Part III-Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As described in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Registrant on July 12, 2005, the Registrant recently replaced its independent public accountant, requiring additional time for the newly engaged independent public accountant to become familiar with the financial statements of the Registrant. This also gave rise to a delay in the review of the Registrant's financial statements for the first fiscal quarter, ending May 28, 2005, and in the filing of Form 10-Q for such period. The independent public accountant has been engaged, on a priority basis, in completing its review of the Registrant's accounts for the first fiscal period. Such review has now been completed, and Registrant has filed form 10-Q for the period ended May 28, 2005 as of today's date. As a result of the need to complete the review of the financial statements for the first fiscal quarter, the Registrant is unable to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal period ended August 27, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense. The Registrant intends to file such Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q within the prescribed period allowed by Rule 12-25 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
