PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

AeroGrow International, Inc. (the "Company") was not able to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K (the "2009 10-K") for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 ("Fiscal 2009") by June 29, 2009, the prescribed due date, because of recent developments related to the matter discussed below that the Company is in the process of addressing and which have diverted necessary resources from the completion of the 2009 10-K.

As of April 29, 2009, the Company entered into a forbearance agreement (the "Forbearance Agreement") with FCC, LLC, d/b/a First Capital ("FCC"), under which FCC agreed to forbear its rights with respect to defaults by the Company under a Loan and Security Agreement (the "FCC Agreement"), dated June 23, 2008, between the Company and FCC, as amended, until June 30, 2009. The Company has been in discussions with FCC regarding an amendment to the FCC Agreement to take effect upon the expiration of the Forbearance Agreement and expects to finalize an amendment with FCC shortly. The discussions with FCC, subsequent negotiations, and documentation of the amendment have diverted necessary resources from the completion of the Company's 2009 10-K.

The Company expects that its 2009 10-K will be filed within fifteen calendar days following the prescribed due date.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009, we expect to report net sales of $37,449,868, a decrease of 2.4% from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. The sales decrease reflected the impact of the sudden disruptions in the global credit markets, the decline in general economic activity, and the consequent decline in consumer spending that occurred in the second half of our fiscal year. In the first half of the fiscal year (the six month period ended September 30, 2008), our sales increased almost 63.8% reflecting our greatly expanded distribution through our retailer customers; however, the sudden change in the economic environment resulted in our sales declining 34.6% in the second half of the fiscal year. Our sales to retailers were also adversely impacted during the second half of the fiscal year by an unusually high level of sales allowances, totaling $2,077,622, that we recognized to reflect our cost of supporting discounting programs executed by some of our largest retailer customers.

We expect to report that our gross margin for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 was 36.7%, down from 40.1% in the prior year. The reduction in margin reflected a number of factors including the $2,077,622 in unusual sales allowances (which reduced sales and gross profit), inventory reserves we established during the year totaling $391,490, and the increased percentage mix of our sales that came from our lower-margin international operations. Partially offsetting these negative impacts were cost reductions we achieved in our manufacturing and distribution operations, most notably resulting from the opening of a company-operated distribution facility in Indianapolis, Indiana in July 2008.

We expect to report that operating expenses other than cost of revenue for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 decreased $1,811,487, or 7.3%, reflecting reduced spending in our sales and marketing operations and in our research and development operations. In both cases, the declines reflected cost saving actions, including headcount reductions, taken in the second half of the fiscal year in response to the sudden decline in sales volume we experienced. Offsetting the decline in sales and marketing and research and development expense was a year-over-year $958,663 increase in general and administrative expense. This increase principally reflected severance expense of $362,271, amortization of debt issuance costs of $243,937, and a $414,831 increase in depreciation and amortization, partially offset by the net impact of cost reduction actions taken during the year.

We expect to report that other expense for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009, principally interest expense, increased $646,870 to $1,089,889 from the prior fiscal year reflecting the higher proportion of debt in our capital structure during the year. We expect to report that our net loss totaled $10,313,514 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009, which was $477,593 higher than the prior year as the increase in other expense more than offset the decline in our loss from operations.
