the merger agreement, and (ii) the Eagle Rock merger agreement under the purchase method of accounting, as if the Eagle Rock merger had been effective on January 1, 2014, in the case of income from continuing operations per unit and cash distributions data, and June 30, 2015, in the case of book value per unit data, and, in each case, assuming that 0.185 Vanguard common units have been issued in exchange for each outstanding Eagle Rock common unit and after giving effect to the settlement of outstanding restricted units awarded under the long-term incentive program of Eagle Rock in accordance with the Eagle Rock merger agreement.

General

You should read the information set forth below in conjunction with the selected historical financial information of Vanguard and LRE included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and the historical financial statements and related notes of Vanguard and LRE that are incorporated by reference into or contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Selected Historical Consolidated Financial Data of Vanguard, Selected Historical Consolidated Financial Data of LRE and Where You Can Find More Information.

The accounting for an acquisition of a business is based on the authoritative guidance for business combinations. Purchase accounting requires, among other things, that the assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the date the merger is completed. The allocation of the purchase price is dependent upon certain valuations of LRE's assets and liabilities and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measurement. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments reflect the assets and liabilities of LRE at their preliminary estimated fair values. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final purchase accounting will occur, and these differences could have a material impact on the unaudited pro forma combined per unit information set forth in the following tables.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The unaudited pro forma per unit information of Vanguard does not purport to represent the actual results of operations that Vanguard would have achieved or distributions that would have been declared had the companies been combined during these periods or to project the future results of operations that Vanguard may achieve or the distributions it may pay after the merger (in thousands, except per unit data).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The following table presents per unit closing prices for Vanguard common units and LRE common units on April 20, 2015, the last trading day before the public announcement of the merger agreement, and on August 28, 2015, the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. This table also presents the equivalent market value per LRE common unit on such dates. The equivalent market value per LRE common unit has been determined by multiplying the closing prices of Vanguard common units on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.550 of a Vanguard common unit.

	Vanguard Common Units	LRE Common Units	Equivalent Market Value per LRE Common Unit
August 28, 2015	$ 9.62	$ 4.55	$ 5.29
April 20, 2015	$ 16.23	$ 7.93	$ 8.93

Although the exchange ratio is fixed, the market prices of Vanguard common units and LRE common units will fluctuate prior to the consummation of the merger and the market value of the merger consideration ultimately received by LRE unitholders will depend on the closing price of Vanguard common units on the day the merger is consummated. Thus, LRE unitholders will not know the exact market value of the merger consideration they will receive until the closing of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section titled Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risks before deciding whether to vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. In addition, you should read and carefully consider the risks associated with each of Vanguard and LRE and their respective businesses. These risks can be found in Vanguard's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus with respect to Vanguard, and included in LRE's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus with respect to LRE. For further information regarding the documents contained in or incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference, please see the section titled Where You Can Find More Information. Realization of any of the risks described below, any of the events described under Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements or any of the risks or events described in the documents contained in or incorporated by reference could have a material adverse effect on Vanguard's, LRE's or the combined organization's respective businesses, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations and could result in a decline in the trading prices of their respective common units.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Because the exchange ratio is fixed and because the market price of Vanguard common units will fluctuate prior to the consummation of the merger, LRE unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of the Vanguard common units they will receive as merger consideration relative to the value of LRE common units they exchange.

The market value of the consideration that LRE unitholders will receive in the merger will depend on the trading price of Vanguard's common units at the closing of the merger. The exchange ratio that determines the number of Vanguard common units that LRE unitholders will receive in the merger is fixed. This means that there is no mechanism contained in the merger agreement that would adjust the number of Vanguard common units that LRE unitholders will receive based on any decreases in the trading price of Vanguard common units. Unit price changes may result from a variety of factors (many of which are beyond Vanguard's or LRE's control), including:

- changes in Vanguard's business, operations and prospects;
- changes in market assessments of Vanguard's business, operations and prospects;
- interest rates, general market, industry and economic conditions and other factors generally affecting the price of Vanguard common units; and
- federal, state and local legislation, governmental regulation and legal developments in the businesses in which Vanguard operates.

If Vanguard's common unit price at the closing of the merger is less than Vanguard's common unit price on the date that the merger agreement was signed, then the market value of the consideration received by LRE unitholders will be less than contemplated at the time the merger agreement was signed.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The fairness opinions rendered to each of the board of directors of LRE GP and the LRE GP conflicts committee by their respective financial advisors were based on the financial analyses performed by their respective financial advisors, which considered factors such as market and other conditions then in effect, and financial forecasts and other information made available to the financial advisors, as of the date of their respective opinions. As a result, these opinions do not reflect changes in events or circumstances after the date of such opinions. Neither the board of directors of LRE GP nor the LRE GP conflicts committee has obtained, or expects to obtain, updated fairness opinions from the financial advisors reflecting changes in circumstances that may have occurred since the signing of the merger agreement.

The fairness opinions rendered to the board of directors of LRE GP by Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. Advisors, LLC and the fairness opinions rendered to the LRE GP conflicts committee by Simmons & Company International were provided in connection with, and at the time of, the evaluation of the merger and the merger agreement, and the determination of whether to consent to the Eagle Rock merger, respectively, by the board of directors of LRE GP and the LRE GP conflicts committee, respectively. These opinions were based on the financial analyses performed by their respective financial advisors, which considered market and other conditions then in effect, and financial forecasts and other information made available to their respective financial advisors, as of the date of the opinions, which may have changed, or may change, after the date of their respective opinions. Neither the board of directors of LRE GP nor the LRE GP conflicts committee has obtained updated opinions from its respective financial advisor as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus nor does it expect to obtain updated opinions prior to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the Eagle Rock merger agreement. Changes in the operations and prospects of Vanguard or LRE, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of Vanguard and LRE, and on which the fairness opinions were based, may have altered the value of Vanguard or LRE or the prices of Vanguard common units or LRE common units since the date of such opinions, or may alter such values and prices by the time the merger or the Eagle Rock merger is completed. The opinions do not speak as of any date other than the date of the opinions. For a description of the opinions that the board of directors of LRE GP and the LRE GP conflicts committee received, please refer to Proposal 1: The Merger Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors and Proposal 1: The Merger Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Conflicts Committee.

LRE is subject to provisions that limit its ability to pursue alternatives to the merger, could discourage a potential competing acquirer of LRE from making a favorable alternative transaction proposal and, in specified circumstances under the merger agreement, would require LRE to reimburse up to $1,215,000 of Vanguard's out-of-pocket expenses and pay a termination fee to Vanguard of $7,288,000.

Under the merger agreement, LRE is restricted from entering into alternative transactions. Unless and until the merger agreement is terminated, subject to specified exceptions (which are discussed in more detail in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation by LRE of Alternative Proposals), LRE is restricted from initiating, soliciting, knowingly encouraging or knowingly facilitating any inquiry, proposal or offer for a competing acquisition proposal with any person. Under the merger agreement, in the event of a potential change by the board of directors of LRE GP of its recommendation with respect to the proposed merger in light of a superior proposal, LRE must provide Vanguard with three business days notice to allow Vanguard to propose an adjustment to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement. These provisions could discourage a third party that may have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of LRE from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if such third party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per unit market value than the merger consideration, or might result in a potential competing acquirer of LRE proposing to pay a lower price than it would otherwise have proposed to pay because of the added expense of the termination fee that may become payable in specified circumstances.

If the merger agreement is terminated under specified circumstances, LRE will be required to pay all of the reasonably documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Vanguard and its affiliates in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, up to a maximum amount of $1,215,000. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated by Vanguard due to a partnership change in recommendation having occurred, by LRE in order to enter into a superior proposal or by either party after an alternative proposal was received by LRE and LRE enters into an definitive agreement with respect to such alternative proposal within 12 months after the date of the merger agreement, LRE will be required to pay Vanguard a termination fee of $7,288,000. Following payment of the termination fee, LRE will not be obligated to pay any additional expenses incurred by Vanguard or its affiliates. Please read The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and The Merger Agreement Expenses. If such a termination fee is payable, the payment of this fee could have material and adverse consequences to the financial condition and operations of LRE. For a discussion of the restrictions on LRE soliciting or entering into a takeover proposal or alternative transaction and the board of directors of LRE GP's ability to change its recommendation, see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation by LRE of Alternative Proposals and The Merger Agreement Change in LRE GP Board Recommendation.

Directors and executive officers of LRE GP have certain interests that are different from those of LRE unitholders generally.

Directors and executive officers of LRE GP have interests in the merger that may be different from, or be in addition to, your interests as a unitholder of LRE. You should consider these interests in voting on the merger. These different interests are described under Proposal 1: The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger.

Vanguard may have difficulty attracting, motivating and retaining executives and other employees in light of the merger.

The success of the combined organization after the merger will depend in part upon the ability of Vanguard to retain its key employees. Key employees may depart either before or after the merger because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain following the merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the combined organization will be able to retain key Vanguard employees to the same extent as in the past.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements included in this document are presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined entity's financial condition or results of operations following the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements contained in this document are presented for illustrative purposes only, are based on various adjustments, assumptions and preliminary estimates, and may not be an indication of the combined entity's financial condition or results of operations following the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger, for several reasons. The actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined entity following the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger, may not be consistent with, or evident from, these pro forma financial statements. In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined entity's financial condition or results of operations following the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger. Any potential decline in the combined entity's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in the price of Vanguard common units after completion of the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger. See Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Information.

Lawsuits have been filed challenging the merger and additional lawsuits may be filed in the future. Any injunctive relief, rescission, damages, or other adverse judgment could prevent the merger from occurring or could have a material adverse effect on LRE, Vanguard or Merger Sub.

Alleged LRE unitholders have filed lawsuits challenging the merger against LRE, LRE GP, the members of the board of directors of LRE GP, Vanguard, Merger Sub and the other parties to the merger agreement. Although each of these lawsuits has been dismissed or nonsuited, additional lawsuits challenging the merger may be filed in the future. For more information on these lawsuits, see The Merger Litigation Relating to the Merger.

One of the conditions to the completion of the merger is that no order, decree or injunction of any court or agency of competent jurisdiction shall be in effect, and no law shall have been enacted or adopted, that enjoins, prohibits or makes illegal consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. A preliminary injunction could delay or jeopardize the completion of the merger, and an adverse judgment granting permanent injunctive relief could indefinitely enjoin completion of the merger. An adverse judgment for rescission or for monetary damages could have a material adverse effect on LRE, Vanguard or Merger Sub.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard and LRE are subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the proposed merger is pending, and, with respect to Vanguard, while the Eagle Rock merger is pending, which could adversely affect each party's business and operations.

In connection with the pending merger, it is possible that some customers, suppliers and other persons with whom Vanguard or LRE have business relationships may delay or defer certain business decisions or, might decide to seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationship with Vanguard or LRE as a result of the merger, which could negatively affect Vanguard's and LRE's respective revenues, earnings and cash available for distribution, as well as the market price of Vanguard common units and LRE common units, regardless of whether the merger is completed.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each of Vanguard and LRE is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger, and under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard is subject to restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the Eagle Rock merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies. Such limitations could negatively affect each party's businesses and operations prior to the completion of the merger or the Eagle Rock merger. Furthermore, the process of planning to integrate three businesses and organizations for the post-merger and post-Eagle Rock merger period can divert management attention and resources and could ultimately have an adverse effect on each party. For a discussion of these restrictions, see The Merger Agreement - Conduct of Business Pending the Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Vanguard and LRE will incur substantial transaction-related costs in connection with the merger.

Vanguard and LRE expect to incur substantial expenses in connection with completing the merger and integrating the business, operations, networks, systems, technologies, policies and procedures of Vanguard and LRE. These expenses include, but are not limited to, fees paid to legal, financial and accounting advisors, filing fees and printing costs. There are a large number of systems that must be integrated, including billing, management information, purchasing, accounting and finance, sales, payroll and benefits, fixed assets, lease administration and regulatory compliance, and there are a number of factors beyond Vanguard's and LRE's control that could affect the total amount or the timing of integration expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. Due to these factors, the transaction and integration expenses associated with the merger could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that the combined organization expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings related to the integration of two businesses following the completion of the merger.

Failure to successfully combine the businesses of LRE and Vanguard in the expected time frame may adversely affect the future results of the combined organization, and, consequently, the value of the Vanguard common units that LRE unitholders receive as part of the merger consideration.

The success of the proposed merger will depend, in part, on the ability of Vanguard to realize the anticipated benefits and synergies from combining the businesses of Vanguard and LRE. To realize these anticipated benefits, the businesses must be successfully combined. If the combined organization is not able to achieve these objectives, or is not able to achieve these objectives on a timely basis, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all. In addition, the actual integration may result in additional and unforeseen expenses, which could reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger. These integration difficulties could result in declines in the market value of Vanguard's common units and, consequently, result in declines in the market value of the Vanguard common units that LRE unitholders receive as part of the merger consideration.

The merger is subject to conditions, including certain conditions that may not be satisfied on a timely basis, if at all. Failure to complete the merger, or significant delays in completing the merger, could negatively affect the trading prices of Vanguard common units and LRE common units and the future business and financial results of Vanguard and LRE.

The completion of the merger is subject to a number of conditions. The completion of the merger is not assured and is subject to risks, including the risk that approval of the merger by the LRE unitholders is not obtained or that other closing conditions are not satisfied. If the merger is not completed, or if there are significant delays in completing the merger, the trading prices of Vanguard common units and LRE common units and the respective future business and financial results of Vanguard and LRE could be negatively affected, and each of them will be subject to several risks, including the following:

the parties may be liable for damages to one another under the terms and conditions of the merger agreement; negative reactions from the financial markets, including declines in the price of Vanguard common units or LRE common units due to the fact that current prices may reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed; having to pay certain significant costs relating to the merger, including, in the case of LRE in certain circumstances, the termination fee of $7,288,000, and in the case of both LRE and Vanguard, the obligation to reimburse the other party of up to $1,215,000 if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances, as described in The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and The Merger Agreement Expenses ; and the attention of management of Vanguard and LRE will have been diverted to the merger rather than each organization's own operations and pursuit of other opportunities that could have been beneficial to that organization.

If the merger is approved by LRE unitholders, the date that those unitholders will receive the merger consideration is uncertain.

As described in this proxy statement/prospectus, completing the proposed merger is subject to several conditions, not all of which are controllable or waiveable by Vanguard or LRE. Accordingly, if the proposed merger is approved by LRE unitholders, the date that those unitholders will receive the merger consideration depends on the completion date of the merger, which is uncertain.

LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's financial estimates are based on various assumptions that may not prove to be correct.

The financial estimates set forth in the forecast included under Proposal 1: The Merger Unaudited Prospective Financial and Operating Information of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock are based on assumptions of, and information available to, LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock, respectively, at the time they were prepared and provided to the board of directors of LRE GP and LRE's financial advisors. LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock do not know whether such assumptions will prove correct. Any or all of such estimates may turn out to be wrong. Such estimates can be adversely affected by inaccurate assumptions or by known or unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's control. Many factors mentioned in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the risks outlined in this Risk Factors section and the events or circumstances described under Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, will be important in determining LRE's, Vanguard's and/or Eagle Rock's future results. As a result of these contingencies, actual future results may vary materially from LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's estimates. In view of these uncertainties, the inclusion of LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's financial estimates in this proxy statement/prospectus is not and should not be viewed as a representation that the forecasted results will be achieved.

LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's financial estimates were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, and LRE's and Vanguard's financial estimates were not prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of any regulatory or professional body. Further, any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock undertake no obligation, other than as required by applicable law, to update their financial estimates herein to reflect events or circumstances after the date those financial estimates were prepared or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances.

The merger is subject to conditions, including certain conditions that may not be satisfied on a timely basis of all.

The financial estimates included in this proxy statement/prospectus have been prepared by, and are the responsibility of, LRE, Vanguard and/or Eagle Rock s. Moreover, the prospective financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's management. None of Vanguard's independent registered public accounting firm, LRE's independent registered public accounting firm, Eagle Rock's independent registered public accounting firm or any other independent accountants, has compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the unaudited prospective financial and operating information contained herein, accordingly they have not expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information. The report of the independent registered public accounting firm of LRE in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, relates to LRE's historical financial information, and the report of the independent registered public accounting firm of Vanguard in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, relates to Vanguard's historical financial information and the report of the independent registered public accounting firm of Eagle Rock in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, relates to Eagle Rock's historical financial information. These reports do not extend to the unaudited prospective financial and operating information and should not be read to do so. See Proposal 1: The Merger Unaudited Prospective Financial and Operating Information of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock for more information.

The number of outstanding Vanguard common units will increase as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger agreement, which could make it more difficult to pay distributions.

As of August 27, 2015, there were approximately 86.60 million Vanguard common units outstanding. Vanguard will issue approximately 15.44 million common units to former LRE unitholders (which does not include the 12,320 Vanguard common units to be issued to the former members of LRE GP) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and, if the Eagle Rock merger is completed, will issue approximately 28.75 million common units to former Eagle Rock unitholders. Accordingly, the aggregate dollar amount required to pay the current per unit distribution on all Vanguard common units will increase, which could increase the likelihood that Vanguard will not have sufficient funds to pay the current level of monthly distributions to all Vanguard unitholders.

If the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement are consummated, based on this distribution amount on approximately 130.80 million Vanguard common units (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to members of LRE GP), the combined pro forma Vanguard monthly distribution with respect to the month ended June 30, 2015, had the merger and the Eagle Rock merger been completed prior to the record date for such distribution, would have totalled approximately $15.37 million, which is an additional $5.19 million compared to the historical distribution amount for the month ended June 30, 2015. If, however, the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement are not consummated, based on this distribution amount on approximately 102.05 million Vanguard common units (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to members of LRE GP), the combined pro forma Vanguard monthly distribution with respect to the month ended June 30, 2015, had the merger been completed prior to the record date for such distribution, would have totalled approximately $11.99 million, which is an additional $1.82 million compared to the historical distribution amount for the month ended June 30, 2015.

LRE unitholders will have a reduced percentage ownership of the combined entity after the merger, and, if completed, the Eagle Rock merger, and will exercise less influence over management.

The number of outstanding Vanguard common units will increase as a result of the transactions contemplated by the

When the merger occurs, each LRE unitholder that receives Vanguard common units will become a unitholder of Vanguard with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than such unitholder's percentage ownership of LRE. If the Eagle Rock merger is completed, such ownership percentage of the combined organization will decline further.

Vanguard common units to be received by LRE unitholders as a result of the merger have different rights from LRE common units.

Following completion of the merger, LRE unitholders will no longer hold LRE common units, but will instead be unitholders of Vanguard. There are important differences between the rights of LRE unitholders and the rights of Vanguard unitholders. See Comparison of Rights of Vanguard Common Unitholders and LRE Unitholders for a discussion of the different rights associated with LRE common units and Vanguard common units.

No ruling has been obtained with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

No ruling has been or will be requested from the IRS with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Instead, Vanguard and LRE are relying on the opinions of their respective counsel as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, and counsel's conclusions may not be sustained if challenged by the IRS.

Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The expected U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are dependent upon Vanguard and LRE being treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The treatment of the merger as nontaxable to holders of LRE common units is dependent upon Vanguard and LRE each being treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If Vanguard or LRE were treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the consequences of the merger would be materially different and the merger would likely be a fully taxable transaction to a holder of LRE common units.

LRE unitholders could recognize taxable income or gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes, in certain circumstances, as a result of the merger.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, LRE will be deemed to contribute all of its assets to Vanguard in exchange for Vanguard common units, the assumption of LRE's liabilities and cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units, followed by a liquidation of LRE in which Vanguard common units and cash are distributed to LRE unitholders. The actual receipt of cash and the deemed receipt of cash by LRE in the merger could trigger gain to LRE either because it would be treated as part of a sale or because it exceeds LRE's adjusted tax basis in its assets at the closing of the merger, and any such gain would be allocated to the LRE unitholders pursuant to the LRE partnership agreement. The actual receipt of cash and the deemed receipt of cash by LRE will qualify for one or more exceptions to sale treatment and LRE does not currently expect that it will recognize gain as a result of the deemed receipt of cash in the merger exceeding its adjusted tax basis in its assets. Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE. In addition, as a result of the merger, holders of LRE common units who receive Vanguard common units will become limited partners of Vanguard for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will be allocated a share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities. Each such LRE unitholder will be treated as receiving a deemed cash distribution equal to the excess, if any, of such LRE unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities of LRE immediately before the merger over such LRE unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities of Vanguard immediately following the merger. If the amount of cash actually received in the merger plus any deemed cash distribution received by such LRE unitholder exceeds the LRE unitholder's basis in his LRE units, such LRE unitholder will recognize gain in an amount equal to such excess. While there can be no assurance, Vanguard and LRE expect that most holders of LRE common units will not recognize gain in this manner. The amount and effect of any gain that may be recognized by holders of LRE common units will depend on such unitholder's particular situation, including the ability of such unitholder to utilize any suspended passive losses. For additional information, please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE Common Unitholders.

A holder of LRE common units may have a holding period for Vanguard common units received in the merger that is shorter than such holder's holding period in the surrendered LRE common units.

As a result of the merger, LRE will be deemed to contribute its assets to Vanguard in exchange for Vanguard common units, the assumption of LRE's liabilities, and cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units followed by a liquidation of LRE in which Vanguard common units and cash are distributed to holders of LRE common units. Such unitholders' holding period in the Vanguard common units received in the merger will not be determined by reference to their holding period in the surrendered LRE common units. Instead, such unitholders' holding period in the Vanguard common units received in the merger that are attributable to LRE's capital assets or assets used in its business as defined in Section 1231 of the Code will include LRE's holding period in those assets. The holding period for Vanguard common units received by a holder of LRE common units attributable to other assets of LRE, such as inventory and receivables, will begin on the day following the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard may not be able to complete the pending Eagle Rock merger, which could adversely affect its business.

Completion of the Eagle Rock merger is subject to, among other things, the approval of Eagle Rock unitholders of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the Vanguard unitholders' approval of the issuance of Vanguard common units to Eagle Rock's unitholders pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement and other customary closing conditions. It is possible that Eagle Rock unitholder approval or Vanguard unitholder approval may not be received in a timely manner or at all, or that one or more other closing conditions may not be satisfied or, if not satisfied, that such conditions may not be waived in accordance with the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement. The Eagle Rock merger is a transaction separate and apart from the merger and the completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger, and the completion of the merger is not a condition to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger. Therefore, it is possible that the merger will be consummated but the Eagle Rock merger will not be consummated. If Vanguard is unable to complete the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard will not fully realize the anticipated benefits of the Eagle Rock merger.

Risk Factors Relating to the Ownership of Vanguard Common Units

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement limits Vanguard's duties to its unitholders and restricts the remedies available to unitholders for actions taken by Vanguard that might otherwise constitute breaches of duty.

The Vanguard limited liability agreement contains provisions that reduce the standards to which Vanguard might otherwise be held by state fiduciary duty law. For example, the Vanguard limited liability company agreement:

provides that the board of directors of Vanguard will not have breached any duty to Vanguard or Vanguard unitholders for decisions made so long as such person acted in good faith, meaning it believed the determination or other action was in the best interests of Vanguard; provides generally that affiliated transactions and resolutions of conflicts of interest not approved by Vanguard's conflicts committee or by a vote of Vanguard unitholders must be on terms no less favorable to Vanguard than those generally being provided to or available from unrelated third parties or be fair and reasonable to Vanguard and that, in determining whether a transaction or resolution is fair and reasonable, the totality of the relationships between the parties involved may be considered, including other transactions that may be particularly advantageous or beneficial to Vanguard; and provides that the officers and directors of Vanguard will not be liable for monetary damages to Vanguard or its unitholders for any acts or omissions unless there has been a final and non-appealable judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction determining that such persons acted in bad faith or engaged in fraud, willful misconduct or, in the case of a criminal matter, acted with knowledge that the conduct was criminal.

Any Vanguard unitholder is bound by the provisions in the Vanguard liability company agreement, including those discussed above.

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement restricts the voting rights of those unitholders owning 20% or more of Vanguard's common units.

Vanguard unitholders' voting rights are restricted by the Vanguard limited liability company agreement provision providing that any units held by a person that owns 20% or more of any class of units then outstanding, other than its founding unitholder and his affiliates or transferees and persons who acquire such units with the prior approval of the board of directors of Vanguard, cannot vote on any matter. The Vanguard limited liability company agreement also contains provisions limiting the ability of Vanguard unitholders to call meetings or to acquire information about its operations, as well as other provisions limiting Vanguard unitholders' ability to influence the manner or direction of Vanguard's management.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard may issue an unlimited number of additional units without common unitholder approval, which would dilute the ownership interest of existing unitholders.

Vanguard may, without the approval of Vanguard common unitholders, issue an unlimited number of additional limited liability company interests at any time, including common units, without the approval of Vanguard common unitholders. The issuance by Vanguard of additional units or other equity securities may have the following effects:

Vanguard unitholders' proportionate ownership interest in Vanguard will may decrease; the amount of cash available for distribution on each unit may decrease; the relative voting strength of each previously outstanding unit may be diminished; and the market price of Vanguard common units may decline.

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement provides for a limited call right that may require unitholders to sell their units at an undesirable time or price.

If, at any time, any person owns more than 90% of any class of the Vanguard units then outstanding, such person has the right, but not the obligation, which it may assign to any of its affiliates or to Vanguard, to acquire all, but not less than all, of the remaining Vanguard units of such class then outstanding at a price not less than the then-current market price of the units. As a result, unitholders may be required to sell their Vanguard common units at an undesirable time or price and therefore may receive a lower or no return on their investment. Vanguard unitholders may also incur a tax liability upon a sale of their units.

Vanguard does not have the same flexibility as other types of organizations to accumulate cash and equity to protect against illiquidity in the future.

Unlike a corporation, the Vanguard limited liability company agreement requires Vanguard to make quarterly distributions to its unitholders of all available cash, reduced by any amounts of reserves for commitments and contingencies, including capital and operating costs and debt service requirements. Vanguard pays distributions on a monthly basis. The value of Vanguard's units, including common units, may decrease in direct correlation with decreases in the amount Vanguard distribute per unit. Accordingly, if Vanguard experiences a liquidity problem in the future, it may have difficulty issuing more equity to recapitalize.

Vanguard's management may have conflicts of interest with its unitholders.
The Vanguard limited liability company agreement limits the remedies available to its unitholders in the event its unitholders have a claim relating to conflicts of interest.

Conflicts of interest may arise between Vanguard's management, on the one hand, and Vanguard and its unitholders, on the other hand, related to the divergent interests of Vanguard's management. Situations in which the interests of Vanguard's management may differ from interests of its non-affiliated unitholders include, among others, the following situations:

the Vanguard limited liability company agreement gives its board of directors broad discretion in establishing cash reserves for the proper conduct of its business, which will affect the amount of cash available for distribution. For example, Vanguard's management will use its reasonable discretion to establish and maintain cash reserves sufficient to fund its drilling program;

Vanguard's management team, subject to oversight from its board of directors, determines the timing and extent of its drilling program and related capital expenditures, asset purchases and sales, borrowings, issuances of additional units and reserve adjustments, all of which will affect the amount of cash that Vanguard distributes to its unitholders; and affiliates of Vanguard's directors are not prohibited under its limited liability company agreement from investing or engaging in other businesses or activities that compete with Vanguard.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The price of Vanguard's common and cumulative preferred units could be subject to wide fluctuations and unitholders could lose a significant part of their investment.

During the first six months of 2015, the quoted market prices of Vanguard's common and cumulative preferred units fluctuated as follows:

	Closing Low	Closing High
Common unit (VNR)	$ 12.50	$ 18.72
Series A Preferred unit (VNRAP)	$ 21.85	$ 25.10
Series B Preferred unit (VNRBP)	$ 19.43	$ 23.68
Series C Preferred unit (VNRCP)	$ 19.75	$ 24.20

The market prices of Vanguard's common and cumulative preferred units are subject to fluctuations in response to a number of factors, most of which Vanguard cannot control, including:

- fluctuations in broader securities market prices and volumes, particularly among securities of oil and natural gas companies and securities of publicly traded limited partnerships and limited liability companies;
- changes in general conditions in the U.S. economy, financial markets or the oil and natural gas industry, including fluctuations in commodity prices;
- changes in securities analysts' recommendations and their estimates of Vanguard's financial performance;
- the public's reaction to Vanguard's press releases, announcements and Vanguard's filings with the SEC;
- changes in market valuations of similar companies;
- departures of key personnel;
- commencement of or involvement in litigation;
- variations in Vanguard's quarterly results of operations or those of other oil and natural gas companies;
- variations in the amount of Vanguard's monthly cash distributions; and
- future issuances and sales of Vanguard's units.

In recent years, the securities market has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations. This volatility has had a significant effect on the market price of securities issued by many companies for reasons unrelated to the operating performance of these companies. Future market fluctuations may result in a lower price of Vanguard's common units.

Vanguard Unitholders may have liability to repay distributions.

Under certain circumstances, Vanguard unitholders may have to repay amounts wrongfully returned or distributed to them. Under Section 18-607 of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, Vanguard may not make a distribution to unitholders if the distribution would cause Vanguard's liabilities to exceed the fair value of its assets. Delaware law provides that for a period of three years from the date of an impermissible distribution, members or unitholders who received the distribution and who knew at the time of the distribution that it violated Delaware law will be liable to the limited liability company for the distribution amount. A purchaser of Vanguard common units who becomes a member or unitholder is liable for the obligations of the transferring member to make contributions to the limited liability company that are known to such purchaser of units at the time it became a member and for unknown obligations if the liabilities could be determined from the Vanguard limited liability company agreement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

An increase in interest rates may cause the market price of Vanguard's common units to decline.

Like all equity investments, an investment in Vanguard's common units is subject to certain risks. In exchange for accepting these risks, investors may expect to receive a higher rate of return than would otherwise be obtainable from lower-risk investments. Accordingly, as interest rates rise, the ability of investors to obtain higher risk-adjusted rates of return by purchasing government-backed debt securities may cause a corresponding decline in demand for riskier investments generally, including yield-based equity investments such as publicly traded limited liability company interests. Reduced demand for Vanguard's units resulting from investors seeking other more favorable investment opportunities may cause the trading price of Vanguard's common units to decline.

Vanguard's tax treatment depends on its status as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, as well as it not being subject to a material amount of entity-level taxation by individual states or local entities. If the IRS were to treat Vanguard as a corporation or if Vanguard were to become subject to a material amount of entity-level taxation for state or local tax purposes, it would substantially reduce the amount of cash available for payment for distributions on Vanguard's common units.

The anticipated after-tax economic benefit of an investment in Vanguard's common units depends largely on Vanguard being treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A publicly traded partnership such as Vanguard may be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes unless it satisfies a qualifying income requirement. Based on its current operations Vanguard believes that it satisfies the qualifying income requirement, will satisfy the qualifying income requirement following the merger and will therefore be treated as a partnership. Failing to meet the qualifying income requirement or a change in current law could cause Vanguard to be treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes or otherwise subject Vanguard to taxation as an entity. Vanguard has not requested, and does not plan to request, a ruling from the IRS with respect to its treatment as a partnership for federal income tax purposes.

If Vanguard were treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes, it would pay federal income tax on its taxable income at the corporate tax rate, which is currently a maximum of 35% and would likely pay state income tax at varying rates. Distributions to Vanguard's common unitholders would generally be taxed again as corporate distributions and no income, gains, losses, or deductions would flow through to unitholders. Because a tax would be imposed on Vanguard as a corporation, its cash available for distribution to its unitholders would be substantially reduced. Therefore, treatment of Vanguard as a corporation would result in a material reduction in the anticipated cash flow and after-tax return to its unitholders likely causing a substantial reduction in the value of its units.

At the state level, because of widespread state budget deficits and other reasons, several states are evaluating ways to subject partnerships to entity-level taxation through the imposition of state income, franchise and other forms of taxation. Imposition of any such tax on Vanguard by any such state will reduce the cash available for distribution to its unitholders.

The tax treatment of publicly traded partnerships or an investment in Vanguard's common units could be subject to potential legislative, judicial or administrative changes or differing interpretations, possibly applied on a retroactive basis.

The present U.S. federal income tax treatment of publicly traded partnerships, including Vanguard, or an investment in Vanguard's common units may be modified by administrative, legislative or judicial changes or differing interpretations at any time. For example, the Obama Administration's budget proposal for fiscal year 2016 recommends that publicly traded partnerships earning income from activities related to fossil fuels be taxed as corporations beginning in 2021. From time to time, members of Congress propose and consider substantive changes to the existing U.S. federal income tax laws that affect publicly traded partnerships. One such legislative proposal would eliminate the qualifying income exception to the treatment of all publicly traded partnerships as corporations upon which Vanguard relies for its treatment as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Vanguard is unable to predict whether any of these changes or other proposals will be reintroduced or will ultimately be enacted. Any such changes could negatively impact the value of an investment in Vanguard's common units. Any modification to the U.S. federal income tax laws may be applied retroactively and could make it more difficult or impossible to meet the exception for certain publicly traded partnerships to be treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If the IRS contests the federal income tax positions Vanguard takes, the market for Vanguard's common units may be adversely impacted, and the cost of any IRS contest will reduce Vanguard's cash available for distribution.

Vanguard has not requested a ruling from the IRS with respect to its treatment as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. The IRS may adopt positions that differ from the positions it takes. It may be necessary to resort to administrative or court proceedings to sustain some or all of the positions Vanguard takes. A court may not agree with some or all of the positions it takes. Any contest with the IRS may materially and adversely impact the market for Vanguard's common units and the price at which they trade. In addition, the costs of any contest with the IRS will be borne indirectly by Vanguard's unitholders because the costs will reduce its cash available for distribution.

Vanguard unitholders may be required to pay taxes on their share of income even if they do not receive any cash distributions from Vanguard.

Because Vanguard's unitholders will be treated as partners to whom Vanguard will allocate taxable income that could be different in amount than the cash Vanguard distributes, they will be required to pay any federal income taxes and, in some cases, state and local income taxes on their share of Vanguard's taxable income even if they receive no cash distributions from Vanguard. Vanguard's unitholders may not receive cash distributions from Vanguard equal to their share of Vanguard's taxable income or even equal to the tax liability that results from that income.

Tax gain or loss on the disposition of Vanguard common units could be more or less than expected.

If a unitholder sells his Vanguard common units, he will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized and his tax basis in those common units. Prior distributions to a Vanguard unitholder in excess of the total net taxable income he was allocated for a Vanguard common unit, which decreased his tax basis in that common unit, will, in effect, become taxable income to him to the extent the common unit is sold at a price greater than his tax basis in that common unit, even if the price is less than his original cost. A substantial portion of the amount realized, whether or not representing gain, may be ordinary income. In addition, because the amount realized includes a unitholder's share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities, if a unitholder sells his Vanguard common units, he may incur a tax liability in excess of the amount of cash he receives from the sale.

Tax-exempt entities and non-U.S. persons face unique tax issues from owning Vanguard common units that may result in adverse tax consequences to them.

Investment in Vanguard common units by tax-exempt entities, such as individual retirement accounts (IRAs), other retirement plans and non-U.S. persons raises issues unique to them. For example, virtually all of Vanguard's income allocated to organizations that are exempt from federal income tax, including IRAs and other retirement plans, will be unrelated business taxable income and will be taxable to them. Distributions to non-U.S. persons will be reduced by withholding taxes at the highest applicable effective tax rate, and non-U.S. persons will be required to file United States federal tax returns and pay tax on their share of Vanguard's taxable income. If a Vanguard unitholder is a tax-exempt entity or a non-U.S. person, he should consult his tax advisor before investing in Vanguard common units.

If the IRS contests the federal income tax positions Vanguard takes, the market for Vanguard's common units may Vanguard will treat each purchaser of Vanguard common units as having the same tax benefits without regard to the actual common units purchased. The IRS may challenge this treatment, which could adversely affect the value of the common units.

Due to a number of factors, including its inability to match transferors and transferees of its common units, Vanguard will adopt depreciation and amortization positions that may not conform to all aspects of existing Treasury Regulations. A successful IRS challenge to those positions could adversely affect the amount of tax benefits available to its unitholders. It also could affect the timing of these tax benefits or the amount of gain from the sale of Vanguard's common units and could have a negative impact on the value of Vanguard's common units or result in audit adjustments to a unitholders' tax returns.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard prorates its items of income, gain, loss and deduction between transferors and transferees of its units each month based upon the ownership of its units on the first day of each month, instead of on the basis of the date a particular unit is transferred. The IRS may challenge this treatment, which could change the allocation of items of income, gain, loss and deduction among Vanguard's unitholders.

Vanguard prorates its items of income, gain, loss and deduction between transferors and transferees of its units each month based upon the ownership of its units on the first day of each month, instead of on the basis of the date a particular unit is transferred. The use of this proration method may not be permitted under existing Treasury Regulations. Recently, the U.S. Treasury Department issued proposed Treasury Regulations that provide a safe harbor pursuant to which a publicly traded partnership may use a similar monthly simplifying convention to allocate tax items among transferor and transferee unitholders. The proposed regulations do not, however, specifically authorize the use of the proration method Vanguard has adopted. If the IRS were to challenge its proration method or new Treasury Regulations were issued, Vanguard may be required to change the allocation of items of income, gain, loss and deduction among unitholders.

A Vanguard unitholder whose units are the subject of a securities loan (e.g., a loan to a short seller to cover a short sale of units) may be considered to have disposed of those units. If so, he would no longer be treated for tax purposes as a partner with respect to those units during the period of the loan and may recognize gain or loss from the disposition.

Because there are no specific rules governing the federal income tax consequences of loaning a partnership interest, a unitholder whose units are the subject of a securities loan may be considered to have disposed of the loaned units. In that case, he may no longer be treated for tax purposes as a partner with respect to those units during the period of the loan and the unitholder may recognize gain or loss from such disposition. Moreover, during the period of the loan, any of Vanguard's income, gain, loss or deduction with respect to those units may not be reportable by the unitholder and any cash distributions received by the unitholder as to those units could be fully taxable as ordinary income.

Unitholders desiring to assure their status as partners and avoid the risk of gain recognition from a loan of their units are urged to modify any applicable brokerage account agreements to prohibit their brokers from borrowing their units.

The sale or exchange of 50% or more of Vanguard's capital and profits interests during any twelve-month period will result in the termination of Vanguard for federal income tax purposes.

Vanguard will be considered to have constructively terminated its partnership for federal income tax purposes if there is a sale or exchange of 50% or more of the total interests in its capital and profits within a twelve-month period. For purposes of determining whether the 50% threshold has been met, multiple sales of the same interest are counted only once. Vanguard's termination would, among other things, result in the closing of its taxable year for all unitholders, which would result in Vanguard filing two tax returns (and its unitholders receiving two Schedule K-1s) for one calendar year and could result in a deferral of depreciation deductions allowable in computing its taxable income. In the case of a unitholder reporting on a taxable year other than a calendar year, the closing of Vanguard's taxable year may also result in more than twelve months of its taxable income or loss being includable in such unitholder's taxable income for the year of termination. Vanguard's termination currently would not affect its classification as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, but instead, it would be treated as a new partnership for federal income tax purposes. If treated as a new partnership, Vanguard must make new tax elections and could be subject to penalties if it is unable to determine in a timely manner that a termination occurred. The IRS has announced a relief procedure whereby if a publicly traded partnership that has technically terminated requests and the IRS grants special relief, the partnership may be permitted to provide only a single Schedule K-1 to its unitholders for the tax year in which the termination occurs.

Vanguard prorates its items of income, gain, loss and deduction between transferors and transferees of its units each

Vanguard unitholders may be subject to state and local taxes and return filing requirements in jurisdictions where they do not live as a result of investing in Vanguard common units.

In addition to federal income taxes, Vanguard unitholders may be subject to return filing requirements and other taxes, including state and local taxes, unincorporated business taxes and estate, inheritance or intangible taxes that are imposed by the various jurisdictions in which Vanguard conducts business or owns property now or in the future, even if you do not live in any of those jurisdictions. Further, Vanguard unitholders may be subject to penalties for failure to comply with those return filing requirements. Vanguard currently conducts business and owns assets in many states. Several of these states currently impose a personal income tax on individuals, and all of these states impose an income tax on corporations and other entities. As Vanguard makes acquisitions or expands its business, it may conduct business or own assets in additional states that impose a personal income tax. It is the responsibility of each unitholder to file all U.S. federal, state and local tax returns.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference include forward-looking statements as defined by the SEC. All statements other than historical facts, including, without limitation, statements regarding the expected benefits of the proposed transaction to Vanguard and LRE and their respective unitholders, the anticipated completion of the proposed transaction or the timing thereof, the expected future reserves, production, financial position, business strategy, revenues, earnings, costs, capital expenditures and debt levels of the combined company, and plans and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. When used in this proxy statement/prospectus, words such as we may, can, expect, intend, plan, estimate, anticipate, project, foresee, believe, will or should, would, could, or the negative thereof or variations thereon or terminology are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. It is uncertain whether the events anticipated will transpire, or if they do occur what impact they will have on the results of operations and financial condition of Vanguard, LRE, Eagle Rock or of the combined company. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, such statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to:

- the ability to obtain unitholder approval of the proposed transaction;
- the ability to complete the proposed transaction on anticipated terms and timetable;
- Vanguard's, LRE's and Eagle Rock's ability to integrate successfully after the transaction and achieve anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction;
- the possibility that various closing conditions for the transaction may not be satisfied or waived;
- risks relating to any unforeseen liabilities of Vanguard, LRE or Eagle Rock;
- declines in oil, NGLs or natural gas prices;
- the level of success in exploitation, development and production activities;
- adverse weather conditions that may negatively impact development or production activities;
- the timing of exploitation and development expenditures;
- inaccuracies of reserve estimates or assumptions underlying them;
- revisions to reserve estimates as a result of changes in commodity prices;
- impacts to financial statements as a result of impairment write-downs;
- risks related to level of indebtedness and periodic redeterminations of the borrowing base under Vanguard's, LRE's and Eagle Rock's credit agreements;
- the ability of Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock to comply with covenants contained in the agreements governing their indebtedness;
- ability to generate sufficient cash flows from operations to meet the internally funded portion of any capital expenditures budget;
- ability to obtain external capital to finance exploitation and development operations and acquisitions;
- federal, state and local initiatives and efforts relating to the regulation of hydraulic fracturing; failure of properties to yield oil or gas in commercially viable quantities;
- uninsured or underinsured losses resulting from oil and gas operations;
- inability to access oil and gas markets due to market conditions or operational impediments;
- the impact and costs of compliance with laws and regulations governing oil and gas operations;
- ability to replace oil and natural gas reserves;
- any loss of senior management or technical personnel; competition in the oil and gas industry; risks arising out of hedging transactions; and other risks described under the caption Risk Factors in Vanguard's and LRE's respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, forward-looking statements are based on the expectations and beliefs of the respective managements of Vanguard and LRE, based on information currently available, concerning future events affecting Vanguard and LRE. Although Vanguard and LRE believe that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, they are subject to uncertainties and factors related to Vanguard's and LRE's operations and business environments, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Vanguard's and LRE's control. Any or all of the forward-looking statements in this proxy statement/prospectus may turn out to be wrong. They can be affected by inaccurate assumptions or by known or unknown risks and uncertainties. The foregoing list of factors should not be construed to be exhaustive. Many factors mentioned in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the risks outlined under the caption Risk Factors contained in Vanguard's or LRE's Exchange Act reports incorporated herein by reference will be important in determining future results, and actual future results may vary materially. There is no assurance that the actions, events or results of the forward-looking statements will occur, or, if any of them do, when they will occur or what effect they will have on Vanguard's or LRE's results of operations, financial condition, cash flows or distributions. In view of these uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates. Except as required by law, neither Vanguard nor LRE intends to update or revise its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

THE PARTIES

Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC

Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC is a limited liability company formed in Delaware in 2006 with common units listed and traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol VNR. Vanguard is an independent energy company focused on the acquisition, exploitation and development of mature, long-lived oil and natural gas properties in the United States.

Vanguard's properties and oil and natural gas reserves are located in nine operating basins:

the Green River Basin in Wyoming;
the Piceance Basin in Colorado;
the Permian Basin in West Texas and New Mexico;
the Gulf Coast Basin in Texas and Mississippi;
the Big Horn Basin in Wyoming and Montana;
the Arkoma Basin in Arkansas and Oklahoma;
the Williston Basin in North Dakota and Montana; the Wind River Basin in Wyoming; and the Powder River Basin in Wyoming.

As of December 31, 2014, Vanguard's total estimated proved reserves were 2,031.3 Bcfe, of which approximately 15% were oil reserves, 73% were natural gas reserves and 12% were NGLs reserves. Of these reserves, 68% were classified as proved developed.

As of December 31, 2014, Vanguard owned working interests in 9,759 gross (3,664 net) productive wells, which accounted for approximately 53% of Vanguard's total estimated proved reserves at December 31, 2014. Vanguard's average net daily production for the year ended December 31, 2014 was 327,109 Mcfe/day.

In addition, as of December 31, 2014, Vanguard owned approximately 870,140 gross undeveloped leasehold acres surrounding its existing wells. As of December 31, 2014, Vanguard had identified 1,254 proved undeveloped drilling locations and over 3,931 other drilling locations on its leasehold acreage.

The address of Vanguard's principal executive offices is 5847 San Felipe, Suite 3000, Houston, Texas 77057. Additional information about Vanguard and its subsidiaries is included in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information.

LRR Energy, L.P.

LRR Energy, L.P. is a Delaware limited partnership formed in April 2011 by Lime Rock Management LP, an affiliate of Lime Rock Resources A, L.P., Lime Rock Resources B, L.P. and Lime Rock Resources C, L.P., with common units listed and traded on the NYSE under the symbol LRE. LRE is an independent energy company focused on the operation, acquisition, exploitation and development of producing oil and natural gas properties in North America with long-lived, predictable production profiles. LRE's properties consist of mature, low-risk onshore oil and natural gas reservoirs with long-lived, predictable production profiles located across three diverse producing regions:

the Permian Basin region in West Texas and Southeast New Mexico; the Mid-Continent region in Oklahoma and East Texas; and the Gulf Coast region in Texas.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

As of December 31, 2014, LRE's total estimated proved reserves were 33.8 MMBoe, of which approximately 88% were proved developed reserves (approximately 73% proved developed producing and approximately 15% proved developed non-producing). As of December 31, 2014, LRE operated 87% of its proved reserves. LRE's proved reserves had a standardized measure of $441.7 million as of December 31, 2014. For the year ended December 31, 2014, LRE's average net production was 6,433 Boe/d.

The address of LRE's principal executive offices is Heritage Plaza, 1111 Bagby Street, Suite 4600, Houston, Texas 77002. Additional information about LRE and its subsidiaries is included in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information.

Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P.

Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P. is a Delaware limited partnership formed in May 2006, with common units listed and traded on the NASDAQ under the symbol EROC. Eagle Rock is engaged in (a) the exploitation, development, and production of oil and natural gas properties and (b) ancillary gathering, compressing, treating, processing and marketing services with respect to its production of natural gas, natural gas liquids, condensate and crude oil. Eagle Rock's interests include long-lived, high working interest properties with extensive production histories and development opportunities located in the following four regions of the United States:

the Mid-Continent, which includes areas in Oklahoma, Arkansas and the Texas Panhandle;
Alabama, which includes associated gathering and processing assets; Permian, which includes areas in West Texas; and East Texas, South Texas and Mississippi.

As of December 31, 2014, Eagle Rock's working interest properties included 561 gross operated productive wells and 1,217 gross non-operated wells with net production of approximately 73.5 MMcf/d and proved reserves of approximately 169.1 Bcf of natural gas, 11.0 MMBbls of crude oil, and 13.8 MMBbls of natural gas liquids, of which 78.5% were proved developed. The reserve life index of Eagle Rock's properties is approximately 11.8 years based on Eagle Rock's average daily production for the year ended 2014.

The address of Eagle Rock's principal executive offices is 1415 Louisiana Street, Suite 2700, Houston, Texas 77002. Additional information about Eagle Rock and its subsidiaries is included in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information.

The Eagle Rock merger is a transaction separate and apart from the merger. The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger, and the completion of the merger is not a condition to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger.

THE LRE SPECIAL MEETING

LRE is providing this proxy statement/prospectus to its unitholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the special meeting of unitholders that LRE has called for, among other things, the purpose of holding a vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes a prospectus for Vanguard in connection with the issuance by Vanguard of its common units in connection with the merger and the purchase of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP. This proxy statement/prospectus is first being mailed to LRE's unitholders on or about September 4, 2015, and provides LRE unitholders with the information they need to know to be able to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at the LRE special meeting.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held at Two Allen Center, 1200 Smith Street, the Forum Assembly Room on the 12th Floor, Houston, TX 77002 on October 5, 2015 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Purpose

At the LRE special meeting, LRE unitholders will be asked to vote solely on the following proposals:

Proposal 1: to approve the merger agreement, as such agreement may be amended from time to time, and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

LRE GP's Board Recommendation

The board of directors of LRE GP recommends that unitholders of LRE vote:

Proposal 1: FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: FOR the approval, on an advisory, non-binding basis, of the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

Proposal 3: FOR the approval of any adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Among other things, the LRE GP conflicts committee has determined that the merger agreement is advisable to and in the best interests of, LRE and its unitholders who are not affiliates of LRE GP and has approved the merger agreement and recommended that the board of directors of LRE GP approve the merger agreement.

Based upon, among other things, the recommendation of the LRE GP conflicts committee, the board of directors of LRE GP unanimously (i) determined that the merger agreement and the merger are in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders, (ii) approved the merger and the merger agreement and (iii) resolved to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby to the LRE unitholders. See Proposal 1: The Merger Recommendation of LRE GP's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger.

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, you should be aware that some of LRE GP's directors and executive officers may have interests that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of LRE unitholders more generally. See Proposal 1: The Merger - Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE Record Date; Outstanding Units; Units Entitled to be Voted

The record date for the LRE special meeting is August 28, 2015. Only LRE unitholders of record at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the LRE special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

As of the close of business on August 28, 2015, there were 28,074,433 LRE common units outstanding and entitled to be voted at the meeting. Each holder of LRE common units is entitled to one vote for each LRE common unit held by it.

If at any time any person or group (other than LRE GP or its affiliates) beneficially owns 20% or more of any class of LRE units then outstanding, then such person or group loses voting rights on all of its units and such units will not be considered outstanding. This loss of voting rights does not apply to (i) any person or group who acquired 20% or more of any class of LRE units directly from LRE GP or its affiliates (other than directly from LRE), (ii) any person or group who directly or indirectly acquired 20% or more of any class of LRE units from that person or group described in clause (i) provided that LRE GP notified such transferee in writing that such loss of voting rights did not apply, or (iii) any person or group who acquired 20% or more of any class of LRE units if LRE GP notified such person or group in writing that such loss of voting rights did not apply. As of August 27, 2015, no person or group (other than LRE GP and its affiliates) beneficially owns 20% or more of any class of LRE units.

A complete list of LRE unitholders entitled to vote at the LRE special meeting will be available for inspection at the principal place of business of LRE during regular business hours for a period of no less than ten days before the LRE special meeting and at the place of the LRE special meeting during the meeting.

Quorum

A quorum of unitholders is required to vote on the approval of the merger agreement at the LRE special meeting, but not to approve any adjournment of the meeting. The holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must be represented in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to constitute a quorum. Any abstentions made by a unitholder pursuant to a valid proxy or at the meeting and broker non-votes (if any) will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the LRE special meeting.

Required Vote

To approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, must affirmatively vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. To approve (on an advisory, non-binding basis) the proposal regarding merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger, the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, must vote in favor of such proposal.

Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, an LRE unitholder's failure to submit a proxy card or to vote in person at the LRE special meeting or an abstention from voting, or the failure of an LRE unitholder who holds his or her units in street name through a broker or other nominee to give voting instructions to such broker or other nominee, will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of the merger agreement, the transactions contemplated thereby and the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable as a result of the merger.

To approve the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting and if a quorum is present at, and if a limited partner vote is solicited on adjournment of, the meeting, holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, must vote in favor of the proposal. If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units present and entitled to be voted at such meeting represented either in person or by proxy, voting together as a single class, is required to adjourn. Because approval of this proposal is based on the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, an LRE unitholder's failure to vote, an abstention from voting or the failure of an LRE unitholder who holds his or her units in street name through a broker or other nominee to give voting instructions to such broker or other nominee will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST approval of this proposal.

Common Unit Ownership of and Voting by LRE GP's Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on the record date for the LRE special meeting, LRE GP's directors and executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned and had the right to vote 8,962,552 LRE common units at the LRE special meeting, which represents approximately 32% of the LRE common units entitled to be voted at the LRE special meeting. It is expected that LRE GP's directors and executive officers will vote their LRE common units FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, although none of them has entered into any agreement requiring them to do so.

Voting of Common Units by Holders of Record

If you are entitled to vote at the LRE special meeting and hold your LRE common units in your own name, you can submit a proxy or vote in person by completing a ballot at the LRE special meeting. However, LRE encourages you to submit a proxy before the LRE special meeting even if you plan to attend the LRE special meeting in order to ensure that your LRE common units are voted. A proxy is a legal designation of another person to vote your LRE common units on your behalf. If you hold common units in your own name, you may submit a proxy for your common units by:

calling the toll-free number specified on the enclosed proxy card and following the instructions when prompted; accessing the Internet website specified on the enclosed proxy card and following the instructions provided to you; or filling out, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the prepaid envelope included with these proxy materials.

When a unitholder submits a proxy by telephone or through the Internet, his or her proxy is recorded immediately. LRE encourages its unitholders to submit their proxies using these methods whenever possible. If you submit a proxy by telephone or the Internet website, please do not return your proxy card by mail.

All LRE common units represented by each properly executed and valid proxy received before the LRE special meeting will be voted in accordance with the instructions given on the proxy. If an LRE unitholder executes a proxy card without giving instructions, the LRE common units represented by that proxy card will be voted as the board of directors of LRE GP recommends, which is:

Proposal 1: FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

Proposal 2: FOR the approval, on an advisory, non-binding basis, of the merger-related compensation payments that may become payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

Proposal 3: FOR the approval of the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, please submit your proxy by telephone, through the Internet or by mail, regardless of whether you plan to attend the meeting in person. Proxies must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on October 4, 2015.

Voting of Common Units Held in Street Name

If your LRE common units are held in an account at a broker or through another nominee, you must instruct the broker or other nominee on how to vote your LRE common units by following the instructions that the broker or other nominee provides to you with these proxy materials. Most brokers offer the ability for unitholders to submit voting instructions by mail by completing a voting instruction card, by telephone and via the Internet.

If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker, your LRE common units will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote. This is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus and in general as a broker non-vote. Because the only proposals for consideration at the LRE special meeting are non-discretionary proposals, it is not expected that there will be any broker non-votes at the LRE special meeting. If there are any broker non-votes, they will be counted as LRE common units that are present and entitled to be voted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but the broker or other nominee will not be able to vote your LRE common units on those matters for which specific authorization is required. Under the current rules of the NYSE, brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote on any of the proposals. Therefore, a broker non-vote (if any) will have the same effect as a vote cast AGAINST (i) approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (ii) approval of the merger-related compensation proposal and (iii) approval of the adjournment proposal.

If you hold common units through a broker or other nominee and wish to vote your LRE common units in person at the LRE special meeting, you must obtain a proxy from your broker or other nominee and present it to the inspector of election with your ballot when you vote at the LRE special meeting.

Revocability of Proxies; Changing Your Vote

You may revoke your proxy and/or change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the LRE special meeting. If you are a unitholder of record, you can do this by:

sending a written notice, no later than the Telephone/Internet deadline, to LRE at Heritage Plaza, 1111 Bagby Street, Suite 4600, Houston, Texas 77002, Attn: Secretary, that bears a date later than the date of the proxy and is received prior to the LRE special meeting and states that you revoke your proxy; submitting a valid, later-dated proxy by mail, telephone or Internet that is received prior to the LRE special meeting; or attending the LRE special meeting and voting by ballot in person (your attendance at the LRE special meeting will not, by itself, revoke any proxy that you have previously given).

If you hold your LRE common units through a broker or other nominee, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker or other nominee in order to revoke your proxy or change your voting instructions.

Solicitation of Proxies

This proxy statement/prospectus is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of LRE GP to be voted at the LRE special meeting. Under the merger agreement, Vanguard and LRE agreed to each pay one-half of the expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus. LRE will bear all other costs and expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies. LRE has engaged Morrow & Co., LLC (Morrow) to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the meeting and LRE estimates it will pay Morrow a fee of approximately $7,500 for these services. LRE has also agreed to reimburse Morrow for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the proxy solicitation and to indemnify Morrow against certain losses, costs and expenses. In addition, LRE may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of LRE common units for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of LRE GP's directors, officers and employees by telephone, electronic mail, letter, facsimile or in person, but no additional compensation will be paid to them.

LRE unitholders should not send unit certificates with their proxies. A letter of transmittal and instructions for the surrender of LRE common unit certificates will be mailed to LRE unitholders shortly after the completion of the merger.

No Other Business

Under the LRE partnership agreement and the rules of conduct expected to be adopted for the LRE special meeting by LRE GP, the business to be conducted at the LRE special meeting will be limited to the purposes stated in the notice to LRE unitholders provided with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Adjournments

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. To approve an adjournment if a quorum is present, holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, must vote in favor of the proposal if the chairman of the meeting solicits a vote of the limited partners for adjournment of the meeting. If a quorum is not present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units entitled to be voted at such meeting represented either in person or by proxy, voting together as a single class, is required to adjourn. LRE is not required to notify unitholders of any adjournment of 45 days or less if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, unless after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting. At any adjourned meeting, LRE may transact any business that it might have transacted at the original meeting, provided that a quorum is present at such adjourned meeting. Proxies submitted by LRE unitholders for use at the LRE special meeting will be used at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting. References to the LRE special meeting in this proxy statement/prospectus are to such special meeting as adjourned or postponed.

LRE Unitholder Proposals

Ownership of LRE common units does not entitle LRE common unitholders to make proposals at the LRE special meeting. The LRE partnership agreement gives LRE GP the right to make rules regarding the conduct of such meetings and only permits the limited partners of LRE to have the right to vote on matters they are entitled to vote on under the LRE partnership agreement or with respect to matters that LRE GP determines to submit to a vote of the limited partners of LRE. As a result, LRE GP may adopt a rule for such meetings that only LRE GP may make proposals at such meetings, and it is expected that LRE GP will adopt such a rule of conduct for the LRE special meeting.

Assistance

If you need assistance in completing your proxy card or have questions regarding the LRE special meeting, please contact call Morrow, LRE's proxy solicitor, toll-free at (855) 264-1296 (banks and brokers can call collect at (203) 658-9400).

PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER

*This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes the material aspects of the proposed merger. This section may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference, including the full text of the merger agreement (which is attached as Annex A), for a more complete understanding of the merger. In addition, important business and financial information about each of Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock is contained in or incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information.*

Effect of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity, and, at the same time, the acquisition by Vanguard of LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. LRE will cease to be a publicly traded limited partnership following completion of the merger. After the completion of the merger, the certificate of limited partnership of LRE in effect immediately prior to the effective time will be the certificate of limited partnership of the surviving entity, until amended in accordance with its terms and applicable law.

Each LRE common unit issued and outstanding or deemed issued and outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 0.550 Vanguard common units. Any LRE common units that are owned by LRE or Vanguard or any of their respective subsidiaries at the effective time will be cancelled without any conversion or payment of consideration in respect thereof.

Vanguard's common units had a value of $16.23 per unit, based on the closing price of Vanguard common units as of April 20, 2015. Because the exchange ratio was fixed at the time the merger agreement was executed and because the market value of Vanguard common units and LRE common units will fluctuate prior to the consummation of the merger, LRE unitholders cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive relative to the value of LRE common units that they are exchanging. For example, decreases in the market value of Vanguard common units will negatively affect the value of the merger consideration that they receive, and increases in the market value of LRE common units may mean that the merger consideration that they receive will be less than anticipated on the date Vanguard and LRE entered into the merger agreement. See Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed and because the market price of Vanguard common units will fluctuate prior to the consummation of the merger, LRE unitholders cannot be sure of the market value of the Vanguard common units they receive as merger consideration relative to the value of LRE common units they exchange.

Vanguard will not issue any fractional units in the merger. Instead, each holder of LRE common units to whom fractional units would have otherwise been issued will be entitled to receive from the exchange agent appointed by Vanguard pursuant to the merger agreement, subject to applicable withholding, a cash payment in lieu of such fractional interest based on the average trading prices of the Vanguard common units over the ten-day period prior to the closing date of the merger.

Under the merger agreement, each LRE restricted unit that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder of such LRE restricted unit, vest in full and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse and such LRE restricted unit shall be deemed to be LRE common units for purposes of the merger.

See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" for further information.

The Vanguard Merger

LRE management and the board of directors of LRE GP regularly review operational and strategic opportunities to enhance unitholder value. From time to time, other master limited partnerships (MLPs) operating in the upstream oil and gas industry have approached LRE regarding strategic opportunities.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In early May 2013, Scott W. Smith, President and Chief Executive Officer of Vanguard, approached Eric Mullins, Chairman of the board of directors of LRE GP and Co-Chief Executive Officer of LRE, on an unsolicited basis regarding a potential strategic combination of LRE with Vanguard. At such time, LRE was not actively seeking to engage in a strategic combination. On May 10, 2013, Mr. Smith and Mr. Mullins met to discuss the potential benefits of a merger transaction between LRE and Vanguard. Mr. Mullins advised LRE management and Jonathan Farber and Townes Pressler, Jr., both members of the board of directors of LRE GP, that LRE should enter into a confidentiality agreement with Vanguard so that LRE could provide Vanguard with the necessary information and other data to obtain a written proposal from Vanguard.

On May 24, 2013, LRE and Vanguard executed a confidentiality agreement in anticipation of a possible merger proposal. Over the course of the next five weeks, LRE and Vanguard exchanged business information with one another regarding their respective operations.

On July 2, 2013, members of Vanguard management made a presentation to LRE management outlining a proposed acquisition pursuant to which Vanguard would acquire all of LRE's outstanding common units in exchange for Vanguard common units at a fixed exchange ratio of 0.58x. The offer implied a 5% premium to the closing price of LRE's common units on the New York Stock Exchange on July 1, 2013. After analyzing the proposal, LRE management concluded that the proposed exchange ratio and implied valuation did not adequately take into account LRE's future growth potential. Based on an analysis of the merits of the proposed transaction, the board of directors of LRE GP and LRE management decided that this proposed acquisition by Vanguard was not in the best interests of LRE's unitholders at that time.

LRE management and the board of directors of LRE GP continued to review strategic opportunities to enhance unitholder value during the remainder of 2013 and 2014. In November 2014, oil and natural gas prices began to decline significantly, which materially impaired LRE's ability to access the capital markets. As a result of the depressed commodity prices, challenging capital markets and future liquidity concerns, LRE management believed it was in the best interests of LRE to consider engaging a firm to assist LRE in identifying potential strategic alternatives. LRE management's objectives in engaging in the strategic alternatives process were to identify potential business combinations or acquisitions that would create unitholder value and increase LRE's scale of operations, expand LRE's liquidity position and access to capital markets, and put LRE in the best position to benefit if and when commodity prices increased. LRE management contacted Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. Advisors, LLC, or TPH, in late December 2014 to discuss the potential engagement of TPH.

On January 6, 2015, LRE management met with representatives of TPH to discuss LRE's engagement of TPH to help identify and facilitate potential strategic alternatives, including potential asset acquisitions, joint venture transactions and strategic merger transactions between LRE and other public or private companies. TPH had previously acted as financial advisor to the LRE GP conflicts committee on transactions during 2012 and 2013 and was familiar with both LRE and the upstream oil and gas industry. During the initial phase of this strategic alternatives process, or Phase 1, which began in early 2015, LRE management directed TPH to focus its efforts on identifying potential strategic transactions with upstream companies other than public MLPs. LRE management's initial focus on upstream companies other than public MLPs was based on the belief that a transaction with an upstream company other than a public MLP would likely require more time to consummate than a transaction with a public upstream MLP. LRE management planned to consider the results of Phase 1 efforts prior to seeking a strategic transaction with a public upstream MLP, or Phase 2. On January 12, 2015, LRE and TPH agreed on a preliminary list of companies to contact in Phase 1. LRE management and TPH formulated the list largely based on the profiles of the oil and gas assets of these companies, which they believed to be well-suited for an MLP structure and thus complementary to LRE's existing assets. Throughout the process, LRE management periodically updated the board of directors of LRE GP and individual board members on the status and material developments of the process.

TPH began contacting companies on behalf of LRE in the middle of January 2015 and continued contacting companies over the next two months. A private exploration and production company, which we refer to as Company A, was contacted during this period. At the direction of LRE management, TPH did not begin Phase 2 until March 2015, as described below. Throughout Phase 1 and Phase 2, TPH contacted a total of 52 companies, ten of which were upstream MLPs including Vanguard. Of the 52 companies contacted, 31 companies expressed initial interest in pursuing a transaction with LRE. Accordingly, LRE provided these 31 companies with a summary overview of LRE's business and operations, prepared using only LRE's publicly available information. Following delivery of the summary overview, 21 companies requested confidentiality agreements, and ultimately LRE executed confidentiality agreements with 13 companies. At the request of LRE management, TPH evaluated several of these potential bidders. All of the parties that signed confidentiality agreements were granted access to a virtual data room, or VDR, created by LRE and TPH to provide relevant non-public data necessary for their evaluation of LRE.

As a result of this strategic alternatives process, from late January 2015 through the middle of April 2015, LRE management engaged in extensive discussions with Company A. Company A had proved developed reserves that LRE management believed would complement LRE's existing asset base. LRE management and representatives from Company A, with the assistance of their respective financial advisors, conducted due diligence investigations of Company A's and LRE's assets and operations, respectively. LRE and Company A engaged in negotiations regarding a contemplated transaction pursuant to which LRE would acquire assets from Company A in exchange for LRE common units, an interest in LRE GP and LRE's assumption of Company A's outstanding debt. Both LRE and Company A made several non-binding proposals with respect to various forms of this proposed transaction.

Following the February 28, 2015 bid date for the companies contacted during Phase 1, on March 3, 2015, LRE management met with the board of directors of LRE GP during a regularly scheduled board meeting. LRE management provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an update on various strategic options and efforts, the status of negotiations regarding a potential transaction with Company A and the possibility of pursuing a merger of LRE with an upstream MLP. After considering the feedback from companies contacted during Phase 1, and having discussed the impact of current and projected commodity prices, expiring commodity hedges, liquidity and future debt repayment obligations on LRE's business and prospects, the board of directors of LRE GP decided to expand the strategic alternatives process to Phase 2 and include a potential merger with an upstream MLP. Additionally, in connection with this decision, the board of directors of LRE GP took into consideration, among other things, (i) an increasing risk that LRE's borrowing base under its revolving credit facility would be redetermined to a much lower level based on the current commodity price environment, which would then require a repayment (possibly with a term loan with much higher interest rates and fees) and/or a reduction or elimination of LRE's distributions to its unitholders, which could have materially adversely affected the trading price of the LRE common units, (ii) an increasing risk that LRE would need to further reduce or eliminate its quarterly cash distributions as a result of difficulties in the business caused by the prevailing commodity price environment and (iii) the potential for improved liquidity of the combined entity following a merger with an upstream MLP in comparison to LRE as a standalone entity.

On March 4, 2015, LRE management and TPH took part in a call in which LRE management instructed TPH to canvas interest among upstream MLPs for a potential merger transaction. TPH contacted ten upstream MLPs and discussed LRE's strategic alternatives process with them, informing them of an April 1, 2015 bid date. Five upstream MLPs that signed confidentiality agreements were given access to LRE's VDR for the purpose of evaluating a potential merger transaction with LRE. In response, LRE management received a written merger proposal only from Vanguard.

TPH began contacting upstream MLPs on March 5, 2015, and continued its initial contacts through the week of March 9, 2015. On March 5, 2015, representatives of TPH called Mr. Smith at Vanguard and informed him that TPH had been authorized to run a strategic alternatives process for LRE, including seeking a potential merger with another upstream MLP. On March 6, 2015, representatives of TPH called Mark S. Carnes, Director Acquisitions of Vanguard, to discuss the timing on data sharing and an expected bid date. Later that day, LRE and Vanguard signed a confidentiality agreement, and Vanguard was granted access to LRE's VDR.

During the month of March 2015, LRE and Vanguard representatives exchanged data necessary for their detailed evaluation of their respective businesses. TPH and LRE collaborated to answer questions and respond to information requests from Vanguard management. On March 26, 2015, LRE management held a conference call with representatives from Vanguard to discuss and clarify certain information in the VDR.

On April 1, 2015, TPH received a written non-binding indication of interest from Vanguard to acquire LRE in a tax-free, unit-for-unit equity exchange with a proposed 0.535x exchange ratio. The non-binding proposal stated, among other things, that Vanguard needed to complete its due diligence review and obtain approval from its board of directors prior to signing a definitive merger agreement. As of March 31, 2015, the implied equity value of Vanguard's proposal was $210 million, which constituted a 17% premium to the closing price of LRE's common units on the New York Stock Exchange as of March 31, 2015.

On April 2, 2015, members of Vanguard management and representatives of TPH participated in a call with Mr. Smith and Mr. Carnes. During the call, representatives of TPH sought to clarify certain items mentioned in Vanguard's non-binding proposal letter and to indicate that Vanguard was involved in a competitive process and would have to increase the value of the consideration in its proposal.

On April 6, 2015, LRE engaged Andrews Kurth LLP, or Andrews Kurth, as its special counsel for legal matters related to the strategic alternatives process.

On April 7, 2015, an initial draft of a purchase agreement and plan of merger prepared by Paul Hastings LLP, or Paul Hastings, special counsel to Vanguard, was delivered to TPH and Andrews Kurth.

On April 8, 2015, Paul Hastings delivered initial drafts of a voting and support agreement, or the voting agreement, and a registration rights agreement to TPH. On that same day, Mr. Mullins spoke telephonically with Mr. Smith at Vanguard. Mr. Mullins mentioned to Mr. Smith that he was aware that both organizations were working to complete their respective diligence reviews and that he was interested in resolving Vanguard's outstanding inquiries or questions regarding LRE and the proposed merger transaction. Mr. Mullins mentioned that it was important to resolve all such questions so that any future acquisition proposals from Vanguard would not be contingent upon completion of its due diligence review with respect to LRE. Also on April 8, 2015, LRE, through Andrews Kurth, engaged Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., or Richards Layton, as its special Delaware Counsel for legal matters.

On April 10, 2015, LRE management gave John Bailey, Chairman of the LRE GP conflicts committee, a verbal report regarding the TPH strategic alternatives process relating to a potential transaction with Vanguard or Company A and the status of negotiations with Vanguard, and asked Mr. Bailey to have the LRE GP conflicts committee review strategic alternatives and the proposed terms of the potential merger with Vanguard in light of all relevant circumstances. LRE management asked the LRE GP conflicts committee to review the potential merger to guard against potential conflicts of interests between LRE's general partner and its affiliates, on the one hand, and the Partnership and the other holders of its common units, on the other hand. During the evening of April 10, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee contacted Latham & Watkins LLP, or Latham, its special counsel, about the potential merger.

On April 11, 2015, an Andrews Kurth attorney delivered to a Paul Hastings attorney a revised draft of the proposed purchase agreement and plan of merger containing several changes to the terms and conditions of the proposed merger as compared to the initial draft prepared by Paul Hastings. Among other things, the revised draft prepared by Andrews Kurth expanded the ability of the board of directors of LRE GP to terminate the merger agreement in light of a superior proposal, modified the termination events that could give rise to obligations of LRE to pay Vanguard a termination fee or reimburse Vanguard for transaction expenses and balanced the representations and warranties to be made by each party.

On April 13, 2015, representatives from LRE, Vanguard, TPH and Citigroup, financial advisor to Vanguard, met in person at TPH's office in Houston. LRE and Vanguard presented a company and asset overview, and discussed outstanding due diligence items. Representatives of LRE and Vanguard agreed to provide each other with a financial forecast model for their diligence efforts. Immediately following the meeting, Mr. Mullins and Charles W. Adcock, Co-Chief Executive Officer of LRE and a member of the board of directors of LRE GP, met privately with Mr. Smith and Richard A. Robert, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of Vanguard. The individuals discussed the potential timing of completing their respective due diligence investigations and negotiations. Mr. Mullins asked Mr. Smith and Mr. Robert to update Vanguard's proposal letter by removing the due diligence contingency and increasing the exchange ratio.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

On April 14, 2015, LRE management provided Mr. Bailey with Vanguard's non-binding proposal letter dated April 1, 2015. Also on that day, LRE management and Vanguard management exchanged financial forecast models regarding their respective companies. That same day, an Andrews Kurth attorney delivered a revised draft of the voting agreement to Paul Hastings. The revised draft of the voting agreement prepared by Andrews Kurth included several proposed changes to the initial draft prepared by Paul Hastings, including the insertion of an employee non-solicitation covenant and the removal of a lock-up provision that would restrict transfers of Vanguard units by certain LRE affiliates. Later in the day on April 14, 2015, a Paul Hastings attorney delivered to Andrews Kurth revised drafts of the merger agreement and the voting agreement as well as an initial draft of a termination and continuing obligations agreement, or the termination agreement. The revised draft of the merger agreement prepared by Paul Hastings, included a proposed termination fee of 3% of LRE's equity value and a provision that would require LRE to reimburse Vanguard's out-of-pocket expenses, up to a cap equal to 1% of LRE's equity value, upon a termination of the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions. In the revised draft of the voting agreement prepared by Paul Hastings, Vanguard reasserted its desire to include a 120-day lock-up provision applicable to LRE affiliates. Andrews Kurth provided Latham with the latest drafts of the agreements related to the proposed merger with Vanguard. Also on that day, LRE management received summary reserve report information and an updated corporate model from Vanguard management.

On April 15, 2015, TPH reviewed for LRE management preliminary financial analyses for the proposed transactions with Vanguard and Company A. LRE management provided this information to the board of directors of LRE GP. Also on that day, LRE management provided Mr. Bailey with the current drafts of the agreements that would govern the potential merger between LRE and Vanguard.

On April 15, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee engaged Simmons & Company International, or Simmons, as its financial advisor.

On April 16, 2015, Andrews Kurth provided revised drafts of the merger agreement, the voting agreement, the registration rights agreement and the termination and continuing obligations agreement to Paul Hastings. In the revised draft of the merger agreement, LRE proposed, among other things, a termination fee equal to 2% of LRE's equity value and that LRE reimburse Vanguard's out-of-pocket expenses in certain termination events of up to a cap equal to 0.5% of LRE's equity value. On that same day, LRE management provided the LRE GP conflicts committee and its advisors with the current drafts of the agreements that would govern the potential merger between LRE and Vanguard.

On April 17, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP held a special meeting. Representatives from LRE management, TPH, Andrews Kurth and Richards Layton attended the meeting as invited guests. Mr. Mullins provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an update of the negotiation process with Vanguard and mentioned that he expected to receive a revised written proposal from Vanguard without a due diligence contingency soon. The board of directors of LRE GP also discussed and considered the latest proposal from Company A. Representatives of TPH reviewed for the board of directors of LRE GP preliminary financial analyses for the proposed transactions with Vanguard and Company A. Mr. Adcock noted that LRE management considered upstream MLPs as potential merger parties. Of the upstream MLPs, LRE management felt that Vanguard and one other upstream MLP were potentially the best fit for a merger with LRE and discussed various issues with the board of directors of LRE GP. Richards Layton provided the board of directors of LRE GP with a presentation summarizing fiduciary duties and responsibilities of the board of directors of LRE GP under Delaware law and discussed the contractual standards under LRE's limited partnership agreement. Andrews Kurth then discussed the terms of the merger agreement and related documents with the board of directors of LRE GP, highlighting the key terms, conditions and provisions of such agreements. The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously approved a resolution authorizing the LRE GP conflicts committee to review Vanguard's current proposal.

Later in the morning on April 17, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met telephonically with its financial and legal advisors. The LRE GP conflicts committee discussed the qualifications and independence of Simmons and the process undertaken by LRE, with the assistance of TPH, to evaluate possible business combination transactions. The LRE GP conflicts committee also discussed the impact of falling commodity prices, expiring commodity hedges and future debt repayment obligations on LRE's business and prospects.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Simmons provided an overview of the process to be undertaken by Simmons to evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the transaction being proposed by Vanguard to holders of common units of LRE other than LRM or affiliate entities (the unaffiliated LRE unitholders) and the scope of Simmons' financial due diligence efforts.

Later in the day on April 17, 2015, representatives of Simmons spoke with LRE and Vanguard on separate calls regarding their financial projections and key assumptions, and other diligence questions. In the evening on April 17, 2015, Mr. Mullins received a revised non-binding proposal letter from Mr. Smith at Vanguard that removed the due diligence contingency but left the exchange ratio unchanged at 0.535x. On that same day, Mr. Mullins called Mr. Smith and Mr. Robert to discuss key outstanding items in the merger agreement and related documents, including the termination fee, lock-up period and LRE's permitted actions between signing of the merger agreement and the merger closing.

On the evening of April 17, 2015, a representative of Paul Hastings provided revised drafts of the merger agreement and related documents to Andrews Kurth. In the revised draft of the merger agreement, Vanguard proposed a termination fee equal to 3% of LRE's equity value and the potential reimbursement of transaction expenses upon a termination of the merger agreement up to a maximum amount equal to 0.5% of LRE's equity value. In the revised draft of the voting agreement, Vanguard proposed to reduce the lock-up period from 120 days to 90 days.

On April 18, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met to discuss the proposed business combination transaction with Vanguard. Latham provided an overview of the fiduciary duties and responsibilities of the LRE GP conflicts committee under Delaware law and discussed the contractual standards under LRE's limited partnership agreement. Latham then commented on the draft transaction documents with respect to the proposed transaction, including a draft merger agreement, a draft voting and support agreement, a draft termination and continuing obligations agreement and a draft registration rights agreement. Simmons then described the activities being undertaken by Simmons, including various valuation methodologies being used to assess the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the proposed transaction to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders and the scope of its financial due diligence on Vanguard.

On April 18, 2015, a representative of Andrews Kurth provided revised drafts of the merger agreement, the voting agreement, the registration rights agreement and the termination and continuation of obligations agreement, along with a draft of LRE's disclosure schedules to Paul Hastings. In the revised draft of the merger agreement, LRE highlighted that both the termination fee and expenses cap required further review and discussion.

As of April 19, 2015, LRE's negotiations with Company A had not resulted in a proposal by Company A reflecting a valuation of Company A's business that LRE's management believed was compelling or in the best interests of LRE unitholders.

On April 19, 2015, Mr. Mullins spoke individually with each LRE GP board member about his plans to send Vanguard a counter-proposal. Mr. Mullins e-mailed Mr. Smith to inform him that he had spoken with all of the members of the board of directors of LRE GP and that he should expect a counter proposal letter to be sent to him within a few hours. Later that evening, Mr. Mullins sent Mr. Smith a non-binding written counter-proposal by email asking for a 0.567x exchange ratio, which was based on a 20% premium to LRE's 10-day volume-weighted average price, or VWAP, as of April 17, 2015, which was the same 10-day VWAP premium as Vanguard's initial proposal on April 1, 2015. As of April 17, 2015, the implied equity value of the LRE counter-proposal was $250 million, a 14% premium to the closing price of LRE's common units on the New York Stock Exchange as of April 17, 2015. Mr. Smith responded to Mr. Mullins by email that Vanguard's board would consider the counter-proposal and respond by 10:00 a.m. (Central Time) the following morning.

Also on April 19, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met with its legal and financial advisors. Simmons provided the LRE GP conflicts committee with an analysis of the proposal from Vanguard and the methodologies undertaken by Simmons in connection with its evaluation of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the proposed terms of the merger with Vanguard to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. The LRE GP conflicts committee discussed the Partnership's business and prospects as a stand-alone entity and the merits of the Vanguard proposal.

On the morning of April 20, 2015, Mr. Smith called Mr. Mullins to inform him that Vanguard's board had agreed to increase the exchange ratio to 0.550x and that Mr. Smith would e-mail a revised written proposal letter to Mr. Mullins. Mr. Mullins promptly informed Mr. Bailey of the revised proposal. Later that morning, Mr. Smith emailed a revised non-binding proposal letter to Mr. Mullins. LRE management then circulated the revised Vanguard proposal to the board of directors of LRE GP, TPH, Andrews Kurth, the LRE GP conflicts committee, Simmons and Latham. As of April 17, 2015, the implied equity value of Vanguard's counter-proposal was $243 million, an 11% premium to the closing price of LRE's common units on the New York Stock Exchange on April 17, 2015.

Later on April 20, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met telephonically with its financial and legal advisors. Simmons provided the LRE GP conflicts committee with an in-depth analysis of the proposal from Vanguard and the methodologies undertaken by Simmons in connection with its evaluation of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the merger with Vanguard. After such discussion, Simmons delivered its oral opinion, which opinion was later confirmed by delivery of its written opinion dated as of such date that, based on and subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the terms of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Representatives of Latham summarized the material terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. After hearing from their advisors and review and discussion by the LRE GP conflicts committee, the LRE GP conflicts committee unanimously determined that the merger agreement and related documents to be entered into by LRE in connection therewith were advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommended approval of the merger agreement and the merger by the board of directors of LRE GP. In providing its approval, the LRE GP conflicts committee intended such approval to constitute special approval for purposes of the LRE partnership agreement.

On the afternoon of April 20, 2015, Paul Hastings provided to LRE management and Andrews Kurth execution versions of the transaction documents, which were then distributed to the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH, Simmons, Richards Layton and Latham. Later that day, a special meeting of the board of directors of LRE GP was held. Representatives from LRE, TPH and Andrews Kurth attended the meeting as invited guests. Mr. Mullins updated the board of directors of LRE GP on Vanguard's revised non-binding proposal, which increased the exchange ratio to 0.550x. Representatives of TPH provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an analysis of the revised proposal from Vanguard, after which TPH opined orally (subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated April 20, 2015) that the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units pursuant to the merger agreement was, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations described in its written opinion, fair, from a financial point of view, to such unitholders. Andrews Kurth then discussed the significant changes to the purchase agreement and plan of merger. Mr. Bailey presented a summary of the due diligence review work done by the LRE GP conflicts committee and its advisors. He noted that the LRE GP conflicts committee received a fairness opinion from Simmons that the terms of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Mr. Mullins requested that Mr. Bailey provide a summary of the process that the LRE GP conflicts committee undertook with respect to the proposed merger, including the receipt of the Simmons fairness opinion. He explained that Simmons had access to the VDR and the management teams of LRE and Vanguard. He noted that Latham provided legal assistance to the LRE GP conflicts committee. Mr. Bailey mentioned that the LRE GP conflicts committee and its advisors conducted a thorough review of the advisability of the proposed merger, with careful consideration of any potential conflicts of interest. He then indicated that the LRE GP conflicts committee had unanimously determined that the merger agreement and related documents to be entered into by LRE in connection therewith were advisable to, and in the best interests of, LRE and the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommended approval by the board of directors of LRE GP of the merger agreement and the merger.

There being no further questions, Mr. Mullins then provided a brief summary of each resolution that required approval. The resolutions related to the approval and authorization to enter into the purchase agreement and plan of merger, the voting and support agreement, the termination and continuing obligations agreement, as well as approval and authorization of other ancillary matters. All members of the board of directors of LRE GP approved the resolutions noted above.

Promptly following the meeting, Mr. Mullins called Mr. Smith and informed him that the board of directors of LRE GP had approved the merger with Vanguard. LRE management and Vanguard management executed the transaction documents on the afternoon of April 20, 2015. Later that afternoon, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the merger.

LRE s Consent to the Eagle Rock Merger

On May 4, 2015, Mr. Smith and Mr. Robert informed Mr. Adcock that Vanguard was in discussions with a third party regarding a potential merger of Vanguard and such third party. Mr. Smith mentioned that pursuant to the terms of the Vanguard and LRE merger agreement, Vanguard would need the consent of the board of directors of LRE GP before Vanguard could enter into a merger agreement with such third party.

On May 11, 2015, Mr. Robert informed Mr. Adcock that Vanguard made a formal offer to acquire Eagle Rock. Mr. Robert provided a background of the historical merger discussions between Vanguard and Eagle Rock. Mr. Robert sent Mr. Adcock a financial analysis of the potential Vanguard and Eagle Rock merger and a form of proposed consent of LRE pursuant to which LRE would consent to Vanguard entering into a merger agreement with Eagle Rock.

On May 12, 2015, Mr. Mullins individually updated each of the members of the board of directors of LRE GP and the LRE GP conflicts committee on the potential merger between Vanguard and Eagle Rock, and the requested consent.

Later on May 12, 2015, Mr. Mullins advised Andrews Kurth and TPH, and Mr. Bailey advised Latham and Simmons of a proposed business combination transaction between Vanguard and Eagle Rock. The advisors of the board of directors of LRE GP and of the LRE GP conflicts committee then began an evaluation of the proposed transaction.

On May 13, 2015, LRE and TPH delivered a list of due diligence requests to Vanguard regarding Vanguard s potential transaction with Eagle Rock. On that same day, LRE and Eagle Rock signed an acknowledgment to their existing confidentiality agreement to confirm that it covered information regarding the potential merger between LRE and Vanguard. Later that evening, LRE, TPH and Simmons were granted access to a VDR created by Eagle Rock to provide relevant non-public data necessary for the evaluation of Eagle Rock. Eagle Rock was granted access to the VDR that Vanguard used in its analysis of the transaction with LRE.

On May 14, 2015, Mr. Robert informed LRE management that Vanguard and Eagle Rock had agreed to a fixed exchange ratio of 0.185x but the form of consideration was still being negotiated. Later that afternoon, representatives from LRE, Eagle Rock, Vanguard, TPH and Simmons met telephonically. Eagle Rock presented a company and asset overview, and discussed current expectations for the timing of the potential transaction. LRE agreed to provide a management presentation to Eagle Rock at a later date. Vanguard delivered detailed support for its expected general and administrative expense savings pro forma for the potential combination with both LRE and subsequently, Eagle Rock.

On May 15, 2015, LRE signed a confidentiality agreement with NGP Energy Capital Management, L.L.C., or NGP, who owned a significant portion of Eagle Rock s outstanding common units and was currently evaluating the proposed transaction. That evening, Vanguard distributed a draft of the Eagle Rock merger agreement to LRE who circulated it to TPH, Simmons and Andrews Kurth.

On May 16, 2015, members of LRE management met telephonically with representatives of Eagle Rock, NGP, Evercore Group, L.L.C., financial advisor to Eagle Rock, and Wells Fargo and provided a company and asset overview of LRE.

On May 18, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP held a special meeting. Representatives from LRE management, TPH, Andrews Kurth and Richards Layton attended the meeting as invited guests. Mr. Mullins provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an update regarding the proposed Vanguard and Eagle Rock merger. Representatives of TPH reviewed for the board of directors of LRE GP TPH's preliminary financial analyses of the proposed combination of Vanguard, pro forma for Vanguard's transaction with LRE, with Eagle Rock. Andrews Kurth then discussed the consent process. Later that day, Andrews Kurth received a revised draft of the Eagle Rock merger agreement from Paul Hastings and distributed it to LRE, TPH and Simmons.

Also on May 18, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met telephonically with its financial and legal advisors to discuss the proposed business combination transaction between Vanguard and Eagle Rock. Latham described the consent requirements under the LRE merger agreement with respect to the proposed Eagle Rock merger, the duties applicable to members of the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection therewith and related matters. Simmons provided the LRE GP conflicts committee with its preliminary analysis of the impact of the proposed Eagle Rock merger with Vanguard on the pro forma combined company of LRE and Vanguard. Simmons described, among other things, the diligence undertaken, the valuation methodologies being used and the other analyses being performed by Simmons with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the proposed Eagle Rock merger to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

On May 19, 2015, an attorney from Paul Hastings delivered a revised draft of the Eagle Rock merger agreement to Andrews Kurth.

On May 20, 2015, a representative from Andrews Kurth delivered a revised consent to Paul Hastings. During that day, representatives of Andrews Kurth and Paul Hastings negotiated the terms of the consent, the amended and restated voting agreement and the amended and restated registration rights agreement.

Also on May 20, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP held a special meeting. Representatives from LRE management, Andrews Kurth and Richards Layton attended the meeting as invited guests. Mr. Mullins provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an update of the Vanguard and Eagle Rock merger process. Andrews Kurth and Mr. Casas provided an update on the status of the related merger documents. The meeting was adjourned as final merger documents were not available. Late that day, Paul Hastings delivered to Mr. Casas and Andrews Kurth the final versions of all the documents necessary for the proposed transaction including the Eagle Rock merger agreement, registration rights agreement, voting agreement and disclosure schedules, and the board of directors of LRE GP consent to the Eagle Rock merger, the amended and restated voting and support agreement, and the amended and restated registration rights agreement. Mr. Casas delivered these materials to the board of directors of LRE GP, TPH, and Simmons.

Also on May 20, 2015, the LRE GP conflicts committee met telephonically with its financial and legal advisors. Simmons provided the LRE GP conflicts committee with its final analysis of the impact of the proposed Eagle Rock merger on the pro forma combined company of LRE and Vanguard. Simmons described the valuation methodologies being employed and the other analyses being performed by Simmons, and the results thereof, in connection with its evaluation of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the Eagle Rock merger to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. After discussion, Simmons delivered its oral opinion, which opinion was later confirmed by delivery of its written opinion dated as of such date, that, based on and subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the terms of the Eagle Rock merger contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Representatives of Latham summarized the material terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the related consent. After hearing from its advisors and further review and discussion, the LRE GP conflicts committee unanimously determined to provide its consent under the LRE merger agreement to the proposed Eagle Rock merger and recommended that the full LRE Board provide its consent to the Eagle Rock merger. In providing its approval, the LRE GP conflicts committee intended such approval to constitute special approval for purposes of the LRE partnership agreement.

On May 21, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP held a special meeting. Representatives from LRE management, TPH, Andrews Kurth and Richards Layton attended the meeting as invited guests. Mr. Mullins provided the board of directors of LRE GP with a status update of the Vanguard and Eagle Rock merger process. Representatives of TPH provided the board of directors of LRE GP with an analysis of the proposed combination of New Vanguard with Eagle Rock, after which TPH opined orally (subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated May 21, 2015) that the consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement was, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations described in its written opinion, fair, from a financial point of view, to New Vanguard. Andrews Kurth then provided an update of the transaction related documents. There being no further questions, Mr. Mullins then provided a brief summary of each resolution that required approval. The resolutions related to the approval and authorization to provide a consent allowing Vanguard to enter in the agreement and plan of merger with Eagle Rock, and to enter into amended and restated voting and support and registration rights agreements with Vanguard. All members of the board of directors of LRE GP approved the resolutions noted above.

Recommendation of LRE GP's Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger

On April 20, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders, declared it advisable to enter into the merger agreement and approved the execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that the LRE unitholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the LRE special meeting.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered many factors in making its determination and approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The board of directors of LRE GP consulted with LRE's management, financial advisors and outside legal counsel regarding its obligations, legal due diligence matters and the terms of the merger agreement, and viewed the following factors as being generally positive or favorable in coming to its determination and related recommendation:

The aggregate value and composition of the consideration to be received in the merger by holders of LRE common units;

The exchange ratio of 0.550 of a Vanguard common unit for each LRE common unit in the merger represents a premium of approximately 13% above the $7.93 closing price of LRE common units on April 20, 2015 (the last trading date before the execution of the merger agreement), and a premium of approximately 19% based on the volume weighted average price of LRE's common units for the last 10 trading days ended April 20, 2015;

The equity exchange ratio is fixed and therefore the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders will increase in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units increases prior to the closing of the merger; Following the merger, LRE unitholders will have the opportunity as equity holders to participate in the future growth and expected synergies of the combined entity;

The merger is expected to create some operating efficiencies given overlapping operating areas and cost savings in general and administrative expenses, as well as other combined benefits such as greater critical mass for negotiating with vendors and service companies;

The merger provides LRE unitholders equity ownership in an entity with a larger, more diversified asset base and a lower cost of capital, which is expected to provide greater ability to pursue accretive capital projects and acquisitions that would provide for greater distribution stability and higher distribution growth;

The belief that the merger should result in an improved potential total return to LRE unitholders, based on the potential future value of the combined entity and potential greater distribution growth;

Vanguard's assets, financial condition, prospects and access to capital markets, including the size and scale of the combined entity and the expected pro forma effect of the proposed transactions on the combined entity;

The merger provides LRE unitholders with increased trading liquidity, as Vanguard's common units have a larger average daily trading volume and public float than LRE common units;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Uncertainties regarding LRE unitholder value that might result from other alternatives available to LRE, including the alternative of entering into a transaction with another third party or remaining an independent public limited partnership, in each case, considering the potential for LRE unitholders to share in any future earnings growth of LRE's businesses and continued costs, as well as the risks and uncertainties associated with its business plans or any alternative thereto and the ability to achieve a higher valuation than the proposed transactions;

The fact that LRE management, with the assistance of the financial advisor to the board of directors of LRE GP, conducted a comprehensive strategic alternatives process, including solicitation of interests from 52 companies, 31 of which expressed initial interest in pursuing a transaction with LRE for a potential asset acquisition, joint venture transaction or strategic merger transaction;

The belief of the board of directors of LRE GP, following consultation with its financial advisor, and a comprehensive strategic alternatives process, that a merger with Vanguard was the best option of all strategic alternatives considered and that it was unlikely that an alternative bidder would offer LRE unitholders better terms and consideration than offered by Vanguard in the merger;

The support of the merger by LRR A, LRR B, LRR C, LRR II-A, LRR II-C and LRM as evidenced by their execution of the voting and support agreement;

The unanimous approval of the merger agreement and the related agreements, and recommendation of the merger and the related transactions, by the LRE GP conflicts committee, and the granting by the LRE GP conflicts committee of Special Approval of the merger agreement and the merger for purposes of the LRE partnership agreement; The financial presentation and analysis of TPH presented to the board of directors of LRE GP at the meeting held on April 20, 2015 and the oral opinion of that firm delivered to the board of directors of LRE GP on that date, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the limitations and assumptions stated in its opinion, the unit consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such unitholders as more fully described in the section entitled "Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors";

The review by the board of directors of LRE GP with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the proposed merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including Vanguard's representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to its obligations and the termination provisions, as well as the likelihood of consummation of the proposed merger and the board of directors of LRE GP's evaluation of the likely time period necessary to close the merger;

The fact that the merger consideration generally will not be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes to LRE's common unitholders (except to the extent of cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard units pursuant to Section 752 of the Internal Revenue Code);

That LRE and Vanguard undertook extensive negotiations, resulting in increased merger consideration for LRE unitholders and the revision of terms in the merger agreement more favorable to LRE and its unitholders than initially proposed by Vanguard; and

The nature of the closing conditions included in the merger agreement, including the exceptions to the events that would constitute a material adverse effect on LRE or Vanguard for purposes of the merger agreement.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered the following terms of the merger agreement:

LRE's ability to terminate the merger agreement under certain conditions;

The right of the board of directors of LRE GP to withdraw or change its recommendation of the merger agreement in the event of a superior proposal or intervening events, subject to certain conditions (including considering any adjustments to the merger agreement proposed by Vanguard and payment to Vanguard of an approximately $7.3 million termination fee);

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE's right to engage in negotiations with, and provide information to, a third party making an unsolicited alternative proposal, which may, in certain circumstances, result in a transaction that is superior to the proposed transactions with Vanguard;

The right of the board of directors of LRE GP to change its recommendation in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions, if, in response to a material event that arises after the date of the merger agreement, the board of directors of LRE GP determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its duties under applicable Delaware law, the LRE partnership agreement or the LRE GP company agreement;

That the termination fee of approximately $7.3 million, or the expense reimbursement up to approximately $1.2 million, in each case payable by LRE to Vanguard under the circumstances specified in the merger agreement, were not unreasonable in the judgment of the board of directors of LRE GP after consultation with its legal and financial advisors;

That the restrictions contemplated by the merger agreement on LRE's actions between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger are not, in the judgment of the board of directors of LRE GP, unreasonable;

The restrictions contemplated by the merger agreement on Vanguard's actions between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger;

That LRE unitholder approval is a condition to consummation of the transactions;

The limited conditions and exceptions to the material adverse effect closing condition and other closing conditions; and

The consummation of the merger is not conditioned on financing or on a vote of Vanguard unitholders.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in making its determinations and recommendation with respect to the merger:

That the exchange ratio is fixed and therefore the value of the consideration payable to LRE common unitholders will decrease in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units decreases relative to any change in the market price of LRE common units prior to the closing of the merger;

That, while the transactions are expected to be completed, there is no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the transactions will be satisfied or waived, and as a result, it is possible that the transactions might not be completed even if approved by LRE's unitholders;

That the merger agreement contains restrictions (subject to specific exceptions) on the conduct of LRE's business prior to completion of the proposed transactions, including requiring LRE to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, which could delay or prevent LRE from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the transactions and could negatively affect LRE's ability to attract and retain employees, customers and vendors;

That the merger agreement imposes limitations on LRE's ability to solicit alternative transactions or terminate the merger agreement;

That, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, LRE would be required to pay a termination fee of approximately $7.3 million and reimburse Vanguard for its expenses incurred in connection with the merger up to approximately $1.2 million;

That the merger may be delayed or not be completed in a timely manner, or at all, which could result in significant costs and disruption to LRE's normal business;

That Vanguard may not be able to repay or refinance LRE's credit agreement or term loan indebtedness upon consummation of the merger, as required by the existing terms of such indebtedness;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The possibility that the affirmative vote of LRE unitholders might not be obtained for the merger agreement; That litigation could occur in connection with the proposed transaction and that such litigation could increase costs and result in a diversion of management focus;

That the potential benefits sought in the merger might not be fully realized;

The transaction costs to be incurred in connection with the proposed transaction; and Risks of the type and nature described under the section titled Risk Factors.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered all of these factors as a whole and, on balance, concluded that the factors supported a determination to adopt the merger agreement. In view of the wide variety and complexity of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of these matters, the board of directors of LRE GP did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. The board of directors of LRE GP did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to their ultimate determinations. Rather, such recommendations were based on the totality of the information presented and the investigations conducted. In considering the factors described above and any other factors, individual members of the board of directors of LRE GP may have given different weight to different factors. The board of directors of LRE GP evaluated the factors described above, among others, and reached a consensus that the proposed transactions were advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders. The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the board of directors of LRE GP is not exhaustive. In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that the LRE unitholders vote to adopt the merger agreement, LRE unitholders should be aware that the executive officers and directors of LRE may have certain interests in the proposed transactions that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of LRE unitholders generally. Other than as described in Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger, the board of directors of LRE GP was aware of these interests and considered them when approving the merger agreement and recommending that LRE unitholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. See Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger.

Reasons of LRE GP's Board of Directors for Consenting to the Eagle Rock Merger

On May 21, 2015, the board of directors of LRE GP executed a written consent pursuant to which the board of directors of LRE GP consented to Vanguard entering into the Eagle Rock merger agreement, performing its obligations thereunder and consummating the Eagle Rock merger in accordance with the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement. The board of directors of LRE GP reviewed the proposed terms and conditions of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and evaluated the financial aspects of the Eagle Rock merger with its advisors, and authorized the execution of the written consent to the Eagle Rock merger.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered many factors in making its determination to consent to the Eagle Rock merger. The board of directors of LRE GP consulted with LRE's management, financial advisors and outside legal counsel regarding its obligations and the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, and viewed the following factors as being generally positive or favorable in coming to its determination to consent:

The equity exchange ratio offered in the merger agreement is fixed and therefore the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders will increase in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units increases as a result of the Eagle Rock merger prior to the closing of the merger; Following the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard unitholders (including former LRE unitholders who receive Vanguard common units in the merger) will have the opportunity as equity holders to participate in the future growth and expected synergies of the combined pro forma entity;

80 As a result of the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard's leverage and liquidity metrics are expected to improve;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Eagle Rock merger adds scale in Vanguard's existing Arkoma, Permian and Gulf Coast basins and establishes a new operating area in Alabama;

Eagle Rock has a meaningful position in Mid-Continent plays, which will provide the combined entity attractive drilling opportunities for the next several years;

The benefit from the growth in production and reserves from the drilling of new wells in unconventional plays in the Mid-Continent outweighed the resulting higher production decline rate for the combined entity;

The Eagle Rock merger is expected to create some operating efficiencies given overlapping operating areas in the Arkoma, Permian and Gulf Coast basins and cost savings in general and administrative expenses, as well as other combined benefits such as greater critical mass for negotiating with vendors and service companies;

The Eagle Rock merger provides Vanguard unitholders (including former LRE unitholders who receive Vanguard common units in the merger) equity ownership in a pro forma entity with a larger, more diversified asset base and a lower cost of capital, which is expected to provide greater ability to pursue accretive capital projects and acquisitions that would provide for greater distribution stability and higher distribution growth;

The combined assets, financial condition and prospects of the pro forma entity as a result of the Eagle Rock merger, including the size and scale of the combined pro forma entity;

The opportunity to attract and retain experienced personnel from Eagle Rock to expand the combined pro forma entity's employee base;

The unanimous approval of the consent to the Eagle Rock merger and the recommendation of the consent by the LRE GP conflicts committee, and the granting by the LRE GP conflicts committee of Special Approval of the consent to the Eagle Rock merger for purposes of the LRE partnership agreement;

The financial presentation and analysis of TPH presented to the board of directors of LRE GP at the meeting held on May 21, 2015 and the oral opinion of that firm delivered to the board of directors of LRE GP on that date, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the limitations and assumptions stated in its opinion, merger consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to New Vanguard as more fully described in the section entitled "Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors";

The review by the board of directors of LRE GP with its legal and financial advisors of the Eagle Rock merger and the financial and other terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement as it relates to Vanguard, including Eagle Rock's representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to its obligations and the termination provisions, as well as the likelihood of consummation of the Eagle Rock merger and the board of directors of LRE GP's evaluation of the likely time period necessary for Vanguard to close the Eagle Rock merger;

The nature of the closing conditions included in the Eagle Rock merger agreement, including the exceptions to the events that would constitute a material adverse effect on Vanguard or Eagle Rock for purposes of the Eagle Rock merger agreement; and

The Eagle Rock merger is a transaction separate and apart from the merger and the completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger, and the completion of the merger is not a condition to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered the following terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement:

Vanguard's ability to terminate the Eagle Rock merger agreement under certain conditions;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

That the reverse termination fee of $20.0 million, or the expense reimbursement up to approximately $2.3 million, in each case payable by Vanguard to Eagle Rock under the circumstances specified in the Eagle Rock merger agreement, were not unreasonable in the judgment of the board of directors of LRE GP after consultation with its legal and financial advisors and would affect LRE unitholders if the merger is consummated;

That the termination fee of $20.0 million (or in certain circumstances, $10.0 million), or the expense reimbursement up to approximately $2.3 million, in each case payable by Eagle Rock to Vanguard under the circumstances specified in the Eagle Rock merger agreement, were reasonable in the judgment of the board of directors of LRE GP after consultation with its legal and financial advisors and would benefit LRE unitholders if the merger is consummated;

That the restrictions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement on Vanguard's actions between the date of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger are not, in the judgment of the board of directors of LRE GP, unreasonable;

The restrictions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement on Eagle Rock's actions between the date of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the effective time of the Eagle Rock merger are, in the judgment of the LRE Board of Directors, reasonable;

That Vanguard unitholder approval for the issuance of common units of Vanguard in the Eagle Rock merger is a condition to consummation of the Eagle Rock merger; and

The Eagle Rock merger agreement's limited conditions and exceptions to the material adverse effect closing condition and other closing conditions.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in making its determination to consent of the Eagle Rock merger:

The equity exchange ratio offered in the merger agreement is fixed and therefore the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders will decrease in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units decreases as a result of the Eagle Rock merger prior to the closing of the merger;

That as a result of the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard management's focus could be diverted, causing the progress towards and ultimate consummation of the merger with LRE to be delayed or impaired;

That litigation could occur as a result of the Eagle Rock merger and that such litigation could increase costs and result in a diversion of Vanguard management's focus;

That, while the Eagle Rock merger is expected to be completed, there is no assurance that all conditions to the parties obligations to complete the transaction will be satisfied or waived, and as a result, it is possible that the Eagle Rock merger might not be completed even if approved by Vanguard and Eagle Rock unitholders;

That the Eagle Rock merger agreement contains restrictions (subject to specific exceptions) on the conduct of Vanguard's business prior to completion of the Eagle Rock merger, including requiring Vanguard to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, which could delay or prevent Vanguard from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Eagle Rock merger and could negatively affect Vanguard's ability to attract and retain employees, customers and vendors;

That, if the Eagle Rock merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Vanguard would be required to pay to Eagle Rock a reverse termination fee of $20.0 million and reimburse Eagle Rock for its expenses incurred in connection with the Eagle Rock merger up to approximately $2.3 million;

That the Eagle Rock merger may be delayed or not be completed in a timely manner, or at all, which could result in significant costs and disruption to Vanguard's normal business;

That Vanguard may not be able to repay or refinance Eagle Rock's credit agreement indebtedness upon consummation of the Eagle Rock merger, as required by the existing terms of such indebtedness;

The possibility that the affirmative vote of Vanguard and Eagle Rock unitholders might not be obtained;

That the potential benefits sought in the Eagle Rock merger might not be fully realized;

The transaction costs to be incurred in connection with the Eagle Rock merger; and Risks of the type and nature described under the section titled Risk Factors.

The board of directors of LRE GP considered all of these factors as a whole and, on balance, concluded that the factors supported a determination to approve the consent. In view of the wide variety and complexity of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of these matters, the board of directors of LRE GP did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. The board of directors of LRE GP did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to their ultimate determinations. Rather, its determination was based on the totality of the information presented and the investigations conducted. In considering the factors described above and any other factors, individual members of the board of directors of LRE GP may have given different weight to different factors. The board of directors of LRE GP evaluated the factors described above, among others, and reached a consensus that consenting to the Eagle Rock merger was advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and its unitholders. The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the board of directors of LRE GP is not exhaustive.

Recommendation of the LRE GP Conflicts Committee and its Reasons for the Merger

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered many factors in making its determination and approving the merger. The LRE GP committee consulted with its financial and legal advisors and viewed the following factors as being generally positive or favorable in coming to its determination and related recommendation to the board of directors of LRE GP:

The exchange ratio of 0.550 of a Vanguard common unit for each LRE common unit in the merger represents a premium of approximately 11% above the $7.79 closing price of LRE common units on April 17, 2015, based on the $15.72 closing price of Vanguard common units on April 17, 2015 (the last trading day before the execution and announcement of the merger agreement), and a premium of approximately 26% based on the average of the closing prices of LRE common units over the 30 trading days ended April 17, 2015;

The financial analysis presented on April 20, 2015 by Simmons, as financial advisor to the LRE GP conflicts committee, and the oral opinion of Simmons delivered to the LRE GP conflicts committee on April 20, 2015 and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, and based upon and subject to factors, procedures, qualifications and limitations set forth in its written opinion, the terms of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders;

That, in receiving Vanguard common units in the merger, the unaffiliated LRE unitholders will be provided an opportunity to participate in the upside of a combined entity that, among other things, will be capable of pursuing larger and more meaningful growth opportunities than could have been pursued by LRE alone, and will participate in the increased scale, quality and diversification of the assets and operations of the combined entity compared to LRE as a standalone entity;

The exchange ratio is fixed and, therefore, the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders will increase in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units increases prior to the closing of the merger;

The mitigation of an increasing risk that LRE's borrowing base under its revolving credit facility would be redetermined to a much lower level based on the current commodity price environment, which would then require a repayment (possibly with a term loan with much higher interest rates and fees) and/or a reduction or elimination of LRE's distribution to its unitholders, which could have materially adversely affected the trading price of the LRE common units but that would be repaid by Vanguard in connection with the merger;

The mitigation of an increasing risk that LRE would need to further reduce or eliminate its quarterly cash distribution as a result of difficulties in the business caused by the prevailing commodity price environment;

The improved liquidity of the combined entity in comparison to LRE as a standalone entity;
The potential interest savings resulting from the repayment of LRE's revolving credit facility and second lien term loan, which the LRE GP conflicts committee expects Vanguard to repay in connection with the merger;
The potential synergies from combining the operations of LRE and Vanguard, including decreased general and administrative expenses, according to estimates provided by management, as well as the elimination of the fees LRE currently pays LRM and Lime Rock Resources Operating Company, Inc., offset by incremental corporate hires of the combined entity;

The LRE GP conflict committee's belief that the combined entity offered better prospects for distribution growth than did LRE;

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that the combined entity's common units would trade at a lower yield than LRE's, contributing to a lower cost of capital than for LRE on a standalone basis;

In the merger, LRE unitholders will receive Vanguard common units, which have more trading liquidity than LRE common units because of the expected larger average daily trading volume and public float of Vanguard common units;

The LRE GP conflicts committee's awareness that a significant portion of LRE's commodity hedges, which were entered into at times of higher commodity prices and would have a positive impact on LRE's cash flows in 2015, would be expiring in 2016 and would not be able to be replaced with similar favorable commodity hedges, resulting in potential decreases in cash flows in 2016 that could further impair LRE's ability to maintain its current level of distributions to unitholders;

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that the aggregate interest of LRE's unitholders in the combined entity would be greater than the portion of the combined entity's distributable cash flow in 2016 brought to the combined entity by LRE;

Through negotiation, LRE was able to increase the merger consideration for LRE unitholders from 0.535 of a Vanguard common unit for each LRE common unit to 0.550 of a Vanguard common unit for each LRE common unit;

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that the merger consideration represented the highest consideration that could be obtained from a potential business combination transaction with Vanguard, that the merger was more favorable to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders than continuing to hold their common units, and that the merger presents the best available opportunity to maximize value for the unaffiliated LRE unitholders;

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that no potential buyers for LRE would pay more than Vanguard, based in part on the fact that LRE conducted a comprehensive strategic alternatives process, soliciting indications of interest from more than 50 counterparties, signing confidentiality agreements with 13 counterparties and ultimately receiving only written proposals from two companies, with only Vanguard's proposal being viewed as high enough and reasonably certain enough to justify further meaningful discussion;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The terms and conditions of the merger agreement allow LRE to continue to pay a regular quarterly distribution of up to $0.1875 per unit prior to the consummation of the merger and provide that if the record date of an unpaid LRE quarterly distribution is prior to the closing, such distribution will nevertheless be paid to former LRE unitholders on the scheduled payment date;

The merger consideration to be received by unaffiliated LRE unitholders would be tax-free, except to the extent of any cash received in lieu of fractional units;

The fact that Vanguard's obligation to consummate the merger is not subject to any financing condition;

The support of the merger by LRR A, LRR B, LRR C, LRR II-A, LRR II-C and LRM in their capacity as holders of approximately 30.5% of the LRE common units (collectively, the Fund Unitholders), as evidenced by their execution of the original support agreement, makes the consummation of the merger more likely;

That the approval of a meaningful percentage of unaffiliated LRE unitholders is required to consummate the merger; and

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that it was fully informed of the extent to which interests of management and other members of the board of directors of LRE GP and the Fund Unitholders in the merger differed from those of the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

In the course of reaching the determinations and decisions and making the recommendation to the board of directors of LRE GP described above, the LRE GP conflicts committee also considered the following factors related to procedural safeguards that the LRE GP conflicts committee believes were and are present to help assure the fairness of the merger agreement and the merger and to permit the LRE GP conflicts committee to represent the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, each of which factors the LRE GP conflicts committee believed supported its decision and provided assurance that the merger was in the best interests of the unaffiliated LRE unitholders:

That the LRE GP conflicts committee consists solely of directors who are not officers, employees or controlling unitholders of LRE, or otherwise affiliated with the Fund Unitholders or members of their management;

That the compensation of the LRE GP conflicts committee members was in no way contingent on their approving the merger agreement and taking other actions described in this proxy statement/prospectus;

That the members of the LRE GP conflicts committee would not personally benefit from completion of the merger in a manner different from the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, other than through the vesting of units awarded under the LTIP;

The LRE GP conflicts committee retained its own financial and legal advisors with knowledge and experience with respect to MLPs, public merger and acquisition transactions, and with respect to Vanguard's and LRE's industry;

That the LRE GP conflicts committee had no obligation to recommend any transaction;

That any actions to be taken and decisions to be made by LRE and the board of directors of LRE GP under the merger agreement that might pose conflicts of interest between the interests of LRE GP and its affiliates, on the one hand, and the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, on the other hand, would be determined by the LRE GP conflicts committee;

The merger agreement affords LRE GP's board of directors flexibility to consider, evaluate and accept superior proposals prior to approval of the merger agreement by LRE unitholders as follows:

the board of directors of LRE GP is permitted, subject to certain limitations, to participate in discussions or negotiations with, or provide non-public information to, any person in response to an unsolicited written acquisition proposal for LRE, if the board of directors of LRE GP determines, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such acquisition proposal constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to or result in, a superior proposal;

the board of directors of LRE GP is permitted, subject to certain limitations, to terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative transaction that is a superior proposal, subject to the payment to Vanguard of a termination fee of $7,288,000, less any Vanguard expenses that have been reimbursed by LRE up to a maximum of $1,215,000;

the board of directors of LRE GP is permitted, subject to certain limitations, to change its

- o recommendation to unitholders with respect to the merger in response to an intervening event (as that term is defined in the merger agreement), subject to the payment to Vanguard of a termination fee of $7,288,000 if Vanguard terminates the merger agreement because of the change in recommendation;

the board of directors of LRE GP is permitted, subject to certain limitations, to take, and disclose to unitholders, a position with respect to any tender or exchange offer by a third party;

the LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that the payment of the termination fee of $7,288,000 in specified circumstances is reasonable and would not be likely to preclude another party that is so inclined from making a superior proposal; and

That the support agreement provides that the Fund Unitholders' obligation to vote in favor of the merger proposal terminates automatically upon the board of directors of LRE GP changing its recommendation.

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in making its determination and approval:

The exchange ratio is fixed and, therefore, the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders will decrease in the event that the market price of Vanguard common units decreases prior to the closing of the merger;

That the merger agreement limited LRE's ability to refinance the debt incurred under LRE's credit agreement by limiting the total amount of indebtedness that LRE could incur and the total amount of fees that could be paid in connection with such refinancing;

That Vanguard may not be able to repay or refinance LRE's credit agreement or second lien term loan indebtedness upon consummation of the merger, as required by the existing terms of such indebtedness.

Certain members of LRE management and LRE GP's board members, including those affiliated with the Fund Unitholders, may have interests that are different from or in addition to those of the unaffiliated LRE unitholders;

The merger agreement's limitations on LRE's ability to solicit or knowingly encourage other offers, and the conditions it places on LRE's ability to negotiate or discuss alternative proposals with third parties, to change the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE unitholders vote to approve the merger agreement or to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal;

That LRE is generally required to give Vanguard notice of any third party acquisition proposal, and provide Vanguard with three business days' notice and negotiate in good faith with Vanguard (to the extent Vanguard desire to negotiate) before the board of directors of LRE GP changes its recommendation that LRE unitholders vote to approve the merger agreement and/or to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal;

The merger agreement restricts the conduct of LRE's business prior to the completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent LRE from pursuing business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The risks and costs to LRE if the merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, the impact on employee morale and potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business relationships, as well as the possibility that failure to close the merger could negatively impact the trading price of LRE common units;

The risk that the potential benefits sought in the merger might not be fully realized;

Vanguard's obligation to consummate the merger is subject to some conditions that are outside of LRE's control; The risk that the merger might not be completed in a timely manner, or that the merger might not be consummated at all as a result of a failure to satisfy the conditions contained in the merger agreement, and a failure to complete the merger could negatively affect the trading price of the LRE common units;

LRE has incurred and will continue to incur significant transaction costs and expenses in connection with the proposed merger, whether or not the merger is completed;

That litigation could occur as a result of the merger and that such litigation could increase costs and result in a diversion of management's focus;

The possibility that, under certain circumstances, LRE will be obligated to pay Vanguard a termination fee of $7,288,000 or reimburse up to $1,215,000 of Vanguard's expenses;

The risks of the type and nature described under the heading "Risk Factors" in the LRE Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. See "Where You Can Find More Information"; and

Risks of the type and nature described under the section titled "Risk Factors."

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered all of these factors as a whole and, on balance, concluded that it supported the determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the LRE GP conflicts committee includes the material factors considered, but is not exhaustive. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its evaluation of the proposed merger and the complexity of these matters, the LRE GP conflicts committee did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The LRE GP conflicts committee evaluated the factors described above, among others, and reached a consensus that the proposed transaction is advisable to and in the best interests of LRE and the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Accordingly, the LRE GP conflicts committee unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommended to the full board of directors of LRE GP that it approve the merger agreement. In considering the factors described above and any other factors, individual members of the LRE GP conflicts committee may have viewed factors differently or given different weight or merit to different factors. The LRE GP conflicts committee approved and recommended the merger to the board of directors of LRE GP based on the totality of the information presented to and considered by it.

In considering the approval of the merger agreement by the LRE GP conflicts committee and its recommendation to the board of directors of LRE GP, you should be aware that certain of LRE GP's executive officers and directors may have had interests in the proposed transaction that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of LRE unitholders generally. The LRE GP conflicts committee was aware of these interests and considered them when approving the merger agreement. See "Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger."

Reasons of the LRE GP Conflicts Committee for Consenting to the Eagle Rock Merger

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered many factors in making its determination to provide consent to the Eagle Rock merger under the merger agreement. The LRE GP conflicts committee consulted with its financial and legal advisors and viewed the following factors as being generally positive or favorable in coming to its determination to provide consent to the Eagle Rock merger and related recommendation to the board of directors of LRE GP:

The current and historical financial condition, results of operations, business and prospects of Eagle Rock and the future prospects of the combined entity consisting of Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock;

The financial analysis presented on May 20, 2015 by Simmons, as financial advisor to the LRE GP conflicts committee, and the oral opinion of Simmons delivered to the LRE GP conflicts committee on May 20, 2015 and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, and based upon and subject to factors, procedures, qualifications and limitations set forth in its written opinion, the terms of the Eagle Rock merger contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders; The unaffiliated LRE unitholders will be provided an opportunity to participate in the upside of a combined entity with a lower cost of capital that, among other things, should be capable of pursuing larger and more meaningful growth opportunities;

The Eagle Rock merger will further increase the scale, quality and diversification of the assets and operations of the combined entity;

Eagle Rock has a meaningful position in Mid-Continent plays, which will provide the combined entity attractive drilling opportunities for the next several years;

The benefit from the growth in production and reserves from the drilling of new wells in unconventional plays in the Mid-Continent outweighed the resulting higher production decline rate for the combined entity;

The exchange ratio in the merger is fixed and, therefore, the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders in the merger will increase in the event that the Eagle Rock merger causes the market price of Vanguard common units to increase;

The improved leverage metrics of the combined entity (including Eagle Rock) as compared to LRE on a stand-alone basis and to the Vanguard-LRE business on a combined basis;

The Eagle Rock merger is expected to create operating efficiencies given overlapping operating areas in the Mid-Continent and Permian Basin and cost savings in general and administrative expenses, as well as other benefits such as greater critical mass for negotiating with vendors and service companies;

The opportunity to attract and retain experienced personnel from Eagle Rock to enhance the combined entity's employee base;

That the approval of Vanguard unitholders is required to consummate the Eagle Rock merger, which would give the LRE unitholders a voice in the future direction of Vanguard if LRE's merger with Vanguard is completed prior to the record date of the Vanguard meeting for the Eagle Rock merger;

In the Eagle Rock merger, Eagle Rock unitholders will receive Vanguard common units, which, when combined with the currently outstanding Vanguard common units and the additional Vanguard common units issuable in the merger, should have more trading liquidity than LRE common units because of the expected larger average daily trading volume and public float of the combined entity;

The fact that the LRE unitholders would be able to participate in the combined entity's future earnings and growth and possible future increases in its value following the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement;

The fact that Vanguard's obligation to consummate the Eagle Rock merger is not subject to any financing condition;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Under certain circumstances, if the Eagle Rock merger is not consummated, Eagle Rock will have to pay Vanguard a termination fee of $20,000,000;

Under certain circumstances, if the Eagle Rock merger is not consummated, Eagle Rock will have to reimburse up to $2,317,700 of Vanguard's expenses; and

The LRE GP conflicts committee's belief that it was fully informed of the extent to which interests of management and other members of the board of directors of the LRE GP and the Fund Unitholders in the Eagle Rock merger differed from the interests of the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

In the course of reaching the determinations and decisions and making the recommendation described above, the LRE GP conflicts committee also considered the following factors related to procedural safeguards that the LRE GP conflicts committee believes were and are present to permit the LRE GP conflicts committee to represent the unaffiliated LRE unitholders, each of which factors the LRE GP conflicts committee believed supported its decision and provided assurance that the Eagle Rock merger was in the best interests of the unaffiliated LRE unitholders:

That the LRE GP conflicts committee consists solely of directors who are not officers, employees or controlled unitholders of LRE, or otherwise affiliated with the Fund Unitholders, Vanguard, Eagle Rock or members of their management teams;

That the compensation of the LRE GP conflicts committee members was in no way contingent on their consenting to the Eagle Rock merger and taking other actions described in this proxy statement/prospectus;

That the members of the LRE GP conflicts committee would not personally benefit from completion of the Eagle Rock merger in a manner different from the unaffiliated LRE unitholders;

The LRE GP conflicts committee retained its own financial and legal advisors with knowledge and experience with respect to MLPs, public merger and acquisition transactions, and with respect to Vanguard's, LRE's and Eagle Rock's industry;

That the LRE GP conflicts committee had no obligation to consent to the Eagle Rock merger; and

That the consent requested for the Eagle Rock merger did not otherwise change the terms or conditions of the merger agreement.

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered the following factors to be generally negative or unfavorable in making its determination and approval:

The exchange ratio in the merger is fixed and, therefore, the value of the consideration payable to LRE unitholders in the merger will decrease in the event that the Eagle Rock merger causes the market price of Vanguard common units to decrease;

That Vanguard may not be able to repay or refinance Eagle Rock's credit agreement upon consummation of the Eagle Rock merger, as required by the existing terms of such indebtedness;

The Eagle Rock merger agreement restricts the conduct of Vanguard's business prior to the completion of the Eagle Rock merger, which may delay or prevent Vanguard (or the combined entity if the merger is completed prior to the Eagle Rock merger) from pursuing business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Eagle Rock merger;

The risks and costs to Vanguard if the Eagle Rock merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention and the potential effect on business relationships, as well as the possibility that failure to close the Eagle Rock merger could negatively impact the trading price of Vanguard common units;

There is risk that the potential benefits sought in the Eagle Rock merger might not be fully realized;

Eagle Rock's obligation to consummate the Eagle Rock merger is subject to some conditions that are outside of Vanguard's control;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

There is risk that the Eagle Rock merger might not be completed in a timely manner, or that the Eagle Rock merger might not be consummated at all as a result of a failure to satisfy the conditions contained in the Eagle Rock merger agreement, and a failure to complete the Eagle Rock merger could negatively affect the trading price of the Vanguard common units;

There is a risk that the Eagle Rock merger might occur prior to the merger or otherwise delay the consummation of the merger;

The fact that Vanguard must obtain the consent of its unitholders before proceeding with the issuance of its common units in connection with the Eagle Rock merger, which could result in delay and significant expense;

Vanguard has incurred and will continue to incur significant transaction costs and expenses in connection with the proposed Eagle Rock merger, whether or not the Eagle Rock merger is completed;

That litigation could occur as a result of the Eagle Rock merger and that such litigation could increase costs and result in a diversion of management's focus;

The fact that the LRE unitholders will own a lower overall percentage of the combined entity than would be the case in the absence of the Eagle Rock merger;

If the Vanguard unitholders do not approve the issuance of common units of Vanguard in connection with the Eagle Rock merger, Vanguard will have to pay Eagle Rock a termination fee of $20,000,000;

Under certain circumstances, if the Eagle Rock merger is not consummated, Vanguard will have to reimburse up to $2,317,700 of Eagle Rock's expenses; and

Risks of the type and nature described under the section titled "Risk Factors."

The LRE GP conflicts committee considered all of these factors as a whole and, on balance, concluded that they supported the determination to consent to the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the LRE GP conflicts committee includes the material factors considered, but is not exhaustive. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its evaluation of the proposed Eagle Rock merger and the complexity of these matters, the LRE GP conflicts committee did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The LRE GP conflicts committee evaluated the factors described above, among others, and reached a consensus that the proposed Eagle Rock merger is advisable to and in the best interest of LRE and the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Accordingly, the LRE GP conflicts committee unanimously consented to Vanguard (a) entering into the Eagle Rock merger agreement, (b) performing its obligations thereunder and (c) consummating the Eagle Rock merger in accordance with the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement. In that connection, the LRE GP conflicts committee recommended that the full board of directors of LRE GP consent to such actions by Vanguard. In considering the factors described above and any other factors, individual members of the LRE GP conflicts committee may have viewed factors differently or given different weight or merit to different factors. The LRE GP conflicts committee approved and recommended the Eagle Rock merger to the board of directors of LRE based on the totality of the information presented to and considered by it.

Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Board of Directors

The board of directors of LRE GP retained TPH as its exclusive financial advisor to provide financial advice and assistance to the board and to provide an opinion to the board in connection with the merger. TPH evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units. At a meeting of the board of directors of LRE GP held on April 20, 2015, at the request of the board, TPH orally rendered its opinion to the board that, as of April 20, 2015, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, limitations and other matters considered by TPH in connection with the preparation of its opinion, the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the holders of LRE common units pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such unitholders. TPH subsequently confirmed its opinion in writing to the board of directors of LRE GP (the LRE Opinion).

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Vanguard's entering into and performing the Eagle Rock merger agreement and consummating the Eagle Rock Transactions, including the Eagle Rock merger, required the prior consent of the board of directors of LRE GP. Accordingly, in connection with its negotiation of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard sought the Consent of the board of directors of LRE GP. The board of directors of LRE GP retained TPH as its exclusive financial advisor to provide financial advice and assistance to the board and to provide an opinion to the board in connection with the board's consideration of the Consent. TPH evaluated the fairness, from a financial point of view, to New Vanguard, of the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement. At a meeting of the board of directors of LRE GP held on May 21, 2015, at the request of the board, TPH orally rendered its opinion to the board that, as of May 21, 2015, based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications, limitations and other matters considered by TPH in connection with the preparation of its opinion, the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to New Vanguard. TPH subsequently confirmed its opinion in writing to the board of directors of LRE GP (the Eagle Rock Opinion).

Each opinion speaks only as of the date it was delivered and not as of the time the merger or the Eagle Rock merger will be consummated or any other time. Neither opinion reflects changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date it was rendered, which could alter facts or elements on which the opinions were based.

The full text of the LRE Opinion, dated April 20, 2015, and the Eagle Rock Opinion, dated May 21, 2015, each of which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken by TPH in rendering such opinions, is attached as Annex C and Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the TPH opinions set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinions. LRE unitholders are urged to read each TPH opinion carefully and in its entirety. TPH provided its opinions for the information and assistance of the board of directors of LRE GP (in its capacity as such) in connection with (i) its consideration of the merger and (ii) its consideration of the Consent. Neither TPH opinion nor the summaries thereof, nor the related analyses disclosed in this proxy statement/prospectus, constitutes a recommendation as to how the board of directors of LRE GP, any holder of securities in LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock or any other person should act or vote with respect to the LRE Transactions, the Eagle Rock Transactions, the Consent or any other matter.

TPH's opinions to the board of directors of LRE GP were among many factors taken into consideration by the board (i) in approving the merger agreement and making its recommendation to the holders of LRE common units regarding the merger and (ii) in granting the Consent.

The LRE Opinion

In connection with rendering the LRE Opinion and performing its related financial analysis, TPH reviewed, among other things:

1. a draft of the merger agreement dated April 20, 2015, circulated the morning thereof;
2. Annual Reports on Form 10-K for each of LRE and Vanguard for each of the three years ended December 31, 2014;
3. certain Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each of LRE and Vanguard;
4. certain other communications from LRE and Vanguard to their respective equity holders;

estimated proved oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of December 31, 2014, attributable to LRE's net interests in certain properties, leasehold and royalty interests, prepared by Miller and Lents, Ltd., Netherland, Sewell & Associates and Ryder Scott

Company (LRE 2014 SEC Reserve Report), and estimated proved, probable and possible oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of March 31, 2015, attributable to LRE's net interests in such properties, prepared by the management of LRE GP (LRE Management 3P Reserve Estimates);

estimated proved oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of December 31, 2014, attributable to Vanguard's net interests in certain properties, prepared by the management of Vanguard and audited by DeGolyer and MacNaughton (Vanguard 2014 SEC Reserve Report), and estimated proved oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of March 31, 2015, attributable to Vanguard's net interests in such properties, prepared by the management of Vanguard (Vanguard Management 1P Reserve Estimates);

7. certain publicly available research analyst reports for LRE and Vanguard; and certain internal financial, production and pricing information and forecasts for LRE and Vanguard prepared by the managements of LRE and Vanguard, respectively, as approved for TPH's use by the management of LRE GP (the LRE Forecasts), including certain cost savings synergies projected by the management of LRE GP to result from the LRE Transactions, as approved for TPH's use by the management of LRE GP (the LRE Synergies).

8. TPH also held discussions with members of the senior managements of LRE and Vanguard regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the LRE Transactions and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of LRE and Vanguard, as applicable. In addition, TPH reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the LRE common units and Vanguard common units, compared certain financial and stock market information for LRE and Vanguard with similar financial and stock market information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the upstream energy sector specifically and in the energy industry generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

For purposes of the LRE Opinion, TPH assumed and relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by or for it, or publicly available. In that regard, TPH assumed with the consent of the board of directors of LRE GP that the LRE Forecasts and LRE Synergies described above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of LRE GP and Vanguard, and that such LRE Forecasts and LRE Synergies will be realized in the amounts and time periods contemplated thereby. TPH expressed no view or opinion with respect to such LRE Forecasts or LRE Synergies or the assumptions on which they were based. Further, TPH assumed that the final form of the merger agreement conformed to the last draft reviewed by it in all respects material to its analysis and that the LRE Transactions will be consummated on the terms set forth in the merger agreement without any waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to its analysis. TPH also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents or approvals necessary for the consummation of the LRE Transactions will be obtained without any material adverse effect on LRE, Vanguard, Merger Sub, the other parties to the merger agreement, the unitholders of LRE or the unitholders of Vanguard or the expected benefits of the LRE Transactions in any way meaningful to its analysis. In addition, TPH did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of LRE or any of its subsidiaries or Vanguard or any of its subsidiaries, and TPH was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. TPH did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the LRE Transactions, nor does its opinion address any legal, regulatory or accounting matters.

The LRE Opinion is necessarily based upon economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, April 20, 2015. TPH has assumed no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the LRE Opinion and expressly disclaimed any responsibility to do so based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date of the LRE Opinion.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The estimates contained in TPH's analysis and the results from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or assets neither purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or assets may actually be sold. Accordingly, TPH's analysis and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

In arriving at its opinion, TPH did not attribute any particular weight to any particular analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Several analytical methodologies were employed by TPH in its analyses, and no one single method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached by TPH. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the significance or utility of particular techniques. Accordingly, TPH believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole, and that selecting portions of its analyses and of the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors in their entirety, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. The conclusion reached by TPH, therefore, is based on the application of TPH's own experience and judgment to all analyses and factors considered by TPH, taken as a whole. TPH's opinion was reviewed and approved by its fairness opinion committee.

The LRE Opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received in the merger by the LRE common unitholders pursuant to the merger agreement. TPH's opinion did not address the relative merits of the merger or any of the other LRE Transactions as compared to any alternative transaction that may be available to LRE or Vanguard, nor did it address the underlying business decision of LRE or Vanguard to engage in the merger or any of the other LRE Transactions. TPH did not express any view on, and the LRE Opinion did not address, any other term or aspect of the merger agreement or the LRE Transactions, including, without limitation, (a) the sale of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, (b) the consideration to be received for the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, (c) the fairness of the merger to, or any consideration paid or received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of LRE or Vanguard, whether relative to the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement, the consideration to be received for the limited liability company interests in LRE GP or otherwise, (d) the allocation of any consideration to be paid by Vanguard or its affiliates in the LRE Transactions, (e) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of LRE GP, Vanguard or any other party, or any class of such persons, in connection with the merger and the LRE Transactions, whether relative to the merger consideration to be paid to the LRE common unitholders pursuant to the merger agreement or otherwise, (f) any equity issuances after the date of the LRE Opinion by Vanguard or (g) any voting or other agreement, arrangement or understanding to be entered into in connection with or contemplated by the LRE Transactions, any related transactions or otherwise. TPH did not express any opinion as to the price at which Vanguard common units or LRE common units will trade at any time or as to the impact of the LRE Transactions on the solvency or viability of LRE or Vanguard or the ability of each of LRE or Vanguard to pay its obligations when they become due.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by TPH in connection with the preparation of the LRE Opinion and reviewed with the board of directors of LRE GP on April 20, 2015. Unless the context indicates otherwise, enterprise values and equity values used in the selected companies analysis described below were calculated using the closing price of the LRE common units, Vanguard common units and the equity securities of the selected companies listed below as of April 17, 2015, and transaction values for the selected transactions analysis described below were calculated on an enterprise value basis based on the value of the equity consideration and other public information available at the time of the relevant transaction's announcement. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed, the tables must be considered together with the textual summary of the analyses.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Enterprise Value generally the value as of a specified date of the relevant company's outstanding equity securities (taking into account its options and other outstanding convertible securities) plus the value as of such date of its net debt (the value of its outstanding indebtedness, preferred stock, minority interest and capital lease obligations less the amount of cash and short-term investments on its balance sheet, as applicable);

EBITDA generally the amount of the relevant company's earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization for a specified time period; and Distributable cash flow generally the amount of after-tax cash flow for a specified time period available to be distributed by the relevant company, calculated as EBITDA less maintenance capital expenditures and interest expense.

The LRE Forecasts prepared by the management of LRE GP included a base case of financial projections for 2015 through 2019 as well as a supplemental capital case for 2015 and 2016, which projected reduced capital spending and associated lower results for 2016 than the base case. TPH performed its analyses using the base case.

Summary of TPH's Analysis

Commodity Price Assumptions

New York Mercantile Exchange (NYMEX) Strip Pricing as of April 17, 2015 (Strip 1):

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015 (April to December)	$ 58.05	$ 2.77
2016	$ 62.13	$ 3.11
2017	$ 63.90	$ 3.36
2018	$ 64.83	$ 3.48
2019 and thereafter	$ 65.49	$ 3.58

Research Consensus per Bloomberg (Research Consensus 1):

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015 (April to December)	$ 57.92	$ 3.05
2016	$ 69.00	$ 3.75
2017	$ 72.50	$ 4.25
2018	$ 73.75	$ 4.47
2019 and thereafter	$ 73.75	$ 4.47

Average (rounded)

$ 81.57 $ 5.35

Net Asset Value Analysis

TPH performed an illustrative Net Asset Value analysis of LRE. TPH calculated the present value of the pre-tax future cash flows that LRE could be expected to generate from its existing base of estimated proved, probable and possible (3P) reserves, in each case, to the end of their economic life, as of March 31, 2015, contained in the LRE Management 3P Reserve Estimates. In performing this analysis, TPH applied discount rates ranging from 8% to 10% to the projected cash flows. TPH estimated Net Asset Value as the sum of (i) the present value of the cash flows generated by these estimated 3P reserves plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash). The commodity prices utilized to derive the cash flows through 2019 were based on (i) Strip 1, (ii) Research Consensus 1 and (iii) Ten-Year

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Average 1 prices. The commodity prices utilized to derive cash flows in 2019 and beyond were based on 2019 commodity prices. Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities applied to the Net Asset Value calculation for 3P reserves resulted in an implied LRE valuation range of $2.27 to $11.24 per unit.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

TPH performed a discounted cash flow analysis of LRE using the LRE Forecasts through 2019. The commodity prices utilized to derive the cash flows were based on (i) Strip 1, (ii) Research Consensus 1 and (iii) Ten-Year Average 1 prices. Terminal values were calculated at December 31, 2018 using a multiple range of 5.0x to 8.0x 2019 estimated EBITDA. In performing this analysis, TPH applied discount rates ranging from 8% to 10% to the pre-tax free cash flows and the terminal value. TPH estimated the common equity value as (i) the present value of the cash flows and terminal value plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash). Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities resulted in an implied LRE valuation range of $(1.14) to $8.22 per unit.

Additionally, TPH performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Vanguard using a methodology generally consistent with that used to calculate the discounted cash flow of LRE using the LRE Forecasts through 2019. TPH estimated the common equity value as the (i) present value of the cash flows and terminal value plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash) and (iv) preferred equity. Terminal values were calculated at December 31, 2018 using a multiple range of 6.0x to 9.0x 2019 estimated EBITDA. Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities resulted in an implied Vanguard valuation range of $(2.24) to $29.05 per unit.

Relative Contribution Analysis

TPH performed an analysis of the relative contributions of LRE and Vanguard to the combined entity resulting from the merger, without giving effect to any synergies, of select business metrics, including:

2015 first quarter daily production and full-year 2015 and 2016 estimated daily production based on the LRE Forecasts; proved reserves based on the LRE 2014 SEC Reserve Report and the Vanguard 2014 SEC Reserve Report;

2014 distributable cash flow and 2015 and 2016 estimated distributable cash flow based on the LRE Forecasts;

2014 EBITDA and 2015 and 2016 estimated EBITDA based on the LRE Forecasts;

2014 unhedged EBITDA and 2015 and 2016 estimated unhedged EBITDA based on the LRE Forecasts;

SEC PV-10 of proved reserves;

discounted cash flows; and 1P Net Asset Value based on the estimated 1P reserves in the LRE Management 3P Reserve Estimates and the Vanguard Management 1P Reserve Estimates.

For commodity price sensitivities, TPH applied (i) Strip 1, (ii) Research Consensus 1 and (iii) Ten-Year Average 1 prices. This contribution analysis implied a range of exchange ratios from 0.173x to 1.178x.

Selected Companies Analysis

TPH reviewed and compared certain financial, operating and stock market information of LRE and Vanguard to corresponding information of selected publicly traded MLPs focused in the upstream oil and gas industry: Atlas Resource Partners, L.P., Breitburn Energy Partners LP, Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P., EV Energy Partners, L.P., Legacy Reserves LP, Linn Energy, LLC, Memorial Production Partners LP and Mid-Con Energy Partners, LP.

For the public trading analysis, select trading multiples were analyzed, including:

enterprise value over 2015 estimated and 2016 estimated EBITDA;
enterprise value over proved reserves;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

enterprise value over first quarter 2015 estimated daily production; enterprise value over 2015 estimated daily production; enterprise value over 2016 estimated daily production; and price over 2015 estimated and 2016 estimated distributable cash flow per unit.

	Range	Median	Merger Consideration
Ratio of Enterprise Value Over:
2015 Estimated EBITDA	5.5x to 9.2x	7.7x	6.7x
2016 Estimated EBITDA	5.1x to 9.2x	7.8x	7.5x
Proved Reserves ($/Mcf)	$1.28 to $2.74	$1.95	$ 2.61
First Quarter 2015 Estimated Daily Production ($/Mcf/d)	$7,494 to $14,707	$11,412	$ 13,470
2015 Estimated Daily Production ($/Mcf/d)	$7,018 to $15,138	$11,462	$ 13,609
2016 Estimated Daily Production ($/Mcf/d)	$5,150 to $14,742	$11,191	$ 13,594
Ratio of Unit Price Over:
2015 Estimated DCF/Unit	5.3x to 8.3x	6.8x	5.4x
2016 Estimated DCF/Unit	5.5x to 8.7x	6.9x	7.6x

Selected Transactions Analysis

TPH reviewed certain corporate-level transactions in the upstream energy industry with greater than 90% equity consideration announced since 2010. TPH conducted a comparable transactions analysis to assess how similar transactions were valued.

QR Energy, LP/Breitbart Energy Partners LP (2014)
 Kodiak Oil & Gas Corp./Whiting Petroleum Corporation (2014)
 Pioneer Southwest Energy Partners L.P./Pioneer Natural Resources Company (2013)
 Crimson Exploration Inc./Contango Oil & Gas Company (2013)
 Berry Petroleum Company/Linn Energy, LLC (2013)
 Encore Energy Partners LP/Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC (2011)
 American Oil & Gas Inc./Hess Corporation (2010)
 Arena Resources, Inc./SandRidge Energy, Inc. (2010)

For the selected transactions analysis, select transaction multiples were analyzed including:

the transaction value (defined as the equity purchase price plus assumed net debt, preferred equity and minority interest obligations, if any) over proved reserves;

the transaction value over daily production; and the transaction value over last 12 months, forward year 1 and forward year 2 EBITDA.

The observed multiple ranges from the comparable transaction analysis as compared to the resulting implied transaction multiples resulting from the proposed merger consideration are summarized below:

	Range	Median	Merger Consideration

Edgar Filing: LRR Energy, L.P. - Form DEFM14A

Daily Production ($/Mcf/d)	$8,779 to $29,505	$25,897	$ 13,470
LTM EBITDA	5.6x to 11.9x	9.0x	6.5x
Forward Year 1 EBITDA	4.6x to 10.1x	7.2x	6.7x
Forward Year 2 EBITDA	4.6x to 10.0x	6.7x	7.5x

The Eagle Rock Opinion

In connection with rendering the Eagle Rock Opinion and performing its related financial analysis, TPH reviewed, among other things:

1. a draft of the Eagle Rock merger agreement dated May 21, 2015 and the form of consent of the board of directors of LRE GP with respect thereto, in each case circulated the morning thereof;
 2. the merger agreement;
 3. Annual Reports on Form 10-K for each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock for each of the three years ended December 31, 2014;
 4. certain Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock;
 5. certain other communications from LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock to their respective equity holders; estimated proved oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of December 31, 2014, attributable to Eagle Rock's net interests in certain properties, prepared by Cawley, Gillespie & Associates, Inc. (Eagle Rock 2014 SEC Reserve Report), and estimated proved, probable and possible oil, gas, and natural gas liquids reserves and projected future net revenues as of March 31, 2015, attributable to Eagle Rock's net interests in such properties, prepared by the management of Eagle Rock GP (Eagle Rock Management 3P Reserve Estimates);
 7. the Vanguard 2014 SEC Reserve Report and the Vanguard Management 1P Reserve Estimates;
 8. the LRE 2014 SEC Reserve Report and the LRE Management 3P Reserve Estimates;
 9. certain publicly available research analyst reports for LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock; and certain internal financial, production and pricing information and forecasts for Eagle Rock and New Vanguard (including Vanguard management's most recent projections for New Vanguard, which give pro forma effect to the LRE Transactions as of August 1, 2015), prepared by the managements of Eagle Rock and Vanguard, respectively,
 10. as approved for TPH's use by the management of LRE GP (the Eagle Rock Forecasts), including certain cost savings synergies projected by the management of Vanguard to result from the LRE Transactions and the Eagle Rock Transactions, as approved for TPH's use by the management of LRE GP (the Eagle Rock Synergies).
- TPH also held discussions with members of the senior managements of Vanguard and LRE regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Eagle Rock Transactions and the Consent and with members of the senior management of Eagle Rock and Vanguard regarding the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Eagle Rock and New Vanguard, as applicable. In addition, TPH reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Eagle Rock common units and Vanguard common units, compared certain financial and stock market information for Eagle Rock and Vanguard with similar financial and stock market information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the upstream energy sector specifically and in the energy industry generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

For purposes of the Eagle Rock Opinion, TPH assumed and relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by or for it, or publicly available. In that regard, TPH assumed with the consent of the board of directors of LRE GP that the Eagle Rock Forecasts and Eagle Rock Synergies described above were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of Vanguard and Eagle Rock, and that such Eagle Rock Forecasts and Eagle Rock Synergies will be realized in the amounts and time periods contemplated thereby. TPH expressed no view or opinion with respect to such Eagle Rock Forecasts or Eagle Rock Synergies or the assumptions on which they were based. Further, TPH assumed that the final form of the Eagle Rock merger agreement conformed to the last draft reviewed by it in all respects material to its analysis and that the Eagle

Rock Transactions and the LRE Transactions will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Eagle Rock merger agreement and the merger agreement, respectively, in each case without any waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to its analysis. TPH also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents or approvals necessary for the consummation of the Eagle Rock Transactions and the LRE Transactions will be obtained without any material adverse effect on Eagle Rock, Vanguard or its affiliates, LRE, LRE GP, the unitholders of Eagle Rock, Vanguard or LRE or the expected benefits of the Eagle Rock Transactions and the LRE Transactions in any way meaningful to its analysis. In addition, TPH did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Eagle Rock, Vanguard, LRE or any of their respective subsidiaries, and TPH was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. TPH did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the Eagle Rock Transactions or the LRE Transactions, nor does its opinion address any legal, regulatory or accounting matters.

The Eagle Rock Opinion is necessarily based upon economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, May 21, 2015. TPH has assumed no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the Eagle Rock Opinion and expressly disclaimed any responsibility to do so based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date of the Eagle Rock Opinion.

The estimates contained in TPH's analysis and the results from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or assets neither purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or assets may actually be sold. Accordingly, TPH's analysis and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

In arriving at its opinion, TPH did not attribute any particular weight to any particular analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Several analytical methodologies were employed by TPH in its analyses, and no one single method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached by TPH. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the significance or utility of particular techniques. Accordingly, TPH believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole, and that selecting portions of its analyses and of the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors in their entirety, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. The conclusion reached by TPH, therefore, is based on the application of TPH's own experience and judgment to all analyses and factors considered by TPH, taken as a whole. TPH's opinion was reviewed and approved by its fairness opinion committee.

The Eagle Rock Opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the opinion, of the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be paid by New Vanguard pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement. TPH's opinion did not address the relative merits of the Eagle Rock Transactions or the LRE Transactions as compared to any alternative transaction that may be available to Vanguard, nor did it address the underlying business decision of (i) Vanguard to engage in the Eagle Rock Transactions or the LRE Transactions, (ii) LRE to provide the Consent or (iii) LRE to engage in the LRE Transactions. TPH did not express any view on, and the Eagle Rock Opinion did not address, any other term or aspect of the Eagle Rock merger agreement or the Eagle Rock Transactions, including, without limitation, (a) the fairness of the Eagle Rock Transactions to, or any consideration paid or received in connection therewith by, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Eagle Rock or Vanguard, whether relative to the Eagle Rock merger consideration pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement or otherwise, (b) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Eagle Rock or Vanguard or any other party, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Eagle Rock Transactions, whether relative to the Eagle Rock merger consideration pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement or otherwise, or (c) any voting or similar agreement, arrangement or understanding to be entered into in connection with or contemplated by the Eagle Rock Transactions, any other transactions or otherwise. TPH did not express any view on, and the Eagle Rock Opinion did not address, any term or aspect of the merger agreement or the LRE Transactions. TPH did not express any opinion as to the price at which Vanguard common units or Eagle Rock common units will trade at any time or as to the impact of the Eagle

Rock Transactions and the LRE Transactions on the solvency or viability of Eagle Rock or Vanguard or the ability of each of Eagle Rock or Vanguard to pay its obligations when they become due.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by TPH in connection with the preparation of the Eagle Rock Opinion and reviewed with the board of directors of LRE GP on May 21, 2015. Unless the context indicates otherwise, enterprise values and equity values used in the selected companies analysis described below were calculated using the closing price of the Eagle Rock common units, Vanguard common units and the equity securities of the selected companies listed below as of May 20, 2015, and transaction values for the selected transactions analysis described below were calculated on an enterprise value basis based on the value of the equity consideration and other public information available at the time of the relevant transaction s announcement. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed, the tables must be considered together with the textual summary of the analyses.

For purposes of its analysis, TPH reviewed a number of financial metrics, including enterprise value, EBITDA, and distributable cash flow, each as defined above with respect to the description of the LRE Opinion.

Summary of TPH s Analysis

Commodity Price Assumptions

The commodity price assumptions used by TPH in certain of its analyses are summarized below:

NYMEX Strip Pricing as of May 20, 2015 (Strip 2):

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015 (June to December)	$ 59.53	$ 3.03
2016	$ 62.32	$ 3.24
2017	$ 64.37	$ 3.36
2018	$ 66.02	$ 3.46
2019 and thereafter	$ 67.25	$ 3.55

Research Consensus per Bloomberg (Research Consensus 2):

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015 (June to December)	$ 60.57	$ 3.11
2016	$ 70.00	$ 3.60
2017	$ 73.25	$ 4.13
2018	$ 75.00	$ 4.36

10-Year Historical Monthly Average (Ten-Year Average 2):

	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)

Net Asset Value Analysis

TPH performed an illustrative Net Asset Value analysis of Eagle Rock. TPH calculated the present value of the pre-tax future cash flows that Eagle Rock could be expected to generate from its existing base of estimated 3P reserves, in each case, to the end of their economic life, as of March 31, 2015, contained in the Eagle Rock Management 3P Reserve Estimates. In performing this analysis, TPH applied discount rates ranging from 8% to 10% to the projected cash flows. TPH estimated Net Asset Value as the sum of (i) the present value of the cash flows generated by these estimated 3P reserves plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash and short-term investments). The commodity prices utilized to derive the cash flows through 2019 were based on (i) Strip 2, (ii) Research

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Consensus 2 and (iii) Ten-Year Average 2 prices. The commodity prices utilized to derive cash flows in 2019 and beyond were based on 2019 commodity prices. Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities applied to the Net Asset Value calculation for 3P reserves resulted in an implied Eagle Rock valuation range of $2.71 to $5.21 per unit.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

TPH performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Eagle Rock using the Eagle Rock Forecasts through 2019. The commodity prices utilized to derive the cash flows were based on (i) Strip 2, (ii) Research Consensus 2 and (iii) Ten-Year Average 2 prices. Terminal values were calculated at December 31, 2018 using a multiple range of 4.5x to 6.5x 2019 estimated EBITDA. In performing this analysis, TPH applied discount rates ranging from 8% to 10% to the pre-tax free cash flows and the terminal value. TPH estimated the common equity value as (i) the present value of the cash flows and terminal value plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash and short-term investments). Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities resulted in an implied Eagle Rock valuation range of $1.74 to $6.42 per unit.

Additionally, TPH performed a discounted cash flow analysis of New Vanguard using a methodology generally consistent with that used to calculate the discounted cash flow of Eagle Rock using the Eagle Rock Forecasts through 2019. TPH estimated the common equity value as the (i) present value of the cash flows and terminal value plus (ii) the present value of the future estimated effects of hedging less (iii) net debt (total debt less cash) and (iv) preferred equity. Terminal values were calculated at December 31, 2018 using a multiple range of 6.0x to 9.0x 2019 estimated EBITDA. Taken together, the foregoing sensitivities resulted in an implied Vanguard valuation range of $(2.16) to $26.13 per unit.

Relative Contribution Analysis

TPH performed an analysis of the relative contributions of Eagle Rock and New Vanguard to the combined entity resulting from the Eagle Rock merger, without giving effect to any synergies, of select business metrics, including:

2015 first quarter daily production and 2015 (August – December), 2016 and 2017 estimated daily production based on the Eagle Rock Forecasts; proved reserves based on the Eagle Rock 2014 SEC Reserve Report, for Eagle Rock's contribution, and the Vanguard 2014 SEC Reserve Report and the LRE 2014 SEC Reserve Report, for New Vanguard's contribution;

2014 distributable cash flow and 2015 (August – December), 2016 and 2017 estimated distributable cash flow based on the Eagle Rock Forecasts;

2014 EBITDA and 2015 (August – December), 2016 and 2017 estimated EBITDA based on the Eagle Rock Forecasts;

2014 unhedged EBITDA and 2015 (August – December), 2016 and 2017 estimated unhedged EBITDA based on the Eagle Rock Forecasts;

SEC PV-10 of proved reserves;

discounted cash flows; and

1P Net Asset Value based on the estimated 1P reserves in the Eagle Rock Management 3P Reserve Estimates, for Eagle Rock's contribution, and the estimated 1P reserves in the LRE Management 3P Reserve Estimates and the Vanguard Management 1P Reserve Estimates, for New Vanguard's contribution.

For commodity price sensitivities, TPH applied (i) Strip 2, (ii) Research Consensus 2 and (iii) Ten-Year Average 2 prices. This contribution analysis implied a range of exchange ratios from 0.117x to 1.076x.

TABLE OF CONTENTSSelected Companies Analysis

TPH reviewed and compared certain financial, operating and stock market information of Eagle Rock and New Vanguard to corresponding information of selected publicly traded MLPs focused in the upstream oil and gas industry: Atlas Resource Partners, L.P., Breitburn Energy Partners LP, EV Energy Partners, L.P., Legacy Reserves LP, Linn Energy, LLC, Memorial Production Partners LP and Mid-Con Energy Partners, LP.

For the public trading analysis, select trading multiples were analyzed, including:

enterprise value over fourth quarter annualized 2015 estimated and full-year 2016 estimated EBITDA;
 enterprise value over proved reserves;
 enterprise value over first quarter 2015 daily production;
 enterprise value over 2015 estimated daily production;
 enterprise value over 2016 estimated daily production; and price over fourth quarter 2015 estimated and 2016 estimated distributable cash flow per unit.

	Range	Median	Eagle Rock Merger Consideration
Ratio of Enterprise Value Over:
Fourth Quarter Annualized 2015 Estimated EBITDA	4.9x to 8.5x	7.4x	5.1x

General

TPH, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and other transactions, as well as for estate, corporate and other purposes.

TPH and its affiliates also engage in securities trading and brokerage, private equity and investment management activities, equity research and other financial services, and in the ordinary course of these activities, TPH and its affiliates may from time to time acquire, hold or sell, for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers, (i) equity, debt and other securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of any of the companies that may be involved in the LRE Transactions or the Eagle Rock Transactions, including the parties to the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement, and any of their respective affiliates, and (ii) any currency or commodity that may be involved in the LRE Transactions or the Eagle Rock Transactions and the other matters contemplated by the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement, respectively.

In addition, TPH, its affiliates and certain of their employees, including members of the team performing services in connection with the LRE Transactions and the Eagle Rock Transactions, as well as certain private equity and investment management funds associated or affiliated with TPH or its affiliates in which they may have financial interests, may from time to time acquire, hold or make direct or indirect investments in or otherwise finance a wide variety of companies, including LRE, Vanguard, any of the other companies that may be involved in the LRE Transactions or the Eagle Rock Transactions, including the parties to the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement, other prospective counterparties and any of their respective affiliates.

The board of directors of LRE GP selected TPH to provide financial advice and assistance to the board and to provide a fairness opinion in connection with the merger and the Consent because of TPH's expertise, reputation and familiarity with the oil and gas industry generally and the upstream oil and gas industry specifically and because its investment banking professionals have substantial experience in transactions comparable to the merger and are regularly engaged in the analysis of businesses in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, competitive biddings, private placements and for corporate and other purposes.

TPH has previously performed various investment banking and financial services for the LRE GP conflicts committee and for portfolio companies of certain affiliates of LRE GP for which it has received or may receive compensation. In the past two years, these services included advising Lime Rock Management LP and its portfolio companies in various transactions, including PDC Mountaineer, LLC in a sale transaction with a third party. TPH was also previously engaged by Vanguard in 2014 with respect to a potential acquisition of assets from a third party, for which TPH received compensation. In addition, TPH has previously performed various investment banking and financial services, and is currently providing certain of such services, for affiliates of NGP Energy Capital Management, a private equity firm that indirectly owns a significant minority equity interest in Eagle Rock (NGP), for which TPH has received or may receive compensation. In the past two years, these services included (i) acting as a financial advisor to certain NGP portfolio companies in connection with sales of upstream and midstream assets; (ii) acting as a financial advisor to a public company in which NGP had an interest in connection with an acquisition of upstream assets; (iii) acting as an underwriter for an NGP portfolio company in connection with its initial public offering; and (iv) acting as a financial advisor to an NGP portfolio company in connection with its investigation of strategic alternatives. TPH was also previously engaged by Eagle Rock with respect to an acquisition, for which it received compensation. TPH or its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking or other financial services to parties to the merger agreement, the Eagle Rock merger agreement or any of the other companies involved in the LRE Transactions, the Eagle Rock Transactions or their respective unitholders, members, affiliates or portfolio companies. In connection with such investment banking or other financial services, TPH or its affiliates may receive compensation.

The description set forth above constitutes a summary of the analyses employed and factors considered by TPH in rendering the LRE Opinion and the Eagle Rock Opinion to the board of directors of LRE GP. TPH believes that its analyses in connection with each of the LRE Opinion and the Eagle Rock Opinion must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying each opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex, analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description.

No company or transaction used in the analyses of comparable transactions summarized above is identical or directly comparable to LRE, Vanguard, Eagle Rock or the merger or the Eagle Rock merger. Accordingly, these analyses must take into account differences in the financial and operating characteristics of the selected publicly traded companies and differences in the structure and timing of the selected transactions and other factors that would affect the public trading value and acquisition value of the companies considered.

Pursuant to the terms of the engagement of TPH, TPH received a total of $1.6 million for the rendering of its fairness opinions described above. TPH is entitled to receive additional fees of $3.425 million, contingent upon closing of the LRE Transactions. In addition, LRE has agreed to reimburse TPH for its reasonable out-of-pocket, reasonably documented expenses incurred in connection with the engagement, including fees and disbursements of its legal counsel. LRE has also agreed to indemnify TPH, its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, partners, agents, employees and controlling persons for liabilities arising in connection with or as a result of its rendering of services under its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws or to contribute to payments TPH may be required to make in respect of these liabilities.

TPH's opinions will be made available for inspection and copying at the principal executive offices of LRE during regular business hours by any interested LRE unitholder or such unitholder's representative who has been so designated in writing

Opinions of the Financial Advisor to the LRE GP Conflicts Committee

Opinion Dated April 20, 2015

In connection with Vanguard's merger proposal to LRE, the LRE GP conflicts committee retained Simmons & Company International (Simmons) to provide financial advisory services and render an opinion, if requested, as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by the unaffiliated LRE unitholders in the merger. On April 20, 2015, Simmons rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the LRE GP conflicts committee to the effect that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, that the terms of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement were fair from a financial point of view to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

103

Pursuant to the merger agreement, the merger consideration consists of the right to receive 0.550 Vanguard common units per LRE common unit. Based on Vanguard's closing unit price of $15.72 per unit on April 17, 2015, Simmons calculated the implied value of the unit consideration to be $8.65 per LRE common unit as of that date. In the analyses described below, the term "implied exchange ratio" means an exchange ratio derived by dividing the unit price of LRE common units implied by the various analyses outlined below by Vanguard's common unit price implied by the same analyses as of or for a period ending on the close of business on April 17, 2015.

The full text of Simmons' written opinion, dated April 20, 2015, which sets forth, among other things, certain assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken by Simmons in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex E to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the Simmons opinion set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. LRE unitholders are urged to read the Simmons opinion carefully and in its entirety. Simmons delivered its opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee for the benefit and use of the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. Simmons' opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of interests in LRE should vote or act with respect to the merger or any other matter.

Simmons' opinion and its presentation to the LRE GP conflicts committee were among many factors taken into consideration by the LRE GP conflicts committee in approving the merger agreement and making its recommendation to the board of directors of LRE GP regarding the merger agreement.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Simmons, among other things:

- i. reviewed a draft of the Purchase Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of April 18, 2015;
- ii. reviewed a draft of the Voting and Support Agreement dated as of April 18, 2015;
- iii. reviewed certain publicly available financial statements of each of LRE and Vanguard that Simmons deemed relevant;
- iv. reviewed certain other publicly available business, operating and financial information relating to each of LRE and Vanguard that Simmons deemed relevant;
- v. reviewed certain internal information, including financial and production forecasts and other financial and operating data concerning each of LRE and Vanguard, prepared by the management of each of LRE and Vanguard, respectively;
- vi. reviewed certain estimates of LRE's and Vanguard's oil and gas production and reserves prepared and provided by the management of LRE and Vanguard, respectively, and contained in provided economic databases;
- vii. reviewed certain other information and presentations prepared by the management of LRE and its advisors;
- viii. reviewed publicly available information concerning the trading of, and the trading market for, the securities of LRE and Vanguard;
- ix. reviewed the historical exchange ratio based upon the closing trading prices of the units for both LRE and Vanguard over several time periods, which were then compared to the exchange ratio;
- x. derived a relevant premium range from a list of historical transactions to compute an exchange ratio range which was then compared to the exchange ratio; compared LRE's ownership in the pro forma combined company with the relative contribution of LRE to the pro forma combined company based upon certain metrics that Simmons deemed relevant, which were then used to derive an implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the exchange ratio; derived a net asset value range for both LRE and Vanguard by discounting future cash flows derived from LRE and Vanguard economic databases at discount rates which Simmons deemed appropriate, and used the net asset value ranges to derive an implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the exchange ratio;

derived a unit value range based on the trading valuations of certain publicly traded partnerships in the oil and gas exploration and production sector for both LRE and Vanguard, and used these unit value ranges to derive an implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the exchange ratio;

reviewed the range of Wall Street analyst price targets for both LRE and Vanguard, and used such price targets to derive an implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the exchange ratio; and reviewed the financial metrics of certain historical corporate transactions in the oil and gas exploration and production sector, and applied such financial metrics to LRE's projected results to compute an exchange ratio which was then compared to the exchange ratio.

In addition, Simmons held discussions with certain officers and employees of LRE and Vanguard to discuss the foregoing, as well as other matters believed to be relevant to its analysis, and considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations, and financial, economic, and market criteria which it deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Simmons did not independently verify any of the foregoing information and relied on it being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to production and financial forecasts, Simmons assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of LRE's and Vanguard's management as to the future financial and operational performance of LRE and Vanguard, respectively. In rendering its opinion, Simmons assumed that the execution version of the merger agreement was substantially the same as the draft dated April 18, 2015 that Simmons reviewed and that the merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement without any waiver, amendment or delay of any material terms or conditions. Simmons assumed that in connection with the receipt of all necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required for the merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the receipt of the merger consideration by the unitholders of LRE. Simmons is not a legal, tax or regulatory advisor and has relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of LRE and its legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to such matters. Simmons did not conduct any tax analysis, and Simmons assumed, with the conflict committee's consent, that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Simmons expressed no opinion as to the price at which LRE common units or Vanguard common units will trade at any time. In addition, Simmons was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of LRE or Vanguard. Simmons was not requested to, and did not, solicit indications of interest or proposals from third parties regarding a possible acquisition of all or any part of LRE or any alternative transaction.

The opinion speaks only as of the date and the time it was delivered and not as of the time the merger may be consummated. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after April 20, 2015, which could significantly alter the value of LRE or Vanguard or the respective trading prices of their common units, which are factors on which Simmons' opinion was based. Simmons' opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on, and on the information made available at April 20, 2015. Events occurring after April 20, 2015 may affect Simmons' opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Simmons has disclaimed and does not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion, including with respect to circumstances, developments or events that occur after the rendering of its opinion.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Simmons' opinion was provided for the information and assistance of the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its consideration of the merger. Simmons' opinion did not address LRE's underlying business decision to pursue the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available for LRE. Simmons' opinion did not address the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of LRE's or Vanguard's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public unitholders of LRE. Simmons' opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any unitholder as to how such unitholder should vote on the merger.

The following represents a summary of the material financial analyses presented by Simmons to the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its opinion. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Simmons. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Simmons. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Simmons' financial analyses. Considering the summary data and tables alone without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Simmons.

Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before April 17, 2015 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. For purposes of its analysis, Simmons defined (i) EBITDA as net income plus or minus income taxes, interest expense (less interest income), depreciation, depletion and amortization expense, impairment of oil and natural gas properties, net loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, and commodity derivative net cash settlements, and (ii) EBITDAX as net income plus or minus income taxes, interest expense (less interest income), depreciation, depletion, amortization and exploration expense, impairment of oil and natural gas properties, net loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, and commodity derivative net cash settlements. Based on these definitions, the difference between EBITDA and EBITDAX is the addition of exploration expense for those companies that record it. For those companies that record little or no exploration expense, such as LRR, Vanguard, Eagle Rock and many of their MLP peers, EBITDA and EBITDAX result in the same figures and Simmons believes the definitions can be used interchangeably. The financial forecasts prepared by LRE and provided to Simmons included both a base capital case for the years 2015 through 2019, and a reduced capital case for the years 2015 and 2016, which projected reduced capital spending for LRE in 2016 and a reduction in LRE's 2016 revenue and EBITDA. In conducting the financial analysis described below, Simmons used the reduced capital case provided by LRE. Simmons' opinion was reviewed and approved by its fairness opinion committee.

Commodity Price Assumptions

Simmons utilized two commodity price assumptions in certain of its analyses: (1) NYMEX calendar strip prices as of April 17, 2015 (and utilizing historical actual commodity prices for the period prior to April 17, 2015), and (2) research analyst consensus commodity pricing per Bloomberg as of April 17, 2015. The commodity price assumptions utilized in Simmons' analyses were as follow:

NYMEX Strip Prices:

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas
------	---------------------	---------------

Edgar Filing: LRR Energy, L.P. - Form DEFM14A

		(per MMBtu)
2015	$ 56.02	$ 2.80
2016	$ 62.30	$ 3.11
2017	$ 63.92	$ 3.36
2018	$ 64.90	$ 3.48
2019 and Thereafter	$ 65.50	$ 3.58

Research Consensus Prices per Bloomberg:

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015	$ 55.00	$ 3.09
2016	$ 69.00	$ 3.75
2017	$ 72.50	$ 4.25

Historical Unit Price Exchange Ratio Analysis

Simmons reviewed the historical daily ratio of the closing price of LRE common units to the closing price of Vanguard common units over several time periods, and compared those ratios to the exchange ratio in the merger consideration to be received by LRE unitholders. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

Time Period	Implied Exchange Ratio
Spot (April 17, 2015)	0.496x
10-Day Average	0.486x
30-Day Average	0.469x
90-Day Average	0.463x

These results provide an implied exchange ratio range of 0.463x to 0.496x, which was compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

Premiums Paid AnalysesMLP-to-MLP Transactions Premiums Analysis

Simmons performed an analysis of the premiums paid in precedent MLP-to-MLP business combinations since January 1, 2010, which included MLPs in both the midstream sector and in the upstream oil & gas sector. Although Simmons analyzed the premiums implied by the selected transactions, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical to the merger or to LRE or Vanguard.

Using publicly available information at the time of the announcement of the relevant transaction, including company filings and third-party transaction databases, Simmons reviewed the consideration paid in the transactions and analyzed the premium of each such transaction over the trading price on the last trading day and the average trading price over the 30 days and 60 days before the announcement of the applicable transaction.

The following table identifies the twelve MLP-to-MLP transactions reviewed by Simmons in this analysis:

Announcement Date	Target	Acquiror
11/12/2014	Oiltanking Partners, L.P.	Enterprise Products Partners L.P.

Edgar Filing: LRR Energy, L.P. - Form DEFM14A

10/26/2014	Williams Partners L.P.	Access Midstream Partners, L.P.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The implied premiums derived from the MLP-to-MLP transactions listed above are summarized below, and were compared to the premiums over the same applicable time periods that were implied by the value of the merger consideration to be received by LRE unitholders:

	1-Day Premium	30-Day Premium	60-Day Premium
High	35 %	34 %	35 %
Median	10 %	16 %	21 %
Low	4 %	3 %	1 %

U.S. Upstream Oil & Gas Corporate Transactions Premiums Analysis

Simmons reviewed publicly available data from nineteen transactions involving U.S. listed target companies since 2010 in the upstream oil & gas sector, which transactions included both MLP targets and C-corporation targets. Within this set of transactions, Simmons focused its analysis on the eight transactions where the merger consideration consisted entirely of equity in the acquirer due to Simmons deeming those to be most comparable to the merger. For those transactions, Simmons analyzed the premium of each such transaction over the trading price on the last trading day and the average trading price over the 30 days and 60 days before the announcement of the applicable transaction.

The following table identifies the eight U.S. upstream oil & gas corporate transactions reviewed by Simmons in this analysis:

Announcement Date	Target	Acquiror
7/24/2014	QR Energy, LP	Breitburn Energy Partners L.P.
7/13/2014	Kodiak Oil & Gas Corp.	Whiting Petroleum Corporation
4/30/2013	Crimson Exploration Inc.	Contango Oil & Gas Co.
5/7/2013	Pioneer Southwest Energy Partners L.P.	Pioneer Natural Resources USA, Inc.
2/21/2013	Berry Petroleum Co., LLC	Linn Energy, LLC
3/25/2011	Encore Energy Partners LP	Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC
1/19/2011	Nuloch Resources, Inc.	Magnum Hunter Resources Corporation
7/27/2010	American Oil & Gas Inc.	Hess Corporation

The implied premiums derived from the U.S. oil & gas upstream corporate transactions listed above are summarized below, and were compared to the premiums over the same applicable time periods that were implied by the value of the merger consideration to be received by LRE unitholders:

	1-Day Premium	30-Day Premium	60-Day Premium
High	23 %	28 %	34 %
Median	14 %	18 %	18 %
Low	(2)%	(2)%	3 %
Merger Consideration	11 %	25 %	20 %

Based upon the analysis of MLP-to-MLP transactions and U.S. upstream oil & gas corporate transactions above, Simmons used a range of a 10% to 25% premium to LRE's 30-day average price to derive an implied value range of $7.64 to $8.68 per LRE unit. Simmons then compared the implied value range to Vanguard's unit price of $15.72 as of April 17, 2015 to derive an implied exchange ratio range of 0.486x to 0.552x. These metrics were compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

Contribution Analysis

Simmons examined the implied contribution of each of LRE and Vanguard to the combined entity's financial and operating statistics, including: (1) distributable cash flow and EBITDAX for the years 2015 and 2016, in each case using projections derived from LRE's and Vanguard's management forecasts and adjusted for NYMEX Strip Prices and Bloomberg Consensus Prices as of April 17, 2015; (2) fourth quarter 2014 actual production and 2015 and 2016 estimated production derived from LRE's and Vanguard's management forecasts (assuming 6:1 oil-to-gas energy equivalent ratio); (3) proved and proved developed reserves as of year-end 2014 estimated by LRE and Vanguard management and contained in provided economic databases (assuming 6:1 oil-to-gas energy equivalent ratio); and (4) proved and proved developed PV-10 derived from the LRE and Vanguard management estimates per the provided economic databases and assuming NYMEX Strip Prices as of April 17, 2015. For the analyses utilizing 2015 and 2016 EBITDAX estimates, Simmons examined the relative contribution both including LRE's and Vanguard's hedge positions and adjusted to exclude LRE's and Vanguard's hedge positions.

Simmons derived the implied exchange ratio for unitholders of LRE and Vanguard for each metric based on their relative contributions of LRE and Vanguard to each metric for the combined company, and then made appropriate adjustments for each of LRE's and Vanguard's net debt and units outstanding. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

	Contribution from LRE		Contribution from Vanguard		Implied Exchange Ratio
EBITDAX including Hedges (Strip Prices)
2015P	18 %		82 %		1.152x
2016P	13 %		87 %		0.576x
EBITDAX excluding Hedges (Strip Prices)
2015P	13 %		87 %		0.650x
2016P	11 %		89 %		0.518x
EBITDAX including Hedges (Consensus Prices)
2015P	17 %		83 %		1.132x
2016P	12 %		88 %		0.490x
EBITDAX excluding Hedges (Consensus Prices)
2015P	12 %		88 %		0.595x
2016P	11 %		89 %		0.483x
Production
Fourth Quarter 2014	9 %		91 %		0.164x
2015P	9 %		91 %		0.195x
2016P	9 %		91 %		0.145x
Proved Reserves (Bcfe)
Proved	9 %		91 %		0.164x
Proved Developed	11 %		89 %		0.367x
Proved PV-10
Proved	11 %		89 %		0.389x
Proved Developed	13 %		87 %		0.568x
Distributable Cash Flow
2015P	24 %		76 %		0.950x
2016P	15 %		85 %		0.526x

Simmons calculated the summary statistics for the implied exchange ratio for the above ratios excluding those ratios derived from production and proved reserves operational metrics, which were deemed less relevant than financial metrics such as EBITDAX, PV-10 and distributable cash flow due to the differences in LRE and Vanguard's relative weighting of their asset bases to natural gas versus oil and natural gas liquids. Excluding the production and proved reserve metrics, the above analysis resulted in a minimum exchange ratio of 0.389x, a maximum of 1.152x and a median of 0.572x. From this total range, Simmons used a range of 0.389x to 0.650x, which excludes those results that are based on 2015E EBITDAX and Distributable Cash Flow when including LRE and Vanguard's hedge positions due to the large non-recurring impact of those hedge positions in 2015. This range was compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

TABLE OF CONTENTSProved Net Asset Value Analysis

Simmons performed an illustrative proved net asset value analysis for LRE and Vanguard. Simmons calculated the present value of the future cash flows that LRE and Vanguard could be expected to generate from their existing estimated proved reserves as of year-end 2014, as estimated by the management of LRE and Vanguard and contained in provided economic databases. Simmons estimated Net Asset Value by adding (i) the present value of the cash flows generated by these estimated proved reserves, plus (ii) the present value of existing hedges, less (iii) the present value of projected general & administrative expenses, less (iv) other corporate adjustments including net debt (total debt less cash) and preferred equity. All cash flows were discounted at rates of 8% and 10%. The proved net asset value analysis was performed assuming both NYMEX Strip Pricing and Bloomberg Consensus Pricing as of April 17, 2015.

The ratio of proved net asset value per unit for both LRE and Vanguard resulted in an implied exchange ratio range of 0.317x to 0.374x. These metrics were compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

Comparable Company Analyses

Simmons examined the trading valuations of certain publicly traded partnerships in the upstream oil & gas exploration and production sector and derived a unit value range for each of LRE and Vanguard. The upstream MLP companies included in the analysis are as follows:

Atlas Resource Partners, LP
Breitburn Energy Partners L.P.
EV Energy Partners, L.P.
Legacy Reserves LP
Linn Energy, LLC
Mid-Con Energy Partners, LP
Memorial Production Partners LP

For each of the companies selected, Simmons reviewed the ratio of unit price to distributable cash flow per unit (DCFPU) and enterprise value, which was calculated as equity value based on closing unit prices on April 17, 2015, plus book value of debt and liquidation value of preferred equity, less cash and cash equivalents, as a multiple of estimated EBITDAX in calendar years 2015 and 2016, and as a multiple of 2014 SEC PV-10. The EBITDAX projections for this analysis were derived from Wall Street consensus forecast estimates as well as LRE's and Vanguard's management forecasts adjusted for Bloomberg Consensus Commodity Prices. The 2014 SEC PV-10 estimates utilized were those included in year-end 2014 SEC filings. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

	Range		Median
Ratio of Unit Price To:
2015P DCFPU	5.1x	8.6x	6.9x
2016P DCFPU	5.0x	13.8x	8.1x
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
2015P EBITDAX	5.2x	9.2x	7.8x
2016P EBITDAX	6.5x	8.9x	7.5x
2014 SEC PV-10	0.6x	1.4x	1.2x

Following these analyses, Simmons applied certain forward-looking comparable company trading multiples to Wall Street consensus DCF per unit, and both Wall Street consensus forecast estimates and management forecasts applying Bloomberg Consensus Commodity Pricing for LRE's and Vanguard's estimated 2015 and 2016 EBITDAX, as well as to 2014 SEC PV-10 estimates utilized in LRE's and Vanguard's year-end 2014 SEC filings. A summary of this analysis is set forth below.

	Reference Range		Implied Exchange Ratio
Ratio of Equity Value To:
2015P DCFPU	6.0x	8.0x	0.976x	0.976x
2016P DCFPU	7.0x	9.0x	0.724x	0.724x
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
Wall Street Consensus
2015P EBITDAX	7.0x	9.0x	1.596x	0.990x
2016P EBITDAX	6.5x	8.5x	1.430x	0.831x
Management with Consensus Pricing
2015P EBITDAX	7.0x	9.0x	1.863x	1.092x
2016P EBITDAX	6.5x	8.5x	0.542x	0.468x
2014 SEC PV-10	1.1x	1.4x	0.559x	0.511x

Analyst Price Target Analysis

Simmons determined a range of Wall Street price targets for each of LRE and Vanguard based on the mean, median, low and high targets of the analysts considered. A summary of this analysis is set forth below.

Price Target	LRE	Vanguard	Implied Exchange Ratio
High	$ 10.00	$ 25.00	0.400x
Median	$ 8.00	$ 17.50	0.457x
Mean	$ 7.80	$ 17.58	0.444x
Low	$ 5.00	$ 13.00	0.385x

These results provide an implied exchange ratio range of 0.385x to 0.457x, which was compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

Comparable Transactions Analysis

Simmons reviewed publicly available data from thirteen transactions involving U.S. listed target companies since 2010 in the upstream oil & gas sector where a significant component of the consideration consisted of stock of the acquiror. For these transactions, Simmons analyzed the transaction value at the time of the announcement as a ratio of estimated EBITDA for the current year in which the transaction was announced and the future year after the transaction was announced. EBITDA estimates were based on Wall Street analyst consensus estimates for the target companies as of the time of the transaction announcements.

4/15/2010	Mariner Energy, Inc.	Apache Corp.
4/4/2010	Arena Resources Inc.	Sandridge Energy, Inc.

Based on the transactions listed above, Simmons derived a transaction value to EBITDA ratio range of 4.8x to 10.1x with a median value of 7.5x for the current year EBITDA estimates, and 4.4x to 8.5x with a median value of 5.7x for the future year EBITDA estimates. Simmons applied a selected range of EBITDA multiples to LRE's EBITDA for the years 2015 and 2016 using projections derived from LRE's management forecasts and adjusted for NYMEX Strip Prices, and to LRE's 2015 and 2016 EBITDA estimates using Wall Street consensus estimates. Simmons then made adjustments for LRE's net debt and units outstanding to derive an implied equity value per unit:

	Reference Range	Implied LRE Equity Value Per Unit
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
Management with NYMEX Pricing
2015P EBITDA	6.0x 9.0x	$ 6.94 $15.52
2016P EBITDA	5.0x 7.0x	N/A $3.96

2015P EBITDA	6.0x 9.0x	$ 6.22 $14.44
2016P EBITDA	5.0x 7.0x	$ 2.59 $7.71

Simmons divided the implied LRE equity values per unit calculated above by Vanguard's closing price on April 17, 2015 of $15.72 per unit to derive a range of implied exchange ratios of 0.165x to 0.987x, with a median of 0.441x. From this total range, Simmons used a range of 0.252x to 0.491x, which excludes results based on 2015E estimates due to the non-recurring hedge component. This range was compared to the exchange ratio of 0.550x.

Other Factors

Simmons analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger on the distributable cash flow per unit attributable to LRE common unitholders for 2015 and 2016 assuming a January 1, 2015 close date and using projections for each year derived from LRE and Vanguard's management forecast adjusted for NYMEX strip pricing and Bloomberg Consensus pricing and incorporating estimated interest expense savings and LRE management's estimate of general and administrative expense savings to be realized from the merger. That analysis indicated that, under both NYMEX strip and Bloomberg Consensus pricing, the transaction would be dilutive on a pro forma basis to the distributable cash flow per unit attributable to LRE common unitholders in 2015 and accretive in 2016.

General

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Simmons, but simply describes, in summary form, the material analyses that Simmons conducted in connection with rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytic methods employed and the adaptation and application of those methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Simmons's opinion nor the analyses underlying its opinion are readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Simmons arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, analytic method or factor. Accordingly, Simmons believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, analytic methods and factors, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Simmons based its analyses on assumptions that it deemed reasonable, including assumptions concerning general business and economic conditions and industry-specific factors. Analyses based on forecasts or projections of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their advisors. Accordingly, Simmons' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results that might be achieved, which values may be higher or lower than those indicated or implied. The implied exchange ratio reference ranges indicated by Simmons' analyses are illustrative and not necessarily indicative of actual values nor predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. Moreover, Simmons' analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. In addition, no company or transaction used in Simmons' analysis as a comparison is directly comparable to LRE or Vanguard or the contemplated merger. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of LRE or Simmons or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasts or projections.

Simmons' opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by the LRE GP conflicts committee in making its determination to recommend the merger and should not be considered determinative of the views of the LRE GP conflicts committee or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

No company or transaction used in the analyses of comparable transactions summarized above is identical or directly comparable to LRE, Vanguard, or the merger. Accordingly, these analyses must take into account differences in the financial and operating characteristics of the selected publicly traded companies and differences in the structure and timing of the selected transactions and other factors that would affect the public trading value and acquisition value of the companies considered.

The financial terms of the merger were determined through arms-length negotiations between LRE and Vanguard and were approved by each of them, and Simmons did not recommend any specific financial terms for the merger consideration to the LRE GP conflicts committee or assert that any specific financial terms of the merger constituted the only appropriate financial terms of the merger consideration.

Simmons was selected by the LRE GP conflicts committee based on Simmons' qualifications, expertise and reputation.

Simmons is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that specializes in the energy industry and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements. In the ordinary course of its business, Simmons may trade the securities of LRE and Vanguard for its own account and for the accounts of customers and may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Pursuant to the terms of the LRE GP conflicts committee's engagement of Simmons, LRE agreed to pay Simmons an initial advisory fee of $450,000 payable on the date of engagement, and an additional fee of $450,000 payable upon Simmons' delivery of its fairness opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee. In addition, LRE agreed to reimburse Simmons for its reasonably incurred out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement, including fees and disbursements of its legal counsel. LRE also agreed to indemnify Simmons, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, agents, employees and controlling persons for liabilities related to or arising out of Simmons' engagement or its role in connection therewith, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, or to contribute to payments Simmons may be required to make in respect of these liabilities.

In the past two years, (i) Simmons' oil field services and equipment group has advised a portfolio company of Lime Rock Partners, an affiliate of Lime Rock Management LP, in connection with a previous, unrelated transaction for which Simmons received aggregate compensation of approximately $0.9 million, and (ii) Simmons, through the oil field services and equipment group of its subsidiary Simmons & Company International Limited, also advised on a separate, unrelated transaction for a portfolio company of Lime Rock Partners for which Simmons received aggregate compensation of approximately $1.8 million. The aggregate compensation received by Simmons in connection with these transactions was not material to Simmons. Simmons is currently advising a portfolio company of Lime Rock Partners in connection with an unrelated transaction, for which it has received approximately $75,000 in compensation to date and will be entitled to receive additional customary compensation if a transaction is ultimately consummated. Simmons and its affiliates may provide investment banking or other financial services to LRE, Vanguard, Lime Rock Management or their respective shareholders, affiliates or portfolio companies in the future. In connection with such investment banking or other financial services, Simmons or its affiliates, as applicable, may receive compensation.

Opinion Dated May 20, 2015

In connection with Vanguard's proposal to Eagle Rock with respect to the Eagle Rock merger, the LRE GP conflicts committee retained Simmons to provide financial advisory services and render an opinion, if requested, as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the terms of the Eagle Rock merger to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders. On May 20, 2015, Simmons rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the LRE GP conflicts committee to the effect that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in its opinion, that the terms of the Eagle Rock merger contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement were fair from a financial point of view to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders.

Pursuant to the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the consideration to be received by Eagle Rock common unitholders consists of the right to receive 0.185 Vanguard common units per Eagle Rock common unit (the Eagle Rock merger consideration), and such ratio, the Eagle Rock exchange ratio). Based on Vanguard's closing unit price of $15.79 per unit on May 19, 2015, Simmons calculated the implied value of the unit consideration to be $2.92 per Eagle Rock common unit as of that date. In the analyses described below, the term Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio means an exchange ratio derived by dividing the unit price of Eagle Rock common units implied by the various analyses outlined below by Vanguard's common unit price implied by the same analyses as of or for a period ending on the close of business on May 19, 2015.

The full text of Simmons' written opinion, dated May 20, 2015, which sets forth, among other things, certain assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken by Simmons in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex F to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the Simmons opinion set forth in this document is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. LRE unitholders are urged to read the Simmons opinion carefully and in its entirety. Simmons delivered its opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee for the benefit and use of the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the Eagle Rock merger consideration from a financial point of view to the unaffiliated LRE unitholders in connection with its determination of whether to consent to the Eagle Rock merger. Simmons opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of interests in LRE should vote or act with respect to the merger or any other matter.

Simmons' opinion and its presentation to the LRE GP conflicts committee were among many factors taken into consideration by the LRE GP conflicts committee in consenting to the Eagle Rock merger agreement and making its recommendation to the Board of Directors of the general partner of LRE regarding the Eagle Rock merger.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Simmons, among other things:

- i. reviewed a draft of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of May 19, 2015;
- ii. reviewed a draft of the Letter Agreement regarding Written Consent to the Proposed Merger Transaction as of May 19, 2015;
- iii. reviewed certain publicly available financial statements of each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock that Simmons deemed relevant;

iv. reviewed certain other publicly available business, operating and financial information relating to each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock that Simmons deemed relevant;

114

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- reviewed certain internal information, including financial and production forecasts and other financial and operating data concerning each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock, prepared by the management of each of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock, respectively;
- reviewed certain estimates of LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's oil and gas production and reserves prepared and provided by the management of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock, respectively, and contained in provided economic databases;
- reviewed certain other information and presentations prepared by the management of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock and certain of their advisors;
- reviewed publicly available information concerning the trading of, and the trading market for, the securities of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock;
- reviewed the historical exchange ratio based upon the closing trading prices of the units for both Vanguard and Eagle Rock over several time periods, which were then compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio;
- derived a relevant premium range from a list of historical transactions to compute an exchange ratio range which was then compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio;
- compared the ownership of Vanguard, pro forma for its merger with LRE (Pro Forma Vanguard), in the combined company pro forma for the subsequent Eagle Rock merger (the Pro Forma Combined Entity) with the relative contribution of Pro Forma Vanguard to the Pro Forma Combined Entity based upon certain metrics that Simmons deemed relevant, which were then used to derive an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio;
- derived a net asset value range for both Pro Forma Vanguard and Eagle Rock by discounting future cash flows derived from the LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock economic databases at discount rates which Simmons deemed appropriate, and used the net asset value ranges to derive an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio;
- derived a unit value range based on the trading valuations of certain publicly traded partnerships in the oil and gas exploration and production sector for both Pro Forma Vanguard and Eagle Rock, and used these unit value ranges to derive an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio;
- reviewed the range of Wall Street analyst price targets for both Vanguard and Eagle Rock, and used such price targets to derive an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio; and
- reviewed the financial metrics of certain historical corporate transactions in the oil and gas exploration and production sector, and applied such financial metrics to Eagle Rock's projected results to compute an exchange ratio which was then compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio.
- In addition, Simmons held discussions with certain officers and employees of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock to discuss the foregoing, as well as other matters believed to be relevant to its analysis and considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations, and financial, economic, and market criteria which it deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Simmons did not independently verify any of the foregoing information and relied on its being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to production and financial forecasts, Simmons assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's management as to the future financial and operational performance of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock, respectively. In rendering its opinion, Simmons assumed that the execution version of the Agreement and Plan of Merger was substantially the same as the draft dated May 19, 2015 that Simmons reviewed and that the Eagle Rock merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger without any waiver, amendment or delay of any material terms or conditions. Simmons assumed that in connection with the receipt of all necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required for the Eagle Rock merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the closing of either the LRE merger with Vanguard or the Vanguard merger with Eagle Rock. Simmons is not a legal, tax or regulatory advisor and has relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of LRE and its legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to such matters. Simmons did not conduct any tax analysis, and Simmons assumed, with the LRE GP conflicts committees consent, that the Eagle Rock merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Simmons expressed no opinion as to the price at which LRE common units, Vanguard common units or Eagle Rock common units will trade at any time. In addition, Simmons was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock. Simmons was not requested to, and did not, solicit indications of interest or proposals from third parties regarding a possible acquisition of all or any part of LRE or any alternative transaction.

The opinion speaks only as of the date and the time it was delivered and not as of the time the Eagle Rock merger may be consummated. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after May 20, 2015, which could significantly alter the value of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock or the respective trading prices of their common units, which are factors on which Simmons opinion was based. Simmons opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on, and on the information made available at May 20, 2015.

Events occurring after May 20, 2015 may affect Simmons opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Simmons has disclaimed and does not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion, including with respect to circumstances, developments or events that occur after the rendering of its opinion.

Simmons opinion was provided for the information and assistance of the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its consideration of whether to consent to the Eagle Rock merger. Simmons opinion did not address LRE's underlying business decision to consent to the Eagle Rock merger or the relative merits of the Eagle Rock merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available for LRE. Simmons opinion did not address the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of LRE's, Vanguard's or Eagle Rock's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public unitholders of LRE. Simmons opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any unitholder as to how such unitholder should vote on the merger or the Eagle Rock merger.

The following represents a summary of the material financial analyses presented by Simmons to the LRE GP conflicts committee in connection with its opinion. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Simmons. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Simmons. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Simmons financial analyses. Considering the summary data and tables alone without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Simmons.

Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before May 19, 2015 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. For purposes of its analysis, Simmons defined (i) EBITDA as net income plus or minus income taxes, interest expense (less interest income), depreciation, depletion and amortization expense, impairment of oil and natural gas properties, net loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, and commodity derivative net cash settlements, and (ii) EBITDAX as net income plus or minus income taxes, interest expense (less interest income), depreciation, depletion, amortization and exploration expense, impairment of oil and natural gas properties, net loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, and commodity derivative net cash settlements. Based on these definitions, the difference between EBITDA and EBITDAX is the addition of exploration expense for those companies that record it. For those companies that record little or no exploration expense, such as LRR, Vanguard, Eagle Rock and many of their MLP peers, EBITDA and EBITDAX result in the same figures and Simmons believes the definitions can be used interchangeably. Simmons' opinion was reviewed and approved by its fairness opinion committee.

TABLE OF CONTENTSCommodity Price Assumptions

Simmons utilized two commodity price assumptions in certain of its analyses: (1) NYMEX calendar strip prices as of May 18, 2015 (and utilizing historical actual commodity prices for the period prior to May 18, 2015), and (2) research analyst consensus commodity pricing per Bloomberg as of May 18, 2015. The commodity price assumptions utilized in Simmons analyses were as follow:

NYMEX Strip Prices:

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015	$ 59.97	$ 3.03
2016	$ 63.20	$ 3.27
2017	$ 65.16	$ 3.37
2018	$ 66.68	$ 3.47
2019 and Thereafter	$ 67.65	$ 3.56

Research Consensus Prices per Bloomberg:

Year	WTI Crude (per Bbl)	Henry Hub Gas (per MMBtu)
2015	$ 59.00	$ 3.01
2016	$ 70.00	$ 3.60
2017	$ 73.25	$ 4.13
2018 and Thereafter	$ 75.00	$ 4.36

Historical Unit Price Exchange Ratio Analysis

Simmons reviewed the historical daily ratio of the closing price of Eagle Rock common units to the closing price of Vanguard common units over several time periods, and compared those ratios to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio in the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be received by Eagle Rock unitholders. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

Time Period	Implied Exchange Ratio
Spot (May 19, 2015)	0.153x
10-Day Average	0.150x
30-Day Average	0.151x
90-Day Average	0.157x

These results provide an implied exchange ratio range of 0.150x to 0.157x, which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Premiums Paid Analyses

MLP-to-MLP Transactions Premiums Analysis

Simmons performed an analysis of the premiums paid in precedent MLP-to-MLP business combinations since January 1, 2010, which included MLPs in both the midstream sector and in the upstream oil & gas sector. Although Simmons analyzed the premiums implied by the selected transactions, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical to the Eagle Rock merger or to Eagle Rock or Vanguard.

Using publicly available information at the time of the announcement of the relevant transaction, including company filings and third-party transaction databases, Simmons reviewed the consideration paid in the transactions and analyzed the premium of each such transaction over the trading price on the last trading day and the average trading price over the 30 days and 60 days before the announcement of the applicable transaction.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The following table identifies the fourteen MLP-to-MLP transactions reviewed by Simmons in this analysis:

The implied premiums derived from the MLP-to-MLP transactions listed above are summarized below, and were compared to the premiums over the same applicable time periods that were implied by the value of the Eagle Rock merger consideration to be received by Eagle Rock unitholders:

	1-Day Premium	30-Day Premium	60-Day Premium
High	35 %	34 %	35 %
Median	12 %	16 %	21 %
Low	4 %	3 %	1 %
Eagle Rock Merger Consideration	21 %	18 %	19 %

U.S. Upstream Oil & Gas Corporate Transactions Premiums Analysis

Simmons reviewed publicly available data from twenty-one transactions involving U.S. listed target companies since 2010 in the upstream oil & gas sector, which transactions included both MLP targets and C-corporation targets. Within this set of transactions, Simmons focused its analysis on the ten transactions where the merger consideration consisted entirely of equity in the acquirer due to Simmons deeming those to be most comparable to the Eagle Rock merger. For those transactions, Simmons analyzed the premium of each such transaction over the trading price on the last trading day and the average trading price over the 30 days and 60 days before the announcement of the applicable transaction.

The following table identifies the ten U.S. Upstream Oil & Gas Corporate transactions reviewed by Simmons in this analysis:

Low	(2 %)	(2 %)	3 %
Eagle Rock Merger Consideration	21 %	18 %	19 %

Based upon the analysis of MLP-to-MLP transactions and U.S. Upstream Oil & Gas Corporate transactions above, Simmons used a range of a 10% to 25% premium to Eagle Rock's 30-day average price to derive an implied value range of $2.71 to $3.08 per Eagle Rock unit. Simmons then compared the implied value range to Vanguard's unit price of $15.79 as of May 19, 2015 to derive an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range of 0.172x to 0.195x. These metrics were compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Contribution Analysis

Simmons examined the implied contribution of each of Pro Forma Vanguard and Eagle Rock to the Pro Forma Combined Entity's financial and operating statistics, including: (1) distributable cash flow and EBITDA for the years 2015 and 2016, in each case using projections derived from LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's management forecasts and adjusted for NYMEX Strip Prices and Bloomberg Consensus Prices as of May 18, 2015; (2) first quarter 2015 actual production and full year 2015 and 2016 estimated production derived from LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's management forecasts (assuming 6:1 oil-to-gas energy equivalent ratio); (3) proved and proved developed reserves as of March 31, 2015 estimated by LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock management and contained in provided economic databases (assuming 6:1 oil-to-gas energy equivalent ratio); and (4) proved and proved developed PV-10 derived from the LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock management estimates per the provided economic databases and assuming NYMEX Strip Prices as of May 18, 2015. For 2015 distributable cash flow, EBITDA and production, statistics for Pro Forma Vanguard assume the LRE and Vanguard merger was completed as of January 1, 2015. For the analyses utilizing 2015 and 2016 EBITDA estimates, Simmons examined the relative contribution both including Pro Forma Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's hedge positions and adjusted to exclude Pro Forma Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's hedge positions.

Simmons derived the Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio for unitholders of Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard for each metric based on their relative contributions of Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard to each metric for the Pro Forma Combined Entity, and then made appropriate adjustments for each of Eagle Rock's and Pro Forma Vanguard's net debt and units outstanding. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

	Contribution from Eagle Rock	Contribution from Pro Forma Vanguard	Implied Exchange Ratio
EBITDA including Hedges (Strip Prices)
2015P	18 %	82 %	0.351x
2016P	17 %	83 %	0.321x

2016P	16	%	84	%	0.124x

Simmons calculated the summary statistics for the Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio for the above ratios excluding those ratios derived from production and proved reserves operational metrics, which were deemed less relevant than financial metrics such as EBITDA, PV-10 and distributable cash flow due to the differences in Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard's relative weighting of their asset bases to natural gas versus oil and natural gas liquids. Excluding the production and proved reserve metrics, the above analysis resulted in a minimum exchange ratio of 0.124x, a maximum of 0.353x and a median of 0.302x. From this total range, Simmons used a range of 0.124x to 0.321x, which excludes those results that are based on 2015E EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow when including Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard's hedge positions due to the large non-recurring impact of those hedge positions in 2015. This range was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Proved NAV Analysis

Simmons performed an illustrative Proved Net Asset Value analysis for Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard. Simmons calculated the present value of the future cash flows that Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard could be expected to generate from their existing estimated proved reserves as of March 31, 2015, as estimated by the management of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock and contained in provided economic databases. Simmons estimated Net Asset Value by adding (i) the present value of the cash flows generated by these estimated proved reserves, plus (ii) the present value of existing hedges, less (iii) the present value of projected general & administrative expenses, less (v) other corporate adjustments including net debt (total debt less cash) and preferred equity. All cash flows were discounted at rates of 8% and 10%. The Proved Net Asset Value Analysis was performed assuming both NYMEX Strip Pricing and Bloomberg Consensus Pricing as of May 18, 2015.

The ratio of proved net asset value per unit for both Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard resulted in an Eagle Rock implied exchange ratio range of 0.214x to 0.474x. These metrics were compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Comparable Company Analyses

Simmons examined the trading valuations of certain publicly traded partnerships in the upstream oil & gas exploration and production sector and derived a unit value range for each of Eagle Rock and Pro Forma Vanguard. The upstream MLP companies included in the analysis are as follows:

Atlas Resource Partners, LP
Breitburn Energy Partners L.P.
EV Energy Partners, L.P.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Legacy Reserves LP
Linn Energy, LLC
Memorial Production Partners LP

For each of the companies selected, Simmons reviewed the ratio of unit price to distributable cash flow per unit (DCFPU) and enterprise value, which was calculated as equity value based on closing unit prices on May 19, 2015, plus book value of debt and liquidation value of preferred equity, less cash and cash equivalents, as a multiple of estimated EBITDA in calendar years 2015 and 2016, and as a multiple of 2014 SEC PV-10. The EBITDA projections for this analysis were derived from Wall Street consensus forecast estimates as well as LRE s, Vanguard s and Eagle Rock s management forecasts adjusted for Bloomberg Consensus Commodity Prices. The 2014 SEC PV-10 estimates utilized were those included in year-end 2014 SEC filings. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

	Range	Median
Ratio of Unit Price To:
2015P DCFPU	5.3x 8.6x	6.5x
2016P DCFPU	5.5x 9.1x	7.1x
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
2015P EBITDA	7.8x 8.9x	7.9x
2016P EBITDA	7.5x 8.7x	8.2x
2014 SEC PV-10	0.6x 1.6x	1.1x

Following these analyses, Simmons applied certain forward-looking comparable company trading multiples to Wall Street consensus DCF per unit, and both Wall Street consensus forecast estimates and management forecasts applying Bloomberg Consensus Commodity Pricing for Eagle Rock s and Pro Forma Vanguard s estimated 2015 and 2016 EBITDA, as well as to 2014 SEC PV-10 estimates utilized in Eagle Rock s and Pro Forma Vanguard s year-end 2014 SEC filings. A summary of this analysis is set forth below.

	Reference Range	Implied Exchange Ratio
Ratio of Equity Value To:
2015P DCFPU	5.5x 7.5x	0.165x 0.165x
2016P DCFPU	6.0x 8.0x	0.169x 0.169x
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
Wall Street Consensus
2015P EBITDA	7.0x 9.0x	0.552x 0.322x
2016P EBITDA	7.0x 9.0x	0.593x 0.349x
Management with Consensus Pricing
2015P EBITDA	7.0x 9.0x	0.539x 0.313x
2016P EBITDA	7.0x 9.0x	0.449x 0.272x
2014 SEC PV-10	1.0x 1.3x	0.347x 0.223x

Based on the comparable company analyses above, Simmons derived a total range of Eagle Rock implied exchange ratios of 0.165x to 0.593x, with a median of 0.317x. From this total range, Simmons used a range of 0.223x to 0.449x, which excludes results based on 2015E estimates due to the non-recurring hedge component. This range was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

TABLE OF CONTENTSAnalyst Price Target Analysis

Simmons determined a range of Wall Street price targets for each of Eagle Rock and Vanguard based on the mean, median, low and high targets of the analysts considered. A summary of this analysis is set forth below.

Price Target	Eagle Rock	Vanguard	Implied Exchange Ratio
High	$ 3.00	$ 25.00	0.120x
Median	$ 3.00	$ 18.00	0.167x
Mean	$ 3.00	$ 18.00	0.167x
Low	$ 3.00	$ 15.00	0.200x

These results provide an implied exchange ratio range of 0.120x to 0.200x, which was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Comparable Transactions Analysis

Simmons reviewed publicly available data from fifteen transactions involving U.S. listed target companies since 2010 in the upstream oil & gas sector where a significant component of the consideration consisted of stock of the acquiror. For these transactions, Simmons analyzed the transaction value at the time of the announcement as a ratio of estimated EBITDA for the current year in which the transaction was announced and the future year after the transaction was announced. EBITDA estimates were based on Wall Street analyst consensus estimates for the target companies as of the time of the transaction announcements.

Announcement Date	Target	Acquiror

4/4/2010	Arena Resources Inc.	Sandridge Energy, Inc.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Based on the transactions listed above, Simmons derived a transaction value to EBITDA ratio range of 4.8x to 10.1x with a median value 7.5x for the current year EBITDA estimates, and 4.4x to 9.3x with a median value of 6.0x for the future year EBITDA estimates. Simmons applied a selected range of EBITDA multiples to Eagle Rock's EBITDA for the years 2015 and 2016 using projections derived from Eagle Rock's management forecasts and adjusted for NYMEX Strip Prices, and to Eagle Rock's 2015 and 2016 EBITDA estimates using Wall Street consensus estimates. Simmons then made adjustments for Eagle Rock's net debt and units outstanding to derive an implied equity value per unit:

	Reference Range		Implied Eagle Rock Equity Value Per Unit
Ratio of Enterprise Value To:
Management with NYMEX Pricing
2015P EBITDA	6.0x 9.0x	$2.98	$4.93
2016P EBITDA	5.0x 7.0x	$2.01	$3.18
Wall Street Consensus
2015P EBITDA	6.0x 9.0x	$3.12	$5.14
2016P EBITDA	5.0x 7.0x	$2.73	$4.18

Simmons divided the implied Eagle Rock equity values per unit calculated above by Vanguard's closing price on May 19, 2015 of $15.79 per unit to derive a range of Eagle Rock implied exchange ratios of 0.127x to 0.325x, with a median of 0.200x. From this total range, Simmons used a range of 0.127x to 0.265x, which excludes results based on 2015E estimates due to the non-recurring hedge component. This range was compared to the Eagle Rock exchange ratio of 0.185x.

Other Factors

Simmons analyzed the pro forma impact of the Eagle Rock merger on the distributable cash flow per unit attributable to Pro Forma Vanguard common unitholders for 2015 and 2016 assuming a January 1, 2015 close date and using projections for each year derived from LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock's management forecasts adjusted for NYMEX strip pricing and Bloomberg Consensus pricing and incorporating Vanguard management's estimate of general and administrative expense savings to be realized from the Eagle Rock merger. That analysis indicated that the impact of the transaction on a pro forma basis to the distributable cash flow per unit attributable to Pro Forma Vanguard common unitholders was slightly accretive in both 2015 and 2016 assuming NYMEX strip pricing, and was slightly accretive in 2015 and neutral in 2016 assuming Bloomberg Consensus pricing.

General

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Simmons, but simply describes, in summary form, the material analyses that Simmons conducted in connection with rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytic methods employed and the adaptation and application of those methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Simmons' opinion nor the analyses underlying its opinion are readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Simmons arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, analytic method or factor. Accordingly, Simmons believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, analytic methods and factors, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

Simmons based its analyses on assumptions that it deemed reasonable, including assumptions concerning general business and economic conditions and industry-specific factors. Analyses based on forecasts or projections of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their advisors. Accordingly, Simmons' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results that might be achieved, which values may be higher or lower than those indicated or implied. The implied exchange ratio reference ranges indicated by Simmons' analyses are illustrative and not necessarily indicative of actual values nor predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. Moreover, Simmons' analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. In addition, no company or transaction used in Simmons' analysis as a comparison is directly comparable to LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock or the contemplated Eagle Rock merger. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of LRE or Simmons or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasts or projections.

Simmons' opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by the LRE GP conflicts committee in making its determination to consent to the Eagle Rock merger and should not be considered determinative of the views of the LRE GP conflicts committee or management with respect to the Eagle Rock merger or the Eagle Rock merger consideration.

No company or transaction used in the analyses of comparable transactions summarized above is identical or directly comparable to LRE, Vanguard, Eagle Rock or the Eagle Rock merger. Accordingly, these analyses must take into account differences in the financial and operating characteristics of the selected publicly traded companies and differences in the structure and timing of the selected transactions and other factors that would affect the public trading value and acquisition value of the companies considered.

The financial terms of the Eagle Rock merger were determined through arms-length negotiations between Vanguard and Eagle Rock and were approved by each of them, and Simmons did not recommend any specific financial terms for the Eagle Rock merger consideration to the LRE GP conflicts committee or assert that any specific financial terms of the Eagle Rock merger constituted the only appropriate financial terms of the Eagle Rock merger consideration.

Simmons was selected by the LRE GP conflicts committee based on Simmons' qualifications, expertise and reputation. Simmons is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that specializes in the energy industry and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements. In the ordinary course of its business, Simmons may trade the securities of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock for its own account and for the accounts of customers and may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Pursuant to the terms of the LRE GP conflicts committee's engagement of Simmons, LRE agreed to pay Simmons an initial advisory fee of $225,000 payable on the date of engagement, and an additional fee of $225,000 payable upon Simmons' delivery of its fairness opinion to the LRE GP conflicts committee. In addition, LRE agreed to reimburse Simmons for its reasonably incurred out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement, including fees and disbursements of its legal counsel. LRE also agreed to indemnify Simmons, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, agents, employees and controlling persons for liabilities related to or arising out of Simmons' engagement or its role in connection therewith, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, or to contribute to payments Simmons may be required to make in respect of these liabilities.

In the past two years, Simmons has advised and has acted as an underwriter on public equity offerings for certain portfolio companies controlled by NGP Energy Capital Management, whose certain affiliated funds have a substantial ownership interest in Eagle Rock's common units. Simmons earned aggregate consideration of approximately $2.8 million in connection with these assignments over the past two years, which aggregate compensation was not material to Simmons. Simmons and its affiliates may provide investment banking or other financial services to LRE, Vanguard, NGP Energy Capital Management, Eagle Rock or their respective shareholders, affiliates or portfolio companies in the future. In connection with such investment banking or other financial services, Simmons or its affiliates, as applicable, may receive compensation.

Voting and Support Agreement

Simultaneous with the execution of the merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Voting and Support Agreement (the original support agreement) with each of LRR A, LRR B and LRR C, as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding LRE common units (collectively, the Holders), LRE, LRE GP, and, solely for certain restrictions on the sale of Vanguard common units, LRM, LRR II-A and LRR II-C (the Non-Fund I GP Sellers). On May 21, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the parties to the original support agreement entered into an Amended and Restated Voting and Support Agreement (the amended and restated support agreement). Collectively, the Holders hold LRE common units representing approximately 30.5% of the votes of LRE s outstanding common units as of August 27, 2015.

124

Covenants of Supporting Unitholders

Under the amended and restated support agreement, each of the Holders agreed, among other things, to the following covenants:

Voting. Each Holder has agreed to vote or cause to be voted, subject to the terms of the amended and restated support agreement, all units of LRE that such Holder owns, either beneficially or of record (the covered units) (i) in favor of the merger and any other matter presented or proposed as to approval of the merger and any other matter necessary or desirable to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and (ii) against the approval or adoption of (A) any alternative proposal or any other transaction, proposal, agreement or action made in opposition to adoption of the merger, (B) any action, agreement or transaction that is intended, that could reasonably be expected, or the effect of which could reasonably be expected, to materially impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the performance by such Holder of its obligations under the amended and restated support agreement, including certain specified categories of actions specified therein and (C) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach in any respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or other obligation or agreement of LRE, LRE GP or any Holder contained in the merger agreement or of any Holder contained in the amended and restated support agreement.

Irrevocable Proxy. Each Holder irrevocably granted to, and appointed, Vanguard and any of its designees as such Holder s proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution) to vote or cause to be voted such Holder s covered units in accordance with the voting provisions summarized above.

Restrictions on Transfer. Each Holder has agreed not to (i) sell, transfer, assign, tender, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of such covered units (except in connection with the merger), provided that prior to the earlier of the completion of the merger and the termination of the merger agreement, each Holder may sell up to 15% of the covered units it held as of May 21, 2015, or (ii) enter into a voting agreement or arrangement or grant any proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to such covered units that is inconsistent with the amended and restated support agreement.

No Solicitation. Each Holder has agreed not to (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to an alternative proposal; (ii) enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any third party any non-public information with respect to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, any alternative proposal; (iii) take any action to release or permit the release of any person from, or amend, waive or permit the amendment or waiver of any provision of, any standstill or similar agreement or provision to which LRE is or becomes a party or under which LRE has any rights; or (iv) resolve or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Notification of Alternative Proposal. Each Holder has agreed to (i) immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations with any third party conducted heretofore with respect to an alternative proposal, (ii) promptly advise Vanguard in writing of any alternative proposal it receives and provide Vanguard with copies of all related written proposals or draft agreements and (iii) keep Vanguard reasonably informed of all material developments with respect to the status and terms of any such alternative proposal, offers, inquiries or requests.

Employee Non-Solicitation. Each Holder has agreed that, during the two-year period following the effective time, it will not (and will cause its controlled affiliates not to) hire, engage or solicit, anywhere in North America, certain persons who commence employment with Vanguard or one of its affiliates. Vanguard also agreed to (and agreed to cause its controlled affiliates to) refrain from soliciting or hiring, anywhere in North America, any person employed, as of immediately following the closing of the merger, by or on behalf of the Holders or their respective affiliates.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Partnership Change in Recommendation

Upon a partnership change in recommendation, the voting and irrevocable proxy covenants described above will have no further effect. The other covenants described above shall continue in full force and effect until the amended and restated support agreement is validly terminated.

Volume Limitation

Subject to certain exceptions in the amended and restated support agreement, each Holder and Non-Fund I GP Seller has agreed not to, without Vanguard's prior consent, for a period commencing on the closing date of the merger and continuing for 90 days thereafter (the Limitation Period), (i) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Vanguard common units or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Vanguard common units (including without limitation, Vanguard common units or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by such Holders in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of an option or warrant) (collectively, the Restricted Securities) or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge or disposition, (ii) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the Vanguard common units or such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of Vanguard common units or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, (iii) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any of the Restricted Securities except in accordance with the registration rights agreement or (iv) sell or dispose of any Restricted Securities in an underwritten offering except in accordance with the amended and restated support agreement or the registration rights agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, on each trading day during the Limitation Period, the Holders and Non-Fund I GP Sellers may offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, an aggregate number of Restricted Securities, on a daily basis, not to exceed 10% of the average daily trading volume of Vanguard common units during the four weeks immediately prior to the first day of the calendar month in which such transaction occurs.

Termination of Support Agreement

The amended and restated support agreement will terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) the consummation of the merger or (ii) the valid termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Consent Required for Amendment of Eagle Rock Support Agreement

Pursuant to the amended and restated support agreement, Vanguard also agrees not to amend, without the consent of the Holders, the Voting and Support Agreement, dated May 21, 2015, by and among Vanguard, Montierra Minerals & Production, L.P., Montierra Management LLC, Natural Gas Partners VII, L.P., Natural Gas Partners VIII, L.P., NGP Income Management L.L.C., Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 7, LLC, Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 8, LLC, ERH NGP 7 SPV, LLC, ERH NGP 8 SPV, LLC, NGP Income Co-Investment Opportunities Fund II, L.P. and NGP Energy Capital Management, L.L.C., as holders of certain of the issued and outstanding Eagle Rock common units, and, solely for the waiver of an existing voting agreement and termination and other miscellaneous provisions, Eagle Rock and Eagle Rock GP.

Registration Rights Agreement

Simultaneous with the execution of the merger agreement, Vanguard entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the original registration rights agreement) with the Holders and Non-Fund I GP Sellers. On May 21, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, the parties to the original registration rights agreement entered into an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement (the amended and restated registration rights agreement). The registration rights agreement will become effective automatically upon, and only upon, the closing of the merger. Pursuant to the amended and restated registration rights agreement, Vanguard will, in its sole discretion, prepare and file with the SEC either (i) a shelf registration statement under Rule 415 of the Securities Act providing for the public resale and distribution of the Vanguard common units received by the Holders and Non-Fund I GP Sellers as consideration in the merger and the acquisition of LRE GP or (ii) a post-effective amendment to Vanguard's existing automatic shelf registration statement on Form S-3. Vanguard is required to file or cause to be filed such shelf registration statement within 14 days following the closing of the merger and is required to cause the registration statement to become effective as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter but in no event later than 120 days after the closing of the merger. Subject to certain conditions, at the election of the Holders, Vanguard will initiate an underwritten offering under the shelf registration statement to dispose of the Holders' Vanguard common units. The Holders will also receive piggyback rights under the registration rights agreement to participate in future underwritten public offerings of Vanguard common units effected under a registration statement other than the registration statement required under the registration rights agreement.

Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, Vanguard also agrees not to amend, without the consent of the Holders, the Registration Rights Agreement, dated May 21, 2015, by and among Vanguard, Montierra Minerals & Production, L.P., Montierra Management LLC, Natural Gas Partners VII, L.P., Natural Gas Partners VIII, L.P., NGP Income Management L.L.C., Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 7, LLC, Eagle Rock Holdings NGP 8, LLC, ERH NGP 7 SPV, LLC, ERH NGP 8 SPV, LLC, NGP Income Co-Investment Opportunities Fund II, L.P. and NGP Energy Capital Management, L.L.C.

Termination and Continuing Obligations Agreement

As a condition to closing of transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, the parties have agreed to execute and deliver a Termination and Continuing Obligations Agreement (the termination agreement) substantially in the form attached as an exhibit to the merger agreement. Pursuant to the termination agreement, (i) that certain Omnibus Agreement, entered into, and effective as of, November 16, 2011 (the Omnibus Agreement), by and among LRE, LRE GP, OLLC, the Holders, LRR GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the ultimate general partner of each of the Holders, and LRM, will be terminated and (ii) the Holders, severally and in proportion to each entity's Property Contributor Percentage (as defined in the Omnibus Agreement), will agree to indemnify LRE, LRE GP, OLLC and all of their respective subsidiaries from and against any losses arising out of any federal, state or local income tax liabilities attributable to the ownership or operation of the oil and natural gas properties owned or leased by any of LRE, LRE GP, OLLC or their respective subsidiaries prior to the closing of the LRE's initial public offering. The indemnification obligations of the Holders under the termination agreement will survive until the first anniversary of the closing date of the merger.

Unaudited Prospective Financial and Operating Information of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock

None of Vanguard, LRE or Eagle Rock as a matter of course makes public long-term projections as to its future revenues, production, earnings or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, LRE is including the following summaries of the unaudited prospective financial and operating information solely because such information was made available to the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH and Simmons in connection with their respective evaluations of the merger and the Eagle Rock merger, and each of TPH and Simmons were authorized by LRE to rely upon such information for purposes of its analyses and opinions. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that any of the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH, Simmons or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, it to be necessarily predictive of actual future results.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The unaudited prospective financial and operating information prepared by the respective managements of LRE, Vanguard and Eagle Rock was, in general, prepared solely for LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's internal use and is subjective in many respects. As a result, there can be no assurance that the prospective results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than estimated. Since the unaudited prospective financial and operating information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. LRE unitholders are urged to review LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's SEC filings for a description of risk factors with respect to LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's business, respectively, as well as the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Risk Factors." See also "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" and "Where You Can Find More Information." The unaudited prospective financial and operating information was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, nor was it prepared with a view toward compliance with GAAP, published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial and operating information. In addition, the unaudited prospective financial and operating information requires significant estimates and assumptions that make it inherently less comparable to the similarly titled GAAP measures in the historical GAAP financial statements of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock. The prospective financial information of LRE included in this proxy statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, LRE's management, and the prospective financial information of Vanguard included in this proxy statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, Vanguard's management. The prospective financial information of New Vanguard (as defined below), has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, Vanguard management and the prospective financial information of Eagle Rock included in this proxy statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, Eagle Rock's management. None of Vanguard's independent registered public accounting firm, LRE's independent registered public accounting firm, Eagle Rock's independent registered public accounting firm, or any other independent accountants has compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the unaudited prospective financial and operating information contained herein; accordingly they have not expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information. The report of the independent registered public accounting firm of LRE in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 relates to LRE's historical financial information. The report of the independent registered public accounting firm of Vanguard in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 relates to Vanguard's historical financial information. The report of the independent registered public accounting firm of Eagle Rock in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 relates to Eagle Rock's historical financial information. None of these reports extends to the unaudited prospective financial and operating information presented below and should not be read to do so. Furthermore, the following unaudited prospective financial and operating information does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date such information was prepared.

The following tables reflect the material unaudited prospective financial and operating data regarding LRE's operations provided to the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH and Simmons in connection with their evaluations of the merger. The data reflects certain oil and gas pricing assumptions of LRE. The Base Capital and Reduced Capital Cases were based on LRE's internal estimates of reserves, production, costs and capital expenditures. The Reduced Capital Case had less capital expenditures in 2016 compared to the Base Capital Case due to the assumption of capital constraints in the Reduced Capital Case.

For purposes of the tables set forth above, EBITDA, which LRE refers to as Adjusted EBITDA, is defined as net income from which LRE adds or subtracts the following:

income tax expense;
interest expense-net, including loss (gain) on interest rate derivative instruments, net;
depletion and depreciation;
accretion of asset retirement obligations;
amortization of equity awards;
loss (gain) on settlement of asset retirement obligations;
loss (gain) on commodity derivative instruments, net;
commodity derivative instrument net cash settlements;
impairment of oil and natural gas properties; and other non-recurring items that LRE deems appropriate.

The following table reflects the material unaudited prospective financial and operating data regarding Vanguard's operations provided to the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH and Simmons in connection with their evaluations of the merger. For purposes of the tables set forth above, EBITDA, which Vanguard refers to as Adjusted EBITDA, is defined as net income (loss) plus the following adjustments:

net interest expense;
depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion;
impairment of oil and natural gas properties;
net gains or losses on commodity derivative contracts;
cash settlements on matured commodity derivative contracts;
net gains or losses on interest rate derivative contracts;
gain on acquisition of oil and natural gas properties; Texas margin taxes; and compensation related items, which include unit-based compensation expense and unrealized fair value of phantom units granted to Vanguard's officers.

The following table reflects the material unaudited prospective financial and operating data regarding Eagle Rock's operations provided to the board of directors of LRE GP, the LRE GP conflicts committee, TPH and Simmons in connection with their evaluations of the Eagle Rock merger. The data reflects certain oil and gas pricing assumptions of Vanguard.

depreciation, depletion and amortization expense;
impairment expense;
other operating expense, non-recurring;
other non-cash operating and general and administrative expenses, including non-cash compensation related to Eagle Rock's equity-based compensation program;
mark-to-market (gains) losses on commodity and interest rate risk management related instruments; and gains (losses) on discontinued operations and other (income) expense.

No assurances can be given that the assumptions made in preparing the above unaudited prospective financial and operating information will accurately reflect future conditions. The estimates and assumptions underlying the unaudited prospective financial and operating information involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions that may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and contingencies, including, among others, risks and uncertainties described under Risk Factors and Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock and will be beyond the control of the combined entity resulting from the merger. There can be no assurance that the underlying assumptions will prove to be accurate or that the projected results will be realized, and actual results likely will differ, and may differ materially, from those reflected in the unaudited prospective financial and operating information, regardless of whether the merger is completed.

In addition, although presented with numerical specificity, the above unaudited prospective financial and operating information reflects numerous assumptions and estimates as to future events made by LRE management, Vanguard management and Eagle Rock management that each believed were reasonable at the time the respective unaudited prospective financial and operating information was prepared. Except for information relating to New Vanguard, the above unaudited prospective financial and operating information does not give effect to the merger or related transactions. LRE unitholders are urged to review LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's most recent SEC filings for a description of LRE's, Vanguard's and Eagle Rock's reported results of operations and financial condition and capital resources, respectively, during 2014 and 2015, including Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in LRE's Annual Report on Form 10-K, Vanguard's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Eagle Rock's Annual Report on Form 10-K, each for the year ended December 31, 2014, and LRE's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, Vanguard's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and Eagle Rock's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, each for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2015 and June 30, 2015.

Readers of this proxy statement/prospectus are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the unaudited prospective financial and operating information set forth above. No representation is made by Vanguard, LRE, Eagle Rock, their respective financial advisors, auditors or any other person to any LRE unitholder regarding the ultimate performance of LRE, Vanguard or Eagle Rock compared to the information included in the above unaudited prospective financial and operating information. The inclusion of unaudited prospective financial and operating information in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that such prospective financial and operating information will be an accurate prediction of future events, and such information should not be relied on as such.

VANGUARD, LRE AND EAGLE ROCK DO NOT INTEND TO UPDATE OR OTHERWISE REVISE THE ABOVE UNAUDITED PROSPECTIVE FINANCIAL AND OPERATING INFORMATION TO REFLECT CIRCUMSTANCES EXISTING AFTER THE DATE WHEN MADE OR TO REFLECT THE OCCURRENCE OR NON-OCCURRENCE OF FUTURE EVENTS, EVEN IN THE EVENT THAT ANY OR ALL OF THE ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING SUCH PROSPECTIVE FINANCIAL AND OPERATING INFORMATION ARE NO LONGER APPROPRIATE, EXCEPT AS MAY BE REQUIRED BY LAW.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard's Reasons for the Merger

Vanguard believes the merger, with or without the Eagle Rock merger, will create enhanced long-term value for its unitholders. Key strategic benefits include the following:

Long-Lived Assets. LRE's assets represent a portfolio of long-life, low-decline, mature oil and natural gas exploration and production assets that are well-suited for Vanguard's upstream MLP model and its stated corporate strategy to grow via accretive acquisitions. Vanguard believes these assets will provide consistent and predictable cash flow volumes that will enable Vanguard to continue to make consistent monthly cash distributions to its unitholders and, over time, improve equity valuation.

Additional Scale and Efficiencies in Permian and Arkoma Basins. LRE's assets add additional scale in two prolific oil and gas producing regions where Vanguard currently operates—the Permian Basin in West Texas and Southeast New Mexico and the Arkoma Basin in the Mid-Continent region. As a result, upon the completion of the merger, Vanguard and its subsidiaries will have a larger asset base in these regions that Vanguard believes will permit more efficient operations and reduce per unit field expenses.

Scale of Operations. Vanguard believes that the combined business (with or without the completion of the Eagle Rock merger) will permit it to compete more effectively and facilitate future development projects and acquisitions through increased cash flow and lower cost of capital investment in the current reduced commodity price environment. As a result of this larger size, Vanguard should be able to consider and more effectively pursue additional types of opportunities, including acquisitions and financing alternatives. In addition, Vanguard expects the combined business (with or without the completion of the Eagle Rock merger) to realize substantial operating and administrative synergies.

Balanced Product Mix. LRE's assets represent a balanced production and reserves product mix of 39% oil; 48% natural gas and 13% NGLs that Vanguard believes provides an advantage in light of the better expected profit margins for oil and NGLs production than natural gas production as reflected in the short-term and long-term market prices for oil versus natural gas.

Financial Ratios and Credit Rating. Vanguard expects to improve a number of its financial ratios commonly used to assess its credit rating. The predominantly unit-for-unit nature of the transaction is expected to allow Vanguard to reduce leverage and strengthen its balance sheet. In addition, because size is a key contributor to credit ratings for oil and natural gas exploration and production companies, increased scale could result in improved credit ratings for the combined entity, in particular if both the merger and the Eagle Rock merger are consummated.

The explanation of the reasoning of Vanguard and certain information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, this section should be read in light of the factors discussed in the section titled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that you vote to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that aside from their interests as unitholders of LRE, LRE GP's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other unitholders of LRE generally. Except as noted below, the members of the board of directors of LRE GP were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending to the unitholders of LRE that the merger agreement be approved. See "Background of the Merger and Recommendation of the LRE GP Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger." LRE unitholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative and the tables below.

TABLE OF CONTENTSTreatment of LTIP Restricted Unit Awards

Under the merger agreement, each LRE restricted unit that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder of such LRE restricted unit, vest in full and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse, and such LRE restricted unit shall be deemed to be LRE common units for purposes of the merger. For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to the Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and the independent directors of LRE GP upon the settlement of their unvested LRE restricted units, see the table below entitled "Quantification of Payments for LTIP Restricted Unit Awards".

Quantification of Payments for LTIP Restricted Unit Awards.

The following table sets forth, as of April 20, 2015, for each of LRE GP's directors and executive officers, the aggregate number of LRE restricted units held by such individuals and the estimated value payable in the merger with respect to such awards. For purposes of this table, the per unit value of the Merger Consideration was estimated to be equal to $8.95, determined by multiplying the exchange ratio by $16.28, the average closing price of Vanguard common units over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the transaction.

Name	Position	Number of Restricted Units	Value ($)
Eric Mullins	Co-Chief Executive Officer and Chairman		$
Charles W. Adcock	Co-Chief Executive Officer and Director		$
Christopher A. Butta	Senior Vice President of Engineering and Chief Engineer		$
Jaime R. Casas	Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	100,892	$903,387
C. Timothy Miller	Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer		$
John A. Bailey	Director	20,863	$186,807
Jonathan Carroll	Director	16,956	$151,824
Jonathan C. Farber	Director		$
Robert T. O'Connell	Director	20,863	$186,807
Townes G. Pressler Jr.	Director		$

(1) Robert T. O'Connell passed away on May 9, 2015; as a result, all of his restricted units vested upon his death.

Other Equity Interests

Currently, Eric Mullins and Charles W. Adcock, LRE GP's Co-Chief Executive Officers, own 5,840 and 2,250 Vanguard common units, respectively. These ownership interests are equal to $95,075 and $36,630, respectively, based on a per unit price of $16.28, the average closing price of Vanguard common units over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the transaction. The board of directors of LRE GP did not consider this ownership of Vanguard common units when it evaluated and negotiated the merger agreement and the merger or when it recommended to LRE's unitholders that the merger agreement be approved.

Severance Arrangements

None of LRE GP's executive officers or directors is currently party to any plan or contractual arrangement that would provide for severance benefits upon such officer or director's termination of employment or service with LRE or its affiliates in connection with the merger.

However, it is currently anticipated that the employment of LRE GP's Chief Financial Officer, Jaime R. Casas, will be terminated in connection with the merger, and he will receive a severance payment of $750,000 immediately prior to the closing of the merger, as well as other cash bonuses in an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $250,000 plus a pro rated portion of a $250,000 annual cash bonus.

No other executive officer or director of LRE GP is entitled to or expected to receive any severance payments in connection with the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTSIndemnification and Insurance

The LRE partnership agreement requires LRE, among other things, to indemnify the directors and executive officers of LRE GP against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their service as directors or officers; provided, that such director or officer shall not be indemnified and held harmless if there has been a final and non-appealable judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction determining that, in respect of the matter for which the director or officer is seeking indemnification, the director or officer acted in bad faith or engaged in fraud, willful misconduct or, in the case of a criminal matter, acted with knowledge that the director's or officer's conduct was unlawful.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that, for a period of six years from the effective time, Vanguard shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless an officer, director or employee of LRE GP, LRE or any of its subsidiaries and also with respect to any such person, in his capacity as a director, officer, employee, member, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, foundation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise (whether or not such other entity or enterprise is affiliated with LRE) serving at the request of or on behalf of LRE GP, LRE or any of its subsidiaries and together with such person's heirs, executors or administrators against any cost or expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any actual or threatened claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise and whether or not such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation results in a formal civil or criminal litigation or regulatory action.

In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, LRE GP's directors and executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies from the surviving entity. Such indemnification and insurance coverage is further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Indemnification and Insurance."

Quantification of Payments and Benefits to LRE's Named Executive Officers

The table set forth below details the amount of payments and benefits that each of LRE's named executive officers would receive in connection with the merger. These payments are comprised of the payments described above, are not in addition to those described in previous sections, but are specifically identified in this fashion to allow for a non-binding advisory vote of LRE's unitholders regarding these payments and benefits. For purposes of this table, the per unit value of the merger consideration was estimated to be equal to $8.95, determined by multiplying the exchange ratio by $16.28, the closing price of Vanguard's common units over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the transaction.

Golden Parachute Compensation

Name	Cash ($) ⁽¹⁾	Equity ($) ⁽²⁾	Total ($)
Eric Mullins	$	$	$
Charles W. Adcock	$	$	$
Jaime R. Casas	$ 1,187,500	$ 903,387	$ 2,090,887
Christopher A. Butta	$	$	$
C. Timothy Miller	$	$	$

(1)

Represents estimated lump sum cash severance payments Mr. Casas is expected to receive immediately prior to the closing of the merger based on an assumed closing date of October 1, 2015. This aggregate amount is comprised of a $750,000 cash severance payment, as well as cash bonuses in an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $250,000 plus a pro rated portion of a $250,000 annual cash bonus. This benefit is single trigger in nature, because it will be paid immediately prior to the effective time of the merger without regard to whether the named executive officer experiences a termination of employment.

(2) Represents the value of unvested LRE restricted units held by LRE's named executive officers that will be converted into the merger consideration immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. These amounts are single trigger because they will be paid upon or following the effective time of the merger without regard to whether the named executive officer experiences a termination of employment.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

No Appraisal Rights

Appraisal rights are not available in connection with the merger under the Delaware LP Act or under the LRE partnership agreement.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

In accordance with GAAP and in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification Topic 805 - Business Combinations, Vanguard will account for the merger as an acquisition of a business.

Regulatory Approvals and Clearances Required for the Merger

Vanguard and LRE are not required to file notifications with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or observe a mandatory pre-merger waiting period before completing the merger under the HSR Act. Vanguard and LRE cannot assure you, however, that other government agencies or private parties will not initiate actions to challenge the merger before or after it is completed. Any such challenge to the merger could result in a court order enjoining the merger or in restrictions or conditions that would have a material adverse effect on the combined company following the merger if the merger is completed.

Listing of Vanguard Common Units

It is a condition to closing that the common units to be issued in the merger to LRE unitholders be approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

Delisting and Deregistration of LRE Common Units

If the merger is completed, LRE common units will cease to be listed on the NYSE and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Vanguard Unitholder Approval is Not Required

Vanguard unitholders are not required to approve the merger agreement or approve the merger or the issuance of Vanguard common units in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Ownership of Vanguard After the Merger

Vanguard will issue approximately 15.44 million Vanguard common units to former LRE unitholders (which does not include the 12,320 Vanguard common units to be issued to the former members of LRE GP) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Additionally, if the Eagle Rock merger is consummated, Vanguard will issue approximately 28.75 million Vanguard units to former Eagle Rock unitholders pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement. Further, the number of Vanguard common units outstanding will increase after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus if Vanguard sells additional common units to the public.

If the Eagle Rock merger is consummated pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, based on the number of Vanguard common units outstanding as of August 27, 2015, immediately following the later to occur of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard expects to have approximately 130.80 million common units outstanding (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to members of LRE GP). Under this scenario, LRE unitholders would be expected to hold approximately 11.8% of the aggregate number of Vanguard common units outstanding immediately after the merger and the Eagle Rock merger. Holders of Vanguard common units have only limited voting rights on matters affecting Vanguard's business.

If, however, the Eagle Rock merger is not consummated, based on the number of Vanguard common units outstanding as of August 27, 2015, immediately following completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, Vanguard expects to have approximately 102.05 million common units outstanding (including the 12,320 Vanguard common units issued to members of LRE GP). Under this scenario, LRE unitholders would be expected to hold approximately 15.1% of the aggregate number of Vanguard common units outstanding immediately after the completion of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Restrictions on Sales of Vanguard Common Units Received in the Merger

Vanguard common units issued in the merger will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, except for Vanguard common units issued to any LRE unitholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Vanguard after the completion of the merger. This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Vanguard common units received by any person upon the completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

Board of Directors and Executive Officers Following the Merger

The directors and executive officers of Vanguard prior to the merger will continue as the directors and executive officers of Vanguard immediately after the merger. The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the members of the board of directors and the executive officers of Vanguard. Executive officers and directors of Vanguard will serve until their successors are duly appointed or elected.

Name	Age	Position with Vanguard Natural Resources, LLC
Scott W. Smith	57	President, Chief Executive Officer and Director
Richard A. Robert	49	Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Director
W. Richard Anderson	61	Independent Director and Chairman
Loren Singletary	67	Independent Director
Bruce W. McCullough	66	Independent Director
Britt Pence	54	Executive Vice President of Operations

Litigation Relating to the Merger

A putative class action was filed on June 3, 2015 in connection with the merger by a purported LRE unitholder (the Delaware State Plaintiff) against LRE, LRE GP, the members of the LRE GP board of directors, Vanguard, Merger Sub and the other parties to the merger agreement (the Original Defendants). The lawsuit was styled Barry Miller v. LRR Energy, L.P. et al., Case No. 11087-VCG, in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the Delaware State Lawsuit). On July 23, 2015, the Delaware State Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the Delaware State Lawsuit without prejudice.

On July 10, 2015 and July 13, 2015, two additional purported LRE unitholders (the Texas State Plaintiffs) filed putative class action lawsuits against the Original Defendants. These lawsuits were styled (a) Christopher Tiberio v. Eric Mullins et al., Cause No. 2015-39864, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 334th Judicial District; and (b) Eddie Hammond v. Eric Mullins et al., Cause No. 2015-40154, in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 295th Judicial District (the Texas State Lawsuits). On July 28, 2015, the Texas State Lawsuits were nonsuited without prejudice.

On July 14, 2015, another purported LRE unitholder (the Texas Federal Plaintiff) filed a putative class action lawsuit against the Original Defendants. This lawsuit was styled Ronald Krieger v. LRR Energy, L.P. et al., Civil Action No. 4:15-cv-2017, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division (the Texas Federal Lawsuit). On July 17, 2015, the Texas Federal Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the Texas Federal Lawsuit without prejudice.

On August 18, 2015, another purported LRE unitholder (the Plaintiff) filed a putative class action lawsuit against the members of the LRE GP board of directors, Vanguard, and Merger Sub (the Defendants). This lawsuit is styled Robert Hurwitz v. Eric Mullins et al., Civil Action No. 1:15-cv-00711-UNA, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (the Lawsuit).

The Lawsuit alleges that the Defendants violated Sections 14(a) and/or 20(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. In general, the Plaintiff alleges that the proxy statement/prospectus fails, among other things, to disclose allegedly material details concerning (i) the background of the merger, (ii) Simmons and TPH's analysis of the merger, (iii) LRE's and Vanguard's financial and operational projections, and (iv) certain alleged conflicts of interest.

The Plaintiff seeks, among other relief, to enjoin the merger, or rescind the merger in the event it is consummated, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

The Plaintiff has not yet served the Defendants, and the Defendants' date to answer, move to dismiss, or otherwise respond to the Lawsuit has not yet been set.

Vanguard and LRE cannot predict the outcome of the Lawsuit or any others that might be filed subsequent to the date of the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus; nor can Vanguard and LRE predict the amount of time and expense that will be required to resolve the Lawsuit. The Defendants believe the Lawsuit is without merit and intend to vigorously defend against it.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes the material provisions of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. The description in this section and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. Vanguard and LRE encourage you to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety before making any decisions regarding the merger as it is the legal document governing the merger.

The merger agreement and this summary of its terms have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Factual disclosures about Vanguard, LRE or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or their respective public reports filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Vanguard, LRE or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by Vanguard and LRE were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by Vanguard and LRE in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to unitholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC and in some cases were qualified by confidential disclosures that were made by each party to the other, which disclosures are not reflected in the merger agreement or otherwise publicly disclosed. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement and subsequent developments or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may have been included in this proxy statement/prospectus. For the foregoing reasons, the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone.

The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity, and, at the same time, the acquisition by Vanguard of LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. LRE will cease to be a publicly traded limited partnership following completion of the merger. After the effective time of the merger, the certificate of limited partnership of LRE in effect immediately prior to the effective time will be the certificate of limited partnership of the surviving entity, until amended in accordance with applicable law, and the LRE partnership agreement in effect immediately prior to the effective time will be the agreement of limited partnership of the surviving entity, until amended in accordance with its terms and applicable law. The general partner interest in LRE issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will remain outstanding in the surviving entity, and LRE GP, as the holder of such general partner interest, will continue as the sole general partner of the surviving entity.

Effective Time; Closing

The effective time will be at such time that LRE files with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware a certificate of merger, executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of Delaware law, or at such other date or time as is agreed to by LRE and Vanguard and specified in the certificate of merger in accordance with Delaware law.

The closing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, will occur at 10:00 a.m. (central time), on the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger provided in the merger agreement (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions), or at such other date or time as Vanguard and LRE agree in writing. For further discussion of the conditions to the merger, see Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Vanguard and LRE currently expect to complete the merger in October 2015, subject to receipt of required unitholder approval and to the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement described below.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each LRE common unit issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 0.550 Vanguard common units. Any LRE common units that are owned by LRE or Vanguard or any of their respective wholly owned subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled and cease to exist without any conversion or payment of consideration in respect thereof.

Vanguard will not issue any fractional units in the merger. Instead, each holder of LRE common units that are converted pursuant to the merger agreement who otherwise would have received a fraction of a Vanguard common unit will be entitled to receive, from the exchange agent appointed by Vanguard pursuant to the merger agreement, a cash payment in lieu of such fractional units in an amount equal to the product of (i) the average trading prices of the Vanguard common units for the ten consecutive full trading days ending on the full trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the transactions and (ii) the fraction of the Vanguard unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the exchange ratio discussed above.

Consideration to Be Paid to Members of LRE GP

The merger agreement provides that Vanguard will issue and deliver 12,320 Vanguard common units to the members of LRE GP in exchange for all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP. The number of Vanguard common units to be issued to the members of LRE GP was determined based upon the 0.550 exchange ratio for the merger consideration.

Treatment of LRE Restricted Units

Under the merger agreement, each LRE restricted unit that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will, at the effective time, vest in full and the restrictions with respect thereto will lapse and such LRE restricted unit shall be deemed to be an LRE common unit for purposes of the merger.

Adjustments to Prevent Dilution

In the event the outstanding LRE common units or Vanguard common units are changed into a different number of units or a different class after the date of the merger agreement by reason of any subdivisions, reclassifications, splits, unit distributions, combinations or exchanges of LRE common units or Vanguard common units, the exchange ratio will be correspondingly adjusted to provide to the holders of LRE common units the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such event.

Withholding

Vanguard and the exchange agent are entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any holder of LRE common units such amounts as Vanguard or the exchange agent reasonably deems to be required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign tax law, with respect to the making of such payment; provided, however, that Vanguard or the exchange agent, as applicable, will provide reasonable notice to the applicable holders of LRE common units prior to deducting and withholding any amounts. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld such amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the holder of LRE common units in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by Vanguard or the exchange agent. LRE intends to deliver to Vanguard a valid certificate of non-foreign status such that no withholding will be required pursuant to Section 1445 of the Code.

139

Distributions

No distributions declared or made with respect to Vanguard common units with a record date after the effective time of the merger will be paid to the holder of any LRE common units with respect to the Vanguard common units that such holder would be entitled to receive in accordance with the merger agreement and no cash payment in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units will be paid to any such holder until such holder has delivered the required documentation and surrendered any certificates or book-entry units as contemplated by the merger agreement. Subject to applicable law, each such holder, following compliance with the requirement to deliver the required documentation and surrender any certificates or book-entry units as contemplated by the exchange procedures set forth in the merger agreement, there will be paid to such holder, without interest, promptly after the time of such compliance, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units to which such holder is entitled and the amount of distributions with a record date after the effective time theretofore paid with respect to Vanguard common units and payable with respect to such Vanguard common units, and promptly after such compliance, or, if later, at the appropriate payment date, the amount of distributions with a record date after the effective time but prior to such delivery and surrender and a payment date subsequent to such compliance payable with respect to such Vanguard common units.

Conditions to Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement

The obligations of each of Vanguard and LRE to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby must have been approved by the affirmative vote or consent of the holders, as of the record date for the LRE special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units;

all waiting periods applicable to the merger under the HSR Act must have been terminated or expired; no law, order, judgment or injunction (whether preliminary or permanent) issued, enacted, promulgated, entered or enforced by any a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority restraining, prohibiting or rendering illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (brought by a third party) is in effect;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must have become effective and must not be subject to any stop order suspending its effectiveness or proceedings for that purpose initiated or threatened by the SEC; and the Vanguard common units to be issued in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement must have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligations of Vanguard to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP in the merger agreement being true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to material adverse effect or materiality contained in any individual representation or warranty) would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on LRE; provided that: (i) the representation and warranty of LRE and the sellers of LRE GP with respect to the capitalization of LRE and LRE GP must be true and correct in all respects except any de minimis inaccuracies as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date) and (ii) the representation and warranty of LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP that there has not been any change, event, development, circumstance, condition, occurrence or effect that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on LRE must be true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger. LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP having performed and complied with, in all material respects, all agreements and covenants required to be performed by them under the merger agreement;

the receipt of an officer's certificate executed by the Chief Executive Officer of LRE GP certifying that the two preceding conditions (the Additional Vanguard Conditions) have been satisfied; the receipt from Paul Hastings LLP, tax counsel to Vanguard, of a written opinion dated as of the closing date of the merger to the effect that for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) neither Vanguard nor Merger Sub will recognize any income or gain as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; (ii) a holder of Vanguard common units will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; and (iii) at least 90% of the combined gross income of each of Vanguard and LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the closing date of the transactions for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code;

the receipt of the written resignation of each member of the board of directors and each officer of LRE GP, dated to be effective as of the effective time;

the receipt of an assignment of the membership interests in LRE GP; and the receipt of a counterpart of the termination and continuing obligations agreement, which terminates the provisions of LRE's existing omnibus agreement with the exception of certain tax indemnification, from LRE, LRE GP and the sellers of LRE GP.

The obligations of the sellers of LRE GP and LRE to effect the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Vanguard in the merger agreement being true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to material adverse effect or materiality contained in any individual representation or warranty) would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Vanguard; provided that: (i) the representation and warranty of Vanguard with respect to its capitalization must be true and correct in all respects except any de minimis inaccuracies as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date) and (ii) the representation and warranty of Vanguard that there has not been any change, event, development, circumstance, condition, occurrence or effect that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Vanguard must be true and correct in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger.

Vanguard and Merger Sub having performed and complied with, in all material respects, all agreements and covenants required to be performed by them under the merger agreement;

the receipt of an officer's certificate executed by the Chief Executive Officer of Vanguard certifying that the two preceding conditions (the Additional LRE Conditions) have been satisfied;

the receipt from Andrews Kurth LLP, tax counsel to LRE, of a written opinion dated as of the closing date of the merger to the effect that for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) except to the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units is treated as proceeds from a disguised sale transaction described in Section 707(a)(2)(B) (a Disguised Sale), or is otherwise taxable, LRE will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger (other than any gain resulting from any actual or constructive distribution of cash, including as a result of any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code); (ii) except to the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units is treated as a Disguised Sale, holders of LRE common units will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger (other than any gain resulting from any actual or constructive distribution of cash, including as a result of any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code); provided that such opinion shall not extend to any holder who acquired common units from LRE in exchange for property other than cash; and (iii) at least 90% of the gross income of LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the closing date of the merger for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code; and the receipt of a counterpart of the termination and continuing obligations agreement, which terminates the provisions of LRE's existing omnibus agreement with the exception of certain tax indemnification, from Vanguard.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term material adverse effect means, when used with respect to a party to the merger agreement, any change, event, development, circumstance, condition (financial or otherwise), occurrence or effect that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such party and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, but none of the following changes, events, developments, conditions, occurrences or effects (either alone or in combination) will be taken into account for purposes of determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred:

- changes in the general economic, financial, credit or securities markets, including prevailing interest rates or
- (i) currency rates, or regulatory or political conditions and changes in oil, natural gas, condensate or NGL prices or the prices of other commodities, including changes in price differentials;
 - (ii) changes in general economic conditions in the:
 - (a) oil and gas exploration and production industry;
 - (b) the natural gas gathering, compressing, treating, processing and transportation industry generally;
 - (c) the NGL fractionating and transportation industry generally;
 - (d) the crude oil and condensate logistics and marketing industry generally; and
- (e) the natural gas marketing and trading industry generally (including in each case changes in the laws affecting such industries);
- (iii) the outbreak or escalation of hostilities involving the United States, the declaration by the United States of a national emergency or war or the occurrence of any other calamity or crisis, including acts of terrorism;
 - (iv) any hurricane, tornado, flood, earthquake or other natural disaster;
- (v) with respect to LRE only, the identity of, or actions or omissions of Vanguard, or its affiliates, or any action taken pursuant to or in accordance with this Agreement or at the request of or with the consent of Vanguard;
- (vi) the announcement or pendency of the merger agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, performance of the merger agreement);
 - any change in the market price or trading volume of the common units of such person or any securities owned by
- (vii) such person (it being understood and agreed that the exception in this clause (vii) will not preclude any party from asserting that the facts, circumstances, changes, events, developments, conditions, occurrences or effects giving rise to such change should be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect);

any failure to meet any internal or published budgets, predictions, financial projections or estimates or forecasts of revenues, earnings or other financial metrics for any period (it being understood and agreed that the exception (viii) in this clause (viii) will not preclude any party from asserting that the facts, circumstances, changes, events, developments, conditions, occurrences or effects giving rise to such failure should be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, a material adverse effect);

(ix) any changes in GAAP (or authoritative interpretation of GAAP);

(x) changes in any laws or regulations applicable to such party or the industries in which such person operates or applicable accounting regulations or the interpretations thereof; and any legal proceedings commenced by or involving any current or former member, partner or equityholder of such (xi) party (on their own behalf or on behalf of such party) arising out of or related to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby; provided, however, that any change, event, development, circumstance, condition, occurrence or effect referred to in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) will be taken into account for purposes of determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred if and to the extent that such change, event, development, circumstance, condition, occurrence or effect disproportionately affects such party, as compared to other similarly situated companies operating in the industries in which such party operates.

LRE Unitholder Approval

LRE has agreed to hold a special meeting of LRE unitholders within 45 days after the mailing of the proxy statement (if reasonably practicable) for the purpose of such unitholders voting on the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Unless the merger agreement is terminated, the merger agreement requires LRE to call, give notice of and hold the LRE special meeting (i) irrespective of the making, commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission of any superior proposal (as defined below) or alternative proposal (as defined below) and (ii) even if the board of directors of LRE GP no longer recommends approval of the merger agreement. In addition, unless the merger agreement is validly terminated as described in Termination of the Merger Agreement, LRE will not submit any superior proposal to a vote of the LRE unitholders or (without Vanguard's prior written consent) adjourn, postpone or cancel (or propose, publicly or otherwise, or resolve to, to adjourn, postpone or cancel) the LRE special meeting except for such postponements or adjournments made (i) in the absence of proxies sufficient to obtain approval of a majority of LRE unitholders, to solicit additional proxies for the purpose of obtaining approval of a majority of LRE unitholders, (ii) in the absence of a quorum, or (iii) to allow reasonable additional time for the filing and/or mailing of any supplemental or amended disclosure that LRE has determined after consultation with outside legal counsel is necessary under applicable law and for such supplemental or amended disclosure to be disseminated and reviewed by LRE unitholders prior to the LRE special meeting.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term alternative proposal means any proposal or offer from any person (as defined in the merger agreement) or group (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Vanguard and its subsidiaries, relating to any (i) direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of assets of LRE equal to 20% or more of the consolidated assets of LRE or to which 20% or more of LRE's revenues or earnings are attributable, (ii) direct or indirect acquisition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of 20% or more of LRE's equity securities, (iii) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person or group beneficially owning 20% or more of LRE's equity securities, or (iv) merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving LRE that is structured to permit such person or group to acquire beneficial ownership of at least 20% of LRE's consolidated assets or equity

TABLE OF CONTENTS

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term superior proposal means a written offer that was not solicited after the date of the merger agreement and that was obtained after the date of the merger agreement, (i) to acquire, directly or indirectly, (A) more than 50% of the outstanding equity securities of LRE or (B) more than 50% of the assets of LRE and its subsidiaries or (ii) related to a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transactions involving LRE, in each case made by a third party, which did not result from a material breach of the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement (as described below in No Solicitation by LRE of Alternative Proposals) and is on terms and conditions that the board of directors of LRE GP determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, to be more favorable to LRE unitholders than the merger, taking into account at the time of determination relevant financial considerations, the identity of the person making such offer, the anticipated timing, conditions and prospects for completion of the transactions contemplated by such offer, the other terms and conditions of such offer and the implications thereof on LRE, including relevant legal, regulatory and other aspects of such offer and any changes to the terms of the merger agreement that as of that time had been committed to by Vanguard in writing.

No Solicitation by LRE of Alternative Proposals

The merger agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting LRE from seeking an alternative proposal to the merger. Under these no solicitation provisions, LRE has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and their respective directors, officers and employees not to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause their respective other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to the submission of any alternative proposal; or enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any non-public information with respect to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, any alternative proposal.

In addition, the merger agreement requires LRE to, and to cause its subsidiaries and its and their respective directors, officers and employees to, and to use its reasonable best efforts to cause their respective other representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any discussions or negotiations with any persons conducted prior to the execution of the merger agreement regarding an alternative proposal.

Notwithstanding these restrictions, the merger agreement provides that, under specified circumstances at any time prior to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement, LRE may furnish information, including non-public information, with respect to it and its subsidiaries to, and participate in discussions or negotiations with, any third party that makes a written alternative proposal that was not solicited after the execution of the merger agreement and that did not result from a material breach of the no solicitation restrictions described above and that the board of directors of LRE GP believes is bona fide, and (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that the board of directors of LRE GP determines in good faith constitutes or would reasonably be likely to lead to or result in a superior proposal, provided that:

substantially concurrently with furnishing any such non-public information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such person, LRE gives Vanguard written notice of the identity of such person and LRE's intention to furnish non-public information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, such person; LRE receives from such person an executed confidentiality agreement between LRE and such person with confidentiality provisions that are not less restrictive to such person than the provisions of the confidentiality agreement in effect between LRE and Vanguard; and LRE provides Vanguard with any non-public information about LRE and its subsidiaries that was not previously provided or made available to Vanguard prior to or substantially concurrently with providing or making available such non-public information to such other person.

LRE has also agreed in the merger agreement that it will promptly (and in no event later than 24 hours after receipt),
(i) advise Vanguard in writing of any alternative proposal (and any changes thereto) and the material terms and conditions of any such alternative proposal, including the identity of such person making such alternative proposal and (ii) provide Vanguard with copies of all written proposals or draft agreements received by LRE or its representatives setting forth the terms and conditions of, or otherwise relating to, such alternative proposal.

In addition, LRE will keep Vanguard reasonably informed of material developments with respect to any such alternative proposals, offers, inquiries or requests (and promptly (and in no event later than 24 hours after receipt) provide Vanguard with copies of any additional written proposals received by it or that LRE has delivered to any third party making an alternative proposal that relate to such alternative proposal) and of the status of any such discussions or negotiations.

LRE, LRE GP and the LRE GP sellers have also agreed in the merger agreement that none of LRE, LRE GP, any LRE GP seller or any subsidiary of LRE will enter into any agreement with any person subsequent to the date of the merger agreement that prohibits LRE from providing any information to Vanguard in accordance with the no solicitation provisions (including those described above).

Change in LRE GP Board Recommendation

The merger agreement provides that the board of directors of LRE GP will not (i) withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Vanguard, the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE's unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, (ii) fail to include such recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus or (iii) publicly approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any alternative proposal. LRE taking or failing to take, as applicable, any of the actions described above is referred to as a partnership change in recommendation. The merger agreement also provides that the board of directors of LRE GP will not: (i) approve, adopt or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, adopt or recommend, or allow LRE or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other similar contract or any tender or exchange offer providing for, with respect to, or in connection with any alternative proposal; (ii) fail to announce publicly within ten business days after a tender offer or exchange offer relating to the LRE common units has been commenced that the board of directors of LRE GP recommends rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer and reaffirming the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE's unitholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger; or (iii) resolve, agree or publicly propose to, or permit LRE or any of its representatives to agree or publicly propose to, take any of the actions referred to in this paragraph.

Notwithstanding the terms described above, if (i) LRE receives a written alternative proposal (and such proposal is not withdrawn) that the board of directors of LRE GP believes is bona fide, (ii) such alternative proposal did not result from a breach of the no solicitation provisions described above and (iii) the board of directors of LRE GP determines, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such alternative proposal constitutes a superior proposal, then the board of directors of LRE GP may at any time prior to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement, terminate the merger agreement and pay Vanguard the termination fee (described below in Termination Fee) or effect a partnership change in recommendation; provided, however, that the board of directors of LRE GP may not take such action pursuant to the foregoing unless:

LRE has provided prior written notice to Vanguard, generally at least two business days in advance, specifying in reasonable detail the reasons for such action (including a description of the material terms of such superior proposal and delivering Vanguard a copy of any current draft proposed definitive agreement providing for the alternative proposal for such superior proposal in the form to be entered into and any other relevant proposed transaction agreements); and during the two-business day period, LRE has negotiated with Vanguard in good faith (to the extent Vanguard desires to negotiate) regarding any revisions to or adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement proposed by Vanguard.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Other than in connection with an alternative proposal, the merger agreement also permits the board of directors of LRE GP to make a partnership change in recommendation in response to an intervening event (as described below) at any time prior to obtaining the approval of the LRE unitholders of the merger agreement, but only if:

prior to making such partnership change in recommendation, the board of directors of LRE GP determines in good faith, after consultation with and considering the advice of LRE's outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its duties under applicable Delaware law, LRE's partnership agreement or LRE GP's limited liability company agreement;

LRE has given at least three business days' advance written notice to Vanguard that the board of directors of LRE GP intends to take such action (which notice shall specify in reasonable detail the reasons for such action); and during the aforementioned period, LRE has negotiated with Vanguard in good faith (to the extent Vanguard desires to negotiate) regarding any revisions to or adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement proposed by Vanguard.

After compliance with the foregoing procedures, if the board of directors of LRE GP still determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to make a partnership change in recommendation would be inconsistent with its duties under applicable Delaware law, LRE's partnership agreement or LRE GP's limited liability company agreement, then the board of directors of LRE GP may, at any time prior to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement, effect a partnership change in recommendation.

As used in the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions set forth therein, an intervening event means a material event, circumstance, state of facts, occurrence, development or change that did not exist or was not known to the board of directors of LRE GP on the date of the merger agreement (or if known, the consequences of which were not known or reasonably foreseeable by the board of directors of LRE GP as of such date) that becomes known to the board of directors of LRE GP prior to a majority of LRE unitholders voting in favor of approving the merger agreement (subject to certain customary exceptions as further set forth in the merger agreement, including the receipt, existence, potential for or terms of an alternative proposal or any matter relating thereto or consequence thereof).

Notwithstanding the restrictions discussed above, LRE and the board of directors of LRE GP may disclose information to LRE's unitholders as contemplated by Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or as otherwise required by law. Any stop-look-and-listen communication by LRE of the board of directors of LRE GP to LRE's unitholders pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) will not be considered a failure to make, or a withdrawal, modification or change in any manner adverse to Vanguard of, the recommendation of the board of directors of LRE GP that LRE's unitholders approve the merger agreement.

Regulatory Matters

See Proposal 1: The Merger Regulatory Approvals and Clearances Required for the Merger for a description of the material regulatory requirements for the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Vanguard and LRE have determined that they are not required to file notifications with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or observe a mandatory pre-merger waiting period before completing the merger under the HSR Act.

Vanguard and LRE have agreed to (including to cause their respective subsidiaries to) cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best effort to: (i) take all actions necessary to cause the closing conditions of the merger agreement to be satisfied as promptly as practicable and to consummate the merger (including preparing all necessary documentation to effect all necessary filings, reports, and other documentation), (ii) obtain promptly (and in any event no later than December 31, 2015) all approvals, consents, clearances, expirations or terminations of waiting periods, registrations, permits (including environmental permits), authorizations and other confirmations from any governmental authority or third party necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (iii) defend any lawsuits or other legal proceedings challenging the merger agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (iv) to cooperate with each other to determine if the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement require a filing and observation of the waiting period under the HSR Act and, if required, make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable and in any event within 15 business days after the date of the merger agreement and to supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested by any governmental authority pursuant to the HSR Act or any other antitrust law; (v) use reasonable best efforts to cooperate with any filing or submission with a governmental authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and in connection with any investigation or other inquiries by or before a governmental authority relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (vi) promptly inform the other party (and supply the other party with) any communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Federal Trade Commission, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, or any other governmental authority and any material communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private person, in each case regarding the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (vii) permit the other party to review in advance and incorporate their reasonable comments in any communication to be given by it to any governmental authority with respect to obtaining any clearances required under any antitrust law in connection with the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement; and (viii) consult with the other party in advance of any meeting or teleconference with any governmental authority or, in connection with any proceeding by a private person, with any other person, and, to the extent not prohibited by the governmental authority or other person, give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and teleconferences.

In addition, Vanguard agreed to take, or cause to be taken, any and all steps and to make, or cause to be made, any and all undertakings necessary to resolve any objections that a governmental authority or any other person may assert under any antitrust law with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, and to avoid or eliminate each and every impediment under any antitrust law that may be asserted by any governmental authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, in each case, so as to enable the closing to occur as promptly as practicable and in any event no later than December 31, 2015; provided that nothing in the merger agreement requires, or will be construed to require, any party to sell or otherwise dispose of, hold separate (through the establishment of a trust or otherwise), divest itself of or limit the ownership or operations of all or any portion of their respective businesses, assets or operations.

In furtherance of the above, Vanguard and LRE agreed to use reasonable best efforts to contest and resist any administrative or judicial actions or proceedings challenging the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Vanguard and LRE may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the closing by mutual written consent.

In addition, either Vanguard or LRE may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by written notice to the other party:

if the closing of the merger has not occurred on or before December 31, 2015 (unless such failure of the closing to occur is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform and comply in all material respects with the covenants and agreements to be performed or complied with by such party prior to the closing);

if there is in effect a final and nonappealable order of a governmental authority restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (unless such right to terminate is primarily due to the failure of the terminating party to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement); or

if after the final adjournment of the LRE special meeting at which a vote of the LRE unitholders has been taken in accordance with the merger agreement, the approval of a majority of LRE unitholders has not been obtained.

147

In addition, Vanguard may terminate the merger agreement:

if, prior to final adjournment of the LRE special meeting, a partnership change in recommendation has occurred; or if LRE, LRE GP or any LRE GP seller has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement, or any representation or warranty of LRE, LRE GP or any LRE GP seller becomes untrue, which breach, failure to perform or untruth if it was continuing as of the closing date of the transactions would result in the failure of the Additional Vanguard Conditions to be satisfied, and such breach, failure to perform or untruth is incapable of being cured (or becoming true) or, if capable of being cured (or becoming true), is not cured (or does not become true) by the earlier of (i) December 31, 2015 or (ii) within 30 days following receipt by LRE of notice of such breach, failure or untruth from Vanguard.

In addition, LRE may terminate the merger agreement:

if Vanguard has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement, or any representation or warranty of Vanguard becomes untrue, which breach, failure to perform or untruth if it was continuing as of the closing date of the transactions would result in the failure of the Additional LRE Conditions to be satisfied, and such breach, failure to perform or untruth is incapable of being cured (or becoming true) or, if capable of being cured (or becoming true), is not cured (or does not become true) by the earlier of (i) December 31, 2015 or (ii) within 30 days following receipt by Vanguard of notice of such breach, failure or untruth from LRE (such a breach, whether committed by LRE (providing Vanguard a right of termination as described in the above discussion of Vanguard's termination rights under the merger agreement) or Vanguard (providing LRE a right of termination as described in this paragraph) being referred to herein as a terminable breach); or in order to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a superior proposal, provided that LRE must concurrently with such termination pay to Vanguard the termination fee (as described below).

In some cases, termination of the merger agreement will require (i) LRE or Vanguard, as the case may be, to reimburse up to $1,215,000 of the other party's expenses as described below under Expenses and (ii) LRE to pay a termination fee of $7,288,000 to Vanguard, as described below under Termination Fee.

Termination Fee

The merger agreement provides that LRE is required to pay a termination fee of $7,288,000, which is referred to as the termination fee, reduced by the expenses previously paid or reimbursed by LRE (as described below under Expenses), to Vanguard if:

prior to the adjournment of the LRE special meeting Vanguard terminates the merger agreement due to a partnership change in recommendation having occurred;

LRE terminates the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a superior proposal; or each of the following occurs:

an alternative proposal is publicly submitted, publicly proposed or publicly disclosed prior to, and not withdrawn at the time of, the date of the LRE special meeting (or, if such special meeting has not occurred, prior to the termination of the merger agreement as a result of the failure to consummate the merger prior to December 31, 2015);

the merger agreement is terminated:

by either LRE or Vanguard as a result of the failure to consummate the merger prior to December 31, 2015;

by either LRE or Vanguard because the merger agreement was not approved at the LRE special meeting; or by Vanguard because LRE has committed a terminable breach (as described above); and LRE enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, an alternative proposal within 12 months after the date the merger agreement is terminated (provided that for purposes of the payment of the termination fee described above, the term alternative proposal has the meaning provided under LRE Unitholder Approval, except that the references to 20% or more will be deemed to be references to 50% or more).

In no event will LRE be obligated to make more than one payment of the termination fee and, if LRE has previously paid any of Vanguard's expenses in accordance with the merger agreement (as described below under Expenses), the termination fee will be reduced by the amount of such expenses paid.

Expenses

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be the obligation of the respective party incurring such fees and expenses, except that Vanguard and LRE will each pay one-half of the expenses incurred in connection with any HSR Act filing and the filing, printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, in the event that the merger agreement is terminated by either party because the other party has committed a terminable breach (as described above), then the non-terminating party will pay the terminating party, within two business days, the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the terminating party incurred in connection with the negotiation, execution and delivery of the merger agreement and the performance of the transactions contemplated thereby up to an aggregate amount equal to $1,215,000.

Conduct of Business Pending the Consummation of the Transactions Contemplated by the Merger Agreement

Under the merger agreement, LRE has agreed that, until the earlier of the effective time and the termination of the merger agreement, and except (i) as expressly contemplated or permitted by the merger agreement, (ii) as may be required by applicable law or the terms of any LRE employee benefit plan, (iii) as set forth in the disclosure letter delivered by LRE to Vanguard or (iv) with the prior written consent of Vanguard (which consent cannot be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), neither LRE nor LRE GP will (and no LRE GP seller nor LRE GP will take any such action on its own behalf or on behalf of LRE or LRE GP), and will cause each of LRE's subsidiaries not to:

conduct its business and the business of its subsidiaries in all material respects other than in the ordinary course, fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organizations, goodwill and assets and maintain its rights, franchises and existing relations with customers, suppliers, employees and business associates, or take any action that adversely affects the ability of any party to obtain any approvals required under the HSR Act for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

issue, sell or otherwise permit to become outstanding, or authorize the creation of, any additional equity or any additional equity-related rights or enter into any agreement with respect to the foregoing;

split, combine or reclassify any of its equity interests or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for its equity interests, or repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, or permit any of its subsidiaries to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any membership, partnership or other equity interests or rights, subject to certain exceptions;

(i) sell, lease, transfer, farmout, exchange, dispose of, license, convey or discontinue all or any portion of its assets, business or properties, other than (A) in the ordinary course of business, (B) any individual sales, leases, dispositions or discontinuances for consideration not in excess of $5,000,000, or (C) any distributions otherwise permitted under the merger agreement, (ii) acquire, by merger or otherwise, or lease any assets or all or any portion of the business or property of any other entity other than in the ordinary course of business, (iii) merge, consolidate or enter into any other business combination transaction with any person or (iv) convert from a limited partnership, limited liability company or corporation, as the case may be, to any other business entity;

make or declare dividends or distributions (i) to the holders of LRE common units that are special or extraordinary distributions or that are in a cash amount in excess of $0.1875 per LRE common unit per quarter, or (ii) to the holders of any other units or interests in LRE, other than distributions required under the LRE partnership agreement by reason of regular quarterly cash distributions to the holders of LRE common units;

amend LRE's certificate of limited partnership or its partnership agreement, the certificate of formation of LRE GP, the LRE GP limited liability company agreement, or the organizational documents of any subsidiary of LRE; enter into any material contract, agreement or arrangement;

modify, amend, terminate or assign, or waive or assign any rights under any material agreement, in a manner that is materially adverse to LRE GP, LRE and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

waive, release, assign, settle or compromise any material claim, action or proceeding, including any state or federal regulatory proceeding seeking damages or injunction or other equitable relief; implement or adopt any change in its GAAP accounting principles, practices or methods, other than as may be required by GAAP;

fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain, with financially responsible insurance companies, insurance in such amounts and against such risks and losses as is maintained by it at present;

change in any material respect any of its express or deemed elections relating to taxes, including elections for any and all joint ventures, partnerships, limited liability companies or other investments where it has the capacity to make such binding election, settle or compromise any material claim, action, suit, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation, audit or controversy relating to taxes, amend in any material respect any tax return, or change in any material respect any of its methods of reporting income or deductions for federal income tax purposes from those employed in the preparation of its federal income tax return for the most recent taxable year for which a return has been filed, except as may be required by applicable law;

except with respect to certain employee benefit plans maintained by a third party, increase in any respect the compensation of its officers or employees whose annual base compensation exceeds $200,000 (provided that LRE will provide prompt written notice to Vanguard of any increase in compensation to any officers or employees), take any action to increase, or accelerate the payment or vesting of the amounts, benefits or rights payable or accrued or to become payable or accrued under, any employee benefit plan, grant any severance or termination pay to any officer or director of LRE GP or any employee, or establish, adopt, enter into or materially amend any plan, policy, program or arrangement for the benefit of any current or former directors or officers of LRE or any of its subsidiaries or any of their beneficiaries;

(i) incur, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable for any indebtedness, other than (A) borrowings under LRE's existing revolving credit facility or any one or more refinancings of all or any portion of the indebtedness thereunder entered into on commercially reasonable and customary terms; provided that the aggregate amount of indebtedness described in clause (A) shall not exceed $300.0 million and provided that LRE and LRE GP shall consult with Vanguard prior to paying or agreeing to pay any fees with respect to the indebtedness described in this clause (A), and in no event shall such fees exceed $1,000,000, or (B) trade credit in the ordinary course of business, (ii) redeem, repurchase, cancel or otherwise acquire any indebtedness, (iii) enter into any material lease, (iv) create any lien on its property or the property of its subsidiaries in connection with any pre-existing indebtedness, new indebtedness or lease (except with respect to refinancings described in clause (i)), or (v) make or commit to make any capital expenditures other than as contemplated in LRE's 2015 capital budget or to satisfy LRE's plugging and abandonment obligations; authorize, recommend, propose or announce an intention to adopt a plan of complete or partial dissolution or liquidation;

take any action or fail to take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause it or any of its subsidiaries that is not a corporation to be treated, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a corporation; enter into any partnership related party transaction (as such term is defined in the merger agreement); and agree or commit to do anything prohibited in the list above.

Under the merger agreement, the foregoing does not limit or restrict the ability of LRE or its subsidiaries to take otherwise prohibited actions in response to emergency situations to the extent required in order to ensure the protection of individuals or assets or compliance with environmental laws, including the release or threatened release of hazardous materials, provided that prompt notice is given to Vanguard.

Under the merger agreement, Vanguard has agreed that, until the earlier of the effective time and the termination of the merger agreement, and except (i) as expressly contemplated or permitted by the merger agreement, (ii) as may be required by applicable law, (iii) as set forth in the disclosure letter delivered by Vanguard to LRE and the LRE GP sellers or (iv) with the prior written consent of LRE (which consent cannot be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Vanguard will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to:

conduct its business and the business of its subsidiaries in all material respects other than in the ordinary course, fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organizations, goodwill and assets and maintain its rights, franchises and existing relations with customers, suppliers, employees and business associates, or take any action that adversely affects the ability of any party to obtain any approvals required under the HSR Act for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

issue, sell or otherwise permit to become outstanding, or authorize the creation of, any additional equity or any additional rights or enter into any agreement with respect to the foregoing; provided that Vanguard may issue and sell units in the ordinary course of business pursuant to its existing equity distribution agreement;

split, combine or reclassify any of its equity interests or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for its equity interests, or repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire, or permit any of its subsidiaries to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any membership, partnership or other equity interests or rights, subject to certain exceptions;

(i) sell, lease, transfer, farmout, exchange, dispose of, license, convey or discontinue all or any portion of its assets, business or properties other than (A) in the ordinary course of business, (B) any individual sales, leases, dispositions or discontinuances for consideration not in excess of $20,000,000, (C) any distributions expressly permitted under the merger agreement, (ii) merge, consolidate or enter into any other business combination transaction with any person or (iii) convert from a limited partnership or limited liability company, as the case may be, to any other business entity; make or declare dividends or distributions to the holders of Vanguard common units or other Vanguard securities, other than distributions under the Vanguard limited liability company agreement by reason of regular monthly or quarterly cash distributions to Vanguard unitholders;

amend the Vanguard certificate of formation, the Vanguard limited liability company agreement or any organizational document of Vanguard's subsidiaries;

modify, amend, terminate or assign, or waive or assign any rights under any material agreement, in a manner that is materially adverse to Vanguard and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; implement or adopt any material change in its GAAP accounting principles, practices or methods, other than as may be required by GAAP;

change in any material respect any of its express or deemed elections relating to taxes, including elections for any and all joint ventures, partnerships, limited liability companies or other investments where it has the capacity to make such binding election, settle or compromise any material claim, action, suit, litigation, proceeding, arbitration, investigation, audit or controversy relating to taxes, amend in any material respect any tax return, or change in any material respect any of its methods of reporting income or deductions for federal income tax purposes from those employed in the preparation of its federal income tax return for the most recent taxable year for which a return has been filed, except as may be required by applicable law;

authorize, recommend, propose or announce an intention to adopt a plan of complete or partial dissolution or liquidation;

take any action or fail to take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause Vanguard or any of its subsidiaries that is not a corporation to be treated, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as a corporation; and agree or commit to do anything prohibited in the list above.

Under the merger agreement, the foregoing does not limit or restrict the ability of Vanguard or its subsidiaries to take otherwise prohibited actions (x) to the extent that any such action is implemented to rationalize the corporate structure of Vanguard and its subsidiaries and does not result in the relevant assets being ultimately controlled, directly or indirectly, by a person other than Vanguard or (y) in response to emergency situations to the extent required in order to ensure the protection of individuals or assets or compliance with environmental laws, including the release or threatened release of hazardous materials, provided that prompt notice is given to LRE.

On May 21, 2015, Vanguard executed and delivered a consent letter in respect of the merger agreement, which was acknowledged and agreed by the board of directors of LRE GP and LRE. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the consent letter, the board of directors of LRE GP and LRE consented to the entry by Vanguard into the Eagle Rock merger agreement.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, from and after the effective time of the merger, to the fullest extent permitted by law, Vanguard and the surviving entity in the merger will indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been or becomes at any time prior to the effective time, an officer, director or employee of LRE GP, LRE or any of its subsidiaries and also with respect to any such person, in such person's capacity as a director, officer, employee, member, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, foundation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise (regardless of whether affiliated with LRE) serving at the request of or on behalf of LRE GP, LRE or any of its subsidiaries and together with such person's heirs, executors or administrators against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, indemnification expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement resulting therefrom. Additionally, Vanguard will advance to any indemnified party any indemnification expenses incurred in defending, serving as a witness with respect to or otherwise participating with respect to any claim or action in advance of the final disposition of such claim or action without the requirement of any bond or other security.

The indemnification and advancement obligations of Vanguard and the surviving entity in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement extend to acts or omissions occurring at or before the effective time and any claim or action relating thereto (including with respect to any acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of the merger agreement and the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated

by the merger agreement, including the consideration and approval thereof and the process undertaken in connection therewith and any claim or action relating thereto), and all rights to indemnification and advancement conferred hereunder continue as to each indemnified party who has ceased to be a director or officer of LRE or any of its subsidiaries after the date of the merger agreement and inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and personal and legal representatives.

For a period of six years from the effective time, as required by the merger agreement, Vanguard will maintain in effect the current directors' and officers' liability and fiduciary liability insurance policies covering the indemnified parties (but may substitute therefor other policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the indemnified parties so long as that substitution does not result in gaps or lapses in coverage or are alleged to have occurred) with respect to matters occurring on or before the effective time, but Vanguard is not required to pay annual premiums in excess of 300% of the last annual premiums paid therefor prior to the date of the merger agreement and will purchase the maximum amount of coverage that can be obtained for that amount if the coverage would cost in excess of that amount. Vanguard may, in its sole discretion, on or prior to the effective time, purchase a tail policy with respect to acts or omissions occurring or alleged to have occurred prior to the effective time that were committed or alleged to have been committed by such indemnified parties in their capacity as such; provided that in no event shall the cost of such policy, if purchased by Vanguard, exceed six times an amount equal to 300% of the last annual premiums paid thereof prior to the date of the merger agreement by LRE for directors' and officers' liability insurance policies and, if such a tail policy is purchased, neither Vanguard nor the surviving entity in the merger shall have any further obligations with respect to maintaining directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Financing Matters

Pursuant to the merger agreement, prior to the effective time of the merger, LRE and LRE GP have agreed, at Vanguard's sole cost and expense, to cooperate, and to cause their respective subsidiaries and representatives to cooperate, as is reasonably necessary with Vanguard in connection with any financing by Vanguard or Vanguard's subsidiaries in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as may be reasonably requested by Vanguard or its representatives.

Amendment of Merger Agreement

At any time prior to the effective time, whether before or after approval of the merger agreement by LRE unitholders, the parties may, by written agreement, amend the merger agreement; provided, however, that following approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by LRE unitholders, no amendment or change to the provisions of the merger agreement will be made which by law would require further approval by LRE unitholders without such approval. The merger agreement also provides that, in addition to any approvals required by LRE's partnership documents or LRE GP's limited liability company documents or pursuant to the merger agreement, any waivers by LRE or LRE GP of, or any amendment or modification of any provisions in the merger agreement other than relating to the conduct of business covenants (except relating to equity issuances) must be approved by the LRE GP conflicts committee.

Remedies; Specific Performance

Under the merger agreement, each of the parties agrees that irreparable damage would occur and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law in the event that any of the provisions of the merger agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms, and each agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief as provided in the merger agreement on the basis that (x) each party has an adequate remedy at law or (y) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by Vanguard, on the one hand, and LRE, LRE GP and the LRE GP sellers, on the other hand. These representations and warranties have been made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the merger agreement and:

may be intended not as statements of fact or of the condition of the parties to the merger agreement or their respective subsidiaries, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate; have been qualified by disclosures that were made to the other party in connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, which disclosures may not be reflected in the merger agreement; may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material to you or other investors; and were made only as of the date of the merger agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the merger agreement and are subject to more recent developments.

The representations and warranties made by both Vanguard and LRE relate to:

organization, general authority, standing and similar matters;
capitalization;
equity interests in other entities;

approval and authorization of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and any conflicts created by such transactions;

no violations or defaults resulting from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; required consents and approvals of governmental authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

documents filed with the SEC and financial statements included in those documents; internal controls and procedures;

absence of undisclosed liabilities since December 31, 2014; absence of certain changes or events from December 31, 2014 through the date of the merger agreement and from the date of the merger agreement through the closing date;

Additional representations and warranties made only by Vanguard relate to the operations of Merger Sub and the financing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Additional representations and warranties made only by LRE, LRE GP and the LRE GP sellers relate to state takeover statutes and unitholder approval of the merger.

Additional Agreements

The merger agreement also contains covenants relating to cooperation in the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus and additional agreements relating to, among other things, access to information, notice of specified matters and public announcements. The merger agreement also obligates Vanguard to have Vanguard common units to be issued in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement approved for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the date of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

VANGUARD NATURAL RESOURCES, LLC UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Vanguard as adjusted for the Merger and as further adjusted for the Eagle Rock Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity, and, at the same time, the purchase by Vanguard of all of the outstanding limited liability company interests in LRE GP, resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. Further, subject to the terms and conditions of the Eagle Rock merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the Eagle Rock merger agreement provides for the merger of Talon Merger Sub with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned subsidiary Vanguard.

The pro forma financial statements presented in this subsection have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under U.S. GAAP. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from LRE and Eagle Rock will be recorded as of the acquisition date at their respective fair values.

The historical financial information included in the columns entitled Vanguard presented in this subsection was derived from the unaudited financial statements included in Vanguard's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The historical financial information included in the columns entitled LRE was derived from LRE's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The historical financial information included in the columns entitled Eagle Rock was derived from Eagle Rock's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

On January 31, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Encore Energy Partners Operating, LLC, completed the acquisition of certain natural gas and oil assets in the Pinedale and Jonah fields located in Southwestern Wyoming for approximately $555.6 million in cash (the Pinedale Acquisition).

On September 30, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Vanguard Operating, LLC, completed the acquisition of natural gas, oil and NGL assets in the Piceance Basin located in Colorado for approximately $496.4 million (the Piceance Acquisition).

The unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet at June 30, 2015 presented in this subsection has been presented to show the effect as if the merger, the Eagle Rock merger and the pro forma adjustments had occurred on June 30, 2015. The Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition were included in Vanguard's historical balance sheet at June 30, 2015, and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition.

The unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection have been presented based on Vanguard's individual statements of operations, and reflect the pro forma operating results attributable to the merger, the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition as if the merger, the Eagle Rock merger and acquisitions and the related transactions had occurred on January 1, 2014. Vanguard's historical statements of operations include operating results from the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for this period.

Pro forma data is based on currently available information and certain estimates and assumptions as explained in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements presented in this subsection. Pro forma data is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have been attained had the merger, the Eagle Rock merger and the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition occurred on January 1, 2014. As actual adjustments may differ from the pro forma adjustments, the pro forma amounts presented should not be viewed as indicative of operations in future periods.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is based on assumptions that Vanguard believes are reasonable under the circumstances and are intended for informational purposes only. Actual results may differ from the estimates and assumptions used. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have occurred if these transactions had taken place on the dates indicated, nor is it indicative of future consolidated results.

The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger and there can be no assurance that the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement will be completed.

Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements

Note 1 Basis of Presentation

On January 31, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Encore Energy Partners Operating, LLC, completed the Pinedale Acquisition, whereby Vanguard acquired certain natural gas and oil assets in the Pinedale and Jonah fields located in Southwestern Wyoming for approximately $555.6 million in cash.

On September 30, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Vanguard Operating, LLC, completed the Piceance Acquisition, whereby Vanguard acquired natural gas, oil and NGL assets in the Piceance Basin located in Colorado for approximately $496.4 million.

On April 20, 2015, Vanguard and LRE entered into a definitive merger agreement, pursuant to which a subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into LRE, with LRE continuing as the surviving entity (the merger), and, at the same time, Vanguard will purchase all of the limited liability company interests in LRE GP, LLC, the general partner of LRE (LRE GP), resulting in both LRE and LRE GP becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of Vanguard. Under the terms of the merger agreement, holders of LRE common units will receive 0.550 common units of Vanguard for each LRE common unit held. In addition, Vanguard will issue and deliver to the members of LRE GP 12,320 common units of Vanguard in exchange for all limited liability company interests in LRE GP. The transaction would result in approximately 15.45 million additional common units being issued by Vanguard, which consists of 15.44 million common units issued to the former LRE unitholders and 12,320 common units issued to the former members of LRE GP. The completion of the merger is subject to the approval of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, voting together as a single class, and other customary closing conditions.

On May 21, 2015, Vanguard entered into a merger agreement (the Eagle Rock merger agreement) with Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P. (Eagle Rock) and Eagle Rock Energy GP, L.P., the general partner of Eagle Rock (Eagle Rock GP), pursuant to which and subject to the terms and conditions thereof an indirect subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned subsidiary of Vanguard (the Eagle Rock merger). Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding common unit representing a limited partner interest in Eagle Rock will be converted into the right to receive 0.185 newly issued Vanguard common units or, in the case of fractional Vanguard common units, cash. Further, in connection with the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard will adopt Eagle Rock's long-term incentive plan and each outstanding award of Eagle Rock common units issued under such plan will be converted into new awards of Vanguard restricted units. The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is subject to (i) the approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Eagle Rock common units, voting as a class, (ii) the approval of the issuance of the new Vanguard common units in connection with the merger by the majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively by holders of the outstanding Vanguard common units and Vanguard class B units present in person or by proxy at a duly called unitholder meeting and (iii) other customary closing conditions.

The proposed merger and the Eagle Rock merger will be accounted for in accordance with Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification Topic 805 Business Combinations, which is referred to as FASB ASC 805.

Vanguard's unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet at June 30, 2015 has been presented in this subsection to show the effect as if the merger, the Eagle Rock merger and the pro forma adjustments had occurred on June 30, 2015. The Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition were included in Vanguard's historical balance sheet at June 30, 2015, and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition.

Vanguard's unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 have been presented in this subsection based on Vanguard's individual statements of operations, and reflect the pro forma operating results attributable to the merger, the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition as if the merger, the Eagle Rock merger and acquisitions and the related transactions had occurred on January 1, 2014. Vanguard's historical statements of operations include operating results from the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for this period.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection includes adjustments to conform LRE's and Eagle Rock's accounting for oil and natural gas properties to the full cost method. Vanguard follows the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties while LRE and Eagle Rock follow the successful efforts method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties. Certain costs that are capitalized under the full cost method are expensed under the successful efforts method. These costs consist primarily of unsuccessful exploration drilling costs, geological and geophysical costs, delay rental on leases, abandonment costs and general and administrative expenses directly related to exploration and development activities. Under the successful efforts method of accounting, proved property acquisition costs are amortized on a unit-of-production basis over total proved reserves and costs of wells, related equipment and facilities are depreciated over the life of the proved developed reserves that will utilize those capitalized assets on a field-by-field basis. Under the full cost method of accounting, property acquisition costs, costs of wells, related equipment and facilities and future development costs are included in a single full cost pool, which is amortized on a unit-of-production basis over total proved reserves.

Pro forma data is based on currently available information and certain estimates and assumptions as explained in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements presented in this subsection. Pro forma data is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have been attained had the merger, the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition occurred on January 1, 2014. As actual adjustments may differ from the pro forma adjustments, the pro forma amounts presented should not be viewed as indicative of operations in future periods.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is based on assumptions that Vanguard believes are reasonable under the circumstances and are intended for informational purposes only. Actual results may differ from the estimates and assumptions used. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have occurred if these transactions had taken place on the dates indicated, nor is it indicative of future consolidated results.

LRE Merger

The consideration to be transferred, fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed and resulting goodwill in connection with the merger were calculated as follows (in thousands):

Pro forma consideration
Market value of Vanguard's common units to be issued to LRE unitholders ⁽⁶⁾	$ 143,252
Long-term debt assumed	285,000

	428,252

Long-term derivative assets	37,159
Other assets	445
Amount attributable assets acquired	$ 279,555
Goodwill	$ 209,389

The total consideration for the proposed merger comprising the fair value of Vanguard's common units to be issued to LRE unitholders and fair value of long-term debt assumed was assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on a preliminary assessment of the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at June 30, 2015 using currently available information. Vanguard expects to close the proposed merger as soon as practicable.

However, the proposed merger is subject to approvals by LRE unitholders and regulatory agencies. As such, the timing of closing this proposed merger is uncertain.

Eagle Rock Merger

The consideration to be transferred, fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed and resulting goodwill in connection with the Eagle Rock merger were calculated as follows (in thousands):

Pro forma consideration
Market value of Vanguard's common units to be issued to Eagle Rock unitholders ⁽⁹⁾	$ 266,472

Goodwill	$ 29,609

The total consideration for the proposed Eagle Rock merger comprising the fair value of Vanguard's common units to be issued to Eagle Rock unitholders and fair value of long-term debt assumed was assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on a preliminary assessment of the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at June 30, 2015 using currently available information. Vanguard expects to close the proposed Eagle Rock merger as soon as practicable. However, the proposed Eagle Rock merger is subject to approvals by Eagle Rock unitholders and Vanguard unitholders. As such, the timing of closing this proposed Eagle Rock merger is uncertain.

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the total consideration over the estimated fair value of net assets acquired. The total consideration for the proposed merger was based on the market capitalization of LRE or Eagle Rock, as applicable, with an added control premium which resulted in a higher value compared to the fair value of the net assets acquired. The resulting goodwill is attributable to Vanguard's qualitative assumptions of long-term factors that the acquisition creates for its unitholders. These assumptions include:

the acquisition of long-life, low-decline, mature oil and natural gas exploration and production assets that are well-suited for Vanguard's upstream MLP model and its stated corporate strategy to grow via accretive acquisitions; additional scale and efficiencies in Vanguard's current operating basins; increased scale of operations which will permit Vanguard to compete more effectively and facilitate future development projects and acquisitions through increased cash flow and lower cost of capital investment in the current reduced commodity price environment. Vanguard also expects the combined business to realize substantial operating and administrative synergies; the addition of a balanced production and reserves product mix that Vanguard believes provides an advantage in light of the better expected profit margins for oil and NGLs production than natural gas production as reflected in the short-term and long-term market prices for oil versus natural gas; and improvement in a number of Vanguard's financial ratios commonly used to assess its credit rating. The predominantly unit-for-unit nature of the transaction is expected to allow Vanguard to reduce leverage and strengthen its balance sheet. In addition, because size is a key contributor to credit ratings for oil and natural gas exploration and production companies, increased scale could result in improved credit ratings for the combined entity, in particular if both the merger and the Eagle Rock merger are consummated.

Vanguard believes the estimates used in the fair market valuation and purchase price allocation are reasonable and that the significant effects of the proposed merger and Eagle Rock merger are properly reflected.

The final purchase price allocation and the resulting effect on results of operations and financial position may significantly differ from the pro forma amounts included herein.

The purchase price allocation is preliminary and subject to change due to several factors, including:

changes in the estimated fair values of LRE's assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the proposed merger, which could result from changes in expected future commodity prices, changes in reserve estimates as well as other changes; changes in the estimated fair values of Eagle Rock's assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the proposed Eagle Rock merger, which could result from changes in expected future commodity prices, changes in reserve estimates as well as other changes; and changes in the estimated fair value of the Vanguard common unit consideration transferred depending on its estimated fair value at the date of closing of each merger.

Pro Forma Adjustment to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Balance Sheet

LRE Merger

- (a) Represents pro forma adjustments to:
adjust the assets acquired and liabilities assumed to their estimated fair values as of the closing date;
eliminate LRE's historical accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization balances; adjust asset retirement obligations using Vanguard's estimates; and eliminate deferred financing costs on LRE's term loan and credit facility.
- (b) Represents the termination of LRE's credit agreement and term loan agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding using Vanguard's borrowings under its reserve-based credit facility.
- (c) Represents the increase in Vanguard's common units resulting from the issuance of Vanguard's common units to LRE to effect the proposed merger as follows (in thousands, except merger exchange ratio and closing share price):

Estimated LRE common units owned by public unitholders	19,505
Estimated LRE common units owned by affiliated unitholders	8,570
Estimated LRE common units owned by the owners of LRE GP	22
Total estimated LRE common units to be acquired by Vanguard	28,097
Proposed merger exchange ratio of Vanguard common units for each LRE common unit	0.55
Vanguard common units to be issued	15,453

Edgar Filing: LRR Energy, L.P. - Form DEFM14A

Closing price of Vanguard common unit on August 27, 2015	$9.27
Vanguard common unit consideration	$ 143,252

The proposed transaction has a preliminary value of approximately $428.3 million, including the assumption of LRE's debt of approximately $285.0 million at June 30, 2015. The final value of the Vanguard common unit consideration will be determined based on the actual number of Vanguard common units issued and the market price of Vanguard's common unit as of the date of acquisition. A ten percent increase or decrease in the closing price of Vanguard's common units would increase or decrease the value of Vanguard common unit consideration and goodwill by approximately $14.3 million.

(d) Represents the elimination of LRE's historical equity in connection with the acquisition method of accounting.

- Represents the estimated $3.6 million of legal and advisory fees to be incurred by Vanguard not reflected in the June 30, 2015 balance sheet, that are not capitalizable as part of the transaction. These costs are reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as a reduction of equity as the costs will be expensed by Vanguard as incurred.
- Represents cash severance payment to an executive officer of LRE GP to be paid immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Eagle Rock Merger

- Represents pro forma adjustments to: adjust the assets acquired and liabilities assumed to their estimated fair values as of the closing date;
eliminate Eagle Rock's historical accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization balances;
adjust asset retirement obligations using Vanguard's estimates; and eliminate deferred financing costs on Eagle Rock's credit facility and senior notes.
- Represents the termination of Eagle Rock's revolving credit agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding using Vanguard's borrowings under its reserve-based credit facility.
- Represents the increase in Vanguard's common units resulting from the issuance of Vanguard's common units to Eagle Rock to effect the proposed merger as follows (in thousands, except merger exchange ratio and closing share price):

Estimated Eagle Rock common units owned by public unitholders	152,987
Estimated Eagle Rock unvested performance units that will vest upon closing	2,395
Total estimated Eagle Rock common units to be acquired by Vanguard	155,382
Proposed merger exchange ratio of Vanguard common units for each Eagle Rock common unit	0.185
Vanguard common units to be issued	28,746
Closing price of Vanguard common unit on August 27, 2015	$ 9.27
Vanguard common unit consideration	$ 266,472

The proposed transaction has a preliminary value of approximately $411.5 million, including the assumption of Eagle Rock's debt of approximately $145.1 million at June 30, 2015. The final value of the Vanguard common unit consideration will be determined based on the actual number of Vanguard common units issued and the market price of Vanguard's common unit as of the date of acquisition. A ten percent increase or decrease in the closing price of Vanguard's common units would increase or decrease the value of Vanguard common unit consideration and goodwill by approximately $26.6 million.

- Represents the elimination of Eagle Rock's historical equity in connection with the acquisition method of accounting.
- Represents the estimated $4.4 million of legal and advisory fees to be incurred by Vanguard not reflected in the June 30, 2015 balance sheet, that are not capitalizable as part of the transaction. These costs are reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as a reduction of equity as the costs will be expensed by Vanguard as incurred.

(1) Represents cash severance payment to certain employees, executive officers and directors of Eagle Rock GP to be paid immediately prior to the closing of the Eagle Rock merger.

Reclassifications were made to the historical LRE and Eagle Rock assets and liabilities to conform to Vanguard's presentation. Those reclassifications did not impact the total historical LRE and Eagle Rock assets or liabilities.

Note 3 Pro Forma Adjustments to the Unaudited Combined Statements of Operations

LRE Merger

Adjustments (a) (b) to the unaudited pro forma combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection include reclassifications required to conform LRE's revenue and expense items to Vanguard's presentation as follows:

(a) Represents the reclassification of LRE's other income sales to conform to Vanguard's natural gas product sales presentation.

(b) Represents the reclassification of LRE's income tax expense to conform to Vanguard's presentation.

Adjustments (c) (i) to the unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 are to reflect the merger with LRE and the conversion of LRE's method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties from the successful efforts method of accounting to the full cost method of accounting.

(c) Represents the capitalization of unsuccessful exploration costs, geological and geophysical costs and delay rentals attributable to the development of oil and natural gas properties in accordance with the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties.

(d) Represents the change in depreciation, depletion and amortization primarily resulting from the pro forma calculation of the combined entity's depletion expense under the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties.

(e) Represents the change in accretion expense using Vanguard's asset retirement obligations estimates.

(f) Represents the adjustment to eliminate the loss on settlement of asset retirement obligations to conform to Vanguard's full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties.

(g) Represents the elimination of certain general and administrative expenses resulting from LRE not being a separate public company after the completion of the Merger, including NYSE listing fees and SEC filing fees.

(h) Represents the adjustment to interest expense arising from borrowings under Vanguard's reserve-based credit facility used to terminate LRE's credit agreement and term loan agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding. We eliminated the interest expense recorded by LRE and calculated pro forma interest expense based on the long-term debt assumed of $285.0 million and Vanguard's variable interest rate as of June 30, 2015 of 2.18%. The effect on net income of a 1/8 percent variance in interest rates would be $0.4 million and $0.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014, respectively.

(i) Represents the adjustment for the weighted average number of units from the issuance of approximately 15.45 million Vanguard common units under the terms of the Merger, which consists of 15.44 million common units issued to the former LRE unitholders and 12,320 common units issued to the former members of LRE GP, whereby LRE's public unitholders will receive 0.550 Vanguard common units for each LRE common unit held at closing.

Eagle Rock Merger

Adjustments (j) (l) to the unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 include reclassifications required to conform Eagle Rock's revenue and expense items to Vanguard's presentation as follows:

- (j) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's natural gas, natural gas liquids, oil, condensate and sulfur revenues to conform to Vanguard's oil sales, natural gas sales and NGLs sales presentation.
- (k) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's other income sales to conform to Vanguard's natural gas product sales presentation.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(l) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's income on short term investments to conform to Vanguard's presentation.

(m) Adjustments (m) (q) to the unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 are to reflect the merger with Eagle Rock.

(n) Represents the change in depreciation, depletion and amortization primarily resulting from the pro forma (m) calculation of the combined entity's depletion expense under the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties.

(n) Represents the change in accretion expense using Vanguard's asset retirement obligations estimates.

(o) Represents the elimination of certain general and administrative expenses resulting from Eagle Rock not being a separate public company after the completion of the Merger, including NASDAQ listing fees and SEC filing fees.

(p) Represents the adjustment to interest expense arising from borrowings under Vanguard's reserve-based credit facility used to terminate Eagle Rock's credit agreement and term loan agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding. Interest expense recorded by Eagle Rock included interest for its senior notes and revolving credit facility. We eliminated the interest expense recorded by Eagle Rock related to the revolving credit (p) facility only and calculated pro forma interest expense. Since Eagle Rock had a more significant debt balance in 2014, we applied Vanguard's monthly variable interest rate, which ranged from 1.9% to 2.17% in 2014, and 2.18% to 2.44% in 2015, to Eagle Rock's monthly outstanding balance to calculate the pro forma interest expense adjustment. The effect on net income of a 1/8 percent variance in interest rates would be $0.2 million and $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014, respectively.

(q) Represents the adjustment for the weighted average number of units from the issuance of approximately 28.75 million Vanguard common units under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger, whereby Eagle Rock's public unitholders will receive 0.185 Vanguard common units for each Eagle Rock common unit held at closing. Since (q) the combined results of operations after giving effect to the merger and the Eagle Rock merger results in a net loss, 0.43 million Vanguard phantom units were excluded from the calculation of pro forma diluted earnings per unit due to their anti-dilutive effect.

The measurement of the fair value at acquisition date of the assets acquired in the Pinedale Acquisition as compared to the fair value of consideration transferred, adjusted for purchase price adjustments, resulted in a gain of $32.1 million, as reflected in the table below, primarily due to the increase in natural gas prices between the date the purchase and sale agreement was entered into and the closing date.

Fair value of assets and liabilities acquired:	(in thousands)
Oil and natural gas properties	$ 600,123
Inventory	244
Asset retirement obligations	(12,404)
Imbalance liabilities	(171)
Other	(125)
Total fair value of assets and liabilities acquired	587,667
Fair value of consideration transferred	555,553
Gain on acquisition	$ 32,114

The measurement of the fair value at acquisition date of the assets acquired in the Piceance Acquisition as compared to the fair value of consideration transferred, adjusted for purchase price adjustments, resulted in goodwill of $0.4 million, calculated in the following table, which was immediately impaired and recorded as a loss in current period earnings. The loss resulted primarily from the changes in oil and natural gas prices between the date the purchase and sale agreement was entered into and the closing date, which were used to value the reserves acquired.

Fair value of assets and liabilities acquired:	(in thousands)
Oil and natural gas properties	$ 523,537
Asset retirement obligations	(19,452)
Production and ad valorem taxes payable	(7,552)

The unaudited pro forma combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection includes adjustments to reflect the following:

- (a) Represents the increase in oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids sales resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (b)

Represents the increase in lease operating expenses and production and other taxes resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition.

- (c) Represents the increase in depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition and the corresponding reduction in the impairment recognized in the fourth quarter of 2014.
- (d) Represents the pro forma interest expense related to borrowings under the reserve-based credit facility to fund the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (e) Represents the elimination of the nonrecurring gain from the acquisition of oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids properties in the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (f) Represents the increase in oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids sales resulting from the Piceance Acquisition.
- (g) Represents the increase in lease operating expenses and production and other taxes resulting from the Piceance Acquisition.

Note 5 Supplemental Oil and Gas Information (Unaudited)

The following tables set forth summary pro forma information with respect to Vanguard's pro forma combined estimated net proved and proved developed natural gas, oil and natural gas liquids reserves for the year ended December 31, 2014. The pro forma information for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection gives effect to the Pinedale Acquisition, the Piceance Acquisition, the merger, and the Eagle Rock merger as if they occurred on January 1, 2014. Future exploration, exploitation and development expenditures, as well as future commodity prices and service costs, will affect the reserve volumes attributable to the acquired properties and the standardized measure of discounted future net cash flows.

The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is not a condition to the completion of the merger and there can be no assurance that the transactions contemplated by the Eagle Rock merger agreement will be completed.

Estimated changes in the quantities of natural gas, oil and natural gas liquids reserves for the year ended December 31, 2014 are as follows:

(a) The historical standardized measure includes Vanguard, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition. For the December 31, 2014 calculations in the preceding table, estimated future cash inflows from estimated future production of proved reserves were computed using the average oil and natural gas price based upon the 12-month average price of $94.87 and $94.99 per barrel of crude oil and $4.36 and $4.35 per MMBtu for natural gas for Vanguard Historical and LRE, respectively, adjusted for quality, transportation fees and a regional price differential, and the volume-weighted average price of $35.35 and $33.11 per barrel of natural gas liquids for Vanguard Historical and LRE, respectively. The natural gas liquids prices were calculated using the differentials for each property to West Texas Intermediate reference price of $94.87 and $94.99 for Vanguard Historical and LRE, respectively. Vanguard may receive amounts different than the standardize measure of discounted cash flow for a number of reasons, including price changes and the effects of Vanguard's hedging activities.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard as adjusted for the Eagle Rock merger without giving effect to the merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Delaware law, the Eagle Rock merger agreement provides for the merger of Talon Merger Sub with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and as a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Vanguard.

The pro forma financial statements presented in this subsection have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under U.S. GAAP. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from Eagle Rock will be recorded as of the acquisition date at their respective fair values.

The historical financial information included in the columns entitled "Vanguard" presented in this subsection was derived from the unaudited financial statements included in Vanguard's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The historical financial information included in the columns entitled "Eagle Rock" in this subsection was derived from Eagle Rock's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

On January 31, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Encore Energy Partners Operating, LLC, completed the acquisition of certain natural gas and oil assets in the Pinedale and Jonah fields located in Southwestern Wyoming for approximately $555.6 million in cash (the "Pinedale Acquisition").

On September 30, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Vanguard Operating, LLC, completed the acquisition of natural gas, oil and NGL assets in the Piceance Basin located in Colorado for approximately $496.41 million (the "Piceance Acquisition").

The unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet at June 30, 2015 presented in this subsection has been presented to show the effect as if the Eagle Rock merger and the pro forma adjustments had occurred on June 30, 2015. The Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition were included in Vanguard's historical balance sheet at June 30, 2015, and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition.

The unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection have been presented based on Vanguard's individual statements of operations, and reflect the pro forma operating results attributable to the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition as if the Eagle Rock merger and acquisitions and the related transactions had occurred on January 1, 2014. Vanguard's historical statements of operations include operating results from the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for this period.

Pro forma data is based on currently available information and certain estimates and assumptions as explained in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements presented in this subsection. Pro forma data is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have been attained had the Eagle Rock merger and the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition occurred on January 1, 2014. As actual adjustments may differ from the pro forma adjustments, the pro forma amounts presented in this subsection should not be viewed as indicative of operations in future periods.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is based on assumptions that Vanguard believes are reasonable under the circumstances and are intended for informational purposes only. Actual results may differ from the estimates and assumptions used. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have occurred if these transactions had taken place on the dates indicated, nor is it indicative of future consolidated results.

Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements

Note 1 Basis of Presentation

On January 31, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Encore Energy Partners Operating, LLC, completed the Pinedale Acquisition, whereby Vanguard acquired certain natural gas and oil assets in the Pinedale and Jonah fields located in Southwestern Wyoming for approximately $555.6 million in cash.

On September 30, 2014, Vanguard and its wholly owned subsidiary, Vanguard Operating, LLC, completed the Piceance Acquisition, whereby Vanguard acquired natural gas, oil and NGL assets in the Piceance Basin located in Colorado for approximately $496.4 million.

On May 21, 2015, Vanguard entered into a merger agreement (as such agreement may be amended from time to time, the Eagle Rock merger agreement) with Eagle Rock Energy Partners, L.P. (Eagle Rock) and Eagle Rock Energy GP, L.P., the general partner of Eagle Rock (Eagle Rock GP), pursuant to which and subject to the terms and conditions thereof a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into Eagle Rock, with Eagle Rock continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Vanguard (the Eagle Rock merger). Under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger agreement, each outstanding common unit representing a limited partner interest in Eagle Rock will be converted into the right to receive 0.185 newly issued Vanguard common units or, in the case of fractional Vanguard common units, cash. Further, in connection with the Eagle Rock merger agreement, Vanguard will adopt Eagle Rock's long-term incentive plan and each outstanding award of Eagle Rock common units issued under such plan will be converted into new awards of Vanguard restricted units. The completion of the Eagle Rock merger is subject to (i) the approval of the Eagle Rock merger agreement by the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Eagle Rock common units, voting as a class, (ii) the approval of the issuance of the new Vanguard common units in connection with the Eagle Rock merger by the majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively by holders of the Vanguard common units and class B units present in person or by proxy at a duly called unitholder meeting and (iii) other customary closing conditions.

The proposed Eagle Rock merger will be accounted for in accordance with Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification Topic 805 - Business Combinations, which is referred to as FASB ASC 805.

Vanguard's unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet at June 30, 2015 has been presented in this subsection to show the effect as if the Eagle Rock merger and the pro forma adjustments had occurred on June 30, 2015. The Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition were included in Vanguard's historical balance sheet at June 30, 2015, and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition.

Vanguard's unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 have been presented in this subsection based on Vanguard's individual statements of operations, and reflect the pro forma operating results attributable to the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition as if the Eagle Rock merger and acquisitions and the related transactions had occurred on January 1, 2014. Vanguard's historical statements of operations include operating results from the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and, as such, there are no pro forma adjustments related to the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition for this period.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection includes adjustments to conform Eagle Rock's accounting for oil and natural gas properties to the full cost method. Vanguard follows the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties while Eagle Rock follows the successful efforts method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties. Certain costs that are capitalized under the full cost method are expensed under the successful efforts method. These costs consist primarily of unsuccessful exploration drilling costs, geological and geophysical costs, delay rental on leases, abandonment costs and general and administrative expenses directly related to exploration and development activities. Under the successful efforts method of accounting, proved property acquisition costs are amortized on a unit-of-production basis over total proved reserves and costs of wells, related equipment and facilities are depreciated over the life of the proved developed reserves that will utilize those capitalized assets on a field-by-field basis. Under the full cost method of accounting, property acquisition costs, costs of wells, related equipment and facilities and future development costs are included in a single full cost pool, which is amortized on a unit-of-production basis over total proved reserves.

Pro forma data is based on currently available information and certain estimates and assumptions as explained in the notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements presented in this subsection. Pro forma data is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have been attained had the Eagle Rock merger, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition occurred on January 1, 2014. As actual adjustments may differ from the pro forma adjustments, the pro forma amounts presented should not be viewed as indicative of operations in future periods.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is based on assumptions that Vanguard believes are reasonable under the circumstances and are intended for informational purposes only. Actual results may differ from the estimates and assumptions used. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented in this subsection is not necessarily indicative of the financial results that would have occurred if these transactions had taken place on the dates indicated, nor is it indicative of future consolidated results.

The total consideration for the proposed Eagle Rock merger comprising the fair value of Vanguard's common units to be issued to Eagle Rock unitholders and fair value of long-term debt assumed was assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on a preliminary assessment of the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at June 30, 2015 using currently available information. Vanguard expects to close the proposed Eagle Rock merger as soon as practicable. However, the proposed Eagle Rock merger is subject to approvals by Eagle Rock unitholders and Vanguard unitholders. As such, the timing of closing this proposed Eagle Rock merger is uncertain.

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the total consideration over the estimated fair value of net assets acquired. The total consideration for the proposed merger was based on the market capitalization of LRE or Eagle Rock, as applicable, with an added control premium which resulted in a higher value compared to the fair value of the net assets acquired. The resulting goodwill is attributable to Vanguard's qualitative assumptions of long-term factors that the acquisition creates for its unitholders. These assumptions include:

the acquisition of long-life, low-decline, mature oil and natural gas exploration and production assets that are well-suited for Vanguard's upstream MLP model and its stated corporate strategy to grow via accretive acquisitions; additional scale and efficiencies in Vanguard's current operating basins; increased scale of operations which will permit Vanguard to compete more effectively and facilitate future development projects and acquisitions through increased cash flow and lower cost of capital investment in the current reduced commodity price environment. Vanguard also expects the combined business to realize substantial operating and administrative synergies; the addition of a balanced production and reserves product mix that Vanguard believes provides an advantage in light of the better expected profit margins for oil and NGLs production than natural gas production as reflected in the short-term and long-term market prices for oil versus natural gas; and improvement in a number of Vanguard's financial ratios commonly used to assess its credit rating. The predominantly unit-for-unit nature of the transaction is expected to allow Vanguard to reduce leverage and strengthen its balance sheet. In addition, because size is a key contributor to credit ratings for oil and natural gas exploration and production companies, increased scale could result in improved credit ratings for the combined entity, in particular if both the merger and the Eagle Rock merger are consummated.

Pro Forma Adjustment to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Balance Sheet

Eagle Rock Merger

- (a) Represents pro forma adjustments to:
- adjust the assets acquired and liabilities assumed to their estimated fair values as of the closing date;
 - eliminate Eagle Rock's historical accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization balances;
 - adjust asset retirement obligations using Vanguard's estimates; and
 - eliminate deferred financing costs on Eagle Rock's credit facility and senior notes.

(b) Represents the termination of Eagle Rock's revolving credit agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding using Vanguard's borrowings under its reserve-based credit facility.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(c) Represents the increase in Vanguard's common units resulting from the Vanguard common unit issuance to effect the proposed Eagle Rock merger as follows (in thousands, except merger exchange ratio and closing share price):

Estimated Eagle Rock common units owned by public unitholders	152,987
Estimated Eagle Rock unvested performance units that will vest upon closing	2,395
Total estimated Eagle Rock common units to be acquired by Vanguard	155,382
Proposed merger exchange ratio of Vanguard common units for each Eagle Rock common unit	0.185
Vanguard common units to be issued	28,746
Closing price of Vanguard common unit on August 27, 2015	$ 9.27
Vanguard common unit consideration	$ 266,472

The proposed Eagle Rock merger has a preliminary value of approximately $411.5 million, including the assumption of Eagle Rock's debt of approximately $145.1 million at June 30, 2015. The final value of the Vanguard common unit consideration will be determined based on the actual number of Vanguard common units issued and the market price of Vanguard's common unit as of the date of acquisition. A ten percent increase or decrease in the closing price of Vanguard's common units would increase or decrease the value of Vanguard common unit consideration and goodwill by approximately $26.6 million.

(d) Represents the elimination of Eagle Rock's historical equity in connection with the acquisition method of accounting.

(e) Represents the estimated $4.4 million of legal and advisory fees to be incurred by Vanguard not reflected in the June 30, 2015 balance sheet, that are not capitalizable as part of the transaction. These costs are reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as a reduction of equity as the costs will be expensed by Vanguard as incurred.

(f) Represents cash severance payment to certain employees, executive officers and directors of Eagle Rock G&P to be paid immediately prior to the closing of the Eagle Rock merger.

Reclassifications were made to the historical Eagle Rock assets and liabilities to conform to Vanguard's presentation. Those reclassifications did not impact the total historical Eagle Rock assets or liabilities.

Note 3 Pro Forma Adjustments to the Unaudited Combined Statements of Operations

Eagle Rock Merger

Adjustments (a) - (c) to the unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection include reclassifications required to conform Eagle Rock's revenue and expense items to Vanguard's presentation as follows:

- (a) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's natural gas, natural gas liquids, oil, condensate and sulfur revenues to conform to Vanguard's oil sales, natural gas sales and NGLs sales presentation.
 - (b) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's other income sales to conform to Vanguard's natural gas product sales presentation.
 - (c) Represents the reclassification of Eagle Rock's income on short term investments to conform to Vanguard's presentation.
- Adjustments (d) (h) to the unaudited pro forma combined statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014 are to reflect the merger with Eagle Rock.

Represents the change in depreciation, depletion and amortization primarily resulting from the pro forma (d) calculation of the combined entity's depletion expense under the full cost method of accounting for oil and natural gas properties.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- (e) Represents the change in accretion expense using Vanguard's asset retirement obligations estimates.
- (f) Represents the elimination of certain general and administrative expenses resulting from Eagle Rock not being a separate public company after the completion of the Eagle Rock merger, including NASDAQ listing fees and SEC filing fees.
- (g) Represents the adjustment to interest expense arising from borrowings under Vanguard's reserve-based credit facility used to terminate Eagle Rock's credit agreement and term loan agreement and the extinguishment of the related debt outstanding. Interest expense recorded by Eagle Rock included interest for its senior notes and revolving credit facility. We eliminated the interest expense recorded by Eagle Rock related to the revolving credit facility only and calculated pro forma interest expense. Since Eagle Rock had a more significant debt balance in 2014, we applied Vanguard's monthly variable interest rate, which ranged from 1.9% to 2.17% in 2014, and 2.18% to 2.44% in 2015, to Eagle Rock's monthly outstanding balance to calculate the pro forma interest expense adjustment. The effect on net income of a 1/8 percent variance in interest rates would be $0.2 million and $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2014, respectively.
- (h) Represents the adjustment for the weighted average number of units from the issuance of approximately 28.75 million Vanguard common units under the terms of the Eagle Rock merger, whereby Eagle Rock's public unitholders will receive 0.185 Vanguard common units for each Eagle Rock common unit held at closing of the Eagle Rock merger. Since the combined results of operations after giving effect to the merger and the Eagle Rock merger results in a net loss, 0.43 million Vanguard phantom units were excluded from the calculation of pro forma diluted earnings per unit due to their anti-dilutive effect.

The measurement of the fair value at acquisition date of the assets acquired in the Pinedale Acquisition as compared to the fair value of consideration transferred, adjusted for purchase price adjustments, resulted in a gain of $32.1 million, as reflected in the table below, primarily due to the increase in natural gas prices between the date the purchase and sale agreement was entered into and the closing date.

Fair value of assets and liabilities acquired:	(in thousands)
Oil and natural gas properties	$ 600,123
Inventory	244
Asset retirement obligations	(12,404)

Total fair value of assets and liabilities acquired	587,667
Fair value of consideration transferred	555,553
Gain on acquisition	$ 32,114

The measurement of the fair value at acquisition date of the assets acquired in the Piceance Acquisition as compared to the fair value of consideration transferred, adjusted for purchase price adjustments, resulted in goodwill of $0.4 million, calculated in the following table, which was immediately impaired and recorded as a loss in current period earnings. The loss resulted primarily from the changes in oil and natural gas prices between the date the purchase and sale agreement was entered into and the closing date, which were used to value the reserves acquired.

Fair value of assets and liabilities acquired:	(in thousands)
Oil and natural gas properties	$ 523,537

The unaudited pro forma combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection include adjustments to reflect the following:

- (a) Represents the increase in oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids sales resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (b)

Represents the increase in lease operating expenses and production and other taxes resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition.

- (c) Represents the increase in depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion resulting from the Pinedale Acquisition and the corresponding reduction in the impairment recognized in the fourth quarter of 2014.
- (d) Represents the pro forma interest expense related to borrowings under the reserve-based credit facility to fund the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (e) Represents the elimination of the nonrecurring gain from the acquisition of oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids properties in the Pinedale Acquisition.
- (f) Represents the increase in oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids sales resulting from the Piceance Acquisition.
- (g) Represents the increase in lease operating expenses and production and other taxes resulting from the Piceance Acquisition.

- (i) Represents the pro forma interest expense related to borrowings under the reserve-based credit facility to fund the Piceance Acquisition.
- (j) Represents the elimination of the nonrecurring loss from the impairment of the goodwill recognized in the acquisition of oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids properties in the Piceance Acquisition.

Note 5 Supplemental Oil and Gas Information (Unaudited)

The following tables set forth summary pro forma information with respect to Vanguard's pro forma combined estimated net proved and proved developed natural gas, oil and natural gas liquids reserves for the year ended December 31, 2014. The pro forma information for the year ended December 31, 2014 presented in this subsection gives effect to the Pinedale Acquisition, the Piceance Acquisition and the Eagle Rock merger as if they occurred on January 1, 2014. Future exploration, exploitation and development expenditures, as well as future commodity prices and service costs, will affect the reserve volumes attributable to the acquired properties and the standardized measure of discounted future net cash flows.

	Vanguard Historical	Pinedale Acquisition Adjustments	Piceance Acquisition Adjustments	Pro Forma Adjustments	Vanguard As Adjusted	Eagle Rock Historical	Vanguard/ Eagle Rock Pro Forma Combined

- (a) The historical standardized measure includes Vanguard, the Pinedale Acquisition and the Piceance Acquisition. For the December 31, 2014 calculations in the preceding table, estimated future cash inflows from estimated future production of proved reserves were computed using the average oil and natural gas price based upon the 12-month average price of $94.87 and $94.99 per barrel of crude oil and $4.36 and $4.35 per MMBtu for natural gas for (i) Vanguard Historical and (ii) Eagle Rock, respectively, adjusted for quality, transportation fees and a regional price differential. The natural gas liquids prices were calculated using the differentials for each property to West Texas Intermediate reference price of $94.87 and $94.99 for (i) Vanguard Historical and (ii) Eagle Rock, respectively. Vanguard may receive amounts different than the standardize measure of discounted cash flow for a number of reasons, including price changes and the effects of Vanguard's hedging activities.

The following are the principal sources of change in the combined standardized measure of discounted future net cash flows on a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 2014 (in thousands):

- (a) The pro forma standardized measure includes Vanguard, the Pinedale Acquisition, the Piceance Acquisition and the Eagle Rock merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to LRE common unitholders and Vanguard common unitholders. Unless otherwise noted, the legal conclusions set forth in the discussion relating to the consequences of the merger to LRE and its common unitholders are the opinion of Andrews Kurth LLP, counsel to LRE (Andrews Kurth), as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to those matters. Unless otherwise noted, the legal conclusions set forth in the discussion relating to the consequences of the merger to Vanguard and its common unitholders are the opinion of Paul Hastings LLP, counsel to Vanguard (Paul Hastings), as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to those matters. This discussion is based upon current provisions of the Code, existing and proposed Treasury regulations promulgated under the Code (the Treasury Regulations) and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Changes in these authorities may cause the tax consequences to vary substantially from the consequences described below.

This discussion does not purport to be a complete discussion of all U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Moreover, the discussion focuses on LRE common unitholders and Vanguard common unitholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States (for U.S. federal income tax purposes) and has only limited application to corporations, estates, trusts, nonresident aliens or other unitholders subject to specialized tax treatment, such as tax-exempt institutions, employee benefit plans, foreign persons, financial institutions, insurance companies, real estate investment trusts (REITs), individual retirement accounts (IRAs), mutual funds, traders in securities that elect mark-to-market, persons who hold LRE common units or Vanguard common units as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, persons who acquired LRE common units or Vanguard common units by gift, or directors and employees of LRE that received (or are deemed to receive) LRE common units as compensation or through the exercise (or deemed exercise) of options, unit appreciation rights, phantom units or restricted units granted under an LRE equity incentive plan. Also, the discussion assumes that the LRE common units and Vanguard common units are held as capital assets at the time of the merger (generally, property held for investment).

Neither LRE nor Vanguard has sought a ruling from the IRS with respect to any of the tax consequences discussed below, and the IRS would not be precluded from taking positions contrary to those described herein. As a result, no assurance can be given that the IRS will agree with all of the tax characterizations and the tax consequences described below. Some tax aspects of the merger are not certain, and no assurance can be given that the below-described opinions and/or the statements contained herein with respect to tax matters would be sustained by a court if contested by the IRS. Furthermore, the tax treatment of the merger may be significantly modified by future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions. Any modifications may or may not be retroactively applied.

Accordingly, LRE and Vanguard strongly urge each LRE common unitholder and Vanguard common unitholder to consult with, and depend upon, such unitholder's own tax advisor in analyzing the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger particular to the unitholder.

Tax Opinions Required as a Condition to Closing

No ruling has been or will be requested from the IRS with respect to the tax consequences of the merger. Instead, LRE and Vanguard will rely on the opinions of their respective counsel regarding the tax consequences of the merger.

Edgar Filing: LRR Energy, L.P. - Form DEFM14A

It is a condition of Vanguard's obligation to complete the merger that Vanguard receive an opinion of its counsel, Paul Hastings, to the effect that for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

Vanguard will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code;
no gain or loss will be recognized by a holder of Vanguard common units as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; and at least 90% of the combined gross income of Vanguard and LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the Closing Date for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code.

For a description of the legal conclusions of Paul Hastings with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, please read U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger and Tax Consequences of the Merger to Vanguard and its Unitholders. For a description of the legal conclusions of Paul Hastings with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of Vanguard common unit ownership, please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of Vanguard Common Unit Ownership.

It is a condition of LRE's obligation to complete the merger that LRE receive an opinion of its counsel, Andrews Kurth, to the effect that for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

except to the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units causes the transaction to be treated as a disguised sale under Section 707 of the Code or is otherwise taxable, LRE will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any actual or constructive distribution of cash, including as a result of any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code;

except to the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units causes the transaction to be treated as a disguised sale under Section 707 of the Code or is otherwise taxable, holders of LRE common units will not recognize any income or gain as a result of the merger other than any gain resulting from any actual or constructive distribution of cash, including as a result of any decrease in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code; and at least 90% of the gross income of LRE for the most recent four complete calendar quarters ending before the Closing Date for which the necessary financial information is available is from sources treated as qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code.

The opinion of Andrews Kurth will not extend to any LRE common unitholder who acquired common units from LRE in exchange for property other than cash.

For a description of the legal conclusions of Andrews Kurth with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, please read U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger, Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE, Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE Common Unitholders, Tax Basis and Holding Period of the Vanguard Common Units Received and Effect of Termination of LRE's Tax Year at Closing of Merger.

The opinions of counsel will assume that the merger will be consummated in the manner contemplated by, and in accordance with, the terms set forth in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, the tax opinions delivered to Vanguard and LRE at closing will be based upon certain factual assumptions, representations and covenants made by the officers of Vanguard, LRE and LRE GP and any of their respective affiliates. If there are material changes to the tax consequences of the merger and either Vanguard or LRE waives the receipt of the requisite tax opinion as a condition to closing, then this proxy statement/prospectus will be amended and recirculated and unitholder approval will be resolicited. Unlike a ruling, an opinion of counsel represents only that counsel's best legal judgment and does not bind the IRS or the courts. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the above-described opinions will be sustained by a court if contested by the IRS.

Assumptions Related to the U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger

The discussion below assumes that Vanguard will be classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes at the time of the merger. Please read the discussion of the opinion of Paul Hastings that Vanguard is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of Vanguard Common Unit Ownership Partnership Status below. The discussion below also assumes that LRE will be classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes at the time of the merger. Please read the discussion of the opinion of Andrews Kurth that LRE is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes under U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger. Following the merger, a holder of LRE common units who receives Vanguard common units will be treated as a partner in Vanguard regardless of the U.S. federal income tax classification of LRE.

Additionally, the discussion below assumes that all of the liabilities of LRE that are deemed assumed by Vanguard in the merger qualify for an exception to the disguised sale rules. Vanguard and LRE believe that such liabilities qualify for one or more of the exceptions to the disguised sale rules and intend to take the position that neither Vanguard nor LRE will recognize any income or gain as a result of the disguised sale rules with respect to such liabilities.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, (1) a subsidiary of Vanguard will merge with and into LRE and all LRE common units will be converted into the right to receive Vanguard common units and (2) Vanguard will acquire all of the limited liability company interests of LRE GP in exchange for Vanguard common units. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will be a merger of Vanguard and LRE within the meaning of Treasury Regulations promulgated under Section 708 of the Code, with Vanguard being treated as the continuing partnership and LRE being treated as the terminated partnership.

As a result, the following is deemed to occur for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (1) LRE will be deemed to contribute its assets (subject to its liabilities) to Vanguard in exchange for (i) the issuance to LRE of Vanguard common units (ii) the assumption of LRE's liabilities and (iii) any cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard units, and (2) LRE will be deemed to liquidate, distributing Vanguard common units and cash to the holders of LRE common units in exchange for such LRE common units (the Assets-Over Form). LRE will take the position that the cash received in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units will be treated as received by LRE in connection with the merger. If the treatment of the cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units were challenged, an LRE common unitholder may be treated as having made a taxable sale of a portion of its LRE common units to Vanguard in exchange for the fractional cash and would recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash received and such unitholder's tax basis in its LRE common units deemed sold to Vanguard.

The remainder of this discussion, except as otherwise noted, assumes that the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes in the manner described above. For the purposes of this discussion under U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Merger with respect to LRE and its unitholders and based upon the factual representations made by LRE and LRE GP, Andrews Kurth is of the opinion that LRE will be treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes immediately preceding the merger. The representations made by LRE and LRE GP upon which Andrews Kurth has relied in rendering its opinion include, without limitation: (a) neither LRE nor any of its operating subsidiaries (other than LRE Finance Corporation) has elected to be treated, or will be treated, as a corporation for federal income tax purposes; (b) for each taxable year, more than 90% of LRE's gross income has been and will be income of a character that Andrews Kurth has opined is qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code; and (c) each hedging transaction that LRE treats as resulting in qualifying income has been and will be appropriately identified as a hedging transaction pursuant to applicable Treasury Regulations, and has been and will be associated with oil, natural gas, or products thereof that are held or to be held by LRE in activities that Andrews Kurth has opined result in qualifying income.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE

Under the Assets-Over Form, LRE will be deemed to contribute all of its assets to Vanguard in exchange for Vanguard common units, the assumption of LRE's liabilities, and cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard common units. In general, the deemed contribution of assets from LRE to Vanguard in exchange for Vanguard common units will not result in the recognition of gain or loss by LRE. The actual and deemed receipt of cash by LRE, however, could give rise to the recognition of taxable gain by LRE, and any such taxable gain would be allocated to the LRE common unitholders pursuant to the LRE partnership agreement. The deemed receipt of cash by LRE could give rise to a partially taxable disguised sale of assets from LRE to Vanguard under section 707(a)(2)(B) of the Code. Under Section 707 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, a transfer of property by a partner to a partnership, coupled with a related transfer of money or other consideration (other than a partnership interest) by the partnership to such partner (including the partnership's assumption of, or taking of property subject to, certain liabilities), may be characterized, in part, as a disguised sale of property, rather than as a non-taxable contribution of the property to the partnership. The deemed receipt of cash from Vanguard is expected to qualify for one or more exceptions to disguised sale treatment and therefore might not be treated as part of a disguised sale of property by LRE to Vanguard.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to LRE Common Unitholders

Under the Assets-Over Form, holders of LRE common units will be deemed to receive distributions in liquidation of LRE consisting of Vanguard common units and any cash in lieu of fractional Vanguard units. In general, the receipt of Vanguard common units will not result in the recognition of taxable gain or loss to such unitholders. The receipt of cash by a holder of LRE common units (including, as discussed below, a deemed distribution of cash resulting from a net reduction in the amount of nonrecourse liabilities allocated to such unitholder) will result in the recognition of taxable gain if such receipt exceeds the adjusted tax basis in the LRE common units surrendered in the merger. The receipt of Vanguard common units and cash may trigger taxable gain under the disguised sale rules of section 707(a)(2)(B) of the Code for a holder of LRE common units that contributed property in exchange for LRE common units.

As a partner in LRE, a holder of LRE common units is entitled to include the nonrecourse liabilities of LRE attributable to its LRE common units in the tax basis of its LRE common units. As a partner in Vanguard after the merger, a holder of LRE common units will be entitled to include the nonrecourse liabilities of Vanguard attributable to the Vanguard common units received in the merger in the tax basis of such units received. The nonrecourse liabilities of Vanguard will include the nonrecourse liabilities of LRE after the merger. The amount of nonrecourse liabilities attributable to an LRE common unit or a Vanguard common unit is determined under complex regulations under Section 752 of the Code.

If the nonrecourse liabilities attributable to the Vanguard common units received by a holder of LRE common units in the merger exceed the nonrecourse liabilities attributable to the LRE common units surrendered by such LRE common unitholder in the merger, such LRE common unitholder's tax basis in the Vanguard common units received will be correspondingly higher than such unitholder's tax basis in the LRE common units surrendered. If the nonrecourse liabilities attributable to the Vanguard common units received by a holder of LRE common units in the merger are less than the nonrecourse liabilities attributable to the LRE common units surrendered by such LRE common unitholder in the merger, such LRE common unitholder's tax basis in the Vanguard common units received will be correspondingly lower than the unitholder's tax basis in the LRE common units surrendered. Please read Tax Basis and Holding Period of the Vanguard Common Units Received below.

Any reduction in liabilities described in the preceding paragraph will be treated as a deemed cash distribution to a holder of LRE common units. Additionally, a holder of LRE common units will be treated as receiving a cash distribution as a result of the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional units in the merger. If the amount of any such actual or deemed distributions of cash to a holder of LRE common units exceeds such LRE common unitholder's tax basis in the LRE common units surrendered, such LRE common unitholder will recognize taxable gain in an amount equal to such excess. While there can be no assurance, Vanguard and LRE expect that most holders of LRE common units will not recognize gain in this manner. However, the application of the rules governing the allocation of nonrecourse liabilities in the context of the merger is complex and subject to uncertainty. There can be no assurance that a holder of LRE common units will not recognize gain as a result of the distributions deemed received by such LRE common unitholder as a result of a net decrease in the amount of nonrecourse liabilities allocable to such LRE common unitholder as a result of the merger and the amount of cash for fractional Vanguard common units actually received by such LRE common unitholder in the merger. The amount and effect of any gain that may be recognized by an affected LRE common unitholder will depend on the affected LRE common unitholder's particular situation, including the ability of the affected LRE common unitholder to utilize any suspended passive losses. Depending on these factors, any particular affected LRE common unitholder may, or may not, be able to offset all or a portion of any gain recognized. Each holder of LRE common units should consult such unitholder's own tax advisor in analyzing whether the merger causes such unitholder to recognize actual and/or deemed distributions in excess of the tax basis of his LRE common units surrendered in the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Tax Basis and Holding Period of the Vanguard Common Units Received

A holder of LRE common units has an initial tax basis in its LRE common units, which consists of the amount such LRE common unitholder paid for such LRE common units plus such LRE common unitholder's share of LRE's nonrecourse liabilities. That basis has been and will be increased by such LRE common unitholder's share of income and by any increases in such LRE common unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities. That basis has been and will be decreased, but not below zero, by distributions, by such LRE common unitholder's share of losses, by any decreases in such LRE common unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities and by such LRE common unitholder's share of expenditures that are not deductible in computing taxable income and are not required to be capitalized.

A holder of LRE common units will have an initial aggregate tax basis in the Vanguard common units such LRE common unitholder will receive in the merger that will be equal to such LRE common unitholder's adjusted tax basis in the LRE common units exchanged therefor, decreased by (i) any basis attributable to such LRE common unitholder's share of LRE's nonrecourse liabilities and (ii) any cash received in the merger, and increased by such LRE common unitholder's share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities immediately after the merger. In addition, the tax basis in the Vanguard common units received in the merger by a holder of LRE common units will be increased by the amount of any income or gain recognized by such LRE common unitholder pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the merger.

As a result of the Assets-Over Form, a holder of LRE common units will have a holding period in the Vanguard common units received in the merger that will not be determined by reference to its holding period in the LRE common units exchanged therefor. Instead, such LRE common unitholder's holding period in the Vanguard common units received in the merger that are attributable to LRE's capital assets or assets used in its business as defined in Section 1231 of the Code will include LRE's holding period in those assets. The holding period for Vanguard common units received by a holder of LRE common units attributable to other assets of LRE, such as inventory and receivables, will begin on the day following the merger.

Effect of Termination of LRE's Tax Year at Closing of Merger

LRE uses the year ending December 31 as its taxable year and the accrual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result of the merger, LRE's taxable year will end as of the effective date of the merger, and LRE will be required to file a final U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year ending upon the effective date of the merger. Each LRE common unitholder will receive a Schedule K-1 from LRE for the taxable year ending upon the effective date of the merger and will be required to include in income its share of income, gain, loss and deduction for this period. In addition, an LRE common unitholder who has a taxable year ending on a date other than December 31 and after the date the merger is effected must include its share of income, gain, loss and deduction in income for its taxable year, with the result that the LRE common unitholder will be required to include in income for its taxable year its share of more than one year of income, gain, loss and deduction from LRE.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to Vanguard and Its Unitholders

Neither Vanguard nor its unitholders will recognize any income or gain, or loss, for federal income tax purposes as a result of the merger other than any gain recognized as a result of decreases in partnership liabilities pursuant to Section 752 of the Code. Each Vanguard unitholder's share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities will be recalculated following the merger. Any resulting increase or decrease in a Vanguard unitholder's nonrecourse liabilities will result in a corresponding increase or decrease in such unitholder's adjusted tax basis in its Vanguard common units. A reduction in a unitholder's share of nonrecourse liabilities would, if such reduction exceeds the unitholder's tax basis in his or her Vanguard common units, under certain circumstances, result in the recognition of taxable gain by a Vanguard unitholder. While there can be no assurance, Vanguard and LRE do not expect any Vanguard common unitholders to recognize gain in this manner.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF VANGUARD COMMON UNIT OWNERSHIP

This section is a summary of the material federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to individual citizens or residents of the United States owning Vanguard common units received in the merger. This section is based upon current provisions of the Code, existing and proposed Treasury regulations promulgated under the Code (the Treasury Regulations) and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Later changes in these authorities may cause the tax consequences to vary substantially from the consequences described below.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this section to Vanguard include its operating subsidiaries.

The following discussion does not comment on all federal income tax matters affecting Vanguard or its common unitholders and does not describe the application of the alternative minimum tax that may be applicable to certain unitholders. Moreover, the discussion focuses on unitholders who are individual citizens or residents of the United States and has only limited application to corporations, estates, entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes, trusts, nonresident aliens, U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States or other unitholders subject to specialized tax treatment, such as banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions, tax-exempt institutions, foreign persons (including, without limitation, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies and non-U.S. persons eligible for the benefits of an applicable income tax treaty with the United States), individual retirement accounts (IRAs), real estate investment trusts (REITs) or mutual funds, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities, U.S. persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons holding their units as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction or other risk reduction transaction, and persons deemed to sell their units under the constructive sale provisions of the Code. In addition, the discussion only comments, to a limited extent, on state, local, and foreign tax consequences. Accordingly, Vanguard encourages each prospective unitholder to consult his own tax advisor in analyzing the state, local and foreign tax consequences particular to him of the ownership or disposition of common units and potential changes in applicable laws.

No ruling has been or will be requested from the IRS regarding any matter affecting Vanguard following the merger or the consequences of owning Vanguard common units received in the merger. Instead, Vanguard will rely on opinions of Paul Hastings. Unlike a ruling, an opinion of counsel represents only that counsel's best legal judgment and does not bind the IRS or the courts. Accordingly, the opinions and statements made herein may not be sustained by a court if contested by the IRS. Any contest of this sort with the IRS may materially and adversely impact the market for the common units and the prices at which common units trade. In addition, the costs of any contest with the IRS, principally legal, accounting and related fees, will result in a reduction in cash available for distribution to Vanguard's unitholders and thus will be borne indirectly by Vanguard's unitholders. Furthermore, the tax treatment of Vanguard, or of an investment in Vanguard, may be significantly modified by future legislative or administrative changes or court decisions. Any modifications may or may not be retroactively applied.

All statements as to matters of federal income tax law and legal conclusions with respect thereto, but not as to factual matters, contained in this section, unless otherwise noted, are the opinion of Paul Hastings and are based on the accuracy of the representations made by Vanguard and LRE.

For the reasons described below, Paul Hastings has not rendered an opinion with respect to the following specific federal income tax issues: (i) the treatment of a unitholder whose common units are loaned to a short seller to cover a short sale of common units (please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Treatment of Short Sales); (ii) whether Vanguard's monthly convention for allocating taxable income and losses is permitted by existing Treasury Regulations (please read Disposition of Common Units - Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees); (iii) whether percentage depletion will be available to a unitholder or the extent of the percentage depletion deduction available to any unitholder (please read Tax Treatment of Operations - Oil and Natural Gas Taxation - Depletion Deductions); (iv) whether the deduction related to U.S. production activities will be available to a unitholder or the extent of any such deduction to any unitholder (please read Tax Treatment of Operations - Oil and Natural Gas Taxation - Deduction for U.S. Production Activities); (v) whether Vanguard's method for taking into account Section 743 adjustments is sustainable in certain cases (please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership - Section 754 Election) and Uniformity of Units); and (vi) whether an LRE common unitholder will be able to utilize suspended passive losses related to its LRE common units to offset income from Vanguard (please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Limitations on Deductibility of Losses and Uniformity of Units).

Partnership Status

A partnership is not a taxable entity and incurs no federal income tax liability. Instead, each partner of a partnership is required to take into account his share of items of income, gain, loss and deduction of the partnership in computing his federal income tax liability, regardless of whether cash distributions are made to him by the partnership. Distributions by a partnership to a partner are generally not taxable to the partnership or the partner unless the amount of cash distributed to him is in excess of the partner's adjusted basis in his partnership interest. Section 7704 of the Code provides that publicly traded partnerships will, as a general rule, be taxed as corporations. However, an exception, referred to as the Qualifying Income Exception, exists with respect to publicly traded partnerships of which 90% or more of the gross income for every taxable year consists of qualifying income. Qualifying income includes income and gains derived from the exploration, development, mining or production, processing, transportation, and marketing of natural resources, including oil, gas, and products thereof. Other types of qualifying income include interest (other than from a financial business), dividends, gains from the sale of real property and gains from the sale or other disposition of capital assets held for the production of income that otherwise constitutes qualifying income. Vanguard estimates that less than 2% of its current gross income is not qualifying income; however, this estimate could change from time to time. Based upon and subject to this estimate, the factual representations made by Vanguard, LRE and LRE GP and a review of the applicable legal authorities, Paul Hastings is of the opinion that at least 90% of Vanguard's current gross income constitutes qualifying income. The portion of Vanguard's income that is qualifying income may change from time to time.

The IRS has made no determination as to Vanguard's status or the status of its operating subsidiaries for federal income tax purposes. Instead, Vanguard will rely on the opinion of Paul Hastings on such matters. It is the opinion of Paul Hastings that, based upon the Code, its regulations, published revenue rulings and court decisions and the representations described below that:

Vanguard will be classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes; and Except for VNR Finance Corp. and VNR Holdings, LLC, each of Vanguard's operating subsidiaries will be treated as a partnership or will be disregarded as an entity separate from it for federal income tax purposes.

In rendering its opinion, Paul Hastings has relied on factual representations made by Vanguard, LRE and LRE GP.

The representations made by Vanguard, LRE and LRE GP upon which Paul Hastings has relied include:

Except for VNR Finance Corp. and VNR Holdings, LLC, neither Vanguard nor any of its operating subsidiaries has elected or will elect to be treated, or is otherwise treated, as a corporation for federal income tax purposes; and For each taxable year, more than 90% of Vanguard's gross income has been and will be income of the type that Paul Hastings has opined or will opine is qualifying income within the meaning of Section 7704(d) of the Code; and Each hedging transaction that Vanguard treats as resulting in qualifying income has been and will be appropriately identified as a hedging transaction pursuant to applicable Treasury Regulations and has been and will be associated with oil, gas, or products thereof that are held or to be held by Vanguard in activities that Paul Hastings has opined or will opine result in qualifying income.

Vanguard and LRE believe that these representations have been true in the past and expect that these representations will continue to be true in the future.

If Vanguard fails to meet the Qualifying Income Exception, other than a failure that is determined by the IRS to be inadvertent and that is cured within a reasonable time after discovery (in which case the IRS may also require Vanguard to make adjustments with respect to its unitholders or pay other amounts), Vanguard will be treated as if it had transferred all of its assets, subject to liabilities, to a newly formed corporation, on the first day of the year in which Vanguard fails to meet the Qualifying Income Exception, in return for stock in that corporation, and then distributed that stock to the unitholders in liquidation of their interests in Vanguard. This deemed contribution and liquidation should be tax-free to unitholders and Vanguard so long as Vanguard, at that time, does not have liabilities in excess of the tax basis of its assets. Thereafter, Vanguard would be treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes.

If Vanguard were treated as an association taxable as a corporation in any taxable year, either as a result of a failure to meet the Qualifying Income Exception or otherwise, its items of income, gain, loss and deduction would be reflected only on its tax return rather than being passed through to its unitholders, and Vanguard's net income would be taxed to Vanguard at corporate rates. Any distribution made to a unitholder at a time Vanguard is treated as a corporation would be (i) a taxable dividend to the extent of Vanguard's current and accumulated earnings and profits, then (ii) a nontaxable return of capital to the extent of the unitholder's tax basis in his common units, and thereafter (iii) taxable capital gain. Accordingly, taxation as a corporation would result in a material reduction in a unitholder's cash flow and after-tax return and thus would likely result in a substantial reduction of the value of the common units.

The discussion below is based on Paul Hastings' opinion that Vanguard will be classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes.

Limited Partner Status

Unitholders of Vanguard will be treated as partners of Vanguard for federal income tax purposes. Also, unitholders whose common units are held in street name or by a nominee and who have the right to direct the nominee in the exercise of all substantive rights attendant to the ownership of their common units will be treated as partners of Vanguard for federal income tax purposes.

A beneficial owner of common units whose units have been transferred to a short seller to complete a short sale would appear to lose his status as a partner with respect to those units for federal income tax purposes. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Treatment of Short Sales.

Income, gains, losses or deductions would not appear to be reportable by a unitholder who is not a partner for federal income tax purposes, and any cash distributions received by a unitholder who is not a partner for federal income tax purposes would therefore appear to be fully taxable as ordinary income. These holders are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences to them of holding common units in Vanguard. The references to unitholders in the discussion that follows are to persons who are treated as partners in Vanguard for federal income tax purposes.

Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership

Flow-Through of Taxable Income

Subject to the discussion below under Entity-Level Collections, Vanguard will not pay any federal income tax. Instead, each unitholder will be required to report on his income tax return his share of Vanguard's income, gains, losses and deductions without regard to whether Vanguard makes cash distributions to him. Consequently, Vanguard may allocate income to a unitholder even if he has not received a cash distribution. Each unitholder will be required to include in income his allocable share of Vanguard's income, gains, losses and deductions for its taxable year ending with or within his taxable year. Vanguard's taxable year ends on December 31.

Treatment of Distributions

Distributions by Vanguard to a unitholder generally will not be taxable to the unitholder for federal income tax purposes, except to the extent the amount of any such cash distribution exceeds his tax basis in his common units immediately before the distribution. Vanguard's cash distributions in excess of a unitholder's tax basis generally will be considered to be gain from the sale or exchange of the common units, taxable in accordance with the rules described under Disposition of Common Units. Any reduction in a unitholder's share of Vanguard's liabilities for which no partner bears the economic risk of loss, known as nonrecourse liabilities, will be treated as a distribution by Vanguard of cash to that unitholder. To the extent

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard's distributions cause a unitholder's at-risk amount to be less than zero at the end of any taxable year, he must recapture any losses deducted in previous years. Please read Limitations on Deductibility of Losses.

A decrease in a unitholder's percentage interest in Vanguard because of its issuance of additional common units will decrease his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities, and thus will result in a corresponding deemed distribution of cash. This deemed distribution may constitute a non-pro rata distribution. A non-pro rata distribution of money or property may result in ordinary income to a unitholder, regardless of his tax basis in his common units, if the distribution reduces the unitholder's share of Vanguard's unrealized receivables, including depreciation, recapture and/or substantially appreciated inventory items, each as defined in the Code, and collectively, Section 751 Assets. To that extent, the unitholder will be treated as having been distributed his proportionate share of the Section 751 Assets and then having exchanged those assets with Vanguard in return for the non-pro rata portion of the actual distribution made to him. This latter deemed exchange will generally result in the unitholder's realization of ordinary income, which will equal the excess of (i) the non-pro rata portion of that distribution over (ii) the unitholder's tax basis (often zero) for the share of Section 751 Assets deemed relinquished in the exchange.

Basis of Common Units

Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger - Tax Basis and Holding Period of Vanguard Common Units Received for a discussion of how to determine the initial tax basis of Vanguard common units received in the merger. A unitholder's initial tax basis will be increased by his share of Vanguard's income and by any increases in his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities. That basis will be decreased, but not below zero, by distributions from Vanguard, by the unitholder's share of Vanguard's losses, by any decreases in his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities and by his share of Vanguard's expenditures that are not deductible in computing taxable income and are not required to be capitalized. A unitholder will have a share, generally based on his share of profits, of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities. Please read Disposition of Common Units - Recognition of Gain or Loss.

Limitations on Deductibility of Losses

The deduction by a unitholder of his share of Vanguard's losses will be limited to the tax basis in his units and, in the case of an individual unitholder, estate, trust, or corporate unitholder (if more than 50% of the value of the corporate unitholder's stock is owned directly or indirectly by or for five or fewer individuals or some tax-exempt organizations), to the amount for which the unitholder is considered to be at risk with respect to Vanguard's activities, if that is less than his tax basis. A common unitholder subject to these limitations must recapture losses deducted in previous years to the extent that distributions cause his at-risk amount to be less than zero at the end of any taxable year. Losses disallowed to a unitholder or recaptured as a result of these limitations will carry forward and will be allowable as a deduction to the extent that his at-risk amount is subsequently increased, provided such losses do not exceed such common unitholder's tax basis in his common units. Upon the taxable disposition of a unit, any gain recognized by a unitholder can be offset by losses that were previously suspended by the at-risk limitation but may not be offset by losses suspended by the basis limitation. Any loss previously suspended by the at-risk limitation in excess of that gain would no longer be utilizable.

In general, a unitholder will be at risk to the extent of the tax basis of his units, excluding any portion of that basis attributable to his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities, reduced by (i) any portion of that basis representing amounts otherwise protected against loss because of a guarantee, stop loss agreement or other similar arrangement and (ii) any amount of money he borrows to acquire or hold his units, if the lender of those borrowed funds owns an interest in Vanguard, is related to the unitholder or can look only to the units for repayment. A unitholder's at-risk amount will increase or decrease as the tax basis of the unitholder's units increases or decreases, other than tax basis increases or decreases attributable to increases or decreases in his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities.

In addition to the basis and at-risk limitations on the deductibility of losses, the passive loss limitations generally provide that individuals, estates, trusts and some closely-held corporations and personal service corporations can deduct losses from passive activities, which are generally trade or business activities in which the taxpayer does not materially participate, only to the extent of the taxpayer's income from those passive activities. The passive loss limitations are applied separately with respect to each publicly traded partnership. Consequently, any passive losses Vanguard generates will only be available to offset its passive income generated in the future and will not be available to offset income from other passive activities or investments, including Vanguard's investments or a unitholder's investments in other publicly traded partnerships, or the unitholder's salary, active business or other income. Passive losses that are not deductible because they exceed a unitholder's share of income Vanguard generates may be deducted in full when he disposes of his entire investment in Vanguard in a fully taxable transaction with an unrelated party. The passive loss limitations are applied after other applicable limitations on deductions, including the at-risk rules and the basis limitation.

A unitholder's share of Vanguard's net income may be offset by any of its suspended passive losses, but it may not be offset by any other current or carryover losses from other passive activities, including those attributable to other publicly traded partnerships.

There is no guidance as to whether suspended passive activity losses of LRE common units will be available to offset passive activity income that is allocated from Vanguard after the merger to a former LRE common unitholder. The IRS may contend that since Vanguard is not the same partnership as LRE, the passive loss limitation rules would not allow a former LRE common unitholder to utilize such losses until such time as all of the former LRE common unitholder's Vanguard common units are sold. A Vanguard unitholder may take the position, however, that Vanguard should be deemed a continuation of LRE for this purpose such that any suspended LRE losses would be available to offset Vanguard taxable income allocated to such unitholder. Because of the lack of guidance with respect to this issue, Paul Hastings is unable to opine as to whether suspended passive activity losses arising from LRE activities will be available to offset Vanguard taxable income allocated to a former LRE common unitholder following the merger.

If a unitholder has losses with respect to LRE common units, he is urged to consult his own tax advisor.

Limitations on Interest Deductions

The deductibility of a non-corporate taxpayer's investment interest expense is generally limited to the amount of that taxpayer's net investment income. Investment interest expense includes:

interest on indebtedness properly allocable to property held for investment; Vanguard's interest expense attributed to portfolio income; and the portion of interest expense incurred to purchase or carry an interest in a passive activity to the extent attributable to portfolio income.

The computation of a unitholder's investment interest expense will take into account interest on any margin account borrowing or other loan incurred to purchase or carry a unit. Net investment income includes gross income from property held for investment and amounts treated as portfolio income under the passive loss rules, less deductible expenses, other than interest, directly connected with the production of investment income, but generally does not include gains attributable to the disposition of property held for investment or (if applicable) qualified dividend income. The IRS has indicated that the net passive income earned by a publicly traded partnership will be treated as investment income to its unitholders. In addition, the unitholder's share of Vanguard's portfolio income will be treated as investment income.

Entity-Level Collections

If Vanguard is required or elects under applicable law to pay any federal, state, local or foreign income tax on behalf of any unitholder or any former unitholder, Vanguard is authorized to pay those taxes from its funds. That payment, if made, will be treated as a distribution of cash to the unitholder on whose behalf the payment was made. If the payment is made on behalf of a person whose identity cannot be determined, Vanguard is authorized to treat the payment as a distribution to all current unitholders. Vanguard is authorized to amend its limited liability company agreement in the manner necessary to maintain uniformity of intrinsic tax characteristics of units and to adjust later distributions, so that after giving effect to these distributions, the priority and characterization of distributions otherwise applicable under its limited liability company agreement is maintained as nearly as is practicable. Payments by Vanguard as described above could give rise to an overpayment of tax on behalf of an individual unitholder in which event the unitholder would be required to file a claim in order to obtain a credit or refund.

Allocation of Income, Gain, Loss and Deduction

If Vanguard has a net profit, its items of income, gain, loss and deduction will be allocated among its holders of units other than Series A preferred units, Series B preferred units and Series C preferred units in accordance with their percentage interests in Vanguard. If Vanguard has a net loss, its items of income, gain, loss and deduction will be allocated among all of its unitholders in accordance with their percentage interests in Vanguard to the extent of their positive capital accounts. Holders of Vanguard's Series A preferred units, Series B preferred units and Series C preferred units will be allocated net loss only in the event that the capital accounts of the common unitholders have been reduced to zero.

Specified items of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deduction will be allocated to account for any difference between the tax basis and fair market value of any property contributed to Vanguard that exists at the time of such contribution, referred to in this discussion as the Contributed Property. The effect of these allocations, referred to as Section 704(c) Allocations, to a unitholder purchasing common units from Vanguard in an offering will be essentially the same as if the tax bases of its assets were equal to their fair market values at the time of the offering. Former LRE common unitholders that receive Vanguard units in the merger will receive the Section 704(c) Allocations that otherwise would have been allocated to LRE pursuant to Section 704(c) of the Code had LRE simply contributed its assets to Vanguard in exchange for units. Under these rules for example, following the merger in the event that Vanguard divests itself of certain assets formerly owned by LRE (including through a distribution of such assets), all or a portion of any gain recognized as a result of a divestiture of such assets may be required to be allocated to the former LRE common unitholders. In addition, a former LRE common unitholder may also be required to recognize its share of LRE's remaining built-in gain upon certain distributions by Vanguard to that unitholder of other Vanguard property (other than money) within seven years following the merger. No special distributions will be made to the former LRE common unitholders with respect to any tax liability from such transactions.

In the event Vanguard issues additional common units or engages in certain other transactions in the future, reverse Section 704(c) Allocations, similar to the Section 704(c) Allocations described above, will be made to all of Vanguard's unitholders immediately prior to such issuance or other transactions to account for the difference between the book basis for purposes of maintaining capital accounts and the fair market value of all property held by Vanguard at the time of such issuance or future transaction. In addition, items of recapture income will be allocated to the extent possible to the unitholder who was allocated the deduction giving rise to the treatment of that gain as recapture income in order to minimize the recognition of ordinary income by some unitholders. Finally, although Vanguard does not expect that its operations will result in the creation of negative capital accounts, if negative capital accounts nevertheless result, items of its income and gain will be allocated in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the negative balance as quickly as possible.

An allocation of Vanguard's items of income, gain, loss or deduction, other than an allocation required by the Code to eliminate the difference between a partner's book capital account, credited with the fair market value of Contributed Property, and tax capital account, credited with the tax basis of Contributed Property, referred to in this discussion as the Book-Tax Disparity, will generally be given effect for federal income tax purposes in determining a partner's share of an item of income, gain, loss or deduction only if the allocation has substantial economic effect. In any other case, a partner's share of an item will be determined on the basis of his interest in Vanguard, which will be determined by taking into account all the facts and circumstances, including:

his relative contributions to Vanguard;
the interests of all the partners in profits and losses;
the interest of all the partners in cash flow; and the rights of all the partners to distributions of capital upon liquidation.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Paul Hastings is of the opinion that, with the exception of the issues described in Section 754 Election and Disposition of Common Units Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees, allocations under Vanguard's limited liability company agreement will be given effect for federal income tax purposes in determining a partner's share of an item of income, gain, loss or deduction.

Treatment of Short Sales

A unitholder whose units are loaned to a short seller to cover a short sale of units may be considered as having disposed of those units. If so, he would no longer be treated for tax purposes as a partner with respect to those units during the period of the loan and may recognize gain or loss from the disposition. As a result, during this period:

any of Vanguard's income, gain, loss or deduction with respect to those units would not be reportable by the unitholder; any cash distributions received by the unitholder as to those units would be fully taxable; and while not entirely free from doubt, all of these distributions would appear to be ordinary income.

Because there is no direct or indirect controlling authority on the issue relating to partnership interests, Paul Hastings has not rendered an opinion regarding the tax treatment of a unitholder whose common units are loaned to a short seller to cover a short sale of common units; therefore, unitholders desiring to assure their status as partners and avoid the risk of gain recognition from a loan to a short seller are urged to consult a tax advisor to discuss whether it is advisable to modify any applicable brokerage account agreements to prohibit their brokers from borrowing and loaning their units. The IRS has previously announced that it is studying issues relating to the tax treatment of short sales of partnership interests. Please also read Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss.

Tax Rates

Currently, the highest marginal U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to ordinary income of individuals is 39.6% and the highest marginal U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to long-term capital gains (generally, capital gains on certain assets held for more than twelve months) of individuals is 20%. Such rates are subject to change by new legislation at any time.

In addition, a 3.8% Medicare tax (NIIT) on certain net investment income earned by individuals, estates and trusts currently applies. For these purposes, net investment income generally includes a unitholder's allocable share of Vanguard's income and gain realized by a unitholder from a sale of Vanguard common units. In the case of an individual, the tax will be imposed on the lesser of (i) the unitholder's net investment income or (ii) the amount by which the unitholder's modified adjusted gross income exceeds $250,000 (if the unitholder is married and filing jointly or a surviving spouse), $125,000 (if the unitholder is married and filing separately) or $200,000 (in any other case). In the case of an estate or trust, the tax will be imposed on the lesser of (i) undistributed net investment income, or (ii) the excess adjusted gross income over the dollar amount at which the highest income tax bracket applicable to an estate or trust begins for such taxable year. The Department of the Treasury and the IRS have issued guidance in the form of proposed and final Treasury Regulations regarding the NIIT. Prospective unitholders are urged to consult with their tax advisors as to the impact of the NIIT on an investment in Vanguard's units.

Section 754 Election

Vanguard has made the election permitted by Section 754 of the Code. That election is irrevocable without the consent of the IRS unless there is a constructive termination of the partnership. Please read Disposition of Common Units Constructive Termination. The election will generally permit Vanguard to adjust a common unit purchaser's tax basis in its assets (inside basis) under Section 743(b) of the Code to reflect his purchase price. This election does not apply with respect to a person who purchases common units directly from Vanguard. The Section 743(b) adjustment belongs to the purchaser and not to other unitholders. For purposes of this discussion, the inside basis in Vanguard s assets with respect to a unitholder will be considered to have two components: (i) his share of Vanguard s tax basis in its assets (common basis) and (ii) his Section 743(b) adjustment to that basis.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Under Vanguard's limited liability company agreement, the board of directors of Vanguard is authorized to take a position to preserve the uniformity of units even if that position is not consistent with applicable Treasury Regulations. Vanguard has adopted the remedial allocation method as to all of its properties. Where the remedial allocation method is adopted, a literal application of Treasury Regulations governing a 743(b) adjustment attributable to properties depreciable under Section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code may give rise to differences in the taxation of unitholders purchasing units from Vanguard and unitholders purchasing from other unitholders. If Vanguard has any such properties, it intends to adopt methods employed by other publicly traded partnerships to preserve the uniformity of units, even if inconsistent with existing Treasury Regulations, and Paul Hastings has not opined on the validity of this approach. Please read Uniformity of Units.

The IRS may challenge Vanguard's position with respect to depreciating or amortizing the Section 743(b) adjustment it takes to preserve the uniformity of the units due to lack of controlling authority. Because a unitholder's tax basis for its units is reduced by its share of Vanguard's items of deduction or loss, any position Vanguard takes that understates deductions will overstate a unitholder's basis in its units, and may cause the unitholder to understate gain or overstate loss on any sale of such units. Please read Disposition of Units - Recognition of Gain or Loss. If such a challenge were sustained, the gain from the sale of units might be increased without the benefit of additional deductions.

A Section 754 election is advantageous if the transferee's tax basis in his units is higher than the units' share of the aggregate tax basis of Vanguard's assets immediately prior to the transfer. Conversely, a Section 754 election is disadvantageous if the transferee's tax basis in his units is lower than those units' share of the aggregate tax basis of Vanguard's assets immediately prior to the transfer. Thus, the fair market value of the units may be affected either favorably or unfavorably by the election. A basis adjustment is required regardless of whether a Section 754 election is made in the case of a transfer of an interest in Vanguard if it has a substantial built-in loss immediately after the transfer, or if it distributes property and has a substantial basis reduction. Generally, a built-in loss or a basis reduction is substantial if it exceeds $250,000.

The calculations involved in the Section 754 election are complex and will be made on the basis of assumptions as to the value of Vanguard's assets and other matters. For example, the allocation of the Section 743(b) adjustment among Vanguard's assets must be made in accordance with the Code. The IRS could seek to reallocate some or all of any Section 743(b) adjustment allocated by Vanguard to its tangible assets to goodwill instead. Goodwill, as an intangible asset, is generally nonamortizable or may be amortizable over a longer period of time or under a less accelerated method than Vanguard's tangible assets. Vanguard cannot assure you that the determinations it makes will not be successfully challenged by the IRS and that the deductions resulting from them will not be reduced or disallowed altogether. Should the IRS require a different basis adjustment to be made, and should, in Vanguard's opinion, the expense of compliance exceed the benefit of the election, Vanguard may seek permission from the IRS to revoke its Section 754 election. If permission is granted, a subsequent purchaser of units may be allocated more income than he would have been allocated had the election not been revoked.

Tax Treatment of Operations

Accounting Method and Taxable Year

Vanguard uses the year ending December 31 as its taxable year and the accrual method of accounting for federal income tax purposes. Each unitholder will be required to include in income his share of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deduction for its taxable year ending within or with his taxable year. In addition, a unitholder who has a taxable year ending on a date other than December 31 and who disposes of all of his common units following the close of Vanguard's taxable year but before the close of his taxable year must include his share of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deduction in income for his taxable year, with the result that he will be required to include in income for his taxable year his share of more than twelve months of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deduction.

Oil and Natural Gas Taxation

Depletion Deductions. Subject to the limitations on deductibility of losses discussed above (please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Limitations on Deductibility of Losses), unitholders will be entitled to deductions for the greater of either cost depletion or (if otherwise allowable) percentage depletion with respect to Vanguard's oil and natural gas interests. Although the Code requires each unitholder to compute his own depletion allowance and maintain records of his share of the adjusted tax basis of the underlying property for depletion and other purposes, Vanguard intends to furnish each of its unitholders with information relating to this computation for federal income tax purposes. Each unitholder, however, remains responsible for calculating his own depletion allowance and maintaining records of his share of the adjusted tax basis of the underlying property for depletion and other purposes.

Percentage depletion is generally available with respect to unitholders who qualify under the independent producer exemption contained in Section 613A(c) of the Code. For this purpose, an independent producer is a person not directly or indirectly involved in the retail sale of oil, natural gas, or derivative contracts or the operation of a major refinery. Percentage depletion is calculated as an amount generally equal to 15% (and, in the case of marginal production, potentially a higher percentage) of the unitholder's gross income from the depletable property for the taxable year. The percentage depletion deduction with respect to any property is limited to 100% of the taxable income of the unitholder from the property for each taxable year, computed without the depletion allowance. A unitholder that qualifies as an independent producer may deduct percentage depletion only to the extent the unitholder's average net daily production of domestic crude oil, or the natural gas equivalent, does not exceed 1,000 barrels. This depletable amount may be allocated between oil and natural gas production, with 6,000 cubic feet of domestic natural gas production regarded as equivalent to one barrel of crude oil. The 1,000-barrel limitation must be allocated among the independent producer and controlled or related persons and family members in proportion to the respective production by such persons during the period in question.

In addition to the foregoing limitations, the percentage depletion deduction otherwise available is limited to 65% of a unitholder's total taxable income from all sources for the year, computed without the depletion allowance, net operating loss carrybacks, or capital loss carrybacks. Any percentage depletion deduction disallowed because of the 65% limitation may be deducted in the following taxable year if the percentage depletion deduction for such year plus the deduction carryover does not exceed 65% of the unitholder's total taxable income for that year. The carryover period resulting from the 65% net income limitation is unlimited.

Unitholders that do not qualify under the independent producer exemption are generally restricted to depletion deductions based on cost depletion. Cost depletion deductions are calculated by (1) dividing the unitholder's share of the adjusted tax basis in the underlying mineral property by the number of mineral units (barrels of oil and thousand cubic feet, or Mcf, of natural gas) remaining as of the beginning of the taxable year and (2) multiplying the result by the number of mineral units sold within the taxable year. The total amount of deductions based on cost depletion cannot exceed the unitholder's share of the total adjusted tax basis in the property.

All or a portion of any gain recognized by a unitholder as a result of either the disposition by Vanguard of some or all of Vanguard's oil and natural gas interests or the disposition by the unitholder of some or all of his units may be taxed as ordinary income to the extent of recapture of depletion deductions, except for percentage depletion deductions in excess of the tax basis of the property. The amount of the recapture is generally limited to the amount of gain recognized on the disposition.

The foregoing discussion of depletion deductions does not purport to be a complete analysis of the complex legislation and Treasury Regulations relating to the availability and calculation of depletion deductions by the unitholders.

Further, because depletion is required to be computed separately by each unitholder and not by Vanguard, no assurance can be given, and counsel is unable to express any opinion, with respect to the availability or extent of percentage depletion deductions to the unitholders for any taxable year. Moreover, the availability of percentage depletion may be reduced or eliminated if recently proposed (or similar) tax legislation is enacted. For a discussion of such legislative proposals, please read Recent Legislative Developments. Vanguard encourages each prospective unitholder to consult his tax advisor to determine whether percentage depletion would be available to him.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Deductions for Intangible Drilling and Development Costs. Vanguard elects to currently deduct intangible drilling and development costs (IDCs). IDCs generally include its expenses for wages, fuel, repairs, hauling, supplies and other items that are incidental to, and necessary for, the drilling and preparation of wells for the production of oil, natural gas, or geothermal energy. The option to currently deduct IDCs applies only to those items that do not have a salvage value.

Although Vanguard will elect to currently deduct IDCs, each unitholder will have the option of either currently deducting IDCs or capitalizing all or part of the IDCs and amortizing them on a straight-line basis over a 60-month period, beginning with the taxable month in which the expenditure is made. If a unitholder makes the election to amortize the IDCs over a 60-month period, no IDC preference amount in respect of those IDCs will result for alternative minimum tax purposes.

Integrated oil companies must capitalize 30% of all their IDCs (other than IDCs paid or incurred with respect to oil and natural gas wells located outside of the United States) and amortize these IDCs over 60 months beginning in the month in which those costs are paid or incurred. If the taxpayer ceases to be an integrated oil company, it must continue to amortize those costs as long as it continues to own the property to which the IDCs relate. An integrated oil company is a taxpayer that has economic interests in oil or natural gas properties and also carries on substantial retailing or refining operations. An oil or natural gas producer is deemed to be a substantial retailer or refiner if it is subject to the rules disqualifying retailers and refiners from taking percentage depletion. To qualify as an independent producer that is not subject to these IDC deduction limits, a unitholder, either directly or indirectly through certain related parties, may not be involved in the refining of more than 75,000 barrels of oil (or the equivalent amount of natural gas) on average for any day during the taxable year or in the retail marketing of oil and natural gas products exceeding $5 million per year in the aggregate.

IDCs previously deducted that are allocable to property (directly or through ownership of an interest in a partnership) and that would have been included in the adjusted tax basis of the property had the IDC deduction not been taken are recaptured to the extent of any gain realized upon the disposition of the property or upon the disposition by a unitholder of interests in Vanguard. Recapture is generally determined at the unitholder level. Where only a portion of the recapture property is sold, any IDCs related to the entire property are recaptured to the extent of the gain realized on the portion of the property sold. In the case of a disposition of an undivided interest in a property, a proportionate amount of the IDCs with respect to the property is treated as allocable to the transferred undivided interest to the extent of any gain recognized. Please read Disposition of Units Recognition of Gain or Loss.

The election to currently deduct IDCs may be restricted or eliminated if recently proposed (or similar) tax legislation is enacted. For a discussion of such legislative proposals, please read Recent Legislative Developments.

Deduction for U.S. Production Activities. Subject to the limitations on the deductibility of losses discussed above and the limitations discussed below, unitholders will be entitled to a deduction, herein referred to as the Section 199 deduction, equal to 9% of the lesser of (1) Vanguard's qualified production activities income that is allocated to such unitholder or (2) the unitholder's taxable income, but not to exceed 50% of such unitholder's IRS Form W-2 wages for the taxable year allocable to domestic production gross receipts.

Qualified production activities income is generally equal to gross receipts from domestic production activities reduced by cost of goods sold allocable to those receipts, other expenses directly associated with those receipts, and a share of other deductions, expenses and losses that are not directly allocable to those receipts or another class of income. The products produced must be manufactured, produced, grown or extracted in whole or in significant part by the taxpayer in the United States.

For a partnership, the Section 199 deduction is determined at the partner level. To determine his Section 199 deduction, each unitholder will aggregate his share of the qualified production activities income allocated to him from Vanguard with the unitholder's qualified production activities income from other sources. Each unitholder must take into account his distributive share of the expenses allocated to him from Vanguard's qualified production activities regardless of whether Vanguard otherwise has taxable income. However, Vanguard's expenses that otherwise would be taken into account for purposes of computing the Section 199 deduction are taken into account only if and to the extent the unitholder's share of losses and deductions from all of Vanguard's activities is not disallowed by the tax basis rules, the at-risk rules or the passive activity loss rules. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Limitations on Deductibility of Losses.

The amount of a unitholder's Section 199 deduction for each year is limited to 50% of the IRS Form W-2 wages actually or deemed paid by the unitholder during the calendar year that are deducted in arriving at qualified production activities income. Each unitholder is treated as having been allocated IRS Form W-2 wages from Vanguard equal to the unitholder's allocable share of Vanguard's wages that are deducted in arriving at qualified production activities income for that taxable year. It is not anticipated that Vanguard or its subsidiaries will pay material wages that will be allocated to its unitholders, and thus a unitholder's ability to claim the Section 199 deduction may be limited.

A unitholder's otherwise allowable Section 199 deduction for each taxable year is reduced by 3% of the least of (1) the oil related qualified production activities income of the taxpayer for the taxable year, (2) the qualified production activities income of the taxpayer for the taxable year, or (3) the taxpayer's taxable income for the taxable year (determined without regard to any Section 199 deduction). For this purpose, the term oil related qualified production activities income means the qualified production activities income attributable to the production, refining, processing, transportation, or distribution of oil, gas, or any primary production thereof. Vanguard expects that most or all of its qualified production activities income will consist of oil related qualified production activities income.

This discussion of the Section 199 deduction does not purport to be a complete analysis of the complex legislation and Treasury authority relating to the calculation of domestic production gross receipts, qualified production activities income, or IRS Form W-2 wages, or how such items are allocated by Vanguard to unitholders. Further, because the Section 199 deduction is required to be computed separately by each unitholder, no assurance can be given, and counsel is unable to express any opinion, as to the availability or extent of the Section 199 deduction to the unitholders. Moreover, the availability of Section 199 deductions may be reduced or eliminated if recently proposed (or similar) tax legislation is enacted. For a discussion of such legislative proposals, please read Recent Legislative Developments. Each prospective unitholder is encouraged to consult his tax advisor to determine whether the Section 199 deduction would be available to him.

Lease Acquisition Costs. The cost of acquiring oil and natural gas lease or similar property interests is a capital expenditure that must be recovered through depletion deductions if the lease is productive. If a lease is proved worthless and abandoned, the cost of acquisition less any depletion claimed may be deducted as an ordinary loss in the year the lease becomes worthless. Please read Tax Treatment of Operations Oil and Natural Gas Taxation Depletion Deductions.

Geophysical Costs. The cost of geophysical exploration incurred in connection with the exploration and development of oil and natural gas properties in the United States are deducted ratably over a 24-month period beginning on the date that such expense is paid or incurred. This 24-month period is extended to 7 years in the case of major integrated oil companies.

Operating and Administrative Costs. Amounts paid for operating a producing well are deductible as ordinary business expenses, as are administrative costs to the extent they constitute ordinary and necessary business expenses that are reasonable in amount.

Recent Legislative Developments. The present federal income tax treatment of publicly traded partnerships, including Vanguard, or an investment in its common units, may be modified by administrative, legislative or judicial interpretation at any time. For example, the Obama Administration's budget proposal fiscal year 2016 recommends that publicly traded partnerships earning income from activities related to fossil fuels be taxed as corporations beginning in 2021. From time to time, members of the U.S. Congress propose and consider substantive changes to the existing federal income tax laws that affect publicly traded partnerships. One such legislative proposal would have eliminated the qualifying income exception upon which Vanguard relies for its treatment as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Please read Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of Vanguard Common Unit Ownership Partnership Status. Any modification to the federal income tax laws and interpretations thereof may or may not be applied retroactively. Although Vanguard is unable to predict whether any of these changes, or other proposals, will ultimately be enacted, any such changes could negatively impact the value of an investment in its units.

In addition to the proposal regarding publicly traded partnerships described above, the Obama Administration's budget proposal for fiscal year 2016 includes proposals that would, among other things, eliminate or reduce certain key U.S. federal income tax incentives currently available to oil and natural gas exploration and production companies. These changes include, but are not limited to, (1) the repeal of the percentage depletion allowance for oil and natural gas properties, (2) the elimination of current deductions for intangible drilling and development costs and certain environmental clean-up costs, (3) the elimination of the deduction for certain domestic production activities, and (4) an extension of the amortization period for certain geological and geophysical expenditures. It is unclear whether these or similar changes will be enacted and, if enacted, how soon any such changes could become effective. The passage of any legislation as a result of these proposals or any other similar changes in U.S. federal income tax laws could eliminate or postpone certain tax deductions that are currently available with respect to oil and natural gas exploration and development, and any such change could increase the taxable income allocable to Vanguard's unitholders and negatively impact the value of an investment in its units.

Tax Basis, Depreciation and Amortization

The tax bases of Vanguard's assets will be used for purposes of computing depreciation and cost recovery deductions and, ultimately, gain or loss on the disposition of these assets. The federal income tax burden associated with the difference between the fair market value of Vanguard's assets and their tax bases immediately prior to an offering will be borne by unitholders holding interests in Vanguard prior to any such offering. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Allocation of Income, Gain, Loss and Deduction.

To the extent allowable, Vanguard may elect to use the depreciation and cost recovery methods, including bonus depreciation to the extent available, that will result in the largest deductions being taken in the early years after assets subject to these allowances are placed in service. Please read Uniformity of Units. Property it subsequently acquires or constructs may be depreciated using accelerated methods permitted by the Code.

If Vanguard disposes of depreciable property by sale, foreclosure or otherwise, all or a portion of any gain, determined by reference to the amount of depreciation previously deducted and the nature of the property, may be subject to the recapture rules and taxed as ordinary income rather than capital gain. Similarly, a unitholder who has taken cost recovery or depreciation deductions with respect to property Vanguard owns will likely be required to recapture some or all of those deductions as ordinary income upon a sale of his interest in Vanguard. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Allocation of Income, Gain, Loss and Deduction and Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss.

The costs Vanguard incurs in selling its units (called syndication expenses) must be capitalized and cannot be deducted currently, ratably or upon its termination. There are uncertainties regarding the classification of costs as organization expenses, which may be amortized by Vanguard, and as syndication expenses, which may not be amortized by Vanguard. The underwriting discounts and commissions Vanguard incurs will be treated as syndication expenses.

Valuation and Tax Basis of Vanguard s Properties

The federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of units will depend in part on Vanguard s estimates of the relative fair market values, and the initial tax bases, of Vanguard s assets. Although Vanguard may from time to time consult with professional appraisers regarding valuation matters, Vanguard will make many of the relative fair market value estimates itself. These estimates and determinations of basis are subject to challenge and will not be binding on the IRS or the courts. If the estimates of fair market value or basis are later found to be incorrect, the character and amount of items of income, gain, loss or deductions previously reported by unitholders might change, and unitholders might be required to adjust their tax liability for prior years and incur interest and penalties with respect to those adjustments.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Disposition of Common Units

Recognition of Gain or Loss

Gain or loss will be recognized on a sale of units equal to the difference between the amount realized and the unitholder's tax basis for the units sold. A unitholder's amount realized will be measured by the sum of the cash or the fair market value of other property received by him plus his share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities. Because the amount realized includes a unitholder's share of Vanguard's nonrecourse liabilities, the gain recognized on the sale of units could result in a tax liability in excess of any cash received from the sale.

Prior distributions from Vanguard that in the aggregate were in excess of cumulative net taxable income for a common unit and, therefore, decreased a unitholder's tax basis in that common unit will, in effect, become taxable income if the common unit is sold at a price greater than the unitholder's tax basis in that common unit, even if the price received is less than his original cost.

Except as noted below, gain or loss recognized by a unitholder, other than a dealer in units, on the sale or exchange of a unit will generally be taxable as capital gain or loss. Capital gain recognized by an individual on the sale of units held for more than twelve months will generally be taxed at the U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to long-term capital gains. However, a portion of this gain or loss, which will likely be substantial, will be separately computed and taxed as ordinary income or loss under Section 751 of the Code to the extent attributable to assets giving rise to depreciation recapture, depletion recapture or other unrealized receivables or to inventory items Vanguard owns. The term unrealized receivables includes potential recapture items, including depreciation and depletion recapture. Ordinary income attributable to unrealized receivables and inventory items and depreciation and depletion recapture may exceed net taxable gain realized upon the sale of a unit and may be recognized even if there is a net taxable loss realized on the sale of a unit. Thus, a unitholder may recognize both ordinary income and a capital loss upon a sale of units. Capital losses may offset capital gains and no more than $3,000 of ordinary income, in the case of individuals, and may only be used to offset capital gains in the case of corporations. Both ordinary income and capital gain recognized on a sale of units may be subject to the NIIT in certain circumstances. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Tax Rates.

The IRS has ruled that a partner who acquires interests in a partnership in separate transactions must combine those interests (presumably including all of his common units, Series A preferred units, Series B preferred units and Series C preferred units) and maintain a single adjusted tax basis for all those interests. Upon a sale or other disposition of less than all of those interests, a portion of that tax basis must be allocated to the interests sold using an equitable apportionment method, which generally means that the tax basis allocated to the interest sold equals an amount that bears the same relation to the partner's tax basis in his entire interest in the partnership as the value of the interest sold bears to the value of the partner's entire interest in the partnership. Treasury Regulations under Section 1223 of the Code allow a selling unitholder who can identify common units transferred with an ascertainable holding period to elect to use the actual holding period of the common units transferred. Thus, according to the ruling discussed above, a common unitholder will be unable to select high or low basis common units to sell as would be the case with corporate stock, but, according to the Treasury Regulations, may designate specific common units sold for purposes of determining the holding period of units transferred. A unitholder electing to use the actual holding period of common units transferred must consistently use that identification method for all subsequent sales or exchanges of common units. A unitholder considering the purchase of additional units or a sale of common units purchased in separate transactions is urged to consult his tax advisor as to the possible consequences of this ruling and application of the Treasury Regulations.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Specific provisions of the Code affect the taxation of some financial products and securities, including partnership interests, by treating a taxpayer as having sold an appreciated partnership interest, one in which gain would be recognized if it were sold, assigned or terminated at its fair market value, if the taxpayer or related persons enter(s) into:

a short sale;
an offsetting notional principal contract; or a futures or forward contract;
in each case, with respect to the partnership interest or substantially identical property.

Moreover, if a taxpayer has previously entered into a short sale, an offsetting notional principal contract or a futures or forward contract with respect to the partnership interest, the taxpayer will be treated as having sold that position if the taxpayer or a related person then acquires the partnership interest or substantially identical property. The Secretary of the Treasury is also authorized to issue regulations that treat a taxpayer that enters into transactions or positions that have substantially the same effect as the preceding transactions as having constructively sold the financial position.

Allocations Between Transferors and Transferees

In general, Vanguard's taxable income and losses will be determined annually, will be prorated on a monthly basis and will be subsequently apportioned among the unitholders in proportion to the number of units owned by each of them as of the opening of the applicable exchange on the first business day of the month. However, gain or loss realized on a sale or other disposition of Vanguard's assets other than in the ordinary course of business will be allocated among the unitholders in the month in which that gain or loss is recognized. As a result, a unitholder transferring units may be allocated income, gain, loss and deduction realized after the date of transfer.

Although simplifying conventions are contemplated by the Code and most publicly traded partnerships use similar simplifying conventions, the use of this method may not be permitted under existing Treasury Regulations as there is no direct or indirect controlling authority on this issue. The Department of the Treasury and the IRS have issued proposed Treasury Regulations that provide a safe harbor pursuant to which a publicly traded partnership may use a similar monthly simplifying convention to allocate tax items among transferor and transferee unitholders, although such tax items must be prorated on a daily basis. Existing publicly traded partnerships are entitled to rely on these proposed Treasury Regulations; however, they are not binding on the IRS and are subject to change until final Treasury Regulations are issued. Accordingly, Paul Hastings is unable to opine on the validity of this method of allocating income and deductions between transferor and transferee unitholders because the issue has not been finally resolved by the IRS or the courts. If this method is not allowed under the Treasury Regulations, or only applies to transfers of less than all of the unitholder's interest, Vanguard's taxable income or losses might be reallocated among the unitholders. Vanguard is authorized to revise its method of allocation between transferor and transferee unitholders, as well as unitholders whose interests vary during a taxable year, to conform to a method permitted under future Treasury Regulations. A unitholder who owns units at any time during a quarter and who disposes of them prior to the record date set for a cash distribution for that quarter will be allocated items of Vanguard's income, gain, loss and deductions attributable to that quarter through the month of disposition but will not be entitled to receive that cash distribution.

Notification Requirements

A unitholder who sells any of his units is generally required to notify Vanguard in writing of that sale within 30 days after the sale (or, if earlier, January 15 of the year following the sale). A purchaser of units who purchases units from another unitholder is also generally required to notify Vanguard in writing of that purchase within 30 days after the purchase. Upon receiving such notifications, Vanguard is required to notify the IRS of that transaction and to furnish specified information to the transferor and transferee. Failure to notify Vanguard of a purchase may, in some cases, lead to the imposition of penalties. However, these reporting requirements do not apply to a sale by an individual who is a citizen of the United States and who effects the sale or exchange through a broker who will satisfy such requirements.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Constructive Termination

Vanguard will be considered to have technically terminated its partnership for federal income tax purposes if there is a sale or exchange of 50% or more of the total interests in its capital and profits within a twelve-month period. For purposes of determining whether the 50% threshold has been met, multiple sales of the same interest will be counted only once. Vanguard's technical termination would, among other things, result in the closing of its taxable year for all unitholders, which would result in Vanguard filing two tax returns (and its unitholders could receive two Schedule K-1s if relief was not available, as described below) for one fiscal year and could result in a deferral of depreciation deductions allowable in computing its taxable income. In the case of a unitholder reporting on a taxable year other than a fiscal year ending December 31, the closing of Vanguard's taxable year may also result in more than twelve months of Vanguard's taxable income or loss being includable in his taxable income for the year of termination. Vanguard's termination currently would not affect its classification as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, but instead Vanguard would be treated as a new partnership for federal income tax purposes. If treated as a new partnership, Vanguard must make new tax elections, including a new election under Section 754 of the Code, and could be subject to penalties if it is unable to determine that a termination occurred. The IRS has announced a publicly traded partnership technical termination relief program whereby, if a publicly traded partnership that technically terminated requests publicly traded partnership technical termination relief and such relief is granted by the IRS, among other things, the partnership will only have to provide one Schedule K-1 to unitholders for the year notwithstanding two partnership tax years.

Uniformity of Units

Because Vanguard cannot match transferors and transferees of units, it must maintain uniformity of the economic and tax characteristics of the units to a purchaser of these units. In the absence of uniformity, Vanguard may be unable to completely comply with a number of federal income tax requirements, both statutory and regulatory. A lack of uniformity can result from a literal application of Treasury Regulation Section 1.167(c)-1(a)(6). Any non-uniformity could have a negative impact on the value of the units. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election. Vanguard takes into account the portion of a Section 743(b) adjustment attributable to unrealized appreciation in the value of Contributed Property, to the extent of any unamortized Book-Tax Disparity, using a rate of depreciation or amortization derived from the depreciation or amortization method and useful life applied to the property's unamortized Book-Tax Disparity, or treat that portion as nonamortizable, to the extent attributable to property the common basis of which is not amortizable, consistent with the regulations under Section 743 of the Code, even though that position may be inconsistent with Treasury Regulation Section 1.167(c)-1(a)(6), which is not expected to directly apply to a material portion of Vanguard's assets. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election. To the extent that the Section 743(b) adjustment is attributable to appreciation in value in excess of the unamortized Book-Tax Disparity, Vanguard will apply the rules described in the Treasury Regulations and legislative history. If Vanguard determines that this position cannot reasonably be taken, it may adopt a depreciation and amortization position under which all purchasers acquiring units in the same month would receive depreciation and amortization deductions, whether attributable to common basis or a Section 743(b) adjustment, based upon the same applicable rate as if they had purchased a direct interest in Vanguard's assets. If this position is adopted, it may result in lower annual depreciation and amortization deductions than would otherwise be allowable to some unitholders and risk the loss of depreciation and amortization deductions not taken in the year that these deductions are otherwise allowable. This position will not be adopted if Vanguard determines that the loss of depreciation and amortization deductions will have a material adverse effect on the unitholders. If Vanguard chooses not to utilize this aggregate method, it may use any other reasonable depreciation and amortization method to preserve the uniformity of the intrinsic tax characteristics of any units that would not have a material adverse effect on the unitholders. In either case, and as stated above under Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Section 754 Election, Paul Hastings has not rendered an opinion with respect to these methods. Moreover, the IRS may challenge any method of depreciating the Section 743(b) adjustment described in this paragraph. If this challenge were sustained, the uniformity of units might be affected, and the gain from the sale of units might be increased without the benefit of additional deductions. Please read Disposition of Common Units Recognition of Gain or Loss.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Tax-Exempt Organizations and Other Investors

Ownership of units by employee benefit plans, other tax-exempt organizations, non-resident aliens, foreign corporations and other foreign persons raises issues unique to those investors and, as described below to a limited extent, may have substantially adverse tax consequences to them. If you are a tax-exempt entity or a non-U.S. person, you should consult your tax advisor before investing in Vanguard's common units. Employee benefit plans and most other organizations exempt from federal income tax, including IRAs and other retirement plans, are subject to federal income tax on unrelated business taxable income. Virtually all of Vanguard's income allocated to a unitholder that is a tax-exempt organization will be unrelated business taxable income and will be taxable to it.

Non-resident aliens and foreign corporations, trusts or estates that own units will be considered to be engaged in business in the United States because of the ownership of units. As a consequence, they will be required to file federal tax returns to report their share of Vanguard's income, gain, loss or deduction and pay federal income tax at regular rates on their share of Vanguard's net income or gain. Moreover, under rules applicable to publicly traded partnerships, Vanguard's quarterly distribution to foreign unitholders will be subject to withholding at the highest applicable effective tax rate. Each foreign unitholder must obtain a taxpayer identification number from the IRS and submit that number to Vanguard's transfer agent on a Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E or applicable substitute form in order to obtain credit for these withholding taxes. A change in applicable law may require Vanguard to change these procedures.

In addition, because a foreign corporation that owns units will be treated as engaged in a U.S. trade or business, that corporation may be subject to the U.S. branch profits tax at a rate of 30%, in addition to regular federal income tax, on its share of Vanguard's earnings and profits, as adjusted for changes in the foreign corporation's U.S. net equity, that is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business. That tax may be reduced or eliminated by an income tax treaty between the United States and the country in which the foreign corporate unitholder is a qualified resident. In addition, this type of unitholder is subject to special information reporting requirements under Section 6038C of the Code.

A foreign unitholder who sells or otherwise disposes of a common unit will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain realized from the sale or disposition of that unit to the extent the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the foreign unitholder. Under a ruling published by the IRS, interpreting the scope of effectively connected income, a foreign unitholder would be considered to be engaged in a trade or business in the United States by virtue of the U.S. activities of the partnership, and part or all of that unitholder's gain would be effectively connected with that unitholder's indirect U.S. trade or business. Moreover, under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act, a foreign common unitholder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax upon the sale or disposition of a common unit if (i) he owned (directly or constructively applying certain attribution rules) more than 5% of Vanguard's common units at any time during the five-year period ending on the date of such disposition and (ii) 50% or more of the fair market value of all of Vanguard's assets consisted of U.S. real property interests at any time during the shorter of the period during which such unitholder held the common units or the five-year period ending on the date of disposition. Currently, more than 50% of Vanguard's assets consist of U.S. real property interests and it does not expect that to change in the foreseeable future. Therefore, foreign unitholders may be subject to federal income tax on gain from the sale or disposition of their units. Recent changes in law may affect certain foreign unitholders. Please read Administrative Matters Additional Withholding Requirements.

Administrative Matters

Information Returns and Audit Procedures

Vanguard intends to furnish to each unitholder, within 90 days after the close of each calendar year, specific tax information, including a Schedule K-1, which describes such unitholder's share of its income, gain, loss and deduction for Vanguard's preceding taxable year. In preparing this information, which will not be reviewed by counsel, Vanguard will take various accounting and reporting positions, some of which have been mentioned earlier, to determine each unitholder's share of income, gain, loss and deduction. Vanguard cannot assure you that those positions will yield a result that conforms to the requirements of the Code, Treasury Regulations or administrative interpretations of the IRS. Neither Vanguard nor Paul Hastings can assure prospective unitholders that the IRS will not successfully contend in court that those positions are impermissible. Any challenge by the IRS could negatively affect the value of the units.

The IRS may audit Vanguard's federal income tax information returns. Adjustments resulting from an IRS audit may require each unitholder to adjust a prior year's tax liability and possibly may result in an audit of his return. Any audit of a unitholder's return could result in adjustments not related to Vanguard's returns as well as those related to Vanguard's returns.

Partnerships generally are treated as separate entities for purposes of federal tax audits, judicial review of administrative adjustments by the IRS and tax settlement proceedings. The tax treatment of partnership items of income, gain, loss and deduction are determined in a partnership proceeding rather than in separate proceedings with the partners. The Code requires that one partner be designated as the tax matters partner for these purposes. Vanguard's limited liability company agreement states that an officer of Vanguard who is also a member of Vanguard will be designated by the Vanguard board of directors as its tax matters partner.

The tax matters partner has made and will make some elections on Vanguard's behalf and on behalf of unitholders. In addition, the tax matters partner can extend the statute of limitations for assessment of tax deficiencies against unitholders for items in Vanguard's returns. The tax matters partner may bind a unitholder with less than a 1% profits interest in Vanguard to a settlement with the IRS unless that unitholder elects, by filing a statement with the IRS, not to give that authority to the tax matters partner. The tax matters partner may seek judicial review, by which all the unitholders are bound, of a final partnership administrative adjustment and, if the tax matters partner fails to seek judicial review, judicial review may be sought by any unitholder having at least a 1% interest in profits or by any group of unitholders having in the aggregate at least a 5% interest in profits. However, only one action for judicial review will go forward, and each unitholder with an interest in the outcome may participate.

A unitholder must file a statement with the IRS identifying the treatment of any item on his federal income tax return that is not consistent with the treatment of the item on Vanguard's return. Intentional or negligent disregard of this consistency requirement may subject a unitholder to substantial penalties.

Additional Withholding Requirements

Withholding taxes may apply to certain types of payments made to foreign financial institutions (as specially defined in the Code) and certain other non-U.S. entities. Specifically, a 30% withholding tax may be imposed on interest, dividends and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income from sources within the United States (FDAP Income), or gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of any property of a type that can produce interest or dividends from sources within the United States (Gross Proceeds) paid to a foreign financial institution or to a non-financial foreign entity (as specially defined in the Code), unless (i) the foreign financial institution undertakes certain diligence and reporting, (ii) the non-financial foreign entity either certifies it does not have any substantial U.S. owners or furnishes identifying information regarding each substantial U.S. owner or (iii) the foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules. If the payee is a foreign financial institution and is subject to the diligence and reporting requirements in clause (i) above, it must enter into an agreement with the U.S. Treasury requiring, among other things, that it undertake to identify accounts held by certain U.S. persons or U.S.-owned foreign entities, annually report certain information about such accounts, and withhold 30% on payments to noncompliant foreign financial institutions and certain other account holders. Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing these requirements may be subject to different rules.

These rules generally will apply to payments of FDAP Income made on or after July 1, 2014 and to payments of relevant Gross Proceeds made on or after January 1, 2017. Thus, to the extent Vanguard has FDAP Income or Gross Proceeds after these dates that are not treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business (please read Tax-Exempt Organizations and Other Investors), unitholders who are foreign financial institutions or certain other non-US entities may be subject to withholding on distributions they receive from Vanguard, or their distributive share of Vanguard's income, pursuant to the rules described above.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of these withholding provisions to their investment in Vanguard's units.

Nominee Reporting

Persons who hold an interest in Vanguard as a nominee for another person are required to furnish to Vanguard:

the name, address and taxpayer identification number of the beneficial owner and the nominee;

whether the beneficial owner is:

a person that is not a U.S. person; a foreign government, an international organization or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality of either of the foregoing; or

the amount and description of units held, acquired or transferred for the beneficial owner; and specific information including the dates of acquisitions and transfers, means of acquisitions and transfers, and acquisition cost for purchases, as well as the amount of net proceeds from dispositions.

Brokers and financial institutions are required to furnish additional information, including whether they are U.S. persons and specific information on units they acquire, hold or transfer for their own account. A penalty of $100 per failure, up to a maximum of $1,500,000 per calendar year, is imposed by the Code for failure to report that information to Vanguard. The nominee is required to supply the beneficial owner of the units with the information furnished to Vanguard.

Accuracy-Related Penalties

An additional tax equal to 20% of the amount of any portion of an underpayment of tax that is attributable to one or more specified causes, including negligence or disregard of rules or regulations, substantial understatements of income tax and substantial valuation misstatements, is imposed by the Code. No penalty will be imposed, however, for any portion of an underpayment if it is shown that there was a reasonable cause for that portion and that the taxpayer acted in good faith regarding that portion.

For individuals, a substantial understatement of income tax in any taxable year exists if the amount of the understatement exceeds the greater of 10% of the tax required to be shown on the return for the taxable year or $5,000 ($10,000 for most corporations). The amount of any understatement subject to penalty generally is reduced if any portion is attributable to a position adopted on the return:

for which there is, or was, substantial authority; or as to which there is a reasonable basis and the pertinent facts of that position are disclosed on the return.

If any item of income, gain, loss or deduction included in the distributive shares of unitholders might result in that kind of an understatement of income for which no substantial authority exists, Vanguard must disclose the pertinent facts on its return. In addition, Vanguard will make a reasonable effort to furnish sufficient information for unitholders to make adequate disclosure on their returns and to take other actions as may be appropriate to permit unitholders to avoid liability for this penalty. More stringent rules apply to tax shelters, which Vanguard does not believe includes it, or any of its investments, plans or arrangements.

A substantial valuation misstatement exists if (a) the value of any property, or the adjusted basis of any property, claimed on a tax return is 150% or more of the amount determined to be the correct amount of the valuation or adjusted basis, (b) the price for any property or services (or for the use of property) claimed on any such return with respect to any transaction between persons described in Code Section 482 is 200% or more (or 50% or less) of the amount determined under Section 482 to be the correct amount of such price, or (c) the net Internal Revenue Code Section 482 transfer price adjustment for the taxable year exceeds the lesser of $5 million or 10% of the taxpayer's gross receipts. No penalty is imposed unless the portion of the underpayment attributable to a substantial valuation misstatement exceeds $5,000 ($10,000 for most corporations). If the valuation claimed on a return is 200% or more than the correct valuation or certain other thresholds are met, the penalty imposed increases to 40%. Vanguard does not anticipate making any valuation misstatements.

In addition, the 20% accuracy-related penalty also applies to any portion of an underpayment of tax that is attributable to transactions lacking economic substance. To the extent that such transactions are not disclosed, the penalty imposed is increased to 40%. Additionally, there is no reasonable cause defense to the imposition of this penalty to such transactions.

Reportable Transactions

If Vanguard were to engage in a reportable transaction, it (and possibly you and others) would be required to make a detailed disclosure of the transaction to the IRS. A transaction may be a reportable transaction based upon any of several factors, including the fact that it is a type of tax avoidance transaction publicly identified by the IRS as a listed transaction or that it produces certain kinds of losses for partnerships, individuals, S corporations, and trusts in excess of $2 million in any single year, or $4 million in any combination of six successive tax years. Vanguard's participation in a reportable transaction could increase the likelihood that its federal income tax information return (and possibly your tax return) would be audited by the IRS. Please read Information Returns and Audit Procedures.

Moreover, if Vanguard were to participate in a reportable transaction with a significant purpose to avoid or evade tax, or in any listed transaction, you may be subject to the following additional consequences:

accuracy-related penalties with a broader scope, significantly narrower exceptions, and potentially greater amounts than described above at Accuracy-Related Penalties ; for those persons otherwise entitled to deduct interest on federal tax deficiencies, nondeductibility of interest on any resulting tax liability; and in the case of a listed transaction, an extended statute of limitations.

Vanguard does not expect to engage in any reportable transactions.

State, Local, Foreign and Other Tax Considerations

In addition to federal income taxes, you likely will be subject to other taxes, such as state, local and foreign income taxes, unincorporated business taxes, and estate, inheritance or intangible taxes that may be imposed by the various jurisdictions in which Vanguard does business or owns property or in which you are a resident. Although an analysis of those various taxes is not presented here, each prospective unitholder should consider their potential impact on his investment in Vanguard. Vanguard currently owns property or does business in many states. Several of these states impose a personal income tax on individuals; certain of these states also impose an income tax on corporations and other entities. Vanguard may also own property or do business in other jurisdictions in the future. Although you may not be required to file a return and pay taxes in some jurisdictions because your income from that jurisdiction falls below the filing and payment requirement, you will be required to file income tax returns and to pay income taxes in many of these jurisdictions in which Vanguard does business or owns property and may be subject to penalties for failure to comply with those requirements. In some jurisdictions, tax losses may not produce a tax benefit in the year incurred and may not be available to offset income in subsequent taxable years. Some of the jurisdictions may require Vanguard, or Vanguard may elect, to withhold a percentage of income from amounts to be distributed to a unitholder who is not a resident of the jurisdiction. Withholding, the amount of which may be greater or less than a particular unitholder's income tax liability to the jurisdiction, generally does not relieve a nonresident unitholder from the obligation to file an income tax return. Amounts withheld will be treated as if distributed to unitholders for purposes of determining the amounts distributed by Vanguard. Please read Tax Consequences of Unit Ownership Entity-Level Collections. Based on current law and Vanguard's estimate of its future operations, Vanguard anticipates that any amounts required to be withheld will not be material.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

It is the responsibility of each unitholder to investigate the legal and tax consequences, under the laws of pertinent states, localities and foreign jurisdictions, of his investment in Vanguard. Accordingly, each prospective unitholder is urged to consult his own tax counsel or other advisor with regard to those matters. Further, it is the responsibility of each unitholder to file all state, local and foreign, as well as U.S. federal tax returns, that may be required of him. Paul Hastings has not rendered an opinion on the state, local, alternative minimum tax or foreign tax consequences of an investment in Vanguard.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

DESCRIPTION OF VANGUARD COMMON UNITS

Vanguard common units represent limited liability company interests in Vanguard. Vanguard common units entitle the holders to participate in cash distributions and to exercise the rights and privileges available to unitholders under the Vanguard limited liability company agreement.

Where Common Units Are Traded

Vanguard's outstanding common units are listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol VNR. The common units received by LRE unitholders in the merger will also be listed on the NASDAQ.

Issuance of Additional Units

Vanguard's limited liability company agreement authorizes Vanguard to issue an unlimited number of additional securities and rights to buy securities for the consideration and on the terms and conditions determined by the Vanguard board of directors without the approval of the Vanguard common unitholders. It is possible that Vanguard will fund acquisitions or other initiatives through the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities.

Holders of any additional common units Vanguard issues will be entitled to share equally with the then-existing holders of common units and holders of other equity securities entitled to participate in Vanguard's distributions of available cash. In addition, the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities may dilute the value of the interests of the then-existing holders of common units in Vanguard's net assets. In accordance with Delaware law and the provisions of Vanguard's limited liability company agreement, Vanguard may also issue additional securities that, as determined by the board of directors of Vanguard, may have special voting rights to which the common units are not entitled. The holders of common units do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional common units or other securities.

Voting Rights

Vanguard's common unitholders have the right to vote with respect to the election of directors to the board of directors of Vanguard, certain amendments to Vanguard's limited liability company agreement, the merger of Vanguard or the sale of all or substantially all of Vanguard's assets, and the dissolution of Vanguard.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC is the registrar and transfer agent for the common units. Vanguard will pay all fees charged by the transfer agent for transfers of common units except the following that must be paid by common unitholders:

surety bond premiums to replace lost or stolen certificates, taxes and other governmental charges; special charges for services requested by a common unitholder; and other similar fees or charges.

There is no charge to common unitholders for disbursements of Vanguard's cash distributions. Vanguard will indemnify the transfer agent, its agents and each of their stockholders, directors, officers and employees against all claims and losses that may arise out of acts performed or omitted for its activities in that capacity, except for any liability due to any gross negligence or intentional misconduct of the indemnified person or entity.

The transfer agent may at any time resign, by notice to Vanguard, or be removed by Vanguard. The resignation or removal of the transfer agent will become effective upon Vanguard's appointment of a successor transfer agent and registrar and its acceptance of the appointment. If no successor has been appointed and has accepted the appointment within 30 days after notice of the resignation or removal, Vanguard is authorized to act as the transfer agent and registrar until a successor is appointed.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Transfer of Common Units

By transfer of common units in accordance with Vanguard's limited liability company agreement, each transferee of common units shall be admitted as a Vanguard unitholder with respect to the common units transferred when such transfer is recorded in Vanguard's books and records. Each transferee who has completed and delivered a transfer application:

becomes the record holder of common units;
automatically agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of, and is deemed to have executed Vanguard's limited liability company agreement;
represents that the transferee has the capacity, power and authority to enter into Vanguard's limited liability company agreement;
grants powers of attorney to Vanguard's officers and the liquidator of Vanguard as specified in Vanguard's limited liability company agreement; and

An assignee will become a unitholder of Vanguard for the transferred common units upon the recording of the name of the assignee on Vanguard's books and records.

Until a unit has been transferred on Vanguard's books, Vanguard and the transfer agent, notwithstanding any notice to the contrary, may treat the record holder of the unit as the absolute owner for all purposes, except as otherwise required by law or stock exchange regulations.

Summary of Limited Liability Company Agreement

A summary of the important provisions of the Vanguard liability company agreement is included in the reports filed with the SEC, particularly Vanguard's Form S-1 filed on April 25, 2007, as amended, and under the caption Comparison of Rights of Vanguard Common Unitholders and LRE Unitholders in this proxy statement/prospectus.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF VANGUARD COMMON UNITHOLDERS AND LRE UNITHOLDERS

The rights of Vanguard common unitholders are currently governed by Vanguard’s Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement, as amended, which is referred to as the Vanguard limited liability company agreement, and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, which is referred to as the Delaware LLC Act. The rights of LRE’s unitholders are currently governed by LRE’s First Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership, as amended, which is referred to as the LRE partnership agreement, the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of LRE GP, LLC and the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act, which is referred to as the Delaware LP Act. If the merger is completed, the rights of former LRE unitholders will be governed by the Vanguard limited liability company agreement and the Delaware LLC Act.

There are many differences between the rights of LRE unitholders and the rights of Vanguard unitholders. The following description summarizes the material differences that may affect the rights of Vanguard common unitholders and LRE common unitholders but does not purport to be a complete statement of all those differences or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally significant or more significant differences do not exist. LRE unitholders should read carefully the relevant provisions of the Vanguard limited liability company agreement and the LRE partnership agreement. Copies of the documents referred to in this summary may be obtained as described under Where You Can Find More Information.

Purpose

Vanguard

Vanguard is permitted to engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity that is approved by the Vanguard board of directors and that lawfully may be conducted by a limited liability company organized under Delaware law; provided, Vanguard shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity that the Vanguard board of directors determines would cause Vanguard to be treated as an association taxable as a corporation or otherwise taxable as an entity for federal income tax purpose.

LRE

LRE is permitted to engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity that is approved by LRE GP and that lawfully may be conducted by a limited partnership organized under Delaware law; provided, LRE GP shall not cause LRE to engage, directly or indirectly, in any business activity that LRE GP determines would cause LRE to be treated as an association taxable as a corporation or otherwise taxable as an entity for federal income tax purpose.

Outstanding Units

Vanguard

As of August 27, 2015, Vanguard had outstanding (a) 86,599,111 common units, (b) 420,000 Class B units, (c) 2,581,873 Series A preferred units (Series A preferred units), (d) 7,000,000 Series B preferred units (Series B preferred units) and (e) 4,300,000

LRE

As of August 27, 2015, LRE had outstanding 28,074,433 common units.

Issuance of Additional Securities

Vanguard

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement authorizes Vanguard to issue an unlimited number of additional equity securities and rights to buy securities for the consideration and on the terms and conditions determined by the Vanguard board of directors without the approval of Vanguard's unitholders, but subject to any approval rights specifically granted to the preferred unitholders.

It is possible that Vanguard will fund acquisitions or other initiatives through the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities. Holders of any additional common units Vanguard issues will be entitled to share equally with the then-existing holders of common units and holders of other equity securities entitled to participate in Vanguard's distributions of available cash. In addition, the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities may dilute the value of the interests of the then-existing holders of common units in Vanguard net assets.

In accordance with Delaware law and the provisions of the Vanguard limited liability company agreement, Vanguard may also issue additional securities that, as determined by the Vanguard board of directors, may have special voting rights to which the common units are not entitled. The holders of common units do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional common units or other securities.

LRE

The LRE partnership agreement authorizes LRE to issue an unlimited number of additional equity securities and rights to buy securities for the consideration and on the terms and conditions determined by LRE GP without the approval of LRE's limited partners.

It is possible that LRE will fund acquisitions or other initiatives through the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities. Holders of any additional common units LRE issues will be entitled to share equally with the then-existing holders of common units and holders of other equity securities entitled to participate in LRE's distributions of available cash. In addition, the issuance of additional common units or other equity securities may dilute the value of the interests of the then-existing holders of common units in LRE's net assets.

In accordance with Delaware law and the provisions of the LRE partnership agreement, LRE may also issue additional partnership interests that, as determined by LRE GP, may have special voting rights to which the common units are not entitled. The holders of common units do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional common units or other securities.

Distributions of Available Cash

Vanguard

General. The Vanguard limited liability company agreement requires that Vanguard distribute all of its available cash to holders of Vanguard units within 90 days following the end of each quarter.

LRE

General. The LRE partnership agreement requires that LRE distribute all of its available cash to holders of LRE units within 45 days following the end of each quarter.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Vanguard

Definition of Available Cash.

Available cash for any quarter consists of all cash and cash equivalents on hand at the end of that quarter, plus working capital borrowings made after the end of such quarter, less any cash reserves established by the Vanguard board of directors to (i) provide for the proper conduct of Vanguard's business (including reserves for future capital expenditures, including drilling and acquisitions, and for anticipated future credit needs), (ii) comply with applicable law or debt service obligations, (iii) provide for payments to the preferred unitholders and (iv) provide funds for distributions to the unitholders of Vanguard for any one or more of the next four quarters.

No monthly distribution may be declared or paid or set apart for payment on any common unit or Class B unit (other than a distribution payable solely in units of common units or Class B units) unless full cumulative distributions have been or contemporaneously are being paid or provided for on all outstanding preferred units through the most recent respective distribution payment dates.

Series A Preferred Unit Distribution

Preference. Holders of Series A preferred units will be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds for such purpose, cumulative cash monthly distributions. The distribution rate for the Series A preferred units will be 7.875% per annum of the $25.00 liquidation preference per unit (equal to $1.96875 per unit per annum). The distribution payment date for the Series A preferred units is the 15th day of each month.

Distributions will accumulate in each monthly distribution period from and including the preceding Series A distribution payment date or the initial issue date, as the case may be, to but excluding the applicable Series A distribution payment date for such monthly distribution period. Distributions will accrue on accumulated distributions at a rate of 7.875% per annum per $25.00 stated liquidation preference per Series A preferred unit.

LRE

Definition of Available Cash.

Available cash for any quarter consists of all cash and cash equivalents on hand at the end of that quarter, plus, if the LRE GP so determines, working capital borrowings made after the end of such quarter, less the amount of cash reserves established by LRE GP to (i) provide for the proper conduct of LRE's business (including reserves for future capital expenditures and for anticipated future credit needs), (ii) comply with applicable law or debt service obligations or (iii) provide funds for distributions to the unitholders of LRE (including LRE GP) for any one or more of the next four quarters.

The decision to make any distribution is determined by LRE GP, taking into consideration the terms of the LRE partnership agreement.

Series B Unit Distribution Preference. Holders of Series B preferred units will be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds for such purpose, cumulative cash monthly distributions. The distribution rate for the Series B preferred units will be 7.675% per annum of the $25.00 liquidation preference per unit (equal to $1.91875 per unit per annum). The distribution payment date for the Series B preferred units is the 15th day of each month. Distributions will accumulate in each monthly distribution period from and including the preceding Series B distribution payment date or the initial issue date, as the case may be, to but excluding the applicable Series B distribution payment date for such monthly distribution period. Distributions will accrue on accumulated distributions at a rate of 7.675% per annum per $25.00 stated liquidation preference per Series B preferred units.

Series C Unit Distribution Preference. Holders of Series C preferred units will be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds for such purpose, cumulative cash monthly distributions. The distribution rate for the Series C preferred units will be 7.75% per annum of the $25.00 liquidation preference per unit (equal to $1.9375 per unit per annum). The distribution payment date for the Series C units is the 15th day of each month. Distributions will accumulate in each monthly distribution period from and including the preceding Series C distribution payment date or the initial issue date, as the case may be, to but excluding the applicable Series C distribution payment date for such monthly distribution period. Distributions will accrue on accumulated distributions at a rate of 7.75% per annum per $25.00 stated liquidation preference per Series C preferred unit.

Distributions of Cash upon Liquidation

Vanguard

General. Upon Vanguard's dissolution, the liquidator authorized to wind up Vanguard's affairs will, acting with all of the powers of the Vanguard board of directors necessary or appropriate to carry out the duties and functions of the liquidator, liquidate Vanguard's assets and apply the proceeds of the liquidation first to the payment of Vanguard's creditors. Vanguard will distribute any remaining proceeds to the unitholders in accordance with their respective capital account balances, as adjusted to reflect any gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of Vanguard's assets in liquidation.

Preferred Unit Liquidation Preference. The preferred unitholders will be specially allocated items of Vanguard's gross income and gain in a manner designed to achieve, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vanguard's affairs, whether voluntary or involuntary, a liquidation preference of $25.00 per unit in cash ("preferred unit liquidation preference"). In addition, preferred unitholders will be entitled to receive an amount equal to accumulated and unpaid distributions thereon to the date fixed for payment of such amount (whether or not declared) prior to Vanguard making any liquidation distributions.

If the amount of Vanguard's gross income and gain available to be specially allocated to the preferred unitholders is less than the amount necessary to cause the capital account with respect to each preferred unit to equal the liquidation preference of $25.00 per unit, then the amount that a preferred unitholders would receive upon liquidation may be less than the preferred unit liquidation preference, even though there may be cash available for distribution to the holders of common units or Class B units with respect to their capital accounts. The rights of the preferred unitholders to receive the liquidation preference will be subject to the proportional rights of other preferred unitholders.

LRE

General. Upon LRE's dissolution, the liquidator authorized to wind up LRE's affairs will, acting with all of the powers of LRE GP necessary or appropriate to care out the duties and functions of the liquidator and liquidate LRE's assets and apply the proceeds of the liquidation first to the payment of LRE's creditors. LRE will distribute any remaining proceeds to the unitholders and LRE GP in accordance with their respective capital account balances, as adjusted to reflect any gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of LRE's assets in liquidation.

Manner of Adjustments for Gain. Any gain will be allocated to the unitholders as follows:

first, to LRE GP and the holders of units who have negative balances in their capital accounts to the extent of and in proportion to those negative balances; second, 99.9% to the common unitholders, pro rata, and 0.1% to LRE GP, until the capital account for each common unit is equal to the sum of: (1) the unrecovered initial unit price and (2) the amount of the minimum quarterly distribution for the quarter during which LRE's liquidation occurs;

third, 99.9% to all unitholders, pro rata, and 0.1% to LRE GP, until LRR allocates under this paragraph an amount per unit equal to: (1) the sum of the excess of the first target distribution per unit over the minimum quarterly distribution per unit for each quarter of LRE's existence; less (2) the cumulative amount per unit of any distributions of available cash from operating surplus in excess of the minimum quarterly distribution per unit that LRE distributed 99.9% to the unitholders, pro rata, and 0.1% to LRE GP, for each quarter of LRE's existence;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE

fourth, 86.9% to all unitholders, pro rata, and 13.1% to LRE GP, until LRE allocates under this paragraph an amount per unit equal to: (1) the sum of the excess of the second target distribution per unit over the first target distribution per unit for each quarter of LRE's existence; less (2) the cumulative amount per unit of any distributions of available cash from operating surplus in excess of the first target distribution per unit that LRE distributed 86.9% to the unitholders, pro rata, and 13.1% to LRE GP for each quarter of LRE's existence; and thereafter, 76.9% to all unitholders, pro rata, and 23.1% to LRE GP.

The percentage interests set forth above for LRE GP include its 0.1% general partner interest and assume LRE GP has not transferred the incentive distribution rights.

Manner of Adjustment for Losses. After making allocations of loss to LRE GP and the unitholders in a manner intended to offset in reverse order the allocations of gains that have previously been allocated, losses will be allocated as follows:

first, 99.9% to the holders of common units, in proportion to the positive balances in their capital accounts and 0.1% to LRE GP, until the capital accounts of the common unitholders have been reduced to zero; and thereafter, 100% to LRE GP.

Merger, Sale or Other Disposition of Assets

Vanguard

A merger involving Vanguard requires the prior consent of Vanguard board of directors. However, the Vanguard board of directors will have no duty or obligation to consent to any merger or consolidation and may decline to do so free of any fiduciary duty or obligation whatsoever to Vanguard or the unitholders, including any duty to act in good faith.

The Vanguard board of directors is generally prohibited, without the prior approval of the holders of a unit majority, from causing Vanguard, among other things, to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of Vanguard and its subsidiaries' assets in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, including by way of merger, consolidation or other combination or sale of ownership interests of Vanguard's subsidiaries. The Vanguard board of directors may, however, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or grant a security interest in all or substantially all of Vanguard's assets without that approval. The Vanguard board of directors may also sell all or substantially all of Vanguard's assets under a foreclosure or other realization upon the encumbrances above without that approval.

If the conditions specified in the Vanguard limited liability company agreement are satisfied, the Vanguard board of directors may merge Vanguard or any of its subsidiaries into, or convey all of Vanguard's assets to, a newly formed entity if the sole purpose of that merger or conveyance is to effect a mere change in Vanguard's legal form into another limited liability entity, the Vanguard board of directors has received an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters, and the governing instruments of the new entity provide the unitholders and the Vanguard board of directors with the same rights and obligations as contained in the Vanguard limited liability company agreement.

LRE

A merger involving LRE requires the prior consent of LRE GP. However, LRE GP will have no duty or obligation to consent to any merger or consolidation and may decline to do so free of any fiduciary duty or obligation whatsoever to LRE or the limited partners, including any duty to act in good faith.

LRE GP is generally prohibited, without the prior approval of the holders of a unit majority, from causing LRE, among other things, to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of LRE and its subsidiaries' assets in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, including by way of merger, consolidation or other combination or sale of ownership interests of LRE's subsidiaries. LRE GP may, however, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or grant a security interest in all or substantially all of LRE's assets without that approval. LRE GP may also sell all or substantially all of LRE's assets under a foreclosure or other realization upon the encumbrances above without that approval.

If the conditions specified in the LRE partnership agreement are satisfied, LRE GP may convert LRE or any of its subsidiaries into a new limited liability entity or merge LRE or any of its subsidiaries into, or convey all of LRE's assets to, a newly formed entity if the sole purpose of that conversion, merger or conveyance is to effect a mere change in LRE's legal form into another limited liability entity, LRE GP has received an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters, and the governing instruments of the new entity provide the limited partners and LRE GP with the same rights and obligations as contained in the LRE partnership agreement.

Vanguard

Finally, the Vanguard board of directors may consummate any merger or consolidation without the prior approval of Vanguard’s unitholders if Vanguard is the surviving entity in the transaction, the Vanguard board of directors has received an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters, the transaction will not result in a material amendment to the Vanguard limited liability company agreement (other than an amendment that the Vanguard board of directors could adopt without the consent of the unitholders), each of Vanguard’s units will be an identical unit of Vanguard following the transaction, and the equity interests to be issued do not exceed 20% of the outstanding limited liability interests of Vanguard immediately prior to the transaction.

The Vanguard unitholders are not entitled to dissenters’ rights of appraisal under the Vanguard limited liability company agreement or applicable Delaware law in the event of a conversion, merger or consolidation, a sale of all or substantially all of Vanguard’s assets or any other transaction or event.

The LRE unitholders are not entitled to dissenters’ rights of appraisal under the LRE partnership agreement or applicable Delaware law in the event of a conversion, merger or consolidation, a sale of substantially all of the assets of LRE or any other similar transaction or event.

Election of Directors

Vanguard

At Vanguard’s annual meeting of unitholders, members of the Vanguard board of directors are elected by Vanguard unitholders and will be subject to re-election on an annual basis at Vanguard’s next annual meeting of unitholders.

Any director of Vanguard may be removed at any time by the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding Vanguard units then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

LRE

LRE GP’s directors are elected for one-year terms by LRM, the managing member of LRE GP. LRE GP’s directors hold office until the earlier of their death, resignation, removal or disqualification or until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

the dissolution of Vanguard (as discussed below under Dissolution).

Any action required or permitted to be taken by Vanguard s unitholders must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of unitholders and may not be effected by any consent in writing by such unitholders. Vanguard holds an annual meeting each year.

Any action that is required or permitted to be taken by the unitholders may be taken either at a meeting of the unitholders or without a meeting if consents in writing describing the action so taken are signed by holders of the number of units necessary to authorize or take that action at a meeting.

Meetings of the unitholders may only be called by a majority of the Vanguard board of directors. Unitholders may vote either in person or by proxy at meetings. The holders of a majority of the outstanding units of the class or classes for which a meeting has been called, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum unless any action by the unitholders requires approval by holders of a greater percentage of the units, in which case the quorum shall be the greater percentage.

Meetings of the unitholders may be called by LRE GP or by unitholders owning at least 20% of the outstanding units of the class for which a meeting is proposed. Unitholders may vote either in person or by proxy at meetings. The holders of a majority of the outstanding units of the class or classes for which a meeting has been called, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum unless any action by the unitholders requires approval by holders of a greater percentage of the units, in which case the quorum will be the greater percentage.

All notices of meetings of unitholders shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with the Vanguard limited liability company agreement not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, date and hour of the meeting and (i) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted (no business other than that specified in the notice may be transacted) or (ii) in the case of the annual meeting, those matters which the Vanguard board of directors, at the time of giving the notice, intends to present for action by the unitholders (but any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action). The notice of any meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the name of any nominee or nominees who, at the time of the notice, the board of directors intends to present for election. Any previously scheduled meeting of the unitholders may be postponed, and any special meeting of the unitholders may be cancelled, by resolution of the Vanguard board of directors upon public notice given prior to the date previously scheduled for such meeting of unitholders. Any notice, demand, request, report or proxy material required or permitted to be given or made to record holders of units under the Vanguard limited liability company agreement will be delivered to the record holder by Vanguard or by the transfer agent.

Each record holder of a unit has a vote according to his percentage interest in Vanguard, although additional units having special voting rights could be issued (as discussed under Issuance of Additional Securities above). However, if at any time any person or group, other than a direct transferee from Vanguard that is specifically approved by the Vanguard board of directors, beneficially owns 20% or more of any class of units then outstanding, that person or group will lose voting rights on all of its units and the units may not be voted on any matter and will not be considered to be outstanding when sending notices of a meeting of unitholders, calculating required votes, determining the presence of a quorum or for other similar purposes. Withdrawal or Removal of the General Partner; Election of General Partner

Vanguard, as a limited liability company, does not have a general partner.

LRE

Except as described below, LRE GP has agreed not to withdraw voluntarily as the general partner of LRE prior to December 31, 2021 without obtaining the approval of the holders of a majority of the LRE outstanding common units, excluding common units held by LRE GP and its affiliates, and furnishing an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters. On or after December 31, 2021, LRE GP may withdraw as the general partner without first obtaining approval of any unitholder by giving at least 90 days' written notice, and that withdrawal will not constitute a violation of the LRE partnership agreement. Notwithstanding the information above, LRE GP may withdraw as the general partner without unitholder approval upon 90 days' notice to LRE's limited partners if at least 50% of the outstanding common units are held or controlled by one person and its affiliates other than LRE GP and its affiliates. In addition, the LRE partnership agreement permits LRE GP in some instances to sell or otherwise transfer all of the general partner interest in LRE without the approval of the unitholders (as discussed below under "Transfer of General Partner Interests").

Upon withdrawal of LRE GP under any circumstance other than as a result of a transfer by LRE GP of all or a part of its general partner interest in LRE, the holders of a unit majority may select a successor general partner. If a successor is not elected, or is elected but an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters is not obtained, LRE will be dissolved, wound up and liquidated, unless within a specified period of time after that withdrawal, the holders of a unit majority agree in writing to continue the business of LRE and to appoint a successor general partner (as discussed below under "Dissolution").

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE

LRE GP may not be removed unless that removal is approved by the vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3% of LRE's outstanding units, voting together as a single class, including units held by LRE GP and its affiliates, and LRE receives an opinion of counsel regarding limited liability and tax matters. Any removal of LRE GP is also subject to the approval of a successor general partner by the vote of the holders of a majority of LRE's outstanding common units, voting as a single class. The ownership of more than 33 1/3% of the outstanding units of LRE by LRE GP and its affiliates gives LRE GP the practical ability to prevent LRE GP's removal.

The LRE partnership agreement also provides that if LRE GP is removed as the general partner under circumstances where cause does not exist:

all cumulative common unit arrearages on the common units will be extinguished; and LRE GP will have the right to convert its general partner interest and its incentive distribution rights into common units or to receive cash in exchange for those interests based on the fair market value of the interests at the time.

In the event of removal of LRE GP under circumstances where cause exists or withdrawal of LRE GP where that withdrawal violates the LRE partnership agreement, a successor general partner will have the option to purchase the departing general partner's general partner interest and incentive distribution rights for a cash payment equal to the fair market value of those interests. Under all other circumstances where LRE GP withdraws or is removed by the limited partners, the departing general partner will have the option to require the successor general partner to purchase the general partner interest of the departing general partner and its incentive distribution rights for fair market value. In each case, this fair market value will be determined by agreement between the departing general partner and the successor general partner. If no agreement is reached, an independent investment banking firm or other independent expert selected by the departing general partner and the successor general partner will determine the fair market value. If the departing general partner and the successor general partner cannot agree upon an expert, then an expert chosen by agreement of the experts selected by each of them will determine the fair market value.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LRE

If the option described above is not exercised by either the departing general partner or the successor general partner, the departing general partner's general partner interest and its incentive distribution rights will automatically convert into common units equal to the fair market value of those interests as determined by an investment banking firm or other independent expert selected in the manner described in the preceding paragraph.

In addition, LRE will be required to reimburse the departing general partner for all amounts due the departing general partner, including, without limitation, all employee-related liabilities, including severance liabilities, incurred for the termination of any employees employed by the departing general partner or its affiliates for LRE's benefit.

Transfer of General Partner Interests

LRE

Vanguard, as a limited liability company, does not have a general partner.

LRE GP may transfer without a vote of LRE's unitholders all, but not less than all, of its general partner interest in LRE to an affiliate or another person (other than an individual) in connection with its merger or consolidation with or into, or sale of all, or substantially all, of its assets to, such person. The approval of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units, excluding LRE common units held by LRE GP and its affiliates, is required in other circumstances for a transfer of the general partner interest to a third party prior to December 31, 2021.

No or Limited Preemptive Right

LRE

The holders of Vanguard units do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional common units or other securities.

The holders of LRE common units do not have preemptive rights to acquire additional common units or other partnership interests. LRE GP and its affiliates have limited preemptive rights to acquire additional common units and other equity securities.

Limited Call Right

LRE

If at any time any person owns more than 90% of Vanguard's then-issued and outstanding units of any class, such person will have the right, which it may assign in whole or in part to Vanguard or its affiliates, to acquire all, but not less than all, of the remaining units of the class held by unaffiliated persons as of a record date to be selected by Vanguard management, on at least 10 but not more than 60 days' notice.

If at any time LRE GP and its affiliates own more than 80% of LRE's then-issued and outstanding limited partner interests of any class, LRE GP has the right, which it may assign in whole or in part to its affiliates or LRE, to acquire all, but not less than all, of the limited partner interests of the class held by unaffiliated persons as of a record date to be selected by LRE GP, on at least 10 but not more than 60 days' notice.

Amendment of Limited Liability Company Agreement or Partnership Agreement

Vanguard

General. Amendments to the Vanguard limited liability company agreement may be proposed only by or with the consent of the Vanguard board of directors. Except as described below, an amendment must be approved by the holders of a unit majority.

LRE

General. Amendments to the LRE partnership agreement may be proposed only by LRE GP. However, LRE GP will have no duty or obligation to propose any amendment and may decline to do so free of any fiduciary duty or obligation whatsoever to LRE or LRE's limited partners, including any duty to act in good faith or in the best interests of LRE or LRE limited partners. To adopt a proposed amendment, other than the amendments discussed below under No Unitholder Approval, LRE GP is required to seek written approval of the holders of the number of units required to approve the amendment or call a meeting of LRE's limited partners to consider and vote upon the proposed

Fiduciary Duties; Conflicts of Interest

Vanguard

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement limits the liability of the Vanguard board of directors and eliminates the fiduciary duties it owes to Vanguard and the holders of Vanguard units and replaces such fiduciary duties with contractual duties and standards. The Vanguard limited liability company agreement also restricts the remedies available to holders of Vanguard units for actions that might otherwise constitute a breach of the duties that the Vanguard board of directors owes to the Vanguard unitholders.

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement permits Vanguard’s directors, officers and their affiliates to invest or engage in other businesses or activities that compete with Vanguard, provided that no Vanguard confidential information is used in connection with such activity.

Whenever a potential conflict arises between an affiliate of Vanguard and Vanguard and its subsidiaries, the Vanguard board of directors will resolve the conflict. Anti-Takeover Provisions

Vanguard

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement contains specific provisions that are intended to discourage a person or group from attempting to take control of Vanguard without the approval of the Vanguard board of directors.

The Vanguard limited liability agreement restricts the voting rights of unitholders by providing that any units held by a person that owns 20% or more of any class of units then outstanding, other than persons who acquire such units from Vanguard with the prior approval of the Vanguard board of directors, cannot vote on any matter.

The Vanguard limited liability company agreement provides that Vanguard has elected to have Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) apply to transactions in which an interested common unitholder (as described below) seeks to enter into a merger or business combination with Vanguard. Under this provision, such an interested common unitholder will not be permitted to enter into a merger or business combination with Vanguard unless:

prior to such time, the Vanguard board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the common unitholder s becoming an interested common unitholder;

upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the common unitholder becoming an interested common unitholder, the interested common unitholder owned at least 85% of Vanguard s outstanding common units at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the number of common units outstanding those common units owned:

The LRE partnership agreement contains specific provisions that are intended to discourage a person or group from attempting to remove LRE GP or otherwise change the management of LRE GP without the approval of LRE GP.

The LRE partnership agreement restricts the voting rights of unitholders by providing that any units held by a person (other than LRE GP and its affiliates) that owns 20% or more of any class of units then outstanding cannot vote on any matter; provided that this loss of voting rights does not apply to any person or group that acquires the units from LRE GP or its affiliates and any transferees of that person or group approved by LRE GP or to any person or group who acquires the units with the prior approval of the board of directors of LRE GP.

If LRE GP is removed without cause and no units held by LRE GP and its affiliates are voted in favor of that removal, the LRE partnership agreement provides that, among other things, (i) any existing arrearages in payment of the minimum quarterly distribution on the common units will be extinguished and (ii) LRE GP will have the right to convert its general partner interest and incentive distribution rights into common units or receive cash in exchange for those interests.

Section 203 of the DGCL does not apply to LRE because it is organized as a limited partnership and the LRE partnership agreement does not incorporate its restrictions.

at or subsequent to such time the business combination is approved by the Vanguard board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of Vanguard's common unitholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of Vanguard's outstanding voting common units that are not owned by the interested common unitholder.

Section 203 of the DGCL defines "business combination" to include:

any merger or consolidation involving the company and the interested common unitholder;

subject to certain exceptions, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by the company of any common units of Vanguard to the interested common unitholder;

any transaction involving Vanguard that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the units of any class or series of Vanguard beneficially owned by the interested common unitholder; or the receipt by the interested common unitholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through Vanguard.

In general, by reference to Section 203 of the DGCL, an "interested common unitholder" is any person or entity that beneficially owns (or within three years has owned) 15% or more of the outstanding common units of Vanguard and any entity or person affiliated with or controlling or controlled by such entity or person.

The existence of this provision would be expected to have an anti-takeover effect with respect to transactions not approved in advance by the Vanguard board of directors, including discouraging attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for common units held by common unitholders.

PROPOSAL 2: ADVISORY VOTE ON MERGER-RELATED NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

As required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act and the applicable SEC rules issued thereunder, LRE is required to submit a proposal to its unitholders for a non-binding, advisory vote to approve the payment by LRE of certain compensation to the named executive officers of LRE that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This proposal, commonly known as say-on-golden parachutes, and which we refer to as the merger-related compensation proposal, gives LRE's unitholders the opportunity to vote, on a non-binding, advisory basis, on the compensation that the LRE named executive officers may be entitled to receive from LRE that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This compensation is summarized in the table and narrative disclosure under Proposal 1: The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of LRE GP in the Merger under the sub-headings Treatment of LTIP Unit Awards, Severance Arrangements and Quantification of Payments and Benefits to LRE's Named Executive Officers, including the footnotes to the table.

The board of directors of LRE GP encourages you to review carefully the information disclosed in this proxy statement/prospectus regarding the merger-related compensation payable to certain of LRE's named executive officers.

The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that LRE's unitholders approve the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the unitholders of LRR Energy, L.P. hereby approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation to be paid or become payable by LRR Energy, L.P. to certain of its named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the Golden Parachute Compensation table and the footnotes to that table.

The vote on the merger-related compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the merger agreement and vote not to approve the compensation proposal and vice versa. Because the vote on the compensation proposal is advisory only, it will not be binding on either LRE or Vanguard. Accordingly, if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed, the compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the non-binding, advisory vote of LRE's unitholders.

To adopt the above resolution approving the merger-related compensation of the LRE named executive officers on a non-binding, advisory basis, the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units must vote in favor of such adoption.

The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends you vote FOR the merger-related compensation proposal.

PROPOSAL 3: ADJOURNMENT OF THE LRE SPECIAL MEETING

LRE unitholders are being asked to approve a proposal to adjourn the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the LRE special meeting. If this proposal is approved, the LRE special meeting could be adjourned to any date. If the LRE special meeting is adjourned, LRE unitholders who have already submitted their proxies will be able to revoke them at any time prior to their use. If you return a proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote on any proposal, or if you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement but do not indicate a choice on the adjournment proposal, your LRE common units will be voted in favor of the adjournment proposal. But if you indicate that you wish to vote against the approval of the merger agreement, your LRE common units will only be voted in favor of the adjournment proposal if you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of that proposal. If a quorum is present at, and if a limited partner vote is solicited on adjournment of, the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units will be required to approve the adjournment of the LRE special meeting. If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the affirmative vote of the holders, as of the record date of the special meeting, of a majority of the outstanding LRE common units present and entitled to be voted at such meeting represented either in person or by proxy will be required to approve the proposal.

The board of directors of LRE GP unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adjournment of the LRE special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the LRE special meeting.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

Vanguard has filed with the SEC a registration statement under the Securities Act of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, which registers the Vanguard common units to be issued to LRE unitholders in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The registration statement, including the exhibits and schedules attached to the registration statement, contains additional relevant information about Vanguard and its common units. The rules and regulations of the SEC allow Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock to omit certain information that is included in the registration statement from this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vanguard's Filings (SEC File No. 001-33756)

Vanguard files annual, quarterly and special reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. The SEC allows Vanguard to incorporate by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus the information it files with the SEC, which means that Vanguard can disclose important information to you by referring you to those documents. This proxy statement/prospectus contains summaries of certain provisions contained in some of the documents described herein, but reference is made to the actual documents for complete information. All of the summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the actual documents. The information incorporated by reference is an important part of this proxy statement/prospectus, and information that Vanguard files later with the SEC will automatically update and supersede this information as well as the information included in this proxy statement/prospectus. Some documents or information, such as that called for by Items 2.02 and 7.01 of Form 8-K, or the exhibits related thereto under Item 9.01 of Form 8-K, are deemed furnished and not filed in accordance with SEC rules. None of those documents and none of the information contained therein is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Vanguard incorporates by reference the documents listed below that it has previously filed with the SEC:

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, filed on March 2, 2015;

Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015, filed on May 4, 2015 and the quarter ended June 30, 2015, filed on August 4, 2015;

Eagle Rock s Filings (SEC File No. 001-33016)

Eagle Rock files annual, quarterly and special reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. The SEC allows Vanguard to incorporate by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus the information that Eagle Rock has filed with the SEC, which means that Vanguard can disclose important information about Eagle Rock to you by referring you to those documents. This proxy statement/prospectus contains summaries of certain provisions contained in some of the documents described herein, but reference is made to the actual documents for complete information. All of the summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the actual documents. The information incorporated by reference is an important part of this proxy statement/prospectus, and information that Eagle Rock files later with the SEC will automatically update and supersede this information as well as the information included in this proxy statement/prospectus. Some documents or information, such as that called for by Items 2.02 and 7.01 of Form 8-K, or the exhibits related thereto under Item 9.01 of Form 8-K, are deemed furnished and not filed in accordance with SEC rules. None of those documents and none of the information contained therein is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Vanguard incorporates by reference the Eagle Rock documents listed below that it has previously filed with the SEC:

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, filed on March 2, 2015; and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015, filed on May 1, 2015 and for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, filed on July 31, 2015.

Vanguard also incorporates by reference additional documents that Eagle Rock files with the SEC under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, after the date of the initial registration statement and prior to the effectiveness of the registration statement, as well as between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the date on which the LRE special meeting is held. These documents include periodic reports, such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. To the extent that any information contained in any Current Report on Form 8-K incorporated by referenced into this document (or any exhibit thereto) was furnished under Item 2.02 or 7.01 of Form 8-K, rather than filed, with the SEC, such information or exhibit is specifically not incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock also make available free of charge on their internet websites at www.vnrllc.com, www.lrrenergy.com and www.eaglerockenergy.com, respectively, the reports and other information filed by Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock with the SEC, as soon as reasonably practicable after such material is electronically filed or furnished to the SEC. None of Vanguard s, LRE s or Eagle Rock s websites, and none of the information contained on their websites, is part of this proxy statement/prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference.

The SEC maintains an Internet website that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other material that are filed through the SEC s Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval (EDGAR) System. This system can be accessed at www.sec.gov. You can find information that Vanguard, LRE and Eagle Rock file with the SEC by reference to their names or to their SEC file numbers. You also may read and copy any document Vanguard, LRE or Eagle Rock files with the SEC at the SEC s public reference room located at 100 F Street, N.E., Room 1580, Washington, D.C. 20549. Please call the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for further information about the public reference room and its copy charges.

None of Vanguard, LRE or Eagle Rock has authorized anyone to give any information or make any representation about the merger, Vanguard, LRE or Eagle Rock that is different from, or in addition to, that contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or in any of the materials that have been incorporated by reference. Therefore, if any one distributes this type of information, you should not rely on it. If you are in a jurisdiction where offers to exchange or sell, or solicitations of offers to exchange or purchase, the securities offered by this proxy statement/prospectus or the solicitation of proxies is unlawful, or you are a person to whom it is unlawful to direct these types or activities, then the offer presented in this proxy statement/prospectus does not extend to you. ARTICLE II PURCHASE OF GP MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS; THE MERGER; EFFECTS OF THE MERGER

2.1 Purchase of GP Membership Interests.

(a) Agreement to Sell and Purchase GP Membership Interests. On the Closing Date and upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, in consideration of the GP Purchase Price, GP Sellers shall sell, assign, transfer, convey and deliver to Parent, and Parent shall purchase and accept from GP Sellers, the GP Membership Interests (the GP Purchase), free and clear of all Liens except for (i) restrictions on transfer arising under applicable securities Laws, (ii) the applicable terms and conditions of the Existing Partnership Agreement and (iii) the applicable terms and conditions of the Partnership GP LLC Agreement.

(b) Acknowledgements. Parent hereby agrees, and GP Sellers hereby acknowledge, that effective simultaneously with the Closing and Parent's acquisition of all of the GP Membership Interests by delivery of the GP Assignment by GP Sellers to Parent, Parent hereby agrees to:

(i) accept, adopt, be bound by and subject to the terms and conditions of the Partnership GP LLC Agreement, and Parent acknowledges that Partnership GP is a party to, bound by and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Existing Partnership Agreement; and

(ii) assume and agree to pay, perform and discharge when due all of the GP Sellers' obligations, duties and liabilities under the Partnership GP LLC Agreement from and after the consummation of the Closing. Effective simultaneously with the Closing, the GP Sellers will cause Parent to be admitted as the sole member of Partnership GP with the right to participate in the management of the business and affairs, and to exercise all of the rights and powers of the sole member, of Partnership GP, and concurrently therewith each GP Seller will cease to be a member of Partnership GP and cease to have or exercise any right or power as a member of Partnership GP, except for the rights of indemnification as provided by the Partnership GP LLC Agreement and the Partnership Agreement. The assignment and transfer of the GP Membership Interests, the admission of Parent as the sole member of Partnership GP and each GP Seller ceasing to be a member of Partnership GP will not dissolve Partnership GP, and Partnership GP will continue without dissolution after the Closing.

(c) Purchase Price. At the Closing, Parent shall issue and deliver to GP Sellers, 12,320 Parent Common Units in the aggregate (the GP Purchase Price), with such Parent Common Units comprising the GP Purchase Price allocated to the GP Sellers as set forth on Section 2.1(c) of the Partnership Disclosure Schedule.

(d) Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event that the outstanding Parent Common Units shall have been changed into a different number of units or a different class after the date of this Agreement by reason of any subdivisions, reclassifications, splits, unit distributions, combinations or exchanges of Parent Common Units, the GP Purchase Price will be correspondingly adjusted to provide to the GP Sellers the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event.

(e) Fractional New Common Units. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any GP Seller who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a New Common Unit pursuant to Section 2.1(c) will receive from Parent, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest rounded up to the nearest whole cent) in an amount equal to the product of (i) the Average Closing Price as of the Closing Date and (ii) the fraction of a New Common Unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 2.1(c), which amount of cash, if any, shall be paid to the appropriate GP Seller at Closing, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

A-16

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(f) Tax Characterization of GP Purchase. The GP Sellers and Parent each acknowledges and agrees that for federal income Tax purposes the GP Purchase will be treated as an assets-over partnership merger transaction under Treasury Regulations Sections 1.708-1(c)(1) and 1.708-1(c)(3)(i), whereby Partnership GP will be the terminating partnership and Parent will be the resulting partnership. As a result, for U.S. federal income Tax purposes the GP Purchase will be treated as a contribution of all of the assets of Partnership GP to Parent in exchange for the GP Purchase Price, the cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and the assumption of liabilities. To the maximum extent possible, any cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and other cash deemed received in exchange for Partnership GP's assets shall be treated as a reimbursement of preformation capital expenditures described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.707-4(d). To the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and other cash deemed received in exchange for Partnership GP's assets exceeds the amount that can be so treated, such excess cash will be treated as proceeds of a Disguised Sale. Each of the GP Sellers and Parent agrees to prepare and file all U.S. federal income Tax Returns in accordance with the foregoing and shall not take any position inconsistent therewith on any such Tax Return, or in the course of any audit, litigation or other proceeding with respect to U.S. federal income Taxes, except as otherwise required by applicable Laws following a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction or other final administrative decision by an applicable Governmental Authority.

2.2 The Merger.

(a) The Merger and Surviving Entity. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, and in accordance with the DRULPA and the DLLCA, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Partnership (the Merger and, together with the GP Purchase, the Transactions), the separate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and the Partnership will survive and continue to exist as a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership, as the surviving entity in the Merger, sometimes being referred to herein as the Surviving Entity).

(b) Effectiveness and Effects of the Merger. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Merger will become effective upon the filing of a properly executed certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such later date and time as may be agreed to by Parent and the Partnership and set forth in such Certificate of Merger (the Effective Time), in accordance with the DRULPA. The Merger will have the effects set forth in this Agreement and the applicable provisions of the DRULPA and the DLLCA.

(c) Certificate of Limited Partnership and Agreement of Limited Partnership. At the Effective Time, (i) the Partnership Certificate of Limited Partnership will remain unchanged and will be the certificate of limited partnership of the Surviving Entity until duly amended in accordance with applicable Law and (ii) the Existing Partnership Agreement will remain unchanged and will be the agreement of limited partnership of the Surviving Entity until duly amended in accordance with the terms thereof and applicable Law.

(d) Admission as Partner. At the Effective Time, (i) by virtue of the Merger, and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Partnership, the Partnership GP or any holder of Parent Securities or Partnership Common Units, Parent shall be admitted as the sole limited partner of the Partnership and will hold all Partnership Common Units, (ii) Partnership GP shall continue as the sole general partner of the Partnership and (iii) the Partnership shall continue without dissolution.

2.3 Closing. Subject to the provisions of Article VIII, the closing of the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing) will occur on (a) the third Business Day after the day on which the last of the conditions set forth in Article VIII (excluding conditions that, by their nature, cannot be satisfied until the Closing Date, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions) have been satisfied or waived in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or (b) such other date to which Parent and the Partnership may agree in writing. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to as the Closing Date. The Closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will take place at the offices of Paul Hastings LLP, 600 Travis Street, 58th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, at 10:00 a.m. Houston time on the Closing Date.

ARTICLE III

MERGER CONSIDERATION; EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

3.1 Merger Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Partnership, Partnership GP, or any holder of Parent securities or Partnership Common Units:

- (a) All of the limited liability company interests in Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be automatically converted into 1,000 Partnership Common Units.
- (b) The general partner interest in the Partnership issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain outstanding in the Surviving Entity in the form set forth in the Existing Partnership Agreement, and Partnership GP, as the holder of such general partner interest, will continue as the sole general partner of the Surviving Entity as set forth in the Existing Partnership Agreement. At the Effective Time, the books and records of the Partnership will be revised to reflect that all limited partners of the Partnership immediately prior to the Effective Time cease to be limited partners of the Partnership pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and that Parent is the sole limited partner of the Partnership, and the Partnership will continue without dissolution.
- (c) Each Partnership Common Unit issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding any Excluded Units) will be converted into the right to receive 0.550 Parent Common Units (the Merger Consideration, and such ratio, the Exchange Ratio), which Parent Common Units will be duly authorized, validly issued and fully paid in accordance with applicable Laws and the Parent Agreement, as applicable (such Parent Common Units described in this clause (c) and the Parent Common Units issued to the GP Sellers as the GP Purchase Price are referred to collectively herein as the New Common Units, and the issuance of the New Common Units as part of the Merger Consideration and GP Purchase Price pursuant to this Agreement is referred to herein as the New Common Unit Issuance).
- (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, each Partnership Common Unit (if any) owned immediately prior to the Effective Time by the Partnership or its wholly owned Subsidiaries or by Parent or its wholly owned Subsidiaries (collectively, the Excluded Units) will automatically be cancelled and cease to exist and no consideration will be received therefor.

3.2 Rights As Unitholders; Unit Transfers. All Partnership Common Units converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 3.1(c) will cease to be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and will cease to exist when converted as a result of and pursuant to the Merger. At the Effective Time, each holder of a certificate representing Partnership Common Units (a Certificate) and each holder of non-certificated Partnership Common Units represented by book-entry (Book-Entry Units) will cease to be a limited partner of the Partnership and cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive (a) the Merger Consideration, and the right to be admitted as an Additional Member of Parent in connection therewith, (b) any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional New Common Unit in accordance with Section 3.3(d), and (c) any distributions in accordance with Section 3.3(c), in each case, to be issued or paid, without interest, in consideration therefor in accordance with Section 3.3; provided, however, that the rights of (i) any holder of the Partnership Restricted Units will be as set forth in Section 3.5, and (ii) any holder of Excluded Units will be as set forth in Section 3.1(d). In addition, holders as of the relevant record date of Partnership Common Units immediately prior to the Effective Time will have continued rights to any distribution, without interest, with respect to such units with a record date occurring prior to the Effective Time that may have been declared or made by the Partnership with respect to such Partnership Common Units in accordance with the terms of the Existing Partnership Agreement and this Agreement and which remains unpaid as of the Effective Time. Such distributions by the Partnership are not part of the Merger Consideration, and will be paid on the payment date set therefor to such holders of Partnership Common Units regardless of whether they exchange their Partnership Common Units pursuant to Section 3.3. At the Effective Time, the unit transfer books of the Partnership will be closed immediately and there will be no further registration of transfers on the unit transfer books of the Partnership with respect to Partnership Common Units.

3.3 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent will appoint a commercial bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Partnership to act as exchange agent hereunder for the purpose of exchanging Partnership Common Units for the Merger Consideration as required by this Article III (the Exchange Agent). Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent will deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of the applicable Partnership Common Units, for exchange in accordance with this Article III, through the Exchange Agent, New Common Units and cash as required by this Article III. Parent agrees to make available to the Exchange Agent, from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay any distributions pursuant to Section 3.3(c) and to make payments in lieu of any fractional New Common Units pursuant to Section 3.3(d), in each case without interest. Any cash (including as payment for any fractional New Common Units in accordance with Section 3.3(d) and any distributions with respect to such fractional New Common Units in accordance with Section 3.3(c)) and New Common Units deposited with the Exchange Agent are hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund. The Exchange Agent will, pursuant to irrevocable instructions, deliver the Merger Consideration contemplated to be paid for Partnership Common Units pursuant to this Agreement out of the Exchange Fund. Except as contemplated by Sections 3.3(c) and 3.3(d), the Exchange Fund will not be used for any other purpose.

(b) Exchange Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent will instruct the Exchange Agent to mail to each record holder of Partnership Common Units as of the Effective Time (other than holders of Excluded Units) (i) a letter of transmittal (specifying that in respect of certificated Partnership Common Units, delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and which will be in customary form and agreed to by Parent and the Partnership prior to the Effective Time) (the Letter of Transmittal), and (ii) instructions (in customary form and agreed to by Parent and the Partnership prior to the Effective Time) for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Units in exchange for the Merger Consideration payable in respect of Partnership Common Units represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Units, as applicable. Promptly after the Effective Time, upon surrender of Certificates, if any, for cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letters of transmittal, properly completed and duly executed, and such other documents (including in respect of Book-Entry Units) as may reasonably be required pursuant to such instructions, each holder who held Partnership Common Units immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (x) holders of the Partnership Restricted Units and (y) holders of Excluded Units) will be entitled to receive upon surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Units therefor (A) New Common Units representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of New Common Units that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article III (after taking into account all Partnership Common Units then held by such holder), and (B) a check in an amount equal to the aggregate amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to this Article III, including cash payable in lieu of any fractional New Common Units pursuant to Section 3.3(d) and distributions pursuant to Section 3.3(c). No interest will be paid or accrued on any Merger Consideration, any cash payment in lieu of fractional New Common Units, or any Parent distributions payable pursuant to Section 3.3(c). In the event of a transfer of ownership of Partnership Common Units that is not registered in the transfer records of the Partnership, the Merger Consideration payable in respect of such Partnership Common Units may be paid to a transferee, if the Certificate representing such Partnership Common Units or evidence of ownership of the Book-Entry Units is presented to the Exchange Agent, and in the case of both certificated and Book-Entry Units, accompanied by all documents reasonably required to evidence and effect such transfer and the Person requesting such exchange will pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the delivery of the Merger Consideration in any name other than that of the record holder of such Partnership Common Units, or will establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Taxes have been paid or are not payable. Until such required documentation has been delivered and Certificates, if any, have been surrendered, as contemplated by this Section 3.3, each Certificate or Book-Entry Unit representing a Partnership Common Unit (other than an Excluded Unit) will be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such delivery and surrender the Merger Consideration payable in respect of Partnership Common Units, and (without the necessity of such surrender) any cash or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Section 3.3.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Partnership Common Units. No distributions declared or made with respect to Parent Common Units with a record date after the Effective Time will be paid to the holder of any Partnership Common Units with respect to New Common Units that such holder would be entitled to receive in accordance herewith and no cash payment in lieu of fractional New Common Units will be paid to any such holder until such holder has delivered the required documentation and surrendered any Certificates or Book-Entry Units as contemplated by this Section 3.3. Subject to applicable Law, following compliance with the requirements of Section 3.3(b), there will be paid to such holder of New Common Units issuable in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) promptly after the time of such compliance, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of fractional New Common Units to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(d) (which shall be paid by the Exchange Agent as provided therein) and the amount of distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to New Common Units and payable with respect to such New Common Units, and (ii) promptly after such compliance, or, if later, at the appropriate payment date, the amount of distributions with a record date after the Effective Time, but prior to such delivery and surrender and a payment date subsequent to such compliance payable with respect to such New Common Units (which shall be paid by Parent).

(d) Fractional New Common Units. No certificates or scrip of New Common Units representing fractional New Common Units or book entry credit of the same will be issued upon the surrender of Partnership Common Units outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with Section 3.3(b), and such fractional interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to have any rights as a holder of any New Common Units. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of Partnership Common Units converted in the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a New Common Unit (after taking into account all Partnership Common Units exchanged by such holder) will receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest rounded up to the nearest whole cent) in an amount equal to the product of (i) the Average Closing Price as of the Closing Date and (ii) the fraction of a New Common Unit that such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Article III. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, Parent will cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Further Rights in Partnership Common Units. The Merger Consideration issued upon conversion of a Partnership Common Unit in accordance with the terms of this Agreement (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 3.3(d)) and any declared distributions to be paid on Partnership Common Units as described in Section 3.3(c) will be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Partnership Common Unit.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of Partnership Common Units after 180 days following the Effective Time will be delivered to Parent upon demand by Parent and, from and after such delivery, any former holders of Partnership Common Units who have not theretofore complied with this Article III will thereafter look only to Parent for the Merger Consideration payable in respect of such Partnership Common Units, any cash in lieu of fractional New Common Units to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(d), or any distributions with respect to New Common Units to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(c), in each case, without any interest thereon. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of Partnership Common Units immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority will, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be held by Parent. Without limitation of the foregoing, after 180 days following the Effective Time any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of Partnership Common Units will become the property of Parent, subject to the legitimate claims of any Person previously entitled thereto under abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of an indemnity agreement or a bond, in such amount reasonably determined by Parent, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration payable in respect of Partnership Common Units represented by such Certificate and any distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(c) and any cash payable in lieu of fractional New Common Units to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(d).

(h) Withholding. Parent and the Exchange Agent are entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Partnership Common Units such amounts as Parent or the Exchange Agent reasonably deems to be required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law, with respect to the making of such payment; provided, however, that Parent or the Exchange Agent, as applicable, will provide reasonable notice to the applicable holders of Partnership Common Units prior to deducting and withholding any amounts pursuant to this Section 3.3(h). To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld, such amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Partnership Common Units in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by Parent or the Exchange Agent. The Parties agree that the Partnership intends to deliver to Parent a valid certificate of non-foreign status pursuant to U.S. Treasury Regulations Section 1.1445-2(b) such that no withholding will be required pursuant to Section 1445 of the Code.

(i) Book Entry and Admission of Holders of New Common Units as Additional Members of Parent. All New Common Units to be issued in the Merger will be issued in book-entry form, without physical certificates. Upon the issuance of New Common Units to the holders of Partnership Common Units in accordance with this Section 3.3 and the execution and delivery by such holder of a completed and executed Letter of Transmittal, Parent and the Parent Board will be deemed to have automatically consented to the admission of such holder as a member of Parent in respect of its New Common Units such holder shall be automatically admitted as a member of Parent and such admission will be reflected on the books and records of Parent.

(j) Investment of the Exchange Fund. Parent will cause the Exchange Agent to invest the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent on a daily basis, in Parent's sole discretion; provided, however, that no such investment or loss thereon affects the amounts payable or the timing of the amounts payable to the Partnership Unitholders pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 3.3. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments will be paid promptly to Parent.

(k) Tax Characterization of Merger and Cash Received. The Partnership and Parent each acknowledges and agrees that for federal income Tax purposes the transactions consummated pursuant to this Agreement will be treated as an assets-over partnership merger transaction under Treasury Regulations Sections 1.708-1(c)(1) and 1.708-1(c)(3)(i), whereby the Partnership will be the terminating partnership and Parent will be the resulting partnership. As a result, the transactions consummated pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated for U.S. federal income Tax purposes as a contribution of all of the assets of the Partnership to Parent in exchange for the Merger Consideration, the cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and the assumption of liabilities. To the maximum extent possible, any cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and other cash deemed received in exchange for the assets shall be treated as a reimbursement of preformation capital expenditures described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.707-4(d). To the extent any cash received in lieu of fractional Parent Common Units and other cash deemed received in exchange for the assets exceeds the amount that can be so treated, such excess cash will be treated as proceeds of a disguised sale transaction described in Section 707(a)(2)(B) of the Code (a Disguised Sale). Each of the Partnership and Parent agrees to prepare and file all U.S. federal income Tax Returns in accordance with the foregoing and shall not take any position inconsistent therewith on any such Tax Return, or in the course of any audit, litigation or other proceeding with respect to U.S. federal income Taxes, except as otherwise required by applicable Laws following a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction or other final administrative decision by an applicable Governmental Authority.

3.4 Anti-Dilution Provisions. Without limiting the covenants in Sections 4.1 and 4.2, in the event the outstanding Partnership Common Units or Parent Common Units shall have been changed into a different number of units or a different class after the date of this Agreement by reason of any subdivisions, reclassifications, splits, unit distributions, combinations or exchanges of Partnership Common Units or Parent Common Units, the Exchange Ratio will be correspondingly adjusted to provide to the holders of such Partnership Common Units and Partnership Restricted Units the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event.

3.5 Treatment of the Partnership LTIP. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, any award of Partnership Restricted Units that is subject to time-based vesting and that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, become fully vested and the restrictions with respect thereto shall lapse and such Partnership Restricted Units shall be deemed to be Partnership Common Units for purposes of this Article III.

ARTICLE IV

ACTIONS PENDING CLOSING

4.1 Conduct of Business by the Partnership. From the date of this Agreement until the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article IX, and except (i) as expressly contemplated or permitted by this Agreement, (ii) as may be required by applicable Law or the terms of any Partnership Employee Benefit Plan, (iii) as set forth in the disclosure letter delivered by the Partnership to Parent (the Partnersh
