Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 20, 2018, Fifth Third Bancorp (Fifth Third) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Fifth Third Financial Corporation (Intermediary), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with MB Financial, Inc. (MB Financial). The Merger Agreement provides that upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, MB Financial will merge (the Merger) with and into Intermediary, with Intermediary as the surviving corporation. At the effective time of this Merger (the Effective Time), each outstanding share of MB Financial common stock, par value $0.01 per share (MB Financial Common Stock), will be converted into the right to receive (i) 1.450 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of Fifth Third common stock, no par value (Fifth Third Common Stock), and (ii) $5.54 in cash (collectively, the Merger Consideration).

In addition, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement (including the preferred shareholder vote described below), at the effective time of the Merger, each share of MB Financial 's 6.00% Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred stock, Series C, par value $0.01 per share (MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock), will be converted into the right to receive one share of a newly created series of preferred stock of Fifth Third, having substantially the same terms as the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock, except that the new series of preferred stock will have no voting rights (including upon an arrearage in the payment of dividends thereon) except as required by Ohio law and have certain other differences consistent with Fifth Third 's currently outstanding series of preferred stock and its articles of incorporation. Fifth Third will use its reasonable best efforts to have such new series of Fifth Third preferred stock approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (Nasdaq).

At the Effective Time, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each option granted by MB Financial to purchase shares of MB Financial Common Stock (the MB Financial Options) will be converted into an option to purchase shares of Fifth Third Common Stock on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to such MB Financial Options prior to the Merger, subject to certain adjustments to the exercise price and the number of shares of Fifth Third Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such option in accordance with the Merger Agreement. In addition, each MB Financial restricted stock award, restricted stock unit and performance-based award (the MB Financial Equity Awards) that remains unvested and would not automatically vest by its terms at the Effective Time will be assumed by Fifth Third and converted into a number of shares of Fifth Third Common Stock (the Assumed Equity Awards) with such shares being subject to certain adjustments in accordance with the Merger Agreement but otherwise remaining subject to the same terms and conditions as applicable immediately prior to such conversion. Each MB Financial Equity Award that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that is not assumed under the Merger Agreement will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

The Merger Agreement also provides, among other things, that at the Effective Time, two members of the board of directors of MB Financial (at least one whom shall be an independent MB Financial director), as mutually agreed by Fifth Third and MB Financial, will be appointed as directors of Fifth Third.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Fifth Third and MB Financial, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time and, in the case of MB Financial, its obligation to recommend that its common and preferred stockholders approve the Merger and its non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative acquisition proposals.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (1) the approval of the Merger and certain related matters by the holders of MB Financial Common Stock, (2) authorization for listing on Nasdaq of the shares of Fifth Third Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (3) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the Fifth Third Common Stock and the Fifth Third preferred stock to be issued in the Merger, (4) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger or making the consummation of the Merger illegal and (5) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Each party's obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (iii) receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Fifth Third and MB Financial and further provides that a termination fee of $151 million will be payable by MB Financial to Fifth Third upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances.

The Merger Agreement also provides that the holders of the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock will be asked to approve the Merger. If the holders of such preferred stock approve the Merger by a two-thirds vote of the outstanding shares of such preferred stock, the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock will be converted in the Merger into shares of a new series of Fifth Third preferred stock as described above. Such approval of the Merger by the holders of the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock is not, however, a condition to completion of the Merger. If such holders do not approve the Merger but the Merger is approved by the holders of MB Financial Common Stock, the combination of MB Financial and Fifth Third will instead be effected by the merger of MB Financial with a newly-formed subsidiary of Fifth Third, with MB Financial surviving such merger (the Alternative Merger). In the Alternative Merger, the holders of MB Financial Common Stock will receive the same Merger Consideration on the same terms as in the Merger, but the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock will not be exchanged for Fifth Third preferred stock and will instead remain outstanding and unchanged (except as noted in the next sentence) as preferred stock of MB Financial, which will be a subsidiary of Fifth Third. In connection with voting on approval of the Merger, holders of MB Financial Common Stock will also be asked to approve an amendment to MB Financial's charter and articles supplementary for the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock that would give the holders of MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock the right to vote with the holders of MB Financial Common Stock as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of such common stockholders. The amendment is to be effective immediately prior to consummation of the Alternative Merger. Approval of this amendment is conditioned on approval of the Merger by the holders of the MB Financial Common Stock and is a condition to closing of the Merger. The Merger Agreement provides that Fifth Third may elect in its sole discretion to issue a guarantee to the holders of the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock that remains outstanding following the Alternative Merger for the payment of dividends, the redemption price and the liquidation value of the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock.

Fifth Third currently expects that if the Alternative Merger is consummated, it will seek to take the necessary steps to delist the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock from Nasdaq and terminate MB Financial's registration and reporting obligations with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) so that at or promptly following the closing of the Alternative Merger, the MB Financial Series C Preferred Stock will no longer trade on Nasdaq or any other securities exchange and MB Financial will no longer file reports or other public disclosures with the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the boards of both Fifth Third and MB Financial.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Fifth Third or MB Financial, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Fifth Third, MB Financial, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a Proxy Statement of MB Financial and a Prospectus of Fifth Third, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that each of Fifth Third and MB Financial make with the SEC.
