Item 5. Other Events

On May 1, 2003, Accrue Software, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Accrue"), announced that its Board has authorized discussions with certain undisclosed parties regarding various strategic alternatives for the Company, including the possible sale of the company at values approximating the current market value of its public stock. There can be no assurance that any of these discussions will result in a transaction.

The Company also announced that Jonathan D. Becher, the Company's interim CEO, is taking an administrative leave for personal reasons, and that P. K. Karnik, Accrue's EVP and Chief Operations Officer, will take over responsibilities as interim CEO.

The May 1, 2003 press release filed as an exhibit to this report includes safe harbor language pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, indicating that certain statements about the Company's business contained in the press release are forward-looking rather than historic. The press release also states that a more thorough discussion of certain factors which may affect the Company's operating results is included in Accrue's Registration Statement on Form S-1, and in Accrue's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's website (<http://www.sec.gov>).
