Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 27, 2015, Autoliv AB, a Swedish subsidiary of Autoliv, Inc. (the Company) and the European Investment Bank (the EIB) signed an agreement that extends the existing financing commitment agreement between the parties dated July 16, 2013, giving Autoliv AB continued access to a loan of 200 million (approximately U.S. $244 million), until January 16, 2016. The funds, if utilized, are expected to help finance research and development projects at the Company's R&D facilities in Germany, France and Sweden. The projects to receive funding from the EIB financing generally relate to a wide range of innovative passive and active safety technologies for motor vehicles aimed at the enhancement of vehicle occupants and pedestrians safety.

The material terms of the financing commitment remain unchanged from the initial financing commitment entered into and disclosed in July 2013. Under the terms of the commitment, Autoliv AB may, until January 16, 2016, draw loans with a maturity of up to 7 years. The loans may be drawn in up to four separate tranches, with a minimum borrowing amount for each tranche of 50 million or, if less than 50 million remains under the commitment, the remaining balance of the financing commitment. The loans may be drawn in either fixed rate or floating rate tranches at the election of Autoliv AB. Fixed rate tranches will be repaid to EIB at an interest rate of EIB's cost of funds plus 26 basis points (0.26%). Floating rate tranches will be repaid to the EIB at a floating rate equal to the relevant interbank rate (which under the commitment may be any of EURIBOR, LIBOR or STIBOR) plus a spread to be determined at the time of the draw under the commitment. Autoliv AB has the option to revise or convert the interest basis of a tranche to either fixed or floating depending on the circumstances upon request. In addition to the interest payable on each tranche, Autoliv AB is required to pay a non-utilization fee of 0.13% on the undrawn, uncanceled balance of the credit.

The financial obligations of the financing commitment agreement, including repayment of any funds, will continue to be guaranteed by the Company pursuant to the Guarantee Agreement between the EIB and the Company. As with all of the existing principal debt arrangements of the Company, the new financial commitment does not have any financial covenants, i.e. performance-related restrictions.
