Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 18, 2013 (dateline: April 19, 2013, Wellington, New Zealand), the Company issued a press release announcing that the New Zealand Cabinet has authorized the New Zealand Ministry of Defence (the "MoD") to enter into an approximately $120 million contract with the Company's indirect subsidiary, Kaman Aerospace Corporation ("KAC"), for the purchase of ten SH-2G(I) Super Seasprite aircraft, spare parts, a full mission flight simulator, and related logistics support. The MoD and KAC expect to execute definitive contract arrangements in the next few weeks. KAC anticipates the contract will call for the aircraft to be delivered over an approximately three-year period with revenue recognition beginning in 2013. A copy of the Company's press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference in response to this Item 8.01.

Forward Looking Statements

This report includes "forward looking statements" concerning a potential business transaction, its anticipated financial and business impact, and management's beliefs and objectives with respect thereto, based on assumptions currently believed to be valid. These statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from those anticipated, including but not limited to the ability of the parties to negotiate mutually acceptable definitive contract arrangements, the potential timing of such arrangements, and the ability of the parties to secure any necessary governmental or regulatory approvals of the terms desired or anticipated. Other important economic, political, regulatory, legal, technological, competitive and other uncertainties are identified in the SEC filings submitted by the Company from time to time, including Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K. The forward looking statements included in this report are made only as of the date hereof, and the Company does not undertake any obligation to update the forward looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
