ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

Issuance of Senior Notes

On June 26, 2008, Alliance Resource Partners, L.P. (the Partnership) wholly-owned subsidiary, Alliance Resource Operating Partners, L.P. (the Intermediate Partnership) entered into a Note Purchase Agreement (the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement) with various institutional purchasers under which the Intermediate Partnership issued $205 million aggregate principal amount of its Series A Senior Notes and $145 million aggregate principal amount of its Series B Senior Notes.

The Series A and Series B Senior Notes (collectively, the 2008 Senior Notes) are non-amortizing notes and bear interest at the rate of 6.28% per annum, in the case of the Series A Senior Notes, and 6.72% per annum, in the case of the Series B Senior Notes. Interest on both the Series A and Series B Senior Notes is payable semi-annually, with principal due upon maturity. The Series A Senior Notes mature on June 26, 2015, and the Series B Senior Notes mature on June 26, 2018. The Intermediate Partnership has the option to prepay the 2008 Senior Notes at any time in whole or in part subject to terms and conditions (including a make-whole payment) described in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement. Upon a change in control (as defined in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement), the Intermediate Partnership must offer to prepay the 2008 Senior Notes at a price equal to the principal amount of the 2008 Senior Notes plus accrued interest, but without any make-whole payment.

The 2008 Note Purchase Agreement requires the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries to maintain (i) a consolidated debt to consolidated cash flow (as defined in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement) ratio of not more than 3.5 to 1.0 (or, under certain limited circumstances and for a certain limited period of time, 4.0 to 1.0) and (ii) a ratio of consolidated cash flow to consolidated interest expense (as defined in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement) during the four most recently ended fiscal quarters of not less than 3.5 to 1.0. The 2008 Note Purchase Agreement contains certain other restrictive covenants that, among other things, limit or restrict the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries' ability to incur indebtedness (in addition to the restrictions set forth in the financial ratios described above), create liens on their assets, enter into mergers or consolidations, transfer assets, make investments in other persons or pay dividends. In addition, the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement requires the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries to comply with certain affirmative covenants, including the requirement to keep under the control of the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries a certain minimum amount of mineable tons of coal.

The 2008 Note Purchase Agreement contains customary provisions regarding events of default which would permit the holders of the 2008 Senior Notes to declare the 2008 Senior Notes to be immediately due and payable if not cured within applicable grace periods, including but not limited to failure to make timely payments on the 2008 Senior Notes or the failure to comply with covenants or representations in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement.

Each of the present subsidiaries of the Intermediate Partnership is a guarantor of the 2008 Senior Notes under a Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, dated as of June 26, 2008 (the "Subsidiary Guaranty"). Under the Subsidiary Guaranty, each such present subsidiary has unconditionally guaranteed payments due under the 2008 Senior Notes, including certain other additional expenses that may be incurred. Any new subsidiaries may in the future become parties to the Subsidiary Guaranty.

The net proceeds from the offering of the 2008 Senior Notes will be used to repay a portion of the amounts outstanding under the Intermediate Partnership's revolving credit facility, to pay expenditures associated with the development of the Intermediate Partnership's River View Coal, LLC mining complex, to pay expenses associated with the offering of the 2008 Senior Notes and for other general working capital requirements.

A copy of the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Amendment to Prior Note Purchase Agreement

On June 26, 2008 and in conjunction with the issuance of the 2008 Senior Notes, the Intermediate Partnership entered into a First Amendment (the "First Amendment") to the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of August 16, 1999 (the "1999 NPA"), under which the Intermediate Partnership (as successor in interest to Alliance Resource GP, LLC) has issued $180 million in original aggregate principal amount of its 8.31% Senior Notes (the "1999 Senior Notes") due August 20, 2014. The First Amendment was entered into primarily for the purpose of conforming the affirmative and negative covenants contained in Sections 9 and 10 of the 1999 NPA to the corresponding affirmative and negative covenants contained in the 2008 Note Purchase Agreement. The First Amendment did not change the amount due, interest rate, maturity date or interest payment dates applicable to the 1999 Senior Notes.

The First Amendment amends the financial ratios contained in Section 10.1 of the 1999 NPA to provide for (A) a ratio of consolidated cash flow to consolidated interest expense (as defined in the First Amendment) during the four most recently ended fiscal quarters of not less than 3.5 to 1.0 and (B) a ratio of consolidated debt to consolidated cash flow (as defined in the First Amendment) of not more than 3.5 to 1.0 (or, under certain limited circumstances and for a certain limited period of time, 4.0 to 1.0).

The First Amendment also:

- (i) amends the 1999 NPA by requiring the Intermediate Partnership to offer to prepay the 1999 Senior Notes upon a change in control (as defined in the 1999 NPA) at a price equal to the principal amount of the 1999 Senior Notes plus accrued interest, but without any make-whole payment;
- (ii) modifies certain of the affirmative covenants contained in Section 9 of the 1999 NPA, including the covenants relating to (A) the maintenance of insurance on its and its subsidiaries' properties and business, (B) the payment of taxes and (C) the maintenance of its legal existence of that of its subsidiaries;

(iii) modifies certain of the negative covenants contained in Section 10 of the 1999 NPA (in addition to the financial ratios, as described above), including the covenants relating to (A) the making of dividends and distributions, including as to the timing of the making of distributions by the Intermediate Partnership, (B) restrictions on the right of the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries to enter into other agreements that limit a subsidiary's ability to pay dividends to or make advances to or investments in the Intermediate Partnership, (C) the sale or transfer of assets (increasing the amount of assets the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries shall have the right to sell in a 365-day period to 15% the consolidated total assets of the Intermediate Partnership from 10%), (D) the nature of the businesses in which the Intermediate Partnership and its subsidiaries may engage, and (E) transactions entered into with its affiliates;

(iv) increases to $25 million from $10 million the dollar threshold for cross defaults under the 1999 NPA triggered by a default in the payment of other indebtedness or a default in the payment of unsatisfied legal judgments or orders; and

(v) adds certain new defined terms to, and amends certain existing defined terms in, the 1999 NPA.

A copy of the First Amendment is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. A copy of the 1999 NPA was filed on March 29, 2000 as Exhibit 10.2 to the Partnership's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1999.
