TAMPA, FL and NOVATO, CA December 2, 2003 Kforce Inc. (NASDAQ: KFRC) and Hall, Kinion & Associates, Inc. (NASDAQ: HAKI), announced that they have executed an Agreement and Plan of Merger today. The merger, which is to be accomplished through a stock-for-stock exchange, is expected to further establish Kforce as a premier provider of professional staffing and will provide candidates and clients with expanded market presence and an enhanced ability to provide the right match.

The combined companies will operate from approximately 80 offices in 45 markets. As of today, the combined annual revenue run rate is in excess of $650 million with approximately 1,400 staff and 8,000 consultants on assignment at over 3,000 clients.

This merger is about the combined capabilities of two organizations focused on delivering the right match through exceptional customer service to our clients and candidates, said David L. Dunkel, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Kforce Inc. We expect shareholders to gain from the diversity of revenues and increased earnings momentum. Clients and candidates will benefit from one of the most extensive professional staffing firms in the nation with a strong commitment to exceptional service. Hall Kinion® brings a very talented and entrepreneurial team that shares Kforce's belief that great people equal great results. We welcome Hall Kinion into the Kforce family.

Joining Kforce is a great opportunity for our shareholders, our customers and our employees alike, stated Brenda C. Rhodes, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hall Kinion. Our shareholders will participate in the expected overall growth of the combined entity. Our customers will continue to receive the level of exceptional customer service they have come to expect while benefiting from the expanded Kforce line of staffing services. Our employees will benefit from the enhanced career opportunities that come from being part of a larger organization. We are very excited to become part of the Kforce team.

Stronger Market Presence

Brenda Rhodes and her management team at Hall Kinion have built a highly successful business that has grown organically and through successfully integrated acquisitions. Their talented sales professionals with their commitment to deliver exceptional service will be an excellent match with our sales team and culture. We believe our complementary strengths in technology and financial services, products and clientele will provide opportunities for growth and cross-selling across the client spectrum, Dunkel added.

The Hall Kinion brand is highly regarded in IT staffing and particularly in serving clients on the West Coast. Their sales professionals have developed expertise and resources in products and geographies that are complementary to ours. Together, this will result in an IT staffing capability that will more effectively differentiate our value proposition, Dunkel stated.

Hall Kinion's OnStaff division, which is active in consumer finance and mortgage driven clients, will complement our finance and accounting teams with little overlap. We believe the combination will provide both business units the platform to satisfy clients and candidates with an expanded portfolio of product offerings to achieve the right match. We expect OnStaff will continue to manage its business by investing in and introducing new products and services that leverage its existing infrastructure, Dunkel continued.

Improved Revenues and Earnings

We believe the combined company will feature higher revenue levels and improved earnings momentum. We also believe the merger will allow Kforce, which has emerged in recent years as a leader in creating operating leverage as evidenced by Kforce's industry leading DSO's (days sales outstanding) and SGA expense levels, to continue to apply this expertise at scale, said Bill Sanders, Chief Operating Officer. Furthermore, we believe that economies of scale, process improvements and the elimination of public company and other administrative costs will result in significant overall cost savings and will improve cash flow. We expect no sales associates to be eliminated as a result of the transaction. Also, a number of corporate opportunities may be available to those willing to relocate to Tampa.

The merger should be accretive in 2004. We expect the integration to be completed in the first half of 2004 and thereafter to contribute to the earnings momentum that we have created this year, Sanders stated.

Additionally, we believe the proposed transaction has the potential to offer substantial value creation for the shareholders of both companies. The merger will improve Kforce's liquidity and trading fundamentals creating a stronger public company with better capital market access, Sanders added.

Financial Terms and other Information

Edgar Filing: HALL KINION & ASSOCIATES INC - Form 425

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Kforce will acquire all of the shares of Hall Kinion in exchange for shares of Kforce common stock. The definitive exchange ratio is dependent upon the average of the closing prices of Kforce common stock for the 15 trading days ending on and including the third trading day prior to the closing date (such average is referenced herein as the Kforce stock market value). If the Kforce stock market value is equal to or greater than $7.09, but less than $9.60, then the exchange ratio will equal .60, which will result in Hall Kinion stockholders owning approximately 19.5% of the fully-diluted outstanding shares of Kforce common stock following the merger. If the Kforce stock market value is equal to or greater than $9.60, then the exchange ratio will be $5.75 divided by the Kforce stock market value. If the Kforce stock market value is less than $7.09, then the exchange ratio will be $4.25 divided by the Kforce stock market value. Kforce may elect to terminate the merger agreement if Hall Kinion's consolidated revenues for the fourth quarter of 2003 are below $34 million or if the Kforce average closing stock price remains below $6.00 for 15 consecutive trading days at any time prior to the closing. The proposed transaction requires and is subject to the approval by both Kforce shareholders and Hall Kinion shareholders and certain regulatory clearances, including effectiveness of a registration statement registering the common stock to be issued to Hall Kinion shareholders and other customary closing conditions. The merger has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both Kforce and Hall Kinion. Lehman Brothers provided a fairness opinion to Kforce in this transaction, while Robert W. Baird & Co. Incorporated advised and provided a fairness opinion to Hall Kinion.

Kforce intends to file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4, which will include a joint proxy statement/prospectus of Kforce and Hall Kinion in connection with the proposed transaction. The joint proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to the Kforce shareholders and Hall Kinion shareholders. Investors and shareholders of Kforce and Hall Kinion are urged to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available because it will contain important information about Kforce, Hall Kinion and the transaction.
