VOTE THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD TODAY!

May 4, 2016

Dear Fellow Shareholder

At this year's Annual Meeting of Shareholders, you will have to make a critical decision that could affect the future of Financial Institutions, Inc.: supporting your Board of Directors, which has delivered 66% total shareholder return over the past three years, by voting FOR ALL four highly-qualified and experienced nominees Martin Birmingham, Samuel Gullo, Kim VanGelder and James Wyckoff and NOT the nominees of Clover Partners, L.P., a small Texas-based hedge fund that has publicly called for a sale of FISI. Clover Partners started accumulating its current position only nine months ago, and has repeatedly sold shares in FISI over the last two years at prices, we estimate, were as much as 10-25% below our current stock price. Underscoring its plans for an immediate sale of FISI, this hedge fund has proposed two director nominees, neither of whom have any experiences or skill sets that, we believe, will help the Board to create value for shareholders. Now is not the time to sell FISI; now is the time to continue to execute on our strategic plan. We believe that our strategic plan is working, as evidenced by our growing income, growing assets, and shareholder returns that have exceeded the SNL Bank $1B-$5B Index by 85% over the past ten years, an outperformance of over 10x the returns on the index.

We are asking that you vote TODAY by telephone, Internet or by signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided and VOTE FOR ALL four of your Board's highly-qualified and very experienced nominees to ensure that we are best positioned to execute on our strategic plan for shareholder value creation. Please do not vote using Clover Partners' white proxy card when you receive it, even as a protest vote against Clover Partners. A later dated white proxy card will revoke a previously cast vote on our BLUE proxy card.

DO NOT BE FOOLED BY CLOVER PARTNERS MISLEADING STATEMENTS

In recent public disclosures by Clover Partners, we believe that they have made numerous statements that are misleading, disingenuous and just plain wrong.

FISI FACTS

FISI has outperformed the SNL Bank $1B-$5B Index by 85% over the past ten years; however, market reaction beginning on December 16, 2015, after Clover Partners' initial public statements, resulted in FISI underperforming the index on both a 1-day and 1-week basis, as well as through the rest of the year.

We take the stewardship of your Company seriously and engage in a thoughtful process whenever we consider a new Board nominee. After a very thorough review of Mr. Guerry's background and, given our numerous concerns with his lack of complementary skills and experiences, in addition to his lack of understanding of the community banking market in Western New York, his extremely limited public company board experience and his lack of ties to Western New York, we determined that he would not enhance the ability of your Board to continue to execute on its proven plan for shareholder value creation.

CLOVER PARTNERS FICTION

It appears FISI's stock price has reacted favorably to Clover's involvement, and we worry the stock price could react poorly to a loss by our candidates.

The board's nominating committee rejected Mr. Guerry as a candidate after an exhaustive six week process—the entire evaluation process appears to us to be nothing more than a disingenuous attempt to make shareholders believe FISI went through a good faith vetting process.

Banks with relatively diversified revenue streams are valued more highly by the market than banks that rely more heavily on just net interest income. Based on current trading data, banks among our peer group that are in the top quartile for noninterest income trade at approximately 25% higher tangible book value and EPS multiples relative to the bottom quartile. Our careful and strategic diversification through investment in a profitable platform insurance agency and a profitable wealth manager has added and continues to add value for FISI shareholders. Bottom line, we believe that there is no fact pattern to remotely support Clover Partners' argument.

In the last 18 months, FISI has purchased two fee-based businesses which have destroyed approximately $24 million of shareholders' tangible capital.

FISI'S STRATEGIC PLAN IS DELIVERING VALUE!

We believe that our strategy is delivering real value for shareholders and there is significant opportunity for continued growth. We believe that the success of our strategic plan is demonstrated by FISI's overall performance:

66% in total shareholder returns¹

50% growth in FISI stock price

$32 million returned to shareholders through dividends

21% growth in net income; over 20% growth in loans, deposits and assets

21% growth in commercial business loans, 37% growth in commercial mortgages, and a 52% decrease in nonperforming loans

We believe that our strategic plan is working and delivering value to our shareholders and now is NOT the time to sell FISI. Richard Humphrey, one of our largest shareholders, who represents the views of over 6% of the ownership in FISI, recently expressed his disagreement with Clover Partners' view that FISI should be sold:

This letter is intended to reiterate our support for the Board of Financial Institutions, Inc. to continue its current strategy, which we believe has delivered great value for both shareholders and the community. We have been impressed by the progress that has been made during the last three years on improving the operational performance of the bank which has led to increased value for shareholders through both stock price and increased dividends. My family has thoughtfully considered the recent correspondence from other shareholders and do not share their views. We do not support the positions that have been publically communicated by other shareholders. Richard Humphrey; 3/22/16

Your Board and management who collectively own approximately 5.5% of FISI equity believe that our four highly-qualified and very experienced director nominees for election to your Board at the Annual Meeting Martin Birmingham, Samuel Gullo, Kim VanGelder and James Wyckoff have the integrity, knowledge, investor perspective, breadth of relevant and diverse experiences, relationships, and commitment to the long-term success of FISI necessary to enable us to continue executing on our strategic plan for growth and shareholder value creation.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT FOR THE FUTURE OF FISI

Your vote at the upcoming Annual Meeting is critically important in shaping our future, no matter how many shares you own. We ask you to VOTE the BLUE proxy card TODAY in favor of your Board's four highly-qualified and very experienced nominees so that FISI is best positioned to continue executing on a strategic plan that has delivered increased growth, increased profitability, and achieved a 66% increase in total shareholder returns. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, we urge you to sign, return and date the enclosed BLUE proxy card TODAY in the postage-paid envelope provided. If you are voting by phone or Internet, please follow the instructions on the enclosed BLUE proxy card. Please vote each and every BLUE proxy card or voting instruction form you receive since you may hold multiple accounts.

We also urge you to NOT to sign or return any white proxy card or voting instruction form that you may receive from Clover Partners, even as a protest vote against Clover Partners or any of its proposed director nominees. Even a WITHHOLD vote with respect to Clover Partners proposed director nominees on its white proxy card or voting instruction form will cancel any BLUE proxy card or voting instruction form previously given to FISFI. If you do sign a white proxy card that is sent to you by Clover Partners, however, you have the right to change your vote by using the enclosed BLUE proxy card. Only the latest dated proxy card or information form you vote will be counted.

We encourage you to visit www.votefisi.com where more information relating to our upcoming Annual Meeting can be found.

On behalf of your Board of Directors, we thank you for your continued support. We look forward to communicating further with you in the coming weeks.

Sincerely,

Board of Directors of Financial Institutions, Inc.
