Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On September 9, 2015, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of United Technologies Corporation (the "Company") approved and adopted amended and restated Bylaws in order to implement "proxy access," which allows eligible shareowners to include their own director nominees in the Company's proxy materials under the circumstances set forth in the Company's Bylaws. Pursuant to the proxy access provision adopted by the Board, a shareowner or a group of up to 20 shareowners, who has maintained continuous qualifying ownership of at least 3% of the Company's outstanding common stock for at least three years, may include director nominees constituting up to 20% of the Board in the Company's proxy materials for an annual meeting of shareowners if such shareowner or group of shareowners complies with the other requirements set forth in the proxy access provision. The amendments also include certain conforming, ministerial and other related changes to the advance notice provisions of the amended and restated Bylaws. The amended and restated Bylaws approved by the Board became effective immediately upon approval, and accordingly, the proxy access provision will be first available to shareowners in connection with the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareowners.

The foregoing summary of the amended and restated Bylaws does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amended and restated Bylaws. A copy of the amended and restated Bylaws is included as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On September 9, 2015, in connection with adopting the proxy access provision in the Company's amended and restated Bylaws, the Board approved an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter") to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors, subject to shareowner approval. The Board resolved to submit such Charter amendment for a vote by shareowners at the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareowners and to recommend in favor of shareowners' approval of such Charter amendment.

On September 10, 2015, the Company announced a new organizational structure pursuant to which Otis Elevator Co. ("Otis") and UTC Climate, Controls & Security ("CCS") will be operated as separate businesses, rather than both businesses operating within UTC Building & Industrial Systems ("BIS").

In connection with this new organizational structure, the Company also announced the appointment of Philippe Delpech as President of Otis and Robert J. McDonough as President of CCS, effective immediately. Both executives will report directly to UTC President and Chief Executive Officer Gregory Hayes. As previously disclosed, UTC BIS President and CEO Geraud Darnis, who in July announced his intention to retire, will continue with UTC through January 2016.

A copy of the press release announcing the new organizational structure and related appointments is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Funding of the Merger and Indebtedness Following the Merger

MPC intends to fund the cash portion of the merger consideration and pay related fees and expenses in connection with the merger using a combination of cash on hand and borrowings under MPC's existing credit facilities, trade accounts receivable facility or commercial paper program.

For a discussion of the combined company's indebtedness on a pro forma basis giving effect to the business combination financing, see the section entitled Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Combined Financial Data beginning on page 39.

Regulatory Approvals

U.S. Antitrust

The completion of the merger is subject to the receipt of antitrust clearance in the United States. Under the HSR Act, and the rules promulgated thereunder, the merger may not be completed until notification and report forms have been filed with the FTC and the DOJ, and the applicable waiting period (or any extension thereof) has expired or been terminated.

On [], 2018, notification and report forms under the HSR Act were filed with the FTC and the DOJ, which is referred to as the initial filing, with respect to the proposed merger. The waiting period with respect to the notification and report forms filed under the HSR Act will be scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on [], 2018. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Reasonable Best Efforts; Regulatory Filings and Other Actions Reasonable Best Efforts beginning on page 169.

Although MPC and Andeavor currently believe they should be able to obtain the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable under the HSR Act, they cannot be certain when or if it will be obtained or, if obtained, whether such expiration or termination will require terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to MPC or its subsidiaries or the surviving company after the completion of the merger. MPC and Andeavor have agreed to make certain efforts to obtain the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable under the HSR Act except that MPC and Andeavor will not be required to take any action constituting a burdensome condition, as defined in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Reasonable Best Efforts; Regulatory Filings and Other Actions Burdensome Condition beginning on page 169.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, MPC will not be required to defend litigation or any similar proceeding if the DOJ or the FTC authorizes its staff to seek a preliminary injunction or restraining order to enjoin the completion of the merger. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Reasonable Best Efforts; Regulatory Filings and Other Actions Litigation beginning on page 169.

Other Regulatory Approvals

The obligation of each of MPC and Andeavor to effect the merger is also subject to obtaining regulatory approval in Canada. On [], 2018, MPC and Andeavor submitted an application for Competition Bureau Canada approval for the merger and the parties are in the process of obtaining the necessary regulatory clearances in Canada.

Appraisal Rights

Under the DGCL, subject to the closing of the merger, record holders of Andeavor common stock who do not vote in favor of the Andeavor merger proposal and who otherwise properly exercise and perfect their appraisal rights in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to seek appraisal for, and obtain payment in cash for the judicially determined fair value of, their shares of Andeavor common stock, in lieu of receiving the merger consideration. The fair value could be higher or lower than, or the same as, the merger consideration. Andeavor stockholders who wish to exercise the right to seek an appraisal of their shares must so advise Andeavor by submitting a written demand for appraisal in the form described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus prior to the vote on the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal at the Andeavor special meeting and must otherwise follow the procedures prescribed by Section 262 of the DGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Andeavor common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as your bank, broker or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

The full text of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Andeavor stockholders are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Moreover, due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising and perfecting the right to seek appraisal, Andeavor stockholders who are considering exercising and perfecting that right are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions may result in a waiver of, or the inability to exercise, appraisal rights. For more information regarding appraisal rights, see the section entitled Appraisal Rights of Andeavor Stockholders beginning on page 216.

-139-

Directors and Executive Officers of MPC Following the Merger

Assuming the MPC board size COI amendment proposal is approved by the MPC stockholders, following the merger, the MPC board will be comprised of 14 directors. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, MPC will use its reasonable best efforts promptly after the effective time to cause the MPC board to be comprised of:

ten directors selected by MPC, who initially will be Gary R. Heminger, Abdulaziz F. Alkhayyal, Evan Bayh, Charles E. Bunch, Steven A. Davis, Donna A. James, James E. Rohr, Frank M. Semple, J. Michael Stice and John P. Surma; and four current members of the Andeavor board who will be identified by Andeavor between April 29, 2018 and prior to the closing date of the merger.

Should the MPC board size COI amendment proposal not be approved, two directors of MPC's current board will resign in order to appoint the four Andeavor appointees.

Interests of Andeavor Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Directors and executive officers of Andeavor may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Andeavor stockholders generally. These interests include, but are not limited to:

the treatment in the merger of Andeavor options, Andeavor RSUs, Andeavor PSAs, Andeavor MSUs, Andeavor restricted shares and Andeavor other awards held by Andeavor executive officers and directors as described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger beginning on page 150, including the vesting of awards upon a qualifying termination of employment during a two-year period following the closing of the merger;

the payment of 2018 annual cash performance bonuses; and enhanced severance upon a qualifying termination of employment during a two-year period following the closing of the merger under the Andeavor Executive Severance and Change in Control Plan (the Executive CIC Plan) or, for Mr. Goff, under his letter agreement.

These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative and tabular disclosure included in the section entitled The Merger Advisory Vote on Merger-Related Compensation for Andeavor's Named Executive Officers beginning on page 744.

The Andeavor Board was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and approving the merger and in determining to recommend to Andeavor stockholders that they adopt the merger agreement. Andeavor stockholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to adopt the merger agreement.

Potential Acceleration of Andeavor Awards

Acceleration of Andeavor Director RSUs and Phantom Stock Upon Closing

Pursuant to the pre-existing terms of the Andeavor director RSU and phantom stock award agreements to Andeavor non-employee directors, such awards will vest in full on a change in control, including the closing of the merger. As described above in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger beginning on page 150, all Andeavor director RSUs and phantom stock will be cancelled and settled for the cash consideration of $152.27 per share of Andeavor common stock. Andeavor's current non-employee directors as a group held Andeavor director RSUs and phantom stock that, pursuant to their terms, would accelerate upon the closing of the merger and be exchanged for the cash consideration with an estimated intrinsic value of $8,685,977, based on the Andeavor director RSUs and phantom stock outstanding as of May 18, 2018. This includes deferred awards that have already vested and would have otherwise been received upon a termination of employment.

Potential Double-Trigger Acceleration of Assumed Andeavor Awards

As described above in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger beginning on page 150, all outstanding Andeavor equity-based awards, other than Andeavor director RSUs and phantom stock, will be assumed and converted into equity-based awards denominated in shares of MPC common stock. Andeavor PSAs and MSUs will be converted into time-based restricted stock unit awards denominated in shares of MPC common stock based on the greater of target or actual performance, multiplied by the exchange ratio. In addition, any Andeavor Logistics equity-based awards will remain outstanding, and Andeavor Logistics performance phantom units will be converted into time-based phantom unit awards based on the greater of target or actual performance. Pursuant to their pre-existing terms, each of these awards will vest upon a qualifying termination (as defined below) of employment within two years following the closing of the merger. See The Merger Advisory Vote on Merger-Related Compensation for Andeavor's Named Executive Officers for the estimated amounts that the named executive officers of Andeavor would receive as a result of the accelerated vesting of equity awards upon a qualifying termination as of May 18, 2018 assuming a price per share of Andeavor common stock of $152.27, conversion at target performance for PSAs and performance based on a stock price equal to $152.27 for MSUs. Andeavor's current executive officers as a group would receive approximately $98,986,141 due to the accelerated vesting of Andeavor and Andeavor Logistics equity awards upon a qualifying termination as of May 18, 2018. Andeavor's current directors as a group would receive approximately $207,207 due to the double-trigger accelerated vesting of Andeavor Logistics performance phantom units assuming a price per unit of Andeavor Logistics common units of $42.38 and conversion at target performance.

Under the Andeavor stock plans:

a qualifying termination generally includes: (i) an involuntary termination by Andeavor without cause (as defined below) or (ii) a voluntary termination by the participant for good reason (as defined below), except in the case of Mr. Goff, as described in The Merger Letter Agreement with Mr. Goff below;

cause is defined under the applicable plan or award agreement (which terms may vary), but generally includes: (i) the commission of fraud, embezzlement or other act of willful misconduct, (ii) refusal (without proper reason) to perform duties, (iii) disclosure of trade secrets or other confidential information, (iv) willful engagement in acts that are materially injurious to the company, or (v) conviction of (or plea of guilty or no contest to) a crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or moral turpitude; and

or incentive plans, (iii) a material change in geographic location, or (iv) failure by the company to comply with a material provision of the agreement under which the participant provides services.

Andeavor's current executive officers as a group also hold 151,513 vested options as of May 18, 2018 that may be exercised prior to or upon the closing of the merger and otherwise will be converted into an option to acquire MPC common stock as described above in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger beginning on page 150. Neither the vesting nor payment of such options will be accelerated in the merger. None of Andeavor's current non-employee directors hold options as of May 18, 2018.

Executive Severance and Change in Control Plan

The Executive CIC Plan provides enhanced severance benefits to participants (including Andeavor's current executive officers) in the event that they experience a qualifying termination (as described below) during the two-year period following a change in control (such as the merger), subject to the participant's execution of a release. Upon such a qualifying termination under the Executive CIC Plan, our executive officers would be entitled to the following separation payments and benefits: (i) a cash lump sum payment equal to the product of (A) the participant's applicable separation pay multiple (equal to 3 for the CEO (Mr. Goff), 2.5 for Executive Vice Presidents, 2 for Senior Vice Presidents, and 1 or 1.5 for Vice Presidents) multiplied by (B) the sum of (x) the participant's annual base salary and (y) the participant's target annual cash bonus and (ii) continued medical benefits (excluding dental and vision) for the participant and his or her family for a number of years equal to the applicable separation pay multiple, or 30 months for the CEO.

Under the Executive CIC Plan:

a qualifying termination includes (i) an involuntary termination by Andeavor without cause (as defined below) or by reason of death or (ii) a voluntary termination by the participant for good reason (as defined below), except in the case of Mr. Goff, as described in The Merger Letter Agreement with Mr. Goff below;

cause means the conviction of or a plea of nolo contendere to the charge of a felony (which, through lapse of time or otherwise, is not subject to appeal); a willful refusal without proper legal cause to perform, or gross negligence in performing, the participant's duties and responsibilities; a material breach of fiduciary duty to Andeavor through the misappropriation of Andeavor funds or property; or the unauthorized absence of the participant from work (other than for sick or approved disability leave or leave under the Family Medical Leave Act) for a period of 30 or more working days out of a consecutive 45 working day period; and good reason means the occurrence of any of the following: (a) without the participant's express written consent, the assignment to the participant of any duties inconsistent with the employment of the participant immediately prior to the change in control, or a significant diminution of the participant's positions, duties, responsibilities and status with Andeavor from those immediately prior to a change in control or a diminution in the participant's titles or offices as in effect immediately prior to a change in control, or any removal of the participant from, or any failure to reelect the participant to, any of such positions; (b) a material reduction by Andeavor in the participant's base salary, as in effect immediately prior to a change in control; (c) the failure by Andeavor to continue benefits, including but not limited to, 401(k), pension, life insurance, and health plans, substantially equal in value, in the aggregate, to those in which the participant is participating or is eligible to participate at the time of the change in control except as otherwise required by the terms of such plans as in effect at the time of any change in control; (d) the failure by Andeavor to continue in effect any incentive plan or arrangement in which the participant is participating at the time of a change in control (or to substitute and continue other plans or arrangements providing the participant with substantially similar benefits), except as otherwise required by the terms of such plans as in effect at the time of any change in control; (e) the occurrence of an event that meets the criteria set forth under Andeavor's relocation policy, as in effect from time to time, with respect to which either (i) the participant fails to provide express written consent to the relocation or (ii) Andeavor fails to provide the relocation benefit set forth in such policy; or (f) any failure by Andeavor to obtain the assumption of the Executive CIC Agreement by any successor or assign of Andeavor.

See The Merger Advisory Vote on Merger-Related Compensation for Andeavor's Named Executive Officers for the estimated amounts that the named executive officers of Andeavor would receive under the Executive CIC Plan upon a qualifying termination as of May 18, 2018. Andeavor's executive officers as a group would receive approximately $32,505,194 in cash severance and continued medical benefits upon a qualifying termination under the Executive CIC Plan as of May 18, 2018.

Letter Agreement with Mr. Goff

Mr. Goff entered into a letter agreement with MPC, effective upon the closing of the merger, pursuant to which he will serve as Executive Vice Chairman and agreed to a noncompetition provision for a period of three years following any termination of employment. Under the letter agreement, Mr. Goff's compensation will consist of an annual base salary of $1,600,000, an annual target bonus opportunity of 160% of his base salary and an annual target long-term incentive grant with a grant date fair value of $12,250,000. In the event of Mr. Goff's termination for any reason other than for cause (as defined in the Executive CIC Plan) after the first anniversary of the closing of the merger, Mr. Goff will be entitled to receive enhanced severance benefits under the terms of the Executive CIC Plan and accelerated vesting of outstanding equity awards applicable for a qualifying termination under the Andeavor stock plans, each as described above. For the first year following the closing of the merger, Mr. Goff will only be eligible to receive such enhanced severance benefits and accelerated vesting of outstanding equity awards if his employment is terminated by MPC without cause (as defined in the Executive CIC Plan).

2018 Annual Cash Performance Bonuses

Eligible Andeavor employees, including our executive officers, (who we refer to as bonus eligible employees) will receive payment of a 2018 annual cash performance bonus based on actual achievement of performance conditions for the full period in accordance with the performance criteria and bonus opportunities established by Andeavor for the 2018 bonuses. Such bonuses will be paid by MPC (or Merger Sub 1 or an affiliate) to bonus eligible employees who remain employed through December 31, 2018 (unless earlier terminated without cause, provided that this does not result in duplication of benefits) at the time Andeavor generally paid such bonuses in the ordinary course (after December 31, 2018 but no later than March 15, 2019) (which we refer to as the payment date). If the Closing has not occurred prior to the payment date, Andeavor and its subsidiaries will pay such 2018 bonuses. See The Merger Advisory Vote on Merger-Related Compensation for Andeavor's Named Executive Officers for information regarding 2018 bonus payments for the named executive officers determined in accordance with Item 402(t) of the SEC's Regulation S-K. Based on the estimated closing date of the merger solely for purposes of this joint proxy statement/prospectus of May 18, 2018, the aggregate amount of 2018 bonuses that would be payable to Andeavor's current executive officers as a group based on target performance assuming the executive officers remained employed through December 31, 2018 or were terminated earlier without cause is $6,729,820.

Further Actions

Andeavor and MPC have agreed that Andeavor may grant cash retention awards and transaction incentives to Andeavor's employees, including Andeavor's executive officers. Awards would be payable in cash in connection with the closing of the merger and/or service following the closing of the merger, subject in each case to the terms and conditions agreed upon by Andeavor and MPC. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, no determinations have been made as to any executive officer who will receive awards or the amounts of such awards. In addition, prior to the effective time of the merger, MPC, or with MPC's permission Andeavor, may enter into employment or other arrangements with the executive officers and/or provide for payments (or the right to future payment) in connection with the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

From and after the effective time of the first merger, MPC shall and shall cause the surviving corporation to (including by MPC providing sufficient funds to the surviving corporation or the applicable subsidiary) indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries and each other person who, at the request or for the benefit of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries, is or was previously serving as a director or officer, Andeavor Logistics employee or fiduciary of any other person or any benefit plan of Andeavor or any benefit plan of any of Andeavor's subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity), determined as of the effective time of the first merger (which we refer to as an indemnified party), from and against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, penalties, amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges) or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the first merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the first merger, to the fullest extent that Andeavor or the applicable subsidiary of Andeavor would have been permitted under Delaware law and under its certificate of incorporation, bylaws or other governing documents in effect on April 29, 2018 to indemnify such person and advance fees, costs and expenses (including attorney's fees and disbursements) as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, subject to an undertaking requirement.

In addition, the merger agreement contains certain obligations related to (i) maintaining indemnification protections in the governing documents of the surviving corporation that are no less advantageous than the corresponding provisions in effect on April 29, 2018 for six years after the effective time of the first merger and (ii) the purchase of directors and officers' liability tail insurance policies with a claims period of at least six years after the effective time of the first merger with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the first merger for persons who are covered under Andeavor's existing policies. For additional information see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance beginning on page 178.

Advisory Vote on Merger-Related Compensation for Andeavor's Named Executive Officers

This section sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the compensation of each of Andeavor's named executive officers, that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger and that will or may become payable to the named executive officers at the closing of the first merger or on a qualifying termination of employment upon or following the consummation of the merger. This compensation is referred to as golden parachute compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules, and in this section we use such term to describe the merger-related compensation payable to the Andeavor named executive officers. The golden parachute compensation payable to these individuals is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of Andeavor stockholders. The named executive officers are the individuals listed as such in Andeavor's most recent annual proxy statement.

As described above, pursuant to the pre-existing terms of the award agreements granted to Andeavor employees, awards will vest on a double-trigger basis upon a qualifying termination of the individual's employment within a two-year period following the merger. For details on the treatment of outstanding Andeavor awards, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger beginning on page 150. Each of the individuals named in the table below participates in the Executive CIC Plan that provides for enhanced severance benefits in the event of a qualifying termination of such individual's employment in connection with the merger, as described in more detail in the section entitled The Merger Executive Severance and Change in Control Plan beginning on page 142.

The amounts set forth in the table below assume the following:

the closing of the merger occurred on May 18, 2018, which is the assumed date of the closing of the merger solely for purposes of this golden parachute compensation disclosure;

the individual is terminated without cause or (except in the case of Mr. Goff) resigns for good reason (for purposes of this section, each, as applicable, a qualifying termination under the terms of the applicable plan) immediately following the assumed closing of the merger on May 18, 2018; and the per share price for each Andeavor common share is $152.27 per share, which is the per share cash consideration to be paid in the merger.

The amounts reported in the table below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and do not reflect compensation actions that may occur following the filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, base compensation increases or annual equity award grants in the ordinary course prior to the closing of the merger. The amounts reported below also include any equity or cash-based awards that may vest after May 18, 2018 but before the actual closing of the merger. As a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by an Andeavor named executive officer may differ materially from the amounts set forth below. In addition, some of the amounts reflected in the table below are attributable to double-trigger arrangements (i.e., the amounts are payable only in the event of a qualifying termination of the named executive officer's employment during a specified period following the consummation of the merger).

Golden Parachute Compensation

Name	Cash ($) ⁽¹⁾	Equity ($) ⁽²⁾	Pension/ NQDC ($) ⁽³⁾	Benefits ($) ⁽⁴⁾	Total ($)
Gregory J. Goff	15,040,002	52,284,745	0	40,419	67,365,166
Steven M. Sterin	5,334,000	10,804,008	979,952	40,419	17,158,379
Keith M. Casey	4,813,300	11,285,470	1,101,423	40,419	17,240,612
Kim K.W. Rucker	4,794,000	8,218,273	229,000	40,419	13,281,692
Cynthia J. Warner	4,302,000	7,694,143	730,792	40,419	12,767,354

- (1) The amounts reflect both single and double-trigger lump sum cash payments. Payments in respect of 2018 annual cash performance bonuses, which will be based on the actual achievement of performance conditions and are estimated based on target performance, are considered single-trigger payments because they would be made if the named executive officer remained employed through December 31, 2018, irrespective of a later termination of employment, or if the named executive officer is terminated without cause. Estimated double-trigger cash severance payments, under the Executive CIC Plan, on a pre-tax basis, consist of 2.5 times (3 times for Mr. Goff) the sum of (i) the named executive officer's annual base salary (assuming the named executive officer's salary on the date of his/her involuntary termination is his/her salary as of May 18, 2018) and (ii) the named executive officer's annual incentive award target bonus for the year in which employment is terminated. The cash severance payments would be paid in the event of a qualifying termination within two years after the closing of the merger. Details of the cash payments are shown in the following supplementary table:

Name	2018 Annual Bonus ($)	CIC Severance ($)	Total ($)
Mr. Goff	2,560,000	12,480,002	15,040,002
Mr. Sterin	924,000	4,410,000	5,334,000
Mr. Casey	833,800	3,979,500	4,813,300
Ms. Rucker	799,000	3,995,000	4,794,000
Ms. Warner	717,000	3,585,000	4,302,000

The amounts reflect the double-trigger vesting of the following outstanding equity awards, assuming a qualifying termination of employment following the closing of the merger. Estimated double trigger payments reflect: (a) Andeavor performance shares, assuming target performance, (b) unvested MSUs, assuming performance based on a stock price equal to $152.27, and (c) Andeavor Logistics performance phantom units, assuming target performance, and will be paid in a lump sum. Please see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger for a description of the treatment of outstanding equity awards in connection with the merger. The amounts above do not include shares of Andeavor common stock underlying vested options that may be exercised prior to the closing of the merger. The values of unvested MSUs calculated at target would be $18,277,729 for Mr. Goff, $3,781,169 for Mr. Sterin, $4,289,750 for Mr. Casey, $2,878,208 for Ms. Rucker and $2,827,654 for Ms. Warner.

-145-

The actual amounts that would be received by the named executive officers in connection with a qualifying termination within a two-year period following the closing of the merger would be determined based on the conversions described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger and may be higher or lower than the estimated amounts shown above. The estimated amounts are based on the assumptions detailed above with respect to the price per Andeavor common share ($152.27) and the closing date of the merger (May 18, 2018).

Details of the payments that would be received upon a qualifying termination in connection with outstanding equity awards are shown in the following supplementary table:

Name	Performance Shares		Andeavor Logistics Performance Phantom
	($) ^(a)	MSUs ($) ^(b)	Units ($) ^(c)	Total ($)
Mr. Goff	17,484,403	28,605,084	6,195,258	52,284,745
Mr. Sterin	3,617,122	5,907,080	1,279,806	10,804,008
Mr. Casey	4,096,580	6,733,655	455,235	11,285,470
Ms. Rucker	2,750,717	4,494,351	973,205	8,218,273
Ms. Warner	2,710,069	4,411,958	572,116	7,694,143

- (a) The amounts above include $298,754, $61,009, $66,754, $43,509 and $48,694 in accrued, but unpaid, dividend equivalents for Messrs. Goff, Sterin and Casey and Meses. Rucker and Warner, respectively, to be paid upon distribution of the award. Assumed performance awards will be converted to time-based restricted stock units, based on the greater of target and actual performance as determined by the compensation committee of the Andeavor board in consultation with the chief executive officer of MPC at the closing of the merger.
- (b) Assumed Andeavor MSUs will be converted to time-based restricted stock units, based on the greater of target and actual performance as determined by the compensation committee of the Andeavor board in consultation with the chief executive officer of MPC at the closing of the merger. Unvested MSUs are not entitled to the accrual of dividend equivalents.
- (c) The amounts above include $606,522, $123,807, $74,917, $93,566 and $33,975 in accrued, but unpaid, dividend equivalents for Messrs. Goff, Sterin and Casey and Meses. Rucker and Warner, respectively, to be paid upon vesting of the award and assume a per-unit value of $42.38, which is the average closing market price over the first five business days following April 30, 2018. Upon the merger, Andeavor Logistics performance phantom units will be converted into time-based phantom unit awards based on the greater of target or actual performance.

The amounts reflect single trigger vesting of retirement benefits including: $979,952, $1,101,423 and $730,792 for Messrs. Sterin and Casey and Ms. Warner, respectively, under the Andeavor Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, and $229,000 for Ms. Rucker under the Andeavor Restoration Pension Plan. The amounts include $118,796, $134,668, $360,727, $70,392 and $19,368 in single trigger vesting of matching contributions for Messrs. Goff, Sterin and Casey and Meses. Warner and Rucker, respectively, under the Andeavor Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. While all of the named executive officers have balances under the plan, as reflected above, only Ms. Rucker is partially unvested. The unvested amount for Ms. Rucker is $65,330.

- (4) The amounts reflect the estimated value of continued participation in Andeavor's group medical plan (excluding dental and vision benefits) for a period of 30 months. Such benefits are double trigger and are provided for qualifying terminations that occur within two years after the closing of the merger.

Listing of MPC Shares; Delisting and Deregistration of Andeavor Shares

If the merger is completed, the shares of MPC common stock to be issued in the merger will be listed for trading on the NYSE, Andeavor common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act, and Andeavor will no longer be required to file periodic reports with the SEC.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

MPC prepares its financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The accounting guidance for business combinations, which is referred to as Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 805, requires the use of the acquisition method of accounting for the merger, which requires the determination of the acquirer, the purchase price, the acquisition date, the fair value of assets and liabilities of the acquiree and the measurement of goodwill. MPC will be treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section describes the material terms of the merger agreement, which was executed on April 29, 2018. The description of the merger agreement in this section and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement and this summary are included solely to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Factual disclosures about MPC, Andeavor, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in MPC's or Andeavor's public reports filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about MPC or Andeavor, as applicable, contained in the merger agreement. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by MPC, Andeavor, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 were made solely for the purposes of the merger agreement and as of specific dates and were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by MPC, Andeavor, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of establishing the circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to complete the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC, and in some cases were qualified by the matters contained in the respective disclosure letters that MPC and Andeavor delivered to each other in connection with the merger agreement, which disclosures were not reflected in the merger agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, may have changed since the date of the merger agreement. Investors should not rely on the merger agreement representations, warranties, covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts of MPC, Andeavor, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2 or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

The Merger

Pursuant to the merger agreement, MPC will acquire Andeavor. The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions in the merger agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL, at the effective time, Merger Sub 1 will merge with and into Andeavor in the first merger. As a result of the first merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub 1 will cease, and Andeavor will continue as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of MPC.

Immediately following the effective time of the first merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions in the merger agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL and the Limited Liability Company Act of the State of Delaware, which is referred to as the LLC Act, the surviving corporation from the first merger will be merged with and into Merger Sub 2, which is referred to as the second merger. As a result of the second merger, the separate corporate existence of the surviving corporation will cease, and Merger Sub 2 will continue as the surviving company and a wholly owned subsidiary of MPC.

Closing and Effective Time of the First Merger

Unless otherwise mutually agreed to in writing between MPC and Andeavor, the closing of the merger will take place on the fifth business day following the day on which the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions to completion of the merger, described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger beginning on page 173, has been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions which by their nature are to be satisfied at or immediately prior to the closing of the merger, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions).

Assuming timely satisfaction of the necessary closing conditions, the parties currently expect the closing of the merger to occur in the second half of 2018. The first merger will become effective at the time when the certificate of merger for the first merger has been duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later date or time as MPC and Andeavor may agree in writing and specify in the certificate of merger for the first merger. Immediately following the effective time of the first merger, the second merger will become effective at the time when the certificate of merger for the second merger has been duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later date or time as MPC and the surviving corporation may agree in writing and specify in the certificate of merger for the second merger.

Merger Consideration

As a result of the first merger, each share of Andeavor common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger, other than excluded shares, will be converted into the per share merger consideration of either $152.27 in cash, which is referred to as cash consideration, or 1.87, which is referred to as the exchange ratio, of shares of MPC common stock, which is referred to as stock consideration, in each case without interest. As further described below in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Election and Exchange Procedures beginning on page 152, and in more detail in the merger agreement, each Andeavor stockholder will, until the election deadline, be entitled to elect to receive either cash consideration, which is referred to as a cash election, or stock consideration, which is referred to as a stock election, in exchange for each share of Andeavor common stock held by him or her that was issued and outstanding immediately prior to the election deadline (other than any excluded shares), subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below and in further detail in the merger agreement. Andeavor stockholders (other than holders of excluded shares) who make no election or an untimely election (or who otherwise are deemed not to have submitted an effective form of election) will be deemed to have made a stock election. MPC has reasonable discretion to determine whether stock elections or cash elections have been made or deemed made in respect of any shares of Andeavor common stock. For more information regarding the election deadline, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Election and Exchange Procedures beginning on page 152.

Stock elections and cash elections are subject to the allocation and proration procedures set forth in the merger agreement to ensure that the total number of shares of Andeavor common stock converted into cash consideration will be equal to 22,885,359 shares of Andeavor common stock, which is referred to as the cash election number.

In the event that the aggregate number of shares of Andeavor common stock in respect of which cash elections have been made, which are referred to as cash election shares, exceeds the cash election number, all cash election shares will be converted into the right to receive stock consideration or cash consideration as follows:

the cash election shares held by each record holder of shares of Andeavor common stock will be deemed converted into shares in respect of which stock elections have been made, which are referred to as stock election shares, on a pro rata basis based on the ratio of (x) one minus (y) the cash election number divided by the total number of cash election shares, such that the aggregate number of cash election shares so deemed converted, when added to the number of stock election shares, will equal as closely as practicable the stock election number (as described below);

any remaining cash election shares will be converted into the right to receive cash consideration; and the number of cash election shares of a holder of Andeavor common stock that are to remain cash election shares pursuant to the calculation described above will be rounded downward where needed.

In the event that the aggregate number of stock election shares exceeds the total number of shares of Andeavor common stock to be converted in connection with the merger less the cash election number, which is referred to as the stock election number, all stock election shares will be converted into stock consideration or cash consideration as follows:

the stock election shares held by each record holder of shares of Andeavor common stock will be deemed converted into cash election shares on a pro rata basis based on the ratio of (x) one minus (y) the stock election number divided by the total number of stock election shares, such that the aggregate number of stock election shares so deemed converted, when added to the number of other shares of Andeavor common stock in respect of which cash elections have been made, will equal as closely as practicable the cash election number;

any remaining stock election shares will be converted into the right to receive stock consideration; and the number of stock election shares of a holder of Andeavor common stock that are to remain stock election shares pursuant to the calculation described above will be rounded downward where needed.

Andeavor stockholders will not be entitled to receive any fractional shares of MPC common stock in the merger, and no Andeavor stockholders will be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional shares of MPC common stock. Andeavor stockholders that would have otherwise been entitled to receive a fractional share of MPC common stock will instead be entitled to receive, in lieu of fractional shares, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of the average of the closing prices per share of MPC common stock on the NYSE, as reported by The Wall Street Journal (or if not reported thereby, as reported in another authoritative source), for the five full trading days ending on the second business day immediately preceding the date on which the effective time of the first merger occurs, multiplied by the fraction of a share of MPC common stock (after taking into account all of the shares of Andeavor common stock held by the holder at the effective time of the first merger and rounded to the nearest one thousandth) to which the holder would otherwise be entitled.

At the effective time, all shares of Andeavor common stock will cease to be outstanding, will be cancelled and will cease to exist, and each certificate formerly representing any shares of Andeavor common stock, and each non-certificated share of Andeavor common stock represented by book-entry (other than, in each case, those representing excluded shares) will thereafter represent only the right to receive, without interest, the applicable per share merger consideration, and (with respect to the stock consideration) the right, if any, to receive cash in lieu of fractional shares into which such shares have been converted and any distribution or dividend on shares of MPC common stock issued in the merger payable after the effective time of the first merger.

Each excluded share will, at the effective time of the first merger, be cancelled and cease to exist, with no consideration paid therefor.

Treatment of Andeavor Equity Awards in the Merger

Treatment of Andeavor Options

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding option award to purchase Andeavor common stock, which is referred to as an Andeavor option, whether vested or unvested, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent an option award to purchase Andeavor common stock and will be converted into an option award to acquire a number of shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of shares of Andeavor common stock subject to the Andeavor option immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger multiplied by the exchange ratio, at an exercise price per share (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the exercise price per Andeavor share of such Andeavor option immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger divided by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such option will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions as were applicable to such Andeavor option immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Treatment of Andeavor Restricted Stock Units

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding restricted stock unit award or phantom stock award in respect of Andeavor common stock with only time-based vesting requirements, except for awards held by non-employee directors of Andeavor, which is referred to as an Andeavor RSU, whether vested or unvested, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a restricted stock unit award or phantom stock award denominated in Andeavor common stock and be converted into a restricted stock unit award denominated in MPC common stock relating to the number of shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of shares of Andeavor common stock subject to such Andeavor RSU immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger multiplied by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such RSU will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions (including vesting terms) as were applicable to such Andeavor RSU immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Treatment of Andeavor Director Restricted Stock Units

At the effective time of the first merger, any vesting conditions applicable to each outstanding restricted stock unit award in respect of Andeavor common stock with only time-based vesting requirements that is held by a non-employee director of Andeavor, which is referred to as an Andeavor director RSU, will, automatically and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, accelerate in full and be cancelled and will only entitle the holder of such Andeavor director RSU to receive (without interest), as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time of the first merger (but in any event no later than 10 business days thereafter) an amount in cash equal to the number of shares of Andeavor common stock subject to such Andeavor director RSU multiplied by the cash consideration; provided, however, that to the extent that any such Andeavor director RSU constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, such cash payment will be paid in accordance with the applicable award's terms and at the earliest time permitted under the terms of such award that will not result in the application of a tax or penalty under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

Treatment of Andeavor Performance Share Awards

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding performance share award in respect of Andeavor common stock with any performance-based vesting requirements, which is referred to as an Andeavor PSA, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a performance share award denominated in Andeavor common stock and be converted into a time-based restricted stock unit denominated in MPC common stock relating to the number of shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of shares of Andeavor common stock that would have been issued under such Andeavor PSA assuming the greater of the achievement of target performance or the achievement of actual performance measured as of the effective time of the first merger, as reasonably determined in good faith by the compensation committee of the Andeavor board in accordance with the applicable award agreement and in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer of MPC, multiplied by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such RSU will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions (including time-based vesting terms) as were applicable to such Andeavor PSA immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Treatment of Andeavor Market Stock Units

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding market stock unit in respect of Andeavor common stock, which is referred to as an Andeavor MSU, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent a market stock unit award denominated in Andeavor common stock and be converted into a time-based restricted stock unit award denominated in MPC common stock relating to the number of shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of shares of Andeavor common stock that would have been issued under such Andeavor MSU based on the greater of the achievement of target performance or the achievement of actual performance measured as of the effective time of the first merger, as reasonably determined in good faith by the compensation committee of the Andeavor board in accordance with the applicable award agreement and in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer of MPC, multiplied by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such RSU will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions (including time-based vesting terms) as were applicable to such Andeavor MSU immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Treatment of Andeavor Restricted Shares

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding share of Andeavor common stock that is subject to vesting, repurchase, or other lapse of restrictions, which is referred to as an Andeavor restricted share, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent an Andeavor restricted share and be converted into a number of restricted shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of Andeavor restricted shares held by the holder of such award, multiplied by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such restricted share will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions (including vesting terms) as were applicable to such Andeavor restricted share immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Treatment of Other Company Awards

At the effective time of the first merger, each outstanding right of any kind, contingent or accrued, to acquire or receive shares of Andeavor common stock or benefits measured by the value of shares of Andeavor common stock, and each award of any kind consisting of shares of Andeavor common stock that may be held, awarded, outstanding, payable or reserved for issuance under any Andeavor benefit plans other than Andeavor options, Andeavor RSUs, Andeavor director RSUs, Andeavor PSAs, Andeavor MSUs, and Andeavor restricted shares, which are referred to collectively as the Andeavor other awards, will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, cease to represent an award denominated in Andeavor common stock and be converted into the right to acquire or receive benefits measured by the value of (as the case may be) the number of shares of MPC common stock (rounded down to the nearest whole number) equal to the product of the number of shares of Andeavor common stock subject to such Andeavor other award immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger multiplied by the exchange ratio. Following the effective time of the first merger, each such award will continue to be governed by the same terms and conditions as were applicable to such Andeavor other award immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger.

Election and Exchange Procedures

MPC has selected [] to serve as the exchange agent and to handle the exchange of shares of Andeavor common stock for the per share merger consideration, as described above.

At the effective time of the first merger, MPC will deposit with the exchange agent cash constituting at least the amount necessary for the aggregate amount of cash consideration, and certificates (or at MPC's option, evidence of non-certificated shares of MPC common stock in book-entry form) constituting at least the amount necessary for the aggregate amount of stock consideration. In addition, MPC will deposit with the exchange agent, as necessary from time to time after the effective time of the first merger, if applicable, cash, dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of MPC common stock to be issued in the first merger, as further described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Dividends and Distributions on Shares of MPC Common Stock beginning on page 155.

Prior to the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will provide a form of election and appropriate transmittal materials to holders of record of shares of Andeavor common stock (other than holders of excluded shares and shares represented by Andeavor options, Andeavor RSUs, Andeavor director RSUs, Andeavor PSAs, Andeavor MSUs, Andeavor restricted shares and Andeavor other awards) advising such holders of the procedure for exercising their right to make an election.

Andeavor stockholders should not return their stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and Andeavor stockholders should not forward their stock certificates to the exchange agent without a valid form of election and other appropriate transmittal materials.

To be effective, a form of election must be properly completed, signed and submitted to the exchange agent by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the business day that is two trading days prior to the closing date for the first merger, or such other date and time as MPC may publicly announce with the consent of Andeavor, which is referred to as the election deadline. Each form of election submitted to the exchange agent must be accompanied by:

for book-entry shares of Andeavor common stock, customary evidence of ownership of such shares as determined by the exchange agent by the election deadline, and for certificated shares of Andeavor common stock, the certificate representing such shares (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such certificates or an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such certificates by a financial institution that is a participant in the Security Transfer Agents Medallion Program, the New York Stock Exchange Medallion Signature Guarantee Program or the Stock Exchange Medallion Program, followed in the case of guarantees of delivery within three trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery by delivery to the exchange agent of the certificates represented by such guarantee of delivery) and a letter of transmittal by the election deadline.

An Andeavor stockholder may revoke his or her merger consideration election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. A holder of shares of Andeavor common stock who has validly revoked his or her merger consideration election and has not properly submitted a new duly completed form of election will be deemed to have made a stock election. MPC will determine, in its reasonable discretion, which discretion and authority it may delegate in whole or in part to the exchange agent, whether forms of election (and where applicable, appropriate transmittal materials) have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked, and the decision of MPC (or the exchange agent, as the case may be) in such matters will be conclusive and binding.

From and after the effective time of the first merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of Andeavor of the shares of Andeavor common stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger. If, after the effective time of the first merger, any certificate of a share of Andeavor common stock is presented to the surviving corporation, surviving company, MPC or the exchange agent for transfer, it will be canceled and exchanged for the per share merger consideration to which the holder of the certificate is entitled pursuant to the merger agreement.

Termination of the Exchange Fund

Any portion of the exchange fund that remains unclaimed by Andeavor stockholders for 180 days after the effective time of the first merger will be delivered to MPC. Thereafter, Andeavor stockholders will be entitled to look only to MPC with respect to the payment of any per share merger consideration (and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or dividends or distributions with respect to such per share merger consideration, as contemplated by the merger agreement), without any interest thereon. None of the surviving company, MPC, the exchange agent or any other person will be liable to any former holder of shares of Andeavor common stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Immediately before any portion of the exchange fund would otherwise escheat to, or become the property of, any governmental authority, such amount will, to the extent permitted by law, become the property of MPC.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Share Certificates

If a certificate for shares of Andeavor common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, then, before an Andeavor stockholder will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration (and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or dividends or distribution with respect to such per share merger consideration, as contemplated by the merger agreement), such holder will need to make an affidavit of that fact and, if requested by MPC, post a bond (in such amount as is customary and upon such terms as may be required by MPC) as indemnity against any claim that may be made against MPC, the exchange agent or any of MPC's subsidiaries with respect to such certificate.

Adjustments to Prevent Dilution

In the event that, prior to the effective time of the first merger, either MPC or Andeavor changes the number of shares of MPC common stock (or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for MPC common stock) or Andeavor common stock (or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for Andeavor common stock), as the case may be, issued and outstanding, by reason of any reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, issuer tender or exchange offer, or another similar transaction, then the per share merger consideration and the cash election number will be equitably adjusted, without duplication, to proportionally reflect such change.

Dividends and Distributions on Shares of MPC Common Stock

Any dividend or other distribution with respect to shares of MPC common stock for which shares of Andeavor common stock are to be exchanged in connection with the first merger will not be paid (but will nevertheless accrue) until the certificates representing such shares of Andeavor common stock (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such certificates), or, as applicable, untransferred book-entry shares representing such shares of Andeavor common stock, are properly transferred for exchange in accordance with the merger agreement. Following the transfer of such book-entry shares or surrender of any such certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such certificates), there will be issued or paid in respect of each whole share of MPC common stock into which the shares of Andeavor common stock represented by such book-entry shares, or affidavits of loss have been converted, without interest:

at the time of such transfer or surrender, as applicable, the dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time for the first merger theretofore payable with respect to such whole shares of MPC common stock and not paid; and at the appropriate payment date, the dividends and other distributions payable with respect to such whole shares of MPC common stock with a record date after the effective time for the first merger and a payment date subsequent to the time of such transfer or surrender, as applicable.

No holder of Andeavor certificates or book-entry shares that have been converted into cash consideration will be entitled to receive any such dividend or other distribution in respect of such Andeavor certificates or book-entry shares.

Withholdings

Under the merger agreement, MPC, the surviving company or the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any former holder of Andeavor common stock such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the payment of the per share merger consideration, as applicable, or the making of such payment under the Internal Revenue Code, or under any provision of state, local or foreign tax law and will be entitled to make any required reporting regarding such payment to the appropriate taxing authority. Any amount deducted or withheld under the merger agreement, and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, will be treated as having been paid or issued, as applicable, to the holder of Andeavor common stock in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made. Such withholding will be made first from the cash otherwise payable to such holder prior to withholding from MPC common stock. In the case of any withholding from MPC common stock, MPC will withhold an amount of MPC common stock having a fair market value equal to the withholding obligation to be satisfied with such MPC common stock at the time such shares are withheld.

Appraisal Rights

Under the DGCL, subject to the closing of the merger, record holders of Andeavor common stock who do not vote in favor of the Andeavor merger proposal and who otherwise properly exercise and perfect their appraisal rights in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to seek appraisal for, and obtain payment in cash for the judicially determined fair value of, their shares of Andeavor common stock, in lieu of receiving the merger consideration. The fair value could be higher or lower than, or the same as, the merger consideration. Andeavor stockholders who wish to exercise the right to seek an appraisal of their shares must so advise Andeavor by submitting a written demand for appraisal in the form described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus prior to the vote on the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal at the Andeavor special meeting and must otherwise follow the procedures prescribed by Section 262 of the DGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Andeavor common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a bank, broker or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

The full text of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Andeavor stockholders are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Moreover, due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising and perfecting the right to seek appraisal, Andeavor stockholders who are considering exercising and perfecting that right are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions may result in a waiver of, or the inability to exercise, appraisal rights. For more information regarding appraisal rights, see the section entitled Appraisal Rights of Andeavor Stockholders beginning on page 216.

the availability of funds; and the capitalization of Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2.

Many of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement are qualified by a parent material adverse effect or a company material adverse effect standard (that is, they would not be deemed untrue or incorrect unless their failure to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have, as applicable, a parent material adverse effect on MPC or a company material adverse effect on Andeavor) and/or by a general materiality standard or by a knowledge standard.

A parent material adverse effect on MPC or a company material adverse effect on Andeavor, as applicable, means any fact, event, change, circumstance or effect that, individually or in the aggregate with all other events, changes, circumstances or effects, is materially adverse to the assets, properties, business, conditions (financial or otherwise) and/or results of operations of (with respect to the definition of a parent material adverse effect) MPC and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (with respect to the definition of a company material adverse effect) Andeavor and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, excluding any effect to the extent resulting from any of the following:

any litigation brought by or on behalf of any current or former holder of shares of (with respect to the definition of parent material adverse effect) MPC common stock or (with respect to the definition of company material adverse effect) Andeavor common stock, in their capacities as such, arising from allegations of any breach of fiduciary duty or violation of law relating to the merger agreement or merger; and any action taken (or omitted to be taken) at the written request of (with respect to the definition of company material adverse effect) MPC or (with respect to the definition of parent material adverse effect) Andeavor, or that is expressly required by the merger agreement, or the failure to take any specific action expressly prohibited by the merger agreement for which (with respect to the definition of company material adverse effect) MPC or (with respect to the definition of parent material adverse effect) Andeavor declined to consent.

The definitions of company material adverse effect and parent material adverse effect also exclude any effect to the extent resulting from any of the following, provided that such exclusions will not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any change, event, circumstance or development underlying such matter has resulted in, or contributed to, a company material adverse effect or as applicable, a parent material adverse effect :

any failure by (with respect to the definition of parent material adverse effect) MPC and its subsidiaries or (with respect to the definition of company material adverse effect) Andeavor and its subsidiaries to meet any estimates or projections of financial performance for any period ending on or after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the closing; and Andeavor has also agreed that prior to making any written communications generally disseminated to the employees of Andeavor or its subsidiaries pertaining to compensation, benefit or other matters related to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, it will provide MPC with a reasonable period of time to review and comment on the communication, and Andeavor and MPC will cooperate in providing any such mutually agreeable communication.

Non-Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals; Changes of Recommendation

Non-Solicitation

The merger agreement contains detailed provisions outlining the circumstances in which MPC and Andeavor may respond to acquisition proposals received from third parties. Under these provisions, each of MPC and Andeavor has agreed that it and its subsidiaries will not (and that it and its subsidiaries will cause their subsidiaries and their and their subsidiaries' respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other advisors or representatives, collectively referred to as representatives, not to), directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage or facilitate the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal (as described below);

participate in any discussions or negotiations relating to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, with any third party that is reasonably likely to be considering or seeking to make, or has made since April 29, 2017, an acquisition proposal; make available to any third party that is reasonably likely to be considering or seeking to make, or has made since April 29, 2017, an acquisition proposal, any non-public information or data relating to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal; or enter into any contract relating to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal. Notwithstanding the above restrictions, MPC and Andeavor and their respective representatives are permitted to seek to clarify the terms and conditions of any inquiry or proposal to determine whether it constitutes a bona fide acquisition proposal (as defined below) and are permitted to inform third parties making acquisition proposals of the restrictions imposed by the no shop or non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement.

Each of MPC and Andeavor is required not to, and is required to cause its subsidiaries not to, terminate, waive, amend, release or modify any standstill or other similar provision of any confidentiality agreement to which they are a party in connection with an acquisition proposal or other proposal, inquiry or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, and is required to enforce the provisions of any such confidentiality agreements to the fullest extent permitted under the law, except in each case if its board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law.

MPC Restrictions on Changes of Recommendation

Subject to certain exceptions described below, the MPC board (and each committee thereof) may not:

fail to include in this joint proxy statement/prospectus its recommendation that MPC stockholders approve the MPC issuance proposal;

withhold or withdraw, or directly or indirectly qualify or modify in a manner that is adverse to Andeavor, its recommendation that MPC stockholders approve the MPC issuance proposal, or its approval of the merger agreement or the merger, or publicly propose to do so;

make any public recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer other than a recommendation against such offer or a stop, look and listen communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act or fail to recommend against acceptance of such tender or exchange offer by close of business on the earlier of the 10th business day after the commencement of such offer and the second business day prior to the MPC special meeting;

adopt, approve, recommend to its stockholders, endorse or otherwise declare advisable any acquisition proposal for MPC, or resolve, agree or publicly propose to do so, except as set forth below; or

except with respect to tender and exchange offers (discussed above), fail to publicly reaffirm its recommendation that MPC stockholders approve the MPC issuance proposal within three business days following receipt of a written notice from Andeavor requesting such reaffirmation delivered after the public announcement of an acquisition proposal for MPC has become publicly known (or if earlier, by the date that is two business days prior to the MPC special meeting).

The taking of any of the actions described in any of the five bullets above is referred to as an adverse MPC recommendation change.

Andeavor Restrictions on Changes of Recommendation

Similarly, and subject to certain exceptions described below, the Andeavor board (and each committee thereof) may not:

fail to include in this joint proxy statement/prospectus its recommendation that Andeavor stockholders approve the Andeavor merger proposal;

withhold or withdraw, or directly or indirectly qualify or modify in a manner that is adverse to MPC, Merger Sub 1 or Merger Sub 2, its recommendation that Andeavor stockholders approve the Andeavor merger proposal, or its approval of the merger agreement or the merger, or publicly propose to do so;

make any public recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer other than a recommendation against such offer or a "stop, look and listen" communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act or fail to recommend against acceptance of such tender or exchange offer by close of business on the earlier of the 10th business day after the commencement of such offer and the second business day prior to the Andeavor special meeting;

adopt, approve, recommend to its stockholders, endorse or otherwise declare advisable any acquisition proposal for Andeavor, or resolve, agree or publicly propose to do so, except as set forth below; or

except with respect to tender and exchange offers (discussed above), fail to publicly reaffirm its recommendation that Andeavor stockholders approve the Andeavor merger proposal within three business days following receipt of a written notice from MPC requesting such reaffirmation delivered after the public announcement of an acquisition proposal for Andeavor has become publicly known (or if earlier, by the date that is two business days prior to the Andeavor special meeting).

The taking of any of the actions described in any of the bullets above is referred to as an adverse Andeavor recommendation change.

MPC: No-Shop Exceptions; Permitted Changes of Recommendation and Permitted Termination to Enter into a Superior Proposal

At any time prior to the time that the MPC issuance proposal has been approved by MPC stockholders, if MPC receives a bona fide acquisition proposal that did not result from a breach of the no-shop provisions of the merger agreement, MPC may take any of the following actions if the MPC board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel where required by the merger agreement) that failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under Delaware law:

engage in negotiations or discussions with the third party making the acquisition proposal, furnish to such third party or its representatives information relating to it and its subsidiaries, and afford such third party and its representatives access to its and its subsidiaries' business, properties, assets, books and records pursuant to a confidentiality agreement with confidentiality terms that are no less restrictive, in the aggregate, than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Andeavor and MPC; provided that the MPC board determines, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal. MPC and its subsidiaries are required to, and to cause their representatives to, terminate any such permitted negotiations, discussion and information access promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) following the time that the MPC board determines in good faith that the acquisition proposal does not constitute and would not reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal; and

- (1) make an adverse MPC recommendation change in respect of an acquisition proposal, or (2) terminate the merger agreement, pay the reverse termination fee and enter into an alternative acquisition agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal, if (i) the MPC board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside counsel and financial advisor that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal and (ii) the MPC board complied with the match right obligations described below.

Prior to effecting an adverse MPC recommendation change or terminating the merger agreement in the situation described in the immediately preceding bullet, MPC is required to comply with certain match right obligations. Specifically, the MPC board must (i) have given Andeavor four business days' notice of its intention to make such an adverse MPC recommendation change or so terminate the merger agreement and include certain specified information in such notice, (ii) have negotiated in good faith with Andeavor (to the extent Andeavor so wished to negotiate) during that four business day period concerning any revisions to the merger agreement and voting agreement proposed by Andeavor and (iii) following such negotiations, have determined that a failure to effect such an adverse MPC recommendation change or so terminate the merger agreement in response to the superior proposal, taking into account any changes committed by Andeavor in writing to be made to the merger agreement and the voting agreement, continues to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the MPC board under Delaware law. The four business day match right period described above will be renewed for further three business day periods each time any revisions are made to the financial or other material terms of the superior proposal that is the subject of the match right obligation.

Table of Contents*MPC: Permitted Changes of Recommendation in Connection with Intervening Events*

At any time prior to the time that the MPC issuance proposal has been approved by MPC stockholders, if an MPC intervening event (as defined below) occurs and the MPC board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the failure to effect an adverse MPC recommendation change in response to such MPC intervening event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law, the MPC board may make an adverse MPC recommendation change in response to such MPC intervening event provided that the following procedures are complied with. In order to effect an adverse MPC recommendation change in response to an MPC intervening event, the MPC board must (i) have given Andeavor four business days' notice of such intention, (ii) have negotiated in good faith with Andeavor (to the extent Andeavor so wished to negotiate) during that four business day period concerning any revisions to the merger agreement and voting agreement proposed by Andeavor and (iii) following such negotiations, have determined that a failure to effect an adverse MPC recommendation change in response to the MPC intervening event, taking into account any changes committed by Andeavor in writing to be made to the merger agreement and the voting agreement, continues to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the MPC board under Delaware law.

An MPC intervening event is any material change, development or occurrence that (i) first became known to the MPC board after April 29, 2018 and was not reasonably foreseeable by the MPC board as of April 29, 2018 or (ii) if known (or reasonably foreseeable) as of April 29, 2018, the consequences of such change, development or occurrence were not known to or reasonably foreseeable by the MPC board as of April 29, 2018. Certain matters are specifically excluded from being MPC intervening events, as further specified in the merger agreement, including the receipt, existence or terms of any acquisition proposal or any change in the price and/or trading volume of Andeavor common stock, MPC common stock or the equity of any subsidiary of Andeavor or MPC on the NYSE. In addition, an opportunity to acquire any assets, securities, properties or businesses, or enter into any licensing, collaboration or similar arrangement, will not constitute or be deemed to contribute to or otherwise be taken into account in determining whether there has been an MPC intervening event.

Andeavor: No-Shop Exceptions; Permitted Changes of Recommendation and Permitted Termination to Enter into a Superior Proposal

At any time prior to the time that the Andeavor merger proposal has been approved by Andeavor stockholders, if Andeavor receives a bona fide acquisition proposal that did not result from a breach of the no-shop provisions of the merger agreement, Andeavor may take any of the following actions if its board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel where required by the merger agreement) that failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under Delaware law:

engage in negotiations or discussions with the third party making the acquisition proposal, furnish to such third party or its representatives information relating to it and its subsidiaries, and afford such third party and its representatives access to its and its subsidiaries' business, properties, assets, books and records pursuant to a confidentiality agreement with confidentiality terms that are no less restrictive, in the aggregate, than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Andeavor and MPC; provided that the Andeavor board determines, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal. Andeavor and its subsidiaries are required to, and to cause their representatives to, terminate any such permitted negotiations, discussion and information access promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) following the time that the Andeavor board determines in good faith that the acquisition proposal does not constitute and would not reasonably be expected to result in a superior

proposal; and

(1) make an adverse Andeavor recommendation change in respect of an acquisition proposal, or
(2) terminate the merger agreement, pay the termination fee and enter into an alternative acquisition agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal, if (i) the Andeavor board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside counsel and financial advisor that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal and (ii) the Andeavor board has complied with the match right obligations described below.

Prior to effecting an adverse Andeavor recommendation change or terminating the merger agreement in the situation described in the immediately preceding bullet, Andeavor is required to comply with certain match right obligations. Specifically, the Andeavor board must (i) have given MPC four business days notice of its intention to make such an adverse Andeavor recommendation change or so terminate the merger agreement and include certain specified information in such notice, (ii) have negotiated in good faith with MPC (to the extent MPC so wished to negotiate) during that four business day period concerning any revisions to the merger agreement and voting agreement proposed by MPC and (iii) following such negotiations, have determined that a failure to effect such an adverse Andeavor recommendation change or so terminate the merger agreement in response to the superior proposal, taking into account any changes committed by MPC in writing to be made to the merger agreement and the voting agreement, continues to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the Andeavor board under Delaware law. Andeavor: Permitted Changes of Recommendation in Connection with Intervening Events

At any time prior to the time that the Andeavor merger proposal has been approved by Andeavor stockholders, if an Andeavor intervening event (as defined below) occurs and the Andeavor board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the failure to effect an adverse Andeavor recommendation change in response to such Andeavor intervening event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law, the Andeavor board may make an adverse Andeavor recommendation change in response to such Andeavor intervening event provided that the following procedures are complied with. In order to effect an adverse Andeavor recommendation change in response to an Andeavor intervening event, the Andeavor board must (i) have given MPC four business days notice of such intention, (ii) have negotiated in good faith with MPC (to the extent MPC so wished to negotiate) during that four business day period concerning any revisions to the merger agreement and voting agreement proposed by MPC and (iii) following such negotiations, have determined that a failure to effect an adverse Andeavor recommendation change in response to the Andeavor intervening event, taking into account any changes committed in writing to be made to the merger agreement and the voting agreement, continues to be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the Andeavor board under Delaware law.

An Andeavor intervening event is any material change, development or occurrence that (i) first became known to the Andeavor board after April 29, 2018 and was not reasonably foreseeable by the Andeavor board as of April 29, 2018 or (ii) if known (or reasonably foreseeable) as of April 29, 2018, the consequences of such change, development or occurrence were not known to or reasonably foreseeable by the Andeavor board as of April 29, 2018. Certain matters are specifically excluded from being Andeavor intervening events, as further specified in the merger agreement, including the receipt, existence or terms of any acquisition proposal or any change in the price and/or trading volume of Andeavor common stock, MPC common stock or the equity of any subsidiary of Andeavor or MPC on the NYSE.

Certain Permitted Disclosure

Nothing in the merger agreement prevents Andeavor or MPC or either of their boards of directors from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by applicable Exchange Act rules with regard to an acquisition proposal or from making any legally required disclosure to stockholders with regard to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; however, if such disclosure does not reaffirm, in the case of MPC, MPC's recommendation that its stockholders vote in favor of the MPC issuance proposal or, in the case of Andeavor, Andeavor's recommendation that its stockholders vote in favor of the Andeavor merger proposal, such disclosure will be deemed to be an adverse MPC recommendation change, or as applicable, an adverse Andeavor recommendation change, and the other party will have the right to terminate the merger agreement in connection with such change of recommendation.

Table of Contents

Definition of Acquisition Proposal

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term acquisition proposal means, with respect to MPC:

any proposal or offer from any third party with respect to a merger, joint venture, partnership, consolidation, dissolution, liquidation, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving MPC and/or its subsidiaries with respect to assets that constitute 50% or more of the assets, revenues or net income of MPC and/or its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

any acquisition by a third party resulting in, or proposal or offer (including any tender offer or exchange offer) from a third party that if consummated would result in, a third party becoming the beneficial owner of, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, 50% or more of the consolidated total assets (including equity securities of MPC's subsidiaries, as applicable), revenues or net income of MPC; or any acquisition by a third party resulting in, or proposal or offer (including any tender offer or exchange offer) from a third party that if consummated would result in, a third party becoming the beneficial owner of, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, 50% or more of the total voting power of, or of any class of, equity securities of MPC or any of its subsidiaries.

Proposals and offers with respect to dropdown transactions or incentive distribution right buybacks between MPC or any of its subsidiaries on the one hand and MPLX and its subsidiaries on the other hand, are deemed not to be acquisition proposals.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term acquisition proposal means, with respect to Andeavor:

any proposal or offer from any third party with respect to a merger, joint venture, partnership, consolidation, dissolution, liquidation, tender offer, recapitalization, reorganization, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving Andeavor and/or its subsidiaries with respect to assets that constitute 15% or more of the assets, revenues or net income of Andeavor and/or its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

any acquisition by a third party resulting in, or proposal or offer (including any tender offer or exchange offer) from a third party that if consummated would result in, a third party becoming the beneficial owner of, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, 15% or more of the consolidated total assets (including equity securities of Andeavor's subsidiaries, as applicable), revenues or net income of Andeavor; or any acquisition by a third party resulting in, or proposal or offer (including any tender offer or exchange offer) from a third party that if consummated would result in, a third party becoming the beneficial owner of, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, 15% more of the total voting power of, or of any class of, equity securities of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries.

Proposals and offers with respect to dropdown transactions between Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries on the one hand and Andeavor Logistics or any of its subsidiaries on the other hand, are deemed not to be acquisition proposals.

Definition of Superior Proposal

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term superior proposal means a bona fide written acquisition proposal not solicited in violation of the no-shop provisions of the merger agreement that the Andeavor board or the MPC board, as applicable, has determined in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, (i) is reasonably capable of being consummated in accordance with its terms and (ii) if consummated, would be more favorable to its stockholders from a financial point of view than the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, taking into account any revisions to the merger agreement and the voting agreement committed to in writing by the other party to the merger agreement.

In determining whether an acquisition proposal is more favorable to its stockholders for purposes of the preceding paragraph, the Andeavor board and/or the MPC board, as applicable, is required to take into account:

the terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal and all other relevant factors (including all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the acquisition proposal and the person making the acquisition proposal); and the certainty of completion and the time likely to be required to consummate such acquisition proposal. For purposes of determining whether an acquisition proposal is a superior proposal, only acquisition proposals involving (i) 66% or more of the assets, revenues or net income of Andeavor and its subsidiaries (or as applicable, MPC or its subsidiaries) or (ii) 66% or more of the total voting power of, or of any class of equity securities of, Andeavor or its subsidiaries (or as applicable, MPC or its subsidiaries) may be considered.

Notice

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each of MPC and Andeavor has also agreed to notify the other promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after receipt by it (or any of its representatives) of any (i) acquisition proposal, (ii) inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal or (iii) request for information relating to such party or any of its subsidiaries or for access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of such party or any of its subsidiaries, in each case by any person that is reasonably likely to be considering or seeking to make, or has made within the 12 months preceding April 29, 2018, an MPC acquisition proposal or an Andeavor acquisition proposal, as applicable. Such notice must include the material terms and conditions of the applicable acquisition proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, copies of any material written communications and draft documentation received relating to such acquisition proposal and indicating the name of the person making such acquisition proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, and thereafter the notifying party will keep the other party reasonably informed, on a timely basis, of the status and material terms of any such acquisition proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request (including any amendments thereto) and the status of any discussions or negotiations with such third party or its representatives and provide copies of all material written communications and draft documentation received relating to such acquisition proposal.

Special Meetings

MPC Special Meeting

MPC has agreed to convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the MPC issuance proposal as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event within 35 calendar days, after the commencement of mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. MPC may make one or more postponements or adjournments of the MPC special meeting to the extent that MPC believes in good faith that such a postponement or adjournment is reasonably necessary to ensure that any required supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is provided to MPC stockholders within a reasonable amount of time in advance of the MPC special meeting, to allow reasonable time to solicit additional proxies necessary to obtain the approval of the MPC issuance proposal from MPC stockholders (subject to an 11 business day limit in connection with any individual commencement of an MPC acquisition proposal that is a tender offer or an exchange offer), to ensure that there are sufficient shares of MPC common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) and voting to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the MPC special meeting or otherwise where required to comply with applicable law. The MPC special meeting must be held even if there is an adverse MPC recommendation change or an adverse Andeavor recommendation change, unless the merger agreement has been terminated. Unless there has been an adverse MPC recommendation change, the MPC board is required to take all lawful action necessary, proper or advisable on its part to solicit the approval by MPC stockholders of the MPC issuance proposal, the MPC authorized stock COI amendment proposal and the MPC board size COI amendment.

Andeavor Special Meeting

Andeavor has agreed to convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the Andeavor merger proposal as soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event within 35 calendar days, after the commencement of mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Andeavor may make one or more postponements or adjournments of the Andeavor special meeting to the extent that Andeavor believes in good faith that such a postponement or adjournment is reasonably necessary to ensure that any required supplement or amendment to this joint proxy statement/prospectus is provided to Andeavor stockholders within a reasonable amount of time in advance of the Andeavor special meeting, to allow reasonable time to solicit additional proxies necessary to obtain the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal from Andeavor stockholders (subject to an 11 business day limit in connection with any individual commencement of an Andeavor acquisition proposal that is a tender offer or an exchange offer), to ensure that there are sufficient shares of Andeavor common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) and voting to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Andeavor special meeting or otherwise where required to comply with applicable law. The Andeavor special meeting must be held even if there is an adverse Andeavor recommendation change or an adverse MPC recommendation change, unless the merger agreement has been terminated. Unless there has been an adverse Andeavor recommendation change, the Andeavor board is required to take all lawful action necessary, proper or advisable on its part to solicit the approval by Andeavor stockholders of the Andeavor merger proposal.

Timing of Special Meetings

Under the terms of the merger agreement, MPC and Andeavor are required to cooperate to schedule and convene the MPC special meeting and the Andeavor special meeting on the same day, and to establish the same record date for both the MPC special meeting and the Andeavor special meeting.

Reasonable Best Efforts; Regulatory Filings and Other Actions

Reasonable Best Efforts

MPC and Andeavor have agreed in the merger agreement to cooperate with each other and use (and cause their respective subsidiaries to use) their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on their respective parts under the merger agreement and applicable laws to complete and make effective the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as soon as practicable, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party and/or any governmental entity in order to complete the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, including filing a Notice and Report Form with the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the DOJ under the HSR Act, as amended. The initial HSR Act filing will be made as promptly as reasonably practicable. The merger agreement also states that Andeavor, at the request of MPC, will, on a one-time basis, agree to extend the waiting period with respect to the merger under the HSR Act for up to 30 days and/or pull and promptly refile the HSR Act notice and report forms filed in respect of the merger.

Burdensome Condition

The parties have agreed that nothing in the merger agreement, including the reasonable best efforts obligation mentioned above, requires or will be construed to require MPC to agree to or to take an action (or consent to Andeavor or any Andeavor subsidiary agreeing to take, or taking, any action) that would constitute a burdensome condition. A burdensome condition includes any terms, conditions, liabilities, obligations or commitments that would obligate or require MPC, Andeavor or any of their respective subsidiaries to agree to sell, divest, lease, license, transfer, dispose of or otherwise encumber or hold separate, any assets, licenses, operations, rights, product lines, businesses or interest therein, or agree to any material changes (including through a licensing arrangement) or restriction on, or other impairment of MPC's or Andeavor's ability to own or operate, any assets, licenses, operations, rights, product lines, businesses or interest therein of MPC, Andeavor or any of their respective subsidiaries, if doing so would cause MPC or Andeavor to take, or cause to be taken, or commit to take, or commit to cause to be taken, any such action that relates to assets, businesses or product lines of Andeavor or of MPC, representing, in the aggregate, revenue in excess of $100 million.

Andeavor may not take or agree to take any action constituting a burdensome condition without MPC's written consent, which may be granted or withheld in MPC's sole discretion; however, Andeavor has agreed to take such actions if MPC so requests in writing, to the extent the taking of such action is conditioned upon the occurrence of the merger.

Litigation

The parties have agreed that nothing in the merger agreement requires or will be construed to require, MPC or any of its affiliates to defend any litigation or any similar proceeding if the DOJ or the FTC authorizes its staff to seek a preliminary injunction or a restraining order to enjoin the completion of the merger. MPC has agreed that if it chooses to defend any litigation brought by the FTC, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or any state attorney general in connection with their review of the merger, it will reimburse Andeavor for any reasonable and documented expenses and costs (including out-of-pocket auditor's and attorney's fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the involvement of Andeavor or its subsidiaries or representatives with such litigation.

Control and Information Sharing

The merger agreement gives MPC the right to direct all matters with any governmental entity in connection with the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, subject to applicable law and certain consultation obligations.

In addition, subject to certain exceptions specified in the merger agreement, Andeavor and MPC have agreed to keep each other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to furnish each other, upon request, with all information concerning itself, its subsidiaries, affiliates, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of MPC, Andeavor, or their respective subsidiaries to any third party and/or governmental entity in connection with the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Takeover Laws

MPC and Andeavor have agreed in the merger agreement that if any takeover statute is or may become applicable to the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the voting agreement, each of them and their respective boards will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that such transactions may be completed as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by the merger agreement and the voting agreement and otherwise act to eliminate (or to the extent elimination is not possible, to minimize) the effects of such statute or regulation on such transactions.

Employee Matters

The merger agreement provides that during the period commencing at the effective time of the first merger until the one-year anniversary of the effective time of the first merger, MPC will provide to each employee who is employed by Andeavor or its subsidiaries as of the effective time of the first merger, who is referred to as a company employee, for so long as the company employee remains employed by MPC or the surviving company during such one-year period, with base salary or regular hourly wage and a target annual cash bonus opportunity which are, in the aggregate, no less favorable than the base salary or regular hourly wage and target annual cash bonus opportunity provided to the company employee immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger. Additionally, MPC will provide each company employee severance, retirement and welfare benefits that are comparable in the aggregate to those provided to the company employee immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger; provided, however, that such requirements will not apply to company employees who are covered by an Andeavor labor agreement.

For purposes of vesting, eligibility to participate, benefit entitlement and level of benefits under MPC's benefit plans providing benefits to any company employees after the effective time of the first merger, each company employee will be credited with his or her years of service with Andeavor and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger to the extent such service was recognized by Andeavor and its subsidiaries under any similar Andeavor benefit plan in which the company employee participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger, except to the extent such credit would result in a duplication of benefits. In addition, to the extent such company employee is eligible to participate in a new plan, MPC will use commercially reasonable efforts (including by directing its third party insurance providers or third party administrators) to waive any waiting time in any and all new plans of the same type as any Andeavor benefit plans in which such company employee participated immediately before the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and for purposes of each new plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical and/or vision benefits to any company employee, MPC will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements to be waived for such company employee and his or her covered dependents, unless such conditions would not have been waived under the comparable plans of Andeavor or its subsidiaries in which such company employee participated immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger. MPC will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the company employee to be given credit for amounts paid prior to the effective time of the first merger during the year in which the effective time occurs under a corresponding old plan during the same period for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such company employee and his or her covered dependents as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the new plan.

MPC acknowledged in the merger agreement that the mergers will be a "change in control" for purposes of Andeavor's benefit plans and agreed that MPC will honor all employee benefit obligations to current and former employees under Andeavor's benefit plans in accordance with their terms.

If requested in writing by MPC at least 10 business days prior to the effective time of the first merger, Andeavor will terminate Andeavor's 401(k) plan. In the event that MPC requests that such plan be terminated, MPC will permit each eligible company employee to become a participant in an "eligible retirement plan" (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, including all participant loans) of MPC or any of its subsidiaries, which is referred to as the MPC 401(k) Plan, and make rollover contributions of "eligible rollover distributions" (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code) in cash or notes in an amount equal to the eligible rollover distribution portion of the account balance distributed to each such company employee from such plan to the MPC 401(k) Plan.

Transaction Litigation

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Andeavor will control the defense and settlement of any litigation or other legal proceedings against Andeavor or any of its directors relating to the merger agreement, the merger, or other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except that Andeavor is required to give MPC the opportunity to participate in Andeavor's defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Andeavor and/or its directors or executive officers relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Andeavor has agreed that it will not settle or offer to settle any litigation commenced against Andeavor or its directors, executive officers or similar persons by any stockholder of Andeavor relating to the merger agreement, the merger, or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement without the prior written consent of MPC, which may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Access and Reports

Subject to certain exceptions, and upon reasonable notice, Andeavor has agreed to afford MPC and MPC's representatives reasonable access to all of its and its subsidiaries' employees, properties, assets, books, contracts and records during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the effective time of the first merger, and to furnish promptly to MPC (i) for each month following April 29, 2018 and the closing, internally generated unaudited monthly financial statements, including cash flow statements and (ii) all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as may reasonably be requested.

Election to MPC Board of Directors

Under the terms of the merger agreement, upon approval by the MPC stockholders of the MPC board size COI amendment and promptly after the effective time of the first merger, MPC will increase the size of the MPC board and will cause four current members of the Andeavor board who will be identified by Andeavor between April 29, 2018 and prior to the closing date to be appointed to the MPC board on the closing date in director classes to be agreed by the parties between April 29, 2018 and the closing date and, subject to fiduciary obligations under applicable law, will use its reasonable best efforts to cause such individuals to be elected to the MPC board in accordance with MPC's certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other governing documents at the first annual meeting of stockholders of MPC at which such director is eligible for election with a proxy mailing date after the effective time. If the MPC board size COI amendment proposal is not approved by MPC stockholders at the MPC special meeting, at the effective time, MPC will cause a sufficient number of directors on the MPC board to resign as directors to allow four current members of the Andeavor board to be appointed to the MPC board.

Dividend Cooperation

Andeavor and MPC have agreed to coordinate the declaration, fixing of record dates, and setting of payment dates of dividends on shares of Andeavor common stock and MPC common stock, to the extent to be declared by the respective Andeavor and MPC boards of directors, so that holders of shares of Andeavor common stock do not receive dividends on both shares of Andeavor common stock and shares of MPC common stock received in the merger in respect of any calendar quarter or fail to receive a dividend on one of either of shares of Andeavor common stock or shares of MPC common stock received in the merger in respect of any calendar quarter.

Tax Treatment

MPC and Andeavor have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts (i) not to take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the treatment of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and (ii) to cooperate with one another in obtaining the tax opinion referred to in the last bullet in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger beginning on page 173.

Company Debt Arrangements

From April 29, 2018 through the effective time of the first merger, at MPC's written request and subject to certain conditions, Andeavor will use its reasonable best efforts to cooperate with, and provide all reasonable assistance to, MPC in connection with any steps MPC may, in its sole discretion, determine are necessary or desirable to take in order for MPC to terminate, retire or repay, effective at or after the effective time of the first merger, some or all amounts outstanding under or commitments issued pursuant to Andeavor credit agreements.

MPC and Andeavor may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the effective time of the first merger by mutual written consent of MPC and Andeavor.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by either MPC or Andeavor at any time prior to the effective time of the first merger in any of the following situations if the terminating party has not breached in any material respect its obligations under the merger agreement in any manner that has proximately contributed to the failure of a condition to the completion of the first merger or the failure of the completion of the first merger to occur:

the completion of the first merger does not occur by April 29, 2019, which is referred to as an end date termination event;

the MPC special meeting is held and the MPC stockholders do not approve the MPC issuance proposal at such meeting or at any permitted adjournment or postponement of such meeting, which is referred to as an MPC stockholder approval termination event;

the Andeavor special meeting is held and the Andeavor stockholders do not approve the Andeavor merger proposal at such meeting or at any permitted adjournment or postponement of such meeting, which is referred to as an Andeavor stockholder approval termination event; or any law or order permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the completion of the merger becomes final and non-appealable.

In addition, the merger agreement may be terminated by MPC:

prior to the effective time of the first merger, if an adverse Andeavor recommendation change has occurred;

prior to the effective time of the first merger, if there is a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by Andeavor in the merger agreement, or any such representation and warranty or covenant becomes untrue after the date of the merger agreement, such that the condition to closing above relating to the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Andeavor or the condition to closing above relating to the covenants or agreements of Andeavor would not be satisfied, and such breach or condition is not curable, or, if curable, is not cured prior to the earlier of 30 days after written notice thereof is given by MPC to Andeavor and the fifth business day prior to April 29, 2019, which is referred to as the Andeavor breach termination event; or the MPC board recommends that MPC stockholders vote in favor of or tender into an MPC acquisition proposal;

an MPC acquisition proposal is consummated.

Further, the merger agreement requires MPC to pay Andeavor all documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including attorney's fees, not in excess of $75 million, if MPC or Andeavor terminates the merger agreement due to an MPC stockholder approval termination event (which payment will be credited against the payment of the reverse termination fee if the reverse termination fee subsequently becomes payable).

In no event will MPC be required to pay the reverse termination fee on more than one occasion.

Further, the merger agreement requires Andeavor to pay MPC all documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including attorney's fees, not in excess of $75 million, if MPC or Andeavor terminates the merger agreement due to an Andeavor stockholder approval termination event (which payment will be credited against the payment of the termination fee if the termination fee subsequently becomes payable).

Except as otherwise provided in the merger agreement, whether or not the merger is completed, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring the expense, except that certain expenses in connection with the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part will be shared equally by MPC and Andeavor.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

The parties to the merger agreement have agreed that, from and after the effective time of the first merger, MPC will and will cause the surviving corporation to indemnify and hold harmless (and subject to certain conditions to provide advancement of expenses to) each present and former director and officer of Andeavor and its subsidiaries and each other person or entity who, at the request or for the benefit of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries, is or was previously serving as a director or officer, Andeavor Logistics employee or fiduciary of any other person or entity or any benefit plan of Andeavor or any benefit plan of any of Andeavor's subsidiaries (determined at the effective time), from and against any costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, penalties, amounts paid in settlement or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the first merger, to the fullest extent that Andeavor or the applicable subsidiary of Andeavor would have been permitted under Delaware law and under its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other governing documents in effect on April 29, 2018 to indemnify such person. The parties to the merger agreement have also agreed that the surviving entity's certificate of incorporation and bylaws or limited liability company agreement, as applicable, will include provisions regarding the elimination of liability of directors, the indemnification of officers, directors, employees, fiduciaries and agents and advancement of fees, costs and expenses that are no less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries than the corresponding provisions in the organizational documents of Andeavor in effect on April 29, 2018.

In addition, MPC or Andeavor is required to obtain and fully pay for a six-year tail insurance policy with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the indemnified parties than Andeavor's existing policies, subject to a premium cap. If MPC, Andeavor and the surviving corporation fail to obtain such tail insurance policies as of the effective time of the first merger, the surviving corporation will (and MPC will cause the surviving entity in the merger to) continue to maintain in effect for a period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the first merger the Andeavor D&O insurance in place as of April 29, 2018 with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the indemnified parties than that provided in Andeavor's existing policies as of April 29, 2018, subject to a premium cap.

The indemnified persons described in the first paragraph of this section will have the right to enforce the provisions of the merger agreement relating to their indemnification.

Modification and Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended, modified or supplemented in writing at any time; however, after the approval by Andeavor stockholders of the merger approval or the approval by MPC stockholders of the MPC issuance proposal, no amendment or waiver may be made which requires further approval by Andeavor stockholders or MPC stockholders under applicable law unless such further approval is obtained.

Remedies

In the event of termination of the merger agreement pursuant to the provisions described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination beginning on page 175, the merger agreement (other than certain provisions as set forth in the merger agreement) will become void and of no effect with no liability on the part of any party to the merger agreement (or of any of its representatives or affiliates). However, except as otherwise expressly provided in the merger agreement, no termination of the merger agreement will relieve any party to the merger agreement of any liability or damages to the other parties resulting from any deliberate material breach of the merger agreement.

If either MPC or Andeavor receives the full amount of the termination fee or the reverse termination fee, as applicable, in the circumstances contemplated by the merger agreement, such payment will be the sole and exclusive remedy of the receiving party against the paying party and its subsidiaries and their respective former, current or future partners, stockholders, managers, members, affiliates or representatives.

The parties are entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the merger agreement, and to enforce specifically the terms of the merger agreement without proof of actual damages.

VOTING AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

This section describes the material terms of the voting agreement, executed on April 29, 2018. The description in this section and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the voting agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the voting agreement that is important to you. You are encouraged to read the voting agreement carefully and in its entirety.

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, and as a condition to MPC's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, Paul L. Foster and Franklin Mountain Investments, LP, which are referred to collectively as the stockholder, entered into a voting and support agreement with Andeavor, MPC, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2. Based on information provided by the stockholder to MPC and Andeavor, as of the date of the voting agreement, the stockholder beneficially owned in the aggregate 7,841,425 shares of Andeavor common stock, representing approximately 5.2% of the outstanding shares of Andeavor common stock as of April 26, 2018, 6,489,218 shares of which were beneficially owned by Franklin Mountain Investments, LP (Mr. Foster is the sole member and president of Franklin Mountain G.P., LLC, the general partner of Franklin Mountain Investments, LP, and as such, may be deemed to have voting and dispositive power over the shares owned by Franklin Mountain Investments, LP).

The foregoing shares are referred to as the existing shares, and together with any shares of Andeavor common stock or other voting capital stock of Andeavor of which the stockholder acquires beneficial ownership on or after the date hereof, are referred to as the subject shares. The subject shares do not include the shares that are subject to that certain trading plan, dated as of November 14, 2017, by and between Goldman Sachs and the stockholder, for purposes of Rule 10b5-1 of the Exchange Act that was in effect as of April 29, 2018.

Voting

At the Andeavor special meeting and any other meeting or in any written consent solicitation or action of Andeavor stockholders called in relation to any of the following matters, the stockholder has agreed to be present and vote or cause to be voted their shares as follows:

- (A) in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and any related proposal in furtherance thereof;
- (B) in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the Andeavor special meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement and/or if there are not sufficient shares present in person or by proxy at the Andeavor special meeting to constitute a quorum;
- (C) in favor of any other matter necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- (D) against any merger, tender offer, exchange offer, sale of all or substantially all assets, recapitalization, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction or series of transactions involving Andeavor, any of its subsidiaries and any other person

(including any acquisition proposal), other than the merger; and

- (E) against any other action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to impede, frustrate, interfere with, delay, postpone or adversely affect the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, including the completion thereof.

In the event of a failure by the stockholder to act in accordance with its obligations pursuant to the voting agreement, the stockholder irrevocably grants to and appoints MPC and any of its designees as its proxy and attorney-in-fact to represent the subject shares and vote, execute written consents and otherwise act with respect to such subject shares regarding the matters described above until termination of the voting agreement.

Prohibition on Transfers

Until the termination of the voting agreement, the stockholder will not, directly or indirectly:

transfer, assign, sell, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of any of the subject shares;

grant any proxies or power of attorney, or any other authorization or consent with respect to any or all of the subject shares in respect of any matter covered by the voting agreement;

deposit any of the subject shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement with respect to any of such subject shares or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto that is inconsistent with the voting agreement;

enter into any contract with respect to the transfer, assignment, sale, pledge, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposal of the subject shares; or take any other action that would restrict, limit or interfere with the performance of its obligations under the voting agreement except for any transfers pursuant to that certain trading plan, dated as of November 14, 2017, by and among Goldman Sachs and the stockholder.

Under the terms of the voting agreement, any purported transfer, assignment, sale, pledge, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposal of the subject shares without MPC's consent is null and void ab initio.

Termination

The voting agreement will terminate automatically upon the earliest of the termination of the merger agreement, the effective time of the first merger and an Andeavor adverse recommendation change.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following discussion addresses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Andeavor common stock. The discussion is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and all of which are subject to differing interpretations. Tax considerations under foreign, state or local laws or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax are not addressed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" refers to a beneficial owner that is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;

a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons has the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion applies only to U.S. holders that hold their Andeavor common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code (generally, property held for investment), and does not address any consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax or all aspects of U.S. federal taxation that may be relevant to a particular U.S. holder in light of its personal circumstances or to U.S. holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including:

financial institutions;

entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or other flow-through entities (or investors therein);

persons liable for the alternative minimum tax;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;

persons that hold Andeavor common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

former citizens or former long-term residents of the United States; and stockholders who acquired their shares of Andeavor common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, as a restricted stock award, or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Andeavor common stock, the tax treatment of a partner or other investor in the partnership (or other entity) will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partner and partnership (or other entity). Partnerships and other entities taxed as partnerships and partners or investors therein should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

Table of Contents

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within MPC's or Andeavor's control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the any state, local, foreign or other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of the Merger

Based on certain representations, covenants and assumptions described below, all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the first merger, it is the opinion of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP that (i) for U.S. federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and (ii) MPC and Andeavor will each be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, which opinion is referred to as the reorganization opinion. It is a condition to Andeavor's obligation to complete the merger that Andeavor receives a written opinion of its counsel, Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (or another nationally recognized law firm selected by Andeavor), dated as of the closing date, confirming this opinion, which opinion is referred to as the closing date opinion.

The reorganization opinion has been, and the closing date opinion will be, based on certain assumptions, including the assumption that the merger will be completed in the manner set forth in the merger agreement and the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, and on representation letters provided by MPC and Andeavor. The reorganization opinion has been, and the closing date opinion will also be, based on the assumption that the representations found in the representation letters are, as of the effective time, true and complete without qualification (including representations regarding the relative values of the MPC stock consideration and cash consideration on the signing date and the closing date) and that the representation letters are executed by appropriate and authorized officers of MPC and Andeavor, as applicable. If any of the assumptions or representations upon which such opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts with respect to the merger, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be different from those described herein.

In addition, the opinions will not be binding on the Internal Revenue Service or any court. Neither MPC nor Andeavor intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, and consequently, there is no guarantee that the Internal Revenue Service will treat the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or that a court would not sustain a position to the contrary to any of the positions set forth herein.

If the merger is treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then the following are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders

Exchange of Andeavor Common Stock Solely for Cash

U.S. holders who exchange all of their Andeavor common stock solely for cash will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis of the Andeavor shares exchanged. The amount and character of gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of Andeavor common stock that was purchased by U.S. holders in the same transaction. Any recognized gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss and any such capital gain or loss will be (i) long term if, as of the date of sale or exchange, such stockholder has held the Andeavor common stock for more than one year, or (ii) short term if, as of such date, such U.S. holder has held the Andeavor common stock for one year or less. For U.S. holders of Andeavor common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a preferential U.S. federal income tax rate. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. In certain circumstances, it is possible that, instead of recognizing gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis of the Andeavor shares exchanged, a U.S. holder may be required to treat all or part of the cash received in the merger as dividend income. A U.S. holder with a relatively minimal stock interest in Andeavor and MPC that experiences a reduction in its proportionate interest in MPC as a result of the merger generally should not be treated as recognizing dividend income as a result of the merger.

Exchange of Andeavor Common Stock Solely for MPC Common Stock

U.S. holders who exchange all of their Andeavor common stock solely for MPC common stock will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash, if any, they receive upon the sale of a fractional share of MPC common stock (see below for the tax treatment of such cash received for a fractional share). Each U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the MPC common stock received will be the same as such Andeavor common stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the Andeavor shares surrendered in the transaction, reduced by the basis attributable to any fractional share of MPC common stock deemed sold (as discussed below under the heading "Receipt of Cash Upon the Deemed Sale of a Fractional Share"). The holding period of the MPC common stock received by a U.S. holder will include the holding period of the Andeavor common stock surrendered. If a U.S. holder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of Andeavor common stock, such U.S. holder should consult with a tax advisor with respect to the determination of the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of MPC common stock received.

Exchange of Andeavor Common Stock for MPC Common Stock and Cash

U.S. holders who exchange Andeavor common stock for a combination of MPC common stock and cash will be treated as having received a number of their shares in exchange for MPC stock and the remaining number of their shares in exchange for cash. With respect to shares of Andeavor common stock that are exchanged for MPC stock, U.S. holders will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash, if any, they receive upon the sale of a fractional share of MPC common stock (see below for the tax treatment of such cash received for a fractional share). With respect to shares of Andeavor common stock that are exchanged for cash, U.S. holders will recognize gain (if any), but not loss. The gain, if any, recognized in the exchange of Andeavor common stock for cash will equal the lesser of (a) the amount of cash received in the exchange and (b) the amount of gain realized in the exchange. The amount of gain that is realized in the exchange of Andeavor common stock for cash will equal the excess of (i) the sum of the cash received in the exchange over (ii) the tax basis of the Andeavor shares surrendered in the exchange. For this purpose, a U.S. holder must calculate gain or loss separately for each identifiable block of Andeavor common stock that such U.S. holder surrenders pursuant to the exchange. Any recognized gain will generally be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder's holding period for the shares of Andeavor common stock surrendered in the exchange is more than one year at the effective time of the first merger. It is possible, however, that a U.S. holder would instead be required to treat all or part of such gain as dividend income if such stockholder's percentage ownership in MPC (including shares that the stockholder is deemed to own under certain attribution rules) after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what the stockholder's percentage ownership would have been if the stockholder had received solely shares of MPC common stock rather than a combination of cash and MPC common stock in the merger, which is referred to as a dividend equivalent transaction. A U.S. holder with a relatively minimal stock interest in Andeavor and MPC that experiences a reduction in its proportionate interest in MPC as a result of the merger generally should not be regarded as having had a dividend equivalent transaction as a result of the merger.

The aggregate tax basis of the MPC common stock received (including the basis in any fractional share deemed sold for cash) will be equal to the aggregate tax basis in the Andeavor shares surrendered in the transactions, decreased by the amount of cash received (other than cash received in respect of fractional shares) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized (but excluding any gain realized in connection with the deemed sale of a fractional share of MPC common stock as discussed below). The holding period of the MPC common stock received by a holder of Andeavor shares will include the holding period of the Andeavor shares surrendered in exchange therefor. If a U.S. holder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of

Table of Contents

Andeavor common stock, such U.S. holder should consult with a tax advisor with respect to allocation of the MPC common stock and cash consideration as between such blocks of Andeavor common stock, the amount of any gain to be recognized and the possibility of recognizing any loss, and the determination of the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of MPC common stock received.

Receipt of Cash Upon the Deemed Sale of a Fractional Share

A U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of MPC common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having sold the fractional share for cash in a redemption by MPC. As a result, such U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. This gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, such U.S. holder's holding period for such share is greater than one year. For U.S. holders of Andeavor common stock that are non-corporate holders, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a preferential U.S. federal income tax rate. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Consequences to U.S. holders if the Merger is Not Treated as a Reorganization

If the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then, except as described below, a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the excess of (i) the sum of the fair market value of the MPC stock consideration and cash consideration received over (ii) U.S. holder's tax basis in the Andeavor common stock surrendered in the exchange. Such gain or loss would generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the Andeavor common stock was held for more than one year at the time of the exchange. In such event, the tax basis of MPC common stock received would equal its fair market value at the time of the exchange and the holding period of such MPC common stock would commence the day after such exchange.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, payments of cash to a U.S. holder of Andeavor common stock pursuant to the merger are subject to information reporting unless the U.S. holder is an exempt recipient and may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding, unless such stockholder provides MPC with its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder of Andeavor common stock under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against such U.S. holder's federal income tax liability; provided that such U.S. holder timely furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors as to their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for establishing an exemption.

A U.S. holder of Andeavor common stock who receives MPC common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder of Andeavor common stock who is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return and who is a significant holder that receives MPC common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with such U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3 setting forth information regarding the parties to the merger, the date of the merger and such holder's basis in the Andeavor common stock surrendered. A significant holder is a holder of Andeavor common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Andeavor or securities of Andeavor with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million.

The preceding discussion is intended only as an overview of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax consequences that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On April 29, 2018, MPC entered into the merger agreement with Andeavor, Merger Sub 1, and Merger Sub 2, pursuant to which Merger Sub 1 will merge with and into Andeavor, with Andeavor surviving the first merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of MPC, and immediately after the consummation of the first merger, Andeavor will merge with and into Merger Sub 2 with Merger Sub 2 surviving the second merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of MPC.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, upon consummation of the first merger, each share of Andeavor common stock, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the first merger (other than the excluded shares) will be converted into, at the election of the holder of such share of Andeavor common stock, either (a) $152.27 in cash or (b) 1.87 shares of MPC common stock.

The merger agreement includes election allocation and proration provisions that will result in approximately 22.9 million shares of Andeavor common stock being converted into the cash consideration and the remaining shares of Andeavor common stock being converted into shares of MPC common stock. The aggregate cash consideration will be approximately $3.5 billion.

Completion of the merger is subject to regulatory approval in addition to the required approvals by stockholders of both companies. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the merger is expected to be completed during the second half of 2018. For further information on the merger, see the section entitled The Merger beginning on page 77.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated combined financial statements, which are referred to as unaudited pro forma financial statements, unaudited pro forma statements of income, and unaudited pro forma balance sheet were prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for the merger with MPC considered the accounting acquirer of Andeavor. See the section entitled The Merger Accounting Treatment of the Merger beginning on page 147. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the purchase price is allocated to the underlying Andeavor assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair market values with any excess purchase price allocated to goodwill.

The unaudited pro forma statements of income, for the three months ended March 31, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017, have been prepared to give effect to the merger as if it had been consummated on January 1, 2017. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet as of March 31, 2018 gives effect to the merger as if it had been consummated on March 31, 2018.

Assumptions and estimates underlying the adjustments to the unaudited pro forma financial statements are described in the accompanying notes. Pro forma adjustments are included only to the extent they are (i) directly attributable to the merger, (ii) factually supportable and, (iii) with respect to the unaudited pro forma statements of income, expected to have a continuing impact on the consolidated results. Andeavor acquired Western Refining on June 1, 2017 and this was a significant acquisition for Andeavor under Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X. As such, MPC has included in the unaudited pro forma financial statements the historical financial information for Western Refining for the period of January 1, 2017 through May 31, 2017. The unaudited pro forma financial statements have been presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results and financial position that would have been achieved had the merger occurred on the dates indicated. Management believes that the assumptions provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effects of the merger. Further, the unaudited pro forma financial statements do not purport to project the future operating results or financial position of the combined company following the merger.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, do not reflect the anticipated benefits from opportunities to earn additional revenues, cost savings from operating efficiencies or synergies (or associated costs or capital expenditures required to achieve such additional revenue, savings or synergies), the impact of restructuring, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, do not attempt to predict or suggest future results. Specifically, the unaudited pro forma statements of income exclude projected synergies expected to be achieved as a result of the merger, which are described in the section entitled Summary Recommendation of the MPC Board and Reasons for the Merger, nor do they include any associated costs or capital expenditures that may be required to achieve the identified synergies.

The unaudited pro forma statements of income also exclude the effects of one-time transaction costs associated with the merger. However, such costs could affect the combined company following the merger in the period the costs are incurred by the combined company and are reflected in the unaudited pro forma balance sheet as a decrease to retained earnings and a decrease to cash or additional paid in capital. Further, the unaudited pro forma financial statements do not reflect the effect of any regulatory actions that may impact the results of the combined company following the merger.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements have been developed from and should be read in conjunction with:

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRO FORMA PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited pro forma financial statements were prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X and are intended to reflect the impact of the merger on MPC's consolidated financial statements and the pro forma consolidated results of operations and financial position of MPC based on the historical financial statements of MPC and Andeavor, incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The unaudited pro forma statements of income for the three months ended March 31, 2018 and year ended December 31, 2017, have been prepared to give effect to the merger as if it had occurred on January 1, 2017. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet as of March 31, 2018 has been prepared to give effect to the merger as if it had occurred on March 31, 2018. The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting, as described in Note 2. Subsequent to the merger, any transactions occurring between MPC and Andeavor will be intercompany transactions and eliminated in the preparation of consolidated financial statements. As such, historical transactions between MPC and Andeavor were eliminated in connection with the preparation of the unaudited pro forma financial statements.

The pro forma adjustments represent management's estimates based on information available as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and are subject to change as additional information becomes available and additional analysis is performed. The unaudited pro forma financial statements do not reflect the anticipated benefits from opportunities to earn additional revenues, cost savings from operating efficiencies or synergies (or associated costs or capital expenditures required to achieve such additional revenues, savings or synergies), or asset dispositions. Also, the unaudited pro forma financial statements do not reflect the effect of possible adjustments related to restructuring or integration activities that have yet to be determined. Further, one-time transaction-related expenses anticipated to be incurred prior to, or concurrent with, closing the merger are not included in the unaudited pro forma statements of income. However, estimates of these anticipated one-time transaction-related expenses are reflected in the unaudited pro forma balance sheet as a decrease to retained earnings and a decrease to cash.

NOTE 2 PURCHASE ACCOUNTING

Purchase Consideration

The total preliminary purchase consideration of approximately $22.4 billion was determined using the number of issued and outstanding shares of Andeavor common stock and the closing price of MPC's common stock ($78.87 per share) on May 23, 2018, the most recent date practicable in the preparation of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Andeavor shareholders will have the option to receive cash consideration of $152.27 or stock consideration of 1.87 shares of MPC common stock for each Andeavor share owned at the closing of the merger. The merger agreement includes election proration provisions that will result in approximately 22.9 million Andeavor shares being converted into cash consideration and the remaining Andeavor shares being converted into stock consideration. The aggregate cash consideration will be approximately $3.5 billion.

For purposes of the unaudited pro forma financial statements, such common stock is assumed to remain outstanding as of the closing date of the merger. MPC has not been able to gain sufficient access to Andeavor's equity awards records to perform a comprehensive analysis of estimating the allocation, if any, of replacement equity award fair value between the purchase price and post-combination compensation expense. As part of due diligence, MPC was provided with an estimated number of unvested restricted stock units subject to accelerated vesting and cash settlement, which have been reflected as part of the preliminary purchase consideration. Further, no effect has been given to any other new shares of Andeavor common stock or other equity awards that may be issued or granted subsequent to the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and before the closing date of the merger.

The total purchase consideration for financial statement purposes will be based on the actual closing price of MPC's common stock on the closing date of the merger, which could differ materially from the assumed value.

Based on the above, the total preliminary purchase consideration for the merger is estimated as follows:

(in millions, except share and per share information)	Shares	Per Share	Purchase Consideration
Cash Consideration (including equity award obligations):
Cash consideration elected by Andeavor stockholders	22,885,359	$ 152.27	$ 3,485
Cash payable upon accelerated vesting of Andeavor director restricted stock units	55,634	$ 152.27	8
Total Cash Consideration			3,493
Stock Consideration:
MPC shares to be issued and exchanged for Andeavor outstanding shares (1)	239,794,221	$ 78.87	18,913
Total Preliminary Purchase Consideration			$ 22,406

- (1) MPC shares to be issued and exchanged was calculated by multiplying the exchange ratio of 1.87 MPC shares for each Andeavor share by the difference of the 151,117,563 Andeavor shares issued and outstanding as of May 23, 2018 less the 22,885,359 shares to be settled in cash in accordance with the merger agreement. This result was then multiplied by the closing share price for MPC as of May 23, 2018.

Purchase Consideration Allocation

The total preliminary purchase consideration described above has been allocated to the Andeavor assets acquired and liabilities assumed for purposes of the unaudited pro forma financial statements, based on their estimated fair values assuming the merger was completed on March 31, 2018. MPC used a combination of the income, market and cost approaches to form preliminary fair value estimates. However, as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, MPC has not completed the detailed valuation analyses necessary to arrive at the required final estimates of the fair value of the Andeavor assets to be acquired and the liabilities to be assumed and the related allocations of purchase consideration, nor has it identified all adjustments necessary to conform Andeavor's accounting policies to MPC's accounting policies. A final determination of the fair value of Andeavor's assets and liabilities, including intangible assets with both indefinite or finite lives, will be based on Andeavor's assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the merger and, therefore, cannot be made prior to the completion of the merger.

In addition, the value of the consideration to be paid by MPC upon the consummation of the merger will be determined based on the number of issued and outstanding shares of Andeavor common stock and the closing price of MPC's common stock on the closing date of the merger. Accordingly, the pro forma results and financial position presented herein are preliminary. The preliminary pro forma adjustments have been made solely for the purpose of providing the unaudited pro forma financial statements. MPC estimated the fair value of Andeavor's assets and liabilities based on discussions with Andeavor's management, preliminary valuation analyses, due diligence, information presented in Andeavor's SEC filings and other publicly available information. Until the merger is completed, both companies are limited in their ability to share certain information. As such, MPC has not been able to gain sufficient access to Andeavor's records to perform a comprehensive review of Andeavor's assets and liabilities. MPC expects that, as it obtains more information, the preliminary estimated fair values disclosed below will change and such changes may be material.

Table of Contents

Upon completion of the merger, a final determination of fair value of Andeavor's assets and liabilities will be performed. The final purchase consideration allocation may be materially different than that reflected in the preliminary purchase consideration allocation presented herein. Any increase or decrease in the fair values of the net assets as compared with the pro forma financial statements may change the amount of the total purchase consideration allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact the combined company statements of income due to adjustments in amortization of the adjusted assets or liabilities.

A hypothetical 10% change in the closing price of MPC's common stock as of May 23, 2018, would have an approximate $1.9 billion impact on the preliminary purchase consideration and resulting goodwill balance.

The total preliminary purchase consideration was allocated as follows:

	Estimated Fair Value
Total current assets	$ 7,052
Equity method investments	671
Property, plant and equipment, net	17,541
Acquired intangibles	2,200

Refer to Note 3 for additional detail of the pro forma adjustments relating to the preliminary purchase consideration allocation.

Table of ContentsNOTE 3 PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTSCondensed Consolidated Combined Statements of Income*

- (a) The adjustments to sales and other operating revenues are to i) conform accounting policies for motor fuel excise tax imposed on intersegment purchases and subsequent retail sales of light product by presenting these excise taxes on a gross basis for the three months ended March 31, 2018; ii) conform accounting policies for motor fuel excise tax imposed on wholesale sales of light product by presenting these taxes on a gross basis for the year ended December 31, 2017; iii) conform accounting policies for sales tax for the year ended December 31, 2017 by presenting Andeavor's sales tax on a gross basis; and iv) eliminate transactions between MPC and Andeavor for purchases and sales of crude oil, refined products and certain merchandise. Refer to the following table for the adjustments:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018	Year Ended December 31, 2017
Conform motor fuel excise tax accounting policy	$ 236	$ 4,436
Conform sales tax accounting policy		157
Eliminate transactions between MPC and Andeavor	(65)	(310)
Net Pro Forma Adjustment	$ 171	$ 4,283

The adjustments to conform accounting policies for motor fuels excise and sales taxes for the three months ended March 31, 2018 and the year ended December 31, 2017 are different due to both companies adopting ASC 606 as of January 1, 2018. For the year ended December 31, 2017, MPC reported its cost of motor fuel excise and sales taxes in Consumer excise taxes. As such, the motor fuel excise and sales taxes are reported as a pro forma adjustment in Consumer excise taxes.

- (b) The adjustment conforms accounting policies for the presentation of gains on the sale of renewable fuel identification numbers (RINs) by reclassifying $46 million of Andeavor gains on the sale of RINs to Other income for the three months ended March 31, 2018.
- (c) The adjustments to cost of revenues are to i) conform accounting policies for motor fuel excise tax imposed on intersegment purchases and subsequent retail sales of light product by presenting these excise taxes on a gross basis; ii) eliminate transactions between MPC and Andeavor for purchases and sales of crude oil, refined products and certain merchandise; iii) conform Andeavor's accounting for turnaround and major maintenance activities to MPC's policy (refer to tickmark (bb) for further details); and iv) to conform Andeavor's accounting for RINs to MPC's policy (refer to tickmark (b) for further details). Refer to the following table for the adjustments:

Conform motor fuel excise tax accounting policy	$ 236	$
Eliminate transactions between MPC and Andeavor	(65)	(310)
Conform turnaround and major maintenance activities accounting policy	205	549
To conform to MPC's presentation of gain on sales of RINs	46
Net Pro Forma Adjustment	$ 422	$ 239

- (d) Adjustments to depreciation and amortization reflect i) the elimination of depreciation recorded by Andeavor for deferred costs for planned turnaround and major maintenance activities to conform accounting policies; ii) incremental depreciation expense resulting from the recognition of the fair value for property, plant and equipment; and iii) reversing depreciation expense recorded by Western Refining to conform its useful life estimates to those used by MPC. MPC did not gain sufficient access to Andeavor's accounting records to develop a property, plant and equipment depreciation estimate by asset class or to allocate the fair value of acquired intangibles between indefinite lived and finite lived intangibles. However, through discussions with Andeavor management, review of limited information received from Andeavor, information presented in Andeavor's SEC filings and other publicly available information, MPC estimated a composite useful life range of 16 to 20 years, and selected an average useful life estimate of 18 years for purposes of calculating a pro forma property, plant and equipment depreciation expense adjustment. MPC expects to acquire certain finite lived intangible assets, but does not have adequate information to estimate the fair value of such assets or a pro forma intangible asset amortization adjustment. Refer to the following table for the adjustments:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018	Year Ended December 31, 2017
Conform turnaround and major maintenance activities accounting policy	$ (78)	$ (302)
Depreciation of property, plant and equipment step-up adjustment	35	138
Conform Western Refining's useful life accounting policy and purchase price amortization		(36)
Net Pro Forma Adjustment	$ (43)	$ (200)

- (e) The adjustment eliminates $199 million of transaction costs incurred by Andeavor in connection with its Western Refining acquisition for the year ended December 31, 2017.
- (f) Adjustment to interest expense to reflect the following: i) reverse the amortization of Andeavor's historical debt issuance cost and original issue discounts; ii) amortize the fair value adjustments over the weighted average remaining term of Andeavor's and Western Refining's outstanding debt, respectively; and iii) additional interest expense for the debt refinancing related to Andeavor's acquisition of Western Refining. Refer to tickmark (bb) for a discussion of the debt fair value adjustment.

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018	Year Ended December 31, 2017
Eliminate Andeavor debt issuance and original issue discount costs	$ (2)	$ (9)
Andeavor debt fair value amortization adjustment	2	10
Western Refining debt fair value amortization adjustment		2
Western Refining acquisition-related debt refinancing interest expense		41
Net Pro Forma Adjustment	$	$ 44

- (g) To record the tax effect on pro forma adjustments at the statutory rates of 23.5% for the three months ended March 31, 2018 and 37.5% for the year ended December 31, 2017. The goodwill recorded in connection with the merger is not tax deductible.
- (h) Pro forma weighted average shares are calculated as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018	Year Ended December 31, 2017
Basic:
MPC historical weighted average shares	476	507
MPC estimated incremental shares issued (Note 2)	240	240

Condensed Consolidated Combined Balance Sheet

(aa) The adjustment to cash and cash equivalents reflects i) the $3.5 billion cash payment made as part of the purchase consideration; ii) an estimated $8 million payment associated with the accelerated vesting of Andeavor's director restricted stock units; and iii) approximately $1 billion of short-term borrowings under MPC's revolving credit facility, trade accounts receivable facility or commercial paper program to partially fund the cash portion of the purchase price. MPC expects to use operating cash flow to repay the approximately $1 billion in short-term borrowings within twelve months following the closing of the merger. As the interest expense associated with the short-term borrowings is not expected to have a continuing impact on the results of operations, a pro forma adjustment to interest expense was not recorded. MPC's actual funding of the cash consideration and repayment of any related borrowings may materially differ from expectations. Refer to the table below for adjustments made to cash and cash equivalents:

Table of Contents

	As of March 31, 2018
Increases to Cash Sources
Adjustment to cash for short-term borrowings	$ 1,000
Reductions to Cash Uses
Payment of the cash portion of the purchase consideration	(3,485)
Cash payable upon accelerated vesting of Andeavor director restricted stock units	(8)
Payment of estimated transaction costs associated with the merger	(133)
Net Pro Forma Adjustment	$ (2,626)

(bb) The following table reflects Andeavor's historical balance sheet as of March 31, 2018 as adjusted i) for the expensing of deferred costs for major maintenance activities and planned turnarounds to conform accounting policies (MPC expenses these costs as incurred whereas Andeavor defers costs for major maintenance activities and amortizes them over their useful life); and ii) the preliminary purchase consideration allocation adjustments to record Andeavor's assets and liabilities at fair value.

- 1) The preliminary purchase consideration adjustment of $876 million is to reverse Andeavor's LIFO reserve as of March 31, 2018 as an approximation of fair value. MPC did not have access to detailed accounting records necessary to determine if other inventory step-up adjustments are required.

- 2) The $382 million other noncurrent assets preliminary purchase consideration adjustment includes a $470 million step-up for acquired intangible assets and a reduction of $88 million to eliminate deferred costs for which MPC does not expect to receive a benefit. MPC expects to acquire intangible assets and estimated the fair value of intangible assets based on limited information. Additionally, MPC did not have access to adequate Andeavor financial information to complete a valuation of its equity method investments. As MPC gains access to additional information relating to the acquired intangible assets and equity method investments, additional adjustments are expected to be required to state these assets at fair value.
 - 3) Upon closing the merger, all of Andeavor's and its consolidated subsidiaries' indebtedness will be reported as consolidated indebtedness of MPC. The unaudited pro forma financial statements include adjustments to debt of $209 million to reflect (1) the elimination of the unamortized debt issuance costs and original issue discounts of $111 million and (2) an incremental fair market value adjustment of $98 million to record Andeavor's debt at fair value. The fair value of debt was based on prices from recent trade activity.
 - 4) The deferred tax liability resulting from the preliminary purchase consideration allocation and accounting policy change adjustments are recorded at the statutory rate of 23.5%.
 - 5) MPC evaluated several factors that contributed to the amount of goodwill presented above. These factors include the acquisition of an existing integrated refining, marketing and logistics business with an assembled workforce that cannot be duplicated at the same costs by a new entrant along with the synergies MPC expects to realize from an enhanced platform for future growth, procurement savings, cost reductions and operating efficiencies MPC expects to gain from the application of best practices across the combined company.
- (cc) The adjustments reflect the reversal of Andeavor's historical equity accounts and the additional paid in capital balance resulting from MPC's issuance of common stock valued at $22.4 billion. Additionally, we used information obtained during due diligence to estimate a $39 million impact to retained earnings due to changes in equity award service periods resulting from the merger. As this estimated cost is due to a one-time change in service periods, it is not reflected in the pro forma income statements.

DIRECTORS OF MPC FOLLOWING THE MERGER

Assuming the MPC board size COI amendment proposal is approved by the MPC stockholders, following the merger, the MPC board will be comprised of 14 directors. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, MPC will use its reasonable best efforts promptly after the effective time to cause the MPC board to be comprised of:

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDERS RIGHTS

This section describes the material differences between the rights of holders of shares of Andeavor common stock and the rights of holders of shares of MPC common stock. Andeavor and MPC are each incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware and, accordingly, the rights of Andeavor stockholders and MPC stockholders are both governed by the laws of the State of Delaware. The differences between the rights of Andeavor stockholders and MPC stockholders primarily result from differences between the governing documents of Andeavor and MPC. As a result of the merger, holders of shares of Andeavor common stock that elect to receive stock consideration in respect of their shares of Andeavor common stock, or that elect to receive only cash consideration in respect of their shares of Andeavor common stock and, as a result of the allocation and proration procedures set forth in the merger agreement, receive part or all of their per share merger consideration as stock consideration, will become holders of shares of MPC common stock. Thus, following the merger, the rights of Andeavor stockholders who become MPC stockholders in the merger will continue to be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, and will also then be governed by the MPC certificate of incorporation and the MPC bylaws.

This section does not include a complete description of all differences among the rights of Andeavor stockholders and MPC stockholders, nor does it include a complete description of the specific rights referred to below. Furthermore, the description of some of the differences in these rights in this section is not intended to indicate that other differences that may be equally important do not exist. All Andeavor stockholders and MPC stockholders are urged to read carefully the relevant provisions of the DGCL, as well as each company's governing documents; this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each of the MPC certificate of incorporation, the MPC bylaws, the MPC corporate governance principles, the Andeavor certificate of incorporation, the Andeavor bylaws and the Andeavor corporate governance guidelines. See the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 230 for information on how to obtain a copy of these documents.

Table of ContentsAndeavor Stockholders*Quorum and Adjournment

The Andeavor bylaws provide that, at any meeting of the stockholders, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Andeavor having voting power with respect to a subject matter (excluding shares held by Andeavor for its own account) present or represented by proxy will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business with respect to such subject matter, except that if the subject matter is one as to which a higher vote is required under the Andeavor certificate of incorporation or Delaware law, then the holders of that number of shares equal to at least that higher number of outstanding shares of Andeavor stock having voting power with respect to such subject matter (excluding shares held by Andeavor for its own account) present or represented by proxy will constitute a quorum at the meeting of stockholders with respect to such subject matter.

The Andeavor bylaws provide that the presiding person of any annual or special meeting will have the power to adjourn or recess the meeting for any reason from time to time and place to place. The Andeavor bylaws further provide that in the absence of a quorum with respect to a particular subject matter, the presiding person of the meeting will have the power to adjourn or recess the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an announcement at the meeting stating the time, place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communication, if any, until a quorum is present with respect to that subject matter.

Number of Directors and Composition of Board of Directors

The Andeavor bylaws provide for a minimum of three directors. Neither the Andeavor certificate of incorporation nor bylaws provide for a maximum number of directors. The exact number of directors is fixed by the Andeavor board from time to time. The Andeavor corporate governance guidelines state that the Andeavor board should have no less than five directors, with a desired range of five to 12 directors. There are currently 12 directors on the Andeavor board.

MPC Stockholders

The MPC bylaws provide that, except as provided in the MPC certificate of incorporation or Delaware law, at each meeting of the stockholders, the presence in person or by proxy of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of MPC entitled to vote at the meeting will be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum and the holders of stock of MPC so present and entitled to vote at any duly convened meeting at which the necessary quorum has been ascertained may continue to transact business until that meeting adjourns notwithstanding any withdrawal from that meeting of shares counted in determining the existence of that quorum. Shares represented by broker non-votes shall be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining quorum. Shares of MPC stock held in treasury by MPC will be neither entitled to vote nor counted for quorum purposes.

The MPC bylaws provide that any meeting of stockholders, annual or special, may be adjourned from time to time by the chairman of the board or other director or officer presiding over the meeting or by the stockholders representing a majority of the shares present, in person or by proxy, entitled to vote on any matter brought before the meeting, whether or not a quorum is present. The MPC bylaws further provide that the meeting may reconvene at the same or some other place, and notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present and vote at such adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

The MPC certificate of incorporation provides for a minimum of three directors and a maximum of 12 directors. The exact number of directors is fixed by the MPC board from time to time, and may be increased or decreased from time to time exclusively by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. There are currently 10 directors on the MPC board.

If the MPC board size COI amendment is approved by MPC stockholders, the size of the MPC board will be increased to 14 directors.

The Andeavor corporate governance guidelines require a substantial majority of the Andeavor board to be made up of independent directors, meaning they have no material relationship with the company, are in compliance with the definition of an independent director in the listing standards of the NYSE and are a non-employee director for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act.

The Andeavor bylaws provide that all directors will hold office until the next annual meeting of Andeavor stockholders and until his or her successor is elected and qualified, subject to prior resignation, death or removal as provided by law.

The Andeavor bylaws provide that each director will be elected by the vote of a majority of votes cast at any meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected at which a quorum is present except that the directors will be elected by the vote of a plurality of votes cast on the election of directors at any meeting of stockholders for which the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected as of a date that is 10 days in advance of the date that Andeavor files its definitive proxy statement with the SEC.

The Andeavor bylaws provide that any director who attains the age of 75 years while serving as a director must promptly thereafter tender a resignation as a director for consideration by the Andeavor board.

MPC Stockholders

The MPC corporate governance principles require a majority of the MPC board to be made up of independent directors, meaning they have no material relationship with the company.

The MPC certificate of incorporation provides that the directors will be divided into three classes as nearly equal in size as practicable. Each director will serve for a three year term expiring on the date of the third annual meeting of stockholders following the annual meeting at which the director was elected. Each director will hold office until his or her term expires and will serve until his or her successor is elected and qualified, subject to prior resignation, death or removal.

The MPC bylaws provide that each director will be elected by the vote of a majority of votes cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present, except that the directors shall be elected by the vote of a plurality of the votes cast by stockholders entitled to vote if, as of the date that is 10 days in advance of the date MPC first mails its notice for such meeting to stockholders, the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected.

The MPC bylaws provide that no person shall stand for election or re-election, or be nominated to stand for election or re-election, to the MPC board if such person has attained or will attain the age of 72 prior to the date of election or re-election. The MPC bylaws further provide that any director elected or re-elected who attains the age of 72 during a term to which he or she was elected or re-elected shall continue to serve for the expiration of his or her term or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

The MPC certificate of incorporation provides that at no time shall more than the minority of directors necessary to constitute a quorum be non-U.S. citizens.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

The MPC certificate of incorporation and the MPC bylaws provide that any vacancy on the MPC board caused by resignation, removal, death or otherwise, and any newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors, will be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum.

Removal of Directors

The Andeavor bylaws allow for removal of any director with or without cause at any time by the affirmative vote of stockholders of record holding a majority of the outstanding shares of Andeavor stock then entitled to vote in elections of directors at a meeting of Andeavor stockholders called for such purpose.

The MPC certificate of incorporation provides that directors may be removed from office only by the Court of Chancery pursuant to Section 225(c) of the DGCL or for cause by the vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of MPC stock. The MPC certificate of incorporation provides that cause exists if the director:

has been convicted, or has been granted immunity to testify in any proceeding in which another has been convicted, of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction and that conviction is no longer subject to direct appeal;

has been found to have been grossly negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of his or her duties to MPC in any matter of substantial importance to MPC by a court of competent jurisdiction; or has been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent, which mental incompetency directly affects his or her ability to serve as a director of MPC.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Andeavor bylaws provide that Andeavor will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise, by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of Andeavor or a subsidiary of Andeavor, or while a director or officer of Andeavor or a subsidiary of Andeavor, is or was serving at the request of Andeavor or a subsidiary of Andeavor as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, nonprofit entity or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans in each case whether or not serving in such capacity at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification, reimbursement, or advancement of expenses can be provided under the bylaws of Andeavor, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, liability, loss suffered and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith. Such indemnification will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

The MPC bylaws provide that MPC will indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of MPC, or while a director or officer of MPC, is or was serving at the request of MPC as a director, officer, manager, partner, member, member representative, trustee or other duly appointed official of any other corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise or entity, in each case whether or not serving in such capacity at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification, reimbursement, or advancement of expenses can be provided under the bylaws of MPC, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, liability, loss suffered and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith. Such indemnification will continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

The Andeavor bylaws provide that Andeavor will pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a person potentially eligible for indemnification (as specified above) in defending any threatened, pending or completed proceeding, and such advances will be made within 30 days after the receipt by Andeavor of a statement or statements requesting such advances from time to time; except that, to the extent required by law, any payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding will be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified.

The MPC bylaws provide that in the event of any threatened or pending proceeding that may give rise to a right of indemnification to an indemnitee, following a written request to MPC by such indemnitee, MPC shall promptly pay to the indemnitee, or pay directly to the third party or parties to whom such expenses are payable, amounts to cover all reasonable expenses incurred by such indemnitee in such proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon the receipt by MPC of:

a written undertaking executed by or on behalf of such indemnitee providing that the indemnitee will repay the advances if it shall

Foreign Ownership

Andeavor has no restrictions on foreign ownership.

In order to ensure that MPC remains qualified to own and operate vessels engaged in coastwise trade as a U.S. citizen under the U.S. maritime laws, the MPC certificate of incorporation limits the ownership of shares of MPC common stock by non-U.S. citizens to 23%, where a non-U.S. citizen is an individual who is not native born, naturalized or a derivative citizen of the U.S., and, with respect to entities: a partnership where all of its general partners are not citizens of the U.S., or if 75% of the interest in the partnership is not owned by citizens of the U.S.; a trust where each trustee and beneficiary are not citizens of the U.S., or if 75% of the interest in the trust is not owned by citizens of the U.S.; an association where not all members are citizens of the U.S.; a corporation not incorporated in the U.S., its chief executive officer and chairman of the board are not citizens of the U.S., more than the minority of the number of directors of its board required to reach a quorum are not citizens of the U.S., or if 75% of the shares in the corporation are not owned by citizens of the U.S., with the same standard applied to a limited liability company as a corporation.

If more than 23% of the shares of MPC are owned by non-U.S. citizens then MPC can redeem the excess shares above such percentage, paying such holders the average market price for the 20 days preceding the date such shares are called for redemption. In addition, shares owned by non-U.S. citizens above such percentage will not be entitled to voting rights.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS OF ANDEAVOR STOCKHOLDERS

General. Record holders of Andeavor common stock who comply with the procedures summarized below will be entitled to appraisal rights if the merger is completed. Under Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of Andeavor common stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly demanded and perfected and not withdrawn or lost are entitled, in lieu of receiving the merger consideration, to have the fair value of their shares (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) at the closing of the merger, judicially determined and paid to them in cash by complying with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. Under Section 262 of the DGCL, when a merger is submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders as in the case of approval of the Andeavor merger proposal, Andeavor, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each stockholder who was an Andeavor stockholder on the record date for notice of such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available, that appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This joint proxy statement/prospectus constitutes the required notice.

The following is a brief summary of Section 262 of the DGCL, which sets forth the procedures for demanding and perfecting statutory appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of the applicable requirements, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, a copy of the text of which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex E. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 of the DGCL contained in Annex E. Failure to comply timely and properly with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL may result in the loss of your appraisal rights under the DGCL. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice nor does it constitute a recommendation that stockholders exercise their appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL.

How to Exercise and Perfect Your Appraisal Rights. Andeavor stockholders of record who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must do all of the following:

- (i) not vote in favor of the Andeavor merger proposal;
- (ii) deliver in the manner set forth below a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares to the Secretary of Andeavor prior to the vote on the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal at the Andeavor special meeting;
- (iii) continuously hold the shares of record from the date of making the demand through the closing of the merger; and
- (iv) such stockholder or the surviving company (or any other stockholder that has properly demanded appraisal rights and is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights) must file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery requesting a determination of the fair value of the shares within 120 days after the effective date of the merger.

Who May Exercise Appraisal Rights. Only a holder of record of Andeavor common stock is entitled to demand an appraisal of the shares registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record. The demand should set forth, fully and correctly, the stockholder's name as it appears on the certificate(s) representing shares. If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, such demand must be executed by the fiduciary. If shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand must be executed by or on behalf of all owners. An authorized agent, including an agent of two or more owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose that, in exercising the demand, the agent is acting as agent for the record owner.

A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares held for all or less than all beneficial owners of shares as to which the holder is the record owner. In that case, the written demand must set forth the number of shares covered by the demand.

Where the number of shares is not expressly stated, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares outstanding in the name of the record owner.

Beneficial owners who are not record owners and who intend to exercise appraisal rights should consult with the record owner to determine the appropriate procedures for having the record holder make a demand for appraisal with respect to the beneficial owner's shares. Any holder of shares held in street name who desires appraisal rights with respect to those shares must take such actions as may be necessary to ensure that a timely and proper demand for appraisal is made by the record owner of the shares. Shares held through banks, brokers and other financial institutions are frequently deposited with and held of record in the name of a nominee of a central security depository, such as Cede & Co., The Depository Trust Company's nominee. A demand for appraisal with respect to such shares must be made by or on behalf of the depository nominee and it must identify the depository nominee as the record owner. Any beneficial holder of shares desiring to demand and perfect appraisal rights with respect to such shares that are held through a bank, broker or other nominee is responsible for ensuring that the demand for appraisal is made by the record holder.

As required by Section 262 of the DGCL, a demand for appraisal must be in writing and must reasonably inform Andeavor of the identity of the record holder (which might be a nominee as described above) and of such holder's intention to seek appraisal of the holder's shares.

Stockholders of record who elect to demand appraisal of their shares must mail or deliver their written demand to:

Attention: Secretary

Andeavor

19100 Ridgewood Parkway,

San Antonio, TX 78259

1-800-837-6768

The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address. The written demand must reasonably inform Andeavor that the stockholder intends thereby to demand an appraisal of his, her or its shares. The written demand must be received by Andeavor prior to the vote on the Andeavor merger proposal at the Andeavor special meeting. Neither voting (in person or by proxy) against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal will alone suffice to constitute a written demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262 of the DGCL. In addition, the stockholder seeking to demand appraisal must not vote its shares of Andeavor common stock in favor of approval of the Andeavor merger proposal. An executed proxy that does not contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of approval of the Andeavor merger proposal and will cause the stockholder's right of appraisal to be lost. Therefore, a stockholder who desires to exercise appraisal rights should, in addition to demanding and perfecting its appraisal rights in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL, either (1) refrain from executing and submitting the enclosed proxy card or (2) vote by proxy against the approval of the Andeavor merger proposal or affirmatively register an abstention with respect thereto.

Notwithstanding a stockholder's compliance with the foregoing requirements, Section 262 of the DGCL provides that, because, immediately prior to the merger, Andeavor common stock was listed on a national securities exchange, the Delaware Chancery Court will dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of shares of Andeavor common stock who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares of Andeavor common stock entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of Andeavor common stock eligible for appraisal or (2) the value of the consideration provided in the merger for such total number of shares of Andeavor common stock entitled to appraisal exceeds $1 million.

Actions After the Closing of the Merger. Within 10 days after the closing of the merger, the surviving company must give notice of the date that the merger became effective to each Andeavor stockholder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal, who did not vote in favor of the Andeavor merger proposal and who has otherwise complied with Section 262 of the DGCL. At any time within 60 days after the closing of the merger, any stockholder who has demanded appraisal and who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party will have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the merger consideration the stockholder is entitled pursuant to the merger by delivering to the surviving company a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for appraisal and acceptance of the merger consideration. After this period, the stockholder may withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal only with the written approval of the surviving company.

Within 120 days after the closing of the merger, but not thereafter, either the surviving company or any stockholder who has timely and properly demanded appraisal of such stockholder's shares and who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL and is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, or any beneficial owner for which a demand for appraisal has been properly made by the record holder, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery, with a copy served on the surviving company in the case of a petition filed by a stockholder, demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of all stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal. The surviving company is under no obligation to file any such petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery and has no intention of doing so. Accordingly, stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving company will file such a petition or that the surviving company will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of such shares. Stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

If no petition for appraisal is filed with the Delaware Court of Chancery within 120 days after the closing of the merger, all stockholders' rights to appraisal will cease and all stockholders will be entitled only to receive the merger consideration as provided for in the merger agreement. No petition timely filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding appraisal will be dismissed as to any stockholders without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and that approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just. However, the preceding sentence will not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined the proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered in the merger within 60 days after the closing of the merger.

Within 120 days after the closing of the merger, any stockholder who has complied with the applicable provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving company a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Andeavor common stock not voting in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal were received by the surviving company and the number of holders of such shares. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the surviving company for the statement described in the previous sentence. Such statement must be mailed within 10 days after the written request therefor has been received by the surviving company.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by an Andeavor stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving company, then the surviving company will be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares of Andeavor common stock and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares of common stock have not been reached. After notice to stockholders who have demanded appraisal, if such notice is ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Court of Chancery will conduct a hearing upon the petition and determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 of the DGCL and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Delaware Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. Where proceedings are not dismissed, the appraisal proceeding will be conducted, as to the shares of Andeavor common stock owned by such stockholders, in accordance with the rules of the Delaware Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings.

After a hearing on such petition, the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and thereafter will appraise the shares owned by those stockholders, determining the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with interest to be paid, if any, upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest on an appraisal award from the date the merger is completed through the date of payment of the judgment will be compounded quarterly and will accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharges) as established from time to time during the period between the date the merger is completed and the date of payment of the judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time before the entry of judgment in an appraisal proceeding, the surviving company may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount in cash (which will be treated as an advance against the payment due to such stockholder), in which case interest shall accrue after such payment only upon the sum of (1) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and (2) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. When the fair value is determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value, together with interest, if any, on the amount determined to be fair value, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same upon the surrender by such holders of the certificates representing their shares, if any, or immediately in the case of any uncertificated shares. The parties have made no determination as to whether such a payment will be made if the merger is completed, and the surviving company reserves the right to make such a payment upon the closing of the merger.

In determining fair value, the Delaware Court of Chancery is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., et al., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining the fair value in an appraisal proceeding and stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in an appraisal proceeding and that [f]air price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that in making this determination of fair value the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which were known or which could be ascertained as of the date of the merger and which throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be determined exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 of the DGCL to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should bear in mind that the fair value of their shares determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery under Section 262 of the DGCL could be more than, the same as, or less than the merger consideration they are entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they do not seek appraisal of their shares, and that opinions of investment banking firms as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a transaction are not opinions as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. Each of Andeavor and MPC reserves the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that for purposes of Section 262 of the DGCL, the fair value of a share of Andeavor common stock is less than the applicable merger consideration.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and charged upon the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems equitable in the circumstances. However, costs do not include attorneys' and expert witness fees. Each dissenting stockholder is responsible for his or her attorneys' and expert witness fees, although upon application of a stockholder seeking appraisal rights, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by such stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. In the absence of such a determination of assessment, each party bears its own expenses.

From and after the date of the closing of the merger, any stockholder who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not, after the closing of the merger, be entitled to vote for any purpose any shares subject to such demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the closing of the merger.

The foregoing is a brief summary of Section 262 of the DGCL that sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of the text of which is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the foregoing summary and Section 262 of the DGCL, Section 262 of the DGCL and the DGCL will govern.

The process of demanding and exercising appraisal rights requires strict compliance with technical requirements. Failure to comply strictly with all the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL may result in the loss of a stockholder's statutory appraisal rights. In that event, a stockholder will be entitled to receive the merger consideration for his or her shares in accordance with the merger agreement. In view of the complexity of the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, Andeavor stockholders considering exercising their appraisal rights under the DGCL should consult their own legal advisor.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

MPC Householding

MPC delivers only one set of proxy materials to multiple stockholders who share the same address unless MPC has received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders sharing such address. Upon request, MPC will forward a separate copy of proxy materials to any stockholder at your address. If you wish to receive a separate copy of the proxy materials, you may call MPC at (419) 421-2414 or write to MPC at Marathon Petroleum Corporation, Shareholder Services Office, 539 South Main Street, Findlay, OH 45840. Stockholders sharing an address who now receive multiple copies of the proxy materials may request delivery of a single set by calling us at the above number or writing to us at the above address.

Andeavor Householding

To reduce the expense of delivering duplicate proxy materials to Andeavor stockholders who may have more than one account holding Andeavor common stock but who share the same address, Andeavor has adopted a procedure approved by the SEC called "householding." Under this procedure, certain Andeavor stockholders of record who have the same address and last name will receive only one copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus until one or more of these stockholders notify Andeavor that they want to receive separate copies. In addition, the broker, bank or other nominee for any stockholder who is a beneficial owner of Andeavor common stock may deliver only one copy of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to multiple stockholders who share the same address, unless that bank, broker or other nominee has received contrary instructions from one or more of the Andeavor stockholders. This procedure reduces duplicate mailings and saves printing costs and postage fees, as well as natural resources. Andeavor stockholders who participate in householding will continue to have access to and utilize separate proxy voting instructions.

If, now or in the future, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate joint proxy statement/prospectus or other proxy materials, please notify Andeavor by calling Andeavor's Investor Relations Department at 1-800-837-6768 or by sending a written request to Andeavor's Corporate Secretary at the address listed for Andeavor in the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 230. Record owners who are receiving multiple copies and wish to receive only one, please call Andeavor's Investor Relations Department or send a written request to Andeavor's Corporate Secretary. Beneficial owners who are receiving multiple copies and wish to receive only one, should notify their broker, bank or other nominee.

Neither MPC nor Andeavor takes any responsibility for Western Refining Inc. s filings with the SEC, and we are not incorporating by reference any part of such filings into this joint proxy statement/prospectus supplement, except to the extent incorporated by reference by Andeavor s Current Report on Form 8-K/A, filed on July 20, 2017. The reference to Western Refining Inc. s Annual Report on Form 10-K, as incorporated by reference in the aforementioned Current Report on Form 8-K/A filed on July 20, 2017, has not been updated for the retrospective adoption of Accounting Standards Update 2016-09, Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting. Western Refining Inc. adopted this accounting standards update on January 1, 2017. The presentation of Western Refining Inc. s Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 would have been retrospectively adjusted to include payments of $4.1 million and $0.5 million, respectively, for tax withholdings for stock-based compensation in net cash used in financing activities that was previously reported in net cash provided by operating activities as a change in accounts payable and accrued liabilities. Such amounts are not material to the consolidated financial statements. There were no payments during the year ended December 31, 2014.

4.2 Allocation of Per Share Merger Consideration; Election Procedures; Exchange of Company Shares.

(a) Allocation. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the number of Company Shares to be converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration in the First Merger shall be equal to 22,885,359 (the Cash Election Number). The number of Company Shares to be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration in the First Merger (the Stock Election Number) shall be equal to the number of Company Shares to be converted pursuant to Section 4.1(a) (excluding for the avoidance of doubt the number of Company Shares represented by the Company Equity Awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, all of which shall be treated solely as provided in Section 4.5) less the Cash Election Number.

(b) Election Procedures.

(i) Exchange Agent. Parent shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with an exchange agent selected by Parent and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Company Shares, (i) at the Effective Time, certificates, or at Parent's option, evidence of non-certificated Parent Shares in book-entry form (Book Entry Parent Shares), constituting at least the amounts necessary for the Stock Consideration, (ii) at the Effective Time, cash in immediately available funds constituting at least the amounts necessary for the aggregate Cash Consideration, and (iii) as necessary from time to time after the Effective Time, if applicable, any cash and dividends or other distributions with respect to the Parent Shares to be issued or to be paid pursuant to Section 4.2(c), in exchange for Company Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, deliverable upon due surrender of the Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof as provided in Section 4.2(i)) or Book Entry Company Shares pursuant to the provisions of this Article IV (such cash, certificates for Parent Shares and evidence of Book Entry Parent Shares, together with the amount of any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to this Article IV with respect thereto, the Exchange Fund). Fund is at all times maintained at a level sufficient to make such cash payments. Any interest and other income resulting from such investment shall become a part of the Exchange Fund, and any amounts in excess of the amounts payable under Section 4.1(a) shall be promptly returned to Parent. (ii) Types of Election. Subject to allocation and proration in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.2, each record holder of Company Shares (other than (1) any Company Shares represented by the Company Equity Awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, all of which shall be treated solely as provided in Section 4.5 and (2) Excluded Company Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Election Deadline shall be entitled to elect to receive in respect of each such Company Share held by such record holder (A) Cash Consideration (a Cash Election) or (B) Stock Consideration (a Stock Election). Company Shares in respect of which no Cash Election or Stock Election has been affirmatively made and not revoked shall be deemed to be Company Shares in respect of which Stock Elections have been made.

(iii) Form of Election and Election Deadline. (A) Elections pursuant to Section 4.2(b)(ii) shall be made on a form (a Form of Election) to be provided by the Exchange Agent for that purpose to holders of record of Company Shares (other than (1) any Company Shares represented by the Company Equity Awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, all of which shall be treated solely as provided in Section 4.5 and (2) Excluded Company Shares), together with appropriate transmittal materials. Elections shall be made by transmitting to the Exchange Agent a duly completed Form of Election. To be effective, a Form of Election must be (x) properly completed, signed and submitted to the Exchange Agent at its designated office, by 5:00 P.M. (Eastern Time) on the Business Day that is two trading days prior to the Closing Date (which date shall be publicly announced by Parent at least four Business Days prior to the anticipated Closing Date) or such other date and time as Parent may publicly announce with the consent of the Company (the applicable of such date and times described in this clause (x), the Election Deadline) and (y) (except with respect to Book Entry Company Shares, in respect of which such other customary evidence as determined by the Exchange Agent shall be provided in lieu of Certificates) accompanied by the Certificate(s) representing the Company Shares as to which the election is being made (or by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Certificate(s) by a financial institution (including most commercial banks, savings and loan associations and brokerage houses) that is a participant in the Security Transfer Agents Medallion Program, the New York Stock Exchange Medallion Signature Guarantee Program or the Stock Exchange Medallion Program, provided that such Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent within three trading days after the date of execution of such guarantee of delivery), together with a duly completed letter of transmittal. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to make a Form of Election (and where applicable, appropriate transmittal materials) available to all Persons who become holders of record of Company Shares (other than (1) any Company Shares represented by the Company Equity Awards that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, all of which shall be treated solely as provided in Section 4.5 and (2) Excluded Company Shares) between the date the Forms of Election are mailed and the Election Deadline. Parent shall determine, in its reasonable discretion, which discretion and authority it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, whether Forms of Election (and where applicable, appropriate transmittal materials) have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked. The decision of Parent (or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be) in such matters shall be conclusive and binding. A holder of Company Shares that does not submit an effective Form of Election prior to the Election Deadline shall be deemed to have made a Stock Election.

(iv) Revocation of Election. An election may be revoked, but only by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. Any Certificate(s) representing Company Shares that have been submitted to the Exchange Agent in connection with an election shall be returned without charge to the holder thereof in the event such election is revoked as aforesaid and such holder requests in writing the return of such Certificate(s) or Book Entry Company Shares. Upon any such revocation, unless a duly completed Form of Election is thereafter submitted prior to the Election Deadline in accordance with Section 4.2(b)(ii) and Section 4.2(b)(iii), such Company Shares shall be Stock Election Shares. In the event that this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Article VIII and any Company Shares have been transmitted to the Exchange Agent pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, such Company Shares shall promptly be returned without charge to the Person submitting the same.

(v) Proration for Oversubscription of Cash Election. In the event that the aggregate number of Company Shares in respect of which Cash Elections have been made (collectively, the Cash Election Shares) exceeds the Cash Election Number, all Company Shares in respect of which Stock Elections have been made, or deemed by Parent in its reasonable discretion to have been made, pursuant to this Section 4.2 (the Stock Election Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration, and all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration or Cash Consideration in the following manner:

(A) the Cash Election Shares held by each record holder of Company Shares shall be deemed converted to Stock Election Shares, on a pro-rata basis based on the ratio of (x) one minus (y) the Cash Election Number divided by the aggregate number of Cash Election Shares, such that the aggregate number of Cash Election Shares so deemed converted, when added to the other Stock Election Shares, shall equal as closely as practicable the Stock Election Number (rounding the number of Cash Election Shares of a holder that are to remain Cash Election Shares downward where needed), and all such Cash Election Shares so deemed converted (Deemed Converted Cash Election Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration (and cash in lieu of fractional Parent Shares pursuant to Section 4.2(e)). For example, and by way of illustration only, if the aggregate number of Company Shares in respect of which Cash Elections had been made were three times the Cash Election Number, each record holder of Company Shares holding Cash Election Shares would receive, in respect of the Company Shares for which such holder had made a Cash Election, Cash Consideration for approximately one-third of such Company Shares and Stock Consideration for approximately two-thirds of such Company Shares; and

(B) any remaining Cash Election Shares held by each record holder of Company Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration. For the avoidance of doubt, in the circumstances where this Section 4.2(b)(v) is applicable, each record holder of Cash Election Shares shall to the extent reasonably possible receive the same proportion of Cash Consideration, and the same proportion of Stock Consideration, with respect to their aggregate Cash Election Shares as each other record holder of Cash Election Shares receives in respect of their aggregate Cash Election Shares pursuant to this Section 4.2(b)(vi).

(vi) Proration for Oversubscription of Stock Election. In the event that the aggregate number of Company Shares in respect of which Stock Elections have been made exceeds the Stock Election Number, all Company Shares in respect of which Cash Elections have been made pursuant to this Section 4.2 shall be converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration, and all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration or Cash Consideration in the following manner:

(A) the Stock Election Shares held by each record holder of Company Shares shall be deemed converted to Cash Election Shares, on a pro-rata basis based on the ratio of (x) one minus (y) the Stock Election Number divided by the aggregate number of Stock Election Shares, such that the aggregate number of Stock Election Shares so deemed converted, when added to the other Cash Election Shares, shall equal as closely as practicable the Cash Election Number (rounding the number of Stock Election Shares of a holder that are to remain Stock Election Shares downward where needed), and all such Stock Election Shares so deemed converted (Deemed Converted Stock Election Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration; and

(B) any remaining Stock Election Shares held by each record holder of Company Shares shall be converted into the right to receive Stock Consideration.

For the avoidance of doubt, in the circumstances where this Section 4.2(b)(vi) is applicable, each record holder of Stock Election Shares shall to the extent reasonably possible receive the same proportion of Stock Consideration, and the same proportion of Cash Consideration, with respect to their aggregate Stock Election Shares as each other record holder of Stock Election Shares receives in respect of their aggregate Stock Election Shares pursuant to this Section 4.2(b)(vi).

(vii) The Exchange Agent, in consultation with Parent, shall make all computations to give effect to this Section 4.2.

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Company Shares; Voting. All Parent Shares to be issued pursuant to the First Merger shall be deemed issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time and whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Parent in respect of Parent Shares, the record date for which is at or after the Effective Time, that declaration shall include dividends or other distributions in respect of all Stock Consideration issuable pursuant to this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions in respect of the Parent Shares shall be paid to any holder of any unsurrendered Certificate or untransferred Book Entry Company Share until such Certificate (or affidavits of loss in lieu of the Certificate as provided in Section 4.2\(g\)) or Book Entry Company Share is transferred for exchange in accordance with this Article IV. Subject to the effect of applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Certificate (or affidavits of loss in lieu of the Certificate as provided in Section 4.2\(g\)) or transfer of such Book Entry Company Share that has been converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration, there shall be issued and/or paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole Parent Shares (or as applicable, Book Entry Parent Shares) issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender or transfer, the dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to such whole Parent Shares and not paid and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the dividends or other distributions payable with respect to such whole Parent Shares with a record date after the Effective Time but with a payment date subsequent to surrender or transfer, as applicable. No holder of Certificates or Book Entry Company Shares that have been converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration shall be entitled to receive any amount pursuant to this Section 4.2\(c\) in respect of such Certificates or Book Entry Company Shares.

(d) Transfers. From and after the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of the Company Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificate or Book Entry Company Share is presented to the Surviving Corporation (which, following the consummation of the Second Merger, shall include the Surviving Company), Parent or the Exchange Agent for transfer, it shall be cancelled and exchanged for the aggregate Per Share Merger Consideration (and to the extent applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 4.2\(e\)) and/or any dividends or other distributions pursuant to Section 4.2\(c\)) to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to this Article IV.

(e) Fractional Company Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no fractional Parent Shares will be issued and any holder of Company Shares entitled to receive a fractional Parent Share but for this Section 4.2\(e\) shall be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof, without interest, which payment shall be calculated by the Exchange Agent and shall be an amount equal to the product of (i) the average of the closing prices per Parent Share on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE), as reported in the Wall Street Journal (or if not reported thereby, as reported in another authoritative source), for the five full trading days ending on the second Business Day immediately preceding the date on which the Effective Time occurs multiplied by (ii) the fraction of a Parent Share (after taking into account all Company Shares held by such holder at the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest one thousandth when expressed in decimal form) to which such holder would otherwise be entitled. No such holder shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional Parent Shares. No holder of Certificates or Book Entry Company Shares that have been converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration shall be entitled to receive any amount pursuant to this Section 4.2\(e\) in respect of such Certificates or Book Entry Company Shares.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including the proceeds of any investments of the Exchange Fund and any Parent Shares) that remains unclaimed by the stockholders of the Company for 180 days after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent. Any holder of Company Shares (other than Excluded Company Shares) who has not theretofore complied with this Article IV shall thereafter look only to Parent for delivery of any Per Share Merger Consideration (and to the extent applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 4.2\(e\)) and/or any dividends or other distributions pursuant to Section 4.2\(c\)), payable and/or issuable pursuant to Section 4.1 and Section 4.2 upon due surrender of their Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu of the Certificates as provided in Section 4.2\(g\)) or transfer of Book Entry Company Shares, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Surviving Company, Parent, the Exchange Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of Company Shares for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of Company Shares immediately prior to the time at which the Exchange Fund would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any Governmental Entity, shall, to the extent permitted by Law, become the property of Parent, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(g) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond in customary amount and upon such terms as may be required by Parent as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent, the Exchange Agent or any of Parent's Subsidiaries with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, the applicable Per Share Merger Consideration, and (to the extent applicable) any cash pursuant to Section 4.2(e) or unpaid dividends or other distributions pursuant to Section 4.2(c), that would have been payable or deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement had such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate been surrendered.

(h) Withholdings. Parent, the Surviving Company or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any former holder of Company Shares pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the payment of the Per Share Merger Consideration, as applicable, or the making of such payment under the Code, or under any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law and further shall be entitled to make any required reporting regarding such payment to the appropriate taxing authority. Any amount deducted or withheld pursuant to this Section 4.2(h), and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, shall be treated as having been paid or issued, as applicable, to the holder of Company Shares in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made. Such withholding shall be made first from the cash otherwise payable to such holder prior to withholding from Parent Shares. In the case of any withholding from Parent Shares, Parent shall withhold an amount of Parent Shares having a fair market value equal to the withholding obligation to be satisfied with such Parent Shares at the time such shares are withheld.

4.3 Appraisal Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and that are held by any Person who is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such Company Shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, Section 262 of the DGCL (Appraisal Shares) shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 4.1(a), but rather the holders of Appraisal Shares shall be entitled to payment by the Surviving Corporation of the fair value of such Appraisal Shares in accordance with and to the extent provided in Section 262 of the DGCL; provided, however, that if any such holder shall fail to perfect or otherwise shall waive, withdraw or lose the right to appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL with respect to Appraisal Shares, then the right of such holder to seek appraisal of such Company Shares shall cease and such Company Shares shall be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into, and to have become exchangeable solely for, the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 4.1(a), without interest. The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of any Company Shares, and Parent shall participate in and control all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

4.4 Adjustments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the issued and outstanding Company Shares or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for Company Shares or the issued and outstanding Parent Share or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for Parent Shares, shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, merger, issuer tender or exchange offer, or other similar transaction, then the Per Share Merger Consideration and the Cash Election Number shall be equitably adjusted, without duplication, to proportionally reflect such change and as so adjusted shall, from and after the date of such event, be the Per Share Merger Consideration; provided that nothing in this Section 4.4 shall be construed to permit the Company to take any of the foregoing actions with respect to its securities to the extent otherwise prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(a) No-Shop. Each of the Company and Parent agree that, except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.2, neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, and each shall cause its respective Subsidiaries and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other advisors or representatives (such Persons, collectively, Representatives) not to, directly or indirectly:

(ii) enter into, engage in, maintain, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or furnish or otherwise make available any non-public information or data to, any Person other than the other Parties, or any of their Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives (a Third Party) that is reasonably likely to be considering or seeking to make, or has made within the 12 months preceding the date of this Agreement, a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent), in each case relating to, or as would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, respectively; or

(iii) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, memorandum of understanding or other Contract (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement entered into in accordance with Section 6.2(b)) relating to, or that would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent) (any of the foregoing, an Alternative Acquisition Agreement).

Each of the Company and Parent shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their respective Representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any Third Party and/or its Representatives, with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent), or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to, any Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, as the case may be, and shall promptly request that each Third Party to whom confidential information has been furnished or otherwise made available by or on behalf of such Party or any of its Subsidiaries within the 12 month period preceding the date of this Agreement in connection with, or for the purpose of evaluating, a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, promptly return or destroy all such confidential information so furnished or otherwise made available; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company or Parent, or any of their respective Representatives, may in any event (A) seek to clarify the terms and conditions of any inquiry or proposal to determine whether such inquiry or proposal constitutes a bona fide Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or a bona fide Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent) and (B) inform a Third Party that makes a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, as applicable, of the restrictions imposed by the provisions of this Section 6.2 (without conveying, requesting or attempting to gather any other information (except as otherwise specifically permitted hereunder)). Neither the Company nor Parent shall, and each shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, terminate, waive, amend, release or modify in any respect any standstill or other similar provision of any confidentiality agreement to which any of them is a party in connection with a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, respectively, or other proposal, inquiry or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, and shall enforce, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, the provisions of any such confidentiality agreements, including by seeking injunctions to prevent any known breaches of any such agreements and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof, except in each case if such Party's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law.

(b) No-Shop Exception. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 6.2(a), prior to the time, but not after, the Requisite Company Vote (in the case of the Company) or the Requisite Parent Vote (in the case of Parent) is obtained, if (i) the Company receives a bona fide Company Acquisition Proposal, or Parent receives a bona fide Parent Acquisition Proposal, that, in either case, did not result from a breach by such Party or its Subsidiaries or Representatives of this Section 6.2, (ii) the board of directors of such Party determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, as applicable, and (iii) the board of directors of such Party determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law, then, before (but not after) the Requisite Company Vote (in the case of the Company) or the Requisite Parent Vote (in the case of Parent) is obtained, the Company or Parent, as applicable, directly or indirectly through its Representatives, may (A) engage in negotiations or discussions with such Third Party making the Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal and its Representatives regarding a Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal and (B) furnish to such Third Party or its Representatives information, including non-public information, relating to, and afford access to the business, properties, assets, books and records of, such Party and any of its Subsidiaries, pursuant to an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement; provided that such Party shall promptly provide to the other Parties any such information that is provided to any such Third Party which was not previously provided to or made available to such other Parties; provided, further, that such Party and its Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause their respective Representatives to, promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) following the time that such Party's board of directors determines in good faith that such Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent's board of directors) does not constitute and would not reasonably be expected to result in a Company Superior Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, respectively, terminate such negotiations, discussion and information access.

(i) (A) fail to include the Company Recommendation (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Recommendation (in the case of Parent's board of directors) in the Prospectus/Proxy Statement, (B) withhold or withdraw (or directly or indirectly qualify or modify in a manner adverse to the other Parties) the Company Recommendation (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Recommendation (in the case of Parent's board of directors) or its approval of this Agreement or the Merger or publicly propose to do so, (C) make any public recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer other than a recommendation against such offer or a stop, look and listen communication by its board of directors of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act, or fail to recommend against acceptance of such a tender or exchange offer by the close of business on the earlier of (1) the 10th Business Day after the commencement of such tender offer or exchange offer pursuant to Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act and (2) the second Business Day prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Stockholders Meeting (in the case of Parent's board of directors), as the same may be postponed in accordance with Section 6.4(a) (it being understood and agreed that such Party's board of directors may take no position with respect to a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or a Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent's board of directors) that is a tender offer or exchange offer during the period referred to in the applicable of clause (1) and clause (2) without such non-position constituting, in and of itself, an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change), (D) (except as permitted by Section 6.2(d)) adopt, approve, recommend to its stockholders, endorse or otherwise declare advisable any Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent's board of directors) or resolve or agree or publicly propose to take any such actions or (E) other than with respect to a tender offer or exchange offer, fail to publicly reaffirm the Company Recommendation (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Recommendation (in the case of Parent's board of directors) within three Business Days following receipt of a written notice from Parent (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Company (in the case of Parent's board of directors), delivered after a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or a Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent's board of directors) has become publicly known, which notice requests such reaffirmation (or, if earlier, the date that is two Business Days prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or the Parent Stockholders Meeting (in the case of Parent's board of directors), as the same may be postponed in accordance with Section 6.4(a) (each such action set forth in this Section 6.2(c) with respect to the Company's board of directors being referred to herein as an Adverse Company Recommendation Change), and each such action set forth in this Section 6.2(c) with respect to Parent's board of directors being referred to herein as an Adverse Parent Recommendation Change).

(ii) Except as expressly permitted by Section 6.2(d)(y), cause or permit such Party to enter into any Alternative Acquisition Agreement.

(d) Permitted Changes of Recommendation and Permitted Entry into Alternative Acquisition Proposals.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 6.2 to the contrary, if prior to the time, but not after, the Requisite Company Vote (in the case of the Company) or the Requisite Parent Vote (in the case of Parent) is obtained, (i) the Company or Parent receives a bona fide Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or bona fide Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent) that did not result from a breach by the receiving Party of this Section 6.2 and (ii) the board of directors of the receiving Party determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that such Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent) constitutes a Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, respectively, and that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under

Delaware law, then the board of directors of the receiving Party may, after complying with Section 6.2(f), (x) make an Adverse Company Recommendation Change (in the case of the Company) or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change (in the case of Parent) or (y) (1) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.3(a) and pay the Termination Fee (if the receiving party is the Company) or (2) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.4(a) and pay the Reverse Termination Fee (if the receiving party is Parent), in the case of either clause (1) or (2), to enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement with respect to such Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, respectively.

(e) Certain Permitted Disclosure. In addition, nothing contained in this Section 6.2 shall prevent the Company or Parent or either of their boards of directors from (i) taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9, Rule 14e-2(a) and Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any legally required disclosure to stockholders with regard to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (provided that neither the disclosing Party nor its board of directors may effect an Adverse Company Recommendation Change (in the case of the Company) or an Adverse Parent Recommendation Change (in the case of Parent) unless permitted by Section 6.2(d) or Section 6.2(h)) or (ii) issuing a stop, look and listen communication pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that if any disclosure made in reliance on this Section 6.2(e) does not reaffirm the Company Recommendation (in the case of the Company) or Parent Recommendation (in the case of Parent), such disclosure shall be deemed to be an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change, respectively, and, in the case of an Adverse Company Recommendation Change, Parent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement as set forth in Section 8.4(b)(ii), and, in the case of an Adverse Parent Recommendation Change, the Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement as set forth in Section 8.3(b)(ii).

(f) Match Rights. The board of directors of the Company, on the one hand, and the board of directors of Parent, on the other hand, shall not take any action set forth in Section 6.2(d) unless it has first:

(i) caused the Company (in the case of the Company's board of directors) or Parent (in the case of the Parent's board of directors), to provide the other Party at least four Business Days prior written notice of its intent to take either of the actions set forth in clause (x) or clause (y) of Section 6.2(d) (a Notice of Superior Proposal), which notice shall (A) state that the notifying Party has received a Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, as applicable, (B) specify the material terms and conditions of such Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, (C) identify the Person making such Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, and (D) enclose the most recent draft of any agreements intended to be entered into in connection with such Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal (it being understood and agreed that the delivery of the notification contemplated by this clause (i) shall not, in and of itself, constitute an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change);

(ii) caused the notifying Party and its Representatives to negotiate, to the extent the other Party so wishes to negotiate, during such four Business Day period following delivery of the Notice of Superior Proposal (the Notice Period), in good faith with the other Party concerning any revisions to the terms of this Agreement and the Voting Agreement that the other Party wishes to propose in response to such Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal; and

(iii) following the end of the Notice Period, determined in good faith after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal, respectively, after taking into account any changes to which the other Party has committed in writing to make to this Agreement and the Voting Agreement, and that the failure to take an action set forth in clause (x) or clause (y) of Section 6.2(d) would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law; provided, however, that if, during the Notice Period, any revisions are made to the financial or other material terms of the Company Superior Proposal or Parent Superior Proposal that is the subject of such Notice of Superior Proposal, the notifying Party shall deliver to the other Party a new notice describing such revisions (and providing copies of the most recent draft of any agreements implementing such revisions) and shall comply with the requirements of clause (i) and clause (ii) of this Section 6.2(f) (except that the four Business Day Notice Period shall instead be a three Business Day Notice Period).

(g) Notice of Acquisition Proposals. Each of the Company and Parent shall notify the other promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after receipt by such Party (or any of its Representatives) of any Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent), or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent), or any request for information relating to such Party or any of its Subsidiaries or for access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of such Party or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case by any Person that is reasonably likely to be considering or seeking to make, or has made within the 12 months preceding the date of this Agreement, a Company Acquisition Proposal (in the case of the Company) or Parent Acquisition Proposal (in the case of Parent), which notice shall include the material terms and conditions of any such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, copies of any material written communications and draft documentation received relating to such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal and indicating the name of the Person making such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request, and thereafter the notifying Party shall keep the other Party reasonably informed, on a timely basis, of the status and material terms of any such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, proposal, offer or request (including any amendments thereto) and the status of any discussions or negotiations with such Person or its Representatives (without prejudice to the restrictions set forth in Section 6.2(a) and the other provisions of this Section 6.2) and provide copies of all material written communications and draft documentation received relating to such Company Acquisition Proposal or Parent Acquisition Proposal.

(h) Intervening Event. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 6.2(c), the board of directors of the Company, on the one hand, and Parent, on the other hand, may at any time prior to (but not after) obtaining the Requisite Company Vote (in the case of the Company) or the Requisite Parent Vote (in the case of Parent) effect an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change, respectively, if (i) a Company Intervening Event (in the case of the Company) or Parent Intervening Event (in the case of Parent) occurs and (ii) the board of directors of the Company (in the case of a Company Intervening Event) or Parent (in the case of a Parent Intervening Event) determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the failure to effect an Adverse Company Recommendation Change (in the case of the Company) or an Adverse Parent Recommendation Change (in the case of Parent) in response to such Company Intervening Event or Parent Intervening Event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law; provided that the board of directors of the Party in respect of which such Company Intervening Event (in the case of the Company) or Parent Intervening Event (in the case of Parent) has first (x) caused such Party to provide the other Party at least four Business Days prior written notice of its intent to effect such an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change, which shall specify in reasonable detail the circumstances related to such determination, (y) caused such Party and its Representatives to negotiate, to the extent the other Party so wishes to negotiate, during such four Business Day period following delivery of such notice, in good faith with the other Party concerning any revisions to the terms of this Agreement that the other Party wishes to propose in response to such Company Intervening Event or Parent Intervening Event and (z) after complying with clause (x) and clause (y), determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the failure to effect an Adverse Company Recommendation Change (in the case of the Company) or Adverse Parent Recommendation Change (in the case of Parent) in response to such Company Intervening Event or Parent Intervening Event continues to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law after taking into account any changes committed in writing to be made to this Agreement and the Voting Agreement by the other Party.

6.3 Proxy Filing; Information Supplied.

(a) Parent and the Company shall promptly and jointly prepare and file with the SEC the Prospectus/Proxy Statement relating to the Company Stockholder Meeting and the Parent Stockholder Meeting (the Prospectus/Proxy Statement)

Parent and the Company each shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Prospectus/Proxy Statement cleared by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing, and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the S-4 Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after its filing (and keep the S-4 Registration Statement effective for so long as may be necessary to consummate the Merger), and promptly thereafter each of the Company and Parent shall mail their respective Prospectus/Proxy Statement to their respective stockholders. Each of the Parties shall promptly furnish to the other all non-privileged information concerning such Party that is required by applicable Law to be included in the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or the S-4 Registration Statement so as to enable Parent to file the S-4 Registration Statement and the Company and Parent to file the Prospectus/Proxy Statement. Each of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 shall promptly correct any information provided by it or any of its Representatives for use in the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or the S-4 Registration Statement if and to the extent that such information is discovered by Company, Parent, Merger Sub 1 or Merger Sub 2, as applicable, to be or to have become false or misleading in any material respect. Each of the Company and Parent shall, as promptly as practicable after the receipt thereof, provide the other Party with copies of any written comments and advise the other Party of any oral comments with respect to the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or the S-4 Registration Statement received by such Party from the SEC, including any request from the SEC for amendments or supplements thereto, and shall provide the other with copies of all other material or substantive correspondence between it and its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC, on the other hand. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to filing the Prospectus/Proxy Statement and the S-4 Registration Statement or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, each of the Company and Parent shall provide the other Party and its counsel a reasonable opportunity to review such document or response (including the proposed final version of such document or response) and consider in good faith the comments of the other Party in connection with any such document or response. None of the Company, Parent or their respective Representatives shall agree to participate in any material or substantive meeting or conference (including by telephone) with the SEC, or any member of the staff thereof, in respect of the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or the S-4 Registration Statement unless it consults with the other Party in advance and, to the extent permitted by the SEC, allows the other Party to participate. Parent shall advise the Company, promptly after receipt of notice thereof, of the time of effectiveness of the S-4 Registration Statement, and the issuance of any stop order relating thereto or the suspension of the qualification of Parent Shares for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, and each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have any such stop order or suspension lifted, reversed or otherwise terminated.

(b) The Company and Parent each agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it or its Subsidiaries for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the S-4 Registration Statement will, at the time the S-4 Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (ii) the Prospectus/Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to stockholders and at the times of the meeting of stockholders of each of the Company and Parent to be held in connection with the Merger, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company and Parent will cause the S-4 Registration Statement to comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

(c) If at any time prior to the Requisite Company Vote and the Requisite Parent Vote, any information relating to the Company or Parent, or any of their respective Affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by the Company or Parent that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to either of the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or the S-4 Registration Statement, so that either of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the Party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other Party and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall promptly be prepared and filed with the SEC and, to the extent required under applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of each of the Company and Parent.

6.5 Filings; Other Actions; Notification.

(a) Cooperation. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company and Parent shall cooperate with each other and use (and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to use) their respective reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under this Agreement and applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement as soon as practicable, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including filing a Notice and Report Form with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice pursuant to the HSR Act as promptly as reasonably practicable; provided, however, that (i) nothing in this Agreement, including this Section 6.5, will (and reasonable best efforts will in no event) require, or be construed to require, Parent to agree to or take any action (or consent to the Company or any Company Subsidiary agreeing to take, or taking, any action) that would constitute a Burdensome Condition. For purposes of this Agreement, a Burdensome Condition means any terms, conditions, liabilities, obligations or commitments that would obligate or require Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to (A) agree to sell, divest, lease, license, transfer, dispose of or otherwise encumber or hold separate, any assets, licenses, operations, rights, product lines, businesses or interest therein of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries or (B) agree to any material changes (including through a licensing arrangement) or restriction on, or other impairment of Parent's or the Company's ability to own or operate, any assets, licenses, operations, rights, product lines, businesses or interest therein of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries, if doing so cause Parent or the Company to take, or cause to be taken, or commit to take, or commit to cause to be taken, any such action that relates to assets, businesses or product lines of the Company or of Parent representing, in the aggregate, Revenue in excess of $100,000,000. The Company and its Subsidiaries shall not take or agree to any of the actions set forth in clause (A) or clause (B) of the definition of Burdensome Condition without the prior written consent of Parent which, without limiting Parent's obligations under this Section 6.5(b), may be granted or withheld in Parent's sole discretion. To the extent Parent so requests in writing (and solely to the extent of such written request), the Company shall and shall cause its Subsidiaries to proffer, consent and/or agree to any of the matters referred to in clause (A) or clause (B) of the definition of

Burdensome Condition to the extent such proffer, consent or agreement is conditioned on the occurrence of the Effective Time. Nothing in this Agreement shall require, or be construed to require, Parent or any of its Affiliates to defend litigation or any similar proceeding if the United States Department of Justice or the United States Federal Trade Commission authorizes its staff to seek a preliminary injunction or restraining order to enjoin consummation of the Merger. If Parent determines to defend any litigation or similar proceeding brought by the Federal Trade Commission or the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or any state attorney general in connection with their review (if any) of the Merger, Parent will promptly reimburse the Company for any reasonable and documented expenses and costs (including out-of-pocket auditor's and attorney's fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the Company's or its Subsidiaries' or Representatives' involvement therewith. The Company and Parent will each request early termination of the waiting period with respect to the Merger under the HSR Act. The Company shall, at the request of Parent, on a one time basis, (i) agree to extend the waiting period with respect to the Merger under the HSR Act for up to a further 30 days and/or (ii) pull and promptly refile the Notice and Report Forms filed in respect of the Merger. Subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, Parent and the Company shall cooperate in all matters with any Governmental Entity consistent with their obligations hereunder, it being understood that Parent shall have the right to lead such matters; provided that each Party shall permit the other Parties to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each of Parent and the Company will consult with the other on and consider in good faith the views of the other in connection with, any proposed substantive communication to any Governmental Entity in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including all of the information relating to Parent or the Company, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, that appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Prospectus/Proxy Statement). In exercising the foregoing rights, each of the Parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable.

(b) Information. The Company and Parent each shall, upon request by the other, use reasonable best efforts to furnish the other with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Prospectus/Proxy Statement, the S-4 Registration Statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, that the limitations set forth in the provisos to Section 6.7 shall apply to the Company's and Parent's obligations, mutatis mutandis. In addition, each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide the information concerning it necessary to enable the Company and Parent to prepare required pro forma financial statements and related footnotes in connection with the preparation of the Prospectus/Proxy Statement and the S-4 Registration Statement.

(c) Status.

(i) Subject to applicable Law and as required by any Governmental Entity, the Company and Parent each shall keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including promptly furnishing the other with copies of written notices or other communications received by Parent or the Company, as the case may be, or any of its Subsidiaries, from any Governmental Entity with respect to such transactions. The Company and Parent each shall give prompt notice to the other of any change, fact or condition of which it becomes aware that would be reasonably likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect, respectively, or any breach by such Party of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements hereunder that would reasonably be expected to result in the failure of any condition to the other Party's obligations to effect the Merger hereunder. Subject to Section 6.5(a), neither the Company nor Parent shall permit any of its officers or any other representatives or agents to participate in any substantive meeting or discussion with any Governmental Entity in respect of any filings, investigation or other inquiry relating to the transactions contemplated hereby unless it consults with the other Party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Entity, gives the other Party the opportunity to attend and participate thereat.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of Section 6.5(a) or Section 6.5(c)(i), the Company and Parent shall each promptly advise the other Party if it obtains knowledge of (A) any written notice or other written communication from any counterparty to a Contract with regard to any action, consent, approval or waiver that is required to be taken or obtained with respect to such Contract in connection with the consummation of the Merger (and provide a copy thereof) or (B) any written notice or other written communication from any other Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the Merger (and provide a copy thereof). The Company shall notify Parent as promptly as practicable of any written notice or other written communication received after the date of this Agreement from any party to any Material Contract to the effect that such Party has terminated or intends to terminate or otherwise materially adversely modify its relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party's failure to comply with this Section 6.5(c)(ii) (provided that such failure was not in bad faith) shall not constitute a failure of any condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied, or otherwise provide any other Party the right not to effect the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except to the extent that any other provision of this Agreement independently provides such right.

6.6 Taxation.

(a) The Parties intend to adopt this Agreement and the Merger as a plan of reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter to the contrary, each of the Parties shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, use its reasonable best efforts to (i) not take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the treatment of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) cooperate with one another in obtaining the opinion from the Opinion Issuer described in Section 7.3(c). Parent and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to execute and deliver to the counsel of Parent and the Company officer's certificates containing appropriate representations at such time or times as may be reasonably requested by such counsel (each, a Tax Representation Letter) in connection with the delivery of the opinion described in Section 7.3(c) (in each case, only to the extent that Parent or Company, as the case may be, in good faith reasonably believes that it is able to make such representations truthfully).

(b) After the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall cooperate in good faith with respect to Tax matters relevant to integrating their respective Subsidiaries and operations.

6.7 Access and Reports. Subject to applicable Law, upon reasonable notice, the Company shall (and shall cause its Subsidiaries to) afford Parent and Parent's Representatives reasonable access, during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time, to its employees, properties, books, Contracts and records and, during such period, shall (and shall cause its Subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to Parent (a) for each month following the date hereof and the Closing, internally generated unaudited monthly financial statements (in the form typically provided to the Company's management), including cash flow statements and (b) all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as may reasonably be requested, provided that no investigation pursuant to this Section 6.7 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by the Company, Parent, Merger Sub 1 or Merger Sub 2 herein, and provided, further, that the foregoing shall not require the Company (i) to permit any inspection, or to disclose any information, that in the reasonable judgment of the Company would result in the disclosure of any Trade Secrets of third parties or violate any of its obligations with respect to confidentiality if the Company shall have used reasonable best efforts to obtain the consent of such third party to such inspection or disclosure, (ii) to permit any intrusive environmental sampling on any of the properties owned, leased or operated by it or any of its Subsidiaries or (iii) to disclose any privileged information of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.7 to the contrary, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain any consents of third parties that are necessary to permit such access or make such disclosure and shall otherwise use reasonable best efforts to permit such access or disclosure, including pursuant to the use of "clean team" arrangements pursuant to which certain Representatives of Parent could be provided access to any such information. All requests for information made pursuant to this Section 6.7 shall be directed to the general counsel or other Person designated by the Company. All such information shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.8 Stock Exchange Listing and Delisting. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Parent Shares to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date. Prior to the Closing, the Company shall cooperate with Parent and use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under applicable Laws and rules and policies of the NYSE to enable the delisting by the Surviving Corporation of the Company Shares from the NYSE and the deregistration of the Company Shares under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, and in any event no more than 10 calendar days after the Closing Date.

6.9 Publicity. The initial press release regarding the Merger shall be a joint press release, and thereafter, unless an Adverse Company Recommendation Change or an Adverse Parent Recommendation Change shall have occurred, and except with respect to press releases and other public statements in connection with Section 6.2 (to the extent expressly permitted pursuant to Section 6.2), the Company and Parent each shall consult with the other prior to issuing any press releases or otherwise making public announcements with respect to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and prior to making any filings with any third party and/or any Governmental Entity (including any national securities exchange or interdealer quotation service) with respect thereto, except as may be required by Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any national securities exchange or interdealer quotation service or by the request of any Governmental Entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, without prior consultation, each Party (a) may, subject to Section 6.2, communicate information that is not confidential information of any other Party with financial analysts, investors and media representatives in the ordinary course of business and in a manner consistent with its past practice in compliance with applicable Law and (b) may disseminate information included in a press release or other document already approved for external distribution by the other Parties.

6.10 Employee Benefits.

(a) For a period of one year following the Effective Time (the Continuation Period), the Parent will, or will cause the Surviving Corporation (or the Surviving Company) to, provide to each employee who is employed by the Company and its Subsidiaries on the Closing Date (each, a Company Employee) for so long as such Company Employee remains an employee of the Parent or the Surviving Corporation (or the Surviving Company) during the Continuation Period, (i) base salary or regular hourly wage and a target annual cash bonus opportunity that are, in the aggregate, no less favorable than the base salary or regular hourly wage and target annual cash bonus opportunity provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries to such Company Employee immediately before the Effective Time, and (ii) severance, retirement and welfare benefits that are comparable in the aggregate to those provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries to such Company Employee immediately before the Effective Time; provided, however, that the requirements of this sentence shall not apply to Company Employees who are covered by a Company Labor Agreement.

(b) For purposes of vesting, eligibility to participate, benefit entitlement and level of benefits under the Parent Benefit Plans providing benefits to any Company Employees after the Effective Time as required pursuant to Section 6.10(a) (the New Plans), each Company Employee will be credited with his or her years of service with the Company and its Subsidiaries before the Effective Time to the extent such service was recognized by the Company and its Subsidiaries under any similar Company Benefit Plan in which such Company Employee participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Effective Time, except to the extent such credit would result in a duplication of benefits. In addition, to the extent such Company Employee is eligible to participate in a New Plan pursuant to Section 6.10(a), and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts (including by directing its third party insurance providers or third party administrators) to waive any waiting time in any and all New Plans of the same type as any Company Benefit Plans in which such Company Employee participated immediately before the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (such plans, collectively, the Old Plans), and (ii) for purposes of each New Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical and/or vision benefits to any Company Employee, Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements of such New Plan to be waived for such employee and his or her covered dependents, unless such conditions would not have been waived under the comparable plans of the Company or its Subsidiaries in which such employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time. Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company Employee to be given credit, under the applicable New Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical and/or vision benefits, for amounts paid prior to the Effective Time during the year in which the Effective Time occurs under a corresponding Old Plan during the same period for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his or her covered dependents as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the New Plan.

(c) Parent acknowledges that the consummation of the Mergers shall be a change in control for purposes of the Company Benefit Plans and shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation (or Surviving Company) to, honor all employee benefit obligations to current and former employees under the Company Benefit Plans, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Company Benefit Plans set forth on Section 6.10(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter, in accordance with their terms.

(d) If requested in writing by the Parent at least ten Business Days prior to the Effective Time, the Company will take (or cause to be taken) all actions necessary to terminate, effective no later than the Business Day immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Company's 401(k) plan (the Company 401(k) Plan). In the event that Parent requests that the Company 401(k) Plan be terminated, the Company shall provide Parent with evidence that the Company 401(k) Plan has been terminated (the form and substance of which shall be subject to review and approval by Parent) not later than the Business Day immediately preceding the Effective Time. Parent shall permit each eligible Company Employee to become a participant in an eligible retirement plan (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (the Parent 401(k) Plan) and make rollover contributions of eligible rollover distributions (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code, including all participant loans) in cash or notes in an amount equal to the eligible rollover distribution portion of the account balance distributed to each such Company Employee from such plan to the Parent 401(k) Plan.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, will (i) confer upon any Company Employee or any other Person any right to continue in the employ or service of Parent, the Surviving Corporation (or the Surviving Company) or any Affiliate of Parent, or will interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of Parent, the Surviving Corporation (or the Surviving Company) or any Affiliate of Parent, which rights are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge or terminate the services of any Company Employee or any Person at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause, (ii) constitute an amendment to any Company Benefit Plan or any employee benefit or compensation plan of Parent or any of its Affiliates, (iii) obligate Parent, the Surviving Corporation (or the Surviving Company) or any Affiliate of Parent to maintain any particular compensation or benefit plan, program arrangement, policy or contract, or (iv) prevent Parent, the Company, or any of their Affiliates from amending or terminating any of their benefit plans in accordance with their terms. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Section 6.10 will create any third party beneficiary rights in any current or former service provider of the Company or its Affiliates, or any beneficiaries, dependents, or collective bargaining representative thereof, or in any other Person.

6.11 Election to Parent's Board of Directors. Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent shall increase the size of its board of directors in order to cause four current members of the Company's board of directors who will be identified by the Company between the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date (the New Parent Directors) to be appointed to Parent's board of directors on the Closing Date in director classes to be agreed by the Parties between the date hereof and the Closing Date and, subject to fiduciary obligations under applicable Law, shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such individuals to be elected to the board of directors of Parent in accordance with Parent's certificate of incorporation or by-laws or other governing documents at the first annual meeting of stockholders of Parent at which such director is eligible for election with a proxy mailing date after the Effective Time. If the Board Size Charter Amendment is not duly approved by the holders of Parent Shares at a stockholders meeting duly called and held for such purpose, at the Effective Time Parent shall cause a sufficient number of members of Parent's board of directors to resign as directors of Parent so as to allow all of the New Parent Directors to be appointed to Parent's board of directors.

6.12 Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the Party incurring such expense, except (a) that expenses incurred in connection with the filing fee for the S-4 Registration Statement and printing and mailing the Prospectus/Proxy Statement and the S-4 Registration Statement shall be shared equally by Parent and the Company and (b) as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement.

6.13 Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance. (a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent will and will cause the Surviving Corporation to (including by Parent providing sufficient funds to the Surviving Corporation or the applicable Subsidiary) indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and each other Person who, at the request or for the benefit of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, is or was previously serving as a director or officer, MLP employee or fiduciary of any other Person or any benefit plan of the Company or any benefit plan of any of the Company's Subsidiaries (in each case, when acting in such capacity), determined as of the Effective Time (the Indemnified Parties), from and against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, penalties, amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges) or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent that the Company or the applicable Subsidiary of the Company would have been permitted under Delaware law and under its certificate of incorporation or by-laws or other governing documents in effect on the date of this Agreement to indemnify such Person (and Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall also advance fees, costs and expenses (including attorney's fees and disbursements) as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, provided the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined by a final and nonappealable judicial determination that such Person is not entitled to indemnification hereunder or thereunder).

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 6.13, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify Parent thereof, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve Parent or the Surviving Corporation of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party except to the extent such failure materially prejudices the indemnifying party.

(c) For six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect provisions in the Surviving Corporation's certificate of incorporation and by-laws (or in such documents of any successor to the business of the Surviving Corporation (including, for clarity the Surviving Company, if applicable)) regarding elimination of liability of directors, indemnification of directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries and agents and advancement of fees, costs and expenses that are no less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries than the corresponding provisions in existence on the date of this Agreement. From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to honor and comply with their respective obligations under any indemnification agreement with any Indemnified Party in effect as of (and disclosed to Parent prior to) the date hereof, and not amend, repeal or otherwise modify any such agreement in any manner that would adversely affect any right of any Indemnified Party thereunder

(d) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall, and if the Company is unable to, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation as of the Effective Time to, obtain and fully pay for tail insurance policies (providing only for the Side A coverage for Indemnified Parties where the existing policies also include Side B coverage for the Company) with a claims period of at least six years from and after the Effective Time with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the Effective Time from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the Company's current insurance carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance (collectively, D&O Insurance) with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the Indemnified Parties than the Company's existing policies with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby); provided, however, that in no event shall the Company expend for such policies a premium amount in excess of the amount set forth in Section 6.13(d) of the Company Disclosure Letter. If the Company and the Surviving Corporation for any reason fail to obtain such tail insurance policies as of the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, continue to maintain in effect for a period of at least six years from and after the Effective Time the D&O Insurance in place as of the date of this Agreement with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the Indemnified Parties than that provided in the Company's existing policies as of the date of this Agreement, or the Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, use reasonable best efforts to purchase comparable D&O Insurance for such six-year period with benefits and levels of coverage at least as favorable to the Indemnified Parties as provided in the Company's existing policies as of the date of this Agreement), provided, however, that in no event shall Parent or the Surviving Corporation be required to expend for such policies an annual premium amount in excess of 300% of the annual premiums currently paid by the Company for such insurance; and, provided further that if the annual premium of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, the Surviving Corporation shall obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding such amount.

(e) If Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Corporation (including, for clarity, the Surviving Company, if applicable) shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 6.13.

(f) The provisions of this Section 6.13 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties.

(g) The rights of the Indemnified Parties under this Section 6.13 shall be in addition to any rights such Indemnified Parties may have under the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or under any applicable Contracts or Laws.

6.14 Company Debt Arrangements.

(a) From the date hereof through the Effective Time, at Parent's written request, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cooperate with, and provide all reasonable assistance to, Parent in connection with any steps Parent may, in its sole discretion, determine are necessary or desirable to take in order for Parent to terminate, retire or repay, effective at or after the Effective Time, some or all amounts outstanding under or commitments issued pursuant to any or all Company Credit Agreements, which cooperation and assistance shall include, arranging for the repayment or prepayment by Parent or any of Parent's Subsidiaries of any amounts outstanding under any Company Credit Agreement on or after the Closing Date (and in connection therewith, obtaining the termination of all commitments under and the release of all guarantees and liens with respect thereto), provided that the consummation of any such repayment or prepayment shall be contingent upon the occurrence of the Merger unless otherwise agreed by the Company.

(b) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to timely make all notices, and timely take all such other actions, required to be made by it pursuant to each Company Credit Agreement in connection with this Agreement and/or any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) All documentation prepared by the Company, the Company's Subsidiaries and/or the Representatives of any of the foregoing in connection with this Section 6.14 shall be subject to the prior review, comment and approval of Parent.

(d) This Section 6.14 shall be subject to Sections 6.17(a), 6.17(b) and 6.17(c).

6.15 Other Actions by the Company and Parent.

(a) Takeover Statute. If any Takeover Statute is or may become applicable to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Voting Agreement, each of Parent and the Company and

The Stockholder does not Beneficially Own or own of record any Company Shares other than the Existing Shares. The Stockholder has, and will have at the time of each Company Stockholders Meeting occurring prior to the Merger with respect to the matters covered by Section 1(a), the sole right to vote and direct the vote of, and to dispose of and direct the disposition of, the Subject Shares, and none of the Subject Shares is subject to any agreement, arrangement or restriction with respect to the Subject Shares that would prevent or delay the Stockholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 enforceable against Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 in accordance with its terms, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception. Other than as provided in the Merger Agreement and any filings by Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 with the SEC, the execution, delivery and performance by Parent, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 of this Agreement does not require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, action by, filing with or notification to any Governmental Entity, other than any consent, approval, authorization, permit, action, filing or notification the failure of which to make or obtain would not, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to prevent or materially delay the consummation of the Merger.

14. Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE INTERPRETED, CONSTRUED AND GOVERNED BY AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THEREOF TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH PRINCIPLES WOULD HAVE THE EFFECT OF APPLYING THE LAWS OF, OR DIRECTING A MATTER TO, ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(b) The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and the Federal courts of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware solely in respect of the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement and the Merger Agreement and of the documents referred to in this Agreement and the Merger Agreement, and in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and hereby waive, and agree not to assert, as a defense in any action, suit or proceeding for the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement or of any such document, that it is not subject thereto or that such action, suit or proceeding may not be brought or is not maintainable in said courts or that the venue thereof may not be appropriate or that this Agreement, the Merger Agreement or any such document may not be enforced in or by such courts, and the parties hereto irrevocably agree that all claims relating to such action, proceeding or transactions shall be heard and determined in such a Delaware State or Federal court. 15. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT. Members of the Board of Directors:

We understand that Marathon Petroleum Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), intends to enter into a transaction (the Proposed Transaction) with Andeavor, a Delaware corporation (Andeavor), pursuant to which (i) Mahi Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub 1), will merge with and into Andeavor, with Andeavor being the surviving corporation, and, immediately thereafter, Mahi LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub 2), will merge with Andeavor (as the surviving corporation of the first merger), with Merger Sub 2 being the ultimate surviving entity); and (ii) each of the shares of common stock of Andeavor, par value \$0.16 $\frac{2}{3}$ per share (the Andeavor Shares), issued and outstanding (other than Appraisal Shares (as defined in the Agreement (as defined below)), Andeavor Shares owned by the Company, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2 or any other direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and Andeavor Shares owned by Andeavor or any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of Andeavor, and in each case not held on behalf of third parties) shall be converted into, and become exchangeable for, subject to certain proration, allocation, election and adjustment procedures (as to which we express no view or opinion) set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger to be entered into by and among the Company, Andeavor, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 (the Agreement), either of the following: (a) \$152.27 in cash per Andeavor Share (the Cash Consideration); or (b) 1.870 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of common stock, par value \$0.01 per share, of the Company (the Marathon Shares) per Andeavor Share (the Stock Consideration and, the aggregate Stock Consideration together with the aggregate Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration), in the case of each of clause (a) and (b), without interest. The terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction are set forth in more detail in the Agreement. The summary of the Proposed Transaction set forth above is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement.

We have been requested by the Board of Directors of the Company to render our opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Company of the Merger Consideration to be paid by the Company in the Proposed Transaction. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Proposed Transaction or the likelihood of consummation of the Proposed Transaction. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Proposed Transaction as compared to any other transaction or business strategy in which the Company might engage. In addition, we express no opinion on, and our opinion does not in any manner address (i) the fairness of the amount or the nature of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Proposed Transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration to be offered to the holders of Andeavor Shares in the Proposed Transaction or otherwise; (ii) the allocation of the Merger Consideration as among holders of Andeavor Shares who receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration; or (iii) the relative fairness of the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration.

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed and analyzed: (1) a draft of the Agreement, dated as of April 29, 2018, and the specific terms of the Proposed Transaction; (2) a draft of a Voting and Support Agreement, dated as of April 29, 2018, by and among the Company, Andeavor, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2, on the one hand, and Paul L. In addition, we have had discussions with the management of the Company and Andeavor concerning their respective business, operations, assets, liabilities, financial condition and prospects and have undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by us without any independent verification of such information (and have not assumed responsibility or liability for any independent verification of such information) and have further relied upon the assurances of the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. Upon the advice and at the direction of the Company, we have assumed that the Company Projections have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the financial performance of the Company and its operating segments and that the Company will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. With respect to the Andeavor Projections, upon the advice and at the direction of the Company, we have assumed that such projections (to the extent prepared by Andeavor) have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Andeavor as to the financial performance of Andeavor and its operating segments. With respect to the Adjusted Andeavor Projections, upon the advice and at the direction of the Company, we have assumed that such projections have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the financial performance of Andeavor and that Andeavor and its operating segments will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. With respect to the Company Price Deck, upon the advice and at the direction of the Company, we have assumed that such forecast reflects the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company. With respect to the Expected Synergies, upon the advice and at the direction of the Company, we have assumed that the Expected Synergies have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company, including as to the amount, timing and cost of realization and will be realized in accordance with such estimates. We have relied, at the direction of the Company, on the Company Projections, the Andeavor Projections, the Adjusted Andeavor Projections, the Company Price Deck, and the Expected Synergies, and we assume no responsibility for and we express no view as to the estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. In arriving at our opinion, we have not conducted a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of the Company or those of Andeavor and have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of the Company or those of Andeavor. Our opinion necessarily is based upon market, economic, regulatory and other conditions as they exist on, and can be evaluated as of, the date of this letter. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on events or circumstances that may occur after the date of this letter. In addition, we express no opinion as to the prices at which (i) the Marathon Shares or Andeavor Shares will trade at any time following the announcement of the Proposed Transaction or (ii) the Marathon Shares will trade at any time following the consummation of the Proposed Transaction. Our opinion should not be viewed as providing any assurance that the market value of the Marathon Shares to be held by the stockholders of the Company after the consummation of the Proposed Transaction will be in excess of the market value of the shares of the Marathon Shares owned by such stockholders at any time prior to the announcement or consummation of the Proposed Transaction.

We have assumed that the executed Agreement will conform in all material respects to the last draft reviewed by us. In addition, we have assumed the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all agreements related thereto. We have also assumed, upon the advice of the Company, that all governmental, regulatory and third party approvals, consents and releases for the Proposed Transaction, that in each case are material to our analyses and this opinion, will be obtained within the constraints contemplated by the Agreement and that the Proposed Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof or change in any applicable law. We do not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the Proposed Transaction, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that the Company has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that, the Merger Consideration to be paid by the Company in the Proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon rendering this opinion and a substantial portion of which is payable and contingent upon the consummation of the Proposed Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement.

We and our affiliates have performed various investment banking and financial services for the Company and Andeavor and their respective affiliates in the past, and expect to perform such services in the future, and have received, and expect to receive, customary fees for such services. respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We have assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or MPC or on the expected benefits of the Transaction in any way meaningful to our analysis. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to our analysis.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction, or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company; nor does it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. We were not requested to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from other parties with respect to an acquisition of, or other business combination with, the Company or any other alternative transaction. This opinion addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders (other than MPC and its affiliates) of Shares, as of the date hereof, of the Aggregate Consideration to be paid to such holders pursuant to the Agreement. We do not express any view on, and our opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the Agreement or Transaction or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the Transaction, including, the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of the Company; nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company, or class of such persons, in connection with the Transaction, whether relative to the Aggregate Consideration to be paid to the holders (other than MPC and its affiliates) of Shares pursuant to the Agreement or otherwise. We are not expressing any opinion as to the prices at which shares of MPC Common Stock will trade at any time or as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Company or MPC or the ability of the Company or MPC to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof and we assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming this opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Shares should vote or make any election with respect to such Transaction or any other matter. This opinion has been approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Aggregate Consideration to be paid to the holders (other than MPC and its affiliates) of Shares pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Very truly yours,

General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, Section 262

§ 262 Appraisal rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title and, subject to paragraph (b)(3) of this section, § 251(h) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, except as expressly provided in § 363(b) of this title, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 251(h), § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation contemplated by § 363(a) of this title, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by § 363(b) of this title, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation," and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" and/or "surviving or resulting corporation."

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the provisions of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d), (e), and (g) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than

20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. If immediately before the merger or consolidation the shares of the class or series of stock of the constituent corporation as to which appraisal rights are available were listed on a national securities exchange, the Court shall dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of such shares who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of the class or series eligible for appraisal, (2) the value of the consideration provided in the merger or consolidation for such total number of shares exceeds $1 million, or (3) the merger was approved pursuant to § 253 or § 267 of this title.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, and except as provided in this subsection, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. At any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, the surviving corporation may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount in cash, in which case interest shall accrue thereafter as provided herein only upon the sum of (1) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, and (2) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(1) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

Table of ContentsPART II*Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the DGCL empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the rights of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person. The statute provides that it is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

The MPC bylaws contain provisions that provide for indemnification of officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by, and in the manner permissible under, applicable state and federal law, including the DGCL.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its charter that a director of the corporation will not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) for payments of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions, or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The MPC certificate of incorporation provides for such limitation of liability.

MPC expects to maintain standard policies of insurance under which coverage is provided to MPC's directors and officers against loss arising from claims made by reason of breach of duty or other wrongful act and to MPC with respect to payments which may be made by MPC to such directors and officers pursuant to the above indemnification provision or otherwise as a matter of law.

In the merger agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, MPC agrees, in addition to its existing indemnification obligations under the MPC governing documents, to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries and each other person who, at the request or for the benefit of Andeavor or any of its subsidiaries, is or was previously serving as a director or officer, Andeavor Logistics employee or fiduciary of any other person or any benefit plan of Andeavor or any benefit plan of any of Andeavor's subsidiaries, determined at the effective time, from and against any costs or expenses (including reasonably attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, penalties, amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges) or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the first merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the first merger, to the fullest extent that Andeavor or the applicable subsidiary of Andeavor would have been permitted under Delaware law and under its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other governing documents in effect on April 29, 2018 to indemnify such person. The merger agreement also provides that prior to the effective time, MPC or Andeavor is required to obtain and fully pay for a six-year tail insurance policy with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the indemnified parties than Andeavor's existing policies, subject to a premium cap. If MPC and Andeavor fail to obtain such tail insurance policies as of the effective time of the first merger, the surviving entity in the merger will (and MPC will cause the surviving entity in the merger to) continue to maintain in effect for a period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the first merger the Andeavor D&O insurance in place as of April 29, 2018 with benefits and levels of coverage no less favorable in any material respect to the indemnified parties than that provided in Andeavor's existing policies as of April 29, 2018, subject to a premium cap.

For more information on the indemnification and directors' and officers' insurance provisions in the merger agreement, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that forms a part of this Registration Statement on Form S-4.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant;
and

any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.
- (d) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
- (f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

- (g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
