Item 1. Security and Issuer.

The class of securities to which this statement relates is the Common Shares of BlackBerry Limited ( BlackBerry ), without par value (the Shares ). The address of the principal executive office of BlackBerry is 295 Philip Street, Waterloo, Ontario N2L 3W8.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following text immediately prior to the last paragraph of Item 4 and by deleting in its entirety such last paragraph of Item 4:

On November 4, 2013, BlackBerry entered into an agreement (the Subscription Agreement) pursuant to which Fairfax and other institutional investors (collectively, the Purchasers) will invest in BlackBerry through a U.S.$1 billion private placement of 6% unsecured subordinated convertible debentures (the Debentures) convertible into Shares of BlackBerry at a price of U.S.$10.00 per Share (the Transaction). The Debentures have a term of seven years. Fairfax has agreed to acquire U.S.$250 million principal amount of the Debentures. The Transaction is expected to be completed within the next two weeks. Either BlackBerry or any Purchaser may terminate the Subscription Agreement if the Transaction has not closed on or prior to November 27, 2013. BlackBerry will use the funds raised for general corporate purposes.

Upon the closing of the Transaction, John Chen will be appointed Executive Chair of BlackBerry's Board of Directors. Prem Watsa, Chairman and CEO of Fairfax, will be appointed Lead Director and Chair of the Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee.

The closing of the transaction is subject to customary conditions, including approval of the issuance of the Debentures and the listing of the underlying Shares by the Toronto Stock Exchange and approval of the listing of the underlying Shares by the NASDAQ Global Select Market, in each case without the requirement to seek the approval of BlackBerry's shareholders. Closing is also conditioned on the appointment of John Chen and Prem Watsa to the BlackBerry Board of Directors, as described above.

Pursuant to the Subscription Agreement, Fairfax has an option to arrange for the purchase up to an additional U.S.$250 million principal amount of the Debentures within 30 days following closing.

The Subscription Agreement terminates the letter of intent entered into between Fairfax and BlackBerry on September 23, 2013 (the LOI ).

The Subscription Agreement also requires BlackBerry to pay a fee to the Purchasers in certain circumstances, including if BlackBerry enters into a binding written agreement providing for a transaction that if completed would constitute a Change of Control (as defined in the Subscription Agreement).

BlackBerry also agreed to reimburse Fairfax for certain transaction expenses incurred in connection with the evaluation of the transaction contemplated in the LOI, the negotiation of the LOI and the evaluation and initiation of the issue of the Debentures.

The Subscription Agreement provides that for a period of one year following the closing, neither Fairfax nor its affiliates shall, directly or indirectly and whether alone or by acting jointly or in concert with any other person, in any manner acquire or offer to acquire (whether publicly or otherwise) by any means whatsoever beneficial ownership of any Shares or securities convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, Shares if, following any such acquisition, Fairfax and its affiliates would, in the aggregate, directly or indirectly, together with their joint actors, beneficially own more than 19.9% of the outstanding Shares (assuming, for this purpose, the conversion into, or exchange or exercise for, all securities beneficially owned by Fairfax and its affiliates and their joint actors that are convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, Shares).

It also provides that for a period of one year following the closing, Fairfax and its affiliates shall not, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell, assign, gift, pledge, encumber, hypothecate, mortgage, exchange or otherwise dispose (each, a Transfer ) of any Shares or securities convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, Shares, if after such Transfer, Fairfax and its affiliates would, in the aggregate, directly or indirectly own less than 9.9% of the outstanding Shares (assuming, for this purpose, the conversion into, or exchange or exercise for, all securities beneficially owned by Fairfax and its affiliates and their joint actors that are convertible into, or exchangeable or exercisable for, Shares).

The forgoing description of the Subscription Agreement does not comport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Subscription Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 3 and incorporated herein by reference.

Subject to the contractual limitations described in this Item 4 above, one or more entities within the Fairfax Group of Companies, including one or more of the Reporting Persons, may, depending upon price, market conditions, availability of funds, evaluation of alternative investments, the financial exposure of the Fairfax Group of Companies to BlackBerry and other factors, determine to purchase additional Shares, Debentures or other securities of BlackBerry, or sell Shares, Debentures or other securities of BlackBerry, in the open market or otherwise.
