Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 30, 2008, Microtune, Inc. (the Company) announced that it has reached a settlement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) relating to the Company's historical stock option granting practices. The Company has agreed to settle with the SEC, without admitting or denying the allegations in the SEC's complaint, by consenting to the entry of a permanent injunction against future violations of the federal securities laws. The Company was not required to pay any civil penalty or other money damages as part of the settlement.

On June 30, 2008, the Company also announced that the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas entered a final judgment on June 27, 2008, dismissing the stockholder derivative lawsuit entitled Peter A. Pedroli v. Douglas J. Bartek, et al. (Case No. 4:07-CV-43), filed on January 31, 2007 against the Company, as a nominal defendant, and certain of the Company's current and former officers and directors.

Prior to the dismissal of the litigation, on May 21, 2008, Mr. Pedroli made a demand on the Board of Directors that the Company take certain actions related to the Company's historical stock option granting practices. The Board of Directors is evaluating this demand.

Additional information regarding the SEC settlement and the derivative litigation is contained in the press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
