On January 25, 2007, Immersion Corporation (the "Company") and Michael Zuckerman, the former Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Company's 3D Business Group, entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release (the "Agreement"). Mr. Zuckerman's employment was terminated effective as of December 31, 2006.

The Agreement provides for severance terms consistent with the employment agreement entered into between Mr. Zuckerman and the Company on March 21, 2006, including:

- o Mr. Zuckerman will be entitled to elect to purchase group health insurance coverage in accordance with federal law (COBRA). If Mr. Zuckerman timely elects COBRA coverage, the Company shall pay the premiums for his COBRA coverage for the twelve (12) month period following his termination. Thereafter, Mr. Zuckerman may elect to purchase COBRA coverage at his own expense; and
- o As of December 31, 2006, Mr. Zuckerman shall be vested in an additional twelve (12) months of his then unvested Company common stock and options to purchase shares of Company common stock.

Further, Mr. Zuckerman will be allowed until the earlier of (a) June 30, 2007 or (b) the applicable option expiration date, to exercise his unexercised and exercisable options to purchase shares of Company common stock.

The Agreement also contains provisions addressing the return all Company property, adherence to the terms of an inventions and proprietary rights assignment agreement, confidentiality obligations, non-solicitation and non-disparagement obligations and a general liability release of claims by Mr. Zuckerman. The Agreement and release are in part subject to a seven calendar day revocation right on the part of Mr. Zuckerman and, assuming no revocation, the cash payments and other terms described above, including the release, will become binding and effective on February 1, 2007.
