On March 9, 2012, Entergy Corporation (“Entergy”), as borrower, entered into a credit agreement (the “Entergy Credit Agreement”), with the banks named therein (the “Banks”), Citibank, N.A., as Administrative Agent and LC Issuing Bank (“Citibank”), JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, Mizuho Corporate Bank, LTD, The Bank of Nova Scotia, the Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, LTD, Union Bank, N.A, as LC Issuing Banks and, the other LC Issuing Banks from time to time parties thereto (collectively, the “LC Issuing Banks”). The Entergy Credit Agreement provides Entergy with a five-year, $3.5 billion unsecured revolving credit and letter of credit facility which may be increased up to $4 billion at Entergy’s request. $1.75 billion of the facility is available for the issuance of letters of credit. Borrowings under the facility mature and are payable on the termination date for the facility, March 9, 2017. The term of the Entergy Credit Agreement and the maturity date of borrowings thereunder may be extended in one year increments no more than two times at Entergy’s request and upon the satisfaction of certain conditions. As of March 9, 2012, there were $1.605 billion of loans outstanding and $8 million of letters of credit issued under the Entergy Credit Agreement. Proceeds from the facility were applied to the repayment of the amounts outstanding under Entergy’s then-existing credit facility.

The Entergy Credit Agreement contains certain customary covenants, including restrictions on Entergy and its subsidiaries from pledging their assets and restrictions on certain asset sales, excluding the disposition of Entergy’s and its subsidiaries’ transmission business to ITC Holdings Corp (the “ITC Transaction”). The facility has a variable interest rate, which is currently 2.14% and a commitment fee, which is currently 0.275% of the undrawn commitment amount. The commitment fee and interest rate fluctuate depending on the senior unsecured debt rating of Entergy. Entergy’s obligations under the Entergy Credit Agreement may be accelerated upon an event of default, which includes non-payment of principal or interest, breach of representation or warranty, breach of covenant, cross-default, bankruptcy, material judgments, ERISA events and a change of control.

The foregoing description of the Entergy Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Entergy Credit Agreement filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated into this Item 2.03 by reference.
