Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Beginning with the fourth quarter of 2004, American Express Company (the "Company") intends to enhance the presentation used in connection with the reporting of certain financial information relating to its three segments - Travel Related Services ("TRS"), American Express Financial Advisors ("AEFA") and American Express Bank ("AEB"). For TRS, the Company intends to expand the presentation of the Other Operating Expenses line item reflected in TRS results of operations to further detail the components thereof. For AEFA, the Company intends to expand the AEFA Statement of Income to disclose (i) revenue and provision expense information with respect to certain products and lines of business, (ii) additional information regarding Human Resource expenses and (iii) Amortization of Deferred Acquisition Costs (which historically had been included in the Human Resources and Other Operating Expenses line items). For AEB, the Company intends to expand the reporting of Selected Statistical Information to provide additional information as to the characteristics of its loan portfolio and related loan loss reserves, in particular to provide more information with respect to the loan portfolios and related loan loss reserves of Consumer Financial Services (formerly known as Personal Financial Services) and other AEB loans, and to provide enhanced disclosure with respect to AEB's owned, managed and administered assets. The Company intends to utilize this enhanced presentation in its future financial reporting. The changes in presentation described above will have no impact on TRS's, AEFA's or AEB's respective total revenues, total expenses or net income or on their respective total assets or total liabilities. Separately, an AEFA reclassification, relating to certain Threadneedle activities ($30 million in the fourth quarter 2003 and $26 million in the second quarter 2004), reducing Human Resources-Field expenses and Investment Management and Service Fees revenue has also been reflected.

Financial and statistical information reflecting the changes described above at and for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003 and the quarters ended March 31, June 30, September 30, 2003 and 2004 and December 31, 2003, is furnished herein in Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
