QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q1: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this document, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted, then sign and mail it in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented and voted at the annual meeting to be held on July 10, 2003.

Q2: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Maybe. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted on the merger agreement.

Q3: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. There are three ways for you to revoke your proxy and change your vote. First, you may send a written notice to the person to whom you submitted your proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy card with a later date. Third, you may vote in person at the annual meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q4: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Shortly after the merger is completed, Fulton will send you written instructions for exchanging your stock certificates. Fulton will request that you return your Premier stock certificates at that time.

Q5: When do you expect to merge?

A: Fulton and Premier expect to complete the merger no later than the third quarter of 2003. In addition to the approval of Premier shareholders, Fulton must also obtain regulatory approvals. Fulton and Premier expect to receive all necessary approvals no later than the third quarter of 2003.

Q6: Who should I call with questions or to obtain additional copies of this document?

A: You should call either:

George R. Barr, Jr., Secretary
Fulton Financial Corporation
One Penn Square
Lancaster, PA 17604
717-291-2411

John J. Ginley, Secretary
Premier Bancorp, Inc.
379 North Main Street
Doylestown, PA 18901

Q7: If my shares are held in an IRA, who votes those shares?

A. You vote shares held by you in an IRA as though you held those shares directly.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this document. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all of the information that is important to you. To understand the merger fully, you should carefully read this entire document and the attached exhibits. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 73 for reference to additional information available to you regarding Fulton and Premier.

Agreement to Merge (See page 23)

Fulton and Premier entered into a merger agreement on January 16, 2003. The merger agreement provides that each share of Premier common stock outstanding on the effective date of the merger will be exchanged for 1.407 shares (subject to adjustment) of Fulton common stock, and Premier will merge with Fulton. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this document as Exhibit A and is incorporated herein by reference. On April 15, 2003, Fulton declared a 5% stock dividend payable on May 23, 2003 to shareholders of record on April 30, 2003. All amounts relating to Fulton common stock in this document have been restated to reflect this stock dividend.

Each Premier Share Will Be Exchanged For 1.407 Shares Of Fulton Common Stock (See page 37)

If the merger is completed, you will receive 1.407 shares of Fulton common stock for each share of Premier common stock you own. Fulton will not issue any fractional shares. Premier common shareholders will receive a cash payment for any fractional shares based on the market price of Fulton common stock during a period leading up to completion of the merger. On May 30, 2003, the closing price of Fulton common stock was $20.59, making the value of 1.407 shares of Fulton common stock equal to $28.97 on that date. Because the market price of Fulton stock fluctuates, you will not know when you vote what the shares will be worth when issued in the merger.

If the average price of Fulton common stock is below $10.65 for a ten day period just before the merger, and if the price of Fulton common stock has also declined 20% more than the decline (if any) in the average NASDAQ Bank Index for the same period as compared to the NASDAQ Bank Index on January 15, 2003, Premier may terminate the merger. Neither party would owe the other any penalty or fee as a result of termination of the merger agreement. The market price termination provisions will be based on an average of the closing bid and asked prices for the Fulton common stock for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date which is two (2) business days prior to the closing date of the merger. See Termination; Effect of Termination on page 39.

The market prices of both Fulton and Premier common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for Fulton common stock and Premier common stock.

Table of ContentsNo Federal Income Tax On Shares Received In Merger (See page 46)

Premier shareholders generally will not recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes for the shares of Fulton common stock they receive in the merger. Fulton's attorneys have issued a legal opinion to this effect, which is included as an exhibit to the registration statement filed with the SEC for the shares to be issued in the merger. Premier shareholders will be taxed on cash received instead of any fractional share. Tax matters are complicated, and tax results may vary among shareholders. Fulton and Premier urge you to contact your own tax advisor to understand fully how the merger will affect you.

Exchange Ratio Is Fair From A Financial Point Of View According To Premier's Financial Advisor (See page 26)

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. has given an opinion to the Premier Board that, as of January 16, 2003 and as of May 30, 2003, the exchange ratio in the merger is fair from a financial point of view to Premier's shareholders. The full text of this opinion is attached as Exhibit C to this document. Fulton and Premier encourage you to read the opinion carefully. Premier has agreed to pay Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. a fee equal to approximately $915,000. A portion of this fee was paid upon engagement, a portion when the fairness opinion was issued and an additional portion will be paid upon completion of the merger.

No Dissenters' Rights Of Appraisal (See page 47)

Your Rights As Shareholders Will Change After The Merger (See page 70)

Premier shareholders may exercise cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Fulton shareholders may not;

Fulton restricts transactions with 10% beneficial owners. Premier does not;

Fulton has a shareholders rights plan. Premier does not; and Premier shareholders have the right to call an annual or special meeting and to act without a meeting by written consent. Fulton shareholders do not.

Premier Board Recommends Shareholder Approval (See page 25)

The Premier Board believes that the merger is in the best interests of Premier and its shareholders and recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

Vote Required To Approve Merger Agreement (See page 22)

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of Premier's outstanding common stock. The directors and executive officers of Premier and their affiliates together own about 44.77% of Premier's outstanding common stock as of March 31, 2003. The directors and executive officers of Premier have signed voting agreements pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger.

Brokers who hold shares of Premier common stock as nominees will not have authority to vote such shares with respect to the merger unless shareholders provide them with voting instructions.

The merger does not require the approval of Fulton's shareholders.

Annual Meeting To Be Held July 10, 2003 (See page 21)

Premier will hold its annual meeting of shareholders on Thursday, July 10, 2003, at 9:00 a.m., local time, at the Doylestown Country Club, Green Street, Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

Election of Directors (See page 64)

One of the items to be presented at the annual meeting is the election of five Class 2 directors. The term of Class 2 directors to be elected is three years. However, the five persons elected as Class 2 directors will only serve on the Premier board until the merger closes. If the shareholders do not approve the merger or the merger does not close, the directors will continue to serve out their term of office.

You will have one vote at the meeting for each share of Premier common stock you owned on June 2, 2003 for all matters except the election of directors, for which you are entitled to exercise cumulative voting rights.

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied For The Merger To Occur (See page 38)

The following conditions must be met for Fulton and Premier to complete the merger in addition to other customary conditions:

approval of the merger by Premier's shareholders;

the absence of legal restraints that prevent the completion of the merger;

receipt of a legal opinion that the merger will be tax-free to shareholders, except for any cash received in lieu of fractional shares;

the continuing accuracy of the parties' representations in the merger agreement;

receipt of all required regulatory approvals; and the continuing effectiveness of the registration statement filed with the SEC.

Regulatory Approvals Required (See page 45)

Fulton and Premier cannot complete the merger unless Fulton obtains the approvals of the Federal Reserve Board and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking. Fulton has filed the required applications and notices seeking approval of the merger. Although Fulton and Premier believe regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner, Fulton and Premier cannot be certain when or if they will be obtained.

Termination And Amendment Of The Merger Agreement (See page 44)

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Premier and Fulton can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger. Either party can also terminate the merger agreement in the following circumstances:

if any condition precedent to a party's obligations under the merger agreement is unsatisfied on September 30, 2003, through no fault of the other party, provided that this date may be extended until December 31, 2003, if closing has not occurred because regulatory approval has not then been received;

if the other party has materially breached a representation, warranty or covenant and has not cured such breach within thirty days of receiving written notice of the breach; or the market price of Fulton common stock for a ten day period just before the merger is $10.65, and the decline in Fulton Common Stock is at least 20% greater than the decline, if any, generally experienced in bank stocks as measured against an index.

In addition, Fulton may terminate the merger agreement if Premier's Board of Directors exercises its fiduciary duty with respect to a proposed acquisition of Premier by someone other than Fulton.

Fulton and Premier can agree to amend the merger agreement in any way, except that after the shareholders' meeting they cannot decrease the consideration you will receive in the merger. Either company can waive any of the requirements of the other company in the merger agreement, except that neither company can waive any required regulatory approval.

Table of Contents

Fulton To Continue As Surviving Corporation (See page 37)

Fulton will continue as the surviving corporation after the merger. The Boards of Directors and executive officers of Fulton and its subsidiaries will not change as a result of the merger, except that:

Fulton will appoint to its Board of Directors one of Premier's current directors who will serve until Fulton's 2004 annual meeting, and Fulton will nominate such person to serve for a three year term at such meeting;

All of Premier Bank's current directors are expected to remain on Premier Bank's Board following the merger.

Warrant Agreement Makes Third Party Offers for Premier More Expensive (See page 42)

In connection with the merger agreement, Premier granted Fulton a warrant to purchase up to 835,000 shares of Premier common stock at an exercise price of $17.85 per share. The warrant acts to discourage other companies from acquiring Premier by making third party offers for Premier more expensive. It also provides compensation to Fulton in the event that the merger falls through because another party gains control of Premier. Generally, Fulton may exercise this warrant only if another party seeks to gain control of Premier. We do not believe that any of the events which would permit Fulton to exercise the warrant have occurred as of the date of this document.

The warrant agreement and warrant are attached to this document as Exhibit B.

Financial Interests of Management In The Merger (See page 48)

When considering the recommendation of the Premier Board, you should be aware that some directors and officers have interests in the merger which may conflict with their interests as shareholders. These interests include:

Each of Premier's current Chairman, Clark S. Frame, President and Chief Executive Officer, John C. Soffronoff, and Senior Vice President and Secretary, John J. Ginley, have entered into employment agreements with Premier Bank that will become effective upon completion of the merger. These employment agreements will replace existing change in control agreements which each of Messrs. Soffronoff and Ginley had with Premier;

Officers and directors hold stock options to purchase Premier stock that will convert into options to purchase Fulton stock. As of May 30, 2003, the difference between the aggregate exercise price and the market value of the shares underlying the options held by executive officers and directors, which represents the economic value of the options, was approximately $____;

As of May 30, 2003, management and the board of directors of Premier own, in the aggregate, 1,629,377 shares of common stock of Premier. Consequently, the management and board members of Premier will receive, in the aggregate, 2,292,533 shares of Fulton common stock when the merger occurs;

Following the merger, Fulton will indemnify, and provide liability insurance to, directors of Premier; and
Following the merger, the current members of Premier's board of directors will remain directors of Premier Bank, and the compensation for non-employee directors of Premier Bank will remain unchanged.

Forward-Looking Information

This document contains and incorporates some forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include statements regarding intent, belief or current expectations about matters including statements as to beliefs, expectations, anticipations, intentions or similar words. Forward-looking statements are also statements that are not statements of historical fact. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions. These include, by their nature:

the effects of changing economic conditions in Fulton's and Premier's market areas and nationally;

credit risks of commercial, real estate, consumer and other lending activities;

significant changes in interest rates;

changes in federal and state banking laws and regulations which could impact operations;

funding costs;

other external developments which could materially affect the business and operations of Fulton and Premier;

the ability of Fulton to assimilate Premier after the merger; and other risks detailed from time to time in Premier's and Fulton's SEC filings, including forms 10-Q and 10-K.

If one or more of these risks or uncertainties occurs or if the underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results, performance or achievements in 2003 and beyond could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements.

Table of Contents

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Fulton common stock in connection with the merger involves the risks described below. In addition to the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement.

RISK FACTORS RELATED TO THE MERGER

Fluctuations in Market Price of Fulton Common Stock May Cause the Value of the Merger Consideration to Decrease and Premier's Board of Directors may Abandon the Merger.

Upon completion of the merger, your shares of Premier common stock will be converted into shares of Fulton common stock. While the merger consideration has been structured to provide that Premier shareholders will receive for each of their shares of Premier common stock, 1.407 shares of Fulton common stock, the value of 1.407 shares of Fulton common stock at the time of the merger is uncertain. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors that are beyond the control of Fulton, including, among other things, changes in Fulton's business, operations and prospects, regulatory considerations and general market and economic conditions.

Although the aggregate market value of the Fulton common stock that you will receive in the merger is not fixed, Premier will have the right to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger before the closing if:

The average trading price for Fulton common stock for the 10 consecutive days immediately preceding the date which is two business days before the effective date of the merger is less than $10.65 per share; and

The average trading price for Fulton common stock for the 10 consecutive days immediately preceding the date which is two business days before the effective date of the merger is less than the amount per share equal to $17.75 multiplied by .80 multiplied by the quotient of the Average NASDAQ Bank Index for the 10 trading days immediately preceding the two business days prior to the effective date over the NASDAQ Bank Index on January 15, 2003.

Accordingly, at the time you vote with respect to the merger, you will not know the market value or the number of the shares of Fulton common stock that you will receive in the merger nor will you know whether Premier's Board of Directors will opt to terminate the merger agreement if the above conditions occur.

The price of Fulton common stock may vary from its price on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the date of the Premier annual meeting and the date for determining the average trading price discussed above. Because the date the merger is completed will be later than the date of the annual meeting, the price of the Fulton common stock on the date of the annual meeting may not be indicative of its price on the date the merger is completed.

You Will Have Less Influence as a Shareholder of Fulton Than as a Shareholder of Premier.

As a Premier shareholder, you currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Premier and on other matters affecting Premier. The merger will transfer control of Premier to Fulton and to the shareholders of Fulton. When the merger occurs, you will become a shareholder of Fulton with a percentage ownership of Fulton that is smaller than your percentage ownership of Premier. Because of this, you will have less influence on the management and policies of Fulton than you now have on the management and policies of Premier.

Table of Contents

Future Results for Fulton could differ materially from its Historical Results or Forward- Looking Statements in its filings with the SEC.

Fulton's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission include descriptions of a number of factors affecting its performance which shareholders of Premier should consider. Premier shareholders should review these filings with these factors in mind. Fulton believes the most material of these factors can be summarized as follows:

♦ If market interest rates remain at historically low levels, Fulton's earnings may be negatively affected. Net interest income is the most significant component of Fulton's net income, accounting for approximately 75% of total revenues in 2002. The ability to manage net interest income over a variety of interest rate and economic environments is important to the success of a financial institution. Net interest income growth is generally dependent upon balance sheet growth and maintaining or growing the net interest margin. Fulton's net interest income has been impacted by a series of reductions to short-term interest rates enacted by the Federal Reserve Board (FRB) over the past two years. These rate reductions resulted in significant decreases to Fulton's prime lending rate as well as a decline in the general interest rate environment. The rate reductions initially had a negative impact on Fulton's net interest income and net interest margin as its assets, particularly floating rate loans, repriced to lower rates more quickly than its time deposits. During 2002, however, Fulton's longer-term liabilities repriced to lower rates resulting in an increase to Fulton's net interest margin. The positive impact of the time deposit repricing on the net interest margin peaked in mid-2002. The most recent rate cut by the FRB in late 2002 contributed to a slight downward trend in the margin over the last quarter of 2002. If rates remain low in the future, the net interest margin may continue to trend lower.

♦ Market conditions and the composition of Fulton's loan portfolios could increase the risk in its loan portfolio and require a higher loan loss allowance. The credit risk associated with lending activities is accounted for by Fulton through its allowance and provision for loan losses. The provision is the expense recognized in the income statement to adjust the allowance to its proper balance, as determined through the application of Fulton's allowance methodology procedures. These procedures include the evaluation of the risk characteristics of the portfolio and documentation in accordance with applicable accounting standards. Management of Fulton believes that the allowance balance at March 31, 2003 is sufficient to cover losses inherent in the loan portfolio on that date and is appropriate based on applicable accounting standards. However, trends that could indicate the need for a higher provision include the general national and regional economies and the continued growth in Fulton's commercial loan and commercial mortgage portfolios, which are inherently more risky.

♦ Fulton's investment in equity securities exposes it to negative movements in the stock prices of the companies whose stock it owns. Equity market price risk is the risk that changes in the values of equity investments could have a material impact on the financial position or results of operations of Fulton. Fulton's equity investments consist primarily of common stocks of publicly traded financial institutions. Although the carrying value of equity investments accounted for only 1.0% of Fulton's total assets, the unrealized gains on the portfolio represent a potential source of revenue and, if values were to decline significantly, this revenue source could be lost. Management of Fulton continuously monitors the fair value of its equity investments and evaluates current market conditions and operating results of the companies. Periodic sale and purchase decisions are made based on this monitoring process. Certain of Fulton's equity investments have shown negative returns in tandem with the general performance of equity markets. Fulton has evaluated, based on current accounting guidance, whether the decreases in value of any of these investments constitute other than temporary impairment which would require a write-down through a charge to earnings. In the first quarter of 2003, Fulton recorded a write-down for specific equity securities which were deemed to exhibit other than temporary impairment in value. If the performance of certain equity securities does not improve over the next twelve months, additional impairment charges may be necessary. In addition to its equity portfolio, Fulton's investment management and trust services could be impacted by fluctuations in the securities markets. A portion of Fulton's trust revenue is based on the value of the underlying investment portfolios. If securities markets contract, Fulton's revenue could be negatively impacted. In addition, the ability of Fulton to sell its brokerage services is dependent, in part, upon consumers' level of confidence in the outlook for rising securities prices.

♦ Fulton may not be able to supplement its growth with acquisitions in the future and future evaluations of goodwill recorded in connection with acquisitions may require write-downs. Fulton has historically supplemented its internal growth with strategic acquisitions of banks, branches and other financial services companies. There can be no assurance that Fulton will be able to effect future acquisitions on favorable terms or that Fulton will be able to assimilate acquired institutions successfully. Applicable accounting standards adopted recently require that the purchase method of accounting be used for all business combinations and eliminated the use of pooling of interests for transactions initiated subsequent to June 30, 2001. Under purchase accounting, if the purchase price of an acquired company exceeds the fair value of the company's net assets, the excess is carried on the acquiror's balance sheet as goodwill. Goodwill is to be evaluated for impairment at least annually. Write-downs of the amount of any impairment, if necessary, are to be charged to the results of operations in the period in which the impairment is determined. Fulton performed its initial test of goodwill impairment on January 1, 2002 and its annual test of goodwill impairment on October 31, 2002. Based on the results of these tests, the Corporation concluded that there was no impairment and no write-downs were recorded. There can be no assurance that the future evaluations of goodwill will not result in findings of impairment and write-downs.

♦ The level of some of Fulton's non-interest expenses is beyond its control and could adversely affect its earnings. Fulton strives to control its level of non-interest expenses. However, some of these expenses are beyond Fulton's control. For example, Fulton's defined benefit plan expense increased 83.2% in 2002. This trend is expected to continue into 2003, with a projected increase of 56.4%. This expense is greatly impacted by the return realized on invested plan assets. With the recent turndown in the equity markets, these returns have lagged the growth in the projected benefit obligation, resulting in an increase in expense. If this trend continues, Fulton's expense may continue to grow.

♦ The competition Fulton faces is increasing and may have a negative impact on Fulton's performance. The banking and financial services industries are highly competitive. Within its geographical region, Fulton's subsidiaries face direct competition from other commercial banks, varying in size from local community banks to larger regional and national banks, and credit unions. With the growth in electronic commerce and distribution channels, Fulton's banks also face competition from banks not physically located in Fulton's geographic markets.

The competition in the industry has also increased as a result of the passage of various legislation. Under such legislation, banks, insurance companies or securities firms may affiliate under a financial holding company structure, allowing expansion into non-banking financial services activities that were previously restricted. These include a full range of banking, securities and insurance activities, including securities and insurance underwriting, issuing and selling annuities and merchant banking activities. While Fulton does not currently engage in all of these activities, the ability to do so without separate approval from the Federal Reserve Board enhances the ability of Fulton and financial holding companies in general to compete more effectively in all areas of financial services.

As a result of this legislation, there is more competition for customers that were traditionally served by the banking industry. While the legislation increased competition, it also provided opportunities for Fulton to expand its financial services offerings. Fulton also competes through the variety of products that it offers and the quality of service that it provides to its customers. However, there is no guarantee that these efforts will insulate Fulton from competitive pressure which could impact its pricing decisions for loans, deposits and other services and ultimately impact financial results.

♦ The supervision and regulation to which Fulton is subject can be a competitive disadvantage. Fulton is a registered financial holding company and its subsidiary banks are depository institutions whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Fulton and its subsidiaries are subject to various regulations and examinations by regulatory authorities. In general, various statutes establish the corporate governance and eligible business activities of Fulton, certain acquisition and merger restrictions, limitations on inter-company transactions such as loans and dividends, and capital adequacy requirements, among other regulations. While these statutes are generally designed to minimize potential loss to depositors and the FDIC insurance funds, they do not eliminate risk and compliance with such statutes increases Fulton's expense, requires management's attention and can be a disadvantage from a competitive standpoint with respect to non-regulated competitors.

♦ Monetary and fiscal policy may affect Fulton's earnings and are not predictable. Fulton and its subsidiary banks are affected by fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government, including those of the Federal Reserve Board, which regulates the national money supply in order to manage recessionary and inflationary pressures. Among the techniques available to the Federal Reserve Board are engaging in open market transactions of U.S. Government securities, changing the discount rate and changing reserve requirements against bank deposits. Their use may also affect interest rates charged on loans and paid on deposits. The effect of monetary policies on the earnings of Fulton cannot be predicted.

We are providing this document to holders of Premier common stock to solicit your proxy for use at the annual meeting of Premier shareholders and any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

Time, Date and Place

The annual meeting of Premier's shareholders will be held at 9:00 a.m., local time, on Thursday, July 10, 2003, at the Doylestown Country Club, located at Green Street, Doylestown, Pennsylvania 18901.

Matters to be Considered

The purposes of the annual meeting are to elect five Class 2 directors to the Board of Directors, to consider and approve and adopt the merger agreement, to approve a proposal to adjourn the meeting if more time is needed to solicit proxies and to transact such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting. At this time, the Premier board of directors is unaware of any matters, other than set forth in the preceding sentence, that may be presented for action at the annual meeting.

A vote for approval of the merger agreement is a vote for approval of the merger of Premier into Fulton and for the exchange of Premier common stock for Fulton common stock. If the merger is completed, Premier common stock will be cancelled and you will receive 1.407 shares (subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends and similar matters) of Fulton common stock in exchange for each share of Premier common stock that you hold. Fulton will pay cash in lieu of issuing any fractional share interests to you.

Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote; Record Date

The close of business on June 2, 2003 has been fixed by Premier's board of directors as the record date for the determination of holders of Premier common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting. At the close of business on the record date, 3,417,515 shares of Premier common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of Premier common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the annual meeting on all matters properly presented at the annual meeting, except for the election of five (5) Class 2 directors, where cumulative voting is permitted.

How to Vote Your Shares

Shareholders of record may vote by mail or by attending the annual meeting and voting in person. If you choose to vote by mail, simply mark the enclosed proxy card, date and sign it, and return it in the postage paid envelope provided.

Table of Contents

At this time, the Premier board of directors is unaware of any matters, other than set forth above, that may be presented for action at the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting. If other matters are properly presented, however, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment with respect to such matters. The persons named as proxies by a shareholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments or postponements of the annual meeting to permit additional solicitation of proxies in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement, but no proxy voted against the merger agreement will be voted in favor of any such adjournment or postponement.

Vote Required

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Premier common stock, must be present in person or by proxy before any action may be taken at the annual meeting. Abstentions will be treated as shares that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be counted in the voting on a proposal.

Cumulative voting rights exist only with respect to the election of directors. This means that each shareholder has the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares owned and is entitled to cast the whole number of votes for one nominee or to distribute them among two or more nominees, as the shareholder determines. The proxy holders also have the right to vote cumulatively and to distribute their votes among nominees as they consider advisable, unless a shareholder indicates on his or her proxy how he or she desires the votes to be cumulated for voting purposes. On all other matters to come before the annual meeting, each share of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share owned.

If a quorum is present, the five nominees for Class 2 Director receiving a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote will be elected. The proxy holders will not cast votes withheld or broker non-votes for or against any director nominees.

The affirmative vote of 66 ²/₃% of the outstanding shares of Premier common stock, in person or by proxy, is necessary to approve and adopt the merger agreement on behalf of Premier.

Premier intends to count shares of Premier common stock present in person at the annual meeting but not voting, and shares of Premier common stock for which it has received proxies but with respect to which holders of such shares have abstained on any matter, as present at the annual meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. Because approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of 66 ²/₃% of the outstanding shares of Premier common stock, such nonvoting shares and abstentions will not be counted in determining whether or not the required number of shares have been voted to approve and adopt the merger agreement. Therefore, they will effectively act as a vote against the merger. In addition, under applicable rules, brokers who hold shares of Premier common stock in street name for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares are prohibited from giving a proxy to vote shares held for such customers in favor of the approval of the merger agreement without specific instructions to that effect from such customers. Accordingly, shares held by customers who fail to provide instructions with respect to their shares of Premier common stock to their broker will not be voted for or against the merger. However, failing to vote effectively acts as a vote against the merger agreement. Such broker non-votes, if any, will be counted as present for determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The directors and executive officers of Premier collectively owned approximately 44.77% of the outstanding shares of Premier common stock as of the record date for the annual meeting (inclusive of stock options exercisable within 60 days). Premier's directors have entered into Voting Agreements with Fulton pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their shares in favor of the merger agreement. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management, beginning on page 61.

Solicitation of Proxies

Premier will pay for the costs of mailing this document to its shareholders, as well as all other costs incurred by it in connection with the solicitation of proxies from its shareholders on behalf of its board of directors. In addition to solicitation by mail, the directors, officers and employees of Premier and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies from shareholders of Premier in person or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic methods without compensation other than reimbursement by Premier for their actual expenses.

Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of Premier common stock held of record by such persons, and Premier will reimburse such firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith. You should not send in your stock certificates with your proxy card. As described below under the caption "The Merger Exchange of Premier Stock Certificates" on page 33, you will receive materials for exchanging shares of Premier common stock shortly after the merger.

THE MERGER

The following information is intended to summarize the material aspects of the merger agreement. This description is only a summary. We have attached the full merger agreement and the warrant agreement to this document as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, and we incorporate each in this document by reference. We urge all shareholders to read the merger agreement carefully.

The merger agreement provides that:

Premier will merge into Fulton; and

You, as a shareholder of Premier, will receive 1.407 shares (subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends and similar events) of Fulton common stock for each share of Premier that you own if the merger is completed.

The Board of Directors of Premier has unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and believes the merger is in your best interests. Premier's Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the merger agreement.

Background of Merger

From time to time over the past several years, Premier's management and board of directors have considered various strategic alternatives as part of their continuing efforts to enhance Premier's community banking franchise and to maximize shareholder value. These strategic alternatives have included continuing as an independent institution, acquiring branch offices or other community banks, establishing related lines of business, issuing trust preferred securities and preferred stock, and entering into a strategic merger with similarly-sized or larger institutions. The board also has sought to enhance shareholder value through a stock dividend and a share repurchase program.

In October 2002, the Board of Directors authorized Clark S. Frame, Chairman of the Board, and John C. Soffronoff, President and Chief Executive Officer, to prepare information for the Board of Directors regarding a review of the strategic options available to the Board of Directors and to meet with Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. ("Boenning"). The Board of Directors authorized assessment of strategic options and engagement of Boenning as Premier Bancorp, Inc.'s financial advisor. Assessment of Premier's strategic options was made subject to the Board of Directors further consideration and action. Later that month, Clark S. Frame, John C. Soffronoff, Bruce E. Sickel and John J. Ginley from Premier met with representatives of Boenning to review and discuss business and valuation issues, potential interest levels of possible transaction candidates, and whether, given available information, it might be in the best interests of Premier and its constituencies to engage in a business combination with another financial institution.

Premier engaged Boenning on October 25, 2002. After that date, Boenning contacted 11 financial institutions, one of which was Fulton Financial Corporation. Of the 11 contacted financial institutions, seven executed confidentiality agreements with Boenning, including Fulton on October 30, 2002. Information regarding Premier was provided to each of the seven financial institutions that executed the confidentiality agreement.

On November 1, 2002, representatives of Boenning, on behalf of Premier, met with Rufus A. Fulton, Jr., Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and R. Scott Smith, Jr., President and Chief Operating Officer, of Fulton Financial Corporation to discuss Fulton's interest in expanding its banking presence in the Bucks, Montgomery and Northampton county markets. Based on Fulton's interest in the geographic region, Boenning advised Fulton of Premier's interest in exploring a potential affiliation with Fulton. After further discussion and the exchange of information on Premier, Fulton notified Boenning of its desire to pursue a potential affiliation with Premier and to have a meeting with representatives of its management team. Between October 30 and November 8, 2002, Boenning met with the representatives of five other financial institutions regarding exploration of a potential affiliation with Premier.

A meeting with representatives of Boenning, Fulton and Premier occurred on November 12, 2002, whereby Fulton and Premier discussed strategic visions and the future of each company and the financial services industry in general. Based on their similar philosophies, Fulton and Premier agreed to continue to explore a potential combination between their respective companies.

Between November 12 and 19, 2002, Boenning and/or Premier also met with four other financial institutions which had previously executed confidentiality agreements to discuss the strategic visions and future of those companies.

On November 20, 2002, Fulton submitted a confidential non-binding indication of interest, including a range of potential financial terms, to Premier via Boenning. On November 27, 2002, two of the four other financial institutions that Boenning had met with also submitted written indications of interest through Boenning.

At Premier's December 4, 2002, special meeting of the Board of Directors, representatives of Boenning presented to the Board the confidential non-binding indications of interest including the one received from Fulton Financial Corporation, dated November 20, 2002. Terms of the indications of interest were discussed, including financial terms. Information regarding each of the companies submitting an indication of interest was presented to and discussed by the board of directors. At this meeting, Premier's Board authorized continued discussions with Fulton and one other company and the conduct of due diligence on Premier by Fulton and one other company. Due diligence on Premier was conducted between December 9-12, 2002.

On December 12, 2002, at Premier's regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting, Messrs. Frame and Soffronoff provided a status report of the two companies' results of due diligence and further discussions between the parties. On December 13, 2002, Boenning was informed by the other company that had performed due diligence on Premier that it was no longer interested in pursuing a business combination with Premier. Also, on December 13, 2002, representatives of Boenning telephoned Mr. Fulton to generally discuss Fulton's due diligence review of Premier and to request information on Fulton. On December 16, 2002, Fulton and Boenning executed a confidentiality agreement and confidential financial information of Fulton was provided to Boenning including Forms 10-K for the last 3 years, Forms 10-Q for the last 4 quarters, the most recent asset liability report and share repurchase information.

On December 17, 2002, Fulton submitted a revised indication of interest to Premier via Boenning. At the December 19, 2002, Premier Board of Directors special meeting, which was attended by representatives of Boenning and Shumaker Williams, P.C., Fulton's December 17, 2002 indication of interest was reviewed and discussed. Transaction terms were discussed with and by the Board of Directors, including proposed financial terms. Information regarding the proposed transaction and Fulton Financial Corporation were reviewed and discussed by the board of directors. At this meeting, the Board of Directors rejected Fulton's revised proposal as presented but authorized continued negotiations with Fulton.

On December 23, 2002, at a meeting among representatives of Boenning, Premier and Fulton, the parties discussed price and other matters related to the proposed transaction. Over the next week, several telephone calls between representatives of Boenning, Premier and Fulton occurred in which financial and other issues were discussed.

On January 6, 2003, Fulton submitted a second revised confidential indication of interest to Premier via Boenning. At a January 7, 2003 Premier Board of Directors special meeting, in which representatives of Boenning and Shumaker Williams, P.C. were present, proposed transaction terms were discussed with the Board of Directors, including financial terms. The January 6, 2003 Fulton revised confidential non-binding indication of interest was reviewed and discussed by the Board of Directors. Clark S. Frame, Chairman of the Board, John C. Soffronoff, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Premier's representatives were authorized to continue negotiations with Fulton and to conduct due diligence regarding Fulton for further consideration and action by the Board of Directors. On January 8, 2003, Premier, through Boenning, sent a due diligence request list to Fulton, and on January 9, 2003, representatives of Boenning telephoned Fulton representatives and discussed due diligence items.

Table of Contents

On January 10, 2003, several telephone calls were made between representatives of Boenning, Premier and Fulton to discuss deal points, including financial terms. Also on January 10, 2003, due diligence was conducted on Fulton by Premier and its representatives, and a draft of the proposed merger agreement and related agreements were forwarded to Premier and its legal counsel by Fulton's legal counsel. From January 12-15, 2003, legal counsel for both Premier and Fulton, together with the parties and their representatives, negotiated the merger agreement and related documents.

On January 16, 2003, Premier's Board of Directors held a special meeting at which representatives of Boenning and Shumaker Williams, P.C. were present. The results of Premier's due diligence on Fulton was discussed by the Board of Directors. Boenning and counsel briefed the Board on final negotiations concerning the merger agreement and related matters. During this meeting, Boenning delivered its opinion to the Premier Board of Directors that, as of such date, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair to the holders of Premier common stock from a financial point of view. The Board of Directors, with special counsel, reviewed the agreement and its terms. The Board of Directors discussed the deal terms including financial terms. Following review by the Premier Board of Directors of the foregoing matters, the Premier Board unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The board of directors of Premier believes that the transaction and its terms are in the best interests of the Premier shareholders and Premier's other constituencies. Immediately following the conclusion of the Premier Board Meeting on January 16, 2003, the parties executed the definitive agreement and related documents and made a public announcement of the transaction.

Recommendation of the Premier Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

The Premier board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Premier shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

The Premier board has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Premier and its shareholders. In approving the merger agreement, the Premier board consulted with Boenning with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the exchange ratio from a financial point of view and with its legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement. In arriving at its determination, the Premier board also considered all material factors, including the following:

the board's familiarity with and review of information concerning the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Premier;

the current and prospective environment in which Premier operates, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for banks and other financial institutions generally and the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions and public companies generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking industry and in the financial services industry;

the financial presentation of Boenning and the opinion of Boenning that, as of the date of such opinion, the exchange ratio of 1.34 (now, as a result of Fulton's 5% stock dividend, 1.407) shares of Fulton common stock per share was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Premier common stock (see Opinion of Premier's Financial Advisor, beginning on page 21);

the historical market prices of Premier common stock and the fact that the 1.407 per share merger consideration represented a 39.9% premium over the per share closing price of Premier common stock on January 15, 2003 and a 73.5% premium over the per share closing prices of Premier common stock one month prior to the merger announcement (see Market Price of and Dividends on Fulton Common Stock on page 43 and Market Price of and Dividends on Premier Common Stock on page 50);

results that could be expected to be obtained by Premier if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to shareholders of such course, as compared with the value of the merger consideration being offered by Fulton;

the financial attributes of Fulton and Fulton's common stock, dividend yield, liquidity and corporate fundamentals;

the effects of the merger on Premier's depositors and customers and the communities served by Premier, which was deemed to be favorable given that they would be served by a geographically diversified organization which had greater resources than Premier;

the historical performance of Fulton;

the future business prospects of Fulton;

the ability for Premier's Board to continue to maintain the Premier Bank brand name for at least three years following the merger; and the effects of the merger on Premier's employees, including the prospects for employment with a large, growing organization such as Fulton.

The discussion and factors considered by Premier's board are not intended to be exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered. In approving the merger agreement, Premier's board did not assign any specific or relative weights to any of the foregoing factors, and individual directors may have weighted factors differently. All of the material factors concerning the proposed merger that the Premier Board considered supported the Board's decision to recommend the transaction to its shareholders. The Premier Board is not aware of any factor that failed to support its determination.

Opinion of Premier's Financial Advisor

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of October 25, 2002, as amended, Premier retained Boenning to act as its exclusive financial advisor in connection with Premier's consideration of a possible business combination. In connection with the merger with Fulton, the Premier board requested Boenning to render its opinion as to the fairness of the exchange ratio to the holders of Premier common stock from a financial point of view. At the January 16, 2003 meeting at which Premier's board considered the merger agreement, Boenning rendered its opinion to the board that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth therein, as of January 16, 2003, the exchange ratio was fair to the holders of Premier common stock from a financial point of view. We will refer to the opinion as of January 16, 2003 as the "January Opinion" and the opinion as of May 30, 2003 as the "Proxy Opinion."

The full text of Boenning's Proxy Opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Exhibit C to this proxy statement/prospectus, is incorporated herein by reference, and should be read in its entirety in connection with this document. The summary of the opinion of Boenning set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion attached as Exhibit C to this document.

Boenning was selected to act as Premier's financial advisor in connection with its strategic alternatives based upon its qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience. Boenning has formerly acted as financial advisor, lead underwriter and placement agent to Premier at various times on a contractual basis. Boenning has knowledge of, and experience with the Pennsylvania and surrounding banking markets, as well as banking organizations operating in those markets, and was selected by Premier because of its knowledge of, experience with, and reputation in the financial services industry. Boenning, as part of its investment banking business, is engaged regularly in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of asset and securities transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, public offerings, private placements, and valuations for various other purposes and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Boenning may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Premier and Fulton. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning may actively trade the securities of Premier and Fulton for its own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Boenning serves as a market maker in Fulton's common stock.

On January 16, 2003, Premier's board of directors approved and executed the merger agreement. Prior to the approval, Boenning delivered its January Opinion to Premier's Board stating that, as of such date, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to the shareholders of Premier from a financial point of view. Boenning reached the same opinion as of the date of its Proxy Opinion. The full text of the Proxy Opinion which sets forth assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken is attached as Exhibit C to this document.

No limitations were imposed by Premier's board of directors upon Boenning with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by Boenning in rendering the January Opinion or the Proxy Opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Boenning, among other things:

reviewed the merger agreement;

reviewed and analyzed the stock market performance of Premier and Fulton; studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of Premier and Fulton;

considered the terms and conditions of the merger between Premier and Fulton as compared with the terms and conditions of bank, bank holding company, and financial holding company mergers and acquisitions which Boenning deemed comparable;

met and/or communicated with certain members of Premier's and Fulton's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements, and future prospects;

reviewed a draft of this registration statement (in the case of the Proxy Opinion);

compared the financial performance of Premier and Fulton and the prices and trading activity of the stocks of Premier and Fulton with those of certain other publicly-traded banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies and their securities which Boenning deemed comparable;

discussed the strategic objectives of the merger and the plans for the combined company with senior executives of Premier and Fulton, including estimates of the cost savings and other synergies projected by Fulton for the combined company;

participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of Premier and Fulton and their advisors; and conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as it deemed appropriate.

In connection with rendering its January Opinion and Proxy Opinion, Boenning assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals for the merger, no restriction will be imposed on Fulton or Premier that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger. Boenning also assumed that there will not occur any change in applicable law or regulation that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Fulton after the merger.

Boenning relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information reviewed by and discussed with it for purposes of its opinions. With respect to Premier's and Fulton's financial forecasts and other information reviewed by Boenning in rendering its opinions, Boenning assumed that such information was reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Premier and Fulton as to their most likely future performance and the cost savings and other potential synergies (including the amount, timing and achievability thereof) anticipated to result from the merger. Boenning did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets (including loans) or liabilities of Premier or Fulton nor was it furnished with any such appraisal. Boenning also did not independently verify, and has relied on and assumed, that all allowances for loan and lease losses set forth in the balance sheets of Premier and Fulton were adequate and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. In addition, Boenning did not review credit files of either Premier or Fulton.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Boenning and presented to Premier's Board in connection with the January Opinion and analyzed by Boenning in connection with the January Opinion and the Proxy Opinion. In connection with delivering its Proxy Opinion, Boenning updated certain analyses described below to reflect current market conditions and events occurring since the date of the January Opinion. The reviews and updates led Boenning to conclude that it was not necessary to change the conclusions it had reached in connection with rendering the January Opinion. Additionally, none of the analyses prepared by Boenning in connection with the issuance of the January Opinion or the Proxy Opinion failed to support Boenning's conclusion that the exchange ratio was fair to the holders of Premier common stock from a financial point of view.

Summary of Transaction. Boenning calculated the implied pricing and valuation multiples based on the implied per share transaction price of $28.58 (derived by multiplying the exchange ratio of 1.407 by the last reported per share sale price of Fulton of $20.31 as of May 29, 2003). Based on Premier's last twelve months net income for the period ended March 31, 2003 of $4.631 million, common shareholders' equity of $27.890 million, common shareholders' tangible equity of $27.890 million, and price per common share of $17.85 (the last reported per common share price of Premier as of January 15, 2003, the day prior to the announcement of the transaction), the key valuation statistics were as follows:

Aggregate Consideration ¹	$ 102.6 million
Consideration Per Common Share	$ 28.58
Aggregate Consideration / Last Twelve Months Reported Net Income	22.2x
Aggregate Consideration / Common Shareholders' Equity	367.9%
Aggregate Consideration / Tangible Common Shareholders' Equity	367.9%
Consideration Per Common Share / Market Price Per Common Share at Announcement	60.1%

Summary of Financial Analysis. The following tables summarize and compare the implied transaction values per share associated with the exchange ratio offered by Fulton for Premier with the implied per share values developed from the analysis employed by Boenning. The exception to this is the Hurdle Rate Analysis which derives a diluted earnings per share (EPS) growth rate rather than an implied price per share. The EPS growth rate equates to the EPS growth rate Premier would have to achieve in order for the projected per share value, as calculated under various assumptions, to be equal to the value implied by the exchange ratio and estimated cash dividends to be received by Fulton. In addition to these valuation methodologies, Boenning also compared Fulton's operating, financial and market performance relative to a group of comparable companies. Each of the valuation methodologies is described below in greater detail. In order to fully understand the financial analyses prepared by Boenning you should read the tables together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

⁵ Analysis did not consider the $.05 cash dividend per common share that Fulton has permitted Premier to declare and pay quarterly on its common stock per the terms of the merger agreement. Boenning also compared selected publicly available financial, operating and stock market data for Fulton with those of a peer group of selected publicly traded bank and financial holding companies that had assets between $4 billion and $20 billion headquartered in the Mid-Atlantic region. This analysis was performed in order to compare Fulton's historical financial and operating performance with comparable institutions and to examine its market valuation relative to its peer group. The financial and operating data is as of March 31, 2003 and the stock market data is as of May 29, 2003. The companies in the peer group were:

Commerce Bancorp, Inc., Cherry Hill, New Jersey;

First Commonwealth Financial Corporation, Indiana, Pennsylvania;

Hudson United Bancorp, Mahwah, New Jersey;

Mercantile Bankshares Corporation, Baltimore, Maryland;

Provident Bankshares Corporation, Baltimore, Maryland;

Riggs National Corporation, Washington, D.C.;

No company, however, used in this analysis is identical to Premier, Fulton or the transaction. Accordingly, an analysis of the result of the foregoing is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that would affect the public trading values of the companies or company to which they are being compared.

Discounted Dividend Analysis. Using a discounted dividend analysis, Boenning estimated the present value of the future cash flows that would accrue to a holder of a share of Premier common stock over a five-year period. This analysis was performed in order to compare the value implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton to a range of estimated implied values for Premier common stock based on projected future cash flows. This stand-alone analysis was based on several assumptions, including a range of price to earnings multiples of 13x to 17x to Premier's terminal year common earnings per share, a range of EPS growth rates based upon Premier management's five year projected earnings per share growth rate of 15%, and Premier's current common stock cash dividend payout ratio of 0%. The analysis did not consider the $.05 cash dividend per common share that Fulton has permitted Premier to declare and pay quarterly on its common stock per the terms of the merger agreement. This dividend was an extraordinary dividend that resulted from the merger agreement rather than the ordinary course of business and is therefore excluded. The range of multiples applied to Premier's estimated five-year earnings per share value reflected a variety of scenarios regarding the growth and profitability prospects of Premier and valuation for banking securities in general. The terminal values and projected annual cash dividends were then discounted to present value using a discount rate of 12%. This discount rate was used in order to reflect an expected rate of return required by holders or prospective buyers of Premier's common stock. The analysis indicated that, based upon the aforementioned assumptions, the per common share of the present value of Premier's common stock, on a stand-alone basis, ranged from $14.80 to $27.40 with a median value of $20.39. The table below summarizes the results under different assumption scenarios.

	Terminal Multiple
	13.0x	14.0x	15.0x	16.0x	17.0x
EPS Growth Rate (%)
10.0	$ 14.80	$ 15.93	$ 17.07	$ 18.21	$ 19.35
12.5	16.19	17.43	18.68	19.92	21.17
15.0	17.68	19.03	20.39	21.75	23.11
17.5	19.26	20.74	22.23	23.71	25.19
20.0	20.96	22.57	24.18	25.79	27.40

In connection with the discounted dividend analysis performed, Boenning considered and discussed with Premier's board how the present value analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to the growth rate of assets, net interest spread, non-interest income, non-interest expenses and dividend payout ratio. Boenning noted that the discounted dividend stream and terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the assumptions that must be made, and the results of this analysis, are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Comparable Transactions Analysis. Boenning also compared the per share values to Premier common shareholders implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton of latest twelve months earnings, book value, tangible book value, assets and deposits with the price per common share implied by the multiples paid in recent acquisitions of banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies that Boenning deemed comparable. The transactions deemed comparable by Boenning included both interstate and intrastate bank, bank holding company, and financial holding company acquisitions announced after June 30, 2001, in which the selling institution's assets were between $250 million and $1 billion as of the most recent period publicly available prior to announcement. Boenning compared this national group as a whole as well as certain of its subgroups, including a regional group, a recently announced group and a performance group, with the Premier/Fulton transaction. The regional group included transactions involving banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies in which the acquired company was located in the Mid-Atlantic region. The recently announced group included transactions involving banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies which were announced after January 1, 2003. The performance group included transactions involving banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies which had a return on average common equity between 15% and 25% at the time of announcement as well as year over year asset growth greater than 15%. In addition to the national, regional, recently announced and performance groups, Boenning also compared transactions involving de novo banking companies that were founded between 1990 and 1993 that were headquartered in Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia and the Premier/Fulton transaction. This analysis was conducted in order to compare the value implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton to comparable transactions. The results of these comparisons, are set forth in the following table.

Pro Forma Relative Value and Contribution Analyses. Boenning analyzed the estimated changes in the amount of earnings, book value and cash dividends represented by one share of Premier common stock prior to the merger with the value implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton. These analyses were conducted in order to determine the estimated impact upon Premier per common share values implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton. The analysis indicated the following information:

This dividend was an extraordinary dividend that resulted from the merger agreement rather than the ordinary course of business and is therefore excluded.

In reviewing the pro forma combined earnings, equity and assets of Fulton based on the merger with Premier, Boenning analyzed the contribution that Premier would have made to the combined company's earnings, assets, loans, deposits and equity as of March 31, 2003. Boenning also reviewed the percentage ownership that Premier shareholders would hold in the combined company. This analysis was conducted in order to compare the relative amount of these categories Premier is contributing to the pro forma entity with the ownership percentage implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton. Boenning has not expressed any opinion as to the actual value of Fulton common stock when issued in the merger or the price at which Fulton common stock will trade after the merger. The analysis indicated the following information as of and for the twelve months ended March 31, 2003:

	Premier	Fulton ¹

Assets	6%	94%
Loans	6%	94%

Hurdle Rate Analysis. Using a range of discount rates and a range of terminal price to earnings per common share multiples, Boenning estimated a range of compound annual earnings per common share growth rates required over a five year period for Premier to obtain an implied per common share stand alone market price comparable to the value implied by the exchange ratio offered by Fulton on a present value basis. This analysis was performed in order to examine the required earnings per common share growth rates that would be required to offer shareholders similar value to that implied by the exchange ratio and estimated cash dividends to be received by Fulton. Boenning calculated a range of future values of the per common share implied value of the Fulton transaction over a five-year period based on a range of discount rates from 10% to 14%. The range of discount rates reflected the expected rate of return required by holders or prospective buyers of Premier common stock. Using a range of price to earnings per common share multiples of 12.5x to 17.5x to reflect the growth and profitability prospects of Premier as well as general market valuations for comparable banking companies, Boenning calculated Premier's potential earnings per common share at the end of five years by dividing the price to common earnings per share multiples into the range of future values. The annual growth rate was calculated based on the potential earnings per common share values at the end of five years and Premier's earnings per common share value of $1.22 for the year ended December 31, 2002. Boenning then compared the resulting earnings growth rates with Premier's historical and estimated future earnings per common share growth rates.

In connection with the hurdle rate analysis performed, Boenning considered and discussed with Premier's board how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to the range of discount rates and price per common share earnings multiples used. The table below summarizes the results under different assumption scenarios.

Terminal Multiple	Discount Rate
	10.0%	12.0%	14.0%

In connection with rendering its January Opinion and Proxy Opinion, Boenning performed what it deemed were the material financial analyses. Although the evaluation of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio in the Merger was to some extent a subjective one based on the experience and judgment of Boenning and not merely the result of mathematical analysis of financial data, Boenning principally relied on the previously discussed financial valuation methodologies in its determinations. Boenning believes its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and factors considered by Boenning without considering all such analyses and factors could create an incomplete view of the process underlying Boenning's opinion. In its analyses, Boenning made numerous assumptions with respect to business, market, monetary and economic conditions, industry performance and other matters, many of which are beyond Premier and Fulton's control. Any estimates contained in Boenning's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates.

In reaching its opinion as to fairness, none of the analyses or factors considered by Boenning was assigned any particular weighting by Boenning. As a result of its consideration of the aggregate of all factors present and analyses performed, Boenning reached the conclusion, and opined, that the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to the shareholders of Premier from a financial point of view.

Boenning's Proxy Opinion was based solely upon the information available to it and the economic, market and other circumstances as they existed as of the date its Proxy Opinion was delivered; events occurring after the date of its Proxy Opinion could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing its Proxy Opinion. Boenning has not undertaken to reaffirm and revise its Proxy Opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring after the date of the Proxy Opinion.

The full text of the Boenning Proxy Opinion, dated as of May 30, 2003, which sets forth assumptions made and matters considered, is attached as Exhibit C to this document. Premier's shareholders are urged to read the Proxy Opinion in its entirety. Boenning's Proxy Opinion is directed only to the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point of view, is for the information of the board of directors of Premier, and does not address any other aspect of the merger nor does it constitute a recommendation to any holder of Premier common stock as to how such holder should vote at the Premier annual meeting.

The foregoing provides only a summary of the Proxy Opinion of Boenning and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of that opinion, which is set forth in Exhibit C to this document.

Compensation of Boenning & Scattergood

Premier and Boenning entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by Boenning in connection with the merger. Premier agreed to pay Boenning a cash fee of $15,000 upon execution of the engagement agreement. In addition, concurrently with the execution of a definitive agreement, Premier agreed to pay Boenning a cash fee equal to 1% of the market value of the aggregate consideration offered in exchange for the outstanding shares of Premier common stock in the merger with $150,000 of such fee payable upon the issuance of Boenning's fairness opinion and the balance payable at the time of the closing of the merger. Based on the 1.407 per share exchange ratio payable in the merger and the number of shares of Premier common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding on the record date for the annual meeting, this fee will amount to approximately $900,000. Pursuant to the Boenning engagement agreement, as amended, Premier also agreed to reimburse Boenning for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its retention, not to exceed $15,000 without Premier's prior approval, and to indemnify it against certain liabilities.

Boenning has provided other investment banking services to Premier in the past and has received compensation for such services.

Fulton's Board Of Directors' Reasons For The Merger

The acquisition of Premier was attractive to Fulton's Board of Directors because it presented an opportunity to acquire a performing financial institution in a geographic market which would contribute to the expansion and strengthening of Fulton's presence in Bucks, Northampton and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania, and which fit the profile of Fulton's desired markets in terms of economic growth and demographics.

The Fulton board of directors met at a special board meeting on November 19, 2002, and approved the nature and amount of consideration that could be offered by management, and authorized the Chairman of the Board, President and any Executive Vice President to negotiate and sign the form of the definitive agreement. At a regular board meeting on January 21, 2003, the Fulton board of directors unanimously approved and ratified the definitive merger agreement and related documents and the execution of the merger agreement.

Effect Of The Merger

Upon completion of the merger, Premier will merge with and into Fulton, and the separate legal existence of Premier will cease. As a consequence of the merger, all property, rights, debts and obligations of Premier will automatically transfer to and vest in Fulton, in accordance with Pennsylvania law. Fulton, as the surviving corporation, will be governed by the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Fulton in effect immediately prior to completion of the merger. The directors and executive officers of Fulton prior to the merger will continue, in their respective capacities, as the directors and executive officers of Fulton after the merger, except that Fulton will appoint to its Board of Directors one current director of Premier.

Exchange Ratio

On the effective date of the merger, each outstanding share of Premier common stock will automatically convert into 1.407 shares of Fulton common stock. You will receive cash instead of receiving fractional share interests of Fulton common stock.

Fulton will adjust the number of shares of Fulton common stock issuable in exchange for shares of Premier common stock to take into account any stock splits, stock dividends, reclassifications or other similar events that may occur involving Fulton common stock prior to closing.

On the effective date of the merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of Premier common stock will automatically convert into an option to purchase Fulton common stock. The number of shares of Fulton common stock issuable upon exercise will equal the number of shares of Premier common stock subject to the option multiplied by 1.407, rounded to the nearest whole share. The exercise price for a whole share of Fulton common stock will equal the stated exercise price of the option divided by 1.407. Shares issuable upon the exercise of such options to acquire Fulton common stock will remain subject to the terms of the plans and grant agreements of Premier under which Premier issued the options.

Treatment of Stock Options and Preferred Stock

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Premier common stock issued under a Premier stock option plan, whether or not then vested and exercisable, will be cancelled and substituted for an option to purchase Fulton common stock on the following terms: (i) the number of shares of Fulton common stock which may be acquired will be equal to the product of the number of shares of Premier common stock covered by the Premier option multiplied by the conversion ratio, provided that any fractional share will be rounded to the nearest whole share; (ii) the exercise price per share of Fulton common stock will be equal to the exercise price per share of Premier common stock of the related Premier option, divided by the conversion ratio, provided that the exercise price will be rounded to the nearest whole cent; (iii) the duration and other terms of the Fulton stock option will be identical to the duration and other terms of the Premier option, except that all references to Premier will be deemed to be references to Fulton and its affiliates, where the context so requires and will remain exercisable until the stated expiration date of the corresponding Premier option.

The outstanding shares of Premier's Series A Preferred Stock will not be converted into Fulton common stock. All of the outstanding shares of Premier's Series A Preferred Stock will be redeemed in accordance with its terms as of or prior to the effective time of the merger. (See Redemption of Preferred Stock on page 48).

Effective Date Of The Merger

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The effective date of the merger will occur within thirty days following the receipt of all regulatory and shareholder approvals. Fulton and Premier may also mutually agree on a different date. Fulton and Premier presently expect that the effective date of the merger will occur no later than the third quarter of 2003.

On or prior to the effective date of the merger, Fulton and Premier will file articles of merger with the Pennsylvania Department of State and such document will set forth the effective date of the merger. Either Fulton or Premier can terminate the merger agreement if, among other reasons, the merger does not occur on or before September 30, 2003, and the terminating party has not breached or failed to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement. However, either party may extend this date to December 31, 2003, if closing has not occurred by September 30, 2003 because regulatory approval is still pending. See Termination; Effect of Termination on page 44.

Exchange Of Premier Stock Certificates

No later than three business days after receipt of a final shareholders list following the effective date of the merger, Fulton will send a transmittal form to each record owner of Premier common stock. The transmittal form will contain instructions on how to surrender certificates representing Premier common stock for certificates representing Fulton common stock.

You should not forward any Premier stock certificates until you have received transmittal forms from Fulton. You should not return stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card.

Until you exchange your certificates representing Premier common stock, you will not receive the certificates representing Fulton common stock into which your Premier shares have converted. In addition, at its option, Fulton may withhold dividends on the Fulton shares if you fail to exchange your certificates. When you surrender your Premier certificates, you will receive any unpaid dividends without interest. For all other purposes, however, each certificate which represents shares of Premier common stock outstanding at the effective date of the merger will evidence ownership of the shares of Fulton common stock into which those shares converted as a result of the merger. Neither Fulton nor Premier will have liability for any amount paid in good faith to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

Conditions To The Merger

The obligations of Fulton and Premier to complete the merger are subject to various conditions, which include, among other customary provisions for transactions of this type, the following:

approval of the merger agreement by Premier's shareholders;

receipt of all required regulatory approvals, including the expiration or termination of any notice and waiting periods;

the absence of any action, suit or proceeding, pending or threatened, which seeks to modify, enjoin or prohibit or otherwise adversely and materially affect the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement;

delivery of a tax opinion to each of Fulton and Premier;

the absence of any material and adverse change in the condition, assets, liabilities, business or operations or future prospects of either party;

the accuracy in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective date of the merger of the representations and warranties of the other party, except as to any representation or warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date and except as otherwise contemplated by the merger agreement;

the other party's material performance of all its covenants and obligations; and other conditions customary for similar transactions, such as the receipt of officer certificates and legal opinions.

Except for the requirements of shareholder approval, regulatory approvals and the absence of any legal action preventing the merger, each of the conditions described above may be waived in the manner and to the extent described in Amendment; Waivers on page 39. As of the date of this document, Fulton's counsel has delivered the required tax opinion.

2003; provided that Premier may not pay its shareholders a dividend for any quarter in which such shareholders are entitled to receive a dividend from Fulton for the same quarter. Subject to applicable regulatory restrictions, if any, Premier Bank may pay cash dividends sufficient to permit payment of the dividends by Premier. Neither Premier nor Premier Bank may pay any other dividend without the prior written consent of Fulton. Premier may continue to pay its regular quarterly cash dividends on its preferred stock in accordance with its terms.

No Solicitation Of Transactions

The merger agreement prohibits Premier or any of its affiliates or representatives from:

responding to, soliciting, initiating or encouraging any inquiries relating to an acquisition of Premier or its subsidiaries by a party other than Fulton, or engaging in negotiations with respect to such a transaction;

causing Premier to enter into any kind of agreement with a third party relating to the third party's proposal to acquire Premier or its subsidiaries unless the Premier Board of Directors determines in good faith and with the advice of outside counsel that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties and the applicable proposal is superior to Fulton's acquisition terms.

However, if at any time the Board of Directors of Premier determines in good faith, based on the advice of outside counsel, that failure to consider a third party's proposal would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties, Premier, in response to a written acquisition proposal that was unsolicited and that is reasonably likely to lead to a better proposal, may:

give the third party non-public information relating to Premier or its subsidiaries pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement; and participate in negotiations regarding such proposal.

Premier agreed to notify Fulton if it receives any inquiries or proposals relating to an acquisition by a party other than Fulton.

Board of Directors Covenant to Recommend the Merger Agreement

Premier's directors and executive officers entered into voting agreements by which they agreed to vote all shares of voting capital stock beneficially owned by them in favor of the merger agreement. The Premier board of directors is permitted to withdraw, modify or change in a manner adverse to Fulton, its recommendation to the Premier shareholders with respect to the merger agreement and the merger only if:

after consultation with its outside legal counsel, the board of directors determines in good faith that failing to take such action, in response to an unsolicited bona fide written superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement), would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the applicable acquisition proposal is a superior proposal; and

Premier has complied in all material respects with the requirements described under "No Solicitation of Transactions", above.

Warrant Agreement and Warrant

General

In connection with the merger agreement, Premier executed a warrant agreement, dated January 16, 2003, which permits Fulton to purchase Premier common stock under the circumstances described below. Under the warrant agreement, Fulton received a warrant to purchase up to 835,000 shares of Premier common stock. This number represents approximately 19.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of Premier common stock on January 16, 2003, taking into consideration the shares issuable under the warrant. The exercise price per share to purchase Premier common stock under the warrant is $17.85, subject to adjustment. The warrant is only exercisable if certain events specified in the warrant occur. These triggering events are described below. None of the triggering events have occurred to the best of Fulton's or Premier's knowledge as of the date of this document.

Effect of Warrant Agreement

Attempts to acquire Premier or an interest in Premier, as described under "Exercise of Warrant", below, would cause the warrant to become exercisable. Fulton's exercise of the warrant would significantly increase a potential acquirer's cost of acquiring Premier compared to the cost that would be incurred without the warrant agreement. Therefore, the warrant agreement, together with Premier's agreement not to solicit other transactions relating to the acquisition of Premier by a third party, may have the effect of discouraging other persons from making a proposal to acquire Premier.

Terms of Warrant Agreement

The following is a brief summary of the material provisions of the warrant agreement, and we qualify this discussion by reference to the full warrant agreement and warrant. A complete copy of the warrant agreement and warrant is included as Exhibit B to this document, and is incorporated in this document by reference. Fulton and Premier urge you to read it carefully.

Exercise of the Warrant

The warrant is exercisable only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

if Premier breaches any covenant in the merger agreement which would permit Fulton to terminate the merger agreement and which occurs following a third party's proposal to merge with or acquire or lease all or substantially all of the assets of Premier or one of its subsidiaries, or to acquire 25% or more of the voting power of Premier or one of its subsidiaries;

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

if Premier's shareholders fail to approve the merger and, at the time of the shareholders' meeting, a third party proposal to merge with or acquire or lease all or substantially all of the assets of Premier or one of its subsidiaries, or to acquire 25% or more of the voting power of Premier or a subsidiary has been announced;

if a person other than Fulton acquires beneficial ownership of 25% or more of Premier common stock;

if a person or group, other than Fulton, enters into an agreement or letter of intent with Premier to merge or consolidate with Premier, to acquire all or substantially all of the assets or liabilities of Premier or one of its subsidiaries, or to acquire beneficial ownership of 25% or more of the voting power of Premier or one of its subsidiaries;

if a person or group, other than Fulton, commences a tender offer or exchange offer and within six months consummates a merger with or acquisition of Premier or 25% of the voting power of Premier or one of its subsidiaries; or if Fulton or Premier terminates the merger agreement because Premier's Board of Directors takes certain actions inconsistent with Fulton's acquisition of Premier.

Table of Contents

If the warrant becomes exercisable, Fulton may exercise the warrant by presenting the warrant to Premier along with:

a written notice of exercise;

payment to Premier of the exercise price for the number of shares specified in the notice of exercise; and a certificate specifying the events which have occurred which cause the warrant to be exercisable.

Termination of the Warrant

The warrant terminates on the earlier of:

the effective date of the merger; or termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms (other than a termination by Fulton caused by Premier's Board taking action), except that if one of the events described above which causes the warrant to be exercisable occurs prior to termination of the merger agreement, the warrant shall not terminate until twelve months after such event;

if the warrant has not previously been exercised, twelve months after the occurrence of one of the events described above which causes the warrant to be exercisable; or

December 31, 2004.

Adjustments

In the event of any change in Premier common stock by reason of stock dividends, split-ups, recapitalizations, combinations, conversions, divisions, exchanges of shares or the like, the number and kind of shares issuable under the warrant are adjusted appropriately.

Repurchase of Warrant or Warrant Shares

Under the warrant agreement, Fulton has the right to require Premier to repurchase the warrant or, in the event the warrant has been exercised in whole or in part, redeem the shares obtained upon such exercise. In the case of a repurchase of shares obtained upon exercise of the warrant, the redemption price per share is to be equal to the highest of: (i) 110% of the exercise price, (ii) the highest price paid or agreed to be paid for any share of common stock by an acquiring person (defined as any person who or which is the beneficial owner of 25% or more of the Premier common stock) during the one year period immediately preceding the date of redemption, and (iii) in the event of a sale of all or substantially all of Premier's assets: (x) the sum of the price paid in such sale for such assets and the current market value of the remaining assets of Premier as determined by a recognized investment banking firm selected by Fulton and reasonably acceptable to Premier, divided by (y) the number of shares of Premier common stock then outstanding. If the price paid consists in whole or in part of securities or assets other than cash, the value of such securities or assets shall be their then current market value as determined by a recognized investment banking firm selected by Fulton and reasonably acceptable to Premier.

In the case of a repurchase of the warrant, the redemption price is to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying: (i) the number of shares of Premier common stock represented by the portion of the warrant that Fulton is requiring Premier to repurchase, times (ii) the excess of the redemption price over the exercise price.

Registration Rights

Premier granted Fulton the right to request registration under the Securities Act of 1933 for the shares of Premier common stock which are issuable upon exercise of the warrant.

Table of Contents

Amendment; Waivers

Subject to any applicable legal restrictions, at any time prior to completion of the merger, Fulton and Premier may:

amend the merger agreement, except that any amendment relating to the consideration to be received by the Premier shareholders in exchange for their shares must be approved by the Premier shareholders;

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Fulton and Premier required in the merger agreement; or waive any term or condition in the merger agreement to the extent permitted by law.

Termination; Effect Of Termination

Fulton and Premier may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to completion of the merger by mutual written consent.

Either Fulton or Premier may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to completion of the merger if:

any condition precedent to its obligations under the merger agreement remains unsatisfied as of September 30, 2003 through no fault of its own; provided that either party may extend this date to December 31, 2003, if the merger has not occurred by September 30, 2003 because regulatory approval is still pending.

there has been a material breach by the other party of a representation, warranty or covenant in the merger agreement and such breach has not been cured within thirty days after written notice of such breach has been given; or the Board of Directors of Premier, acting in good faith and consistent with its fiduciary duties, takes certain actions in connection with an acquisition of Premier by a party other than Fulton, which it believes is more favorable to Premier's shareholders.

In addition, Premier may terminate the merger agreement if the price of Fulton common stock just before completion of the merger is less than $10.65, and the price of Fulton common stock has also declined 20% more than the decline (if any) in the average NASDAQ Bank Index for the same period as compared to the NASDAQ Bank Index on January 15, 2003. Neither party would owe the other any penalty or fee as a result of termination of the merger agreement. The market price termination provisions will be based on an average of the closing bid and asked prices for the Fulton common stock for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date which is two (2) business days prior to the closing date of the merger. Specifically, the index comparison is calculated as follows:

eighty percent of the last sale price for Fulton common stock on January 15, 2003, (which last sale price was $17.75) times the average NASDAQ Bank Index for the ten (10) business day period described below, divided by the NASDAQ Bank Index on January 15, 2003 (which was 2,286.60). The NASDAQ Bank Index can be found at www.nasdaq.com by viewing stock information for the symbol IXBK .

We anticipate that the merger will close in the third quarter of 2003. Neither Premier nor Fulton can predict whether the market price of Fulton's common stock will increase, decrease or remain stable between the date of this document and the end of the period in which the average closing market price is determined.

In the event that either Fulton or Premier terminates the merger agreement, neither Fulton nor Premier will have any continuing liability or obligation other than the obligation dealing with confidentiality and any liabilities resulting from a breach by the other of a material term or condition of the merger agreement. However, if the merger terminates under certain circumstances, described above, Fulton will have the right to exercise the warrant.

Table of Contents

Management And Operations After The Merger

The Board of Directors and executive officers of Fulton and its subsidiaries will not change as a result of the merger, except as follows:

Fulton will appoint to its Board of Directors one current director of Premier to serve until Fulton's 2004 annual meeting and will nominate him at that meeting to serve for a three-year term;

Premier Bank's current directors will remain as directors of Premier Bank. The current Premier director who will serve as a Fulton director is Clark S. Frame.

In addition, Fulton agreed, for a period of three years, to preserve the business structure of Premier Bank as a Pennsylvania commercial bank (provided that Fulton may cause Premier Bank's branch offices located in Northampton County, Pennsylvania to be transferred to another bank subsidiary of Fulton); and preserve and use the present name of Premier Bank.

Employment; Severance

Upon completion of the merger, Fulton will use its best efforts to continue the employment of persons who were full-time employees of Premier or Premier Bank. Where that is not possible for whatever reason, Fulton will make severance payments to affected persons.

If employment is involuntarily terminated, without cause, within one year of the effective date of the merger, severance benefits will consist of the greater of three months salary (at then current levels) or one week's salary plus one week's salary for each year of service with Premier, up to a maximum of twenty-six weeks' salary.

In the event employment is involuntarily terminated, without cause, after one year, severance payments will be made in accordance with Fulton's then existing severance policy. Any such person will be given full credit for each year of service as a Premier employee.

Employee Benefits

The employee benefits provided to former Premier employees after the merger's effective date will be substantially equivalent to the employee benefits, in the aggregate, provided by Premier for at least three years after the effective date of the merger, or until Fulton or its subsidiaries can no longer satisfy the applicable qualified retirement plan discrimination testing under the Internal Revenue Code. Each Premier employee who becomes an employee of Fulton or of a Fulton subsidiary will be entitled to full credit for each year of service with Premier for purposes of determining eligibility for vesting in Fulton's employee benefit plans, programs and policies.

Regulatory Approvals

Fulton and Premier must obtain regulatory approvals before the merger can be completed, but cannot assure you that these regulatory approvals will be obtained or when they will be obtained.

It is a condition to completion of the merger that Fulton and Premier receive all necessary regulatory approvals to the merger, without the imposition by any regulator of any condition or requirements that would so materially and adversely impact the economic or business benefits of the merger that, had such condition or requirement been known, Fulton and Premier would not, in the exercise of reasonable judgment, have entered into the merger transaction. Fulton and Premier cannot assure you that the regulatory approvals of the merger will not contain terms, conditions or requirements which would have such an impact.

Table of Contents

Fulton and Premier are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required to complete the merger, except as described below. If any other approval or action is required, the parties expect that they will seek such approval or action.

The merger is subject to the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Under this law, the Federal Reserve Board generally may not approve any proposed transaction:

That would result in a monopoly or that would further a combination or conspiracy to monopolize banking in the United States, or

That could substantially lessen competition in any section of the country, that would tend to create a monopoly in any section of the country, or that would be in restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the public interest in meeting the convenience and needs of the community served clearly outweighs the anti-competitive effects of the proposed transaction.

The Federal Reserve Board is also required to consider the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the bank holding companies and banks concerned, as well as the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Consideration of financial resources generally focuses on capital adequacy. Consideration of convenience and needs includes the parties' performance under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977.

The merger may not be completed until the 30th day following the date of the Federal Reserve Board approval, although the Federal Reserve Board may reduce that period to 15 days. During this period, the United States Department of Justice has the opportunity to challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. The commencement of any antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve Board's approval, unless a court of competent jurisdiction specifically ordered otherwise.

Fulton filed notice of the proposed merger with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia on April 1, 2003, seeking prior approval of the merger from the Federal Reserve Bank, pursuant to authority delegated to it by the Federal Reserve Board. As of the date of this document, the Federal Reserve Bank has not yet approved or disapproved the merger.

The merger is also subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking under the provisions of the Pennsylvania Banking Code of 1965, as amended. Fulton filed notice seeking approval of the proposed merger with the Department of Banking on April 1, 2003. As of the date of this document, the Department of Banking has not yet approved or disapproved the merger.

Material Contracts

There have been no other material contracts or other transactions between Premier and Fulton since signing the merger agreement, nor have there been any material contracts, arrangements, relationships or transactions between Premier and Fulton during the past five years, other than in connection with the merger agreement and as described in this document.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences

To complete the merger, Fulton and Premier must receive an opinion of Barley, Snyder, Senft & Cohen, LLC, counsel to Fulton, that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that Fulton and Premier will each be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. Barley Snyder has provided this opinion and has consented to its inclusion in the registration statement.

In the opinion of Barley, Snyder, Senft & Cohen, LLC, the material federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

Fulton and Premier will not recognize gain or loss in the merger;

Table of Contents

Premier's shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss upon receipt of Fulton common stock in exchange for Premier common stock, except that shareholders who receive cash proceeds for fractional interests will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between such proceeds and the tax basis allocated to their fractional share interests, and such gain or loss will constitute capital gain or loss if the shareholders held their Premier common stock as a capital asset at the effective date of the merger;

the tax basis of shares of Fulton common stock Premier's shareholders receive in the merger will be the same as the tax basis of their shares of Premier common stock less any basis that would be allocable to a fractional share of Fulton common stock for which cash is received; and the holding period of the Fulton common stock that Premier's shareholders receive in the merger will include the holding period of their shares of Premier common stock, provided that they hold their Premier common stock as a capital asset at the time of the merger.

This is not a complete description of all the federal income tax consequences of the merger and, in particular, does not address tax considerations that may affect the treatment of shareholders who acquired their Premier common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, or shareholders which are exempt organizations or who are not citizens or residents of the United States. Each shareholder's individual circumstances may affect the tax consequences of the merger to such shareholder. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of the merger under applicable state, local, or foreign laws. Accordingly, you should consult a tax advisor to discuss the specific tax consequences of the merger to you.

Accounting Treatment

Fulton will account for the acquisition using the purchase method of accounting. Purchase accounting requires Fulton to allocate the total purchase price of the acquisition to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, based on their respective fair values at the acquisition date, with any remaining unallocated acquisition cost being recorded as goodwill. Resulting goodwill balances are then subject to an impairment review on at least an annual basis. The results of Premier's operations will be included in Fulton's financial statements prospectively from the date of the acquisition.

The total purchase price is estimated to be approximately $90 million, which includes the cost of Fulton stock to be issued, Premier options to be converted and certain acquisition related costs. The total purchase price will be allocated to the net assets acquired as of the merger effective date, based on fair market values at that date. Fulton expects to record a core deposit intangible asset and goodwill as a result of the acquisition accounting.

The Selected Historical and Pro Forma Combined Per Share Data has been prepared based on Premier's net assets and the fair market values of those net assets as calculated by Premier as of March 31, 2003. In addition, the core deposit intangible was estimated to be $17 million, representing 7% of demand and savings deposits, and was assumed to be amortized over 8 years using an accelerated method. These assumptions resulted in goodwill of approximately $63 million. The actual amounts to be recorded by Fulton to reflect the purchase are dependent on various factors, including but not limited to, the interest rate environment and final valuations for loans and deposits and other assets and liabilities, including the core deposit intangible, and may differ materially from the estimates provided herein.

NASDAQ Listing

The obligation of Premier and Fulton to complete the merger is subject to the condition that Fulton common stock to be issued in the merger be authorized for quotation on the National Market tier of the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Expenses

Fulton and Premier will each pay all their own costs and expenses, including fees and expenses of financial consultants, accountants and legal counsel, except that Fulton will pay for the cost of printing and mailing this document.

Resale Of Fulton Common Stock

The Fulton common stock issued in the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933 except for shares issued to any Premier shareholder who is an affiliate of Premier or Fulton for purposes of SEC Rule 145. This document does not cover resale of Fulton common stock received by any affiliate of Premier or Fulton. Each director and executive officer of Premier will enter into an agreement with Fulton providing that, as an affiliate, he or she will not transfer any Fulton common stock received in the merger except in compliance with the securities laws.

Dissenters Rights

Premier shareholders are not entitled to dissenters right under Subchapter D of Chapter 15 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Fulton currently maintains a shareholder dividend reinvestment plan. This plan provides shareholders of Fulton with a simple and convenient method of investing cash dividends, as well as voluntary cash payments, in additional shares of Fulton common stock without payment of any brokerage commission or service charge. Fulton expects to continue to offer this plan after the effective date of the merger, and shareholders of Premier who become shareholders of Fulton will be eligible to participate in the plan.

Table of Contents

Redemption of Preferred Stock

Premier's Series A 9.25% Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock is governed by the Statement of Rights, Designations and Preferences amending Premier's Articles of Incorporation. All outstanding shares of Premier's Series A Preferred Stock will be redeemed as of or prior to the effective time of the merger in accordance with its redemption terms. The Statement of Rights provides that the Series A Preferred Stock may not be redeemed prior to June 14, 2007 except in the event of a change of control of Premier. The merger of Premier with Fulton constitutes a change of control. If the Series A Preferred Stock is redeemed after June 13, 2003, each share of Series A Preferred Stock will be redeemed at $25.50 per share. The aggregate payment of the redemption price to each holder of Series A preferred stock will be rounded down to the nearest whole cent. Premier will send a notice of redemption to each Series A preferred shareholder not less than 30 days prior to the date set for redemption. The notice will describe the redemption procedure in detail.

Financial Interests Of Management in the Merger

When you are considering the recommendation of Premier's board of directors with respect to approving the merger agreement and the merger, you should be aware that Premier directors and executive officers have interests in the merger as individuals which are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Premier. The Premier board of directors was aware of these factors and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. These interests are described below.

Share Ownership and Stock Options

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Premier own approximately 1,442,632 shares of Premier common stock, and hold options to purchase approximately 221,555 shares of Premier common stock. On the effective date of the merger, each option will convert into an option to acquire Fulton common stock. The number of shares of Fulton common stock issuable upon the exercise of the converted option will equal the number of shares of Premier common stock covered by the option multiplied by 1.407, and the exercise price for a whole share of Fulton common stock will be the stated exercise price of the option divided by 1.407. Shares issuable upon the exercise of options to acquire Fulton common stock will be issuable in accordance with the terms of the respective plans and grant agreements of Premier under which Premier issued the options.

Change of Control Agreements

Under the merger agreement, Fulton agreed to honor various contractual obligations which have been entered into by Premier and/or its subsidiaries and some of their executive officers, including change of control agreements between Premier, Premier Bank and each of Messrs. Soffronoff, Ginley and Sickel. These agreements generally provide that, in the event that a change of control of Premier or Premier Bank occurs, Premier or Premier Bank shall pay to the executive a lump sum cash severance payment equal to two times the executive's current annual direct salary if the executive leaves or is terminated following the change of control within certain time frames. However, as part of the merger agreement, Messrs. Soffronoff and Ginley agreed to waive their change of control payments and instead accepted employment agreements with Premier Bank that become effective on the date of the merger. These new agreements are described below.

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Assuming that his employment by Premier and Premier Bank was terminated following consummation of the merger in the third quarter of 2003 and that Fulton did not offer Mr. Sickel a position having equivalent responsibilities, authority, compensation and benefits as he received immediately prior to the change of control, the amount of the cash severance that would be payable to Mr. Sickel under his change of control agreement with Premier and Premier Bank is $358,000.

Employment Agreements

Messrs. Frame, Ginley and Soffronoff entered into employment agreements with Premier Bank which will become effective on, and are contingent upon, the effectiveness of the merger. Each agreement provides that the respective officer shall be employed for a period of three years from the effective date of the merger. Under their respective agreements, Messrs. Frame, Soffronoff and Ginley are entitled to an annual salary of $160,000, $240,000 and $235,000, respectively, and will also be entitled to benefits comparable to those offered by Premier Bank on January 16, 2003, including pension, profit sharing, medical and disability benefit programs and other Premier employee benefit plans and Fulton's bonus programs.

For each of Messrs. Frame, Soffronoff and Ginley, in the event his employment was terminated without cause as defined in the agreement, Premier Bank has agreed to pay him the salary and benefits described above for the remaining term of the agreement. Each of them is also entitled to receive two times his salary in the event of a change in control, as defined in the agreement, of Premier Bank or of Fulton. The agreement also provides that for the longer of one year after the termination of his employment or the period of time by which any payment he is to receive is measured, the executive will not compete with Premier Bank.

These employment agreements with Premier Bank replace the Change in Control Agreements that each of Messrs. Soffronoff and Ginley had previously entered into with Premier and Premier Bank.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that Fulton shall indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer and employee of Premier or a Premier subsidiary, determined as of the effective time of the merger, against any costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to or after the effective time of the merger, arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he or she was a director, officer or employee of Premier or any of its subsidiaries, or is or was serving at the request of Premier or Premier Bank as a director, officer or employee of an affiliate, or (ii) the merger agreement or any of the transactions contemplated thereby, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Fulton shall maintain Premier's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger for the benefit of persons who are currently covered by such insurance policy for a period of four years following the effective time of the merger. Fulton may, however, substitute new policies in lieu of Premier's existing policies if the new policies provide at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous.

Currently, all of Premier and Premier Bank's insurance policies are purchased through Richard B. Ryon Insurance, an agency in which director Richard F. Ryon is a partner.

Directors Fees

Each of Premier's current directors will serve in one or more of the following capacities after the effective date of the merger:

One Premier director, Clark S. Frame, will serve as director of Fulton; and

All Premier Bank directors will continue to serve as directors of Premier Bank.

As such, each non-employee director will be entitled to receive fees for his or her service in such capacity equal to the fees received by him or her from Premier for a period of three years.

Other than as set forth above, no director or executive officer of Premier has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except insofar as ownership of Premier common stock might be deemed such an interest. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management, beginning on page 61.

Indemnification

The Bylaws of Fulton provide for indemnification of its directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, provided that the person seeking indemnification acted in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of Fulton, and without willful misconduct or recklessness. Fulton has purchased insurance to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents under certain circumstances.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Fulton pursuant to the foregoing provisions of Fulton's Bylaws, Fulton has been informed that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is therefore unenforceable.

The ability of Fulton to pay dividends to its shareholders is dependent primarily upon the earnings and financial condition of Fulton's subsidiary banks. Funds for the payment of dividends on Fulton common stock are expected for the foreseeable future to be obtained primarily from dividends paid to Fulton by its bank subsidiaries, which dividends are subject to certain statutory limitations, described below:

Pennsylvania State Chartered Banks	Fulton Bank, Lebanon Valley Farmers Bank, and Lafayette Ambassador Bank	may pay dividends only out of accumulated net earnings and may not declare or pay any dividend requiring a reduction of the statutorily required surplus of the institution
National Banks	Swineford National Bank, FNB Bank, N.A., Delaware National Bank, and Fulton Financial Advisors, N.A.	the approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency is required under federal law if the total of all dividends declared during any calendar year would exceed the net profits (as defined) of the bank for the

Maryland Commercial Banks	Hagerstown Trust Company and The Peoples Bank of Elkton	may only declare a cash dividend from their undivided profits or (with the prior approval of the Maryland Bank Commissioner) from its surplus in excess of 100% of its required capital stock, in each case after providing for due or accrued expenses, losses, interest and taxes. In addition, if Hagerstown's or Peoples surplus becomes less than 100% of its required capital stock, Hagerstown or Peoples may not declare or pay any cash dividends that exceed 90% of its net earnings until its surplus becomes 100% of its required capital stock
New Jersey Banks	The Bank and Skylands Community Bank	may not declare or pay any dividends which would impair their capital stock or reduce their surplus to a level of less than 50% of their capital stock or if the surplus is currently less than 50% of the capital stock, the payment of such dividends would not reduce the surplus of the bank

In addition to the foregoing statutory restrictions on dividends, state banking regulations (with respect to state-chartered banks), the FDIC (with respect to state-chartered banks that are not members of the Federal Reserve System, such as Fulton Bank, Skylands Community Bank, Hagerstown Trust Company, The Bank and The Peoples Bank of Elkton), the FRB (with respect to state-chartered banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System, such as Lebanon Valley Farmers Bank and Lafayette Ambassador Bank), and the OCC (with respect to national banks such as Swineford National Bank, FNB Bank, N.A., Delaware National Bank, and Fulton Financial Advisors, N.A.), also have adopted minimum capital standards and have broad authority to prohibit a bank from engaging in unsafe or unsound banking practices. The payment of a dividend by a bank could, depending upon the financial condition of the bank involved and other factors, be deemed to impair its capital or to be as such an unsafe or unsound practice.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

The holders of Fulton common stock may elect to participate in the Fulton Financial Corporation Dividend Reinvestment Plan, which is a plan administered by Fulton Financial Advisors, N.A. as the plan agent. Under the dividend reinvestment plan, dividends payable to participating shareholders are paid to the plan agent and are used to purchase, on behalf of the participating shareholders, additional shares of Fulton common stock. Participating shareholders may make additional voluntary cash payments, which are also used by the plan agent to purchase, on behalf of such shareholders, additional shares of Fulton common stock. Shares of Fulton common stock held for the account of participating shareholders are voted by the plan agent in accordance with the instructions of each participating shareholder as set forth in his or her proxy.

Securities Laws

Fulton, as a business corporation, is subject to the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and is also subject to similar requirements under state securities laws. Fulton common stock is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Fulton is subject to the periodic reporting, proxy solicitation and insider trading requirements of the 1934 Act. The executive officers, directors and ten percent shareholders of Fulton are subject to certain restrictions affecting their right to buy and sell shares of Fulton common stock owned beneficially by them. Specifically, each such person is subject to the beneficial ownership reporting requirements and to the short-swing profit recapture provisions of Section 16 of the 1934 Act and may sell shares of Fulton common stock only: (i) in compliance with the provisions of SEC Rule 144, (ii) in compliance with the provisions of another applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the 1933 Act, or (iii) pursuant to an effective registration statement filed with the SEC under the 1933 Act.

Antitakeover Provisions

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Fulton include certain provisions which may be considered to be antitakeover in nature because they may have the effect of discouraging or making more difficult the acquisition of control over Fulton by means of a hostile tender offer, exchange offer, proxy contest or similar transaction. These provisions are intended to protect the shareholders of Fulton (including the present shareholders of Premier, who will become shareholders of Fulton following the merger) by providing a measure of assurance that Fulton's shareholders will be treated fairly in the event of an unsolicited takeover bid and by preventing a successful takeover bidder from exercising its voting control to the detriment of the other shareholders. However, the antitakeover provisions set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Fulton, taken as a whole, may discourage a hostile tender offer, exchange offer, proxy solicitation or similar transaction relating to Fulton common stock. To the extent that these provisions actually discourage such a transaction, holders of Fulton common stock may not have an opportunity to dispose of part or all of their stock at a higher price than that prevailing in the market. In addition, these provisions make it more difficult to remove, and thereby may serve to entrench, incumbent directors and officers of Fulton, even if their removal would be regarded by some shareholders as desirable.

The provisions in the Articles of Incorporation of Fulton which may be considered to be antitakeover in nature include the following:

a provision that provides for substantial amounts of authorized but unissued capital stock, including a class of preferred stock whose rights and privileges may be determined prior to issuance by Fulton's Board of Directors;

a provision that does not permit shareholders to cumulate their votes for the election of directors;

a provision that requires a greater than majority shareholder vote in order to approve certain business combinations and other extraordinary corporate transactions;

a provision that establishes criteria to be applied by the Board of Directors in evaluating an acquisition proposal;

a provision that requires a greater than majority shareholder vote in order for the shareholders to remove a director from office without cause;

a provision that prohibits the taking of any action by the shareholders without a meeting and eliminates the right of shareholders to call an annual meeting;

a provision that limits the right of the shareholders to amend the Bylaws; and a provision that requires, under certain circumstances, a greater than majority shareholder vote in order to amend the Articles of Incorporation.

The provisions of the Bylaws of Fulton which may be considered to be antitakeover in nature include the following:

a provision that limits the permissible number of directors;

a provision that establishes a Board of Directors divided into three classes, with members of each class elected for a three-year term that is staggered with the terms of the members of the other two classes; and a provision that requires advance written notice as a precondition to the nomination of any person for election to the Board of Directors, other than in the case of nominations made by existing management.

As a Pennsylvania business corporation and a corporation registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Fulton is subject to, and may take advantage of the protections of, the antitakeover provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. These antitakeover provisions, which are designed to discourage the acquisition of control over a targeted Pennsylvania business corporation, include:

a provision whereby the directors of the corporation, in determining what is in the best interests of the corporation, may consider factors other than the economic interests of the shareholders, such as the effect of any action upon other constituencies, including employees, suppliers, customers, creditors and the community in which the corporation is located;

a provision that permits shareholders to demand that a controlling person pay to them the fair value of their shares in cash upon a change in control;

a provision that restricts certain business combinations unless there is prior approval by the directors or a supermajority of the shareholders;

a provision permitting a corporation to adopt a shareholders rights plan;

a provision denying the right to vote to a person who acquires a specified percentage of stock ownership unless those voting rights are restored by a vote of disinterested shareholders; and a provision requiring a person who acquires control shares, which are described in the previous sentence, to disgorge to the corporation all profits from the sale of equity securities within eighteen months thereafter.

Corporations may elect to opt out of any or all of these antitakeover provisions of the Pennsylvania corporate law. Fulton has not elected to opt out of any of the protections provided by the antitakeover statutes.

On April 27, 1999, Fulton extended the term of its Shareholder Rights Plan, originally adopted in June of 1989, by ten years. The plan is intended to discourage unfair or financially inadequate takeover proposals and abusive takeover practices and to encourage third parties who may in the future be interested in acquiring Fulton to negotiate with Fulton's Board of Directors. The plan may have the effect of discouraging or making more difficult the acquisition of Fulton by means of a hostile tender offer, exchange offer or similar transaction. The plan is similar to shareholder rights plans which have been adopted by other bank holding companies and business corporations and contains flip-in rights (allowing certain shareholders to purchase Fulton's common stock equal to two times the right's exercise price) and flip-over rights (allowing rights holders to acquire shares of the acquirer's stock at a substantial discount) which are typically included in plans of this kind. Each share of Fulton common stock, including all shares that will be issued to Premier's shareholders in the Merger, will also represent one right pursuant to the terms of the plan, which right will initially, and until it becomes exercisable, trade with and be represented by the Fulton common stock certificates to be received by the shareholders of Premier.

The management of Fulton does not presently contemplate recommending to the shareholders the adoption of any additional antitakeover provisions.

Audit Committee Report to Shareholders

Pursuant to rules adopted by the SEC designed to improve disclosures related to the functioning of corporate audit committees and to enhance the reliability and credibility of financial statements of public companies, Premier's Audit Committee submits the following report:

The Board of Directors' Audit Committee is responsible for providing independent, objective oversight of Premier's accounting functions and internal controls. The Audit Committee is composed of five directors, each of whom is independent as defined in Section 121 of the AMEX Company Guide. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Board of Directors on June 8, 2000, and as amended on March 8, 2001.

Management is responsible for Premier's internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of Premier's financial statements in accordance with the generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In connection with these responsibilities, the Audit Committee met with management and the independent accountants to review and discuss the December 31, 2002 financial statements. The Audit Committee also discussed with the independent accountants the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee also received written disclosures from the independent accountants required by Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants, and the Audit Committee's review of the representations of management and the independent accountants, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in Premier's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 24, 2003.

This report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that Premier specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under the Acts.

Change of Control Agreements

In March 1998, Premier, Premier Bank and executives John C. Soffronoff, John J. Ginley and Bruce E. Sickel entered into change of control agreements. The agreements define certain severance benefits Premier and Premier Bank will pay to the named executives in the event of a change of control. The benefits were granted in order to recognize the past and present service of the executives and to provide incentive for their continued valued service. The agreements continue until such time as either party gives the other written notice of termination of employment with, or without, cause. The agreements are not intended to affect the employment status of the executives in the absence of a change of control.

In the event of a change of control, the executives are entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to two times their respective current annual direct salary at the earliest of four specified events. If, at the end of six months after the date of the change of control, none of the specified events have occurred, the executives shall no longer be entitled to the payments upon termination. The proposed transaction as described in this proxy statement/prospectus constitutes a change of control and thus, the executives will be entitled to certain payments. However, as part of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, John C. Soffronoff and John J. Ginley have agreed to waive their change of control payments and have instead entered into new employment contracts with Premier Bank. Bruce E. Sickel will receive his change of control payment. Please see the section entitled Financial Interests of Management in the Merger on page 48 for further information.

Incentive Stock Option Plan

Premier maintains the Premier Bancorp, Inc. 1995 Incentive Stock Option Plan which it assumed in 1997 in connection with the bank's reorganization into a holding company structure. Premier Bank's shareholders approved the plan at the 1995 annual meeting in order to advance the development, growth and financial condition of Premier Bank. The bank originally reserved 100,000 shares under the plan, or 315,000 shares as of December 31, 2002, as adjusted for all stock dividends and splits. The plan provides for awards of qualified stock options and non-qualified stock options to officers and directors and is administered by the full Board of Directors. In 2002, Premier did not grant any qualified stock options or any non-qualified stock options under the plan.

Common Stock Purchase Options

In connection with the organization of Premier Bank in 1992, certain incorporators, directors and officers were issued common stock purchase options to purchase shares of the bank (which option obligations were assumed in 1997 by Premier pursuant to the reorganization and formation of the holding company). The options were exercisable for ten years after the date of grant. In April 1992, 105,122 common stock purchase options were issued (which figure has been adjusted to 486,497 to reflect all stock splits and dividends). All outstanding options were exercised prior to April 23, 2002.

401(k) Plan

Premier Bank maintains a 401(k) tax deferred retirement savings plan for employees. The plan has two features: an elective deferral feature and a savings plus feature. To be eligible to become a member of the plan, an employee must have completed at least six months service and attained age 21. All employee contributions vest immediately. Employer contributions vest equally over a three year period. The plan is subject to certain terms and restrictions imposed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

An eligible employee may choose the elective deferral feature of the plan by entering into an agreement with Premier Bank to defer current total compensation by up to 15% (unless otherwise limited by the 401(k) administrators). In 2002, Premier Bank matched this deferred compensation with a discretionary match which is currently set at 50%, up to 6% of the employee's salary. The amount of the match, if any, is determined by Premier Bank each year.

During 2002, Premier Bank made a contribution of $102,058 to the plan. The amounts allocated to the four most highly compensated officers in 2002 were as follows (these amounts do not include the employee's individual contribution): Mr. Frame, $1,572; Mr. Soffronoff $6,000; Mr. Sickel $3,815; and Mr. Ginley $4,843.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Premier's Board of Directors governs Premier and its subsidiaries. In fulfilling its fiduciary duties, the Board of Directors endeavors to act in the best interests of Premier's shareholders, customers, and the communities served by Premier and its subsidiaries. To accomplish Premier's strategic goals and objectives, the Board of Directors engages competent persons, who undertake to accomplish these objectives with integrity and cost-effectiveness. The Board of Directors fulfills part of its strategic mission through the compensation of these individuals. Premier's officers and directors are not compensated separately from Premier Bank.

The Board of Directors seeks to offer competitive compensation opportunities to all employees based on the individual's contribution and personal performance. Premier Bank's compensation committee administers the compensation program. The committee seeks to establish a fair compensation policy to govern the executive officers' base salaries and incentive plans to attract and motivate competent, dedicated, and ambitious managers, whose efforts will enhance Premier Bank's products and services and will result in improved profitability, increased dividends to the shareholders, and subsequent appreciation in the market value of Premier's shares.

The Board reviews and annually approves the compensation of Premier Bank's executives, including the Chairman, President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Lending Officer. As a guideline in determining base salaries, the committee uses information from the Executive Compensation review published by SNL Financial. Premier Bank uses a Northeast and Mid-Atlantic region peer group for banks in the range of $250-$500 million and $500-$1 billion range because of common industry issues and competition for the same executive talent group. This peer group may include some but not all of the financial institutions contained in Premier's Performance Graph on page 64.

The Board of Directors does not deem Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code to be applicable to Premier Bank at this time. The Board of Directors intends to monitor the future application of Section 162(m) to the compensation paid to its executive officers; and in the event that this section becomes applicable, the Board intends to amend its compensation policies to preserve the deductibility of the compensation payable under the policies.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The Board of Directors and compensation committee determined that the Chief Executive Officer's 2002 base salary compensation of $168,000 was appropriate in light of the following 2001 Premier accomplishments: the continued growth in assets, deposits and loans, the continued successful completion of the annual business plan and record earnings.

No direct correlation exists between the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Chief Executive Officer's increase in compensation, and any of the above criteria, nor does the committee give any specific weight to any of the above individual criteria. The committee subjectively determines the increase in the Chief Executive Officer's compensation based on a review of all relevant information.

Executive Officers' Compensation. The Board of Directors increased the compensation of Premier Bank's executive officers by approximately 17% over 2002 compensation, effective January 1, 2003. The Board determined these increases based on its subjective analysis of the individual's contribution to the bank's strategic goals and objectives. In determining whether the strategic goals have been achieved, the Board considers numerous factors, including the following: Premier's performance as measured by earnings, revenues, return on equity, market share, total assets and non-performing loans. Although the Board measured the performance and increases in compensation in light of these factors, no direct correlation exists between any specific criteria and an employee's compensation, nor does the Board, in its analysis, attribute specific weight to any such criteria. The Board makes a subjective determination after review of all relevant information, including the above.

General labor market conditions, the individual's specific responsibilities and the individual's contributions to Premier's success influence total compensation opportunities available to the employees. The Board reviews individuals annually and strives to offer compensation that is competitive with that offered by employers of comparable size in the industry. Through its compensation policy, Premier strives to meet its strategic goals and objectives to its constituencies and provide compensation that is fair and meaningful to its executive officers.

In addition to base salary, the bank's executive officers may participate in annual and long-term incentive plans, including the bank's 401(k) plan.

Election Of Directors

Qualification and Nomination of Directors

Article IV, Section 1 of Premier's bylaws authorizes the number of directors to be not less than 5 nor more than 25. The bylaws provide for three classes of directors with staggered three year terms of office. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, fix the number of directors and their respective classifications. The number of Board members is currently 18. The Board of Directors nominated the five persons named below to serve as Class 2 Directors until the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders or until their earlier death, resignation, or removal from office. All of the nominees are presently members of the Board of Directors and all have consented to serve another term as a director if re-elected. Pursuant to Premier's bylaws, vacancies on the Board of Directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office. The Board of Directors may select someone to fill a vacancy until the expiration of the term of the class of directors to which he or she was appointed.

In accordance with Premier's bylaws, the Board of Directors is divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, known as Class 1, 2 and 3, whose terms expire at successive annual meetings. Therefore, the bylaws provide for a classified Board with staggered three year terms of office. Currently, Class 1 consists of seven directors, Class 2 consists of five directors, and Class 3 consists of six directors. Shareholders will elect five Class 2 Directors at the annual meeting to serve for three year terms that expire at Premier's 2006 annual meeting. In the interim between annual meetings, the Board has the authority under the bylaws to increase or decrease the size of the Board and to fill vacancies.

The proxy holders intend to vote all proxies for the election of each of the five nominees named below, unless you indicate that your vote should be withheld from any or all of them. Each nominee elected as a director will continue in office until his or her successor has been duly elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or retirement.

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The Board of Directors proposes the following nominees for election as Class 2 Directors at the annual meeting:

John J. Ginley

Dr. Thomas E. Mackell

Neil W. Norton

Irving N. Stein

HelenBeth Garofalo Vilcek

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the proposal to elect the five nominees listed above as Class 2 Directors.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires that Premier's officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of the registered class of Premier's equity securities, file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors, and greater than 10% shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish Premier with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments thereto received by it, or written representations from the reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required for those persons, Premier believes that during the period from January 1, 2002, through December 31, 2002, its officers and directors complied with all applicable filing requirements, except for Director HelenBeth Garofalo Vilcek, who inadvertently filed one Form 4 late to report two transactions.

Annual Report

A copy of Premier's annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, is enclosed with this proxy statement/prospectus. A representative of KPMG LLP, the independent auditors who examined the financial statements in the annual report, will attend the meeting. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement, if he desires to do so, and will be available to respond to any appropriate shareholder questions concerning the annual report. Premier specifically incorporates the following sections of its annual report on Form 10-K, as filed with the SEC on March 24, 2003, into this proxy statement/prospectus: Item 1, Description of Business; Item 6, Selected Financial Data; Item 8, Financial Statements and Supplementary Data; Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations; and Item 7A, Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

ADJOURNMENT

In the event that Premier does not have sufficient votes for a quorum or to approve the merger agreement at the annual meeting, Premier intends to adjourn the meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. The Board of Directors of Premier recommends that shareholders vote their proxies in favor of the adjournment proposal so that their proxies may be used to vote for an adjournment if necessary. The proxy holders will vote properly executed proxies in favor of the adjournment proposal unless the proxies indicate otherwise. If Premier adjourns the annual meeting, Premier will not give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting other than by an announcement of such time and place at the annual meeting.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

If Fulton and Premier complete the merger, shareholders of Premier automatically will become shareholders of Fulton, and their rights as shareholders will be determined by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, and by Fulton's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The following is a summary of material differences between the rights of holders of Fulton common stock and the rights of holders of Premier common stock. These differences arise from differing provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Fulton and Premier and from the existence of Fulton's Shareholder Rights Plan.

The most significant differences are:

Fulton has adopted a Shareholder Rights Plan, which provides Fulton's shareholders with certain stock-related rights in the event of a hostile takeover but may have the effect of discouraging such a takeover, while Premier has not adopted any such plan; and

A comparison of Premier common stock and Fulton common stock and the rights of their respective holders follows:

EXPERTS

The consolidated financial statements of Fulton Financial Corporation and subsidiaries as of and for the year ended December 31, 2002, included in Fulton's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, have been audited by KPMG LLP, independent accountants, as indicated in their report with respect thereto, and are incorporated by reference herein in reliance upon the authority of said firm as experts in giving said report. The financial statements of Fulton for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 were audited by other auditors who have ceased operations. Those auditors' report, dated January 22, 2002 on those financial statements was unqualified and included an explanatory note that they did not audit the financial statements of Drovers Bancshares Corporation, a company acquired during 2001 in a transaction accounted for as a pooling of interest.

The consolidated financial statements of Premier Bancorp, Inc. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 and for each of the years in the three year period ended December 31, 2002, included in Premier's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, have been audited by KPMG LLP, independent public accountants, as indicated in their report with respect thereto, and are incorporated by reference herein in reliance upon the authority of said firm as experts in giving said reports.

Barley, Snyder, Senft & Cohen, LLC will pass on the validity of the Fulton common stock issued in the merger, and certain federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Shumaker Williams, P.C., Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has acted as special counsel to Premier in connection with the merger.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no matters other than those described in this proxy statement or referred to in the accompanying Notice of annual meeting of Shareholders that may be presented at the annual meeting. However, if any other matter should be properly presented for consideration and voting at the annual meeting or any adjournments of the meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in the manner they determine to be in the corporation's best interest.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Because Premier and Fulton anticipate that the merger will be completed no later than the third quarter of 2003, Premier does not anticipate holding a 2004 annual meeting of Premier shareholders. In the event the merger is not completed, and such a meeting is held, any shareholder who, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, wishes to submit a proposal for inclusion in Premier's proxy statement for its 2004 annual meeting of Shareholders should have delivered the written proposal to the President of Premier at its principal executive offices, 379 North Main Street, Doylestown, Pennsylvania 18901, by December 12, 2003. If a shareholder proposal is submitted to the corporation after that date, it is considered untimely and, although the proposal may be considered at the annual meeting, it may not be included in the corporation's 2004 proxy statement. Article IV, Section 2 of the corporation's bylaws requires that a shareholder deliver a notice of nomination for election to the Board of Directors to the President not less than 14 or more than 50 days in advance of a shareholders' meeting called for the election of directors.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER made as of the 16th day of January, 2003, by and between FULTON FINANCIAL CORPORATION, a Pennsylvania business corporation having its administrative headquarters at One Penn Square, P. O. Box 4887, Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17604 (Fulton), and PREMIER BANCORP, INC., a Pennsylvania business corporation having its administrative headquarters at 379 North Main Street, Doylestown, Pennsylvania 18901 (Premier)

BACKGROUND:

Fulton is a financial holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHC Act). Premier is a financial holding company registered under the BHC Act which is the parent of Premier Bank. In addition to Premier Bank, Premier has four directly-owned subsidiaries: PBI Capital Trust, Premier Capital Trust II, Lenders Abstract, LLC and Premier Bank Insurance Services, LLC. Premier Bank and all of such subsidiaries are collectively referred to herein as the Premier Subsidiaries . Fulton and Premier wish to merge with each other, resulting in Premier Bank becoming a subsidiary of Fulton. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the foregoing transaction will be accomplished by means of a merger (the Merger) in which (i) Premier will be merged with and into Fulton, (ii) Fulton will survive the Merger, and (iii) all of the outstanding shares of the common stock of Premier, $0.33 par value per share (Premier Common Stock), will be converted into shares of the common stock of Fulton, par value $2.50 per share (Fulton Common Stock).

Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, the parties are entering into a Warrant Agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto (the Warrant Agreement), which provides for the delivery by Premier of a warrant in substantially the form of Exhibit B attached hereto (the Warrant) entitling Fulton to purchase shares of the Premier Common Stock in certain circumstances. In addition, Premier has obtained voting agreements in the form of Exhibit C attached hereto, from the directors and executive officers listed on Exhibit C, who have agreed to vote shares of voting capital stock beneficially owned by them in Premier in favor of this Agreement, the Merger and, to the extent required, all transactions incident thereto (collectively, the Voting Agreements).

WITNESSETH:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and intending to be legally bound, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I THE MERGER

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Premier shall merge with and into Fulton in accordance with the following:

Section 1.1 Merger. At the Effective Time (as defined in Section 9.2 herein) (i) Premier shall merge with and into Fulton pursuant to the provisions of the Pennsylvania Business

Table of Contents

Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the BCL), whereupon the separate existence of Premier shall cease and Fulton shall be the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Surviving Corporation), and (ii) the Premier Common Stock will be converted into Fulton Common Stock pursuant to the provisions of Article II hereof.

Section 1.2 Name. The name of the Surviving Corporation shall be Fulton Financial Corporation . The address of the principal office of the Surviving Corporation will be One Penn Square, P.O. Box 4887, Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17604.

Section 1.3 Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be the Articles of Incorporation of Fulton as in effect at the Effective Time.

Section 1.4 Bylaws. The Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall be the Bylaws of Fulton as in effect at the Effective Time.

Section 1.5 Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation shall be the directors and officers of Fulton in office at the Effective Time. Each of such directors and officers shall serve until such time as his successor is duly elected and has qualified.

ARTICLE II CONVERSION OF SHARES AND EXCHANGE OF STOCK CERTIFICATES

Section 2.1 Conversion of Shares. At the Effective Time (as defined in Section 9.2 herein) the shares of Premier Common Stock then outstanding shall be converted into shares of Fulton Common Stock, as follows:

(a) General. Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.1(b), 2.1(c) and 2.1(d) herein, each share of Premier Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately before the Effective Time, shall, at the Effective Time, be converted into and become without any action on the part of the holder thereof, and Fulton shall issue, 1.34 (such number, as it may be adjusted under Section 2.1(b) herein, the Conversion Ratio) shares of Fulton Common Stock and the corresponding number of rights associated therewith pursuant to the Rights Agreement dated June 20, 1989, as amended and restated as of April 27, 1999, between Fulton and Fulton Bank (the Fulton Rights Agreement). Each share of Premier Common Stock to be converted into Fulton Common Stock pursuant to this Section 2.1 shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, cease to be outstanding, and be canceled, and each holder of share certificates evidencing shares of Premier Common Stock converted into Fulton Common Stock pursuant to this Section 2.1 shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the shares represented thereby, except the right to receive the Fulton Common Stock therefor, without interest thereon, upon the surrender of the share certificates evidencing the Premier Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.2 hereof.

(b) Antidilution Provision. In the event that Fulton shall at any time before the Effective Time: (i) issue a dividend in shares of Fulton Common Stock, (ii) combine the outstanding shares of Fulton Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, or (iii)

subdivide the outstanding shares of Fulton Common Stock into a greater number of shares, then the Conversion Ratio shall be proportionately adjusted (calculated to four decimal places), so that each Premier shareholder shall receive at the Effective Time, in exchange for his shares of Premier Common Stock, the number of shares of Fulton Common Stock as would then have been owned by him if the Effective Time had occurred before the record date of such event (For example, if Fulton were to declare a five percent (5%) stock dividend after the date of this Agreement and if the record date for that stock dividend were to occur before the Effective Time, the Conversion Ratio would be adjusted from 1.34 shares to 1.407 shares).

(c) No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Fulton Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger. In lieu of the issuance of any fractional share to which he would otherwise be entitled, each former shareholder of Premier shall receive in cash an amount equal to the fair market value of his fractional interest, which fair market value shall be determined by multiplying such fraction by the Closing Market Price (as defined in Section 2.1(e) herein).

(d) Cancelled Premier Shares. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.1(a) herein, the following shares of Premier Common Stock shall not be converted into Fulton Common Stock, and shall be cancelled, at the Effective Time: (i) shares of Premier Common Stock then owned by Fulton or any direct or indirect subsidiary of Fulton (except for trust account shares or shares acquired in connection with debts previously contracted); and (ii) shares of Premier Common Stock owned by Premier or any direct or indirect subsidiary of Premier (except for trust account shares or shares acquired in connection with debts previously contracted).

(e) Closing Market Price. For purposes of this Agreement, the Closing Market Price shall be the average of the per share closing price for Fulton Common Stock, calculated to two decimal places, for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date which is two (2) business days before the Effective Date (as such term is defined in Section 9.2 herein), as reported on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System (NASDAQ), the foregoing period of ten (10) trading days being hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Price Determination Period. (For example, if July 1, 2003 were to be the Effective Date, then the Price Determination Period would be June 13, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 23, 24, 25 and 26, 2003). In the event that NASDAQ shall fail to report a closing price for Fulton Common Stock for any trading day during the Price Determination Period, the closing price for that day shall be equal to the average of the closing bid and asked prices as quoted: (i) by F. J. Morrissey & Company, Inc. and by Ryan, Beck & Co.; or (ii) in the event that both of these firms are not then making a market in Fulton Common Stock, by two brokerage firms then making a market in Fulton Common Stock to be selected by Fulton and approved by Premier.

Section 2.2 Exchange of Stock Certificates. Premier Common Stock certificates shall be exchanged for Fulton Common Stock certificates in accordance with the following procedures:

Table of Contents

(a) Exchange Agent. The transfer agent of Fulton shall act as exchange agent (the Exchange Agent) to receive Premier Common Stock certificates from the holders thereof and to exchange such stock certificates for Fulton Common Stock certificates and (if applicable) to pay cash for fractional shares of Fulton Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(c) herein. Fulton shall cause the Exchange Agent on or promptly, but no later than three (3) business days after receipt of a final shareholder list following the Effective Date, to mail to each former shareholder of Premier a notice specifying the procedures to be followed in surrendering such shareholder's Premier Common Stock certificates.

(b) Surrender of Certificates. As promptly as possible after receipt of the Exchange Agent's notice, each former shareholder of Premier shall surrender his Premier Common Stock certificates to the Exchange Agent; provided, that if any former shareholder of Premier shall be unable to surrender his Premier Common Stock certificates due to loss or mutilation thereof, he may make a constructive surrender by following procedures comparable to those customarily used by Fulton for issuing replacement certificates to Fulton shareholders whose Fulton Common Stock certificates have been lost or mutilated. Upon receiving a proper actual or constructive surrender of Premier Common Stock certificates from a former Premier shareholder, the Exchange Agent shall issue to such shareholder, in exchange therefor, a Fulton Common Stock certificate representing the whole number of shares of Fulton Common Stock into which such shareholder's shares of Premier Common Stock have been converted in accordance with this Article II, together with a check in the amount of any cash to which such shareholder is entitled, pursuant to Section 2.1(c) herein, in lieu of the issuance of a fractional share.

(c) Dividend Withholding. Dividends, if any, payable by Fulton after the Effective Time to any former shareholder of Premier who has not prior to the payment date surrendered his Premier Common Stock certificates may, at the option of Fulton, be withheld. Any dividends so withheld shall be paid, without interest, to such former shareholder of Premier upon proper surrender of his Premier Common Stock certificates.

(d) Failure to Surrender Certificates. All Premier Common Stock certificates must be actually or constructively (as referenced in (b) above) surrendered to the Exchange Agent within two (2) years after the Effective Date. In the event that any former shareholder of Premier shall not have properly surrendered his Premier Common Stock certificates within two (2) years after the Effective Date, the shares of Fulton Common Stock that would otherwise have been issued to him may, at the option of Fulton, be sold and the net proceeds of such sale, together with the cash (if any) to which he is entitled in lieu of the issuance of a fractional share and any previously accrued dividends, shall be held by the Exchange Agent in a noninterest bearing account for his benefit. From and after any such sale, the sole right of such former shareholder of Premier shall be the right to collect such net proceeds, cash and accumulated dividends. Subject to all applicable laws of escheat, such net proceeds, cash and accumulated dividends shall be paid to such former shareholder of Premier, without interest, upon proper actual or constructive surrender of his Premier Common Stock certificates.

Table of Contents

(e) Expenses. All costs and expenses associated with the foregoing surrender and exchange procedure shall be borne by Fulton.

Section 2.3 Treatment of Outstanding Premier Options.

(a) At the Effective Time, each holder of an option (collectively, Premier Options) to purchase shares of Premier Common Stock that (i) is outstanding at the Effective Time, (ii) has been granted pursuant to the Premier Bancorp, Inc. 1995 Incentive Stock Option Plan (collectively, the Premier Stock Option Plan) or otherwise granted by the Premier Board of Directors and evidenced by stock option agreements but not pursuant to any Premier Stock Option Plan; and (iii) would otherwise survive the Effective Time shall be entitled to receive, in substitution for such Premier Option, an option to acquire shares of Fulton Common Stock on the terms set forth below (each Premier Option as substituted, a Fulton Stock Option).

(b) A Fulton Stock Option shall be a stock option to acquire shares of Fulton Common Stock with the following terms: (i) the number of shares of Fulton Common Stock which may be acquired pursuant to such Fulton Stock Option shall be equal to the product of the number of shares of Premier Common Stock covered by the Premier Option multiplied by the Conversion Ratio, provided that any fractional share of Fulton Common Stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded to the nearest whole share; (ii) the exercise price per share of Fulton Common Stock shall be equal to the exercise price per share of Premier Common Stock of such Premier Option, divided by the Conversion Ratio, provided that such exercise price shall be rounded to the nearest whole cent; (iii) the duration and other terms of such Fulton Stock Option shall be identical to the duration and other terms of such Premier Option, except that all references to Premier shall be deemed to be references to Fulton and its affiliates, where the context so requires and shall remain exercisable until the stated expiration date of the corresponding Premier Option; (iv) Fulton shall assume such Premier stock option, whether vested or not vested, as contemplated by Section 424(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code); and (v) to the extent Premier Options qualify as incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Code, the Fulton Stock Options exchanged therefor shall also so qualify. Subject to the Fulton Stock Options and the foregoing, the Premier Stock Option Plans and all options or other rights to acquire Premier Common Stock issued thereunder shall terminate at the Effective Time. Fulton shall not issue or pay for any fractional shares otherwise issuable upon exercise of a Fulton Stock Option.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Fulton shall take appropriate action to reserve for issuance and, if not previously registered pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the 1933 Act), register the number of shares of Fulton Common Stock necessary to satisfy Fulton's obligations with respect to the issuance of Fulton Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of Fulton Stock Options and under Section 2.3.

(d) Prior to the Effective Time (to the extent required as determined by Fulton or Premier under applicable law, the terms of the Premier Stock Option Plan or otherwise),

Table of Contents

Fulton shall receive agreements from each holder of a Premier Option, pursuant to which each such holder agrees to accept a Fulton Stock Option in substitution for the Premier Option, as of the Effective Time.

(e) Schedule 2.3 sets forth a listing of each Premier Option as of the date of this Agreement (copies of which have been provided to Fulton), including the optionee, date of grant, shares of Premier Common Stock subject to such Option, the exercise price of such Option, expiration date, classification as an incentive stock option or a nonqualified stock option, vesting schedule and any special features thereof.

Section 2.4 Reservation of Shares. Fulton agrees that (i) prior to the Effective Time it will take appropriate action to reserve a sufficient number of authorized but unissued shares of Fulton Common Stock to be issued in accordance with this Agreement, and (ii) at the Effective Time, Fulton will issue shares of Fulton Common Stock to the extent set forth in, and in accordance with, this Agreement.

Section 2.5 Taking Necessary Action. Fulton and Premier shall take all such actions as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate in order to effectuate the transactions contemplated hereby including, without limitation, providing information necessary for preparation of any filings needed to obtain the regulatory approvals required to consummate the Merger. (c) The Board of Directors of Premier shall not (1) fail to recommend this Agreement, withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Fulton, its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger unless there is an Acquisition Proposal outstanding, (2) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal or (3) cause Premier to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal unless (x) the Board of Directors of Premier shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable law and (y) the applicable Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal.

(d) Nothing contained in this Section shall prohibit Premier from at any time taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, provided, however, that neither Premier nor its Board of Directors shall, except as permitted by paragraph (b) of this section, propose to approve or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal.

(e) Premier shall promptly (but in any event within one day) advise Fulton orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry regarding the making of an Acquisition Proposal including any request for information, the material terms and conditions of such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry and the identity of the person making such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry. Premier will, to the extent reasonably practicable, keep Fulton fully informed of the status and details (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such request, Acquisition Proposal or inquiry.

(i) In the event the Board of Directors of Premier takes any of the actions set forth in clauses (1), (2) and/or (3) of Section 5.7(c) in compliance with the standards in (x) and (y) therein, such action shall allow termination of this Agreement by Fulton under Section 8.1(b)(iii) herein which shall be treated in the same manner as termination under Section 8.1(a) herein and shall allow exercise of the Warrant. In the event the Board of Directors of Premier takes any of the actions set forth in clauses (1), (2) and/or (3) of Section 5.7(c) without compliance with the standards in (x) and (y) therein, such action shall constitute a breach allowing termination of this Agreement by Fulton under Section 8.1(c)(iii) herein which shall be treated in the same manner as termination by Fulton under Section 8.1(b)(i) herein and shall allow exercise of the Warrant.

(ii) This Agreement may be terminated by Premier prior to the shareholders meeting of Premier if (A) the Board of Directors of Premier shall have determined in good faith after consultation with outside counsel that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to Premier's shareholders under applicable law, (B) it is not in breach of its obligations under this Section 5.7 in any material respect and has complied with, and continues to comply with, all requirements and procedures of this Section 5.7 in all material respects and has authorized, subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, Premier to enter into a binding written agreement for a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal and Premier notifies Fulton in writing that it intends to enter into such agreement, attaching the most current version of such agreement to such notice; (C) Fulton does not make, within five (5) business days after receipt of Premier's written notice of its intention to enter into a binding agreement for a Superior Proposal, any offer that the Board of Directors reasonably and in good faith determines, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, is at least as favorable to the shareholders of Premier as the Superior Proposal and during such period Premier reasonably considers and discusses in good faith all proposals submitted by Fulton and, without limiting the foregoing, meets with, and causes its financial and legal advisors to meet with, Fulton and its advisors from time to time as required by Fulton to consider and discuss in good faith Fulton's proposals, and (D) prior to Premier's termination pursuant to this Section 5.7(e)(ii), Premier confirms in writing that such termination allows exercise of the Warrant. Premier agrees (x) that it will not enter into a binding agreement referred to in clause (B) above until at least the five (5) business days after Fulton has received the notice to Fulton required by clause (B) and (y) to notify Fulton promptly if its intention to enter into a binding agreement referred to in its notice to Fulton shall change at any time after giving such notice.

(f) For the purpose of this Section 5.7:

(i) Acquisition Proposal shall mean a written proposal or written offer (other than by another party hereto) for a tender or exchange offer for securities of Premier or any of the Premier Subsidiaries, or a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving an acquisition of Premier or any of the Premier Subsidiaries or any proposal to acquire in any manner a substantial equity interest in or a substantial portion of the assets of Premier or any of the Premier Subsidiaries.

(ii) A Superior Proposal shall be an Acquisition Proposal that the Board of Directors of Premier believes in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor) is reasonably capable of being completed, taking into account all relevant legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the Acquisition Proposal and the source of its financing, on the terms proposed and, believes in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and after taking into account the strategic benefits anticipated to be derived from the Merger and the long-term prospects of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries as a combined company), would, if consummated, result in a transaction more favorable to the shareholders of Premier from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and believes in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor) that the person making such Acquisition Proposal has, or is reasonably likely to have or obtain, any necessary funds or customary commitments to provide any funds necessary to consummate such Acquisition Proposal.

Section 5.8 Affiliate Letters. Premier shall use its best efforts to deliver or cause to be delivered to Fulton, at or before the Closing, a letter from each of the officers and directors of Premier (and shall use its best efforts to obtain and deliver such a letter from each shareholder of Premier) who may be deemed to be an affiliate (as that term is defined for purposes of Rules 145 and 405 promulgated by the SEC under the 1933 Act) of Premier, in form and substance satisfactory to Fulton, under the terms of which each such officer, director or shareholder acknowledges and agrees to abide by all limitations imposed by the 1933 Act and by all rules, regulations and releases promulgated thereunder by the SEC with respect to the sale or other disposition of the shares of Fulton Common Stock to be received by such person pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 5.9 No Purchases or Sales of Fulton Common Stock During Price Determination Period. Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries shall not, and shall use their best efforts to ensure that their executive officers and directors do not, and shall use their best efforts to ensure that each shareholder of Premier who may be deemed an affiliate (as defined in SEC Rules 145 and 405) of Premier does not, purchase or sell on NASDAQ, or submit a bid to purchase or an offer to sell on NASDAQ, directly or indirectly, any shares of Fulton Common Stock or any options, rights or other securities convertible into shares of Fulton Common Stock during the Price Determination Period.

Section 5.10 Dividends. Between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Date, Premier shall only declare and pay cash dividends as provided in this Section 5.10. Premier shall only pay (a) quarterly cash dividends on its Common Stock in an amount not in excess of $0.05 per share during each of the first and second calendar quarters of 2003, maintaining the same record and payment dates as Fulton; provided, however, that if the Effective Date has not occurred on or before June 30, 2003, Premier may, for each calendar quarter thereafter until the Effective Date (using the same record and payment dates as referenced above), pay a cash dividend in such amount as would have been received by Premier's Shareholders had the Effective Date occurred on July 16, 2003 taking into account any adjustments required by Section 2.1(b), and (b) its regular quarterly cash dividends on its Preferred Stock in accordance with its terms. With respect to dividends on the Premier Common Stock, it is the intent of Fulton and Premier that Premier be permitted to pay a dividend on the Premier Common Stock on the dates indicated only if the shareholders of Premier, upon becoming shareholders of Fulton, would not be entitled to receive a dividend on the Fulton Common Stock on the applicable payment dates. Fulton shall provide Premier with prompt written notice of the declaration of a dividend on the Fulton Common Stock.

Fulton may rely upon all information provided to it by Premier and Premier Bank in this connection and Fulton shall not be liable for any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact in the Registration Statement, or in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, if such statement is made by Fulton in reliance upon any information provided to Fulton by Premier or the Premier Subsidiaries or by any of their officers, agents or representatives. Fulton shall provide a draft of the Registration Statement to Premier and its counsel for comment and review at least ten (10) business days in advance of the anticipated filing date.

(e) Adopt Amendments. Fulton shall not adopt any amendments to its charter or bylaws or other organizational documents that would alter the terms of Fulton's Common Stock or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Fulton to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(f) Tax Treatment. Fulton shall take no action which would have the effect of causing the Merger not to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368 of the Code.

Section 6.2 Access to Properties and Records. Fulton shall give to Premier and to its authorized employees and representatives (including without limitation Premier's counsel, accountants, economic and environmental consultants and other designated representatives) such Section 6.3 Subsequent Financial Statements. Between the date of signing of this Agreement and the Effective Time, Fulton shall promptly prepare and deliver to Premier as soon as practicable each Quarterly Report to Fulton's shareholders and any Annual Report to Fulton's shareholders normally prepared by Fulton. The representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.6, 4.7 and 4.8 herein shall apply to the financial statements (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Additional Fulton Financial Statements) set forth in the foregoing Quarterly Reports and any Annual Report to Fulton's shareholders.

Section 6.4 Update Schedules. Fulton shall promptly disclose to Premier in writing any change, addition, deletion or other modification to the information set forth in its Schedules to this Agreement.

Section 6.5 Notice. Fulton shall promptly notify Premier in writing of any actions, claims, investigations or other developments which, if pending or in existence on the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be disclosed to Premier in order to ensure the accuracy of the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement or which otherwise could materially and adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities, business, operations or future prospects of Fulton or restrict in any manner the right of Fulton to carry on its business as presently conducted.

Section 6.6 No Purchase or Sales of Fulton Common Stock During Price Determination Period. Neither Fulton nor any Subsidiary of Fulton, nor any executive officer or director of Fulton or any Subsidiary of Fulton, nor any shareholder of Fulton who may be deemed to be an affiliate (as that term is defined for purposes of Rules 145 and 405 promulgated by the SEC under the 1933 Act) of Fulton, shall purchase or sell on NASDAQ, or submit a bid to purchase or an offer to sell on NASDAQ, directly or indirectly, any shares of Fulton Common Stock or any options, rights or other securities convertible into shares of Fulton Common Stock during the Price Determination Period; provided, however, that Fulton may purchase shares of Fulton Common Stock in the ordinary course of business during the Price Determination Period for the benefit of Fulton's Benefit Plans or Fulton's Dividend Reinvestment Plan.

Section 6.7 Assumption of Premier Debentures. Fulton agrees that, effective with the Effective Date, it shall assume Premier's 8.57% Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures due August 15, 2028 and Variable Rate Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures due November 30, 2032 and all of Premier's obligations under the related Indentures, and shall take all actions necessary or appropriated in accordance therewith, including, if requested by the trustee, execution of a supplemental indenture and other appropriate documents or certificates.

Section 6.8 Employment Arrangements.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, (i) Fulton, Premier Bank or another subsidiary of Fulton (any such parties employing employees of Premier or a Premier subsidiary, the Fulton Employers) shall: (A) satisfy each of the Employment Obligations (as defined in Section 3.17 herein), and (B) use its good faith efforts to retain each present employee of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries in such employee's current position and salary compensation (or, if offered to, and accepted by, an employee, a position for which the employee is qualified with the Fulton Employers at a compensation commensurate with the position), (ii) in the event that the Fulton Employers shall continue to employ officers or employees of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time, the Fulton Employers shall employ such persons on the Effective Time who are not Contract Employees (as that term is defined in Section 3.17 herein) as at will employees, and (iii) in the event the Fulton Employers are not willing to employ, or terminate the employment (other than as a result of unsatisfactory performance of their respective duties) of any officers or employees of Premier or the Premier Subsidiaries who are not Contract Employees and who do not receive any payment as a result of a Change of Control Agreement with Premier or Premier Bank, the Fulton Employers shall pay severance benefits to such employees (other than Contract Employees) as follows: (A) in the event employment is terminated on or prior to the date which is one year after the Effective Date, the greater of (I) three months' salary or (II) one week's salary and one week's salary for each year of service with Premier or an Premier Subsidiary, thereafter, up to a maximum of 26 weeks' salary; or (B) in the event employment is terminated thereafter, in accordance with the then existing severance policy of Fulton or its successor.

(b) The Fulton Employers shall be obligated to provide employee benefits to each person who is an employee, on the Effective Time and continues to be employed that are substantially equivalent, in the aggregate, to the benefits under the Premier Benefit Plans prior to the Effective Time, until the earlier of: (A) at least three (3) years after the Effective Date, or (B) the date that the Fulton Employers can no longer satisfy the applicable qualified retirement plan discrimination testing under the Code. For vesting and eligibility purposes for employee benefits, under each Fulton Benefit Plan and/or any employee benefit plan established by Fulton after the Effective Date, employees of the Premier Subsidiaries shall receive credit for years of service with the Premier Subsidiaries.

Section 6.9 Insurance; Indemnification.

(a) For four (4) years after the Effective Date, Fulton shall (and Premier Bank shall cooperate in these efforts) obtain and maintain tail coverage relating to Premier's existing directors and officers liability insurance policy (provided that such insurance shall be in such amount and with terms and conditions no less favorable to the Director and Officer Liability Policy of Premier as of the date of this Agreement and carry such premium (not to exceed 150% of the current premium for Premier's existing directors and officers liability insurance policy) and that Fulton may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous) with respect to claims arising from facts or circumstances which occur prior to the Effective Date (other than relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) and covering persons who are covered by such insurance immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(b) From and after the Effective Date, Fulton shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof, or who becomes prior to the Effective Date, an officer, employee or director of Premier or a Premier Subsidiary (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of Fulton, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (a Claim) in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or a witness based in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of Premier or a Premier Subsidiary if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring prior to the Effective Date (including, without limitation, the Merger and other transactions contemplated by this Agreement) regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed prior to, at, or after the Effective Date (the Indemnified Liabilities) to the full extent permitted under applicable law as to the date hereof or amended prior to the Effective Date and under the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of Premier or a Premier Subsidiary as in effect as of the date hereof (and Fulton shall pay expenses in advance of the full disposition of any such action or proceeding to each of the Indemnified Parties to the full extent permitted by applicable law and Fulton's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws). Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this provision, upon learning of any claim, shall notify Fulton (but the failure to so notify Fulton shall not relieve Fulton from any liability which Fulton may have under this section except to the extent Fulton is materially prejudiced thereby). In the defense of any action covered by this Section 6.10(b), Fulton shall have the right to direct the defense of such action and retain counsel of its choice; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnified Parties as a group may retain a single law firm to represent them with respect to each matter under this section if there is, under applicable standards of professional conduct, a conflict on any significant issue between the positions of Fulton and the Indemnified Parties (the Indemnified Parties may also retain more than one law firm if there is, under applicable standards of professional conduct, a conflict of any significant issues between the positions of two or more Indemnified Parties). Fulton shall have an obligation to advance funds to satisfy an obligation of Fulton or any successor to Fulton under this Section 6.10(b) to the same extent that Fulton would be obligated to advance funds under the indemnification provisions of its Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws.

Section 6.10 Appointment of Fulton Director. Fulton shall, on or promptly after the Effective Date (but no later than Fulton's next Board of Directors meeting following the Effective Date), appoint to Fulton's Board of Directors Clark S. Frame (or one of Premier's other current directors designated, subject to the reasonable approval of Fulton, by vote of Premier's Board of Directors prior to the Effective Date) to serve as a director of Fulton. Such director shall stand for election at Fulton's 2004 annual meeting, at which time Fulton shall nominate and recommend for election such director for an additional term of three (3) years. Fulton has a mandatory retirement policy for directors who attain age 70; however, Fulton would grandfather the present director of Premier appointed as set forth above from the application of such policy for a three year period after the Effective Date unless such director would have otherwise been obligated to retire from the Board of Premier under any policy it currently has in effect.

Section 6.11 Continuation of Premier Bank's Structure, Name and Directors.

(a) For a period of three (3) years after the Effective Date, Fulton shall (subject to the right of Fulton and the Premier Bank Continuing Directors to terminate such obligations under this Section 6.11(a) under subsections (b) and (c) below) (i) preserve the business structure of Premier Bank as a Pennsylvania commercial bank (provided that Fulton may cause Premier Bank's branch offices located in Northampton County, Pennsylvania to be transferred to another bank subsidiary of Fulton); (ii) preserve and use the present name of Premier Bank, and (iii) continue in office the present directors of Premier Bank who indicate their desire to serve the Premier Bank Continuing Directors, provided, that (A) for such three year period, each non-employee Premier Bank Continuing Director shall continue to receive director's fees from Premier Bank on the same basis as prior to the Effective Date and shall continue to receive such other incidental benefits as he or she was receiving from Premier Bank prior to the Effective Date (the current fees and benefits being set forth on Schedule 6.11 and to remain unchanged through the Effective Date); provided that, in the event an individual Premier Bank Continuing Director ceases to act as a director or as a member of any committee thereof, the foregoing obligation to maintain existing fees and benefits shall not apply to successors in such positions and (B) after such three-year period, each Premier Bank Continuing Director shall be subject to Fulton's mandatory retirement rules for directors and shall receive the standard fee paid to directors of subsidiary banks of Fulton.

(b) Fulton shall have the right to terminate its obligations under subsection (a) of this Section 6.11 as a result of (i) regulatory requirements, (ii) safe and sound banking practices as enunciated by bank regulatory agencies, or (iii) the exercise of their fiduciary duties by Fulton's directors.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Premier Bank Continuing Directors, in their exercise of their fiduciary duty as to the best interests of Premier Bank and Fulton, may, by a majority vote of such directors, modify or waive any or all of the foregoing provisions in subsection (a) of this Section 6.11.

to or as of the Closing, except to the extent that any such condition shall have been waived in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4 herein:

(a) Shareholder Approval: This Agreement shall have been duly authorized, approved and adopted by the shareholders of Premier in accordance with applicable law, AMEX rules and regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation of Premier.

(b) Regulatory Approvals: The approval of each federal and state regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), including without limitation, the Federal Reserve Board, the Department and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, shall have been obtained and all applicable waiting and notice periods shall have expired, subject to no terms or conditions which would (i) require or could reasonably be expected to require (A) any divestiture by Fulton of a portion of the business of Fulton, or any subsidiary of Fulton or (B) any divestiture by Premier or the Premier Subsidiaries of a portion of their businesses which Fulton in its good faith judgment believes will have a significant adverse impact on the business or prospects of Premier or the Premier Subsidiaries, as the case may be, or (ii) impose any condition upon Fulton or Premier Bank, or their other subsidiaries, taken as a whole, which in Fulton's good faith judgment (x) would be materially burdensome to Fulton and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, (y) would significantly increase the costs incurred or that will be incurred by Fulton as a result of consummating the Merger or (z) would prevent Fulton from obtaining any material benefit contemplated by it to be attained as a result of the Merger.

(c) Stock Listing. The shares of Fulton Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been authorized for listing on NASDAQ.

(d) Tax Opinion. Each of Fulton and Premier shall have received an opinion of Fulton's counsel, Barley, Snyder, Senft & Cohen, LLC, reasonably acceptable to Fulton and Premier, addressed to Fulton and Premier, with respect to federal tax laws or regulations, to the effect that:

(i) The Merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code and Fulton and Premier will each be a party to a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b)(1) of the Code;

(ii) No gain or loss will be recognized by Fulton or Premier by reason of the Merger;

(iii) The bases of the assets of Premier in the hands of Fulton will be the same as the bases of such assets in the hands of Premier immediately prior to the Merger;

(v) A holder of Premier Common Stock who receives shares of Fulton Common Stock in exchange for his Premier Common Stock pursuant to the reorganization (except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Fulton Common Stock deemed issued as described below) will not recognize any gain or loss upon the exchange.

(vi) A holder of Premier Common Stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Fulton Common Stock will be treated as if he received a fractional share of Fulton Common Stock pursuant to the reorganization which Fulton then redeemed for cash. The holder of Premier Common Stock will recognize capital gain or loss on the constructive redemption of the fractional share in an amount equal to the difference between the cash received and the adjusted basis of the fractional share.

(vii) The tax basis of the Fulton Common Stock to be received by the shareholders of Premier pursuant to the terms of this Agreement will include the holding period of the Premier Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor, provided that such Premier Common Stock is held as a capital interest at the Effective Time.

(viii) The holding period of the shares of Fulton Common Stock to be received by the shareholders of Premier will include the period during which they held the shares of Premier Common Stock surrendered, provided the shares of Premier Common Stock are held as a capital asset on the date of the exchange.

(e) Registration Statement: The Registration Statement (as defined in Section 6.1(b), including any amendments thereto) shall have been declared effective by the SEC; the information contained therein shall be true, complete and correct in all material respects as of the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined in Section 6.1(b)) to the shareholders of Premier; regulatory clearance for the offering contemplated by the Registration Statement (the Offering) shall have been received from each federal and state regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Offering; and no stop order shall have been issued and no proceedings shall have been instituted or threatened by any federal or state regulatory authority to suspend or terminate the effectiveness of the Registration Statement or the Offering.

(f) No Suits: No action, suit or proceeding shall be pending or threatened before any federal, state or local court or governmental authority or before any arbitration tribunal which seeks to modify, enjoin or prohibit or otherwise adversely and materially affect the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that if Fulton agrees to defend and indemnify Premier and Premier Bank and their respective officers and directors with regard to any such action, suit or proceeding pending or threatened against them or any of them, then such pending or threatened action, suit or proceeding shall not be deemed to constitute the failure of a condition precedent to the obligation of Premier to consummate this Agreement.

The obligations of Fulton to consummate this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction of each of the following conditions prior to or as of the Closing, except to the extent that any such condition shall have been waived by Fulton in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4 herein:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties: All of the representations and warranties of Premier as set forth in this Agreement, all of the information contained in Schedules hereto and all Premier Closing Documents (as defined in Section 7.2(j)) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing as if made on such date (or on the date to which it relates in the case of any representation or warranty which expressly relates to an earlier date).

(b) Covenants Performed: Premier shall have performed or complied in all material respects with each of the covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it.

(c) Opinion of Counsel for Premier: Fulton shall have received an opinion, dated the Effective Time, from Shumaker Williams P.C., special counsel to Premier, in substantially the form of Exhibit C hereto. In rendering any such opinion, such special counsel may require and, to the extent they deem necessary or appropriate may rely upon, opinions of other counsel and upon representations made in certificates of officers of Premier, Fulton, affiliates of the foregoing, and others.

(d) Affiliate Agreements: Shareholders of Premier who are or will be affiliates of Premier or Fulton for the purposes of Accounting Series Release No. 135 and the 1933 Act shall have entered into agreements with Fulton, in form and substance satisfactory to Fulton, reasonably necessary to assure compliance with Rule 145 under the 1933 Act.

(f) No Material Adverse Change: Fulton (together with its accountants, if the advice of such accountants is deemed necessary or desirable by Fulton) shall have established to its reasonable satisfaction that, since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have been any material and adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities, business or operations or future prospects of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis taken as a whole. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Additional Premier Financial Statements (as defined in Section 5.4) shall indicate that the consolidated financial condition, assets, liabilities and results of operations of Premier as of the respective dates reported therein do not vary adversely in any material respect from the consolidated financial condition, assets, liabilities and results of operations presented in the Premier Balance Sheet. For purposes of this Section 7.2(f), a material and adverse change shall mean an event, change, or occurrence which, individually or together with any other event, change, or occurrence, has a material adverse impact on (i) the financial position, business or results

At the Closing, Premier shall deliver to Fulton a certificate confirming the absence of a material adverse change described herein and a certificate (from appropriate officers of Premier and/or Premier's transfer agent) as to the issued and outstanding shares of Premier Common Stock and Premier Preferred Stock, shares issuable under outstanding stock options granted under Premier's Stock Option Plan and any outstanding obligations, options or rights of any kind entitling persons to purchase or sell any shares of Premier Common Stock or Premier Preferred Stock and any outstanding securities or other instruments of any kind that are convertible into such shares..

Subject to the requirements of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 72 of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, KPMG LLP, or such other accounting firm as is acceptable to Fulton, shall have furnished to Fulton an agreed upon procedures letter, dated the Effective Date, in form and substance satisfactory to Fulton to the effect that:

(i) In their opinion, the consolidated financial statements of Premier examined by them and included in the Registration Statement comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements of the 1933 Act and the published rules and regulations thereunder; and

(ii) On the basis of limited procedures, not constituting an audit, including a limited review of the unaudited financial statements referred to below, a limited review of the latest available unaudited consolidated interim financial statements of Premier, inspection of the minute books of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries since December 31, 2001, inquiries of officials of Premier and the Premier Subsidiaries responsible for financial and accounting matters and such other inquiries and procedures as may be specified in such letter, nothing came to their attention that caused them to believe that:

(A) any unaudited Consolidated Balance Sheets, Consolidated Statements of Income, Consolidated Statements of Shareholders' Equity and Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows of Premier included in the Registration Statement are not in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis substantially consistent with that of the audited financial statements covered by their report included in the Registration Statement;

(B) as of a specified date not more than five days prior to the date of delivery of such letter, there have been any changes in the consolidated shareholders' equity of Premier as compared with amounts shown in the balance sheet as of December 31, 2002 included in the Registration Statement, except in each case for such changes, increases or decreases which the Registration Statement discloses have occurred or may occur and except for such changes, decreases or increases as aforesaid which are immaterial; and

(C) for the period from January 1, 2003 to such specified date, there were any decreases in the consolidated total net interest income, consolidated net interest income after provision for loan losses, consolidated other income, consolidated net income or net income per share amounts of Premier as compared with the comparable period of the preceding year, except in each case for decreases which the Registration Statement discloses have occurred or may occur, and except for such decreases which are immaterial.

(h) Federal and State Securities and Antitrust Laws: Fulton and its counsel shall have determined to their satisfaction that, as of the Closing, all applicable securities and antitrust laws of the federal government and of any state government having jurisdiction over the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been complied with.

(i) Environmental Matters: No environmental problem of the kind contemplated in Section 3.22 and not disclosed in Schedule 3.22 shall have been discovered which would, or which potentially could, materially and adversely affect the condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities, business, operations or future prospects of either Premier or Premier Bank.

(j) Closing Documents: Premier shall have delivered to Fulton: (i) a certificate signed by Premier's President and Chief Executive Officer and by its Secretary (or other officers reasonably acceptable to Fulton) verifying that, to their knowledge, all of the representations and warranties of Premier set forth in this Agreement are true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing and that Premier has performed in all material respects each of the covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement; (ii) all consents and authorizations of landlords and other persons that are necessary to permit this Agreement to be consummated without violation of any lease or other agreement to which Premier or Premier Bank is a party or by which they or any of their properties are bound; and (iii) such other certificates and documents as Fulton and its counsel may reasonably request (all of the foregoing certificates and other documents being herein referred to as the Premier Closing Documents).

(k) Redemption of Premier Preferred Stock. All of the outstanding shares of the Premier Preferred Stock shall be redeemed as set forth in Section 2.9.

Section 7.3 Conditions Precedent to the Obligations of Premier. The obligation of Premier to consummate this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction of each of the following conditions prior to or as of the Closing, except to the extent that any such condition shall have been waived by Premier in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4 herein:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties: All of the representations and warranties of Fulton as set forth in this Agreement, all of the information contained in its Schedules hereto and all Fulton Closing Documents (as defined in Section 7.3(g) of this Agreement) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing as if made on such date (or on the date to which it relates in the case of any representation or warranty which expressly relates to an earlier date).

(b) Covenants Performed: Fulton shall have performed or complied in all material respects with each of the covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by Fulton.

(c) Opinion of Counsel for Fulton: Premier shall have received an opinion from Barley, Snyder, Senft & Cohen, LLC, counsel to Fulton, dated the Effective Time, in substantially the form of Exhibit F hereto. (d) Fulton Options: Fulton Stock Options shall have been substituted for the Premier Options pursuant to Section 2.3 herein. The Fulton Stock Option agreements shall have been delivered and the Registration Statement for the purpose of registering the shares necessary to satisfy Fulton's obligation with respect to the issuance of Fulton Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of the Fulton Stock Options shall have been declared effective.

(e) No Material Adverse Change: Premier (together with its accountants, if the advice of such accountants is deemed necessary or desirable by Premier) shall have established to its reasonable satisfaction that, since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have been any material and adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities, business or operations or future prospects of Fulton. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Additional Fulton Financial Statements (as defined in Section 6.3) shall indicate that the consolidated financial condition, assets, liabilities and results of operations of Fulton as of the respective dates reported therein do not vary adversely in any material respect from the consolidated financial condition, assets, liabilities and results of operations presented in the Fulton Balance Sheet. For purposes of this Section 7.3(e), a material and adverse change shall mean an event, change, or occurrence which, individually or together with any other event, change, or occurrence, has a material adverse impact on (i) the financial position, business or results of operations or future prospects of Fulton or (ii) the ability of Fulton to perform its obligations under this Agreement, provided that material and adverse change shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) changes in banking and similar laws of general applicability or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (b) changes in GAAP or regulatory accounting principles generally applicable to banks and their holding companies, (c) changes in economic conditions generally affecting financial institutions including changes in the general level of interest rates, and (d) the direct effects of compliance with this Agreement and of satisfying or causing to be satisfied the conditions set forth in this Article VII on the operating performance of Fulton, including reasonable expenses incurred by Fulton in consummating the transactions contemplated by the Agreement. At the Closing, Fulton shall deliver to Premier a certificate confirming the absence of a material adverse change described herein and a certificate (from appropriate officers of Fulton and/or Fulton's transfer agent) as to the issued and outstanding shares of Fulton Common Stock, shares of Fulton Common Stock reserved for issuance upon the exercise of stock options, under Fulton's Employee Stock Purchase Plan, under Fulton's Dividend Reinvestment Plan and under Fulton's Shareholders Rights Plan, any outstanding obligations, options or rights of any kind entitling persons to purchase or sell any shares of Fulton's Common Stock and any outstanding securities or other instruments of any kind that are convertible into such shares.

(f) Fairness Opinion: Premier shall have obtained from Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., or from another independent financial advisor selected by the Board of Directors of Premier, an opinion dated within five (5) days of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be furnished to the Board of Directors of Premier stating that the Conversion Ratio contemplated by this Agreement is fair to the shareholders of Premier from a financial point of view.

(g) Closing Documents: Fulton shall have delivered to Premier: (i) a certificate signed by Fulton's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (or other officer reasonably acceptable to Premier) verifying that, to their knowledge, all of the representations and warranties of Fulton set forth in this Agreement are true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing and that Fulton has performed in all material respects each of the covenants required to be performed by Fulton; and (ii) such other certificates and documents as Premier and its counsel may reasonably request (all of the foregoing certificates and documents being herein referred to as the Fulton Closing Documents).

ARTICLE VIII TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time before the Effective Time (whether before or after the authorization, approval and adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of Premier) as follows:

(a) Mutual Consent: This Agreement may be terminated by mutual consent of the parties upon the affirmative vote of a majority of each of the Boards of Directors of Premier and Fulton, followed by written notices given to the other party.

Table of Contents

(b) Unilateral Action by Fulton: This Agreement may be terminated unilaterally by the affirmative vote of the Board of Directors of Fulton, followed by written notice given promptly to Premier, if: (i) there has been a material breach by Premier of any representation, warranty or material failure to comply with any covenant set forth in this Agreement and such breach has not been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach has been given by Fulton to Premier; (ii) any condition precedent to Fulton's obligations as set forth in Article VII of this Agreement remains unsatisfied, through no fault of Fulton, on September 30, 2003; provided, that such date may be extended until December 31, 2003 by Premier by written notice to Fulton (given not later than September 15, 2003) if the Closing shall not have occurred because of failure to obtain approval from one or more regulatory authorities whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement; or (iii) Fulton's Board of Directors makes an election provided for in Section 5.7(e)(i) herein.

(c) Unilateral Action By Premier: This Agreement may be terminated unilaterally by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors of Premier, followed by written notice given promptly to Fulton, if: (i) there has been a material breach by Fulton of any representation, warranty or material failure to comply with any covenant set forth in this Agreement and such breach has not been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach has been given by Premier to Fulton; (ii) any condition precedent to Premier's obligations as set forth in Article VII of this Agreement remains unsatisfied, through no fault of Premier, on September 30, 2003; provided, that such date may be extended until December 31, 2003 by Fulton by written notice to Premier (given not later than September 15, 2003) if the Closing shall not have occurred because of failure to obtain approval from one or more regulatory authorities whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement; or (iii) Premier's Board of Directors makes an election provided for in, and subject to the conditions of, Section 5.7(e)(ii) herein.

(d) Market Price of Fulton Common Stock. Premier shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, through a resolution adopted by its Board of Directors, if the Closing Market Price is both less than (A) $11.18, i.e., $.60 multiplied by the Starting Price (the Floor Price) and (B) the amount per share equal to (x) the Starting Price multiplied by (y) .80 multiplied by (z) the quotient of the Average NASDAQ Bank Index for the Price Determination Period (the numerator) over the NASDAQ Bank Index on the Pre-Announcement Date (the denominator). Thus, for example, assuming the Average NASDAQ Bank Index for the Price Determination Period reflects a decline of 30% from the Starting Date, (A) would be $11.18 and (b) would be $10.44 ($18.64 x .80 x .70) and the Closing Market Price would be required to be $10.44 or lower for Premier to have the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(d).

(i) For purposes of this Section 8.1(d), (A) Pre-Announcement Date shall mean January 15, 2003, i.e., the business day immediately preceding the date of this Agreement, and (B) Starting Price shall mean $18.64, i.e., the last sale price for Fulton Common Stock on the Pre-Announcement Date as reported on NASDAQ.

(ii) The Starting Price, the Closing Market Price, the Floor Price and the other amounts above shall be appropriately adjusted for an event described in Section 2.1(b) herein.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) Effect. In the event of a permitted termination of this Agreement under Section 8.1 herein, the Agreement shall become null and void and the transactions contemplated herein shall thereupon be abandoned, except that the provisions relating to limited liability and confidentiality set forth in Sections 8.2(b) and 8.2(c) herein shall survive such termination.

(b) Limited Liability. Subject to the terms of the Warrant Agreement and the Warrant, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms of Section 8.1 herein shall create no liability on the part of either party, or on the part of either party's directors, officers, shareholders, agents or representatives, except that if this Agreement is terminated by Fulton by reason of a material breach by Premier, or if this Agreement is terminated by Premier by reason of a material breach by Fulton, and such breach involves an intentional, willful or grossly negligent misrepresentation or breach of covenant, the breaching party (i.e., Fulton or Premier) shall be liable to the nonbreaching party for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the nonbreaching party in connection with the preparation, execution and attempted consummation of this Agreement, including the reasonable fees of its counsel, accountants, consultants and other advisors and representatives. In no event shall either party's directors, officers, shareholders, agents or representatives have any personal liability for any misrepresentation or breach in connection with this Agreement.

(c) Confidentiality. In the event of a termination of this Agreement, neither Fulton nor Premier nor Premier Bank shall use or disclose to any other person any confidential information obtained by it during the course of its investigation of the other party or parties, except as may be necessary in order to establish the liability of the other party or parties for breach as contemplated under Section 8.2(b) herein.

Section 8.3 Amendment. To the extent permitted by law, this Agreement may be amended at any time before the Effective Time (whether before or after the authorization, approval and adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of Premier), but only by a written instrument duly authorized, executed and delivered by Fulton and by Premier; provided, however, that, except as set forth in Section 8.1(d) herein any amendment to the provisions of Section 2.1 herein relating to the consideration to be received by the former shareholders of Premier in exchange for their shares of Premier Common Stock shall not take effect until such amendment has been approved, adopted or ratified by the shareholders of Premier in accordance with applicable provisions of the BCL.

Section 8.4 Waiver. Any term or condition of this Agreement may be waived, to the extent permitted by applicable federal and state law, by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof at any time before the Effective Time (whether before or after the authorization, approval and adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of Premier) by a written instrument duly authorized, executed and delivered by such party or parties.

ARTICLE IX CLOSING AND EFFECTIVE TIME

Section 9.1 Closing. Provided that all conditions precedent set forth in Article VII of this Agreement shall have been satisfied or shall have been waived in accordance with Section 8.4 of this Agreement, the parties shall hold a closing (the Closing) at the offices of Fulton at One Penn Square, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, within thirty (30) days after the receipt of all required regulatory and shareholder approvals and after the expiration of all applicable waiting periods on a date to be agreed upon by the parties, at which time the parties shall deliver the Premier Closing Documents, the Fulton Closing Documents, the opinions of counsel required by Sections 7.1(d), 7.2(c) and 7.3(c) herein, and such other documents and instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

Section 9.2 Effective Time. Immediately following the Closing, and provided that this Agreement has not been terminated or abandoned pursuant to Article VIII hereof, Fulton and Premier will cause Articles of Merger (the Articles of Merger) to be delivered and properly filed with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (the Department of State). The Merger shall become effective on 11:59 p.m. on the day on which the Closing occurs and Articles of Merger are filed with the Department of State or such later date and time as may be specified in the Articles of Merger (the Effective Time). The Effective Date when used herein means the day on which the Effective Time occurs.

ARTICLE X NO SURVIVAL OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 10.1 No Survival. The representations and warranties of Premier and of Fulton set forth in this Agreement shall expire and be terminated on the Effective Time by consummation of this Agreement, and no such representation or warranty shall thereafter survive. Except with respect to the agreements of the parties which by their terms are intended to be performed either in whole or in part after the Effective Time, the agreements of the parties set forth in this Agreement shall not survive the Effective Time, and shall be terminated and extinguished at the Effective Time, and from and after the Effective Time none of the parties hereto shall have any liability to the other on account of any breach of such agreements.

ARTICLE XI GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 11.1 Expenses. Except as provided in Section 8.2(b) herein, each party shall pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein. For purposes of this Section 11.1 herein, the cost of printing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall be deemed to be an expense of Fulton.

Section 11.2 Other Mergers and Acquisitions. Subject to the right of Premier to refuse to consummate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(i) herein by reason of a material breach by Fulton of the warranty and representation set forth in Section 4.7 herein, nothing set forth in this Agreement shall be construed: (i) to preclude Fulton from acquiring, or to limit in any way the right of Fulton to acquire, prior to or following the Effective Time, the stock or assets of any other financial services institution or other corporation or entity, whether by issuance or exchange of Fulton Common Stock or otherwise; (ii) to preclude Fulton from issuing, or to limit in any way the right of Fulton to issue, prior to or following the Effective Time, Fulton Common Stock, Fulton Preferred Stock or any other equity or debt securities; or (iii) to preclude Fulton from taking, or to limit in any way the right of Fulton to take, any other action not expressly and specifically prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

WARRANT AGREEMENT

THIS WARRANT AGREEMENT is made as of January 16, 2003, by and between FULTON FINANCIAL CORPORATION, a Pennsylvania corporation (FULTON) and PREMIER BANCORP, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation (PREMIER).

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, Fulton and Premier are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger on the date hereof (the Merger Agreement) (capitalized terms used herein which are not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement);

WHEREAS, it is a condition to execution of the Merger Agreement, that Premier issue to Fulton, on the terms and conditions set forth herein, a warrant entitling Fulton to purchase up to an aggregate of 835,000 shares of Premier's common stock, $0.33 par value per share (the Common Stock); and

WHEREAS, Premier wishes to issue to Fulton the warrant described below in connection with the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the execution of the Merger Agreement and the premises herein contained, and intending to be legally bound, Fulton and Premier agree as follows:

1. Issuance of Warrant. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Premier shall issue to Fulton a warrant in the form attached as Schedule 1 hereto (the Warrant, which term as used herein shall include any warrant or warrants issued upon transfer or exchange of the original Warrant) to purchase up to 835,000 shares of Common Stock (but in any event not to exceed 19.99% of the outstanding Common Stock taking into consideration shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrant but excluding any other unissued shares of such corporation which may be issuable pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon exercise of conversion or option rights, or otherwise), subject to adjustment as provided in this Agreement and in the Warrant. The Warrant shall be exercisable at a purchase price of $17.85 per share, i.e., the last sale price of the Common Stock on January 15, 2003, as reported by AMEX, subject to adjustment as provided in the Warrant (the Exercise Price). So long as the Warrant is outstanding and unexercised, Premier shall at all times maintain and reserve, free from preemptive rights, such number of authorized but unissued shares of the Common Stock as may be necessary so that the Warrant may be exercised, without any additional authorization of the Common Stock, after giving effect to all other options, warrants, convertible securities and other rights to acquire shares of the Common Stock. Premier represents and warrants that it has duly authorized the execution and delivery of the Warrant and this Agreement and the issuance of the Common Stock upon exercise of the Warrant. Premier covenants that the shares of the Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrant shall be, when so issued, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and subject to no preemptive rights. The Warrant and the shares of the Common Stock to be issued upon exercise of the Warrant are hereinafter collectively referred to, from time to time, as the Securities. So long as the Warrant is owned by Fulton, the Warrant will in no event be exercised for more than that number of shares of the Common Stock equal to 835,000 (subject to adjustment as provided in the Warrant) less the number of shares of Common Stock at the time owned by Fulton.

2. Assignment, Transfer, or Exercise of Warrant.

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

(a) Subject to paragraph 2(b) below, Fulton will not sell, assign, transfer or exercise the Warrant, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of Premier except upon or after the occurrence of any of the following prior to termination of the Warrant under Section 9 therein: (i) a breach by Premier of any covenant set forth in the Merger Agreement and which would permit a termination of the Merger Agreement by Fulton pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i) which occurs following a bona fide proposal from any financially capable person (other than Fulton) to engage in an Acquisition Transaction; (ii) the failure of Premier's shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement at a meeting called for such purpose if at the time of such meeting there has been an announcement by any financially capable Person (other than Fulton) of a bona fide offer or proposal to effect an Acquisition Transaction and such offer or proposal has not been publicly withdrawn prior to mailing of the notice of the Premier shareholder meeting; (iii) the acquisition by any Person of Beneficial Ownership of 25% or more of the Common Stock (before giving effect to any exercise of the Warrant); (iv)(A) any Person (other than Fulton) shall have commenced a tender or exchange offer, or shall have filed an application with an appropriate bank regulatory authority with respect to an Acquisition

Table of Contents

Transaction and, (B) within six (6) months from such offer or filing, such person consummates an Acquisition Transaction; (v) Premier shall have entered into an agreement, letter of intent, or other understanding with any Person (other than Fulton) providing for such Person to engage in an Acquisition Transaction; and/or (vi) termination of the Merger Agreement by Fulton under Section 8.1(b)(iii) or termination of the Merger Agreement by Premier under Section 8.1(c)(iii). As used in this Paragraph 2, the terms Beneficial Ownership and Person shall have the respective meanings set forth in Paragraph 7(f). For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction shall mean (x) a merger or consolidation or statutory share exchange or any similar transaction involving Premier or a Premier Subsidiary, (y) a purchase, lease or other acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of Premier or a Premier Subsidiary or (z) a purchase or other acquisition of beneficial ownership of securities representing 25% or more of the voting power of Premier or a Premier Subsidiary.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Premier shall not be obligated to issue Shares upon exercise of the Warrant (i) in the absence of any required governmental or regulatory approval or consent necessary for Premier to issue the Shares or for Fulton to exercise the Warrant or prior to the expiration or termination of any waiting period required by law or (ii) so long as any injunction or other order, decree or ruling issued by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction is in effect that prohibits the sale or delivery of the Shares. Any sale, assignment or transfer of the Warrant, in whole or in part, or any sale, assignment or transfer of the Shares by Fulton, other than a sale to a directly-owned subsidiary of Fulton, shall be subject to the right of first refusal of Premier (or any assignee or assignees of Premier) at a price equal to the written offer price that Fulton receives from a third party (other than a directly-owned subsidiary of Fulton) and intends to accept. The right of first refusal shall terminate 15 days after notice of Fulton's intention to sell has been delivered to Premier. If an offer is made for a consideration that, in whole or in part, consists of other than cash, the value of the non-cash portion of the consideration shall be determined by a recognized investment banking firm selected jointly by Fulton and Premier, and the determination shall in no event be made later than the fifth day after notice of Fulton's intention to sell has been delivered to Premier. In the event of the failure or refusal of Premier to purchase the Warrant or all the Shares covered by Fulton's notice to sell, Fulton may, within 30 days from the date of the notice, unless additional time is needed to give notification to or to obtain approval from any governmental or regulatory authority and, if so required, within five days after the date on which the required notification period has expired or been terminated or the approval has been obtained and any requisite waiting period with respect thereto has passed, sell all, but not less than all, of the portion of the Warrant or the Shares covered by the notice to the proposed transferee at no less than the price specified and on terms no more favorable to the buyer than those set forth in the notice.

3. Registration Rights. If, at any time within one year after the Warrant may be exercised or sold, Premier shall receive a written request therefor from Fulton, Premier shall prepare and file a registration statement (the Registration Statement) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), covering the Warrant and/or the Common Stock issued or issuable upon exercise of the Warrant (the Securities), and shall use its best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective and remain current for such period not in excess of 180 days from the day such registration statement first becomes effective as may be reasonably necessary to affect such sale or other disposition. Without the prior written consent of Fulton, neither Premier nor any other holder of securities of Premier may include such securities in the Registration Statement. The foregoing notwithstanding, if, at the time of any request by Fulton for registration of Common Stock as provided above, Premier is in registration with respect to an underwritten public offering by Premier of shares of Common Stock, and if in the good faith judgment of the managing underwriter or managing underwriters, or, if none, the sole underwriter or underwriters, of such offering, the offer and sale of the Common Stock covered by this Warrant Agreement would interfere with the successful marketing of the shares of Common Stock offered by Premier, the number of shares of Common Stock otherwise to be covered in the registration statement contemplated hereby may be reduced; provided, however, that after any such required reduction, the number of shares of Common Stock to be included in such offering for the account of Fulton shall constitute at least 25% of the total number of shares to be sold by Fulton and Premier in the aggregate; and provided further, however, that if such reduction occurs, then Premier shall file a registration statement for the balance as promptly as practicable thereafter as to which no reduction pursuant to this Section 3 shall be permitted or occur and Fulton shall thereafter be entitled to one additional registration and the one (1) year period referred to in the first sentence of this section shall be increased to two (2) years. Fulton shall provide all information reasonably requested by Premier for inclusion in any registration statement to be filed hereunder. If requested by Fulton in connection with such registration, Premier shall become a party to any underwriting agreement relating to the sale of such shares, but only to the extent of obligating itself in respect to representations, warranties, indemnities and other agreements customarily included in such underwriting agreements for Premier.

4. Duties of Premier upon Registration. If and whenever Premier is required by the provisions of Paragraph 3 of this Agreement to effect the registration of any of the Securities under the Securities Act, Premier shall:

(a) prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) such amendments to the Registration Statement and supplements to the prospectus contained therein as may be necessary to keep the Registration Statement effective and current;

(f) prepare and file with the SEC, promptly upon the request of Fulton, any amendments or supplements to the Registration Statement or the prospectus contained therein which, in the opinion of counsel for Fulton, are required under the Securities Act or the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC thereunder in connection with the public offering of the Securities;

(g) prepare and promptly file with the SEC such amendments of or supplements to the Registration Statement or the prospectus contained therein as may be necessary to correct any statements or omissions if, at the time when a prospectus relating to such Securities is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, any event shall have occurred as the result of which such prospectus as then in effect would include an untrue statement of a material fact or would omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(h) advise Fulton, promptly after Premier shall receive notice or obtain knowledge of the issuance of any stop order by the SEC suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for that purpose, and promptly use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal if such stop order should be issued; and

(i) at the request of Fulton, furnish on the date or dates provided for in the underwriting agreement: (i) an opinion or opinions of counsel for Premier for the purposes of such registration, addressed to the underwriters and to Fulton, covering such matters as such underwriters and Fulton may reasonably request and as are customarily covered by issuer's counsel at that time; and (ii) a letter or letters from the independent accountants for Premier, addressed to the underwriters and to Fulton, covering such matters as such underwriters or Fulton may reasonably request, in which letters such accountants shall state (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) that they are independent accountants within the meaning of the Securities Act and that, in the opinion of such accountants, the financial statements and other financial data of Premier included in the Registration Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto comply in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements of the Securities Act.

5. Expenses of Registration. With respect to the registration requested pursuant to Paragraph 3 of this Agreement, (a) Premier shall bear all registration, filing and AMEX fees, printing and engraving expenses, fees and disbursements of its counsel and accountants and all legal fees and disbursements and other expenses of Premier to comply with state securities or blue sky laws of any jurisdictions in which the Securities to be offered are to be registered or qualified; and (b) Fulton shall bear all fees and disbursements of its counsel and accountants, underwriting discounts and commissions, transfer taxes for Fulton and any other expenses incurred by Fulton.

6. Indemnification. In connection with any Registration Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto:

(a) Premier shall indemnify and hold harmless Fulton, any underwriter (as defined in the Securities Act) for Fulton, and each person, if any, who controls Fulton or such underwriter (within the meaning of the Securities Act) from and against any and all loss, damage, liability, cost or expense to which Fulton or any such underwriter or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such loss, damage, liability, cost or expense arises out of or is caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the Registration Statement, any prospectus or preliminary prospectus contained therein or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arises out of or is based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that Premier will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, damage, liability, cost or expense arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission so made in conformity with information furnished by Fulton, such underwriter or such controlling person in writing specifically for use in the preparation thereof.

(b) Fulton shall indemnify and hold harmless Premier, any underwriter (as defined in the Securities Act), and each person, if any, who controls Premier or such underwriter (within the meaning of the Securities Act) from and against any and all loss, damage, liability, cost or expense to which Premier or any such underwriter or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such loss, damage, liability, cost or expense arises out of or is caused by any untrue or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in the Registration Statement, any prospectus or preliminary prospectus contained therein or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arises out of or is based upon the omission or the alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was so made in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished by Fulton specifically for use in the preparation thereof.

(c) Promptly after receipt by any party which is entitled to be indemnified, pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (a) or (b) of this Paragraph 6, of any claim in writing or of notice of the commencement of any action involving the subject matter of the foregoing indemnity provisions, such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (a) or (b) of this Paragraph 6, promptly notify the indemnifying party of the receipt of such claim or notice of the commencement of such action, but the omission to so notify the indemnifying party will not relieve it from any liability which it may otherwise have to any indemnified party hereunder. In case any such action is brought against any indemnified party and it notifies the indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, the indemnifying party shall have the right to participate in and, to the extent that it may wish, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party; provided, however, that if the defendants in any action include both the indemnified party or parties and the indemnifying party and there is a conflict of interest which would prevent counsel for the indemnifying party from also representing any indemnified party, such indemnified party shall have the right to select separate counsel to participate in the defense of such indemnified party. After notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party, pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (a) or (b) of this Paragraph 6, for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof, other than reasonable costs of investigation, unless (i) such indemnified party shall have employed separate counsel in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence, (ii) the indemnifying party shall not have employed counsel satisfactory to the indemnified party to represent the indemnified party within a reasonable time after the notice of the commencement of the action, or (iii) the indemnifying party has authorized the employment of counsel for the indemnified party at the expense of the indemnifying party.

(d) If recovery is not available under the foregoing indemnification provisions, for any reason other than as specified therein, any party entitled to indemnification by the terms thereof shall be entitled to obtain contribution with respect to its liabilities and expenses, except to the extent that contribution is not permitted under Section 11(f) of the Securities Act. In determining the amount of contribution to which the respective parties are entitled there shall be considered the parties' relative knowledge and access to information concerning the matter with respect to which the claim was asserted, the opportunity to correct and/or prevent any statement or omission, and any other equitable considerations appropriate under the circumstances. Fulton and Premier agree that it would not be equitable if the amount of such contribution were determined by pro rata or per capita allocation even if the underwriters and Fulton as a group were considered a single entity for such purpose.

(a) From and after the date on which any event described in Paragraph 2 of this Agreement occurs, the Holder as defined in the Warrant (which shall include a former Holder), who has exercised the Warrant in whole or in part shall have the right to require Premier to purchase some or all of the shares of Common Stock for which the Warrant was exercised at a redemption price per share (the Redemption Price) equal to the highest of: (i) 110% of the Exercise Price, (ii) the highest price paid or agreed to be paid for any share of Common Stock by an Acquiring Person (as defined below) during the one year period immediately preceding the date of redemption, and (iii) in the event of a sale of all or substantially all of Premier's assets or all or substantially all of a subsidiary of Premier's assets: (x) the sum of the price paid in such sale for such assets and the current market value of the remaining assets of Premier as determined by a recognized investment banking firm selected by such Holder and reasonably acceptable to Premier, divided by (y) the number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding. If the price paid consists in whole or in part of securities or assets other than cash, the value of such securities or assets shall be their then current market value as determined by a recognized investment banking firm selected by the Holder and reasonably acceptable to Premier.

(b) From and after the date on which any event described in Paragraph 2 of this Agreement occurs, the Holder as defined in the Warrant (which shall include a former Holder), shall have the right to require Premier to repurchase all or any portion of the Warrant at a price (the Warrant Repurchase Price) equal to the product obtained by multiplying: (i) the number of shares of Common Stock represented by the portion of the Warrant that the Holder is requiring Premier to repurchase, times (ii) the excess of the Redemption Price over the Exercise Price.

(c) The Holder's right, pursuant to this Paragraph 7, to require Premier to repurchase a portion or all of the Warrant, and/or to require Premier to purchase some or all of the shares of Common Stock for which the Warrant was exercised, shall expire on the close of business on the 180th day following the occurrence of any event described in Paragraph 2.

(d) The Holder may exercise its right, pursuant to this Paragraph 7, to require Premier to repurchase all or a portion of the Warrant, and/or to require Premier to purchase some or all of the shares of Common Stock for which the Warrant was exercised, by surrendering for such purpose to Premier, at its principal office within the time period specified in the preceding subparagraph, the Warrant and/or a certificate or certificates representing the number of shares to be purchased accompanied by a written notice stating that it elects to require Premier to repurchase the Warrant or a portion thereof and/or to purchase all or a specified number of such shares in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph 7. As promptly as practicable, and in any event within five business days after the surrender of the Warrant and/or such certificates and the receipt of such notice relating thereto, Premier shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Holder: (i) the applicable Redemption Price (in immediately available funds) for the shares of Common Stock which it is not then prohibited under applicable law or regulation from purchasing, and/or (ii) the applicable Warrant Repurchase Price, and/or (iii) if the Holder has given Premier notice that less than the whole Warrant is to be repurchased and/or less than the full number of shares of Common Stock evidenced by the surrendered certificate or certificates are to be purchased, a new certificate or certificates, of like tenor, for the number of shares of Common Stock evidenced by such surrendered certificate or certificates less the number shares of Common Stock purchased and/or a new Warrant reflecting the fact that only a portion of the Warrant was repurchased.

(e) To the extent that Premier is prohibited under applicable law or regulation, or as a result of administrative or judicial action, from repurchasing the Warrant and/or purchasing the Common Stock as to which the Holder has given notice of repurchase and/or redemption, Premier shall immediately so notify the Holder and thereafter deliver or cause to be delivered, from time to time to the Holder, the portion of the Warrant Repurchase Price and/or the Redemption Price which it is no longer prohibited from delivering, within five business days after the date on which Premier is no longer so prohibited; provided, however, that to the extent that Premier is at the time and after the expiration of 25 months, so prohibited from delivering the Warrant Repurchase Price and/or the Redemption Price, in full (and Premier hereby undertakes to use its best efforts to obtain all required regulatory and legal approvals as promptly as practicable), Premier shall deliver to the Holder a new Warrant (expiring one year after delivery) evidencing the right of the Holder to purchase that number of shares of Common Stock representing the portion of the Warrant which Premier is then so prohibited from repurchasing, and/or Premier shall deliver to the Holder a certificate for the shares of Common Stock which Premier is then so prohibited from purchasing, and Premier shall have no further obligation to repurchase such new Warrant or purchase such Common Stock; and provided further, that upon receipt of such notice and until five days thereafter the Holder may revoke its notice of repurchase of the Warrant and/or redemption of Common Stock by written notice to Premier at its principal office stating that the Holder elects to revoke its election to exercise its right to require Premier to repurchase the Warrant and/or purchase the Common Stock, whereupon Premier will promptly redeliver to the Holder the Warrant and/or the certificates representing shares of

to Purchase up to 835,000 Shares of the Common Stock, $0.33 Par Value,

PREMIER BANCORP, INC.

This is to certify that, for value received, FULTON FINANCIAL CORPORATION (FULTON) or any permitted transferee (Fulton or such transferee being hereinafter called the Holder) is entitled to purchase, subject to the provisions of this Warrant and the related Warrant Agreement, each made this day January 16, 2003 (the Warrant Agreement), by and between Fulton and PREMIER BANCORP, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation (PREMIER), at any time on or after the date hereof, an aggregate of up to 835,000 (equal but in any event not to approximately exceed 19.99% of the outstanding Common Stock (defined below) taking into consideration shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant but excluding any other unissued shares of Premier which may be issuable pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon exercise of conversion or option rights, or otherwise) fully paid and non-assessable shares of common stock, $0.33 par value (the Common Stock), of Premier at a price per share equal to $17.85, subject to adjustment as herein provided (the Exercise Price).

1. Exercise of Warrant. Subject to the provisions hereof and the limitations set forth in Paragraph 2 of the Warrant Agreement, which Warrant Agreement was entered into in connection with the Merger Agreement of even date between Fulton and Premier (the Merger Agreement), this Warrant may be exercised in whole or in part or sold, assigned or transferred at any time or from time to time on or after the date hereof. This Warrant shall be exercised by presentation and surrender hereof to Premier at the principal office of Premier, accompanied by (i) a written notice of exercise, (ii) payment to Premier, for the account of Premier, of the Exercise Price for the number of shares of Common Stock specified in such notice, and (iii) a certificate of the Holder specifying the event or events which have occurred and entitle the Holder to exercise this Warrant. The Exercise Price for the number of shares of Common Stock specified in the notice shall be payable in immediately available funds.

Upon such presentation and surrender, Premier shall issue promptly (and within one business day if requested by the Holder) to the Holder or its assignee, transferee or designee the number of shares of Common Stock to which the Holder is entitled hereunder. Premier covenants and warrants that such shares of Common Stock, when so issued, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and free and clear of all liens and encumbrances.

If this Warrant should be exercised in part only, Premier shall, upon surrender of this Warrant for cancellation, execute and deliver a new Warrant evidencing the rights of the Holder thereof to purchase the balance of the shares of Common Stock issuable hereunder. Upon receipt by Premier of this Warrant for exercise, in proper form, and subject to the limitations set forth in paragraph 2 of the Warrant Agreement, the Holder shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such exercise, notwithstanding that the stock transfer books of Premier may then be closed or that certificates representing such shares of Common Stock shall not then be actually delivered to the Holder. Premier shall pay all expenses, and any and all United States federal, state and local taxes and other charges, that may be payable in connection with the preparation, issue and delivery of stock certificates pursuant to this Paragraph 1 in the name of the Holder or its assignee, transferee or designee.

2. Reservation of Shares; Preservation of Rights of Holder.

Premier shall at all times, while this Warrant is outstanding and unexercised, maintain and reserve, free from preemptive rights, such number of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock as may be necessary so that this Warrant may be exercised without any additional authorization of Common Stock after giving effect to all other options, warrants, convertible securities and other rights to acquire shares of Common Stock at the time outstanding. Premier further agrees that (i) it will not, by charter amendment or through reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or sale of assets, or by any other voluntary act or omission, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the covenants, stipulations or conditions to be observed or performed hereunder or under the Warrant Agreement by Premier, (ii) it will promptly take all action (including (A) complying with all pre-merger notification, reporting and waiting period requirements specified in 15 U.S.C. §18a and the regulations promulgated thereunder and (B) in the event that, under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (12 U.S.C. §1842(a)(3)), or the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978, as amended (12 U.S.C. §1817(j)), prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal

3. Fractional Shares. Premier shall not be required to issue fractional shares of Common Stock upon exercise of this Warrant but shall pay for any fractional shares in cash or by check at the Exercise Price.

4. Exchange or Loss of Warrant. This Warrant is exchangeable, without expense, at the option of the Holder, upon presentation and surrender hereof at the principal office of Premier for other warrants of different denominations entitling the Holder to purchase in the aggregate the same number of shares of Common Stock issuable hereunder. The term Warrant as used herein includes any warrants for which this Warrant may be exchanged. Upon receipt by Premier of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Warrant, and (in the case of loss, theft or destruction) of reasonably satisfactory indemnification, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Warrant, if mutilated, Premier will execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and date.

5. Repurchase. The Holder shall have the right to require Premier to repurchase all or any shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant was exercised or all or any portion of this Warrant under the terms and subject to the conditions of Paragraph 7 of the Warrant Agreement.

6. Adjustment. The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of this Warrant and the Exercise Price shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided in this Paragraph 6.

(A) Stock Dividends, etc.

(1) Stock Dividends. In case Premier shall pay or make a dividend or other distribution on any class of capital stock of Premier in Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be increased by multiplying such number of shares by a fraction of which the denominator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of such distribution and the numerator shall be the sum of such number of shares and the total number of shares of Common Stock constituting such dividend or other distribution, such increase to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following such distribution.

(2) Subdivisions. In case outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be subdivided into a greater number of shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the opening of business on the day following the day upon which such subdivision becomes effective shall be proportionately increased, and, conversely, in case outstanding shares of Common Stock shall each be combined into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the opening of business on the day following the day upon which such combination becomes effective shall be proportionately decreased, such increase or decrease, as the case may be, to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following the date upon which such subdivision or combination becomes effective.

(3) Reclassifications. The reclassification of Common Stock into securities (other than Common Stock) and/or cash and/or other consideration shall be deemed to involve a subdivision or combination, as the case may be, of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such reclassification into the number or amount of securities and/or cash and/or other consideration outstanding immediately thereafter and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be the day upon which such subdivision becomes effective, or the day upon which such combination becomes effective, as the case may be, within the meaning of clause (2) above.

(4) Optional Adjustments. Premier may make such increases in the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant, in addition to those required by this subparagraph (A), as shall be determined by its Board of Directors to be advisable in order to avoid taxation so far as practicable of any dividend of stock or stock rights or any event treated as such for federal income tax purposes to the recipients.

(5) Adjustment to Exercise Price. Whenever the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant is adjusted as provided in this Paragraph 6(A), the Exercise Price shall be adjusted by a fraction in which the numerator is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock issuable prior to the adjustment and the denominator is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock issuable after the adjustment.

B-9

(B) Certain Sales of Common Stock.

(1) Adjustment to Shares Issuable. If and whenever Premier sells or otherwise issues (other than under circumstances in which Paragraph 6(A) applies or pursuant to options to purchase Common Stock that are outstanding on the date hereof or subsequently issued pursuant to Premier stock option or stock purchase plans (including the dividend reinvestment plan in effect on the date hereof), any shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be increased by multiplying such number of shares by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the number shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of such sale or issuance and the numerator of which shall be the sum of such number of shares and the total number of shares constituting such sale or other issuance, such increase to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following such sale or issuance.

(2) Adjustment to Exercise Price. If and whenever Premier sells or otherwise issues any shares of Common Stock (excluding any stock dividend or other issuance not for consideration to which Paragraph 6(A) applies or pursuant to options to purchase Common Stock that are outstanding on the date hereof or subsequently issued pursuant to Premier stock option or stock purchase plans (including the dividend reinvestment plan) in effect on the date hereof), for a consideration per share which is less than the Exercise Price at the time of such sale or other issuance, then in each such case the Exercise Price shall be forthwith changed (but only if a reduction would result) to the price (calculated to the nearest cent) determined by dividing: (i) an amount equal to the sum of (aa) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issue or sale, multiplied by the then effective Exercise Price, plus (bb) the total consideration, if any, received and deemed received by Premier upon such issue or sale, by (ii) the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after such issue or sale.

(C) Definition. For purposes of this Paragraph 6, the term Common Stock shall include (1) any shares of Premier of any class or series which has no preference or priority in the payment of dividends or in the distribution of assets upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Premier and which is not subject to redemption by Premier, and (2) any rights or options to subscribe for or to purchase shares of Common Stock or any stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock (such convertible or exchangeable stock or securities being hereinafter called Convertible Securities), whether or not such rights or options or the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities are immediately exercisable. For purposes of any adjustments made under Paragraph 6(A) as a result of the distribution, sale or other issuance of rights or options or Convertible Securities, the number of Shares of Common Stock outstanding after or as a result of the occurrence of events described in Paragraph 6(A)(1) shall be calculated by assuming that all such rights, options or Convertible Securities have been exercised for the maximum number of shares issuable thereunder. If an adjustment is made at any time because of the subsequent issuance of any right or option described in clause (2) of the first sentence of this Section (B), no adjustment shall be made when shares are subsequently issued; provided further, that no adjustment shall be made for issuances pursuant to options to purchase Common Stock that are outstanding on the date hereof or subsequent issuances of Common Stock pursuant to Premier stock option or stock purchase plans (including the dividend reinvestment plan) in effect on the date hereof.

7. Notice. (A) Whenever the number of shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant is exercisable is adjusted as provided in Paragraph 6, Premier shall promptly compute such adjustment and mail to the Holder a certificate, signed by the principal financial officer of Premier, setting forth the number of shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant is exercisable as a result of such adjustment having become effective.

(B) Upon the occurrence of any event which results in the Holder having the right to require Premier to repurchase shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant was exercised or this Warrant, as provided in Paragraph 7 of the Warrant Agreement, Premier shall promptly notify the Holder of such event; and Premier shall promptly compute the Redemption Price or the Warrant Repurchase Price and furnish to the Holder a certificate, signed by the principal financial officer of Premier, setting forth the Redemption Price or the Warrant Repurchase Price, as applicable, and the basis and computation thereof.

8. Rights of the Holder. (A) Without limiting the foregoing or any remedies available to the Holder, it is specifically acknowledged that the Holder would not have an adequate remedy at law for any breach of the provisions of this Warrant and shall be entitled to specific performance of Premier's obligations under, and injunctive relief against any actual or threatened violation of the obligations of any Person (as defined in Paragraph 7 of the Warrant Agreement) subject to, this Warrant.

(B) The Holder shall not, by virtue of its status as Holder, be entitled to any rights of a shareholder in Premier.

9. Termination. This Warrant and all rights conferred hereby and under the Warrant Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect (i) upon the Effective Time of the Merger provided for in the Merger Agreement, (ii) upon a valid termination of the Merger Agreement (except a termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) of the Merger Agreement) unless an event described in Paragraph 2 of the Warrant Agreement (including the occurrence of an event described in paragraph (iv)(A) therein) occurs prior to such termination in which case this Warrant and the rights conferred hereby, shall not terminate until 12 months after the occurrence of such event, or (iii) to the extent this Warrant has not previously been exercised, 12 months after the occurrence of an event described in Paragraph 2 of the Warrant Agreement (unless termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (other than under Section 8.1(b)(iii) thereof) occurs prior to the occurrence of such event, in which case (ii) above shall apply); except, however, that this Warrant and the Warrant Agreement shall expire and be of no further force and effect as of 5:00 p.m. on December 31, 2004.

10. Governing Law. This Warrant shall be deemed to have been delivered in, and shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the substantive laws of, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In the event of any inconsistency between this Warrant and the terms of the Warrant Agreement, the terms of the Warrant Agreement shall govern.

Opinion of Boenning & Scattergood

[BOENNING & SCATTERGOOD, INC. LETTERHEAD]

May 30, 2003

Board of Directors

Premier Bancorp, Inc.

379 North Main Street

Doylestown, Pennsylvania 18901-3714

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the outstanding shares of the common stock (the "Shares") of Premier Bancorp, Inc. ("Premier") of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger by and between Premier and Fulton Financial Corporation ("Fulton"). The terms of the proposed merger (the "Proposed Merger") by and between Fulton and Premier are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of January 16, 2003 (the "Merger Agreement") and provide that each Share will be converted into the right to receive 1.407 shares of common stock of Fulton (the "Exchange Ratio") with cash paid in lieu of any fractional shares.

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of asset and security transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Boenning may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Premier and Fulton. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning & Scattergood may actively trade the securities of Premier and Fulton for its own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Boenning & Scattergood serves as a market maker in Fulton's common stock. Boenning has been engaged from time to time in other consulting engagements for Premier.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of Premier and Fulton and reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of Premier and Fulton, (ii) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (iii) reviewed and analyzed the stock market performance of Premier and Fulton, (iv) studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of Premier and Fulton, (v) considered the terms and conditions of the Proposed Merger between Premier and Fulton as compared with the terms and conditions of comparable bank, bank holding company and financial holding company mergers and acquisitions, (vi) met and/or communicated with certain members of Premier's and Fulton's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements and future prospects, (vii) reviewed this proxy statement/prospectus and (viii) conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

Our opinion is given in reliance on information and representations made or given by Premier and Fulton, and their respective officers, directors, auditors, counsel and other agents, and on filings, releases and other information issued by Premier and Fulton including financial statements, financial projections, and stock price data as well as certain information from recognized independent sources. We have not independently verified the information concerning Premier and Fulton nor other data which we have considered in our review and, for purposes of the opinion set forth below, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and data. We have not conducted any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities of Premier or Fulton, nor have any valuations or appraisals been provided to us. Additionally, we assume that the Proposed Merger is, in all respects, lawful under applicable law.

With regard to financial and other information relating to the general prospects of Premier or Fulton, we have assumed that such information has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of Premier and Fulton as to their most likely future performance and the cost savings and other potential synergies (including the amount, timing and achievability thereof) anticipated to result from the Proposed Merger. For Premier and Fulton, we have assumed the allowance for loan losses indicated on the balance sheets of each entity is adequate to cover such losses; we have not reviewed individual loans or credit files of either Premier or Fulton. Also, in rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the Proposed Merger no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Proposed Merger to Premier or Fulton or, on a pro forma basis, the resulting company following the Proposed Merger.

Our opinion is based upon information provided to us by the management of Premier and Fulton, as well as market, economic, financial and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated only as of the date hereof and speaks to no other period. Our opinion pertains only to the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Shares in the Proposed Merger, is for the information of Premier's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Proposed Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Premier and does not constitute a recommendation to Premier shareholders as to how such shareholders should vote on the Proposed Merger. We are not expressing any opinion as to the actual value of Fulton common stock when issued pursuant to the Proposed Merger or the prices at which Fulton common stock will trade subsequent to the Proposed Merger.

Based on the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof that the Exchange Ratio offered pursuant to the Merger Agreement, is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Shares.

Sincerely,

BOENNING & SCATTERGOOD, INC.

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Pennsylvania law provides that a Pennsylvania corporation may indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents of the corporation against liabilities they may incur in such capacities for any action taken or any failure to act, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under any provision of law, unless such action or failure to act is determined by a court to have constituted recklessness or willful misconduct. Pennsylvania law also permits the adoption of a bylaw amendment, approved by shareholders, providing for the elimination of a director's liability for monetary damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action unless (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his office and (2) the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness.

The bylaws of Fulton Financial provide for (1) indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents of the registrant and its subsidiaries and (2) the elimination of a director's liability for monetary damages, to the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law.

Directors and officers are also insured against certain liabilities for their actions, as such, by an insurance policy obtained by Fulton Financial.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any fact or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information to be included in a post-effective amendment by these paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

Edgar Filing: FULTON FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(d) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the bylaws of the registrant, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
