Subject: PartnerRe & AXIS Merger Update

Dear PartnerRe and AXIS Colleagues,

We would like to update you on a number of important milestones that have been achieved in relation to the AXIS Capital and PartnerRe merger.

We are pleased to announce that we filed an amended registration statement (Form S-4), containing our joint proxy and prospectus for the amalgamation agreement, with the SEC earlier today.

The SEC has confirmed to us that they do not intend to review the S-4 filing. We can therefore go effective immediately and proceed to our respective shareholder meetings on July 24, 2015. This, together with the anti-trust clearance we received from the European Commission on May 26, is great news as it brings the transaction closer to completion.

We have also filed a joint investor presentation outlining the significant strategic and financial benefits of the merger between our two companies. This presentation will be used in a series of shareholder meetings with Albert and Jean-Paul Montupet starting this week.

You can access the presentation, proxy materials and other merger-related materials on a new dedicated shareholder website at: www.partnerre-valuecreation.com or on AXIS Capital's investor site at www.investor.axiscapital.com.

Additionally, this week there will be a round of joint media interviews with us and Jean-Paul that will likely generate further interest in the merger. The first of these – an interview with Reuters – is published today.

The resolve of the AXIS and PartnerRe boards has never been stronger. The AXIS-PartnerRe combination will create a formidable leader in the re/insurance industry that will deliver superior value to all stakeholders, including exciting new career opportunities for our employees. The board of each company is urging all shareholders to vote YES for the merger agreement at the July 24, 2015 special shareholder meetings.

All of this indicates we are making solid progress. We thank all those who have been involved in these efforts and in the ongoing work to integrate our companies as we look forward to taking the final steps to achieving our vision for our combined companies.
