CALL-CENTER Q&A

Q: Why did I receive an e-mail referring to SSGA FUNDS - ETF FUNDS 2014 Consent Solicitation of Shareholders and participation in an exchange offer for trust-preferred securities ?

A: The e-mail should have referred to your vote on the proposals to amend the Trust Indenture of the SPDR® Gold Trust. We apologize for any confusion this caused and urge you to review the materials and vote accordingly.

Q: Was the email a mistake?

A: The email was authorized to be sent but included some erroneous information. This had no impact on the voting system and enclosed link, however.

Q: Am I required to do anything?

A: Your action is important. You should review the materials and vote via the provided link, if you haven't already done so.

OR I can take your vote now and a confirmation of your vote will be sent to you.

Q: I voted in response to the original e-mail. Is my vote valid and accurate?

A: Yes, your vote was recorded accurately and is valid.

Q: Was the online voting system wrong?

A: The earlier voting link was correct. If you voted after receiving the email, your vote was recorded accurately and is valid.

Q: Can I check or change my vote?

A: You can use the link to re-record your vote and it will update the system accordingly.

OR I can take your vote now and a confirmation of your vote will be sent to you.
