PROXY STATEMENT OF DELAVAN BANCSHARES, INC.

PROSPECTUS OF WINTRUST FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Merger Proposal Your Vote Is Important

DEAR DELAVAN SHAREHOLDERS:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Delavan Bancshares, Inc., which will be held on January 12, 2015, at 2:00 p.m., local time, at the Community Centre, located at 826 East Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115.

At the meeting, you will be asked to adopt the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014, and as it may be amended from time to time, between Delavan and Wintrust Financial Corporation that provides for Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan through the merger of Delavan with and into Wintrust Merger Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. Delavan is the parent company of Community Bank CBD. The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock, no par value per share, and 50% will be paid in cash.

The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, par value $1.00 per share, will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. The merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, and the exchange ratio will not be determined until after the date of the special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, you will not know the precise value of the merger consideration you may receive on the date the merger is completed.

Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of approximately $46.04, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of November 25, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock would be $50.80 in cash and 1.104 shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50, we estimate that Wintrust may issue up to 500,000 shares of Wintrust common stock to Delavan shareholders as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Wintrust common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, under the symbol WTFC. The closing price of Wintrust common stock on November 25, 2014 was $45.58 per share.

The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote adopt the merger agreement. Your board of directors has unanimously adopted the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014 and as it may be amended from time to time and recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, at the special meeting. Your board of directors also unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, and FOR the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby and appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent.

Additional information regarding the merger, the merger agreement, Delavan and Wintrust is set forth in the attached proxy statement/prospectus. This document also serves as the prospectus for up to 525,000 shares of Wintrust common stock that may be issued by Wintrust in connection with the merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 18.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Murphy
President and Chief Executive Officer
Delavan Bancshares, Inc.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to vote on? What is the proposed transaction?

A: You are being asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement that provides for Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan through the merger of Delavan with and into Wintrust Merger Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. Upon completion of the merger, all shares of Delavan common stock will be cancelled and you will become a shareholder of Wintrust. You are also being asked to vote on the approval of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, with respect to taking any and all actions specified or contemplated by the merger agreement on behalf of all Delavan shareholders.

Q: What will Delavan shareholders be entitled to receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive cash and shares of Wintrust common stock (in each case subject to possible adjustment). The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

For each of your shares of Delavan common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration to be calculated as set forth in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock outstanding remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of approximately $46.04, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of November 25, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock would be $50.80 in cash and 1.104 shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. For a description of how the per share merger consideration will be calculated, see "Description of the Merger Agreement - Consideration to be received in the merger" on page 48.

In addition, the merger consideration may be adjusted downward if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date of the merger reflects that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration on page 50.

Q: What will holders of Delavan options be entitled to receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Q: Why do Delavan and Wintrust want to engage in the merger?

A: Delavan believes that the merger will provide Delavan shareholders with substantial benefits and that it presents the best option to maximize shareholder value, and Wintrust believes that the merger will further its strategic growth plans by allowing it to expand its presence in southeastern Wisconsin. As a larger company, Wintrust can provide greater capital and resources and efficiencies from integrating the operations of Community Bank CBD, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Delavan, into Wintrust's existing operations and allow Community Bank to compete more effectively and to offer a broader array of products and services to better serve its banking customers. To review the reasons for the merger in more detail, see "The Merger" Wintrust's reasons for the merger on page 41 and "The Merger" Delavan's reasons for the merger and recommendation of the board of directors on page 39.

Q: What does the Delavan board of directors recommend?

A: Delavan's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" adoption of the merger agreement, as amended on November 19, 2014 and as it may be amended from time to time, "FOR" the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders' Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders' Agent, and "FOR" the approval to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and appointment of the Shareholders' Agent and the Alternate Shareholders' Agent. Delavan's board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders. To review the background and reasons for the merger in greater detail, see "The Merger" beginning on page 27.

Q: What vote is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: Holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of the merger. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against the adoption of the merger agreement. On October 13, 2014, all of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock agreed to vote their shares at the special meeting in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These shareholders and their affiliates owned approximately 28% of Delavan common stock outstanding as of September 30, 2014. Wintrust's shareholders will not be voting on the merger agreement. See The Merger Interests of certain persons in the merger on page 45 and The Merger Voting agreement on page 45.

Q: What vote is required to appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against appointment of Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent. If a shareholder does not vote in favor of appointing Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto as Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as Alternate Shareholders Agent, but Mr. Murphy and Mr. Saer nonetheless receive the approval of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, Mr. Murphy and any successors thereto will serve as the Shareholders Agent for all shareholders upon adoption of the merger agreement, including Mr. Saer as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, regardless of whether a particular shareholder may have voted for such individuals to serve in that capacity.

Q: What vote is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby?

A: The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies, requires the affirmative vote of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, if a quorum is present at the special meeting. In the absence of a quorum, holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting may adjourn the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the effect of votes against the proposal.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Delavan's shareholders are being asked to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. If you do not submit your proxy by mail or vote in person at the special meeting, it will be more difficult for Delavan to obtain the necessary quorum to hold the special meeting. In addition, your failure to submit your proxy or attend the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement and make it more difficult to obtain adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What do I need to do now? How do I vote?

A: You may vote at the special meeting if you own shares of Delavan common stock of record at the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, December 2, 2014. After you have carefully read and considered the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote in person at the special meeting. If you do not return a properly executed proxy form and do not vote at the special meeting, this will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

A: If you complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form, your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and send in your proxy form, but you do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR adoption of the merger agreement and the other proposals in the notice.

Q: Can I revoke my proxy and change my vote?

A: You may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by filing with the secretary of Delavan a duly executed revocation of proxy or submitting a new proxy form with a later date. You may also revoke a prior proxy by voting in person at the special meeting.

Q: What if I oppose the merger? Do I have dissenters rights?

A: Delavan shareholders who do not vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with all of the procedures of Sections 18.1301 through 180.1331 of the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law, which we refer to as the WBCL, will be entitled to receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares of Delavan common stock as ultimately determined under the statutory process. A copy of these sections of the WBCL is attached as Annex B to this document.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: In general, the conversion of your shares of Delavan common stock into Wintrust common stock in the merger will be tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes. However, you generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount limited to the amount of cash you receive in the merger. Additionally, you will recognize gain or loss on any cash that you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Wintrust's common stock. You should consult with your tax adviser for the specific tax consequences of the merger to you. See "The Merger" Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger on page 41.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The Delavan special meeting will take place on January 12, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. local time, at the Community Centre, located at 826 East Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115.

Q: Who may attend the meeting?

A: Delavan shareholders on the record date may attend the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you may need to present proof of identification in order to be admitted into the meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, the exchange agent for the merger will send you a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send in your stock certificates to the exchange agent. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange your Delavan stock certificates for the merger consideration. Do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy form.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We will try to complete the merger as soon as reasonably possible. Before that happens, the merger agreement must be adopted by Delavan's shareholders and we must obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. Assuming shareholders vote to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement and we obtain the other necessary approvals and satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the closing described in the merger agreement, we expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2015. See "Description of the Merger Agreement" Conditions to completion of the merger on page 55.

Q: Is completion of the merger subject to any conditions besides shareholder approval?

A: Yes. The transaction must receive the required regulatory approvals, and there are other closing conditions that must be satisfied. See Description of the Merger Agreement Conditions to completion of the merger on page 55.

Q: Are there risks I should consider in deciding to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Yes, in evaluating the merger agreement, you should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the factors discussed in the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page 18.

Q: Who can answer my other questions?

A: If you have more questions about the merger or how to submit your proxy, or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy form, or you need more information about Delavan, you should contact Michael J. Murphy, Delavan's President and Chief Executive Officer, or Jon Martin, Delavan's Chief Financial Officer, at (866) 848-2265.

Delavan is not a public company and, accordingly, there is no established trading market for Delavan common stock, par value $1.00 per share, which we refer to as Delavan common stock.

The merger and the merger agreement (See page 48)

Wintrust's acquisition of Delavan is governed by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 13, 2014, by and among Wintrust, Merger Co. and Delavan, as amended on November 19, 2014, which we refer to as the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that, if all of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, Delavan will be merged with and into Merger Co. and will cease to exist, which we refer to as the merger. After the consummation of the merger, Merger Co. will continue as the surviving corporation and remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. The merger agreement is included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and fully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

What Delavan shareholders will receive (See page 48)

If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock that you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive a combination of cash and shares of Wintrust common stock (in each case subject to possible adjustment). The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

For each of your shares of Delavan common stock, you will receive the per share merger consideration to be calculated as set forth in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio used to determine the number of shares of Wintrust common stock that you will be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock will be determined based on the average high and low sale price of Wintrust common stock as reported on NASDAQ, which we refer to as the reference price, during the 10 trading day period ending on the second trading day prior to completion of the merger, which we refer to as the reference period, subject to a minimum and maximum reference price equal to $39.50 and $49.50, respectively. Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of approximately $46.04, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of November 25, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, would be $50.80 in cash and 1.104 shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock. For a description of how the per share merger consideration will be calculated, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger.

Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days' notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

In addition, the merger consideration may be adjusted downward if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date of the merger, which we refer to as the closing date, reflects that Delavan's shareholders equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration.

Table of Contents

Delavan shareholders will not receive fractional shares of Wintrust common stock. Instead, they will receive a cash payment for any fractional shares based on the value of Wintrust common stock.

Treatment of Delavan options (See page 51)

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Exchange of certificates (See page 51)

Once the merger is complete, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, which we refer to as the exchange agent, will mail you materials and instructions for exchanging your Delavan stock certificates for shares of Wintrust common stock to be issued by book-entry transfer. You should not send in your Delavan stock certificates with your completed proxy card. Instead, you should wait until you receive the transmittal materials and instructions from the exchange agent.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger (See page 41)

Your receipt of shares of Wintrust common stock as part of the merger consideration generally will be tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes. However, you generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount limited to the amount of cash you receive in the merger. Additionally, you will recognize gain or loss on any cash that you receive in lieu of fractional shares of Wintrust common stock. You are urged to consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger to you.

Reasons for the merger (See page 39)

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders, has unanimously adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

In its deliberations and in making its determination, Delavan's board of directors considered numerous factors, including the following:

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of Delavan and Wintrust, both individually and as a combined company;

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Delavan's operation as an independent banking organization, including the risks and uncertainties related to the continuing low-interest rate environment, competition in Delavan's market area, increased regulatory costs and increased capital requirements;

based on the closing price of Wintrust common stock on October 10, 2014 and Delavan's June 30, 2014 unaudited balance sheet, the aggregate merger consideration was priced at a multiple of 1.4 times the tangible common book value and at a multiple of 1.4 times the common book value;

the opinion of Robert W. Baird & Co. Incorporated, which we refer to as Baird, subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in such fairness opinion, that the per share merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock;

the value to be received by Delavan's shareholders in the merger as compared to shareholder value projected for Delavan as an independent entity;

the market value of Wintrust common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement and the prospects for future appreciation as a result of Wintrust's strategic initiatives;

Wintrust's strategy to seek profitable future expansion in Delavan's trade area, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value;

the fact that Wintrust is publicly held and the merger would provide access to a public trading market for Delavan's shareholders whose investments currently are in a privately held company, as well as enhanced access to capital markets to finance the combined company's capital requirements; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

Wintrust's board of directors concluded that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the merger, Wintrust's board of directors considered a number of factors, including:

management's view that the acquisition provides an attractive opportunity for Wintrust to expand in the southeastern part of Wisconsin;

Delavan's community banking orientation and its compatibility with Wintrust and its subsidiaries;

a review of the demographic, economic and financial characteristics of the markets in which Delavan operates, including existing and potential competition and history of the market areas with respect to financial institutions;

management's review of Delavan's business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality of Community Bank;

efficiencies to come from integrating certain of Delavan's operations into Wintrust's existing operations; and

Board recommendation to Delavan's shareholders (See page 39)

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger of Delavan with Wintrust is in the best interests of Delavan and its shareholders. Delavan's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger.

Table of Contents

Fairness opinion of Delavan's financial advisor (See page 30)

In deciding to approve the merger, Delavan's board of directors considered, among other things, the opinion of Baird as of October 13, 2014 that the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock. You should read the full text of the fairness opinion, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D, to understand the assumptions made, limits of the reviews undertaken and other matters considered by Baird in rendering its opinion.

Interests of officers and directors of Delavan, Community Bank, and its subsidiaries in the merger may be different from, or in addition to, yours (See page 45)

When you consider the Delavan board of directors' recommendation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of Delavan's, Community Bank's, or its subsidiaries' directors and officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as shareholders. Delavan's board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in approving the merger. For example, Community Bank entered into an employment agreement with Michael J. Murphy in connection with Delavan's entry into the merger agreement, pursuant to which he will be employed as President of Community Bank upon the consummation of the merger.

Wintrust has also agreed to pay for directors' and officers' liability insurance covering the directors and officers of Delavan and Community Bank immediately prior to the consummation of the merger, subject to limits on availability and cost, for up to six years.

As of September 30, 2014, Delavan's directors and executive officers owned, in the aggregate, 113,593 shares of Delavan's common stock, representing approximately 30% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock. Mr. Murphy also holds options to purchase 7,250 shares of Delavan common stock. Jon E. Martin, Delavan's Chief Financial Officer, and Michael R. Ploch, Delavan's Senior Vice President - Commercial Lending, are also entitled to stock appreciation rights in amounts equal to approximately $171,000 and $195,000, respectively, (assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50) pursuant to the Delavan Bancshares, Inc. 2008 Stock Appreciation Right Plan. All such stock appreciation rights outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will vest and become payable at the effective time.

Delavan shareholders will have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger (See page 46)

Delavan shareholders may dissent from the merger and, upon complying with the requirements of the WBCL, receive cash in the amount of the fair value of their shares instead of the merger consideration.

A copy of the section of the WBCL pertaining to dissenters' rights is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the statute carefully and consult with your legal counsel if you intend to exercise these rights.

The merger and the performance of the combined company are subject to a number of risks (See page 18)

There are a number of risks relating to the merger and to the businesses of Wintrust, Delavan and the combined company following the merger. See the Risk Factors beginning on page 18 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of these and other risks and see also the documents that Wintrust has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which we refer to as the SEC, and which we have incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Delavan shareholder approval will be required to complete the merger and approve the other proposals set forth in the notice (See page 25)

To adopt the merger and approve the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as Alternate Shareholders Agent, at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock

In the absence of a quorum, the holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy may adjourn the special meeting. To satisfy the quorum requirements set forth in Delavan's by-laws, shareholders holding at least 51% of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting. As of September 30, 2014, these shareholders and their affiliates owned 106,562 shares, constituting approximately 28% of the shares then outstanding. See "The Merger Voting agreement" on page 45.

The special meeting of shareholders will be held at the Community Centre, located at 826 East Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115 on January 12, 2015 at 2:00 p.m., local time. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, and to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary.

Record date for the special meeting; revocability of proxies (See pages 25 and 26)

You will have one vote for each share of Delavan common stock you owned on that date. You may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by filing with the secretary of Delavan a duly executed revocation of proxy or submitting a new proxy form with a later date. You may also vote in person at the special meeting.

Completion of the merger is subject to regulatory approvals (See page 44)

The merger cannot be completed until Wintrust receives the necessary regulatory approval of each of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions. Wintrust submitted an application with each of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions on October 20, 2014.

Certain differences in Wintrust shareholder rights and Delavan shareholder rights (See page 62)

Certain of these differences are described in detail in the section entitled Comparison of rights of Wintrust shareholders and Delavan shareholders beginning on page 62. (1) Net revenue is net interest income plus non-interest income.

(2) See Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Financial Measures/Ratios of Wintrust's 2013 Form 10-K for a reconciliation of this performance measure/ratio to GAAP.

(3) The net overhead ratio is calculated by netting total non-interest expense and total non-interest income, annualizing this amount, and dividing by that period's total average assets. A lower ratio indicates a higher degree of efficiency.

(4) The efficiency ratio is calculated by dividing total non-interest expense by tax-equivalent net revenue (less securities gains or losses). A lower ratio indicates more efficient revenue generation.

(5) The allowance for credit losses includes both the allowance for loan losses and the allowance for unfunded lending-related commitments, but excludes the allowance for covered loan losses.

(6) Total shareholders' equity minus preferred stock and total intangible assets divided by total assets minus total intangible assets.

(7) Asset quality ratios exclude covered loans.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption "Special Notes Concerning Forward-Looking Statements" on page 22, you should consider the following risk factors carefully in deciding whether to vote for the adoption of the merger agreement. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to Wintrust and Delavan or that are not currently believed to be important to you, if they materialize, also may adversely affect the merger and Wintrust and Delavan as a combined company.

In addition, Wintrust's and Delavan's respective businesses are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the risks and uncertainties described, in the case of Wintrust, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks relating to the merger

Because the market price of Wintrust common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be certain of the precise value of the stock portion of the merger consideration you may receive in the merger.

At the time the merger is completed, each issued and outstanding share of Delavan common stock (other than shares held as treasury stock or otherwise owned by Delavan or Community Bank and shares of Delavan common stock in respect of which dissenters' rights have been properly exercised and perfected) will be converted into the right to receive consideration in the form of Wintrust common stock and cash, subject to adjustment. The exchange ratio for the Wintrust common stock, as calculated in accordance with the formula set forth in the merger agreement, may fluctuate depending on the market price of Wintrust common stock during the reference period.

There will be a time lapse between each of the date on which Delavan shareholders vote to approve the merger and the merger agreement at the special meeting, the date on which the exchange ratio is determined and the date on which Delavan shareholders entitled to receive shares of Wintrust common stock actually receive such shares. The market value of Wintrust common stock may fluctuate during these periods. Consequently, at the time Delavan shareholders must decide whether to approve the merger and the merger agreement, they will not know the actual market value of the shares of Wintrust common stock they will receive when the merger is completed. The actual value of the shares of Wintrust common stock received by the Delavan shareholders will depend on the market value of shares of Wintrust common stock on that date. This market value may be less than the value used to determine the exchange ratio, as that determination will be made with respect to a period occurring prior to the consummation of the merger.

Because the merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment, the value of the merger consideration you may receive in the merger may be less than you expect.

The merger consideration to be received by Delavan shareholders at the closing of the merger is subject to downward adjustment by Wintrust and Delavan if the balance sheet delivered to Wintrust by Delavan as of the closing date reflects that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, or to account for certain environmental conditions that may be discovered in the real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. For a description of the possible adjustment of the merger consideration, see "Description of the Merger Agreement - Consideration to be received in the merger - Adjustment to Merger Consideration" on page 50.

Upon adoption of the merger agreement, the Shareholders' Agent will have the ability to take actions in connection with the merger and the merger agreement on behalf of the Delavan shareholders without further notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders.

In connection with the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger by the Delavan shareholders, if approved at the special meeting by the requisite vote of the Delavan shareholders, Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto will be appointed as the Delavan shareholders' agent and attorney-in-fact, including the appointment of James Saer as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, with respect to any actions specified or contemplated by the merger agreement. The appointment of the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent will constitute the authorization by each holder of Delavan common stock, even if a Delavan shareholder did not vote to approve the merger and thereby appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent. The Shareholders Agent, and if applicable the Alternate Shareholders Agent, may take action or decline to do so as such individual may determine in his or her sole discretion without any notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders, and will be indemnified by the Delavan shareholders in taking or declining such action.

Because there is no public market for the Delavan common stock, it is difficult to determine how the fair value of Delavan common stock compares with the merger consideration.

The outstanding shares of Delavan common stock are privately held and are not traded in any public market. This lack of a public market makes it difficult to determine the fair value of Delavan. Because the merger consideration was determined based on negotiations between the parties, it may not be indicative of the fair value of the shares of Delavan common stock.

The financial forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion, which is summarized beginning on page 30, involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions made by Baird, many of which are beyond the control of Wintrust and Delavan. As a result, they may not prove to be accurate and are not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance of either Wintrust or Delavan.

The financial forecasts of Baird reflected in its fairness opinion, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D, and which is summarized beginning on page 30, involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions made by Baird and are not a guarantee of future performance. The future financial results of Wintrust and Delavan and, if the merger is completed, the combined company, may materially differ from those expressed in the financial forecasts of Baird due to factors that are beyond Wintrust's and Delavan's ability to control or predict. Neither Wintrust nor Delavan can provide any assurance that these financial forecasts will be realized or that Wintrust's or Delavan's future financial results will not materially vary from such financial forecasts. Wintrust did not provide its own financial forecasts and the management of Wintrust did not confirm or otherwise comment with respect to any estimates used by or the financial forecasts of Baird, nor do Wintrust or Delavan undertake to update the forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion. Such financial forecasts cover multiple years, and the information by its nature becomes subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. These financial forecasts do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared.

More specifically, the financial forecasts of Baird:

necessarily make numerous assumptions by Baird, many of which are beyond the control of Wintrust or Delavan and may not prove to be accurate;

do not necessarily reflect revised prospects for Wintrust's or Delavan's businesses, changes in general business or economic conditions, or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the forecasts were prepared;

are not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance, which may be significantly more favorable or less favorable than is reflected in the forecasts; and should not be regarded as a representation that the financial forecasts will be achieved.

The financial forecasts reflected in Baird's fairness opinion were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines of the SEC or the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information or generally accepted accounting principles, which we refer to as GAAP, and do not reflect the effect of any proposed or other changes in GAAP that may be made in the future.

Wintrust may be unable to successfully integrate Delavan's and Community Bank's operations and may not realize the anticipated benefits of acquiring Delavan.

Wintrust and Delavan entered into the merger agreement with the expectation that Wintrust would be able to successfully integrate Delavan's and Community Bank's operations and that the merger would result in various benefits, including, among other things, enhanced revenues and revenue synergies, an expanded market reach and operating efficiencies. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including whether Wintrust integrates and operates Delavan and Community Bank in an efficient and effective manner, and general competitive factors in the market place. The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of one or more of the combined company's businesses or the loss of key personnel. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the integration of the two companies' operations could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition, operating results and prospects of the combined company after the merger. Failure to achieve these anticipated benefits could result in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues and diversion of management's time and energy and could have an adverse effect on the combined company's business, financial condition, operating results and prospects.

Among the factors considered by the boards of directors of Wintrust and Delavan in connection with their respective approvals of the merger agreement were the benefits that could result from the merger. We cannot give any assurance that these benefits will be realized within the time periods contemplated or even that they will be realized at all.

Delavan will be subject to business uncertainties while the merger is pending, which could adversely affect its business.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Delavan, and, consequently, the combined company. Although Delavan intends to take steps to reduce any adverse effects, these uncertainties may impair Delavan's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is consummated and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers and others that deal with Delavan to seek to change their existing business relationships with Delavan. Employee retention at Delavan may be particularly challenging during the pendency of the merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their roles with the combined company following the merger.

Some of the directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries have interests and arrangements that could have affected their respective decision to support or approve the merger.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries in the merger are different from, and may be in addition to, those of Delavan shareholders generally and could have affected their decision to support or approve the merger. These interests include:

the entry into an employment agreement with Michael J. Murphy in connection with the merger, which provides for the payment of severance under certain circumstances;

Wintrust's agreement to provide officers and directors of Delavan with continuing indemnification rights; and Wintrust's agreement to provide directors' and officers' insurance to the officers and directors of Delavan, subject to limits on availability and cost, for up to six years following the merger. In addition, all of the directors of Delavan who own shares of Delavan common stock have entered into a voting agreement that requires them to vote all of their shares of Delavan common stock at the special meeting in favor of the merger agreement and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The voting agreement covers approximately 28% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock as of September 30, 2014.

Table of Contents

As a result, the directors of Delavan may be more likely to recommend to Delavan's shareholders the adoption of the merger agreement than if they did not have these interests.

Risks relating to the businesses of Wintrust and the combined company

Delavan's shareholders will not control Wintrust's future operations.

Currently, Delavan's shareholders own 100% of Delavan and have the power to approve or reject any matters requiring shareholder approval under Wisconsin law and Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws. After the merger, Delavan shareholders are expected to become owners of approximately 1% of the outstanding shares of Wintrust common stock. Even if all former Delavan shareholders voted together on all matters presented to Wintrust's shareholders, from time to time, the former Delavan shareholders most likely would not have a significant impact on the approval or rejection of future Wintrust proposals submitted to a shareholder vote.

Approval of the merger agreement proposal and the proposal to appoint Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including the appointment of James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, each require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote. Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and to appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent requires the affirmative vote of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, if a quorum is present. In the absence of a quorum, holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting may adjourn the special meeting.

Table of Contents

The failure of a Delavan shareholder to vote or to instruct his or her broker, bank or nominee to vote if his or her shares are held in street name, which we refer to as a broker non-vote, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, to appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent and the meeting adjournment proposal. For purposes of the shareholder vote, an abstention, which occurs when a shareholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but indicates on his or her proxy card that he or she is abstaining from voting, will have the same effect as voting against the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, appoint the Shareholders Agent and the Alternate Shareholders Agent and to adjourn the special meeting.

Shares held by Delavan directors; voting agreement

All of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock, whose aggregate ownership represents approximately 28% of the outstanding shares of Delavan common stock as of September 30, 2014, have committed to vote their shares in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Wintrust does not own any shares of Delavan common stock. See The Merger Voting agreement on page 45 for a description of the provisions of the voting agreement.

How to vote

You may vote in person at the special meeting or by proxy. To ensure your representation at the special meeting, we recommend you vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the special meeting. You can always change your vote at the meeting.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy form, which should be returned in the enclosed prepaid envelope. If you properly complete and timely submit your proxy, your shares will be voted as you have directed. You may vote for, against, or abstain with respect to the approval of the merger and the other proposals. If you are the record holder of your shares and submit your proxy without specifying a voting instruction, your shares will be voted as the Delavan board of directors recommends and will be voted FOR adoption of the merger agreement, FOR the appointment of Michael J. Murphy and any successors thereto to serve as the Shareholders Agent upon adoption of the merger agreement, including James Saer to serve as the Alternate Shareholders Agent, and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting to permit further solicitation in the event that an insufficient number of shares are present in person or by proxy to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Revocability of proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

filing with Delavan's secretary a duly executed revocation of proxy; submitting a new proxy with a later date; or voting in person at the special meeting.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. All written notices of revocation and other communication with respect to the revocation of proxies should be addressed to: Delavan Bancshares, Inc., 820 Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115, Attention: J. Edward Clair, Secretary.

Proxy solicitation

In addition to this mailing, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers or employees of Delavan in person or by telephone or electronic transmission. None of such directors, officers or employees will be directly compensated for such services. Delavan will pay the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting.

Other business; adjournments

Delavan is not currently aware of any other business to be acted upon at the Delavan special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, your proxies include discretionary authority on the part of the individuals appointed to vote your shares to act on those matters according to their best judgment.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment may be made from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 51% of the shares of Delavan common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, without further notice other than by announcement at the special meeting.

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes material aspects of the merger. While Wintrust and Delavan believe that the description covers the material terms of the merger and the related transactions, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, the attached Annexes, and the other documents to which this proxy statement/prospectus refers for a more complete understanding of the merger. The agreement and plan of merger attached hereto as Annex A, not this summary, is the legal document which governs the merger.

General

The Delavan board of directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of Delavan common stock for use at the Delavan special meeting, at which Delavan shareholders will be asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. When the merger is consummated, Delavan will merge with and into Merger Co. and will cease to exist. Merger Co. will survive the merger and remain a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust. At the effective time of the merger, holders of Delavan common stock will exchange their shares for cash and shares of Wintrust common stock, subject to adjustment, and holders of Delavan options will exchange such options for Wintrust options. Each share of Delavan common stock will be exchanged for the per share merger consideration, the stock component of which cannot be determined until two trading days before completion of the merger. See Description of the Merger Agreement Consideration to be received in the merger for a detailed description of the method for determining the per share merger consideration.

Only whole shares of Wintrust common stock will be issued in the merger. As a result, cash will be paid instead of any fractional shares based on the reference price of Wintrust's common stock during the reference period. Shares of Delavan common stock held by Delavan shareholders who elect to exercise their dissenters' rights will not be converted into merger consideration.

Delavan's proposals

At the Delavan special meeting, holders of shares of Delavan common stock will be asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. The merger will not be completed unless Delavan's shareholders adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Background of the merger

Delavan's board of directors and senior management regularly review and evaluate Delavan's business, strategic direction, performance, prospects and strategic alternatives. In March 2014, Delavan's President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael J. Murphy, received an unsolicited contact from the chief executive officer of another bank holding company, which we refer to as Company A, regarding a possible strategic transaction between the two organizations. The chief executive officer of Company A requested a copy of Delavan's 2014 budget for the purpose of calculating the pro-forma financial performance of the two companies.

On March 27, 2014, at a board of directors meeting, Mr. Murphy informed Delavan's board about his discussions with Company A and about its request for the 2014 budget information. At the meeting, the board authorized Mr. Murphy to provide Company A with high level 2014 budget information with respect to Delavan and to inform Company A that the parties would need to enter into a confidentiality agreement before further information would be provided. The board and senior management also discussed in depth various strategic options generally available to Delavan, and the pros and cons of each such option: a merger of equals (with concerns raised regarding loss of control, known and hidden credit quality issues of any strategic partner, and the integration of cultures), a sale of Delavan to a larger institution, and remaining an independent organization (with concerns raised regarding increasing banking regulations, increasing cost of compliance, loan growth, the continuing low interest rate environment and decreasing margins). As part of this overall discussion, Delavan's board and senior management also considered the competition in Delavan's primary market, anticipated increases in capital requirements and trends in mergers and acquisitions in the financial services sector.

After the March 27, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy met with management of Company A and was informed that Company A had engaged an investment banker and was interested in further exploring a strategic transaction with Delavan. Management of Company A provided Mr. Murphy with Company A's preliminary view of its valuation of Delavan but stressed that Company A believed that its valuation might increase after it had an opportunity to perform a due diligence review of Delavan. Management of both companies agreed that it would be appropriate and advisable for Delavan to engage its own investment banker to assist it in the process of identifying possible strategic partners and purchasers for Delavan.

Mr. Murphy contacted the members of the Delavan board to discuss the meeting with Company A. The board directed Mr. Murphy to set up a meeting with representatives of Baird. Certain members of Delavan's senior management met with Baird on April 16, 2014. At that meeting, Baird's representatives reviewed with senior management: (i) Baird and Baird's role in transactions of this type; (ii) the current banking M&A landscape and valuations; (iii) Baird's preliminary observations regarding Delavan and Community Bank; (iv) strategic considerations; and (v) a list of potential buyers.

At the board's April 17, 2014 meeting, management provided a copy of the Baird discussion materials to the directors. The board reviewed the materials carefully, and discussed whether to engage Baird. The board determined that the timing was appropriate to engage Baird to represent Delavan as its investment banker and financial advisor and seek out potential parties who might have an interest in a strategic transaction with Delavan. The board also authorized the engagement of Boardman & Clark LLP, which we refer to as Boardman, to provide legal services in connection with this process.

Between the board's April 17 and May 15, 2014 meetings, Mr. Murphy held numerous discussions with representatives of Boardman about the process to be used to identify parties interested in a possible strategic transaction. With the assistance of Boardman, management negotiated and executed the engagement agreement with Baird on April 28, 2014. Shortly after the April 17, 2014 board meeting, Baird began a more comprehensive due diligence review of Delavan and Community Bank, meeting with members of Delavan's management, and began developing confidential marketing materials concerning Delavan. Thereafter, Baird began contacting prospective bidders and distributed confidentiality agreements to those bidders expressing an interest in a possible transaction with Delavan. Baird provided copies of the confidential marketing materials to each party that had executed a confidentiality agreement and worked with potential strategic partners with the goal of receiving initial bids by June 24, 2014. At the May 15, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy provided the board with an update on the current status of the process.

At the June 19, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy reported to the board that Baird had contacted 14 potential merger candidates on behalf of Delavan and that seven merger candidates had executed the confidentiality agreement and received confidential marketing materials with respect to Delavan.

At a meeting of the Delavan board on June 27, 2014, a representative of Baird reviewed the results of the proposal solicitation process with Delavan's board and senior management. Of the seven parties which had executed confidentiality agreements and received copies of the marketing materials, three institutions, including Wintrust and Company A, presented Delavan with non-binding written expressions of interest for a proposed acquisition, subject to due diligence and the negotiation of a definitive agreement, and two parties provided a verbal expression of interest. Baird and the board discussed the price range of each of the proposals received, the form of consideration offered, the reputation of each party, the strategic opportunity offered by each possible transaction and the perceived ability of each party to consummate a transaction. Baird also reviewed with the board recent Midwest transactions in the last 12 months, nationwide transactions during the last six months, and information about the current banking market and valuations. The board members asked Baird questions regarding the expressions of interest and their terms. The board then discussed the advisability of proceeding with a strategic transaction and the relative advantages and disadvantages of the various expressions of interest. The board also discussed the steps required to complete a merger and employee matters. Delavan senior management recommended to the board that Delavan proceed with Wintrust, and allow Wintrust to perform due diligence. The board concluded that, given the relative merits of the proposals presented by Baird, the initial proposal from Wintrust was the most attractive proposal received, as the other expressions of interest included a lower purchase price and/or other less desirable terms. The board unanimously decided that Delavan should move forward by inviting Wintrust to conduct additional due diligence in order to obtain a final bid. Delavan's board determined not to seek additional offers at that time because of the favorable terms of Wintrust's proposal, Delavan's confidence in Wintrust's management team and Baird's prior discussions with other possible transaction partners over the past several months.

In early July 2014, management of Company A again contacted Mr. Murphy about a possible strategic transaction. Mr. Murphy informed Company A that Delavan was working with another potential acquirer because the potential acquirer's valuation of Delavan was higher than the valuation of Company A. Company A then offered to increase its bid, but Mr. Murphy informed Company A that the existing bid received by Delavan was still higher. On July 11, 2014, Baird received a letter of intent from Company A for consideration by the board.

At the July 17, 2014 board meeting, Mr. Murphy provided an update on the due diligence performed by Wintrust on July 16, 2014 and July 17, 2014 and noted that Wintrust was expected to provide the results of its due diligence within a week. In addition, the board discussed at length the letter of intent received from Company A. The board determined to reject Company A's offer because the letter of intent included less favorable terms than Wintrust's offer, and the proposed purchase price was less than Wintrust's bid.

Between July 25, 2014 through the beginning of October 2014, Delavan, Wintrust, and their respective legal advisors at Boardman and Schiff Hardin LLP, which we refer to as Schiff, engaged in extensive due diligence, negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreement to be entered into by certain shareholders of Delavan, and exchanged comments and revised drafts of the agreements. Representatives of Baird facilitated the negotiation of the agreements.

At a meeting of the Delavan board held on October 13, 2014, a representative of Baird reviewed with the board the process leading to the proposed transaction and the course of negotiations with Wintrust. A representative of Boardman reviewed in detail with the board the terms of the current draft of the merger agreement and related voting agreement, including the scope of the representations and warranties, the nature of Delavan's operating covenants prior to closing, the proposed closing conditions and termination provisions. Baird provided a financial analysis to the board of the proposed transaction with Wintrust and reviewed in detail with the board the terms of the merger consideration. Baird also discussed with the board in detail its fairness opinion, including the analysis it undertook and its conclusions. The Delavan board engaged in a discussion with Delavan's advisors and accountants regarding the proposed draft of the merger agreement, including the final business terms of the transaction. Baird then delivered its opinion that, as of the date of such opinion and subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Delavan in the proposed transaction is fair to such shareholders from a financial point of view.

After the conclusion of the presentations and discussions at the October 13, 2014 meeting, the Delavan board unanimously approved the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that Delavan shareholders approve the merger and authorized Mr. Murphy to execute the merger agreement and additional documentation on behalf of Delavan and approve such minor modifications to the merger agreement as he may deem necessary, beneficial, advantageous, proper and efficient. The board unanimously determined that the merger would be in the best interests of Delavan, its shareholders and Community Bank's employees and customers. On October 13, 2014, the merger agreement was finalized and executed by Delavan and Wintrust.

Delavan and Wintrust issued a joint press release on October 14, 2014 announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

On November 19, 2014, Delavan and Wintrust entered into the amendment to the merger agreement included in Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Fairness Opinion of Delavan's Financial Advisor

This section (ending on page 39) provides a summary of the analysis conducted by Baird, and reflects certain assumptions made by Baird based upon the financial information reviewed or obtained in connection with preparing such analysis, as further described herein.

The board of directors of Delavan retained Baird in connection with the merger and to render a written opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Delavan of the Per Share Merger Consideration (as defined in the opinion) to be received by the holders of Delavan common stock pursuant to the terms of, and subject to the conditions set forth in, the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Delavan and Wintrust, and the respective wholly-owned subsidiary banks thereof.

On October 13, 2014, Baird rendered its oral opinion to the board of directors of Delavan to the effect that, subject to the contents of such opinion, including the various assumptions and limitations set forth therein, Baird was of the opinion that, as of such date, the Per Share Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Delavan common stock was fair from a financial point of view.

As a matter of firm policy, Baird's opinion was approved by a fairness committee, a majority of the members of which were not involved in providing financial advisory services on Baird's behalf to Delavan in connection with the merger.

The full text of Baird's written opinion, dated October 13, 2014 which sets forth the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Baird in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex D and is incorporated herein by reference. Baird's opinion is directed only to the fairness, as of the date of the opinion and from a financial point of view, to Delavan of the Per Share Merger Consideration and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the merger. Baird expresses no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Delavan's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the Per Share Merger Consideration to be received by Delavan's shareholders, or otherwise. The summary of Baird's opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion attached as Annex D. Delavan shareholders are urged to read the opinion carefully in its entirety.

Baird, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In conducting its financial analyses and in arriving at its opinion, Baird reviewed such information and took into account such financial and economic factors, investment banking procedures and considerations as it deemed relevant under the circumstances. In that connection, and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth herein, Baird, among other things: (i) reviewed certain internal information, primarily financial in nature, including (A) financial forecasts concerning the business and operations of Delavan (the "Forecasts") as furnished and prepared by Delavan's management for purposes of its analysis, (B) financial statements of Delavan for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011 through 2013, and interim financial statements of Delavan for the six months ended June 30, 2014, which Delavan's management prepared and identified as being the most current financial statements available, and (C) financial statements of Wintrust for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2011 through 2013, and interim financial statements of Wintrust for the six months ended June 30, 2014, obtained from Wintrust's publicly available annual and quarterly reports as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"); (ii) reviewed certain publicly available information, including, but not limited to, Wintrust's recent filings with the SEC and equity analyst research reports covering Wintrust prepared by various investment banking and research firms, including consensus earnings estimates for Wintrust for the years ending December 31, 2014 and 2015; (iii) reviewed the principal financial terms of the draft dated October 10, 2014 of the Agreement in the form presented to the Board as they related to Baird's analysis; (iv) considered the relative contributions of assets, liabilities, equity and earnings of Delavan and Wintrust to the resulting company; (v) compared the financial position and operating results of Delavan and Wintrust with those of certain publicly traded companies deemed relevant; (vi) compared the historical market prices, trading activity and market trading multiples of Wintrust's common stock with those of certain other publicly traded companies deemed relevant; (vii) compared the Per Share Merger Consideration with the reported financial terms of certain other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry deemed relevant, to the extent publicly available; (ix) reviewed certificates from Delavan addressed to Baird regarding the historical financial statements and Forecasts; (x) reviewed certain potential pro forma financial effects of the merger; (xi) reviewed the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xiii) reviewed such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as considered relevant. Baird held discussions with members of Delavan's and Wintrust's respective senior managements concerning the historical and current business, financial condition, operating results and prospects, of Delavan and Wintrust, respectively. Baird also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria deemed relevant for the preparation of the opinion.

In arriving at the opinion, Baird assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was publicly available or provided by or on behalf of Delavan and Wintrust. Baird further relied on the assurances of the management of Delavan that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Baird was not asked to and did not independently verify any publicly available information or information supplied by Delavan or Wintrust. Baird was not engaged to independently verify, did not assume any responsibility to verify, assumed no liability for, and expressed no opinion on, any such information, and has assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, that neither Delavan nor Wintrust was aware of any information that might be material to the opinion that was not provided to Baird. Baird assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, that: (i) all material assets and liabilities (contingent or otherwise, known or unknown) of Delavan and Wintrust were set forth in their respective most recent financial statements provided to Baird or publicly available, and there was no information or facts that would make any of the information reviewed by Baird incomplete or misleading; (ii) the financial statements of Delavan and Wintrust provided to Baird or publicly available presented fairly the results of operations, cash flows and financial condition of Delavan and Wintrust, respectively, for the periods, and as of the dates, indicated and were prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied; (iii) the Forecasts for Delavan were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best available estimates and good faith judgments of Delavan's senior management as to the future performance of Delavan, and Baird relied, without independent verification, upon such Forecasts in the preparation of the opinion, although Baird expressed no opinion with respect to the Forecasts or any judgments, estimates, assumptions or basis on which they were based, and assumed, without independent verification, that the Forecasts used in Baird's analysis will be realized in the amounts and on the time schedule contemplated; (iv) the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement without any amendment or modification thereto and without waiver by any party of any of the conditions to their respective obligations thereunder; (v) the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct and that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Agreement; (vi) all corporate, governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals (contractual or otherwise) required to consummate the merger have been, or will be, obtained without the need for any changes to the Per Share Merger Consideration or other financial terms or conditions of the merger or that would otherwise materially affect Delavan or Wintrust or Baird's analysis; (vii) the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and (viii) with respect to the equity analyst research reports and consensus earnings estimates referred to above, Baird reviewed and discussed such forecasts and projections with the management of Wintrust and assumed, without independent verification, that such forecasts and projections represent reasonable estimates and judgments of the future financial results and condition of Wintrust, and Baird expressed no opinion with respect to such forecasts and projections or the assumptions on which they were based. Baird relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of any draft documents referred to above will not differ in any material respect from such draft documents. Baird relied, without independent verification, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters regarding the merger on the advice of Delavan and its professional advisors, and Baird assumed that all such advice was correct. In conducting their review, Baird did not undertake or obtain an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise, known or unknown) or solvency of Delavan or Wintrust nor did Baird make a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Delavan or Wintrust. Baird rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Delavan or Wintrust. Baird did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Delavan or Wintrust, or the combined entity after the merger and did not review any individual credit files relating to Delavan or Wintrust. Baird assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Delavan and Wintrust, together with the assumed purchase accounting adjustments made by Wintrust with respect to Delavan, are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. Baird did not consider any expenses or potential adjustments to the Per Share Merger Consideration relating to the merger as part of its analysis. Baird also assumed the value of the per share stock Consideration to be $50.80 and thus the value of the Per Share Merger Consideration to be $101.61.

Baird's opinion necessarily was based upon financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available as of October 13, 2014, and Baird's opinion did not predict or take into account any changes or events which may occur, or information which may become available, after October 13, 2014. Baird was under no obligation to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw the opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring after October 13, 2014. Furthermore, Baird expressed no opinion as to the price or trading range at which any of Wintrust's securities (including Wintrust's common stock) will trade following October 13, 2014 or as to the effect of the merger on such price or trading range, or any earnings or ownership dilutive impact that may result from Wintrust's issuance of its common stock in the merger. Such price and trading range may be affected by a number of factors, including but not limited to (i) dispositions of the common stock of Wintrust by shareholders within a short period of time after, or other market effects resulting from, the announcement and/or effective date of the merger; (ii) changes in prevailing interest rates and other factors which generally influence the price of securities; (iii) adverse changes in the current capital markets; (iv) the occurrence of adverse changes in the financial condition, business, assets, results of operations or prospects of Delavan or Wintrust or in the financial services industry; (v) any actions or inactions by, or restrictions of, federal, state or other governmental agencies or regulatory authorities; and (vi) timely completion of the merger on terms and conditions that are acceptable to all parties at interest. Baird did not express any opinion on the liquidity or marketability of the Wintrust common stock or the ability of the holders of such stock, including the holders of Delavan common stock who will receive shares of Wintrust common stock in the merger, to sell shares of Wintrust common stock at any time.

Baird's opinion has been prepared at the request and for the information of and is directed to the board of directors of Delavan in connection with its consideration of the merger, and was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of October 13, 2014, of the Per Share Merger Consideration to the holders of Delavan common stock. The opinion did not address the relative merits or risks of: (i) the merger, the Agreement or any other agreements or other matters provided for, or contemplated by, the Agreement; (ii) any other transactions that may be, or might have been, available as an alternative to the merger; or (iii) the merger compared to any other potential alternative transactions or business strategies considered by the Board and, accordingly, Baird relied upon discussions with the senior management of Delavan with respect to the availability and consequences of any alternatives to the merger. The opinion did not constitute a recommendation to the Board, any security holder or any other person as to how any such person should vote or act with respect to the merger.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Baird in connection with rendering its opinion, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion attached as Annex D and to the other disclosures contained in this section. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Baird. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to the analyses performed by Baird. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in a tabular format. These tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and alone are not a complete description of Baird's financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information is based on market and financial data as it existed on or before October 13, 2014 is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Implied Valuation and Transaction Multiples. Based on the cash consideration of $50.80 net per share of Delavan Common Stock (the Per Share Equity Purchase Price), exchange ratio of 1.16 shares of Wintrust Common Stock for each share of Delavan Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio) and Wintrust's stock price of $43.79 as of October 10, 2014, the implied Per Share Equity Purchase Price is $50.80 net per share, Baird calculated the implied equity purchase price (defined as the Per Share Equity Purchase Price multiplied by the total number of common shares outstanding of Delavan, including gross shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options, less assumed option proceeds) to be $38 million. Baird then calculated the multiples of the Per Share Purchase Price to Wintrust's last twelve month (LTM) June 30, 2013 earnings per share (EPS) and book value per share and tangible book value per share at June 30, 2013, as provided by the senior management of Delavan and Wintrust. These transaction multiples are summarized in the table below.

Transaction Metric	Multiple
Price/LTM EPS	25.8x
Price/Book Value Per Share	140.5%
Price/Tangible Book Value Per Share	140.5%

River Valley Bancorp	United Bancorp, Inc.
Ameriana Bancorp	Wolverine Bancorp, Inc.
First Capital, Inc.	Jacksonville Bancorp, Inc.
Poage Bankshare, Inc.	Madison County Financial, Inc.

Baird chose these companies based on a review of publicly-traded companies that possessed general business, operating and financial characteristics representative of companies in the industry in which Delavan operates. Baird noted that none of the companies reviewed is identical to Delavan and that, accordingly, the analysis of such companies necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in the business, operating and financial characteristics of each such company and other factors that affect the public market values of such companies.

To perform this analysis, Baird used financial information at or for the twelve months ended June 30, 2014, as indicated in the tables below. Market price information was as of October 10, 2014. Certain financial data prepared by Baird, and as referenced in the tables presented below, may not correspond to the data presented in Delavan's and Wintrust's historical financial statements, as a result of the different periods, assumptions and methods used by Baird to compute the financial data presented.

Baird chose these acquisition transactions based on a review of completed and pending acquisition transactions involving target companies that possessed general business, operating and financial characteristics representative of companies in the industry in which Delavan operates. Baird noted that none of the acquisition transactions or subject target companies reviewed is identical to the merger or Delavan, respectively, and that, accordingly, the analysis of such acquisition transactions necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in the business, operating and financial characteristics of each subject target company and each acquisition transaction and other factors that affect the values implied in such acquisition transactions.

For each transaction, Baird calculated multiples of each target company's purchase price per share to its LTM EPS, book value per share and tangible book value per share. In addition, Baird calculated the core deposit premium of each transaction where core deposit premium is defined as transaction value less tangible book value divided by core deposits. Core deposits are defined as total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000 and brokered deposits. Stock market and historical financial information for each selected transaction was based on publicly available information as of the date of each respective transaction. A summary of the implied multiples from each peer group is provided in the table below.

Delavan Discounted Dividend Analysis. Baird performed a discounted dividend analysis to estimate a range of implied equity value per share for Delavan. In this analysis, Baird assumed discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 14.0% to derive: (i) the present value of the estimated dividends that Delavan could generate over the five year period beginning December 2015 and ending December 2019, including certain expenses and synergies forecasted as a result of the merger, and assuming excess capital generated at time zero after a target tangible common equity to tangible asset ratio of 9.0% and (ii) the present value of Delavan's terminal value calculated in year five. Terminal values for Delavan were calculated based on a range of 10.0x to 18.0x estimated Delavan earnings for the twelve months ending December 31, 2019. Based on these assumptions, Baird derived a range of implied equity value per share from $73.40 to $116.31.

The discounted dividend analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Delavan.

Delavan Valuation Summary. A summary of the three valuation analyses of Delavan presented above is provided in the table below.

Contribution Analysis. Baird analyzed Wintrust and Delavan's relative contribution to the combined company in terms of loans, deposits, tangible equity, tangible common stock, LTM earnings, 2013 earnings, expected 2014 earnings, pro forma 2015 earning, and pro forma diluted ownership. For this analysis, Baird assumed that Delavan shareholders would receive 100% stock in the transaction for comparative purposes; as a result Delavan shareholders would own the equivalent of 1.7% of the pro forma outstanding Wintrust common stock. Wintrust's and Delavan's relative contributions to the combined company are summarized in the table below.

Category	Wintrust	Delavan
Loans	99.1%	0.9%

Tangible Equity	98.6%	1.4%
Tangible Common Equity	98.2%	1.8%

2015E PF Earnings	98.7%	1.3%
Pro Forma Diluted Ownership	98.3%	1.7%

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Baird analyzed the estimated financial impact of the merger on Wintrust's 2015 and 2016 estimated diluted earnings per share. For Wintrust, Baird used Wintrust earnings projections based on consensus estimates of diluted earnings per share for 2015 and 2016. For Delavan, Baird used earnings projections based on Delavan guidance. In addition, Baird assumed that the merger will result in cost synergies to Wintrust. Based on its analysis, Baird determined that the merger would be accretive to Wintrust's common stock.

Table of Contents

Furthermore, the analysis indicated that Wintrust's Leverage Ratio, Tier 1 Risk-Based Capital Ratio and Total Risk-Based Capital Ratio would all remain above regulatory minimums for well capitalized institutions. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by Wintrust following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Other Analyses. Baird reviewed the relative financial and market performance of Delavan and Wintrust to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. Baird also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for Delavan.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Baird or its presentations to Delavan's board of directors. The preparation of financial analyses and a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analyses or summary description. Baird believes that its analyses (and the summary set forth above) must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and factors considered by Baird, without considering all of such analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the processes and judgments underlying the analyses performed and conclusions reached by Baird and its opinion. Baird did not attempt to assign specific weights to particular analyses. Any estimates contained in Baird's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth therein. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, Baird does not assume responsibility for their accuracy.

As part of its investment banking business, Baird is engaged in the evaluation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. Pursuant to an engagement letter with Delavan dated April 29, 2014, Baird will receive a transaction fee of approximately $475,000 for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Pursuant to such engagement letter, Delavan has also agreed to pay Baird a fee of $100,000 payable upon delivery of its fairness opinion, regardless of the conclusions reached in such opinion (such fee to be credited against the merger described above). In addition, Delavan has agreed to indemnify Baird against certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. Baird will not receive any other significant payment of compensation contingent upon the successful completion of the merger. During the last two years, neither Baird nor any of its affiliates have provided any other investment banking and/or financial advisory services to either Delavan or Wintrust, or any affiliates thereof, for which Baird received (or will receive) compensation.

Baird is a full service securities firm. As such, in the ordinary course of its business, Baird may from time to time trade the securities of Delavan or Wintrust for its own account or the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions or effect transactions in such securities. Baird may also prepare equity analyst research reports from time to time regarding Delavan or Wintrust.

Delavan's reasons for the merger and recommendation of the board of directors

Delavan's board of directors has concluded that the merger offers Delavan's shareholders an attractive opportunity to achieve the board's strategic business objectives, including increasing shareholder value, growing the size of the business and enhancing liquidity for Delavan's shareholders. In addition, Delavan's board of directors believes that the customers and communities served by Community Bank will benefit from the merger.

In deciding to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Delavan's board of directors consulted with Delavan's management, as well as its legal counsel and financial advisor, and considered numerous factors, including the following:

information with respect to the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition, prospects, capital levels and asset quality of Delavan and Wintrust, both individually and as a combined company;

the perceived risks and uncertainties attendant to Delavan's operation as an independent banking organization, including the risks and uncertainties related to the continuing low-interest rate environment, competition in Delavan's market area, increased regulatory costs and increased capital requirements;

based on the closing price of Wintrust common stock on October 10, 2014 and Delavan's June 30, 2014 unaudited balance sheet, the aggregate merger consideration was priced at a multiple of 1.4 times the tangible common book value and at a multiple of 1.4 times the common book value;

Baird's opinion, subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in such fairness opinion, that the per share merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Delavan common stock;

the value to be received by Delavan's shareholders in the merger as compared to shareholder value projected for Delavan as an independent entity;

the market value of Wintrust common stock prior to the execution of the merger agreement and the prospects for future appreciation as a result of Wintrust's strategic initiatives;

Wintrust's strategy to seek profitable future expansion in Delavan's trade area, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value;

the fact that Wintrust is publicly held and the merger would provide access to a public trading market for Delavan's shareholders whose investments currently are in a privately held company, as well as enhanced access to capital markets to finance the combined company's capital requirements; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Delavan's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a description of all material factors considered by Delavan's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Delavan board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the Delavan board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Delavan's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of Delavan's shareholders.

Delavan's board of directors believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Delavan and its shareholders. Delavan's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

Certain directors and officers of Delavan and Community Bank have interests in the merger different from or in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including certain cash payments that will be made as a result of the merger under various benefit plans and agreements currently in place in order to terminate such agreements and to be made under the agreement entered into between Michael J. Murphy and Community Bank in connection with the merger. You may wish to consider these interests in evaluating Delavan's board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the merger. See "The Merger" Interests of certain persons in the merger. All of Delavan's directors who own shares of Delavan common stock have agreed to vote their shares at the special meeting in favor of the merger and any other matter necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Wintrust's reasons for the merger

Wintrust's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the merger, Wintrust's board of directors considered a number of factors, including:

management's view that the acquisition provides an attractive opportunity for Wintrust to expand in southeastern Wisconsin;

Delavan's community banking orientation and its compatibility with Wintrust and its subsidiaries;

a review of the demographic, economic and financial characteristics of the markets in which Delavan operates, including existing and potential competition and history of the market areas with respect to financial institutions;

management's review of Delavan's business, operations, earnings and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality of Community Bank;

efficiencies to come from integrating certain of Delavan's operations into Wintrust's existing operations; and the likelihood that the merger will be approved by the relevant bank regulatory authorities without undue burden and in a timely manner.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Wintrust's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a description of all material factors considered by Wintrust's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Wintrust board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the Wintrust board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered. In considering the factors described above, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Wintrust's board of directors collectively made its determination with respect to the merger based on the conclusion reached by its members, based on the factors that each of them considered appropriate, that the merger is in the best interests of Wintrust's shareholders.

Material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger

The following summary describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Delavan common stock. The summary is based upon the Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions and administrative rulings and practice, all as in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not address any tax consequences of the merger under state, local or foreign laws, or any federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner that is: an individual citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions; a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion addresses only those holders of Delavan common stock that hold their Delavan common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Delavan common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of Delavan common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

Table of Contents

investors in pass-through entities;

persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

persons that hold Delavan common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States; and holders who acquired their shares of Delavan common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership (or other entity that is taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes) holds Delavan common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in partnerships should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The parties intend for the merger to be treated as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to Delavan's obligation to complete the merger that Delavan receive an opinion from WIPFLI, LLP, accountants for Delavan, dated the closing date, to the effect that (1) the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, (2) Delavan and Wintrust will each be a party to such reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and (3) except to the extent of any cash consideration received in the merger and except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional share interests in Wintrust common stock, no gain or loss will be recognized by any of the holders of Delavan common stock in the merger. This opinion is and will be based upon fact certifications or affidavits provided by Wintrust and Delavan and upon customary factual assumptions. Neither Wintrust nor Delavan has sought, and neither of them will seek, any ruling from the IRS regarding any matters relating to the merger, and the opinion described above will not be binding on the IRS or any court. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth in the opinion. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinion is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend upon your specific situation and upon factors that are not within the control of Wintrust or Delavan. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in light of your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws.

The following expresses the opinion of WIPFLI, LLP, accountants to Delavan, insofar as it relates to matters of U.S. federal income tax law and legal conclusions with respect to those matters:

Table of Contents

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally. The material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by Wintrust or Delavan as a result of the merger;

gain (but not loss) will be recognized by U.S. holders of Delavan common stock who receive shares of Wintrust common stock and cash in exchange for shares of Delavan common stock pursuant to the merger in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Wintrust common stock and cash received by a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock exceeds such U.S. holder's basis in its Delavan common stock and (2) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder of Delavan common stock;

the aggregate basis of the Wintrust common stock received by a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of Wintrust common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Delavan common stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share in Wintrust common stock), and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share in Wintrust common stock (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as dividend income, as discussed below under Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend); and the holding period of Wintrust common stock received in exchange for shares of Delavan common stock (including fractional shares of Wintrust common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Delavan common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock acquired different blocks of Delavan common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of Delavan common stock, and the cash and shares of Wintrust common stock received will be allocated pro rata to each such block of stock. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Wintrust common stock received in the merger.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Except as described under Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend below, gain that U.S. holders of Delavan common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such U.S. holders have held (or are treated as having held) their Delavan common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. For non-corporate U.S. holders of Delavan common stock, the maximum U.S. federal income tax rate on long-term capital gains is, absent legislative action, 20%.

Potential Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. All or part of the gain that a particular U.S. holder of Delavan common stock recognizes could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain if (1) such U.S. holder is a significant shareholder of Wintrust or (2) such U.S. holder's percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in Wintrust after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely shares of Wintrust common stock rather than a combination of cash and shares of Wintrust common stock in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of Wintrust common stock by such holder, ownership of shares of Wintrust common stock by a person related to such holder or a share repurchase by Wintrust from other holders of Wintrust common stock. The IRS has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon the particular circumstances of a holder of Delavan common stock, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, holders of Delavan common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to them.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Wintrust Common Stock. A U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Wintrust common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by Wintrust. As a result, such U.S. holder of Delavan common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. The gain or loss recognized by the U.S. holders described in this paragraph will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Medicare Tax on Unearned Income. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012, a U.S. holder that is an individual is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (i) his or her net investment income for the relevant taxable year or (ii) the excess of his or her modified gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (between $125,000 and $250,000 depending on the individual's U.S. federal income tax filing status). A similar regime applies to estates and trusts. Net investment income generally would include any capital gain incurred in connection with the merger (including any gain treated as a dividend).

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Delavan common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

A U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who receives Wintrust common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Delavan common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives Wintrust common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth such holder's basis in the Delavan common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Wintrust common stock and cash received in the merger. A significant holder is a holder of Delavan common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Delavan or securities of Delavan with a basis for federal income taxes of at least $1 million.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent upon, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the merger.

Regulatory approvals

The merger cannot proceed without obtaining all requisite regulatory approvals. Wintrust and Delavan have agreed to take all appropriate actions necessary to obtain the required approvals.

The merger of Wintrust and Delavan is subject to prior approval of each of the Federal Reserve and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions. Wintrust submitted an application with each of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions on October 20, 2014 seeking the necessary approvals.

The merger may not be consummated until 15 days after receipt of Federal Reserve approval, during which time the United States Department of Justice may challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve's approval, unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

Table of ContentsInterests of certain persons in the merger

General. Members of the board of directors and executive officers of Delavan, Community Bank and its subsidiaries may have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Delavan shareholders generally. The Delavan board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and determining to recommend to Delavan shareholders to vote for adoption of the merger agreement. As of September 30, 2014, Delavan's directors and executive officers owned, in the aggregate, 113,593 shares of Delavan's common stock, representing approximately 30% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock. Mr. Murphy also holds options to purchase 7,250 shares of Delavan common stock.

Jon E. Martin, Delavan's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Michael R. Ploch, Delavan's Senior Vice President - Commercial Lending, are also entitled to stock appreciation rights in amounts equal to approximately $171,000 and $195,000, respectively, (assuming that the reference price is between $39.50 and $49.50) pursuant to the Delavan Bancshares, Inc. 2008 Stock Appreciation Right Plan. All such stock appreciation rights outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will vest and become payable at the effective time.

Employment Agreement. The merger agreement required Michael J. Murphy to enter into an employment agreement with Community Bank. Under such agreement, Mr. Murphy will serve as President of Community Bank upon the effective time of the merger and will be entitled to receive a base salary substantially similar to his current base salary. Such agreement has an initial term of one year, which begins on the closing date, with automatic one-year renewal terms unless either party gives notice of non-renewal. In the event of a change in control of Wintrust or Community Bank, the term of the agreement will automatically extend for one year.

Under his employment agreement, if Mr. Murphy's employment is terminated by Community Bank without cause or if Mr. Murphy terminates his employment due to a constructive termination, Mr. Murphy will be entitled to severance pay up to one times annual base salary plus target annual bonus plus $250,000, payable ratably over a 12-month period beginning on the first payroll period following such termination (or in a lump sum if the termination occurs within 12 months following a change in control of Wintrust or Community Bank), as well as continued health insurance for up to the maximum period under COBRA. The agreement also provides that, if necessary, severance pay will be reduced to an amount that is one dollar less than the maximum amount payable without loss of a deduction under Section 280G of the Code. In consideration of the termination of Mr. Murphy's existing employment agreement with Community Bank and his entry into such new employment agreement, Mr. Murphy is also entitled to receive an amount equal to $200,000 following the consummation of the merger, or such lesser amount as he may have otherwise been owed pursuant to his existing agreement.

Continued Director and Officer Liability Coverage. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Wintrust has agreed to provide to each person who serves as a director or officer of Delavan or its subsidiaries after the effective time substantially the same insurance coverage against personal liability for actions taken after the effective time as is provided to other directors and officers of Wintrust's subsidiary banks. In addition, Wintrust agreed to pay for insurance coverage for up to six years following the closing date under a policy of directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance for actions taken on or prior to the effective time of the merger, so long as the premium or premiums of such policy are acceptable to Wintrust in its sole discretion. If a six-year term of insurance coverage is not available, the term for the insurance will be such other maximum period of coverage that is available at a cost consistent with the cost incurred by Delavan's or Community Bank's current directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance policies in effect as of the effective time.

Voting agreement

On October 13, 2014, all directors of Delavan who own shares of Delavan common stock entered into a voting agreement with Wintrust. Under this agreement, these shareholders have each agreed to vote their respective shares of Delavan common stock:

in favor of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

against any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would result in a breach of any term or obligation of Delavan under the merger agreement;

against any action or agreement that would impede, interfere with, prevent or attempt to discourage the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; against any other proposed transaction or series of transactions involving or affecting Delavan or Community Bank (or the securities or assets of either) that, if effected, would constitute an acquisition of control of either Delavan or Community Bank, which we refer to as an acquisition proposal; and in favor of any other matter necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Furthermore, each of these shareholders has also agreed not to transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of Delavan common stock that they own (other than under certain circumstances up to 2% of such shareholders' shares of Delavan common stock to a family member of such shareholder), grant any proxies, deposit any shares of Delavan common stock into a voting trust or enter into any other voting agreement with respect to any shares of Delavan common stock that they own or, without the prior approval of Wintrust, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate any acquisition proposal, or initiate or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning any acquisition proposal. The shares subject to the voting agreement represent approximately 28% of Delavan's outstanding shares of common stock as of September 30, 2014. The voting agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Restrictions on resale of Wintrust common stock

The shares of Wintrust common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act, and will be freely transferable, except for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Wintrust for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Wintrust include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, Wintrust and may include the executive officers, directors and significant shareholders of Wintrust.

Delavan shareholder dissenters' rights

In connection with the merger, record holders of Delavan common stock who comply with the requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, which is summarized below, will be entitled to dissenters' rights if the merger is completed. Under Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, a shareholder of a corporation is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, the consummation of a merger to which the corporation is a party if shareholder approval is required for the merger by Section 180.1103 of the WBCL or, by the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

The following is a brief summary of Subchapter XIII, which sets forth the procedures relating to the exercise of dissenters' rights. This summary is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights under the WBCL and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Subchapter XIII, the text of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B.

Any shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must deliver a written notice of his or her intent to exercise such right to Delavan Bancshares, Inc., 820 Geneva Street, Delavan, Wisconsin 53115, Attention: Michael J. Murphy, President and CEO, before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting. A PROXY OR VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER AGREEMENT WILL NOT, BY ITSELF, BE REGARDED AS A WRITTEN NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT FOR PURPOSES OF ASSERTING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

A record holder of Delavan common stock may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all shares registered in that shareholder's name only if the holder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies Delavan in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts such dissenters' rights.

A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the shareholder's behalf only if, in addition to meeting the other requirements to dissent, the beneficial shareholder (i) submits to Delavan the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights and (ii) asserts dissenters' rights with respect to all shares of which the shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which the beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote.

If the merger agreement is approved by the requisite vote of holders of Delavan common stock, Delavan is required to send a notice to all dissenting shareholders containing payment demand and stock certificate surrender information within ten days after such approval. The return date specified by Delavan for receiving the payment demand from dissenting shareholders may not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date on which the dissenters' notice was first sent. Upon receipt of the dissenters' notice, each dissenting shareholder must return his or her payment demand and certificate no later than the payment demand date as provided in the dissenters' notice and certify whether he or she acquired beneficial ownership of the shares prior to the first public announcement of the terms of the merger on October 14, 2014. A payment demand may not be withdrawn without Delavan's consent.

Upon effecting the merger, within 60 days after the payment demand date, Delavan will pay each dissenting shareholder who properly complied with the statutory requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, the amount that Delavan estimates to be the fair value of such dissenting shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest from the effective time; provided that, with respect to shares acquired after the first public announcement of the merger, Delavan may elect to withhold payment until either such shareholder accepts Delavan's offer of fair value or a court determines the fair value of such shares.

If the merger is not effected within 60 days of the payment demand date, Delavan will return all deposited certificates to dissenting shareholders. If the merger is thereafter effected, Delavan will send a new dissenters' notice within ten days of effecting the merger and repeat the payment demand procedure described above.

If any dissenting shareholder is dissatisfied with Delavan's determination of fair value, such dissenting shareholder may notify Delavan in writing of his or her own estimate of the fair value of his or her shares and the amount of interest due. A dissenting shareholder must assert this right within 30 days after Delavan makes or offers payment for his or her shares or the right is waived. Delavan may either accept such dissenting shareholder's estimate of fair value or commence a proceeding in the Wisconsin Circuit Court of Walworth County to determine the fair value of the shares of all dissenting shareholders whose own estimates of fair value are not accepted by Delavan.

In the event any holder of shares of Delavan common stock fails to perfect his or her rights to dissent by failing to comply strictly with the applicable statutory requirements of Subchapter XIII of the WBCL, he or she will be bound by the terms of the merger agreement and will not be entitled to payment for his or her shares under Subchapter XIII of the WBCL. ANY HOLDER OF SHARES OF DELAVAN COMMON STOCK WHO WISHES TO OBJECT TO THE TRANSACTION AND DEMAND PAYMENT IN CASH FOR HIS OR HER SHARES SHOULD CONSIDER CONSULTING HIS OR HER OWN LEGAL ADVISOR.

Because an executed proxy relating to Delavan common stock on which no voting direction is made will be voted at the special meeting in favor of the merger, a dissenting shareholder who wishes to have his or her shares of Delavan common stock represented by proxy at the special meeting but preserve his or her dissenters' rights must mark his or her proxy either to vote against the merger or to abstain from voting thereon, in addition to the foregoing requirements.

The foregoing is a brief summary of Subchapter XIII that sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory dissenters rights. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to Subchapter XIII, the text of which is attached hereto as Annex B. Failure to comply with all the procedures set forth in Subchapter XIII will result in the loss of a shareholder's statutory dissenters rights. Consequently, if you desire to exercise your dissenters rights you are urged to consult a legal advisor before attempting to exercise these rights.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to describe all the terms of the merger agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the merger agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the merger.

The text of the merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The terms of the merger agreement (such as the representations and warranties) are intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, between the parties in relation to the merger. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties Wintrust and Delavan made to each other as of specific dates. The representations and warranties were negotiated between the parties with the principal purpose of setting forth their respective rights with respect to their obligations to complete the merger. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties may be subject to important limitations and qualifications as set forth therein, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable under federal securities laws.

General

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Delavan with and into Merger Co., with Merger Co. continuing as the surviving corporation. After the consummation of the merger, Merger Co. will continue to be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wintrust.

Closing and effective time

Closing. The closing of the merger will take place on the fifth business day following the satisfaction of the conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement, or at another time that both parties mutually agree upon. See Conditions to completion of the merger below for a more complete description of the conditions that must be satisfied prior to closing. The completion of the merger sometimes is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the closing date.

Completion of the Merger. The merger will become effective on the date when the articles of merger are duly filed with the WDFI, or at such later date and time specified in such filing as the parties mutually agree upon. The time at which the merger becomes effective is sometimes referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the effective time.

Consideration to be received in the merger

Delavan Common Stock. If the merger is completed, the shares of Delavan common stock which you own immediately before the completion of the merger will be converted into a right to receive cash and shares of Wintrust common stock, subject in each case to the adjustment procedures described below under Adjustment to Merger Consideration. The aggregate merger consideration paid by Wintrust to Delavan shareholders is expected to be approximately $38,000,000, subject to possible downward adjustment as described below. Assuming that the reference price as described below is between $39.50 and $49.50, 50% of the aggregate merger consideration will be paid in shares of Wintrust common stock and 50% will be paid in cash.

Assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, based on a reference price of approximately $46.04, which is equal to the reference price if it were calculated as of November 25, 2014, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the merger consideration that a Delavan shareholder would be entitled to receive for each share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, would be $50.80 in cash and 1.104 shares of Wintrust common stock. In each case assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration and that the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged at the closing, if the reference price were equal to the minimum of $39.50, each share of Delavan common stock would instead be entitled to 1.286 shares of Wintrust common stock, and if the reference price were equal to the maximum of $49.50, each share of Delavan common stock would be entitled to 1.027 shares of Wintrust common stock.

Cash Consideration. Subject to possible downward adjustment, for each share of Delavan common stock, you will be entitled to receive cash equal to (i) the product obtained by multiplying (a) $38,000,000 by (b) 0.5, with the resultant amount divided by (ii) the number of shares of Delavan common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, rounded to the nearest $0.01, which we refer to as the per share cash consideration.

Stock Consideration. Subject to possible downward adjustment, for each share of Delavan common stock, you will be entitled to receive a number of shares of Wintrust common stock equal to (i) the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the aggregate share amount (as defined below) by (b) the number of shares of Delavan common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share (0.001), multiplied by (ii) 0.5, such product rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share (0.001), which we refer to as the per share stock consideration.

The merger agreement provides that the aggregate share amount will be determined as follows:

If the reference price is at least $39.50 and no more than $49.50, the aggregate share amount will be the number of shares of Wintrust common stock equal to the quotient (rounded up to the nearest whole share) obtained by dividing (i) $38,000,000 by (ii) the reference price;

if the reference price is less than $39.50, the aggregate share amount will be 962,025 shares of Wintrust common stock (the number of shares determined by dividing $38,000,000 by $39.50); and if the reference price is greater than $49.50, the aggregate share amount will be 767,676 shares of Wintrust common stock (the number of shares determined by dividing $38,000,000 by $49.50).

Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days' notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

The following table illustrates the per share value of merger consideration that Delavan's shareholders will receive in the merger based on a range of reference prices, assuming the currently outstanding 373,989 shares of Delavan common stock remain unchanged immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The table is for illustrative purposes only. The actual prices at which Wintrust common stock trades during the reference period will establish the actual reference price and therefore the actual aggregate share amount and merger consideration. The table assumes the closing price of Wintrust's common stock on the date of the merger is the same as the reference price during the reference period. The actual trading price of Wintrust common stock is subject to market fluctuations, and Delavan shareholders will not be entitled to receive additional shares in the merger if the trading price of Wintrust's common stock on the closing date is less than the average price during the reference period nor will they receive fewer shares in the merger if the trading price of Wintrust's common stock on the closing date is greater than the average price during the reference period.

- (1) The numbers in this column represent the value of the shares of Wintrust common stock which you will receive for each share of Delavan common stock that you own, subject to the assumption that the closing price of Wintrust's common stock on the date of the merger is the same as the reference price during the reference period.
- Adjustment to Merger Consideration.* Five business days prior to the effective time of the merger, Delavan will deliver to Wintrust balance sheets, which we refer to as the closing balance sheets, for Delavan and each of its subsidiaries as of the closing date reflecting Delavan's good faith estimate of the accounts of Delavan and its subsidiaries. The closing balance sheets will be prepared in conformity with past practices and policies of Delavan and its subsidiaries and in accordance with GAAP, subject to adjustment to reflect that (i) the outstanding indebtedness of Delavan does not exceed $3,600,000, which indebtedness will be assumed by Wintrust, (ii) Community Bank's reserve for loan losses at not less than 1.50% of its net loans, and (iii) any environmental adjustments described below. If the closing balance sheets reflect that Delavan's shareholders' equity, as determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is less than $26,000,000, then, subject to Delavan's termination right described below under Termination, the merger consideration will be reduced dollar-for-dollar by an amount equal to such shortfall. Any such reduction will be allocated equally to the cash and stock portions of the merger consideration. For purposes of determining the shareholders' equity in Delavan reflected in the closing balance sheets, all accruals and expenses for contributions and other payments made or to be made to any benefit plan will be net of any income tax benefit derived from such accrued contribution or other payments by Delavan or Community Bank.

The merger consideration may also be adjusted downward to reflect certain environmental conditions related to real property of Delavan or its subsidiaries. If any environmental survey confirms, in Wintrust's sole discretion, the presence of certain environmental conditions on any such properties, Wintrust may (i) accept such property in its current condition subject to a reduction in the merger consideration equal to an amount to be mutually agreed upon in good faith by Wintrust and Delavan, or (ii) terminate the merger agreement. If the estimated cost of remediation is less than $200,000, at Wintrust's election, instead of terminating the merger agreement Wintrust may accept the real property in its current condition and reduce the shareholders' equity for purposes of the closing balance sheets by the amount of the estimated cost of remediation.

Fractional shares

No fractional shares of Wintrust common stock will be issued in the merger. Instead, Wintrust will pay to each holder of Delavan common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Wintrust common stock an amount in cash (without interest) rounded to the nearest whole cent, determined by multiplying the reference price by such fraction of a share of Wintrust common stock to which such Delavan shareholder would otherwise be entitled.

Treatment of Delavan options

If the merger is completed, each outstanding and unexercised option to acquire a share of Delavan common stock, which we refer to as a Delavan option, will be converted into an option to acquire shares of Wintrust common stock, which we refer to as a converted option. The number of shares of Wintrust common stock subject to each converted option will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares of Delavan common stock subject to such Delavan option by (2) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share merger consideration by the reference price, which we refer to as the option exchange ratio. The per share exercise price for each converted option will be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (1) the per share exercise price of the Delavan option by (2) the option exchange ratio. Upon exercise of each converted option, the aggregate number of shares of Wintrust common stock deliverable upon such exercise will be rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole share and the aggregate exercise price will be round up, if necessary, to the nearest cent. Except as described above, each converted option will be governed by the same terms and conditions as in effect immediately prior to the effective time.

Appointment of Shareholders Agent

Upon the approval of the Delavan shareholders as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, Michael J. Murphy will be constituted and appointed as the shareholders agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to taking any and all actions upon the adoption of the merger agreement specified or contemplated by the merger agreement. If Mr. Murphy is unable or unwilling to perform his duties, James Saer, the Alternate Shareholders Agent, will instead serve as the Shareholders Agent. The actions of the Shareholders Agent pursuant to the merger agreement will bind each Delavan shareholder, and no notice to or approval by the Delavan shareholders of such action will be required. Wintrust will be entitled to rely on any action taken by the Shareholders Agent as may be contemplated by the merger agreement in his or her capacity as agent for the Delavan shareholders, for the benefit of all Delavan shareholders, and Wintrust will have no duty to inquire into the circumstances in which any such action is taken. The Shareholders Agent will be fully protected, held harmless and indemnified by Delavan's shareholders in exercising, or in declining to exercise, a power provided for or contemplated by the merger agreement for the benefit of all Delavan shareholders, as he or she determines, whether upon consultation with the Delavan shareholders or in his or her sole discretion, to be in the interests of all Delavan shareholders.

In the event that both Mr. Murphy and Mr. Saer should become unable or unwilling to perform such person's duties, and unable or unwilling to appoint a subsequent successor, then Wintrust will appoint any reasonable successor Shareholders Agent from among the Delavan shareholders or former officers of Delavan. Any successor Shareholders Agent so appointed will be vested with the same power and authority as the initial Shareholders Agent.

Exchange of certificates

Wintrust has engaged American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC to act as its exchange agent to handle the exchange of Delavan common stock for the merger consideration and the payment of cash for any fractional share interest. Within three business days after the closing date, the exchange agent will send to each Delavan shareholder a letter of transmittal for use in the exchange with instructions explaining how to surrender Delavan common stock certificates to the exchange agent. Delavan shareholders that surrender their certificates to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive the merger consideration. Delavan shareholders that do not exchange their Delavan common stock will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration or any dividends or other distributions by Wintrust until their certificates are surrendered. Conduct of business pending the merger and certain covenants

Under the merger agreement, Delavan has agreed to certain restrictions on its activities and the activities of its subsidiaries until the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated. In general, Delavan and its subsidiaries are required to conduct their business in the ordinary course of business, consistent with sound banking practice.

The following is a summary of the more significant restrictions imposed upon Delavan, subject to the exceptions set forth in the merger agreement. Delavan will not, and will cause its subsidiaries to not, without Wintrust's prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned:

make changes to the charter, articles of incorporation or by-laws of Delavan and its subsidiaries;

except with respect to the exercise of any outstanding Delavan option, effect any change in the capitalization of Delavan or its subsidiaries or the number of issued and outstanding shares of Delavan;

subject to certain exceptions, increase the compensation of the officers or key employees of Delavan or any of its subsidiaries or pay any bonuses, except in the ordinary course of business;

make, renew or restructure any loan in the amount of $500,000 or more, except as provided for in the merger agreement;

pay or declare any dividends or other distributions; fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain present insurance coverage in respect of their properties and businesses;

make significant changes in the general nature of the business conducted by Delavan or its subsidiaries;

except as otherwise set forth in the merger agreement, enter into employment, consulting, or similar agreements that cannot be terminated with 30 days or fewer notice without penalty, or terminate the employment of any officer of Delavan or its subsidiaries without prior notice to Wintrust;

terminate, partially terminate, curtail or discontinue any of its benefit plans; fail to file any tax returns in a timely manner, apply for or consent to an extension of time for filing or change accounting methods for income tax purposes;

make any expenditure for fixed assets in excess of $100,000 for any single item, or $250,000 in the aggregate, or enter into any lease for any fixed assets having an annual rental in excess of $100,000;

make or become party to a contract, agreement, commitment, disbursement or transaction, acquire or dispose of any property or asset, or incur any liabilities or obligations, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with sound banking practice and Delavan s and its subsidiaries current policies;

do or fail to do anything that will cause a breach or default under any material contract; accept or renew any brokered deposits or incur additional Federal Home Loan Bank advances or other types of ordinary course wholesale, in each case except as set forth in the merger agreement; or change in any material respect any accounting or recordkeeping procedures, methods, policies or practices. Wintrust has agreed to file all other applications and notices to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Delavan and Community Bank have agreed to use all reasonable and diligent efforts and to assist in obtaining such regulatory approvals. Both parties agree:

to use reasonable and diligent good faith efforts to satisfy the conditions required to close the merger and to consummate the merger as soon as practicable;

that neither will intentionally act in a manner that would cause a breach of the merger agreement or that would cause a representation made in the merger agreement to become untrue; and to coordinate publicity of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to the media. Delavan has agreed to use reasonable and diligent efforts to preserve the reputation and relationship of Delavan and its subsidiaries with suppliers, clients, customers, employees and others having business relations with Delavan, and to provide Wintrust with certain documents before the closing date, including:

reasonable notice, minutes and materials of any meetings of the boards and committees of Delavan or its subsidiaries, except as set forth in the merger agreement;

certain information regarding the loans in Community Bank's loan portfolio;

surveys, title commitments, title policies and/or endorsements with respect to parcels of real property of Delavan and its subsidiaries;

interim financial statements; and prompt notice of any written assertions of dissenters' rights.

Delavan has also agreed to the following:

to cause Community Bank, prior to closing, to write off all loans that are required to be written off as loan losses; and to write down potential loan losses in conformity with past practices and policies of Community Bank and general accepted accounting principles.

The merger agreement also contains certain covenants relating to employee benefits and other matters pertaining to officers and directors. See "Employee benefit matters" and "The Merger" Interests of certain persons in the merger.

No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal

The merger agreement contains provisions prohibiting Delavan from seeking or discussing an alternative proposal to the merger. Delavan has agreed that it will not, and will cause Community Bank not to, directly or indirectly solicit, encourage or facilitate any proposal or any inquiry or proposal or enter into any negotiations or discussions with any person or entity concerning any proposed acquisition of Delavan or Community Bank, or furnish any information to any person or entity proposing or seeking such an acquisition. However, the merger agreement provides that Delavan may furnish such information pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement and engage in such negotiations or discussions in response to an acquisition proposal that was not solicited by Delavan in violation of the merger agreement, if the board of directors determines in good faith and after consultation with outside counsel that it must do so in order to act in a manner consistent with the board's fiduciary duties.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, the merger agreement provides that Delavan may provide information to and engage in discussions with third parties from whom Delavan has received an acquisition proposal that was not solicited in violation of the merger agreement, so long as the board of directors of Delavan, after consultation with outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that such proposal constitutes a superior proposal. If the board of directors of Delavan determines that it is necessary to pursue a superior proposal in order to act in a manner consistent with its fiduciary duties, the board may withdraw, modify or otherwise change the board's recommendation with respect to the merger and the merger agreement, and/or terminate the merger agreement. However, the Delavan board of directors may not terminate the merger agreement for a superior proposal unless it has first notified Wintrust and otherwise negotiated with Wintrust so that the merger may be consummated. A superior proposal means any acquisition proposal containing terms that the Delavan board of directors determines in good faith (based on the advice of an independent financial advisor) to be more favorable to Delavan shareholders than the merger and for which financing, if required, is committed or, in the good faith judgment of the Delavan board of directors, reasonably capable of being obtained, but excludes any acquisition proposal known to the Delavan board of directors prior to the date of the merger agreement.

If Wintrust terminates the merger agreement because Delavan breaches its covenant not to solicit an acquisition proposal from a third party, Delavan will pay to Wintrust a termination fee equal to $1,250,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs. See Termination fee below.

Termination

Wintrust and Delavan may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time. Subject to conditions and circumstances described in the merger agreement, either Wintrust or Delavan may terminate the merger agreement as follows:

the merger is not completed (other than through the failure of any party seeking to terminate the agreement to comply fully with its material obligations under the merger agreement) by January 31, 2015 or such later date agreed to by the parties; provided, that the termination date will be extended to March 31, 2015 if the sole impediments to closing are due to delay in receiving regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve or the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions;

the other party has not satisfied a condition under the merger agreement required to be met by it prior to the closing date, or if it becomes impossible for the other party to satisfy a condition and its inability to satisfy the condition was not caused by the non-breaching party's failure to meet any of its obligations under the merger agreement and such non-breaching party has not waived such condition; or Delavan receives and accepts a superior proposal, as defined above in No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal.

In addition, Delavan may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is less than $36.50 and Wintrust may terminate the merger agreement if the reference price is more than $52.50, in each case if Delavan and Wintrust are in good faith unable, after five business days notice of such termination, to reach agreement as to an amendment to the merger agreement containing terms acceptable to Wintrust and Delavan so that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated.

Wintrust may also terminate if Delavan has breached any representation, warranty, covenant, obligation or other agreement in the merger agreement that would result in the failure of any condition under the merger agreement to be satisfied, cannot be cured within a specified period of time and Wintrust has not waived such condition, or in certain circumstances upon the identification or confirmation of the presence of certain environmental conditions related to certain real property, as described above in Consideration to be received in the merger Adjustment to Merger Consideration.

Termination fee

Termination Fees Payable by Delavan. Delavan has agreed to pay Wintrust a termination fee of $1,250,000 plus up to $250,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and costs if the merger agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

Wintrust terminates the merger agreement because Delavan breaches its covenant not to solicit an acquisition proposal from a third party;

Delavan terminates the merger agreement upon the entry into, consummation of or the Delavan board's determination to accept an unsolicited superior proposal; or the merger agreement is terminated (a) by either Wintrust or Delavan because the closing has not occurred by January 31, 2015 or such later date agreed to by the parties (or March 31, 2015, if the sole impediment to closing is due to delay in receiving regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve or the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions) or (b) by Wintrust because Delavan has breached any of its representations, warranties, covenants, obligations or other agreements in the merger agreement such that a condition to Wintrust's obligations becomes impossible for Delavan to satisfy and Wintrust has not waived such condition, and in each such case, within six months after termination of the merger agreement, Delavan or Community Bank consummates or enters into a definitive agreement relating to an acquisition proposal which was made known to any member of Delavan's or Community Bank's board of directors and not disclosed to Wintrust prior to the date of such termination.

Wintrust has entered into individual indemnification agreements with each of its non-employee directors and certain of its executive officers, which we refer to as the indemnification agreements, which implement with more specificity the indemnification provisions provided by Wintrust's by-laws and provide, among other things, that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Wintrust will indemnify such director or officer against any and all losses, expenses and liabilities arising out of such director's or officer's service as a director or officer of Wintrust, as the case may be. The indemnification agreements also contain detailed provisions concerning expense advancement and reimbursement. The indemnification agreements are in addition to any other rights each non-employee director or officer may be entitled to under Wintrust's articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable law.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders:	Wintrust's by-laws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the board of directors, the president or the holders of not less than one-fifth of all the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the matter for which the meeting is called, for the purpose or purposes stated in the call of the meeting.	Delavan's by-laws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the president, by the board of directors or such other officer(s) as the board of directors may authorize, or by the president or secretary at the written request of the holders of at least 10% of all outstanding capital stock entitled to vote.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent:

Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws provide that its shareholders are not permitted to act by written consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting.

Delavan's by-laws provide that any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all of the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if a meeting were held.

Appointment and Removal of Officers:

Amendment to Charter and By laws: An amendment to the articles of incorporation that relates to certain provisions, including, the prohibition of cumulative voting, shareholder purchase rights, the prohibition of shareholder action by written consent, the number and classification of the board of directors, director liability, indemnification and insurance, number, tenure and qualification of directors or the amendment process, must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of eighty-five percent (85%) or more of the voting power of the then-outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Delavan Shareholder Rights

As provided by the WBCL, Delavan's articles of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal after the board of directors has passed a resolution by majority vote setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting.

The by-laws may also be altered, amended or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted by the shareholders or the board of directors.

Otherwise, as provided by the IBCA, the articles of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal after the board of directors has passed a resolution by majority vote setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting.

The power to make, alter, amend or repeal the by-laws of the corporation is vested in the shareholders or the board of directors by a resolution adopted by a majority of the board of directors.

Certain anti-takeover effects of Wintrust's articles and by-laws and Illinois law and federal law

Certain provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation, by-laws, Illinois law and certain applicable banking regulations may have the effect of impeding the acquisition of control of Wintrust by means of a tender offer, a proxy fight, open-market purchases or otherwise in a transaction not approved by our board of directors.

These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by Wintrust's board of directors but which individual Wintrust shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which Wintrust shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over then-current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of Wintrust's current board of directors or management more difficult.

These provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws include the following:

Wintrust's board of directors may issue additional authorized shares of Wintrust's capital stock to deter future attempts to gain control of Wintrust, including the authority to determine the terms of any one or more series of preferred stock, such as voting rights, conversion rates and liquidation preferences. As a result of the ability to fix voting rights for a series of preferred stock, Wintrust's board has the power, to the extent consistent with its fiduciary duty, to issue a series of preferred stock to persons friendly to management in order to attempt to block a merger or other transaction by which a third party seeks control, and thereby assist the incumbent board of directors and management to retain their respective positions;

Wintrust's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting for any purpose, and Wintrust's articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders may be taken only at an annual or special meeting and prohibit shareholder action by written consent in lieu of a meeting;

Wintrust's articles of incorporation expressly elect to be governed by the provisions of Section 7.85 of the IBCA. Section 7.85 prohibits a publicly held Illinois corporation from engaging in a business combination unless, in addition to any affirmative vote required by law or the articles of incorporation of the company, the proposed business combination:

receives the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of all classes and series of the corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors voting together as a single class (the voting shares), and the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting shares held by disinterested shareholders; is approved by at least two-thirds of the disinterested directors; or provides for consideration offered to shareholders that meets certain fair price standards and satisfies certain procedural requirements.

Such fair price standards require that the fair market value per share of the consideration offered be equal to or greater than the higher of:

the highest per share price paid by the interested shareholder during the two-year period immediately prior to the first public announcement of the proposed business combination or in the transaction by which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder; and the fair market value per share of common stock on the first trading date after the first public announcement of the proposed business combination or on the first trading date after the date of the first public announcement that the interested shareholder has become an interested shareholder.

For purposes of Section 7.85, disinterested director means any member of the board of directors of the corporation who:

is neither the interested shareholder nor an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder; was a member of the board of directors prior to the time that the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder or was a director of the corporation before January 1, 1997, or was recommended to succeed a disinterested director by a majority of the disinterested directors then in office; and was not nominated for election as a director by the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder.

the amendment of Wintrust's articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority vote of the board of directors and also by a two-thirds vote of the outstanding shares of Wintrust's common stock, provided, however, that an affirmative vote of at least 85% of the outstanding voting stock entitled to vote is required to amend or repeal certain provisions of the articles of incorporation, including provisions (a) prohibiting cumulative voting rights, (b) relating to certain business combinations, (c) limiting the shareholders' ability to act by written consent, (d) regarding the minimum number of directors, (e) regarding indemnification of directors and officers by Wintrust and limitation of liability for directors and (f) regarding amendment of the foregoing supermajority provisions of Wintrust's articles of incorporation. Wintrust's by-laws may be amended only by its board of directors.

The provisions described above are intended to reduce Wintrust's vulnerability to takeover attempts and certain other transactions which have not been negotiated with and approved by members of Wintrust's board of directors.

The ability of a third party to acquire Wintrust is also limited under applicable banking regulations. The Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, or the Bank Holding Company Act, requires any bank holding company (as defined in that Act) to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve prior to acquiring more than 5% of Wintrust's outstanding common stock. Any person other than a bank holding company is required to obtain prior approval of the Federal Reserve to acquire 10% or more of Wintrust's outstanding common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978. Any holder of 25% or more of Wintrust's outstanding common stock, other than an individual, is subject to regulation as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act. For purposes of calculating ownership thresholds under these banking regulations, bank regulators would likely at least take the position that the minimum number of shares, and could take the position that the maximum number of shares, of Wintrust common stock that a holder is entitled to receive pursuant to securities convertible into or settled in Wintrust common stock, including pursuant to Wintrust's warrants to purchase Wintrust common stock held by such holder, must be taken into account in calculating a shareholder's aggregate holdings of Wintrust common stock.

Certain anti-takeover effects of Delavan's articles and by-laws and Wisconsin law and federal law

Certain provisions of Delavan's articles of incorporation, by-laws, Wisconsin law and certain applicable banking regulations may have the effect of impeding the acquisition of control of Delavan by means of a tender offer, a proxy fight, open-market purchases or otherwise in a transaction not approved by our board of directors.

These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by Delavan's board of directors but which individual Delavan shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which Delavan shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over then-current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. Such provisions will also render the removal of Delavan's current board of directors or management more difficult.

These provisions of Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws include the following:

Delavan's board of directors may issue additional authorized shares of Delavan's capital stock to deter future attempts to gain control of Delavan.

Delavan's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting for any purpose, and Delavan's articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by shareholders may be taken only at an annual or special meeting.

Delavan's by-laws provide that the board of directors consists of three classes of directors, each serving for a three-year term ending in a successive year. This provision may make it more difficult to effect a takeover of Delavan because an acquiring party would generally need two annual meetings of shareholders to elect a majority of the board of directors. As a result, a classified board of directors may discourage proxy contests for the election of directors or purchasers of a substantial block of stock by preventing such a shareholder or purchaser from obtaining control of the board of directors in a relatively short period of time.

Table of Contents

Delavan's articles of incorporation provide that no person or group acting in concert may directly or indirectly acquire the beneficial ownership of more than 20% of any class of equity security of Delavan. The articles of incorporation also contain the further limitation that shares exceeding the 20% limit will not be entitled to vote or be counted as voting shares. This limitation does not apply to:

any purchase of shares by underwriters retained by Delavan in connection with a public offering of the stock; or any acquisition approved in advance by a majority of disinterested directors, as long as the approval is obtained at a meeting where a quorum of disinterested directors is present.

Delavan's common stock is subject to the restrictions on transfer contained in the by-laws known as a right of first refusal. If a shareholder wishes to transfer (which includes give, sell, assign, pledge) any of his or her shares of Delavan common stock then Delavan and other individual members of the Board of Directors have a right of first refusal with respect to those shares. The right of first refusal generally works as follows:

The right generally does not apply to a transfer between a shareholder and his or her spouse, children, parents, or siblings, or a trust created for the benefit of such persons as long as the person receiving the shares is subject to the restrictions on transfer.

A pledge of shares is permitted as security for a loan only if (i) the title to the shares is not transferred; (ii) voting rights to the shares are not transferred; (iii) Delavan has given its prior written consent; and (iv) there is no other sale or transfer of the shares except in accordance with the by-laws.

If a shareholder wishes to transfer any shares of stock to a person or entity other than those listed above, Delavan will have the first right, and its current directors the second right, to purchase all or some of the shares to be transferred. Delavan is not obligated to make any purchases of Delavan common stock, but may do so at the discretion of its board of directors. The shareholder must give notice and follow the procedures described in the by-laws.

If the shares are to be transferred by a proposed sale to a third party, the purchase price under the right of first refusal will be the third party offer price as disclosed in the written notice to Delavan based on a bona fide written offer to purchase, signed by the third party buyer.

If the shares are to be transferred other than by a sale, the purchase price will be the redemption value of the shares. Redemption value is defined in the by-laws as the excess of the amount, if any, of Delavan's total assets over its total liabilities, divided by the number of issued and outstanding shares.

Any shares not purchased by Delavan or its directors may be transferred to the transferee identified in the written notice to Delavan, at the same consideration and on the same terms and conditions set forth in the notice.

Delavan's articles of incorporation expressly elect to be governed by the provisions of §§180.1130-.1134 and 180.1150 of the WCBL, whether or not Delavan would otherwise be subject to those statutory provisions:

§§180.1130 through 180.1133 provide that business combinations involving a significant shareholder are subject to a two-thirds supermajority vote of shareholders, in addition to any approval otherwise required.

A business combination includes a merger or share exchange, or a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets equal to at least 5% of the market value of the stock or assets of the corporation or 10% of its earning power, or the issuance of stock or rights to purchase stock with a market value equal to at least 5% of the outstanding stock, the adoption of a plan of liquidation or dissolution and certain other transactions involving an interested stockholder (i.e. a person who beneficially owns 10% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and beneficially owned 10% of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock within the last three years).

A significant shareholder is a person who beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the voting stock of the corporation, or an affiliate of the corporation which beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the voting stock of the corporation within the last two years.

§180.1131 and §180.1132 require business combinations between Delavan and a significant shareholder to be approved by 80% of the voting power of Delavan's stock and at least two-thirds of the voting power of Delavan's stock not beneficially held by the significant shareholder who is party to the relevant transaction or any of its affiliates or associates, in each case voting together as a single group, unless the following fair price standards have been met:

the aggregate value of the per share consideration is equal to the higher of:

the highest price paid for any common stock of Delavan by the significant shareholder in the transaction in which it became a significant shareholder or within two years before the date of the Business combination, the market value of Delavan's shares on the date of commencement of any tender offer by the significant shareholder, the date on which the person became a significant shareholder or the date of the first public announcement of the proposed Business combination, whichever is highest, or the highest liquidation or dissolution distribution to which holders of the shares would be entitled, and either cash, or the form of consideration used by the significant shareholder to acquire the largest number of shares, is offered.

§180.1150 provides that, in the election of directors, the voting power of shares held by any person (or persons acting as a group) in excess of 20% of the voting power is limited to 10% of the full voting power of those shares. This voting restriction does not apply to shares acquired directly from Delavan or in certain specified transactions or shares for which full voting power has been restored pursuant to a vote of shareholders.

§180.1134 provides that, in addition to the vote otherwise required by law or Delavan's articles of incorporation, the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote is required before Delavan can take certain actions while a takeover offer is being made or after a takeover offer has been publicly announced and before it is concluded. Under §180.1134, shareholder approval is required for Delavan to:

acquire more than 5% of the outstanding voting shares at a price above the market price from any individual who or organization which owns more than 3% of the outstanding voting shares and has held such shares for less than two years, unless a similar offer is made to acquire all voting shares (which have the effect of deterring a shareholder from acquiring shares of common stock of Delavan with the goal of seeking to have Delavan repurchase such shares at a premium over the market price), or sell or option assets of the corporation which amount to at least 10% of the market value of the corporation, unless the corporation has at least three independent directors (directors who are not officers or employees) and a majority of the independent directors vote not to have this provision apply to the corporation.

Table of Contents

The provisions described above are intended to reduce Delavan's vulnerability to takeover attempts and certain other transactions which have not been negotiated with and approved by members of Delavan's board of directors.

As with Wintrust, the ability of a third party to acquire Delavan is also limited under the same banking regulations described in the last paragraph of "No solicitation of or discussions relating to an acquisition proposal" above.

Table of ContentsWintrust series A preferred stock

Series A Preferred Stock Outstanding. As of September 30, 2014, no shares of Series A preferred were outstanding. If any shares of Series A preferred are issued in the future, the following terms would apply to such shares:

Dividends. Non-cumulative dividends on any outstanding shares of series A preferred are payable quarterly in arrears if, when and as declared by Wintrust's board of directors, at a rate of 8.00% per year on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. With certain limited exceptions, if Wintrust does not pay full cash dividends on the series A preferred for the most recently completed dividend period, Wintrust may not pay dividends on, or repurchase, redeem or make a liquidation payment with respect to, Wintrust common stock or other stock ranking equally with or junior to the series A preferred, including the series C preferred. The series A preferred is not redeemable by the holders thereof or by Wintrust.

Conversion. Holders of the series A preferred may convert their shares into common stock at any time. Wintrust may convert all of the series A preferred into common stock upon the consummation of certain Fundamental Transactions (as defined in the Series A Certificate of Designations), provided that Wintrust has declared and paid in full dividends on the series A preferred for the four most recently completed quarterly dividend periods. Wintrust may convert any or all of the series A preferred into common stock if, for 20 trading days during any period of 30 consecutive trading days, the closing price of Wintrust common stock exceeds $35.59 and Wintrust has declared and paid in full dividends on the series A preferred for the four most recently completed quarterly dividend periods. The conversion price of the series A preferred is subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

Reorganization Events and Fundamental Transactions. If Wintrust consummates a Reorganization Event (as defined in the Series A Certificate of Designations), each share of the series A preferred will, without the consent of the holders, become convertible into the kind of securities, cash and other property receivable in such Reorganization Event by a holder of the shares of common stock.

Voting Rights. Holders of the series A preferred generally do not have any voting rights, except as required by law. However, Wintrust may not amend its articles of incorporation or by-laws in a manner adverse to the rights of the series A preferred, issue capital stock ranking senior to the series A preferred or take certain other actions without the approval of the holders of the series A preferred. In addition, holders of the series A preferred, together with the holders of other parity securities having similar voting rights, may elect two directors if Wintrust has not paid dividends on the series A preferred for four or more quarterly dividend periods, whether or not consecutive.

Wintrust series C preferred stock

Dividends. Non-cumulative dividends on the series C preferred are payable quarterly in arrears if, when and as declared by Wintrust's board of directors, at a rate of 5.00% per year on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. With certain limited exceptions, if Wintrust does not pay full cash dividends on the series C preferred for the most recently completed dividend period, Wintrust may not pay dividends on, or repurchase, redeem or make a liquidation payment with respect to, Wintrust common stock or other stock ranking equally with or junior to the series C preferred. The series C preferred is not redeemable by the holders thereof or by Wintrust.

Conversion. Holders of the series C preferred may convert their shares into Wintrust common stock at any time. On or after April 15, 2017, if the closing price of the Wintrust common stock exceeds 130% of the conversion price then in effect for 20 trading days during any 30 consecutive trading day period, including the last trading day of such period, ending on the trading day preceding the date Wintrust gives notice of mandatory conversion, Wintrust may at its option cause some or all of the series C preferred to be automatically converted into common stock at the then prevailing conversion rate. In addition, in connection with a Make-Whole Acquisition (as defined in the Series C Certificate of Designations), Wintrust will, under certain circumstances, be required to pay an adjustment in the form of an increase in the conversion rate upon any conversions of the series C preferred that occur during the period beginning on the effective date of the Make-Whole Acquisition and ending on the date that is 30 days after the effective date of such Make-Whole Acquisition. The adjustment in the conversion rate in the event of a Make-Whole Acquisition will be payable in shares of Wintrust common stock or the consideration into which the Wintrust common stock has been converted or exchanged in connection with the Make-Whole Acquisition. The amount of the adjustment in the conversion rate in the event of a Make-Whole Acquisition, if any, will be based on the stock price and the effective date of the Make-Whole Acquisition. The conversion price of the series C preferred is subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

Reorganization Events and Fundamental Transactions. If Wintrust consummates a Reorganization Event (as defined in the Series C Certificate of Designations), each share of the series C preferred will, without the consent of the holders, become convertible into the kind of securities, cash and other property receivable in such Reorganization Event by a holder of the shares of common stock.

Voting Rights. Holders of the series C preferred generally do not have any voting rights, except as required by law. However, Wintrust may not amend its articles of incorporation in a manner adverse to the rights of the series C preferred, issue capital stock ranking senior to the series C preferred or take certain other actions without the approval of the holders of the series C preferred. 1.8 Dissenting Shares. Any holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock otherwise entitled to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration in exchange for each of his or her shares of Company Common Stock shall be entitled to demand payment in cash of the fair value for his or her shares of Company Common Stock as specified in Sections 180.1301 through 180.1331 of the WBCL if the holder fully complies with the requirements specified therein (such shares hereinafter referred to as Dissenting Shares). (b) Except as may be disclosed in the Wintrust SEC Documents, there are no material claims, actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of Wintrust, threatened or contemplated against or affecting Wintrust or its subsidiaries, at law or in equity, or before any federal, state or other Governmental Authority or any arbitrator or arbitration panel, whether by contract or otherwise, including any claims, actions, suits or proceedings that might seek to challenge the validity or propriety of the Merger, and there is no decree, judgment or order or supervisory agreement of any kind in existence against or restraining Wintrust or its subsidiaries from taking any action of any kind in connection with their respective businesses. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Title Endorsements shall include an extended coverage endorsement deleting or insuring over all general or standard exceptions to title customarily contained in owner's title insurance policies and, except for OREO properties listed on Schedule 4.7(b), a 3.1 zoning endorsement (with parking coverage). Upon its receipt of the Title Defect Notice, the Company will have until the Closing Date to cure the Title Defects and obtain the Title Endorsements at the Company's sole expense. If the Company fails or elects not to cure the Title Defects or obtain the Title Endorsements by the Closing Date, Wintrust will have the option in its sole discretion to: (x) terminate this Agreement by giving written notice of termination to the Company; or (y) accept title to the Real Property with the Title Defects and without the Title Endorsements, subject to a reduction in the Merger Consideration equal to an amount to be mutually agreed upon in good faith by Wintrust and the Company.

(d) Title Insurance. At the Closing, the Company, at its sole expense, shall obtain and deliver to Wintrust with respect to each parcel of the Real Property either (a) a Date Down Endorsement to each Existing Policy, or (b) an owner's title insurance policy (or an irrevocable commitment to issue such a policy) on ALTA Policy Form 2006, if available (if not available, then Form B-1992) (collectively, the Title Policies). The Title Policies shall (i) be issued by the Title Insurer with the required Title Endorsements, (ii) be dated as of the Closing Date, and (iii) insure fee simple title to the Real Property in the Bank in an amount not less than the current value at which the Company carries the Real Property on its books, subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances. The Date Down Endorsements shall (1) be issued by the applicable title company that issued the Existing Policy being endorsed, (2) be accompanied by the required Title Endorsements, all of which shall be dated as of the Closing Date, (3) be dated as of the Closing Date, and (4) insure fee simple title to the Real Property in the Bank in an amount not less than the current value at which the Company carries the Real Property on its books, subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances. The Company shall indemnify the Title Insurer and the applicable title companies issuing the Date Down Endorsements, or provide such other assurances or security as may be reasonably required by such companies, in order to cause them to insure over the so-called recording gap period and issue the Title Policies and Date Down Endorsements effective on the Closing Date.

(e) Fees. The Company and Wintrust shall each bear one half (1/2) of the cost and expense of any recording fees imposed by any governmental authority with regard to the Real Property. The Company and Wintrust shall each bear one half (1/2) of the cost of all recording fees incurred in connection with the Real Property, and the Company shall pay the cost of all recording fees, if any, incurred in connection with curing any Title Defects.

4.8 No Conduct Inconsistent with this Agreement.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall cause the Bank to not, during the term of this Agreement, directly or indirectly, solicit, encourage or facilitate inquiries or proposals or enter into any agreement with respect to, or initiate or participate in any negotiations or discussions with any Person concerning, any proposed transaction or series of transactions involving or affecting the Company or the Bank (or the securities or assets of either) that, if effected, would constitute an acquisition of control of either the Company or the Bank within the meaning of 12 U.S.C.A. §1817(j) (disregarding the exceptions set forth in 12 U.S.C.A. §1817(j)(17)) and the regulations of the Federal Reserve thereunder (each, an Acquisition Proposal), or furnish any information to any Person proposing or seeking an Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company Board determines in good faith and after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of an Acquisition Proposal (other than an Acquisition Proposal the terms of which were made known to the Company Board prior to the date hereof), it is necessary to provide such information or engage in such negotiations or discussions in order to act in a manner consistent with such Board's fiduciary duties, the Company Board may, in response to an Acquisition Proposal which was not solicited by or on behalf of the Company or the Bank or which did not otherwise result from a breach of Section 4.8(a), subject to its compliance with Section 4.8(c), (i) furnish information with respect to the Company or the Bank to such Person making such Acquisition Proposal pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement that is no less restrictive than the Confidentiality Agreement and (ii) participate in discussions or negotiations regarding such Acquisition Proposal. In the event that the Company Board determines in good faith and after consultation with outside counsel, that the Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Acquisition Proposal (as defined below) and that it is necessary to pursue such Superior Acquisition Proposal in order to act in a manner consistent with such Board's fiduciary duties, the Company may (A) withdraw, modify or otherwise change in a manner adverse to Wintrust, the Company's recommendation to its shareholders with respect to this Agreement and the Merger, and/or (B) terminate this Agreement in order to concurrently enter into an agreement with respect to such Superior Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that the Company Board may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 4.8(b) unless and until (x) five (5) business days have elapsed following the delivery to Wintrust of a written notice of such determination by the Company Board and during such five (5) business-day period, the Company and the Bank otherwise cooperate with Wintrust with the intent of enabling the Parties to engage in good faith negotiations so that the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby may be effected and (y) at the end of such five (5) business-day period the Company Board continues reasonably to believe the Acquisition Proposal at issue constitutes a Superior Acquisition Proposal. A Superior Acquisition Proposal shall mean any Acquisition Proposal containing terms which the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment (based on the advice of an independent financial advisor) to be more favorable to the Company's shareholders than the Merger and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board, is reasonably capable of being obtained by such third party, but shall exclude any Acquisition Proposal the terms of which were made known to the Company Board prior to the date of this Agreement.

(c) In addition to the obligations of the Company set forth in Section 4.8(a) and (b), the Company shall immediately advise Wintrust orally and in writing of any request for information or of any Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal and the identity of the Person making such request or Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall keep Wintrust informed of the status and details (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such request or Acquisition Proposal, including the status of any discussions or negotiations with respect to any Superior Acquisition Proposal.

4.9 Loan Charge-Off; Pre-Closing Loan Review.

(a) The Company shall cause the Bank, prior to the Closing Date, (i) to write off all Loans of the Bank that are required to be written off by the Bank's regulators or that, in conformity with past practices and policies of the Bank and GAAP, should be written off as Loan losses and (ii) to write down potential Loan losses in conformity with past practices and policies of the Bank and GAAP. Any such write down shall not have any effect on, or result in a breach of, the representations and warranties under Section 2.8 made by the Company as of the date of this Agreement and shall not result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Company, but shall be taken into account in determining the Minimum Adjusted Net Worth (as defined in Section 6.10 below) of the Company as of the Closing Date; and nothing in this Section 4.9(a) shall require the Company to make any additional provision to the Bank's reserve for loan losses so long as such reserve, determined as described in Section 2.8 and in compliance with the second sentence of Section 4.11 below, is adequate and in compliance with GAAP.

(b) The Company shall cause the Bank to make available to Wintrust the files maintained by the Bank with respect to, and information regarding the status of, each Loan contained in the Loan portfolio of the Bank, as of a date not more than 15 days prior to the Closing Date.

4.10 Director and Officer Insurance Coverage.

(a) Wintrust agrees to provide each of the directors and officers of the Company and the Bank who continue to hold such positions after the Effective Time substantially the same insurance coverage against personal liability for actions taken after the Effective Time as is provided to current directors and officers of Wintrust's subsidiary banks. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, on or prior to the Closing Date, the Company and the Bank shall purchase, at Wintrust's expense (so long as the premium or premiums are acceptable to Wintrust in its sole discretion), for the benefit of the Bank and the Company (including their respective successors) and individuals who were officers or directors of the Bank or the Company (but only in their capacity as such) immediately prior to Closing, a tail policy or policies providing coverages equivalent to the level and scope of directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance coverages as set forth in the Company's and the Bank's current directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance policies in effect as of the Closing, which tail policy or policies shall be for terms of six (6) years or, if such term of coverage is not available, such other maximum period of coverage that is available at a cost consistent with the cost incurred by the Company's or the Bank's current directors' and officers' liability and other professional insurance policies in effect as of the Closing.

(b) In the event the current insurer of such policies issued by the Company and the Bank declines to provide the tail policy or policies described above, or after the Effective Time terminates the tail policy or policies described above, the Company (if prior to the Closing Date) or Wintrust (if after the Effective Time) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to identify and obtain similar cover from another insurance carrier of substantially similar size, reputation and creditworthiness to that of such former insurer, if such coverage is reasonably obtainable from the marketplace. If after such reasonable efforts another such insurance carrier is unable or unwilling to provide such similar coverage, the Company (if prior to the Closing Date) or Wintrust (if after the Effective Time) shall obtain the best coverage available as determined in the reasonable judgment of the Company or Wintrust, as applicable.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and regardless of the purchase of insurance coverage under this Section 4.10, Wintrust acknowledges and agrees that, after Closing, individuals who were officers or directors of the Company, the Bank or the Bank Subsidiary prior to Closing shall continue to be entitled to indemnification for acts and omissions occurring prior to Closing, to the extent of any indemnification provided to such individuals on the date hereof in the WBCL, the articles of incorporation or by-laws of the Company, the Bank or the Bank Subsidiary, as applicable.

4.13 Section 368(a) Reorganization. Either prior to or after the Closing Date, none of the Parties shall take or cause to be taken any action, or omit to take any action or cause any omission, which would cause the Merger not to qualify as a reorganization in accordance with Section 368(a) of the Code. The Parties agree to take any and all necessary or advisable steps to restructure or modify the terms of the transaction contemplated hereby, if such steps are necessary or advisable to qualify the transaction contemplated hereby as a reorganization in accordance with Section 368(a) of the Code; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 4.13 shall be deemed to require the Parties to take any steps that will increase the Per Share Merger Consideration.

4.14 Treatment of Options. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, Wintrust and the Company each acknowledge and agree that the holder of any Outstanding Company Option may, at any time prior to the fifth (5th) calendar day preceding the Closing Date, exercise such Outstanding Company Option in accordance with its terms and conditions.

4.15 Untrue Representations and Warranties. During the term of this Agreement, if any Party becomes aware of any facts, circumstances or of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event that would cause one or more of such Party's representations and warranties contained in this Agreement to be or to become untrue as of the Closing Date then:

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO

OBLIGATIONS OF WINTRUST AND MERGER CO.

Unless the conditions are waived by Wintrust, all obligations of Wintrust and Merger Co. under this Agreement are subject to the fulfillment, on or before the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

6.1 Representations and Warranties; Performance of Agreements. Each of the representations and warranties contained in ARTICLE II that are qualified by materiality shall be true and correct in all respects as of the Closing Date, and each of the representations and warranties contained in ARTICLE II that are not qualified by materiality shall be true and correct in all material respects, except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date, they shall be tested as of such earlier date. incorporation, by-laws and the WBCL, and the proper officers of the Company shall have executed and delivered to Wintrust the Articles of Merger, in form suitable for filing with WDFI, and shall have executed and delivered all such other certificates, statements or instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effect such a filing.

6.5 No Litigation. No suit or other action shall have been instituted or threatened in writing seeking to enjoin the consummation of the Merger or to obtain other relief in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein that Wintrust believes, in good faith and with the written advice of outside counsel, makes it inadvisable to consummate the Merger by reason of the probability that the proceeding would result in the issuance of an order enjoining the Merger or in a determination that the Company, the Bank or the Bank Subsidiary has failed to comply with applicable legal requirements of a material nature in connection with the Merger or actions preparatory thereto or would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Bank.

6.6 Environmental Review.

(a) Environmental Surveys. The Company has provided to Wintrust copies of certain existing environmental assessments and reports that the Company or the Bank have obtained in connection with any of the Real Property. Within thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement, the Company shall deliver to Wintrust, at the Company's sole expense, a Phase I environmental assessment or an update of the existing Phase I environmental assessment for each parcel of the Real Property (other than real property reflected on the latest balance sheet of the Bank as OREO) (each, an Environmental Survey, and collectively, the Environmental Surveys). In the event that an Environmental Survey indicates or tends to indicate the presence or the suspected presence of an Environmental Condition (in the sole discretion of Wintrust), Wintrust will give the Company written notice of the presence or the suspected presence of the Environmental Condition within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of such Environmental Survey (together with all information it possesses relating to the Environmental Condition). For purposes of this Agreement, an Environmental Condition shall mean (i) an above ground storage tank, underground storage tank, subsurface structure or container, and its associated piping, which is present at the Real Property and which violates an Environmental Law; (ii) a Hazardous Material found in building materials at the Real Property or present in soil and/or groundwater at the Real Property which violates an Environmental Law; (iii) a discharge, emission or release of a Hazardous Material related to the Real Property which violates an Environmental Law; (iv) an event or condition that likely has occurred or exists with respect to the Real Property which constitutes a violation of an Environmental Law; or (v) an event or condition related to the Real Property which requires cleanup, remedy, abatement or restoration of contaminated surface water, groundwater, soil or natural resource under an Environmental Law.

(b) Phase II Survey. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from Wintrust of the presence or suspected presence of an Environmental Condition, the Company shall deliver to Wintrust, at the Company's sole expense, a physical examination and investigation of the Environmental Condition indicated in the applicable Environmental Survey (the Phase II Survey). The subject, scope, manner and method of the Phase II Survey will be subject to Wintrust's prior review and reasonable approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld. The Company shall deliver to Wintrust with the Phase II Survey all written reports, analytical data, correspondence, notices or other written materials relating thereto (which collectively constitutes the Phase II Survey Report).

(c) If any Phase II Survey Report indicates or confirms, in the sole discretion of Wintrust, the presence of an Environmental Condition related to the Real Property, Wintrust will have until ten (10) Business Days from its receipt of such Phase II Survey Report to either (A) accept the Real Property in its current condition subject to a reduction in the Merger Consideration equal to an amount to be mutually agreed upon in good faith by Wintrust and the Company, or (B) notify the Company in writing that Wintrust has elected to terminate this Agreement; provided, however, that in the event the estimated cost of remediation of such Environmental Condition(s) is less than $200,000, at Wintrust's election, in lieu of exercising its termination rights, Wintrust may accept the Real Property in its current condition but for purposes of Section 6.10(b), the shareholders' equity set forth in the Closing Balance Sheets shall be reduced by the amount of such estimated cost of remediation, and the Company shall agree to such reduction, in which case the updated representations and disclosures referenced in the last sentence of Section 2.17 shall be deemed made. For purposes of clarification, if the parties are able to agree in good faith upon a reduction in the Merger Consideration pursuant to clause (A) in the preceding sentence, such same updated representations and disclosures referenced in the last sentence of Section 2.17 shall be deemed made.

(b) Wintrust shall indemnify the holders of Company Common Stock as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Company Indemnified Parties) against and hold them harmless from (i) any and all Claims arising out of or resulting from (A) any breach or incorrectness of any of the representations and warranties contained in ARTICLE III or in any certificates delivered to the Company by Wintrust or with its express authorization, or (B) any breach of any covenant or agreement made by Wintrust or Merger Co. in this Agreement, and (ii) the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses or costs incurred by the Company Indemnified Parties, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with investigating, attempting to correct or defending against any claims, liens or charges that are asserted against the Company's shareholders for which they are entitled to indemnity pursuant to the foregoing provisions. To the extent a Claim arises out of or results from a breach or incorrectness of a representation or warranty of Wintrust or Merger Co., Wintrust shall not be liable under this Section 8.2(b) unless such Claim has been asserted by a written notice which is given to Wintrust on or before the expiration of such statement, representation or warranty.

(c) In the event a Claim results in a reduction in the amount of federal, state or foreign income taxes payable by the indemnified party by reason of any deduction or adjustment allowed such party as a result of the payment, settlement or satisfaction of such Claim, or in the event the indemnified party receives any other monetary benefit (by way of counterclaim, set-off or otherwise) as a result of a judgment, compromise or settlement of a Claim and such monetary benefit arises out of the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of such Claim, the indemnifying party's indemnification obligation shall be net of the amount of such tax or monetary benefit, provided such tax or monetary benefit is sufficient to compensate the indemnified party for any additional income taxes payable by the indemnified party as a result of any indemnification payments hereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 8.2:

(i) no indemnified party shall be entitled to indemnification under clause (i)(A) of Section 8.2(a) (in the case of the Wintrust Indemnified Parties) or clause (i)(A) of Section 8.2(b) (in the case of the Company Indemnified Parties) until the aggregate amount of liability suffered by the indemnified parties with respect to which they are entitled to indemnification under the applicable clause (i)(A) exceeds $250,000, whereupon the indemnified parties shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder for all liabilities suffered; provided, however, that such limitation shall not apply to the obligations of the Company to indemnify the Wintrust Indemnified Parties for any breach of any of the representations and warranties made by the Company in Section 2.1 (Organization), Section 2.3 (Capitalization), Section 2.4 (Authorization; No Violation), Section 2.16 (Taxes), Section 2.17 (Environmental Laws and Regulations), Section 2.21 (Employee Benefit Plans), Section 2.26 (Brokers' and Finders' Fees) and Section 2.28 (No Omissions) (collectively, the Fundamental Representations);

(ii) the aggregate amount by which the Wintrust Indemnified Parties may be indemnified pursuant to Section 8.2 shall not exceed $1,000,000;

(iii) the aggregate obligation of Wintrust to indemnify the Company Indemnified Parties pursuant to this Section 8.2 shall not exceed $1,000,000; and

(iv) the indemnified party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any Claims and obtain or realize any insurance proceeds or tax deductions or tax benefits with respect to such Claims.

8.3 Indemnification Procedure. A party seeking indemnification (which in the case of the shareholders of the Company seeking indemnification shall be the Shareholders' Agent acting on their behalf) shall assert a claim for indemnification under Section 8.2 by giving prompt notice in writing to the indemnifying party of the facts and circumstances giving rise to such Claim. Subject to the limitations of any contract of insurance, an indemnified party shall tender to the indemnifying parties the opportunity to manage and control any defense against any such Claim with counsel chosen by the indemnifying party, subject to the indemnified party's approval of such counsel (which approval shall not be withheld unreasonably) and to such other conditions as the indemnified party reasonably determines in good faith to be necessary for the protection of its interests. If the indemnifying party assumes management and control of such defense, the indemnified parties shall cooperate reasonably with the indemnifying parties in the conduct of any such defense, and the indemnifying party shall have full rights to negotiate and enter into any compromise or settlement which is dispositive of such Claim, provided that any compromise or settlement that will not be paid in full by the indemnifying party or that involves any remedy other than the payment of money damages shall be subject to the consent of the indemnified party. The indemnified parties shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such action at their own expense. In the event the indemnifying party fails to accept the management and control of such defense in a timely manner, the indemnified parties shall have the right to choose counsel and to assume management and control of the defense at the indemnifying parties' expense, and the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate in such defense at its own expense.

8.4 Appointment of Shareholders' Agent. The decisions of the shareholders of the Company with respect to taking any and all actions specified or contemplated by this ARTICLE VIII shall be determined by an executive officer of the Company to be nominated at the Shareholders' Meeting, who upon the requisite approval by the Company's shareholders at the Shareholders Meeting shall be constituted and appointed as the shareholders' exclusive agent and attorney-in-fact in connection with the foregoing (Shareholders' Agent). The Company Board shall cause the appointment of the Shareholders' Agent, together with an alternate to serve as successor if the initial Shareholders' Agent should become unable or unwilling to perform his or her duties, at the Shareholders' Meeting to constitute the authorization by each shareholder of the Company, without regard to whether such shareholder voted to appoint the Shareholders' Agent, that the powers granted to the Shareholders' Agent are coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable and that Shareholders' Agent shall be fully protected, held harmless and indemnified by the Company's shareholders in exercising, or in declining to exercise, a power provided for or contemplated by this Agreement for the benefit of all shareholders, as he or she shall determine, whether upon consultation with the shareholders or in his or her sole discretion, to be in the interests of all shareholders of the Company. The actions of the Shareholders' Agent pursuant to this Agreement shall bind each shareholder of the Company, and no notice to or approval by the shareholders of such action shall be required. Wintrust shall be entitled to rely on any action taken by the Shareholders' Agent as may be contemplated by this Agreement and on any certificate or instrument related thereto provided by the Shareholders' Agent in his or her capacity as agent for the shareholders of the Company, for the benefit of all shareholders of the Company, and shall have no duty to inquire into the circumstances in which any such action is taken or such written instrument is provided. In the event the successor Shareholders' Agent appointed at the Shareholders' Meeting should become unable or unwilling to perform his or her duties, and unable or unwilling to appoint a subsequent successor, then Wintrust shall appoint any reasonable successor Shareholders' Agent from among the Shareholders or former officers of the Company. Any successor Shareholders' Agent so appointed shall be vested with the same power and authority as the initial Shareholders' Agent.

8.5 Adjustment to Merger Consideration. All amounts paid with respect to Claims under this Agreement shall be treated by the Parties for all Tax purposes as adjustments to the Merger Consideration.

8.6 Sole and Exclusive Remedy. Except as set forth in Section 9.1 or for claims based upon fraud or willful misconduct, the indemnification provisions of this ARTICLE VIII shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Wintrust and the shareholders of the Company for any breach of representations or warranties or covenants under this Agreement.

8.7 Arbitration.

(a) Any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Article VIII or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, including the determination of the scope or applicability of this agreement to arbitrate, shall be resolved by arbitration in Madison, Wisconsin, before one arbitrator who is an attorney. The arbitration shall be administered by the Madison, Wisconsin, office of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) pursuant to this Section 8.7, the AAA Commercial Arbitration Rules and the Federal Arbitration Act. In the event of a conflict, this Section 8.7 shall govern. The Parties agree that the arbitrator shall have the power to provide any relief available at law or in equity under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned award to the Parties deciding the issues in dispute within thirty (30) days of the evidentiary hearing, or, if no such hearing is held, within thirty (30) days of receiving all of the Parties' submissions. Judgment on the award may be entered in any court that may properly assert jurisdiction over the Parties against which judgment will be enforced.

(b) The arbitrator shall, in the award, allocate the costs of the arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrator and the reasonable attorneys' fees of the Prevailing Party against the non-prevailing party. The Prevailing Party, as it is used in this Section 8.7, shall be determined by the arbitrator, who shall consider, among other things, the good faith of the Parties, the party that prevails on the majority of the claims and counterclaims before the arbitrator and the monetary value of the claims or counterclaims decided by the arbitrator.

ARTICLE IX

Except as provided in the following sentence and in Section 9.1(c), such sums shall constitute liquidated damages and the receipt thereof shall be Wintrust's sole and exclusive remedy under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated by Wintrust as a result of the Company's willful breach of this Agreement, then in addition to recovery of its out-of-pocket expenses and costs, Wintrust shall be entitled to recover such other amounts, including consequential damages, as it may be entitled to receive at law or in equity.

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated (i) by Wintrust as a result of a breach by the Company of its covenant in Section 4.8, (ii) by the Company pursuant to Section 9.2(e), or (iii) pursuant to Section 9.2(b) or 9.2(c) and (in the case of this clause (iii)) within six months after the date of such termination the Company or the Bank has either consummated or entered into a definitive agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal which was made known to any member of the Company Board or the boards of directors of the Bank and not disclosed to Wintrust prior to the date of such termination, then the Company shall pay to Wintrust a termination fee equal to $1,250,000, plus documented out-of-pocket expenses and costs (up to a maximum of an additional $250,000 in such costs and expenses) including reasonable attorneys' fees, subject to verification thereof, that Wintrust (i) has incurred in furtherance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein and (ii) is reasonably expected to incur as a result of the Company's conduct described in this clause (b) above, including reasonable fees of professionals engaged for such purpose by or on behalf of Wintrust. Except as provided in Section (a) such sums shall constitute liquidated damages and the receipt thereof shall be Wintrust's sole and exclusive remedy under this Agreement; provided that in no event shall Wintrust be entitled to a termination fee under both Sections 9.1(a) and 9.1(b) and including reasonable attorneys' fees.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company because Wintrust committed a material breach of its material obligations under this Agreement, unless such breach is a result of the failure by the Company or the Bank to perform and comply in all material respects with any of its material obligations under this Agreement which are to be performed or complied with by it prior to or on the date of such termination, then, provided the Company is in material compliance with all of its material obligations under this Agreement, Wintrust shall pay the Company a termination fee of $750,000, plus documented out-of-pocket expenses and costs (up to a maximum of an additional $250,000 in such expenses and costs), including reasonable attorneys' fees, subject to verification thereof, that the Company (i) has incurred in furtherance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein and (ii) is reasonably expected to incur as a result of Wintrust's breach of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, reasonable fees of professionals engaged for such purpose by or on behalf of the Company; provided, however, that such sums shall constitute liquidated damages and the receipt thereof shall be the Company's sole and exclusive remedy under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated by the Company as a result of Wintrust's willful breach of this Agreement, then in addition to recovery of its out-of-pocket expenses and costs, the Company shall be entitled to recover such other amounts, including consequential damages, as it may be entitled to receive at law or in equity.

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, Employer is engaged in the business of general banking;

WHEREAS, Employer's parent company, Delavan Bancshares, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (the Parent), and Wintrust Financial Corporation (Wintrust), have executed and delivered as of the date hereof an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Wintrust shall acquire, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Parent via the Merger (as such term is defined therein), upon which Employer shall become a wholly owned subsidiary of Wintrust;

WHEREAS, the Merger Agreement provides that, as a condition to Closing (as such term is defined therein), Executive shall have entered into this Agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein, which Agreement is to become effective as of the consummation of the Merger (the Effective Date);

WHEREAS, Executive acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement is ancillary to the Merger Agreement and that Wintrust would not enter into the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement if the Executive did not execute and deliver this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Executive has particular expertise and knowledge concerning the business of Employer;

WHEREAS, by virtue of Executive's employment with Employer, Executive will become acquainted with certain confidential information regarding the services, customers, methods of doing business, strategic plans, marketing, and other aspects of the business of Employer, Wintrust or its Affiliates;

WHEREAS, Employer and Executive desire to state and set forth in this Agreement the terms, conditions and obligations of the parties with respect to such employment; and as of the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement is intended by the parties to supersede all previous agreements and understanding, whether written or oral, concerning such employment.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants and agreements contained herein, of Executive's employment, of the compensation to be paid by Employer for Executive's services, and of Employer's other undertakings in this Agreement, the parties hereto do hereby agree as follows:

1. Scope of Employment. Executive will be employed as President of Employer and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to Executive by the Board of Directors of Employer in such position. Executive agrees that during Executive's employment Executive will be subject to and abide by the written policies and practices of Employer and Wintrust. Executive also agrees to assume such new or additional positions and responsibilities commensurate with the position of President of Employer as Executive may from time to time be assigned for or on behalf of Employer or Wintrust, it being understood that in the event Wintrust decides to combine Employer or certain of its operations with those of the Employer's Affiliate Town Bank, that the position of Market President shall be assumed by the Executive and be within the scope of Executive's employment hereunder and that, following such combination, references to Employer hereunder shall include references to Town Bank. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Term (as defined in Section 8 herein) of this Agreement, Executive will not be required without Executive's consent to move Executive's principal business location to another location more than a 25 mile radius from Executive's now existing principal business location. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Affiliate shall include but not be limited to the entities listed in Exhibit A to this Agreement and any subsidiary of any of such entities and shall further include any present or future affiliate of any of them as defined by the rules and regulations of the Federal Reserve Board. In the event Executive shall perform services for Wintrust or any Affiliate, the provisions of this Agreement shall also apply to the performance of such services by Executive on behalf of Wintrust or any Affiliate.

2. Compensation and Benefits. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to the following compensation and benefits:

(a) Executive's annual base salary (the Annual Base Salary) shall be as set forth in Schedule A, and shall be payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of Employer. During the Term, the Annual Base Salary may be increased or decreased by Employer, its sole and absolute discretion, provided that the Annual Base Salary may not be decreased below the amount set forth on Schedule A without Executive's consent so long as Executive remains a full-time employee of Employer.

(b) Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual performance-based bonus (the Incentive Bonus) as set forth in Schedule A. The actual amount of the Incentive Bonus (if any) earned by and payable to the Executive for each fiscal year in the Term shall be determined by the Compensation Committee of Wintrust's Board of Directors and/or the Board of Directors of Employer, in their sole and absolute discretion, based upon the satisfaction of goals and objectives applicable to Executive and established by the Compensation Committee of Wintrust's Board of Directors and/or the Board of Directors of Employer. Any Incentive Bonus payable pursuant to this Section 2(b) shall be subject to, and paid to Executive in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the Employer's annual bonus guidelines as in effect from time to time.

(c) Executive will be entitled to coverage under such compensation plans, insurance plans and other fringe benefit plans and programs as may from time to time be established for similarly-situated employees of Employer, Wintrust and its Affiliates in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plans and programs. Executive shall also be eligible to participate in the Wintrust 2007 Stock Incentive Plan or any successor Plan thereto.

(d) Executive shall be entitled to six weeks of paid vacation leave each year during the term of this Agreement, excluding holidays, at such times within each year as Executive may determine, taking into account Employer's schedule and Executive's duties relative thereto.

(e) If requested by Executive, Employer shall, at its expense, make available to Executive an automobile for professional and private use.

(f) Employer shall pay all voice, text and data charges associated with Executive's use of his cellular telephone, and Employer shall pay Executive's membership dues at Big Foot Country Club.

(g) Employer shall pay all reasonable travel, mileage, dining and other ordinary, necessary and reasonable business expenses incurred by Executive in the performance of his duties under this Agreement.

3. Extent of Service. Executive shall devote Executive's entire business time, attention and energies to the business of Employer during the Term of this Agreement; but this shall not be construed as preventing Executive from

(a) investing Executive's personal assets in such form or manner as will not require any services on the part of Executive in the operation or the affairs of the corporations, partnerships and other entities in which such investments are made and in which Executive's participation is solely that of an investor (subject to any and all rules and regulations of applicable banking regulators or policies of the Employer governing transactions with affiliates and ownership interests in customers); (b) engaging (whether or not during normal business hours) in any other business, professional or civic activities provided that the Board of Directors of Employer approves of such activities and Executive's engagement does not result in a violation of Executive's covenants under this Section or Sections 4 or 5 hereof; (c) serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the St. Andrews Catholic Church Endowment Fund, and/or serving as the Finance Officer and as a member of the Executive Council of Big Foot Country Club; or (d) accepting appointments to the boards of directors of other companies provided that the Board of Directors of Employer approves of such appointments and Executive's performance of Executive's duties on such boards does not result in a violation of Executive's covenants under this Section or Sections 4 and 5 hereof.

4. Competition. Other than in connection with Executive's performance of Executive's duties hereunder, during the period in which Executive performs services for Employer and for a period of one year after termination of Executive's employment with Employer, regardless of the reason for such termination of employment, Executive shall not directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction with any other person, firm, association, company or corporation:

(a) serve as an owner, principal, agent, senior manager, employee or in a position comparable to that held by Executive at any time during Executive's employment with Employer, for a bank or other financial institution (or any branch or affiliate thereof) which offers to its customers commercial and community banking and/or trust and investment services, and which is located within ten miles of the principal office or any branch office of the Employer as currently situated;

(b) solicit or conduct business which involves commercial and community banking and/or trust and investment services with any person, corporation or other entity which was (i) a customer of the Employer, Wintrust or any other Affiliate of Wintrust with whom Executive had direct or indirect contact while employed by Employer or about whom Executive obtained Confidential Information during the fifteen months prior to the termination of Executive's employment with Employer, or (ii) a potential customer with whom Employer, Wintrust, or any Affiliate has, at the time of Executive's termination of employment with Employer, an outstanding oral or written proposal to provide commercial and community banking and/or trust and investment services and with whom Executive had direct or indirect contact while employed by Employer;

(c) request, advise or directly or indirectly invite any of the existing customers, suppliers or service providers of Employer, Wintrust or any other Affiliate of Wintrust to withdraw, curtail or cancel its business with Employer, Wintrust or any other Affiliate of Wintrust, other than through mass mailings or general advertisements not specifically directed at customers of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate;

(d) hire, solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any employee of Employer, Wintrust or any other Affiliate of Wintrust (i) to terminate his or her employment or association with Employer or (ii) to become employed by or serve in any capacity by a bank or other financial institution; or

(e) in any way participate in planning or opening a bank or other financial institution which is located or will be located within a ten mile radius of the principal office or any branch office of the Employer. For the purposes of this Agreement, in the event Executive's geographic area of responsibility as specified herein shall change during employment with Employer, or as the result of performing services for Wintrust or any Affiliate of Wintrust, the Executive's obligation stated in Sections 4(a) and 4(e) shall apply to a ten mile radius of Executive's revised geographic area of responsibility.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (a) Executive shall not be prevented from: (i) investing or owning shares of stock of any corporation engaged in any business provided that such shares are regularly traded on a national securities exchange or any over-the-counter market; (ii) retaining any shares of stock in any corporation which Executive owned prior to his execution of this Agreement (subject to any and all rules and regulations of applicable banking regulators or policies of the Employer governing transactions with affiliates and ownership interests in customers); or (iii) investing as a limited partner (without decision-making authority) in any private equity fund, provided that Executive's involvement in such investment is solely that of a passive investor (subject to any and all rules and regulations of applicable banking regulators or policies of the Employer governing transactions with affiliates and ownership interests in customers), and (b) Executive shall not be in violation of Sections 4(a) or 4(e) of this Agreement if, during the one-year period following termination of employment Executive accepts employment or invests in a bank or other financial institution which is within a ten mile radius of the principal offices or any branch office of Wintrust or any Affiliate of Wintrust (other than Employer) as long as such facility is not within a ten mile radius of the principal office or any branch office of the Employer.

5. Confidential Information. Executive acknowledges that, during Executive's employment with Employer, Executive has and will obtain access to Confidential Information of and for Employer, Wintrust or its Affiliates. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information shall mean information not generally known or available without restriction to the trade or industry, including, without limitation, the following categories of information and documentation:

Absent prior authorization by Employer or as required in Executive's duties for Employer, Executive will not at any time, directly or indirectly, use, permit the use of, disclose or permit the disclosure to any third party of any such Confidential Information to which Executive will be provided access. These obligations apply both during Executive's employment with Employer and shall continue beyond the termination of Executive's employment and this Agreement; provided, however, that Executive's obligations with respect to the Confidential Information described in (a) through (f) of this Section 5 shall cease upon the expiration of one year following the termination of Executive's employment with Employer.

6. Inventions. All discoveries, designs, improvements, ideas, and inventions, whether patentable or not, relating to (or suggested by or resulting from) products, services, or other technology of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate or relating to (or suggested by or resulting from) methods or processes used or usable in connection with the business of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate that may be conceived, developed, or made by Executive during employment with Employer (hereinafter Inventions), either solely or jointly with others, shall automatically become the sole property of Employer, Wintrust or an Affiliate. Executive shall immediately disclose to Employer all such Inventions and shall, without additional compensation, execute all assignments and other documents deemed necessary to perfect the property rights of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate therein. These obligations shall continue beyond the termination of Executive's employment with respect to Inventions conceived, developed, or made by Executive during employment with Employer. The provisions of this Section 6 shall not apply to any Invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility, or trade secret information of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate is used by Executive and which is developed entirely on Executive's own time, unless (a) such Invention relates (i) to the business of Employer, Wintrust or an Affiliate or (ii) to the actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of Employer, Wintrust or an Affiliate, or (b) such Invention results from work performed by Executive for Employer.

7. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that compliance with the terms of this Agreement is necessary to protect the Confidential Information and goodwill of Employer, Wintrust and its Affiliates and that any breach by Executive of this Agreement will cause continuing and irreparable injury to Employer, Wintrust and its Affiliates for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy. Executive acknowledges that Wintrust and all other Affiliates are and are intended to be third party beneficiaries of this Agreement. Executive acknowledges that Employer, Wintrust and any Affiliate shall, in addition to any other rights or remedies they may have, be entitled to injunctive relief for any breach by Executive of any part of this Agreement. This Agreement shall not in any way limit the remedies in law or equity otherwise available to Employer, Wintrust and its Affiliates.

8. Term of Agreement. (a) Unless terminated sooner as provided in Section 9, the initial term of Executive's employment pursuant to this Agreement (Initial Term) shall be one (1) year, commencing on the Effective Date; provided, however, that in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason without the Closing (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the merger contemplated thereby, this Agreement shall simultaneously terminate without further obligation or liability on the part of any party hereto, and all agreements relating to Executive's employment with Employer executed prior to the date of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. After such Initial Term, this Agreement shall be extended automatically for successive one-year terms, unless either Executive or Employer gives contrary written notice not less than 60 days in advance of the expiration of the Initial Term or any succeeding term of this Agreement or unless terminated sooner as provided in Section 9. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time during the Initial Term or any successive one-year term there is a Change in Control of Employer (as defined in Section 9(d)), then upon the first occurrence of such a Change in Control, the Initial Term or the successive one-year term of this Agreement (whichever is in effect as of the date of the Change in Control) shall automatically extend for the greater of: (i) the amount of time remaining on Executive's Initial Term of employment if such first occurrence of a Change in Control occurs during the Initial Term, or (ii) one (1) year from the date of such first occurrence of a Change in Control. In the event that Executive's Initial Term or successive one-year term is extended due to such a Change in Control, such extension shall further be extended automatically for successive one-year terms unless either Executive or Employer gives contrary written notice not less than 60 days in advance of the expiration of the extension of this Agreement or unless terminated sooner as provided in Section 9. The Initial Term, together with any extension thereof in accordance with this Section 8, shall be referred to herein as the Term.

(b) In the event that both (i) Executive or Employer terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8 during the course of any term of this Agreement and (ii) Executive and Employer agree that Executive will remain employed with Employer, then within 30 days of the date of the termination of this Agreement Employer shall pay Executive $250,000.

9. Termination of Employment.

(a) General Provisions. Executive's employment may be terminated by Employer at any time for any reason, with or without cause, and, except as otherwise provided in this Section 9, any and all of Employer's obligations under this Agreement shall terminate, other than Employer's obligation to pay Executive, within 30 days of Executive's termination of employment, the full amount of any earned but unpaid base salary and accrued but unpaid vacation pay earned by Executive pursuant to this Agreement through and including the date of termination and to observe the terms and conditions of any plan or benefit arrangement which, by its terms, survives such termination of Executive's employment. The payments to be made under this Section 9(a) shall be made to Executive, or in the event of Executive's death, to such beneficiary as Executive may designate in writing to Employer for that purpose, or if Executive has not so designated, then to the spouse of Executive, or if none is surviving, then to the estate of Executive. Notwithstanding the foregoing, termination of employment shall not affect the obligations of Executive that, pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement, continue in effect.

(b) Termination Without Cause.

(i) Payment. In the event Executive's employment is terminated without Cause (as such term is defined in Section 9(f) hereof) by Employer or by reason of Executive's death or permanent disability (as hereinafter defined) during the Term of this Agreement, other than upon the expiration of the Term of this Agreement, Employer shall pay Severance Pay to Executive, or in the event of Executive's death, to such beneficiary as Executive may designate in writing to Employer for that purpose, or if Executive has not so designated, then to the spouse of Executive, or if none is surviving, then to the estate of Executive. Severance Pay under this Section 9(b)(i) shall mean an amount equal to one times (1x) the sum of (A) an amount equal to Executive's then current Annual Base Salary, plus (B) an amount equal to the target Incentive Bonus as set forth on Schedule A hereto, plus (C) $250,000. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, annual incentive compensation shall not include any equity-based award or cash award with a vesting period of greater than one-year. Severance Pay under this Section 9(b) shall be paid ratably over a 12-month period beginning on the first payroll period following such termination and on each payroll period thereafter during such Severance Pay period.

(ii) Reduction of Payment Due To Earned Income. The amount of Severance Pay under this Section 9(b) shall also be reduced by any income earned by Executive, whether paid to Executive immediately or deferred until a later date, during the applicable Severance Pay period from employment of any sort, including without limitation full, part time or temporary employment or work as an independent contractor or as a consultant; provided that, if Executive was a member of the board of directors of another company at the time of Executive's termination, the amount of Severance Pay under this Section 9(b) shall not be reduced by any income earned by Executive during the applicable Severance Pay period due to Executive's continued service in such capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive's Severance Pay to be paid under this Section 9(b) shall not be less than an amount to provide Executive with a gross monthly payment of $20,833.35 during the 12-month Severance Pay period. Executive agrees to promptly notify Employer if Executive obtains employment of any sort during the applicable Severance Pay period and to provide Employer with a copy of his earnings statements or other payroll or income records for each calendar month during the 12-month Severance Pay period and a summary of any contributions received under any deferred compensation arrangement for each calendar month during the 12-month Severance Pay period. In addition, no later than 45 days following the expiration of each calendar year during the 12-month Severance Pay period, Executive shall deliver to the Employer all W-2 and 1099 forms received during such calendar year.

(iii) Company-Paid Health Insurance. In the event of Executive's termination pursuant to this Section 9(b) (other than by reason of Executive's death), from the termination date through the earliest of (A) the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, (B) the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health insurance plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion, or (C) the date on which Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare, Executive (and any qualified dependents) shall be entitled to group health insurance coverage under the Employer's group health insurance plan for employees (as such plan is then in effect and as it may be amended at any time and from time to time during the period of coverage) in which Executive was participating immediately prior to termination, at Employer's expense, subject to any normal employee contributions, if any. The period during which Executive is being provided with health insurance under this Agreement shall be credited against Executive's period of COBRA coverage, if any. Executive shall promptly notify Employer if, prior to the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion or Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare.

(c) Constructive Termination.

(i) Payment. If Executive suffers a Constructive Termination during the Term of this Agreement, other than upon the expiration of the Term of this Agreement, Employer shall pay Severance Pay to Executive in the amounts and at the times described in Section 9(b) hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, Constructive Termination means (A) a material reduction by Employer in the duties and responsibilities of Executive or (B) a reduction by Employer of Executive's Adjusted Total Compensation (as hereinafter defined) to (1) less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Adjusted Total Compensation of Executive for the twelve-month period ending as of the last day of the month immediately preceding the month in which the Constructive Termination occurs; or (2) less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the Executive's Adjusted Total Compensation for the twelve-month period ending as of the last day of the month preceding the Effective Date, whichever is greater; provided, however, that with respect to either (1) or (2), if Executive is employed by Employer or any Affiliate of Employer for less than twelve months, Adjusted Total Compensation shall be calculated based on the initial annual base salary and value of perquisites, determined by the Employer as of the date Executive commences employment with the Employer or such Affiliate. A Constructive Termination does not include termination for Cause as defined in Section 9(f) or a termination without Cause as defined in Section 9(b).

(ii) Reduction of Payment Due To Earned Income. The amount of Severance Pay under this Section 9(c) shall be reduced by any income earned by Executive, whether paid to Executive immediately or deferred until a later date, during such Severance Pay period from employment of any sort, including without limitation full, part time or temporary employment or work as an independent contractor or as a consultant; provided that, if Executive was a member of the board of directors of another company at the time of Executive's termination, the amount of Severance Pay under this Section 9(c) shall not be reduced by any income earned by Executive during the applicable Severance Pay period due to Executive's continued service in such capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive's Severance Pay to be paid under this Section 9(c) shall not be less than an amount to provide

Executive with a gross monthly payment of $20,833.35 during the 12-month Severance Pay period. Executive agrees to promptly notify Employer if Executive obtains employment of any sort during the applicable Severance Pay period and to provide Employer with a copy of his earnings statements or other payroll or income records for each calendar month during the 12-month Severance Pay period and a summary of any contributions received under any deferred compensation arrangement for each calendar month during the 12-month Severance Pay period. In addition, no later than 45 days following the expiration of each calendar year during the 12-month Severance Pay period, Executive shall deliver to the Employer all W-2 and 1099 forms received during such calendar year.

(iii) Company-Paid Health Insurance. In the event of Executive's termination pursuant to this Section 9(c), from the termination date through the earliest of (A) the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, (B) the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health insurance plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion, or (C) the date on which Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare, Executive (and any qualified dependents) shall be entitled to group health insurance coverage under the Employer's group health insurance plan for employees (as such plan is then in effect and as it may be amended at any time and from time to time during the period of coverage) in which Executive was participating immediately prior to termination, at Employer's expense, subject to any normal employee contributions, if any. The period during which Executive is being provided with health insurance under this Agreement shall be credited against Executive's period of COBRA coverage, if any. Executive shall promptly notify Employer if, prior to the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion or Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare.

(iv) Definitions.

(A) For the purposes of this Agreement, Adjusted Total Compensation means the aggregate base salary earned by the Executive plus the dollar value of all perquisites (i.e. Employer provided car, club dues and supplemental life insurance) as estimated by Employer. Adjusted Total Compensation shall exclude any bonus payments, annual or long-term cash incentive compensation or equity-based compensation paid to, awarded to or earned by the Executive. For the purposes of this Section 9(c), the Executive will not be deemed to have incurred a reduction by Employer of Executive's Adjusted Total Compensation if there is a general reduction in base salaries and/or perquisites applicable to the President, Chief Executive Officer and all Vice Presidents of Employer.

(B) For the purposes of this Agreement, permanent disability means any mental or physical illness, disability or incapacity that renders Executive unable to perform Executive's duties hereunder where (x) such permanent disability has been determined to exist by a physician selected by Employer or (y) Employer has reasonably determined, based on such physician's advice, that such disability will continue for 180 days or more within any 365-day period, of which at least 90 days are consecutive. Executive shall cooperate in all respects with Employer if a question arises as to whether he has become disabled (including, without limitation, submitting to an examination by a physician or other health care specialist selected by Employer and authorizing such physician or other health care specialist to discuss Executive's condition with Employer).

(d) Termination Upon Change In Control.

(i) Payment. In the event that within twelve months after a Change in Control (as defined below) of Employer or Wintrust (A) Executive's employment is terminated without Cause (as such term is defined in Section 9(f) hereof) prior to the expiration of the Term of this Agreement or (B) Executive suffers a Constructive Termination prior to the expiration of the Term of this Agreement, Employer (or the successor thereto) shall pay Severance Pay to Executive in the amount that is equivalent to the amount described in Section 9(b) hereof in a lump sum within 30 days following the date of Executive's termination or Constructive Termination; provided, however, that if such Change in Control is not a change in control event, within the meaning of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), then such Severance Pay shall be paid at the same time and in the same form as set forth in Section 9(b)(i).

(ii) For the purposes of this Agreement, a Change in Control of Employer or Wintrust shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 12(c) of the Wintrust 2007 Stock Incentive Plan; provided that both Employer and Wintrust shall be deemed to be the Corporation (or any successor term) in the application of such definition.

(iii) Section 280G. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the payment required to be paid under this Section 9(d), when considered either alone or with other payments paid or imputed to the Executive from Employer, Wintrust or an Affiliate that would be deemed excess parachute payments under Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code is deemed by Employer to be a parachute payment under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then the amount of Severance Pay required to be paid under this Section 9(d) shall be automatically reduced in order of scheduled payments to an amount equal to $1.00 less than three times (3x) the base amount (as defined in Section 280G(3) of the Code) (the Reduced Amount). Provided, however, the preceding sentence shall not apply if the sum of (A) the amount of Severance Pay described in this Section 9(d) less (B) the amount of excise tax payable by the Executive under Section 4999 of the Code with respect to the amount of such Severance Pay and any other payments paid or imputed to the Executive from Employer, Wintrust or an Affiliate that would be deemed to be excess parachute payments under Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code, as further adjusted for payment of taxes by the Executive is greater than the Reduced Amount, as further adjusted for payment of taxes by the Executive. The decision of Employer (based upon the recommendations of its tax counsel and accountants) as to the characterization of payments as parachute payments, the value of parachute payments, the amount of excess parachute payments, the determination of any adjustments related to payment of taxes by the Executive and the payment of the Reduced Amount shall be final.

(iv) Company-Paid Health Insurance. In the event Executive becomes entitled to payments under this Section 9(d), from the termination date through the earliest of (A) the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, (B) the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health insurance plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion, or (C) the date on which Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare, Executive (and any qualified dependents) shall be entitled to group health insurance coverage under the Employer's group health insurance plan for employees (as such plan is then in effect and as it may be amended at any time and from time to time during the period of coverage) in which Executive was participating immediately prior to termination, at Employer's expense, subject to any normal employee contributions, if any. The period during which Executive is being provided with health insurance under this Agreement shall be credited against Executive's period of COBRA coverage, if any. Executive shall promptly notify Employer if, prior to the expiration of the maximum period of COBRA coverage, Executive becomes eligible for coverage under another group health plan with no pre-existing condition limitation or exclusion or Executive becomes entitled to benefits under Medicare.

(v) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 9(d), the term Constructive Termination shall have the same meaning as such term is defined in Section 9(c) with the following modifications:

(A) A Constructive Termination shall be deemed to have occurred if after a Change in Control, the Executive's Adjusted Total Compensation is reduced to less than (1) 100% of the Adjusted Total Compensation of Executive for the twelve-month period ending as of the last day of the month immediately preceding the month in which the Constructive Termination occurs or (2) 100% percent of the Executive's Adjusted Total Compensation for the twelve-month period ending as of the last day of the month preceding the Effective Date, whichever is greater; provided, however, that with respect to either (1) or (2), if Executive is employed by Employer or any Affiliate of Employer for less than twelve months, Adjusted Total Compensation shall be calculated based on the initial annual base salary and value of perquisites, determined by the Employer as of the date Executive commences employment with the Employer or such Affiliate.

(B) A Constructive Termination shall also be deemed to have occurred if after a Change in Control, Employer (or the successor thereto) delivers written notice to Executive that it will continue to employ Executive but will reject this Agreement (other than due to the expiration of the Term of this Agreement).

(C) The last sentence of subsection 9(c)(iv)(A) shall not be applicable to a Constructive Termination following a Change in Control.

(e) Voluntary Termination. Executive may voluntarily terminate employment during the Term of this Agreement by a delivery to Employer of a written notice at least 60 days in advance of the termination date.

(i) If Executive voluntarily terminates employment prior to the expiration of the Initial Term of this Agreement, any and all of the Employer's obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately except for the Employer's obligations contained in Section 9(a) hereof.

(ii) If Executive voluntarily terminates employment prior to the expiration of the Term of this Agreement but after the end of the Initial Term of this Agreement, any and all of the Employer's obligations under this Agreement shall terminate immediately except for (A) the Employer's obligations contained in Section 9(a) hereof and (B) the payment of $250,000 as provided in Section 8(b) hereof.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, termination of employment shall not affect the obligations of Executive that, pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement, continue in effect following Executive's termination of employment including, without limitation, Sections 4, 5 and 6 of this Agreement.

(f) Termination For Cause. If Executive is terminated for Cause as determined by the written resolution of Employer's Board of Directors or any committee thereof designated by Employer's Board of Directors, all obligations of the Employer shall terminate immediately except for Employer's obligations described in Section 9(a) hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, termination of employment shall not affect the obligations of Executive that, pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement, continue in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause means:

(i) Executive's failure or refusal (other than a failure or refusal resulting from Executive's incapacity due to disability or physical or mental illness), after written notice thereof and after reasonable opportunity to cure, to perform specific directives approved by a majority of the Employer's or Wintrust's Board of Directors which are both reasonable and consistent with the scope and nature of Executive's duties and responsibilities as provided in Section 1 of this Agreement;

(ii) Habitual drunkenness or illegal use of drugs which interferes with the performance of Executive's duties and obligations under this Agreement;

(iii) Executive's conviction of a felony;

(vi) A written order requiring termination of Executive from Executive's position with Employer by any regulatory agency or body; or

(g) Executive's right to the Severance Pay per Sections 9(b) through 9(d) hereof shall be contingent upon (i) Executive having executed and delivered to Employer a release in a form substantially similar to the release attached hereto as Exhibit B, within 45 days after the date of termination) (the Consideration Period), (ii) Executive not revoking such release in accordance with the terms of the release and (ii) Executive not violating any of Executive's on-going obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that Employer has the discretion to pay to Executive the Severance Pay per Sections 9(b) through 9(d), as applicable, prior to Employer's receipt of the release and/or the expiration of the release revocation period; provided further that if Executive does not execute and deliver a release to Employer prior to the expiration of the Consideration Period or if Executive revokes the release in accordance with its terms, Executive shall pay to Employer within 10 days following the expiration of the Consideration Period or the date such release was revoked, a lump sum payment of all Severance Pay received by Executive to date.

(h) The payment of Severance Pay to Executive pursuant to Sections 9(b) through 9(d) hereof shall be for and in full satisfaction of any and all claims Executive may have relating to or arising out of Executive's employment and termination of employment by Employer, any and all claims Executive may have relating to or arising out of this Agreement and the termination thereof and any and all claims Executive may have arising under any statute, ordinance or regulation or under common law. Executive expressly acknowledges and agrees that, except for whatever claim Executive may have to Severance Pay, Executive shall not have any claim for damages or other relief of any sort relating to or arising out of Executive's employment or termination of employment by Employer or relating to or arising out of this Agreement and the termination thereof.

(i) Upon termination of employment with Employer for any reason, Executive shall promptly deliver to Employer all writings, records, data, memoranda, contracts, orders, sales literature, price lists, client lists, data processing materials, and other documents, whether or not obtained from Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate, which pertain to or were used by Executive in connection with Executive's employment by Employer or which pertain to Wintrust or any other Affiliate, including, but not limited to, Confidential Information, as well as any automobiles, computers or other equipment which were purchased or leased by Employer for Executive.

10. Resolution of Disputes. Except as otherwise provided herein, any disputes arising under or in connection with this Agreement or in any way arising out of, relating to or associated with the Executive's employment with Employer or the termination of such employment (Claims), that Executive may have against Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate of Wintrust, or the officers, directors, employees or agents of Employer, Wintrust, or any Affiliate of Wintrust in their capacity as such or otherwise, or that Employer, Wintrust, or any Affiliate of Wintrust may have against Executive, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, to be held in Madison, Wisconsin, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the National Rules for the Resolution of Employment Disputes of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and the parties hereby agree to expedite such arbitration proceedings to the extent permitted by AAA. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Claims covered by this Agreement include, but are not limited to: claims for wages or other compensation due; claims for breach of any contract or covenant, express or implied; tort claims; claims for discrimination, including but not limited to discrimination based on race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, marital status, handicap, disability or medical condition or harassment on any of the foregoing bases; claims for benefits, except as excluded in the following paragraph; and claims for violation of any federal, state or other governmental constitution, statute, ordinance, regulation, or public policy. Each party shall initially bear their own attorneys' costs and fees, provided that Employer shall pay the costs and fees associated with any arbitration, and further provided that if Employer is found to have violated any material terms of this Agreement, Employer shall reimburse Executive for the entire amount of reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Executive as a result of the dispute hereunder in addition to the payment of any damages awarded to Executive.

11. General Provisions.

(a) All provisions of this Agreement are intended to be interpreted and construed in a manner to make such provisions valid, legal, and enforceable. To the extent that any Section of this Agreement or any word, phrase, clause, or sentence hereof shall be deemed by any court to be illegal or unenforceable, such word, clause, phrase, sentence, or Section shall be deemed modified, restricted, or omitted to the extent necessary to make this Agreement enforceable. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the scope of any covenant in this Agreement is too broad to permit enforcement to its full extent, such covenant shall be enforced to the maximum extent provided by law; and Executive agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly.

(b) This Agreement may be assigned by Employer. This Agreement and the covenants set forth herein shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of Employer and Wintrust.

(d) No waiver by either party of any breach by the other party of any of the obligations, covenants, or representations under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any prior or subsequent breach.

(e) Where in this Agreement the masculine gender is used, it shall include the feminine if the sense so requires.

(f) Employer may withhold from any payment that it is required to make under this Agreement amounts sufficient to satisfy applicable withholding requirements under any federal, state, or local law.

(g) This instrument constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may not be changed or amended orally but only by an agreement in writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, modification, extension, or discharge is sought. Any other understandings and agreements, oral or written, respecting the subject matter hereof are hereby superseded and canceled, with the exception of the Salary Continuation Agreement and Restated Executive Deferred Compensation Agreement entered into by and between Executive and Employer on January 1, 2009 and June 7, 2011, respectively, and the 2004 Executive Stock Option Agreements and 2004 Executive Stock Option Plan Option Agreement entered into by and between Executive and Delavan Bancshares, Inc. on December 18, 2008, July 16, 2009 and April 30, 2013, respectively.

(h) The provisions of Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8(b), 9, 10, 11, 12, 15 and 16 of this Agreement shall survive the termination of Executive's employment with Employer and the expiration or termination of this Agreement; provided, however, that in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated for any reason without the Closing (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the merger contemplated thereby, this Agreement shall simultaneously terminate without further obligation or liability on the part of any party hereto and no provisions of this Agreement shall survive such termination.

12. Governing Law. The parties agree that this Agreement shall be construed and governed by the laws of the State of Wisconsin, excepting its conflict of laws principles. Further, the parties acknowledge and specifically agree to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Wisconsin in the event of any dispute regarding Sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this Agreement.

13. Notice of Termination. Subject to the provisions of Section 8, in the event that Employer desires to terminate the employment of the Executive during the Term of this Agreement, Employer shall deliver to Executive a written notice of termination, stating whether the termination constitutes a termination in accordance with Section 9(b), 9(d), or 9(f). In the event that Executive determines in good faith that Executive has experienced a Constructive Termination under Section 9(c) or 9(d), Executive shall deliver to Employer a written notice stating the circumstances that constitute such Constructive Termination not later than 90 days after the initial existence of such circumstances and Employer shall have 30 days after receipt of such notice to remedy the circumstances that constitute Constructive Termination. In the event that the Executive desires to effect a voluntary termination of Executive's employment in accordance with Section 9(e), Executive shall deliver a written notice of such voluntary termination to Employer.

14. Section 409A. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, and shall be interpreted and construed consistently with such intent. The payments to Executive pursuant to this Agreement are also intended to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code to the maximum extent possible, under either the separation pay exemption pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) or as short-term deferrals pursuant to Treasury regulation §1.409A-1(b)(4), and for purposes of the separation pay exemption, each installment paid to Executive under this Agreement shall be considered a separate payment. In the event the terms of this Agreement would subject Executive to taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code (409A Penalties), Employer and Executive shall cooperate diligently to amend the terms of the Agreement to avoid such 409A Penalties, to the extent possible; provided that in no event shall Employer be responsible for any 409A Penalties that arise in connection with any amounts payable under this Agreement. To the extent any amounts under this Agreement are payable by reference to Executive's termination of employment such term and similar terms shall be deemed to refer to Executive's separation from service, within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, if Executive is a specified employee, as defined in Section 409A of the Code, as of the date of Executive's separation from service, then to the extent any amount payable under this Agreement (i) constitutes the payment of nonqualified deferred compensation, within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code, (ii) is payable upon Executive's separation from service and (iii) under the terms of this Agreement would be payable prior to the six-month anniversary of Executive's separation from service, such payment shall be delayed until the earlier to occur of (a) the six-month anniversary of the separation from service or (b) the date of Executive's death. Any reimbursement payable to Executive pursuant to this Agreement shall be conditioned on the submission by Executive of all expense reports reasonably required by Employer under any applicable expense reimbursement policy, and shall be paid to Executive within 30 days following receipt of such expense reports, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which Executive incurred the reimbursable expense. Any amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefit provided, during a calendar year shall not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefit to be provided, during any other calendar year. The right to any reimbursement or in-kind benefit pursuant to this Agreement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

15. Indemnification. Employer shall indemnify, defend and hold Executive and Executive's heirs, executors, administrators, legal and personal representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against all claims, causes of action, losses, damages, judgments, liabilities, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, actual attorney fees and all costs associated with any litigation, arbitration, or administrative hearing, including but not limited to the costs and fees associated with the engagement of expert witnesses, consultant fees, service of process fees, court filing fees, and witness fees) arising out of or in any way related to Executive's service as an employee, officer or director of Employer, Wintrust or any Affiliate, except for such liabilities that are determined to have been the result of the fraud or willful misconduct of Executive.

- (5) Interest means interest from the effectuation date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all of the circumstances.

(d) Except as provided in sub. (2), any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent that the articles of incorporation, bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors provides that the voting or nonvoting shareholder or beneficial shareholder may dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares.

(2) Except as provided in sub. (4) and s. 180.1008 (3), the articles of incorporation may allow a shareholder or beneficial shareholder to dissent from an amendment of the articles of incorporation and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares if the amendment materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it does any of the following:

(c) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of shares to acquire shares or other securities.

the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders meeting at which shareholders are to vote on the proposed corporate action.

(5) Except as provided in s. 180.1833, a shareholder or beneficial shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares under ss. 180.1301 to 180.1331 may not challenge the corporate action creating his or her entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder, beneficial shareholder or issuer corporation.

180.1303 Dissent by shareholders and beneficial shareholders.

(1) A shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his or her name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he or she asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a shareholder who under this subsection asserts dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his or her name are determined as if the shares as to which he or she dissents and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

Table of Contents

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his or her behalf only if the beneficial shareholder does all of the following:
