Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Agreement

On August 26, 2016, LP entered into Agreements with the issuers of the Notes Receivable from Asset Sales (Notes Receivable), due May through October 2018, to provide for the acceleration of the collection of these to November 2016. The Notes Receivable associated with these agreements total $410.0 million. The form of this agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

LP issued $368.7 million of non-recourse notes payable (Notes Payable) in 2003 in a private placement to unrelated third parties. These notes mature in February 2018. The notes are supported by a bank letter of credit. LP's reimbursement obligations under the letter of credit are secured by $410.0 million in Notes Receivable. Concurrent with entering into the acceleration agreement, LP gave a binding notice to the trustee for the note holder that LP will pay the $368.7 million plus accrued interest upon receipt of the proceeds for the Notes Receivable.

This transaction allows LP to accelerate the receipt of $41.3 million of cash, eliminate the timing difference between the Note Payable and Notes Receivable and realize a minor tax benefit. This transaction will accelerate the taxable income associated with the Notes Receivable, which has been previously deferred to 2018, into the fourth quarter of 2016. LP estimates taxes due to the acceleration to be $120.8 million. As of December 31, 2015, LP had $73.4 million of available federal loss carryover benefit to offset a portion of LP's 2016 tax liability.

We do not anticipate that this transaction will have a material impact on LP's Consolidated Statement of Income. This transaction will reduce the Notes Receivable by $410.0 million and reduce the Notes Payable by $368.7 million and increase cash by $41.3 million.
