(e) On March 28, 2012, the independent Directors of the Board of Directors ( Board ) of Chevron Corporation ( Chevron ) approved a $100,000 increase to the annual base salary of J.S. Watson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, resulting in an annual base salary of $1,700,000, and ratified the decision of the Management Compensation Committee of the Board to increase the annual base salary of P.E. Yarrington, Chevron's Chief Financial Officer, by $70,000, resulting in an annual base salary of $930,000, and to increase the annual base salary of the following executives who are named in the Summary Compensation Table in Chevron's 2011 Proxy Statement: G.L. Kirkland, increase of $100,000, resulting in an annual base salary of $1,400,000; M.K. Wirth, increase of $45,000, resulting in an annual base salary of $1,000,000; and R.H. Pate, increase of $42,000, resulting in an annual base salary of $781,000. These base salary increases will be effective April 1, 2012.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

(a) On March 28, 2012, the Board amended Article VII of the By-Laws of Chevron ( By-Law Amendment ), effective on that date. Article VII, which the board originally adopted on September 29, 2010, designated the Delaware Court of Chancery as the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative litigation brought on behalf of the company, (ii) any litigation concerning the fiduciary duties of the company's officers and directors, (iii) any litigation arising out of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or (iv) any other litigation involving claims concerning Chevron's internal affairs. The original by-law was designed to save Chevron and its stockholders from the increased expense of defending against duplicative litigation brought in multiple courts, and also to provide that claims involving Delaware law are decided by Delaware Courts.

The By-Law Amendment is consistent with this purpose and serves to clarify and refine two aspects of Article VII. First, the By-Law Amendment makes clear that the forum for such litigation includes any state or federal court in the State of Delaware, rather than just the Delaware Court of Chancery, in order to ensure the effectiveness of the by-law in light of the Court of Chancery's jurisdictional limitations. Second, the By-Law Amendment makes clear that Article VII will not apply where the Delaware courts cannot obtain personal jurisdiction over an indispensable party named as a defendant, so that stockholders retain the right to sue outside of Delaware when a case does not involve Delaware law and/or jurisdiction cannot be obtained in Delaware.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

This Current Report on Form 8-K may be deemed to be solicitation material in respect of the solicitation of proxies from stockholders for Chevron's 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting ). Chevron will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) and make available to its stockholders a proxy statement containing information about Chevron and the matters to be considered at the Annual Meeting. CHEVRON STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT (INCLUDING ANY AMENDMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS THERETO) AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS THAT CHEVRON WILL FILE WITH THE SEC WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Chevron stockholders will also be able to obtain the proxy statement, as well as other filings containing information about Chevron, without charge at the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>) and at Chevron's website (<http://www.chevron.com>). This information can also be found in Chevron's proxy statement for its 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which was filed with the SEC on April 14, 2011. To the extent that holdings of Chevron's securities have changed since the amounts printed in the proxy statement for its 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, such changes have been or will be reflected on Statements of Change in Ownership on Form 4 filed with the SEC.
