Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed in American Apparel, Inc.'s (the "Company") Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2011, the Company received a subpoena from the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in August 2010 for documents relating to the SEC's investigation surrounding the change in the Company's registered independent accounting firm and the Company's financial reporting and internal controls. The Company also received a subpoena in May 2011 from the SEC for documents relating to a complaint filed by a former employee with the Occupational Safety & Health Administration in November 2010 that contains allegations regarding, inter alia, the Company's policies with respect to and accounting of foreign currency transactions and transfer pricing.

The Company cooperated fully with the subpoenas and investigation, and on January 9, 2012, the Company received a letter from the SEC's Los Angeles regional office stating that its investigation was completed, and that it did not intend to recommend any enforcement action against the Company to the Commission.
