Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer Listing.

On February 10, 2009, Trans-India Acquisition Corp. (Trans-India) received notice from the NYSE Alternext US LLC (NYSE Alternext US) advising it that it does not meet certain of the continued listing standards as set forth in the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide. Specifically, NYSE Alternext US notified Trans-India that it was not in compliance with Section 704 of the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide, as Trans-India had failed to hold an annual meeting of stockholders during 2008.

As previously announced, Trans-India intends to convene a special meeting of its stockholders on March 10, 2009 to vote on a plan of liquidation and dissolution of the company. Trans-India intends to submit a plan to NYSE Alternext US by March 10, 2009 that will request that NYSE Alternext US continue its listing until after the special meeting, at which time, assuming the company's stockholders approve the liquidation and dissolution of the company, Trans-India will return the amount in its trust account to its stockholders and its securities will cease trading.

If Trans-India does not submit a plan or if the plan is not accepted by NYSE Alternext US, Trans-India will be subject to delisting procedures at set forth in Section 1010 and Part 12 of the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide. Under NYSE Alternext US rules, Trans-India has the right to appeal any determination by NYSE Alternext US to initiate delisting proceedings.

Trans-India issued a press release that discloses receipt of the NYSE Alternext US notice discussed above and the fact that it is not in compliance with certain listing standards. A copy of that press release is attached as an exhibit to this report.
