each right of any kind, contingent or accrued, to acquire or receive Company Common Stock or benefits measured by the value of Company Common Stock, and each Company Award (as defined in the Merger Agreement) will be cancelled and converted into a vested right to receive (pursuant to the applicable plan, agreement, or arrangement) an amount of cash equal to (a) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Award immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (b) the Offer Price (without interest thereon and minus any required tax deductions or withholding); and the Company will terminate the Versar, Inc. 2005 Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan, and each share of Company Common Stock held in a participant's account thereunder will be converted into an amount of cash equal to the Offer Price (without interest thereon and minus any required tax deductions or withholding).

As of the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and the holders immediately prior to the Effective Date of shares of Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Offer Price (without interest thereon and subject to any applicable withholding taxes) upon surrender of such shares or certificates representing such shares.

Merger Closing Conditions

In addition to the conditions to the Offer described above, the obligations of the parties to consummate the Merger are subject to (a) Merger Sub having accepted for payment, or having caused to be accepted for payment, all Company Common Stock validly tendered and not withdrawn in the Offer (subject to certain exceptions), and (b) the absence of any law, statute, ordinance, code, rule, regulation, ruling, decree, judgment, injunction, or order of a governmental authority that enjoins, restrains, prevents, or prohibits the consummation of the Merger or makes the consummation of the Merger illegal.

No-Shop Provisions

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed to certain customary "no solicitation" restrictions on its ability to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate discussions or negotiations regarding acquisition proposals from third parties and on its ability to furnish any third party with non-public material information in connection with an acquisition proposal and has, subject to certain exceptions, agreed to cease any current discussions and negotiations with third parties for the purpose of facilitating competing acquisition proposals. These restrictions will continue until the earlier to occur of the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to its terms and the Effective Time. The no solicitation provision is subject to a “fiduciary out” that permits the Company, under certain circumstances and in compliance with certain obligations, to terminate the Merger Agreement and accept a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) upon payment to Parent of the termination fee discussed below.

Termination; Termination Fees and Parent Expenses

Prior to the acceptance of Company Common Stock by Purchaser in the Offer, the Company’s Board of Directors may, among other things, change its recommendation that the Company’s stockholders accept the Offer and tender their Company Common Stock in the Offer in connection with a material event or development that was not known by the Company’s Board of Directors as of the date of the Merger Agreement (provided such event or development does not relate to a third-party takeover proposal) or if known, the magnitude or material consequences of which were not known by the Company’s Board of Directors as of the date of the Merger Agreement, subject to complying with the procedures in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement also contains certain customary termination rights for both the Company and Parent, including, among others, if the Offer is not consummated on or before December 26, 2017 or if the Offer is terminated or withdrawn pursuant to its terms without any of the Company Common Stock being purchased thereunder. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances, the Company has agreed to pay Parent a termination fee of $350,000. In addition, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances, including in the event of a termination by the Company in order to accept a Superior Proposal, the Company has agreed to pay to Parent a termination fee equal to $625,000. If the Company does not file a Schedule 14D-9 within five (5) Business Days of Parent’s filing of the documents to commence the Offer with the SEC, the Company will reimburse Parent for its reasonable and scheduled expenses in an amount not to exceed $250,000; however, the Company will not pay this amount if the Company has already paid the above-referenced termination fee.

Other Terms

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of the parties customary for a transaction of this type, including, without limitation, covenants regarding the conduct of the business of the Company.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The representations and warranties of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of Parent and Merger Sub. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement; (ii) have been qualified by documents filed with, or furnished to, the SEC by the Company prior to the date of the Merger Agreement (but excluding any risk factor disclosure under the headings “Risk Factors” or “Forward Looking Statements”); (iii) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to Parent and Merger Sub in connection with the Merger Agreement; (iv) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors; (v) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement; and (vi) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk among the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or its business. Investors should not rely on the representations and warranties or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that has been, is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q, Forms 8-K, tender offer documents, proxy statements, and other documents that the Company files with the SEC from time to time.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document and the exhibits filed herewith contain forward-looking statements with respect to the Company, Kingswood and the Transactions, including the benefits expected from the Transactions and the expected timing of their completion. Actual results may differ materially from these expectations. When used in this document, the words "can," "will," "intends," "expects," "is expected," similar expressions and any other statements that are not historical facts are intended to identify those assertions as forward-looking statements. Such statements are based on a number of assumptions that could ultimately prove inaccurate, and are subject to a number of risk factors, including uncertainties regarding the timing of the closing of the Transactions, uncertainties as to how many stockholders of the Company may tender their stock in the Offer, the possibility that a governmental entity may prohibit, delay or refuse to grant approval for the consummation of the Transactions, and general economic and business conditions. Factors that could cause actual results of the Transactions to differ materially include the following: the risk of failing to obtain any regulatory approvals or satisfy conditions to the Transactions, the risk that Kingswood is unable to obtain adequate financing, the risk that the Transactions will not close or that closing will be delayed, the risk that the Company's businesses will suffer due to uncertainty related to the Transactions, the competitive environment in our industry and competitive responses to the Transactions as well as risk factors set forth above. Further information on factors that could affect the Company's financial results is provided in documents filed by the Company with the SEC, including the Company's recent filings on Form 10-Q and Form 10-K.

Accordingly, no assurances can be given as to whether the Transactions will be completed or if any of the other events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will occur or what impact they will have. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement and neither the Company nor Kingswood assumes any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.
