Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On January 26, 2010, DeVry Inc. issued a press release announcing its fiscal 2010 second quarter operating results. The full text of that press release is included in Exhibit 99.1 in this Form 8-K.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Form 8-K and related press release, including those that affect DeVry's expectations or plans, may constitute forward-looking statements subject to the Safe Harbor Provision of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by phrases such as DeVry Inc. or its management "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "expects," "forecasts," "foresees," "intends," "plans," "may," "might," "will," "could," "should," "intends to," "may be," "may not," "may have," "may not have," "may be able to," "may not be able to," "may be possible," "may not be possible," "may be likely," "may not be likely," "may be unlikely," "may not be unlikely," "may be improbable," "may not be improbable," "may be possible," "may not be possible," "may be likely," "may not be likely," "may be unlikely," "may not be unlikely," "may be improbable," "may not be improbable," or other words or phrases of similar import.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause DeVry's actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied by these forward-looking statements. Additional information regarding factors that could cause results to differ can be found in DeVry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009.

These forward-looking statements are based on information as of January 26, 2010, and DeVry assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
