ITEM 3.01. NOTICE OF DELISTING OR FAILURE TO SATISFY A CONTINUED LISTING RULE OR STANDARD; TRANSFER OF LISTING.

On October 22, 2008, Oscient Pharmaceuticals Corporation (the Company) received notification from the Listings Qualifications Department of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (NASDAQ) announcing that, given the current extraordinary market conditions, the NASDAQ had suspended the enforcement of the rules requiring a minimum market value of publicly held shares (MVPHS) and a minimum $1 closing bid price, effective immediately. NASDAQ will not take any action to delist any security for these requirements during the suspension period, which will remain in effect through Friday, January 16, 2009. These rules will be reinstated on Monday, January 19, 2009.

On October 2, 2008, the Company received notice from the NASDAQ that its MVPHS had closed below the minimum $15 million threshold set forth in Marketplace Rule 4450(b)(3) and that the Company had 90 calendar days, or until January 2, 2009, to regain compliance with the MVPHS requirement. The Company will now have until April 7, 2009 to regain compliance by evidencing a minimum $15 million MVPHS for 10 consecutive business days. If the Company does not regain compliance with the minimum MVPHS requirement by April 7, 2009, the Company will receive written notification of delisting from NASDAQ and at that time will be entitled to request a hearing before a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel to present its plan to regain compliance with the MVPHS requirement.

On October 21, 2008, the Company launched a proposed exchange offer with the holders of its 3.50% Convertible Senior Notes due 2011. The Company has filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to the proposed exchange offer. As stated in the registration statement, the Company believes the exchange offer is an important component of its plan to reduce the Company's overall debt level and to re-calibrate its capital structure in order to better execute the Company's business strategy. The Company also believes completion of the exchange offer may enable it to evidence compliance with NASDAQ's minimum MVPHS requirement; however, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to do so.
