Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Information set forth under Item 2.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On May 31, 2011, Ferro Corporation (the "Company") and certain of its subsidiaries extended the Company's $50.0 million trade receivables securitization facility (the "Receivables Securitization Facility") by entering into (a) a First Amendment to Purchase Agreement (the "PA Amendment"), dated as of May 31, 2011, between the Company and Ferro Pfanstiehl Laboratories, Inc. ("FPL"), which amended that certain Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 2, 2009, between the Company and FPL, (b) a First Amendment to Purchase and Contribution Agreement (the "PCA Amendment"), dated as of May 31, 2011, between the Company and Ferro Finance Corporation, a wholly-owned, bankruptcy-remote special purpose subsidiary of the Company ("FFC"), which amended that certain Purchase and Contribution Agreement, dated as of June 2, 2009, between the Company and FFC, and (c) an Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement (the "RPA"), dated as of May 31, 2011, among FFC, the Company, Market Street Funding, LLC (the "Market Street"), and PNC Bank, National Association, as Agent and LC Bank ("PNC"). In connection with the extension of the Receivables Securitization Facility, Market Street and PNC assumed rights and obligations of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. arising under the Company's receivables securitization program as in effect prior to May 31, 2011.

Pursuant to the Receivables Securitization Facility, FPL sells trade receivables and certain related rights ("Receivables") to the Company. The Company then sells or contributes, as the case may be, to FFC the Company's Receivables and Receivables acquired from FPL. FFC finances its purchases of Receivables from the Company by selling interests in the Receivables to the various purchasers party to the Receivables Securitization Facility (the "Purchasers"). In exchange for the Receivables interests sold to the Purchasers, FFC may obtain up to $50.0 million in the form of cash or letters of credit for the benefit of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Receivables Securitization Facility will expire on May 30, 2012.

Advances under the Receivables Securitization Facility will accrue yield based on (i) commercial paper rates of the Purchasers, (ii) LIBOR rates, and/or, (iii) if commercial paper rates will not apply and LIBOR rates are not then available, at the discretion of PNC, the federal funds rate plus 0.5% or the prime rate announced by PNC.

The Receivables Securitization Facility contains customary representations and warranties and customary affirmative and negative covenants. It also contains customary termination provisions which permit the Purchasers to terminate the Receivables Securitization Facility upon the occurrence of certain specified events, including, but not limited to, failure by FFC to pay amounts when due, defaults on indebtedness, certain judgments, a change of control, certain events negatively affecting the overall credit quality of transferred Receivables and bankruptcy and insolvency events.

The transactions contemplated by the Receivables Securitization Facility do not constitute a form of off-balance sheet financing. For accounting purposes, FFC is included in the Company's consolidated financial statements, and the transactions on a consolidated basis will be treated as a secured borrowing.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the PA Amendment, the PCA Amendment, and the RPA, which are attached as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
