Through the adoption of the amendments, KEPCO, among other things, has eliminated certain constraints to its implementation of the electricity industry restructuring plan. The waivers eliminated the joint and several liability of the GENCOs with respect to the Bonds and, thereby, facilitate the eventual divestiture or sale of the GENCOs, pursuant to the restructuring plan. The joint and several liabilities arose as a matter of law under the KCC in connection with KEPCO's creation of the GENCOs and transfer of KEPCO assets to them.

KEPCO retained Credit Suisse First Boston Corporation and Lehman Brothers Inc. as Solicitation Agents.
