Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 24, 2009, Illumina, Inc. (the "Company") announced that its board of directors has approved a new stock repurchase program authorizing the Company to repurchase in the aggregate up to $75 million of its outstanding common stock through the end of calendar year 2009. This new program replaces the Company's $120 million repurchase program announced on October 24, 2008, which was terminated after the repurchase of $70.7 million of common stock in 2008.

Under the new program, the Company may repurchase shares through a trading plan pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. A Rule 10b5-1 trading plan generally allows a company to repurchase its shares at times when it otherwise might be prevented from doing so under insider trading laws or self-imposed blackout periods. The Company expects that repurchases will be funded from existing cash balances.

By an agreement dated August 24, 2009, the Company appointed Goldman, Sachs & Co. as its agent to effect repurchases pursuant to this new program of up to 1,500,000 shares of common stock. Under that agreement, the Company may repurchase shares in open-market transactions, as permitted under Rule 10b-18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or through privately negotiated transactions. There is no guarantee as to the exact number of shares that will be repurchased under the new repurchase program, and the Company may terminate the program at any time, subject to the restrictions of Rule 10b5-1.
