Item 8.01. Other Events

A preliminary prospectus supplement, dated January 24, 2006, to the prospectus contained in our Registration Statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-122149), contained an updated description of certain risks related to the acquisition of Maxtor Corporation by Seagate (the Maxtor Merger Risk Factors). We are filing the Maxtor Merger Risk Factors as Exhibit 99.1 hereto for the purpose of updating the risk factor disclosure contained in our public filings.

In addition, the preliminary prospectus supplement disclosed that a purported class action suit had been filed against Maxtor and its directors alleging self-dealing and breach of fiduciary duty in connection with the proposed sale of Maxtor to Seagate, and that the action was seeking equitable relief, including an injunction against Seagate's acquisition of Maxtor as well as the creation of a constructive trust to benefit the plaintiffs. The preliminary prospectus supplement also described that Maxtor was filing a Current Report on Form 8-K describing certain litigation related to the Merger. Item 8.01 of the Maxtor Corporation Current Report on Form 8-K, filed today states:

On January 20, 2006, Theodore F. Vahl (the Plaintiff) commenced a purported shareholder class action lawsuit in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Santa Clara, against Maxtor Corporation (the Company), the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and certain members of the Company's Board of Directors (the Complaint). The Complaint alleges that the defendants violated their fiduciary duties in connection with the proposed merger of the Company with Seagate Technology. A copy of the Complaint is attached hereto as an exhibit.

The Company believes that the lawsuit is without merit and intends to vigorously defend it. The Company is unable to predict the outcome of the action or the length of time it will take to resolve the action.

The Company does not intend to file further current reports on Form 8-K describing additional lawsuits, if any, purporting class action status, in either federal or state court, which are based on allegations substantially similar to those contained in the complaint described herein.
