Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 20, 2005, during a conference call concerning second quarter 2005 earnings and forward-looking statements for fiscal year 2005 of K2 Inc. (K2), and in connection with filing its earnings release on July 20, 2005 on a current report on Form 8-K, K2 provided the following information in response to questions from investors and analysts:

Management believes that in 2005, worldwide pre-season sales of skis is down approximately 10% to 15% when compared to the same period in 2004. However, sales of K2® andVölkl® skis are down less than 10% to 15%.

Management expects that SG&A as a percentage of sales for K2 will decrease in the third and fourth quarter 2005 when compared to the same period in 2004.

Management believes that retail sales in the paintball market is 25% to 30% lower in the first half of 2005 when compared to the same period in 2004 and that Brass Eagle is expected to increase its market share in 2005.

The above statements include forward-looking statements. K2 cautions that these statements are qualified by important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, including but not limited to K2's ability to successfully execute its acquisition plans and growth strategy, integration of acquired businesses, weather conditions, consumer spending, continued success of manufacturing in China, global economic conditions, product demand, financial market performance, and other risks described in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K, subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and current reports on Form 8-K, each as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company cautions that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive, any forward-looking statements included in this report is made as of the date of the statement, and the Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement.
