SECTION 2 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On December 20, 2012, NextEra Energy Capital Holdings, Inc. (NEECH), a wholly-owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy, Inc. (NEE), entered into a $200 million variable rate term loan agreement with a maturity date in June 2014 and has borrowed the entire amount under the loan agreement. Interest on the loan is based on the applicable London InterBank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus a specified margin, with payments being due at the end of rate periods which can range from one to three months, as selected by NEECH. The loan is guaranteed by NEE pursuant to a 1998 guarantee agreement. The loan agreement contains default and related acceleration provisions relating to the failure to make required payments, failure by NEE to maintain a ratio of funded debt to total capitalization at or below a stated ratio, and certain bankruptcy-related events relating to NEECH or NEE, as well as other covenants applicable to NEECH and/or NEE. The proceeds from the loan will be used for general corporate purposes.

On December 21, 2012, Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) entered into a $300 million variable rate term loan agreement with a maturity date in June 2014 and has borrowed the entire amount under the loan agreement. Interest on the loan is based on the applicable LIBOR plus a specified margin, with payments being due at the end of rate periods which can range from one to three months, as selected by FPL. The loan agreement contains default and related acceleration provisions relating to the failure to make required payments, failure by FPL to maintain a ratio of funded debt to total capitalization at or below a stated ratio, and certain bankruptcy-related events relating to FPL, as well as other covenants applicable to FPL. The proceeds from the loan will be used for general corporate purposes.
